Elsinore Citizens Launch Campaign To Elect Negro Councilman Sunday

Townsend Will Be 14th District Candidate

Attorney Vince Monroe Townsend, Jr., candidate for Congress from the 14th Congressional District, reached a new high in his congressional drive when he was named, by unanimous vote, the Community Unity Candidate, by the United Citizens Congressional Committee for the 14th Congressional District, which was organized approximately six weeks ago at the Crystal Tea Room for the purpose of unifying and solidifying the entire community around a single candidate, to insure election of a candidate from this community to Congress in the primaries.

The selection was made at the regular weekly meeting of the over-all body of the Unity Committee, which met on Thursday, March 2nd, at the Fraternal Hall, 2711 South San Pedro street. The formal announcement and presentation of Mr. Townsend to the community was made at a banquet meeting held at the

Giddings Pharmacy Moves

The Giddings Professional Pharmacy moved into its new location on the southwest corner of 41st street and Central avenue, 4075 South Central, in the California Eagle building, this week.

The store has been completely remodeled, refurnished, and restocked, and the prescription laboratory is complete in every detail.

Giddings is one of the most completely outfitted drug dispensaries on the East Side. The location was made in order to offer their customers better and more efficient service. Prescriptions are filled by a registered pharmacist of experience.

A Threat to Liberty

The American Legion and American hate groups are being counted on by Senator Karl Mundt to whip up public pressure for passage of his police state bill.

Disguising his planned assault on the liberty of the American people as a curb on Communism, Mundt is working with haste in order to get Senate action before the public learns too much about the far-reaching provisions in his bill.

Designed to outlaw the Communist party, the measure would likewise wipe out every progressive organization in the nation.

2ND ANNUAL CONVENTION

MAKE '50 PROGRESSIVE was the theme of the second annual convention of the Progressive Party which convened in Chicago's Ashland Auditorium two weeks ago. Rallying to a program of peace and freedom, the delegates applauded thunderously when Henry Wallace declared, "There are no hidden strings manipulating us."

JIM CROW in California will be fought to a finish, beginning with a campaign against racial segregation in notorious San Quentin prison presided over by Governor Warren by virtue of his high office.

IPP Meet In Elsinore, Sun.

"The Negro People in Political Life" will be the subject of a panel discussion at an all-day meeting to be held in Elsinore March 12, under the auspices of the IPP and other progressive organizations. Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor and publisher of The California Eagle, will head the discussion on the Negro in politics.

There will be seven panels in all, on subjects interesting the people of America today. The meeting will be strictly on a non-partisan basis in order that everyone may take part regardless of his political beliefs.

The Elsinore branch of the IPP, Jack Norvell, chairman, writes they are in the midst of an election battle at present, trying to elect a Negro a member of the city council.

Mrs. Robeson, Guest Speaker At IPP Meet

Mrs. Paul Robeson, who has just returned from a tour of New China, will be the guest speaker at a meeting sponsored by the local branch of the Independent Progressive Party in Yugoslav Hall, 16th and Palos Verdes, San Pedro, on March 24 at 8 p.m.

The entire community is invited to hear Mrs. Robeson's thrilling story of the struggle for independence of the people of China, their victory, and their struggle for peace in all the world.

Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor and publisher of The California Eagle, who was refused a visa to go to China to attend the peace conference in Peking, will chair the meeting.

Rev. L. K. Smith

Rabble-rousing, hate-mongering Gerald L. K. Smith, who sometimes masks his vicious race-baiting behind the holy title of "Reverend," held two un-American rallies at the Embassy Auditorium this week.

Making no secret of his bitter hatred of the Jewish people, Smith accused them of taking over the country, and of every other crime except that of his birth.

Vulgarly insulting Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, he smeared the memory of F.D.R. and accused him of having planned the attack on Pearl Harbor. Unwavering in his determination to promote white Christian supremacy, Smith railed and ranted until the meeting closed.

Vocational Job Clinic Planned By Willowbrook Organization

The Willowbrook Improvement Organization will present in co-operation with the Los Angeles Urban League, plans for the 18th Annual Vocational Opportunity Job Clinic, Wednesday night March 15th, 7:30 p.m. at the Willowbrook Grammar School on 26th Street and Wilmington Ave.

There will be speakers with interesting topics. After the panel speakers the meeting will go into discussions, led by section chairman with Panel Speakers serving as research leaders.

Panel speakers are: Mrs. Honore Carey Levy, Vocational Counselor, Jefferson High School whose subject will be "Vocational Guidance For High School and Students"; Mrs. Margaret Ores, Social Case Worker, Bureau of Public Assistance, speaking on "Parents Responsibilities for Youth's Careers"; Mrs. Cora Hilton, Senior Psychiatric Social Worker, State Department of Mental Hygiene, who will discuss "How Personality Affects Your Job"; Mr. Hugh McAfee, California State Department of Employment, who will tell "How to Look for—And Find a Job"; Mr. Welford Wilson, Field Supervisor Training Agreements, State Apprenticeship Council whose subject is: "Apprenticeship"; Mr.

Edward A. Burch, California State Department of Employment, who will speak on "From the Cradle to the Grave in Civil Service"; and Mr. Glanville Lockett, Minority Specialist, California State Department of Employment, will serve as moderator for the Panel.

Interracial Group Names New Officers

Officers for the ensuing year were elected by the members of the Southeast Interracial Council Monday night in a meeting held at Rev. Farrell's church at 114th and Compton.

C. D. Hawkins was returned as president of the organization, Wendell Phillips was elected 1st vice-president and Mrs. J. T. Pettit was elected executive secretary. Other officers are: Mrs. C. W. Arnold, assistant secretary; Mrs. Beatrice Dotson, treasurer; Gene Pettit, membership secretary; James Archer, financial chairman; Mrs. Jane Williams, publicity chairman; Mrs. Beatrice Ross, entertainment chairman; Mrs. Cora Johnson, education chairman; Mrs. Jackie Clack, arrangements chairman; L. L. Cathcart, speakers bureau chairman; Mrs. W. Prevost, youth chairman; Mrs. Anna Chernick, grievance chairman, and Mrs. Madeline Newkirk, stenographer.

Four Year Term For Members of City Council

Citizens living in districts where they are represented by councilmen who keep straying off the reservation had better start working to unload them now, otherwise there is a good chance they will be stuck with them for another four years.

This week Councilman John Holland introduced a resolution seeking in preparing a charter amendment extending the terms of councilmen from two to four years. Hollands plan would stagger the councilmen so that the council would not be composed of entirely new members.

Following some discussion in the council session Tuesday, the matter was referred to committee. Consensus of opinion among the council members is that public opinion is still against four year terms.

Children Under Eighteen May Get Social Security Benefits

If you have children under the age of eighteen dependent upon you, and you are insured under the Social Security Act, your children are protected by your Old-Age & Survivors Insurance. In case of your death, they will receive a benefit check every month until they are eighteen. But in order to give them this benefit, you must be either fully or currently insured.

Whether or not you are fully or currently insured depends upon the length of time you have worked under the Social Security Act, and the amount of money you have earned in insured employment.

That is why it is important to be sure that your employer has your exact social security account number, for this is the only way your wages and periods of employment can be correctly reported to the Social Security Administration.

If you have lost your social security card or have changed your name, call at the nearest Social Security office to secure a duplicate or corrected card.

The social security field office in this area is at 312 N. Spring St., Los Angeles.

RESIDENTS OF LOS ANGELES are fortunate in having an office that practices New Yorker Technique—a haven for those who suffer where the cause of Toxic Poison may be removed—where relief of constipation—an elimination, may be obtained in 20 minutes.

NOTE: Toxic poisons cause practically all ills of mankind. When toxic poisons or that which causes disease is removed the result is so effective in producing quick results that the change experienced by the sufferer is hardly less marked than that felt by the prisoner when the ball and chain have been removed from his ankles. It has to be experienced to be properly understood and appreciated.

New Yorker Technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine. In simple language—it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that the contents may be passed by normal effort.

Dr. Brinkley D.C., has the only office that is permitted to practice New Yorker Technique. He has no branch offices.

DR. BRINKLEY HAS A STAFF OF MORE THAN 120 PEOPLE. IS LICENSED DOCTORS AND MORE THAN 60 SPECIALLY TRAINED NURSES AND TECHNICIANS. He has his own private laboratory and complete laboratory facilities, the finest equipment—30 private treatment rooms. IT IS THE LARGEST INSTITUTION OF ITS KIND IN THE ENTIRE WORLD—NO EXCEPTIONS.

This notable organization is outstanding—without equal—and must be seen to be appreciated.

Dr. Brinkley says: To protect the sick against the wrong diagnosis, it is my belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made. In all cases tests should include complete blood count, urinalysis, microscopic examination and study of stool. If diabetes is suspected a fasting blood sugar test should be given; for liver disorders—various liver functional test given; for infectious diseases—sedimentation rate given; plus other laboratory procedures.

ALL OF MY PATIENTS, UNDER TREATMENT, GET LABORATORY TESTS AT NO EXTRA CHARGE. I will enjoy explaining New Yorker Technique to you without obligation, 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. For my trial treatment I charge $3, which includes various laboratory tests.

Call or write for FREE 120 page book. This book is outstanding. It is a most comprehensive explanation of "the true cause of disease." Book will be sent by mail—no salesman—no phone calls—no obligation. No follow-up letters.

By C.A.B.

Since few of us seem really to grasp the seriousness of our present situation caused by the presence of an uranium bomb-scare as part of the cold war turning hot, it could hardly be expected that we comprehend the immensity of this real threat to civilization.

From the pulpit and from the press there is a great cry for world peace. Unfortunately, however, the sources from which the cry for peace comes are too often found in the forefront leading the fight against the things and conditions that would bring about peace.

If we consider facts as they serve our selfish interests, in proportion do we become blind to the real needs of all the people.

Peace cannot be described as good peace, better peace, and best peace. Peace is a proper noun. No descriptive adjective strengthens or weakens its meaning. So when even Governments tell their people that we can only spread and make effective our Democracy by destroying some other government's political ideology, as for instance, Communism, or vice versa, it's like striking at the shadow to keep from hitting the real object.

Bringing peace to a confused, greatly troubled world is everybody's business.

We, the American people, are dependent upon observations made by persons who are permitted to visit other countries and governments, for information and direction in helping to shape world peace.

If we are to protect our civilization, our first step is to reach an understanding in our own nation, and then reach out for an understanding with Russia, the country we seem to consider our arch enemy.

Honestly I am at a loss to determine how and why we conclude that our trouble, and the whole world's catastrophe, is bundled up in one parcel, and that parcel is Russia.

To me our way of life is a great circle divided into many arcs. The first division is our desire to own and control the wealth of the world. To keep capital and labor hopelessly divided. To maintain a social order that through the medium of racial differences perpetuate white supremacy.

Any individual or group of individuals protesting these deviations as enemies of the peace are frightened into oblivion with the scare word Communism.

On such an hypothesis a group composed of some of the world's finest citizens seeking to enter the United States on a peace mission are denied entrance.

Two major political parties, for a long time considered opposing forces in the body politic, have at last been discovered political bedfellows.

In the 1948 campaign the so-called Republican-Democratic parties tried to outdo each other in making promises for the betterment of all Americans. Chief among their promises was a Civil Rights Bill which, as you know, was aimed at unhackling the Negro people, in particular, from Jim Crow chains.

President Truman was the loud speaker for the Civil Rights measure which was to top the 81st Congress' calendar. Dewey, on this measure, followed Truman in close pursuit with "Me, too, Boss" all the way to the close of the campaign.

Of course, when the Congress

African Tribal Chief Exiled By Britain For Intermarriage

Seretse Khama, the 27-year-old prince of the Bamangwatos tribe in Africa, can be considered henceforth a foe of British Imperialism. The young British-educated African prince, who married an English girl and took her home with him, has been exiled for five years on order of the British government.

The exile has the effect of depriving him of the throne in his native land and represents a chastisement because he married a white girl. Seretse, angered by the action of Britain, announced this week that his wife is an expectant mother. He intimated that he would seek to have the exile lifted. As it is now, he cannot return to his native land without permission of the British government for five years.

Most of the tribal chiefs accepted Seretse and his bride when they arrived in the tribal capital several months ago. An uncle of Seretse's refused to accept the Prince's new bride, and when he was outvoted by other tribal chiefs, he took to the hills with some of his followers. Later he returned and coincidentally a series of charges were made against Seretse's wife.

One of them accused her of giving whiskey to tribe members, a serious offense according to laws of the chiefs prompted by Britain. The action of Britain in exiling the young prince has focused world attention on the hitherto little-known Bamangwatos tribe.

The Board of Supervisors refused to hear a delegation from the Association on February 21, despite the fact that such a hearing was on the agenda. Another attempt to present the illegal aspects of the arrests, which were carried out by Sheriff's deputies, was also rebuffed by the Board.

On December 17, 1949, he returned and after threatening Mrs. Bunton, according to her testimony, he placed his hand in his pocket and advanced toward her. Federal Rent Control Bill In Congress

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Another move to extend federal rent controls which are slated to expire on June 30 came this week when Congressman Adolph J. Sabath, Illinois Democrat, introduced a bill that would extend controls until June 30, 1951.

Jimcero Must Be Destroyed

More than 20 years ago The California Eagle made a discovery that white and Negro prisoners were Jimcrowed at the San Quentin prison at San Rafael, California.

At that time this newspaper called for volunteers to fight what it contended an outrage on the rights of even criminals, and a blot on the good name of the state of California.

In this undertaking nothing to abolish Jimcero happened and the practice continued. So The California Eagle strikes again, with the abiding faith that this time it will get results.

In the governor's seat in Sacramento is Earl Warren, four-square Republican. The Adult Prison Parole Board is chaired by Atty. Walter Gordon, staunch Republican and descendant of one of California's best known and respected pioneer Negro families. Some good can come and is expected from this combination.

Latest figures show that in 1948 there were 4390 prisoners in San Quentin. Of that number 572 were Negroes. A further breakdown shows only 43 Negro women are incarcerated in all California prisons.

These figures are vastly out of proportion with the figures given by some university statisticians claiming that Negroes afford a greater menace as criminals than other Americans.

The California Eagle contends that such practices of discrimination in prison records reflects the attitude of the American people as regards the American pattern of discrimination and Jimcrowing of Negroes in all walks of American life.

Negroes themselves have only one weapon they may and should use to combat Jimcero, and that weapon is the ballot.

At this political season both Negro Republicans and Negro Democrats are waiting in gear now for their bosses to give the signal to move.

The Republicans are making their campaign on this issue, at least in the 62nd Assembly District: Americanism, equal opportunity, social justice, full employment, crime prevention and apprehension, curb of juvenile delinquency, adequate pay for teachers, clarification of laws giving aid to veterans, tax reduction, a balanced budget, and a pledge to support the laws to protect the public and labor and management.

The Democratic Party offers all this and much more, too. In addition the Democratic Party promises homes for all, jobs for those who can work, social security, AND Civil Rights legislation.

The only fault one can find with the Democratic platform is that so few of its pledges are realized.

As a matter of fact Negroes have reached the place where they make their own choice of their political leaders. On the basis of an intelligence rating of the Negro's political foresight, the Progressive Party is the only one that offers any ray of hope.

The Progressive Party proudly declares it is a party which welcomes the Negro "not to its ante-rooms or back doors but to its inner sanctum." It is the party, says Dr. W. E. B. DuBois, that "believes that the Democratic and Republican parties are bankrupt in ideas for social welfare and united in agreement on every mistake which the nation is now making, in war-mongering, witch hunting, and violations of the Four Freedoms."

"Nothing illustrates this better than the recent fiasco in Congress on the Fair Employment Policy Bill," declared Dr. DuBois. "Both parties have solemnly and repeatedly promised to support this basic measure of civil rights and both parties have joined to emasculate it and pass a ridiculous substitute. Neither party dares support an anti-lynching bill with teeth, nor implement

An Embarrassing Question

An article in The Negro History Bulletin for February, entitled "An Embarrassing Question," expresses the sentiments of this newspaper so thoroughly that we are presenting it herewith for our readers to enjoy also.

It is said that during Nehru's visit to this country he had the sponsor of his tour arrange for him to meet the "Negro leaders" of the United States. Exactly who were invited to this conference is not generally known. Such Negro leaders as he met proceeded to tell him how we are deprived of the opportunity to make a decent living, how we are denied justice in the courts, how we are lynched, and what not. Thereupon Nehru abruptly stopped this recital of evils and inquired what they were "doing about it." This question proved too staggering for immediate answer. By innuendo the inevitable reply was, "Nothing."

Our Negro leaders faced the same sort of embarrassing question about the turn of the century when an ardent Filipino was co-operating with Ben Tillman to keep before the United States Senate the matter of the independence of his country. A group of Negroes called the Filipino into conference and informed him that Tillman had no love for the Filipinos and that he advocated granting them independence to sever our connection with all colored people because of his race hatred. The Negroes then gave Tillman's record in preaching mob violence, massacre, and the final extermination of the Negroes in the United States. The Filipino, deeply moved by this recital of atrocities, temporarily forgot his own cause and inquired as to what the Negroes thus afflicted were doing all the while these evils were imposed upon them. In that case also the response was in the negative.

These foreigners, unacquainted with democracy by stopping disfranchisement by poll tax. Both parties are supporting a foreign policy which seeks to retain the colonial system and exploit the darker peoples in order to restore European imperialism with American dollars invested in Africa, Asia, the West Indies and Central and South America.

"These are the policies which all true Americans must fight, if civilization is to survive. Especially I call on all Negro Americans to throw off the yoke of Republicans and refuse longer to listen to the double talk of Truman and his Dixiecrats and join a party, not for graft to politicians or newspapers, or for offices to yes men, but for a real fight for democracy in a party which welcome them not to its ante rooms or back doors but to its inner sanctum."

with our affairs, naturally expect some such answers as the silent resistance of non-cooperation resorted to in India, or the rising of the oppressed like that of the Filipinos when the brutal execution of Jose Rizal by the Spaniards in 1890 drove them to a national insurrection which the Spaniards were never able to subdue and which made it possible for the United States to expel the Spaniards in 1898. To expect the Negroes in the United States to pursue either course, however, is out of the question. In India the Natives outnumber the European exploiters three hundred to one, and in the Philippines the ratio is about the same. A resort of the Negro minority in this country to force would mean extermination. Some day the Negroes of the United States may have the opportunity to use their might as a balance of power as they did during the Civil War when 178,975 Negro soldiers donned the uniform and turned the tide in favor of the Union and freedom; but, operating independently as a minority element, Negroes in this country would face the inevitable outcome of disaster.

The Negroes of the United States, moreover, are not prepared to embrace such a program as that by which Gandhi liberated his country. In the first place, there is no such leadership among Negroes in the United States, no such unanimity of thought among them. Their minds have been conditioned by the sort of education which their exploiters have permitted them to acquire. Negro teachers, government employees, politicians and welfare workers get their ideas in second-hand fashion from the acknowledged superior race. They owe their positions to the fact that they have qualified as safe workers who may be used to manipulate, according to the exploiter's demands, the Negroes whom they enable the authorities to control and direct along harmless and ineffective lines. Negroes thus certified are assured of high salaries, luxuries and sufficient publicity to make their gullible fellows believe that they do amount to something and serve the public honorably. It is hardly possible that the committee in charge of Nehru's tours arranged for him to meet A. Philip Randolph, Paul Robeson, or W. E. B. DuBois. They are not leaders chosen for the Negro race.

Negro leaders in the United States are mainly the tools of Negro control. The machine is so thoroughly organized and financed that the exploiters of the race have little cause to worry about the aggressive spokesmen who endeavor to construct and carry out measures for the good of the Negro people. Anything which a progressive or fearless Negro may advocate as the best

Hundreds of miles to the north of Leningrad, beyond the Arctic Circle, lies the Kola peninsula. Its capital, Murmansk, alone, has a population of 117,000 — more than the entire population of Alaska.

The Kola Peninsula is about as large as New York State. 25 years ago, it was an Arctic desert crossed by a single-track railroad ending at the port village of Murmansk, with perhaps three thousand inhabitants, the rest of the peninsula had less than 10,000. Today, there are 300,000, including the city. Scientists have discovered deposits of apatite, a phosphorus ore, and of rare metals. Hydroelectric stations were built on the Niva and Tuloma Rivers, and the railroad was rebuilt and electrified. Out in the completely uninhabited wilderness of the Khibin mountains there arose the apatite mining and processing town of Kirovsk, with 40,000 people, Monchegorsk, a copper and nickel center, with 30,000, and Kandalaksha, with more than 20,000, most of them employed in its aluminum industry. Now Murmansk Region also includes the nickel mines and port facilities of Pechenga (Petsamo), regained from Finland.

Almost more impressive than its industries is the agriculture of this Arctic land. Fresh vegetables are grown under glass. Some are even raised out in the open land wrested from the musk swamps. Cows graze in planted meadows and provide the people of the cities with fresh milk. Even a grain crop — barley — is grown here. The huge fish hauls in the White and Barents Seas more than meet the needs of the local population.

Murmansk port is open the year round. It is connected with Leningrad and Moscow by what is now a first-class railroad. It is the base of the Northern Fleet of the Red Navy. Its shipyards, wrecked by German bombing, were rebuilt in 1945. Murmansk is also the home of a great fishing fleet and of preserving and canning industries, and the main apatite-export outlet. It boasts four technical high schools, a permanent theater company and a scientific institution. However, life in this heavily-bombed pioneer community is still difficult in the extreme.

The railroad to Murmansk is only one of three that have opened up the Arctic. The first was the line from Moscow through Vologda up to Archangel. This city is eastward and far to the south of Murmansk, but is actually much colder. In this area there are now 3,000,000 people living in the same latitudes as Alaska. The city of Archangel has grown eightfold in a quarter of a century to reach its present population of nearly 300,000.

One of the most impressive episodes of the war was the construction of Russia's third Arctic railroad across 1200 miles of wilderness through the Pechora River basin to Ust-Vorkuta above the Arctic Circle, where the Urals meet the sea. Its function is to develop the resources of, and open to civilization, the huge but sparsely populated Autonomous Republic of the Komi, a people like the Indians of Alaska. Formerly illiterate, the Komi now have two colleges and a dozen technical high schools. There also is a permanent theater company performing in their own language. Full modernization is reaching this area with the establishment of a steel industry, for which the necessary prospecting was done in 1945. The Vorkuta coal field has 120,000,000,000 tons of coal, one-third more than the famous Donabas in the Ukraine.

The Volga Region and Its Nationalities

Before the war about 15,000,000 people lived in the Volga area — somewhat more than live along the Mississippi below St. Louis. The war spurred industry along this great river. At the outbreak of war, there was no railroad along its western bank. The one

Peace Is Banned In U. S.

The news that a 17-member delegation for peace was coming to the United States within a few weeks, didn't even get into

The California Eagle before other news came saying that the State Dept. of the United States had banned this delegation as being Communistic!

The State Dept. sent cablegrams to the various countries, ordering the American consuls there to refuse to issue any visas to all and sundry who planned to come to American shores to talk peace. The members of this delegation had planned to visit Congress, President Truman, the State Dept., other government departments, and urge the need for disarmament, or at least the outlawing of the atom bomb and the H-bomb. The Dean of Canterbury, one of England's leading churchmen, is among the number banned from the U.S.

Reminds one of the time a few weeks ago when the editor of course for his people to pursue can be easily defeated by some Negro traducer who gets his instruction from his sponsors constituting the Negro control. In some cases Negroes have succeeded in advancing their causes in spite of the Negro control because a much larger number of Negroes than one generally believes have learned to think for themselves and to act independently. The time has not yet come, however, for us to think that the genuflecting and today class of the Negroes have lost all their power. The war on this undesirable class is being waged with increasing vigor and sufficient ground has been gained to warrant hope that another generation will see the passing of the mis-leaders of the Negroes in the United States.

this newspaper was refused a visa to China to attend a peace conference there, sponsored by the women of Asia.

"Why, China's in the hands of the Communists," she was told. "We can't let you go there."

Possibly they did not wish her to become contaminated with the touch of Communism. This time, however, it evidently is to prevent the sanctity of the American way of life from being touched by any Communistic influence, that friends of peace are barred from entering. Or maybe it's because the powers that be are actually afraid that this peace-loving delegation might persuade the people of America to abandon the road to war and take the way to peace! Such a decision would drastically cut down the profits of the war-mongers in this country, even in the cold war and definitely if a hot war should start.

Similar delegations were to go to Moscow, London, Vienna, Paris, etc. We have yet to hear of any being banned in those countries.

Paul Robeson in his characteristic fashion, fairly exploded when he received the news.

"Is our State Department afraid of peace?" he asked satirically. "Why else should it bar emissaries of peace whom other governments are willing to receive?"

"Africa and Negro America will no doubt take notice of the fact that among the delegation barred from coming here was Mamadou Coulibaly, a leader of the African Democratic Union and member of the French Parliament from Ivory Coast, West Africa. The significance of this should be clear to black people here and overseas, because the fight for peace is an essential part of their struggle for freedom and full equality."

Try Another Approach

Historically, America has always been slow to extend freedom and democracy to the underprivileged. It seems that our version of democracy could not exist without great masses of people who are ill-housed, underfed and denied the right to employment without restrictions.

In cold language, our American democracy is a comparative rather than an actual reality. For millions of the people, it does not exist at all.

They know only that degree of freedom which is permitted them by those who control this nation, set its customs and makes its laws.

Basically, the disenfranchisement of the Negro people in the South is the crux of the whole white supremacy pattern of our national life. And it is the clue that neither President Truman nor any other president who will be elected in your lifetime and mine, will desire to have civil rights laws passed by the congress.

The United States is as irrevocably committed to Jim Crow as it is to the cold war . . . and for the same reason. Founded as a nation of protest against intolerance and persecution, this nation learned early to utilize the myth of racial and religious superiority in a clever and profitable manner. Our Jim Crow practices at home pay off well in dollars and cents, and the hatred being engendered here against the Russian people is inspired by an impelling desire for control and profits.

It is unthinkable that President Truman will get away with his civil rights gag a second time. The Negro people and other minority people who would benefit from a fair employment practice law have had enough. The politicians will learn this year that standing on a platform of civil rights will not garner the Negro vote. Astute politician though he may be, the president will not be able to use the miserable status of the Negro people as a device for getting back into office.

must be cringing before world opinion these days.

While our emissaries throughout the world are declaring a warm brotherhood with the millions of black people (whose resources and territories we will need for the next world war) our House of Representatives strikes a blow for white supremacy and economic slavery by passing a weak, meaningless FEPC law. In the next act, even this puny imitation of a law will be talked into oblivion.

The civil rights of the Negro people have always been a rallying point for unscrupulous politicians. They have craftily schemed and designed proposals which they used for bait. Liberals, progressives and friends of freedom have swallowed the bait by mobilizing behind these loaded proposals, and in doing so they have been too preoccupied to do much else.

There is no short cut to the realization of full citizenship for the Negro people. The struggle must begin at the beginning. Where it is now indicated as possible, Negroes must be elected to the Congress and to the Senate. Where it is not indicated as possible, it must be made possible.

Millions of Negroes who are not in the South do not register and vote. The first job is to concentrate on getting them registered and making their votes felt on the side of freedom. Both major parties periodically declare their undying love for the Negro people. It is up to those of us who are members of these parties to demand that Negro candidates be designed for Congressional posts.

According to our Constitution and the Bill of Rights, there hasn't been a legal national election since shortly after the civil war. Virtually all of the millions of Negroes in the South are denied the right to vote. But they will be able to vote when we get enough courage to undertake a campaign to have them register, and make that registration stick by fighting in the courts against the illegal poll tax and other Jim Crow voting restrictions.

Certainly we will have to let Congress and the president know how we feel on all important issues, and we should continue to keep the wires hot and the mail pouches loaded, but events have shown us there must also be another approach.

This Changing World

AFRICA NEXT?

To date the peoples of Asia have held the limelight in the tremendous colonial upheavals which have followed the ending of World War II. They it is who, of all the semi-colonial and colonial peoples, have flung the sternest challenge to Western imperialism, smashed for all time the carefully cultivated myth of white invincibility on the field of battle, forced the arrogant, thieving Western overlords to beat a retreat from large sections of Asia, to fall back on native puppets in other parts of that vast continent.

Will Africa be next on Freedom's agenda? There are numerous signs that the peoples of that tortured and partitioned continent are on the march again, are as grimly determined as are the Chinese and other Asian peoples to throw off the yoke of western imperialism.

In the Union of South Africa the Bantu peoples are waging heroic resistance to the terrorist measures of the local Anglo-Boer fascist regime. Only last week an ALN dispatch from Johannesburg, South Africa, told of Africans courageously resisting a four week reign of terror by armed police patrols who raided the native Newcaire settlement. The dispatch stated, in part:

"The Africans have resisted the attacks. Police cars have been stoned, street barricades have been built and in some cases street lamps smashed so the people could fight back under cover of darkness."

The story is essentially the same throughout the breadth and length of Africa, with the people in active resistance to the savage exploitation and terrorist imperialist rule, and the imperialists answering with stepped-up terror in a futile attempt to crush the mushrooming freedom movements. In Nigeria, where twenty years ago British troops fired into a demonstration of native women, killing 25, the British last November 18 murdered nineteen coal miners and wounded thirty others. The miners had struck in protest against wages of 20 cents a day, demanded 80 cents. In the island of Madagascar, off the east coast of Africa, the French killed 90,000 Malagasy patriots, threw thousands more into concentration camps in suppressing a national revolt—but only after a fierce two year struggle.

In spite of the bestial terror practiced by the colonial powers intent upon maintaining Africa as the last stronghold of imperialism, the freedom movements in that continent continue to grow. These movements are found in almost every section of Africa, as Alphaeus Hunton, secretary of the Council of African Affairs, recently reported.

In East Africa, for example, there are the Bataka party in Uganda, the African Union in Kenya, and a number of secret organizations. The Bataka party was outlawed by the British after last year's uprising in Uganda.

In South Africa there are the African National Congress, founded in 1912, and the native trade unions. Throughout Africa, the native trade unions are playing a leading part in the liberation movement.

In the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan there is the National Front, which in November 1945 boycotted the fake elections to the first Legislative Assembly.

There are also powerful movements in Central Africa, North Africa and the island of Madagascar.

It is in Nigeria and the French West African territories, however, that the liberation movements are most highly developed, directly involving millions of people in the struggle. In West

THINGS I SEE

By Marian Ingledew

Kate Smith, not especially noted for any liberal or progressive thinking, gave quite a talk the other morning on the habit we have here in America of employing only young people. It was over her regular radio broadcast. "It's high noon in New York. Time for Kate Smith. And here she is," you know.

The conservative Kate Smith, who shivers at the mere mention of the word "Communism," told a story of how a man in Colorado, 57 years old, committed suicide because he couldn't find work anywhere. "No one wants a man as old as I am," he said in his last note.

It is an indictment against our civilization, Kate Smith said in effect, that such a complaint could be true. But she said she had noticed that there was one iron-clad rule among employers. That was not to hire anyone over 35 years of age. And in nearly all of the ads, she remarked, you'll notice they say thirty years for men, and twenty-eight or even less for women.

"It's something to think about," she opined. And Ted, her handyman, agreed.

But neither one of these suggested a remedy.

They had none. For both Ted and Kate hold firmly to the fallacy that our private profit system is the one and only system under which any people should live. Should anyone try to alter that, particularly for the benefit of the working people who are unemployed because of age or any other reason, they would be the first ones to cry him down with the epithet "Communist."

And it isn't only the old people who can't find jobs. Millions of young men and women can testify to that fact. Writes a young graduate of a well-known university in The New Republic, "I can dig ditches or do nuclear fission, analytical chemistry and colloid chemistry. I speak German and Spanish. I graduated from college in 1949.

"I have tried every way I know to get a job. There are no jobs. I have traveled over eight states and it's the same story.

"Congressmen talk about millions more for education. What are you do do with the one you have?

"Does anyone need a ditch digger or a physical scientist? The Senate worries about Asia's and Europe's starving. Why not consider America?

"I can get no help from social security because I did not work in 1949. As I said before, there were no jobs. There are none now."

Well, as virtually all liberals and progressives will agree neither the Senate nor any other department of the United States government is worrying about the people of Europe or Asia starving. They are concerned primarily with finding markets for the surplus manufactured goods and agricultural products that are piling up in this country, and that are a threat to our private profit system.

And, of course, they want to stop Communism.

They have already acknowledged their defeat in this attempt in Asia. To date, however, we are still pouring millions into Europe, hoping against hope that the people will be so grateful for the aid they do not want that they will be perfectly docile in accepting the role we have assigned them—that of offering themselves, their sons and their daughters as a sacrificial stop-gap to the tide of economic freedom that is rolling on relentlessly from East to West.

But, to our consternation, we see the people of Europe refusing to accept that role! They haven't been too anxious for our material aid to prevent Europe from turning Communist. Now they are flatly turning down our "military aid" to keep themselves and the people of other countries in line with this marvelous private profit free enterprise system. And we profess to be shocked at their ingratitude! But in the meantime, what about America? Are we going to keep on forever closing our eyes to the truth? Or is it beginning to dawn upon us that our efforts to prevent the spread of Communism anywhere are fruitless? Do we see the need for some system other than the outdated capitalist system, doomed to certain destruction?

The mere fact that Kate Smith commented as she did on one of the fatal weaknesses of that system, is a sign that the need for doing something about it is penetrating the minds and hearts of even the most conservative of our American people. Attuned as American public opinion seems to be to everything that anti-Communist, a word from Kate Smith will go farther than a thousand words from those of us who have been labeled "fellow travelers."

May she speak many more words like that.

POTPOURRI

Many Republicans must be ashamed of some of the latest GOP campaign literature. One of these efforts is circulated anonymously. It is a parody of the Twenty-third Psalm and it starts out:

"The State is my shepherd, I shall not work. It maketh me to lie down on good jobs, it leadeth me by the still factories."

In addition to the revolting bad taste shown in distributing a crude parody of words that are sacred to many Americans, this Republican propaganda is also an insult to the millions of Americans who work hard, who WANT to work hard, and who ask only that they receive a fair return for their labors and some hope of security when they are too old to work.

The second horrible example is not distributed anonymously. It was inserted in the "Congressional Record" by the former Chairman of the Republican National Committee, Congressman Hugh Scott.

This one is a parody of the Gettysburg address of Abraham Lincoln. These quotes from it will give you the general idea:

"Ten score plus 7 years ago (Scott's arithmetic, as printed in the 'Record'), our fakers brought forth upon this Nation a new tax conceived in depredation and dedicated to the proposition that all men are surtaxed, unequal. . . .

"It is not for us, the taxpayers, to be consulted here on the tax receipts which the Government has thus far so ignobly spent. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us—that . . . taxation of the people, by the President, for the Government, shall not cause our solvency to perish from our hearth."

This explains a lot about the present difficulties of the Republican Party. In the year 1950 the man who headed their Presidential campaign of 1948 sees more gain for the GOP in a parody of the Gettysburg address than in hewing to the principles which made Lincoln great, which OWCE guided the Republican Party, and which are as basic and valid today as they were in 1863.

CASING THE KIDS

CHARLES LLOYD

Good morning, boys. Here's that monthly list of Queens. Some are new, others were selected in past months. "Why have repeaters?" you ask. That's a good question. Okay, look at it this way: If a fighter is champion, he remains so until somebody beats him. Same with chicks — some rate higher than others. They are the Queens.

Take for instance BETTE PERKINS, sweet little chick, and lovely too. One of the nicest girls we know. . . . Or, there's DONZELLA COULTER. Can you beat that? . . . Then there's a young lady named ERMA BEARY. She rates high on the list. Not just because she's pretty, but she has a pleasing personality. . . . Take the matter of CARMEN DE LAVALLE, who influences everybody. Certainly the people's choice. . . . Maybe you know HARRIET DANIELS, who is another popular selection. Who are we to dispute the people? . . . Then there's MARYEVELYN WINCHESTER, who has the rep of conducting herself in a lady-like fashion at all times. . . . Or JACKIE WASHINGTON, not only beautiful, but truly a nice little girl. . . . Take PEGGI ANDERSON, perennially charming with a grand personality besides. . . . Can you beat LAURITA ALEXANDER, the ideal girl? . . . Or DELORES PATTERSON, a grand person to know?

BIG LEGS

Armando Sollis and band and Bobby Brewington, soloist, were featured entertainers at Club Allegretto's "Big Leg" party at Crystal Tea Room Sat. nite. Bob, who sang "Nearness of You," was escort to beautiful Haroldine Browning. Andy Allen wiggled with his weird assortment of records, while Mitzi Nelson, who sported the shapeliest pair of legs, was comfortably in his corner.

Vivacious LeVera Porter made her debut as First Lady and took over as finest chick for the nite. Charming Coris Myles out pointed sailor boy Reggie Gray in the semi-windup, and Bernadine Henderson decisioned Charles Kelom in the curtain raiser. Montez Martin made a last-round comeback to KO Otelious Fobbs after taking to the floor with Alfred Moore, who lost to Mildred Hardaway. Roy Loggins was arguing that a big leg chicken is more valuable than a big leg chick, but Rosie Watts proved the opposite with her fine yams and form on display.

Milford James continued a courting glorious Flora Tryon, and Shirley Stanley threw in her hat with William Dickey. Baby Powell was the cutest baby, and Earline Moore was finest of the club members. Ethel Best, of course, was best, and Gifford Montgomery came looking for talent. Mary Burnley came clad in red and gray with a short style hair-do, and Murel Johnson was togged in black and white with fine hair (period). There was beautiful Mrs. Martha Fields, aunt of Gloria Mayfield. Sax Lady Elvira appeared without her trumpet player-lover, and Kathryn Shannon came in all her finery.

Weekly Topic of Discussion

Introducing Coris Myles vs. LeVera Porter in: Should a girl go after her man?

Coris—No. A girl must uphold her pride. It would be reversing the process of nature for the woman to become the aggressor in love-making. Generally regarded as the weaker sex, women have only their pride to keep them on an even footing with men. I have had lots of suitors, but when they fail to take the fight to me, it is no contest. I have not, I will never go after any man.

LaVera—Yes. False pride is a despicable thing. The only way to get something you want is to go after it. When a girl likes a fellow and won't let him know it, she is being childish and is hurting no one but herself. She has just as much right to start the action as he has, if their friendship is to endure. If you expect the boy to express his love for you, why not express yours for him?

From Compton to Hollywood

J. T. Gipson claims to cover 'em from "Harlem to Hollywood" but we can only reach as far as Compton. . . . Speaking of Compton: George Brown, pride of the Tartars, must've changed his mind since telling us that he wouldn't enter the broad jump just now. . . . City College's Ed Washington really deserves a big pat on the shoulder. This great, quarter-miler stays in shape the year round and has the biggest heart of any athlete you ever saw. He runs off his guts (his legs are as short as mine) and he always has that determined will to win. Last Friday he did a 50.2 seconds 440 while coming in first in the time trials. Again we warn you that Ed will take George Adrain when they meet up on the cinders. . . . It's 12:30 a.m. Monday nite and we are being kept awake by Roy Loggins, who is cutting up on the radio again. He is MC-ing Lee Wilder's show over KFWB, just for tonight. Tells us he's got some fancy "T" shirts he is auctioning off to the public for a small sum. Also heard that he makes a weekly visit to cheer the sick at different hospitals and that he's going to start a television show soon. . . . Long Beach's Cornelius Barnes was the warmest thing on the court in the first round of the JC b'skt b'll tourney at Tartarville Monday night. C. C. Cubs barely got by El Camino 58-55. Unless they show a vast improvement, the Cubs will be eliminated by the time you decipher these lines. We believe they'll wake up. . . . J. Anne Riddle's exploiting her talents for a worthy purpose as speaker on Panel for Americans out at Westwood. . . . NAACP Youth Council is beginning its annual membership drive. Say what you will, kids, it's a wonderful organization to belong to. . . . You and Ted come out together this weekend, Pauline. Coris doesn't mind. . . . Gone, Wa Wa, and make back up with Audrey. It's natural to have little fall-outs but it's right to fall back in. . . . Good to see Pat Chatman and Joe Johnson reconcile their differences. . . . Aurora Pledge Club sponsor another great event when they give their Hobo Hogan at Salamander Club Saturday night. . . . Highlighters sponsor a dance March 18 at the Elks. . . . Time to close shop for the day, but remember this: You can't learn about a person from his "friends."

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

The Republicans have a policy statement which they hope will shine forth like a good deed in a naughty world. The pro-Taft "Cleveland Plain Dealer" explains it thus: A Republican Party official has proposed that Republicans adopt a program in which Republican businessmen would hire "little Republicans."

"Inasmuch as we have no money and no patronage," said the Republican who made the suggestion, "and our Republican businessmen are doing business with the Democrats, why doesn't the headquarters locally and nationally see if some system can be worked out where plants would provide work for the Republican little people?"

"Wouldn't that be in violation of national labor laws, if only Republicans were hired in plants," inquired a judge of the Common Pleas court.

To which came the answer: "The Lord has ways of doing things."

Keep America Free

By Captain George S. Wuchinich, DSC, World War II Veteran

NEW YORK — The following letter is my answer to the charges emanating from the current hearings before the House Un-American Activities Committee at Washington:

Mr. Franklin D. Roosevelt Hyde Park, New York.

Dear Mr. President,

I never wrote you a letter. Four times running my vote went your way, the last time on a soldier's ballot from Italy. This, I thought was much better than any letter.

However, things have changed much since your funeral and I think you ought to know about it. The House Un-American Activities Committee which you well know and espise, together with the FBI have instituted a new basis for rule in our country. These two agencies, aided by the daily press have taken it upon themselves to judge any American.

This is no new story to you. Neither the press, nor the House Un-American Committee were your friends, and ever since you went to Hyde Park, they have done nothing but besmirch your good name and record. Those of us who carry on in your same spirit are now getting the works.

Economic royalists as you called them are doing quite well. GM made $600 million in 1949, an all-time record for any American firm; while in Pittsburgh, my home town, Westinghouse made 1949 its best profit year since the company was first formed 64 years ago.

But, the people are having it tough. Over 6 million are unemployed, let alone those who work part time. Coal miners are literally fighting to live against the coal and steel corporations, allied with the banks and press. Anyone who has a friendly word for the miners is a Communist, according to the papers. In fact, the press warns miners against accepting food from the "Reds" but this same press does nothing to help the hungry families.

Anyhow, right at this moment the hue and cry is against any American who disagrees with Truman's cold war policy of huge armaments, the building of atomic and hydrogen bombs. Speak of brotherhood, of cooperation with nations, above all with our wartime allies, mention housing, price control, national health insurance, no discrimination against any race, creed or belief, or stand out for peace—then you are a Communist.

All this must be familiar to you. Hitler, too, solved Germany's problems in the same fashion, his anti-communist hysteria led the world to 50 million graves.

America is not Germany. This is 1950 not 1938. Your life, Mr. President, and tens of millions of others have not been in vain. There are millions of Americans who will not let our country go the way of Germany. No public agency, whether it be the House Un-American Committee or the FBI has the right to police men's minds; to pry into anyone's political opinions, tap wires, use ferrets, subvert public money against the people, or subvert the right to any man's thinking or his secret ballot. If a small group of men, with the power of press and money, think they can frighten Americans, they will have to learn our history better.

We will never be a nation that votes "JA" as did Hitlerite Germans. And if the House Un-American Committee thinks that every American must have its stamp of approval, like a carcass in a packing house, then it had better remember its own record, which included the common thief, J. Parnell Thomas. Or what of some of its members, particularly John Wood of Georgia, does he think an American could be one with a black skin?

And the daily press, the word and finger of monopoly, as is the Pittsburgh Press, which does not and refuses to employ Negroes at all levels, yet speaks in the name of Americanism which is no longer 100% but 150% according to its yardstick. The

The following is the text of the address given by Henry A. Wallace, the candidate of the Progressive Party for president in 1948, at the second annual convention of the Party held in Chicago, February 22-24.

The address was given Friday evening before thousands of cheering and enthusiastic members of the Progressive Party, who filled the great Ashland auditorium to overflowing.

For two years the Progressive Party has been actively at work.

No people have ever given more unselfishly and more richly of their time and substance than those who believed so overwhelmingly in the cause for which we fought in 1948. Our Founding Convention at Philadelphia was probably the most honest, most genuinely democratic political convention ever held.

With profound religious conviction we fought for peace at the polls. Politically we lost. Morally we won. We didn't stop the cold war but we did a lot to prevent the hot war. The Truman Doctrine with all its trimmings, from the Marshall Plan to the Hydrogen Bomb, is doing everything we said it would. Financially it can only end by making us bleed from every pore. Politically it can only result in making us hated by half the people of the world. Help given one half the world after year on the basis of hatred against the other half must eventually destroy the whole world.

The Progressive Party believes as Roosevelt believed—that the keystone of American foreign policy should be based not merely on friendship and understanding with the Western powers, but also with the Russian, the Chinese, the Latin American, and the colonial peoples. Enemies of progress have therefore stigmatized us as being apologists for Russia and for Communism. We inadvertently gave these enemies ammunition to shoot at us when the Progressive Party turned down the Vermont Resolution at our Founding Convention. That resolution stated: "Although we are critical of the present foreign policy of the United States, it is not our intention to give blanket endorsement to the foreign policy of any nation."

I know everybody in this hall really believes in this resolution and is willing to see the sense of it adopted in our statement on foreign policy. We must not allow anyone the slightest, legitimate reason for believing that any working member of our Party puts Rome, Moscow or London ahead of the United States. We are neither nationalist, racist, nor chauvinist—we stand before the American people as being Americans first, last and all the time. We believe that a strong but truly American foreign policy must of necessity be based on the concept that when all the backward nations march forward, then and only then can American go onward in a safe, sane and sound way. This is not idealism. It is only the common sense of a progressive, hard-headed business man applied on an international scale.

When Senator McMahon came out with his $50 billion dollar proposal through the United Nations for all nations—including Russia—I wrote him a warm letter of congratulation. I had put up essentially the same proposal myself in France three years ago but I had hooked my $50 billion approach to general disarmament, not to the adoption of the Baruch Plan. The Truman Administration knew from Secretary Stimson in the fall of 1945 that Russia would almost certainly have the bomb by 1950. To act as we did was certain to be shown up as short-sighted bravado as soon as Russia had the bomb. This is trebly true of the hydrogen bomb because Western Europe and the United States are far more vulnerable to this bomb than the vast expanses of the Soviet Union. Even the most extreme haters of Russia and Communism should be able to see the geographic and military facts of the hydrogen bomb world.

For the first time in history, civilization has reached a crisis brought about by the development of the means of its self-destruction—the hydrogen bomb.

There can be no words to describe the seriousness of the current situation in world politics. We are not dealing with individual fears, we are dealing with eternities.

It is therefore inhuman for political and ideological leaders of this country or other countries to dismiss without recourse possibilities for peace.

The Democratic Party has decided to go ahead with the manufacture of the hydrogen bomb without first attempting to reach an international agreement for its control. It has, through Secretary of State Dean Acheson, ruled out any other policy toward peace but the continual creation of preponderant power.

The Republican Party has concurred in these decisions and is liable to the same reproach.

The only party that stands for a dynamic approach to Peace in a Hydrogen Bomb World is the Progressive Party. I realize that the Progressive Party in putting forward a peace proposal at this time must overcome a backlog of discredit built up through a combination of unjust malice and its own mistakes.

Since the construction of the Hydrogen Bomb has become the most serious problem in the world today, we must cast aside our normal partisanship in the face of impending disaster. We must make it possible for all those in the country who believe in the necessity of and the possibility of peaceful settlement of the problem of atomic energy as a weapon of war, to ally to one banner where their united voice can be made effective.

This rallying point can be the Progressive Party, not the Progressive Party of today, with its narrow range of support, but a new, broader, forward-looking Party, whose actions will forever reflect credit not only on its supporters but on the ability of man to meet his problems without violence.

We must now supersede our prejudices with reason. We must allow our minds to seek new means of achieving the common goals of humanity. Reason dictates that the weapon which can destroy humanity be renounced. Reason dictates that unceasing energy be bent toward this end until it is achieved. Reason dictates that we must not sacrifice toward this end the freedom of thought that has enabled us to meet the crises of history. I mean the democratic freedom we have so cherished in this country. Reason dictates that all other considerations pale into insignificance beside this, that the pressures and prejudices that bind and restrict our sincerest inclinations be cast aside, no matter what their origin.

Specifically the program I propose is the following:

1. A public declaration by the North Atlantic Pact nations that they will not be the first to use atomic weapons. To be followed immediately by:

1. A public declaration by the North Atlantic Pact nations that they will not be the first to use atomic weapons. To be followed immediately by:

2. Initiation of official public diplomatic negotiations between the United States and Russia to continue until an agreement has been reached providing for the renunciation of the use of atomic energy as a destructive weapon. This agreement will include a method of inspection through U. N. to insure the carrying out of the agreement.

I therefore plead with all who oppose or doubt the advisability of the policy of "power without hope" now pursued by the nation's leaders, to support the Progressive Party in this minimum, immediate program for peace. It is the only way for the desperate and the frightened to regain their voice and realize their hope. We must not sacrifice, without protestation, the hope of achieving peace without violence or the threat or fear.

The Progressive Party will defend that hope above all else, in spite of the selfish partisanship of those who may try to use that hope to further other ends.

All religious leaders—all educational leaders—all parents and grandparents who long for a more joyous life for the next generation should become active leaders in the Progressive Party to build a stronger and better one to carry out our common objective of real peace in one world. The time has come for the United States to lead in the drive for Peace.

But before our greatly disturbed peace-loving fellow Americans join with the Progressive Party they will want the facts—not the wild distortions of a prejudiced press—but the actual facts about the attitude of the Progressive Party toward the Communists.

First, it is inevitable that all peace-loving people in times like these should be attacked as communist dupes. The character assassin is always active in a free democracy. Jefferson, Jackson, and Lincoln all suffered from the foulest attacks. Roosevelt and all his closest friends have been and still are subjected to such abuse as to cause all but the hardest souls to refuse to have anything to do with government. It was to be expected, therefore, that everyone who fought the Truman Doctrine and the Arms Pact would be branded as pro-communist.

Africa, as elsewhere, the youth are in the forefront of the fight. So powerful is the Nigerian movement that the London Economist gloomily predicts "After India, Palestine, perhaps Nigeria." The Economist sees Nigeria, with its rich resources and its population of 20,000,000 as "Britain's main imperial preoccupation in the next ten years."

In succeeding columns I shall deal in more detail with the various freedom movements in Africa. In this column I have tried merely to present a rough picture of the African situation in the belief that it is high time the American Negro and his domestic allies take cognizance of current developments in Africa, rally their forces to the support of the Africans in their fight to throw off the imperialist yoke. European labor is showing the way, with its militant refusal to load arms shipments for imperialist troops in the colonies, its vigorous condemnation of colonialism.

We in this country can and must help. We can show our solidarity with the embattled peoples of Africa by supporting the Council of African Affairs, headed by Paul Robeson, which is leading the campaign to rally American support for the Africans. We can help further by actively supporting the fight for peace, for U. S. recognition of and trade with the Chinese People's Republic; and by sternly opposing President Truman's Point Four "aid" to backward nations, which is merely a mask for intensified exploitation and enslavement of the colonial peoples.

Blessed Relief from Cramp Pains

Scores of happy girls and women are finding that when they take Cardui each month they get blessed relief they never knew before, from functional periodic pains. That's because unlike pain-deadening drugs, pills and tablets, Cardui helps correct painful contractions of the organ muscles and thus helps Nature resume a more normal rhythm. In this way it actually aids in overcoming a frequent cause of painful cramps. If your pains are due to simple functional disturbances—don't wait—ask your druggist now for a bottle of Cardui (Say: "card-ee-oo"). You'll know the day you first tried this tested relief.

It's Your Government

By Assemblyman Glenn M. Anderson

With the convening of the current Budget Session of the California Legislature, we see the development of a program (or the lack of one) that should prove interesting, to say the least. This being an election year, the Administration is faced with the job of framing a program that will get votes, and sometimes this can be a difficult and risky thing to do. For instance, by eliminating a certain item from the budget to please one group of voters, the Administration may very well alienate another group by cutting out state services that were formerly available to them through the eliminated item.

In this connection, the Administration's policy this year is to keep the budget under or near last year's expenditures. This is designed to win back the support of those taxpayer groups that were lost last year when the Administration increased general state taxes on an average of 16 percent. In order to achieve this low budget for the coming year, many services have been cut to such an extent that the Administration is being severely criticized on the grounds that it is placing the strategy of vote-getting above the needs of the people.

Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins of Los Angeles, who has one of the longest and most respected records of Legislative service in the state, makes the following warning comment on the budget: "Vital services will be discontinued and nothing will be done about a jobs program if the proposed State budget is adopted. The real danger point in this budget," Hawkins declared "is its effect upon employment. The Governor's own departments have estimated an unemployment load of almost 500,000. Yet, not only does this budget fail to include a constructive employment program but actually reduces in many places employment opportunities."

As an example of what he meant, Hawkins pointed out that testimony given before the Ways and Means Committee indicated that right now over 50,000 skilled workers are badly needed in one field alone. This field is the metal trades, in which trained workers are not available at present. At the same time, the budget as proposed by Governor Warren recommends a reduction in the Apprenticeship Standards program, which is designed to train workers for just such occupations. Many authorities have already criticized this example as an example of shortsightedness. They point out that the availability of technical skills is one of the most important factors in attracting new industries, and that increasing the skills of our fellow citizens now will result in a greater income to the state later on—both through taxes paid in by new industry and by the workers themselves on the increased income level or skilled wages.

Many Legislators feel the increasing of unemployment is one that the State Government of California should take some interest in solving, especially since we have the highest level of unemployment of any state in the nation. There is a great deal the state can do, both directly and indirectly, to aid in improving the condition of the employment market. It will be a sad situation if, in order to secure votes, a program is adopted that will fail to recognize the problem and to an even worse extent in certain cases, further aggravate the situation by unwise budget cuts.

An American's political opinions, his vote, are sacred and belong to him alone. I can remember in the small town of Brockway, Pa., during the 1936 election when it was dangerous for the glass workers to say a friendly word for you. They were Republican sunflower badges for Landon, but the whole town went Roosevelt by a huge majority. Had they said, "I am for Roosevelt"—what of their jobs, their families—that was the America you knew; well, it's rougher now.

I repeat, an American's political opinions, his vote, are sacred and belong to him alone. That, I think, Mr. President, you will agree holds good today as it did in your time and in 1776. In Pittsburgh back in 1916 when Woodrow Wilson was running for President, and I was but nine years old, I remember asking my father who I thought was a Democrat. "Did you vote for Wilson, Dad?" He answered and made it stick, "Shut up, none of your business."

We lived in Republican Pittsburgh, stronghold of coal and iron corporations and police, and it was not easy to be a Democrat.

That answer of my father's is my answer to the House Un-American Committee. My life is an open book, tens of thousands in my native Pittsburgh know me from childhood. Whether in war or peace what I have done is for the best interests of our people and country, and for the cause of peace.

I want you to know, Mr. President, that millions of Americans who may not say so now openly, will not give way before this barrage of fear. We remember too well your FOUR FREEDOMS, the one — "FREEDOM FROM FEAR." I stand secure on that, and guard my rights as an American linked with the rest of our people—the rights which I earned on the battlefield with valor; the rights given to me by the Constitution and the Bill of Rights which I defended with my life; the right to the secret ballot, to my own political ideas whether they be Republican, Communist, Democrat, Socialist as defined so clearly in the Declaration of Independence—all this no one can take away from the people, the least being Mr. Cvetic who by his own admission never bought a war bond, never sacrificed or ventured to defend our America. If at any time I feel things are not going right, this is something all Americans, including myself, must do—criticize. I will do no less than I am now, because it is in the American tradition, and I say to the press, to the committee, to the accusers, in the same spirit of our national heroes of 1776, "I am an American, make the most of it."

The American people will yet make good their pledge to you, Mr. President, just as they did with their votes in 1944—that they will achieve your program for the post war which you outlined, which has been forgotten in Washington and Wall Street, but not by Mr. Henry Wallace or the Progressive Party—the program of — An Economic Bill of Rights, Friendship and Co-operation with Our Wartime Allies; and the Cause of Peace.

We Americans will learn that your program and that of the Progressive Party is something we will have to earn, no one will give it to us, surely not the press or the House Committee.

With best wishes, and with the same deep faith in the people as your own, we shall in the end stand fast.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE S. WUCHINICH,
Former Paratroop Captain, DSC.

The famed choir is composed of boys of all races between the ages of 8-11 years. They have appeared in a number of musical and movie productions.

Sara Jones Feted At Lingerie Shower By Gloria Mitchell

Joining the ranks of March brides will be attractive and petite Sara Jones, who will speak wedding vows on the 18th with personable Leonard Grimes of the public relations department of the Golden State Life Insurance Company.

Socialite Bride Radiates Happiness at Reception

A host of well-wishers and friends arrived in a steady stream to the wedding reception tendered Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd LaBeach by the bride's parents, Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Rakestraw, at their home on East 47th Place Sunday afternoon from 4-7 p.m.

Though the groom was not present due to inclement flying weather, the reception was carried out beautifully. Six attractive hostesses—Wrenna Clark, Evelyn Webb, Lula Robinson, Daphne and Yvonne Philibert, and Marguerite Chapman—greeted the continued flow of guests.

Amid a background of white stock and gladioli, banked around the fireplace and mantel, the bride took on a lovely radiance. She was gownned in a orchid-embroidered wedding dress of white marquisette over nylon let and bridal satin. All the fullness gathered softly in the snugly-fit bodice which featured an unusual criss-cross neckline treatment on the long-sleeved gown. Pastel butterflies fell sentimentally from the left hip into a long train. She carried a huge white orchid enshowered in white satin ribbons. Her heart-shaped tiara of rhinestones and wedding bells. Capturing an added amount of attention was the ceramic bride around which the many gifts were placed on the mantel.

In the receiving line with the bride were Margaret Rakestraw, mother of the bride; Barga Rakestraw, sister and maid of honor; and Anita Philpot, matron of honor.

The bride's mother chose a green crepe gown and topped it with an orchid corsage, while the bride's attendants chose pink and blue muslin deoise over tafeta. Mrs. LaBeach's sister, who wore pink, carried a nosegay of deep pink carnations and roses, and Mrs. Philpot carried light pink carnations and roses.

The popular young couple were married January 28th in a private ceremony by the bride's father, Rev. E. W. Rakestraw, with only the family and close friends attending.

Mrs. LaBeach, the former Shirley Rakestraw, is a graduate of UCLA, an elementary teacher of the 49th Street School, a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority and Wesley Methodist Church.

Her husband, who arrived in the city by plane Monday night, had been attending the Central American games in Guatemala. The Loyola University students hold the world's record for the 100 and 200 meters and represented Panama at the Olympic games held in London in 1948, placing third. Mr. LaBeach, who is a citizen of Panama, is the son of Mr. Samuel LaBeach of Jamaica, British West Indies.

They are presently making their home at 140 East 47th Place.

"They're off." Moon Rush going to the front, Noor is second, Cocopo third, Citation fourth, Old Rock fifth, Rose Beach sixth—It's Citation ahead, Noor, Noor, Citation—"C'mon Johnny." "Ride 'em Stevie," Noor is a neck ahead. They're coming down to the line of finish and it's Citation, Noor, Noor, Citation and Noor wins by a nose.

The last few weeks of the racing season were very exciting or should I say maddening. Among the minks, tweeds and "forbidden perfume" that floated to the pari-mutuel windows were Earl Carter, Paulen Garner Harris, Freddie Guiles, Jessie Cryor, Ernestine Kingsley, Hazel Simpson, Georgia Brodnax, Jack Simon, Eva Barker of Kansas City and Noeren Mitchell from Chicago. Joyce Finney, Ethel Sissie Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Lomax and Gertie Gipsen spotted the horses through their opera glasses.

Just Plain Folks

It really does me "art" good to see the local boys beating their brains out in an effort to make that cold cash. Now there is Papa LaVert Patterson doing a good job of selling washing machines, electrical appliances, etc. to the newly weds and young married couples with limited budgets. Dashing Johnny Delgado selling insurance for the Golden State—day and night. In a "leette" restaurant somewhere on Western Ave., Wilson Robinson serves his meals with "poisonality" plus a dash of "chawm." Incidentally he has a friend. I believe his name is Murray Irwin. Last but not the smallest is six foot three inches Mr. Van Williams. He's from New Orleans, attends East Los Angeles Jr College, is a cartoonist and is promoting a business directory.

Many of the close friends of Gloria and Andre Vaughn have dropped in to welcome the popular couple back to Los Angeles. Their daughter Teddye Vaughn recently appeared on Uncle Tony's TV program, and did right well for herself. To you folks up in Boston, Mrs. Fanny Hughes just loves our climate. She is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Byrd on Adair St. Teaching in our public school system is attractive Amanda Harper from North Carolina. John Smith called me up to tell you that the Youth Council of the N.A.A.C.P. is having a "United Youth Conference for Civil Rights" at the Victory Baptist Church on April 8th. The sponsors are Sherrill Luke, Dorothy Andrew, Bob Lyons, E. I. Robinson and Rabbi Jehudicah Cohen.

Exclusive Shots

I bet Yvonne Cannon, Jessie Mae Beavers, Virginia Harvey, Sara Collins, Helen Maupin, Marion Patterson, Bobby Ruffin, Paulen Harris, Clothilde Harris, Dorothy Cloud, and Mrs. Lucille Wilson are still tasting that delicious ham topped with pineapple and cherries that Earline Tate baked for Jackie Wilson's shower Sunday afternoon. Wilbur Tate made all the decorations, helped in the kitchen and took candid shots of the guests.

As I was saying Verna Daurterive was absolutely stunning in a navy blue dress with an ermine collar. Clara Fentress's dress was set off by Korean jewelry. Earline Shaw made an appropriate "bride" in a lovely two piece black taffeta. She won first prize for being the best actress—methinks she missed her calling.

Ruth Redd had charge of the contest—a very fair judge "she is." "Lu" Boswell won second prize and Eddi Mae Armstrong, third. I almost forgot—Gussie Warmack wasn't able to get there so she sent her gift by taxi. Anna King had another bang up party the other night. Those who attended were Muriel Arnaud, Don Harris, Peggy Suteri, Joanne Riddle, Ben Veal, Patsy Roberts, Wilbur Webb, J. Winston, Miller Johnson, Vilohn Proud and Maurice Johnson.

Los Angeles socialites crowded through the door of Rev. and Mrs. Rakestraw's abode to greet the lovely bride, Shirley Rakestraw La Beach. The personable hostesses at the reception were Evelyn Webb, Yvonne Philibert, Lulu Green Robinson and Sylvia Crompton. I understand the David Crompton's "are yet" expecting another. Daphne Philibert was holding down the fort upstairs with suave Atty. Willard Woods by her side. The wedding reception was one of the best organized that I have ever attended.

Eastern Women of Note

By PHYLLIS SCOTT

Nannie H. Burroughs

The name of Nannie H. Burroughs is almost a legend to some millions of people comprising the National Baptist Convention in America. She worked 40 years as secretary to the organization she now heads, the Women's Auxiliary, which comprises people from, literally, every small town and large city where the Negro populace live. She conceived the idea of a Woman's Industrial Club in Louisville, Ky., where working girls could eat wholesome lunches. At night classes were taught in what she called, "everyday things needed in the home." This included sanitation, hygiene, suitable dress, care of children, sewing, cooking, and laundry work. For these wonderful services, the girls paid the amazing cost of ten cents per week.

A white woman of means came to her one day and asked if classes in cooking were being conducted. When she learned that the income for running these classes came from the sale of homemade cakes and pies, she was so impressed that she paid Miss Burroughs for every pupil she had in the school.

Yes, Miss Burroughs is a legend. Her early efforts in Louisville are but an infinitesimal part of her accomplishments. Under her leadership the Women's Auxiliary has raised more than $100,000 and they have put more than a half million into the missionary treasury of their church.

Her National Training School in Lincoln Heights, Washington, D. C. has several unit buildings worth thousands of dollars. It was born "out of a resolute determination to challenge Negro people to help themselves; to help their faith; and to build self-reliance."

Cecelia Cabaniss Saunders

Whenever YWCA work is mentioned the name of Cecelia Cabaniss Saunders will be right up there near the top. She is known in the East as a member of New York's top 100 leaders, having given more than 33 years to the Harlem branch YWCA. She serves on many advisory advisory and interracial committees in Harlem and greater New York.

When she went to the Branch in 1914 it was housed in two private rented houses with an annual budget of $5,000. Since that time it has moved into its own unit of buildings which includes administrative, residence, and trade school buildings with an annual budget of $350,000 and a working staff of over 100 people.

Besides the plant at 179 West 137th street in New York City Harlem branch also operates a large summer camp at Bear Mountain, New York. It accommodates approximately 470 girls during a summer year on an estimated budget of $21,800 with a staff of 47.

The schools of Beauty Culture, Dressmaking and Designing, Commerce, Practical Nursing and Tailoring are all housed in the Trade school.

However, Harlem Branch, which is making plans for expansion, has grown tremendously in intercultural goodwill under the administration of Mrs. Saunders. She is the recipient of an A. B. from Fisk U; honorary Master of Social Sciences degree from Tuskegee, has done graduate work at Columbia U, and has attended the summer institutes at Swathmore, Pennsylvania, and Wellesley colleges.

Sadie T. M. Alexander

Sadie Alexander of Philadelphia has enjoyed one of the most brilliant careers in the legal profession. Her reputation as a lawyer is well known in the East. In December 1946, her name spread round the world as President Truman announced the members of his Committee on Civil Rights.

PIONEER RELIGIOUS LEADER—Nannie H. Burroughs has given more than 40 years to National Baptist Convention, Women's Division, and has built a training school for young women worth thousands.

Mrs. Alexander, wife of the noted attorney, Raymond Pace Alexander, and mother of two children, has an unusually fine educational background. This native Philadelphian was graduated with honors from the School of Education, University of Pennsylvania in 1918; graduate scholar and recipient of M. A. Economics in 1919; and the following year she won the Frances Sarjeant Pepper Fellowship in Economics.

Mrs. Alexander distinguished herself when she became the first Negro woman in the United States to receive a PhD in Economics. Nineteen twenty-seven was her Big Year. She received her LLB from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, became a member of the Law Review Board, and was the first Negro woman to graduate from the state law school and to practice in Pennsylvania.

Besides serving on numerous boards, councils, and committees she is a legal advisor for Delta Sigma Theta sorority; attorney for the Bishop's Council of the AME church; and member of National Defense Conference on Negro Affairs.

Dr. May E. Chinn

Dr. May E. Chinn, who began practicing medicine in New York City before the first World War, has successfully bucked discrimination against her race and sex to become a leader in the new field of cancer research.

Her work in the Strang Prevention Clinic at Memorial Hospital is both challenging and gratifying. It consists of early detection of cancer in the apparently well person before they are conscious of any signs or symptoms pointing to this disease.

Dr. Chinn has uncovered some valuable information on Negro Women in medicine. Just three years after the Manumission of slaves in the United States the first Negro woman received her degree in medicine. Her name was Dr. Rachel Cole, who graduated from the New York Medical College and Hospital and practiced more than fifty years. Dr. Susan McKinney Stewart became the second in 1870.

medical schools were admitting women. Sarah Redmond received her Doctor of Medicine degree that year from a leading medical school in Florence, Italy.

One of the most interesting points discovered by Dr. Chinn in her historical study was the fact that four states in America have recorded the first women to practice medicine in their states were Negro. These states are Alabama, Mississippi, Virginia, and South Carolina.

Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Jay D. (Marie) Jenkins returned home on the S. S. Partha after a three months European trip and report a wonderful time.

Mrs. Cassie Patterson of San Diego spent the weekend in Pasadena.

Members of the press were the guests of the Medical, Dental, and Pharmaceutical association at dinner Wednesday held at Alena's Tearoom. Just before the president, Dr. Roy Peyton introduced the guests, Dr. William Bailey gave them an original toast. Cooperation and goodwill was the keynote of the meeting. Sixty members and guests enjoyed the affair.

Attorney Announces Candidacy For Alameda Superior Court

At the instance of his many friends and legal associates, Attorney John C. Henderson, about ten minutes before closing time, joined the parade of candidates for Superior Court Judge for the vacancy that will be created when the venerable T. W. Harris retires on December 31st, 1950.

Attorney Henderson's story is one of a self-made man, having started at the bottom and come up through the ranks. After graduating from high school, he spent three years in college, quit school, married and obtained employment as a clerk in the Oakland post office. Six years later he entered Lincoln law school, but having a family to support, remained in the postal service working nights and attending school by day.

Such a program necessitated limiting himself to three hours' sleep per day for four days out of each week. This was done during the three years of law school, and because of the attempts of his supervisors to force him to quit school, he concealed the fact that he was in school during his final year, and worked each night during the three days the State Bar examinations were given.

Despite these handicaps, he rated in the first ten of those who passed, although less than twenty-two per cent of the applicants passed and a number of complaints were made to the Supreme Court that the examination was too stiff.

Mr. Henderson has compiled an enviable record in the seventeen years he has been practicing. He has the unique distinction of being a master trial tactician in both civil and criminal cases. This has been proven in the many cases which he has successfully handled. Time and space will not permit a full enumeration, but the following are a few examples: Progressive Baptist Church and Church of God in Christ property matters; Rutledge labor case; Byrd, Venable, Nealy and Reddick accident cases; Flourney and Hall rape cases in Solano county, and the Hooper and McCoy successful appeals.

His most recent triumph is his brilliant defense of Dr. Austin in the "Franks murder conspiracy trial." His client was the only one of the four defendants who was acquitted, the other three now serving sentence. John Henderson's trial tactics and court demeanor has evoked praise and commendations by many judges before whom he has appeared not only in Alameda county but throughout the state.

Attorney Henderson, a resident of Alameda county since 1918, is a member of the following organizations: North Oakland Baptist Church; Board of Directors Northwest Branch Y.M.C.A.; Director region eight of the National Bar Association; United States Supreme Court Bar; State Bar of California; Alameda County Bar Association and member of its Legislation Committee; Conference of Bar Delegates eight man committee to study special verdicts in criminal cases; Good Hope Lodge No. 29, Victoria Consistory No. 25, Prince Hall Affiliation and Menelick Temple No. 36 Shrine; president of the West Oakland Businessmen's Association; Omega Psi Phi fraternity. Mr. Henderson is married, has two daughters and one grand-daughter.

YMCA Support Fund Campaign

The current YMCA Support Fund Campaign entered its final stage this week with the closing report meeting set for Tuesday, March 14. Thereafter, for the year ending next February the program and services of the 28th Street Branch will be budgeted on the basis of the results of the campaign to date.

In a desperate effort to guarantee the continuance of the youth program and services of the Branch, an appeal has been made to the churches of the community for a special offering next Sunday. Since the local Branch was organized as the result of the concern of local pastors for the youth of the community such an appeal at this time of crisis is natural.

During the period of Community Chest support, the field of the YMCA, especially in this area, was definitely limited by agreement with other Chest agencies and directs service to the churches and their youth groups was not included in the "Y's" field. Now, that the Branch "Y" is independent of the Chest, it is again free, in fact under compulsion, to serve and seek support especially from the Christian Community in this South Central Area.

Public Wonders What's Behind The Indictment of H. A. Howard

What is behind the indictment of Herbert A. Howard, founder of the Broadway Federal Savings and Loan Association; From the men and women who talk about the indictment at social gatherings, on the way to and on the way home from church, you get a wide variety of theories, all of them inclining to the belief that Howard is the victim of his own ambitions, and a handful of community businessmen who have turned green-eyed over his phenomenal success.

The three million dollar Broadway Federal Savings and Loan institution is three years old. Howard, a successful real estate broker, is its founder, and is credited with contributing to its rapid growth and success more than any other of the prominent business and professional men who form its board of directors.

Mingled with its history is the hope and pride of an entire community. The talk and rumors one hears daily indicate the close interest with which the public is watching events developing around Howard's trial.

Postponed several times, there is little likelihood that the trial of H. A. Howard will get under way before the middle of the month . . . if then. The uncertainty is prompted by the usual behaviour of the government attorney who asked for dismissal of the first 24 count indictment against Howard, and who this week indicated he would ask for dismissal of the second and succeeding indictment. Should this happen, and another indictment is presented, it will make the third time the government has attempted to offer an indictment that would stand up in court.

It is understandable that to the lay mind, this represents an admission of weakness in the government's case. The average person watching the Howard case is not familiar with the legal necessity for abandoning an indictment and introducing a substitute. It is not surprising that some people interpret this action as a form of harassment. They expect government attorneys to know how to prepare an indictment properly.

Fighting to protect a reputation he spent a lifetime building, H. A. Howard has many enemies, and he is finding out now . . . many friends. Nationally-known as a business leader, Howard has inspired thrift, saving and business daring in several Negro communities throughout the nation. He knows that an injury to the Broadway Federal will seriously affect similar ventures in other parts of the country. This, he says, concerns him more than the attacks being made on him by his enemies.

D.C. May Get Three Legit Theatres

WASHINGTON, D. C.—With the prospects of Jim Crow cracking in the Nation's capitol, the legit situation here has broken wide open within the last three months. Since 1948 when the National was closed for refusal to admit Negroes, this city has been void of any legitimate or flesh shows.

The American Theatre & Academy is continuing negotiations for the lease of the Belasco from the Government, and has raised $60,000 so far for the Strand Theatre deal in collaboration with the Committee of Theatrical Producers. The Belasco is excellently situated but with a small seating capacity of 1300 it would be used for lighter production straight plays. The other interests that entered the Washington theatre scene is a Broadway producing team of Harold Bromley and Eunice Healey. They have taken an option on the Gayety for the presentation of a series of recent New York hits that have not played Washington.

The entry of these new ventures brings to focus one very important point. That is, they will operate on a non-segregated basis, and if the National Theatre decides to revert to a legit policy, it will be compelled to abandon its Jim Crow policy.

By
ALBERT J. McNEIL
Music Critic of the California Eagle

AIDA AT XAVIER UNIVERSITY

For the seventeen consecutive time, the music department of Xavier University of New Orleans, La., has presented grand opera with chorus, orchestra, ballet and scenery. Their performance of Verdi's "Aida," presented in mid-February, received a glowing review from Ewing Poteet, music critic on the New Orleans Item, Crescent City daily.

We quote Mr. Poteet: "It's a little late to run a formal review of something that opened on Monday night and played a repeat and final performance on Wednesday. So let's just put it that today I want to talk about the 'Aida' that I saw Wednesday out at Xavier University. There was plenty to talk about. And most of the talk can be complimentary."

"The next time Xavier puts on something like this I hope I can learn about it in time to cover the opening. Not apparently, that Xavier depends for attendance as its events on newspaper publicity. Every available inch of the University gymnasium was packed with interested, appreciative auditors."

"What they saw when they came in was a cleverly constructed stage set, stretching across the whole width of the building and suggesting the facade of any Egyptian temple or palace that might be called for. Steps led up to a pair of panels that opened to disclose the stage proper."

"Against the backdrop were projected colored photographic slides to set the mood for whatever particular room was supposed to be the scene of action. This is no very novel device. But its economy and effectiveness make it singularly useful in a low-budget school production. And this was a school production, the work of students and faculty alone, except for a professional orchestra, conducted by James Yestadt, in the pit. Even there one found some student brass players who carried their end very capably. Speaking of brass players, by the way, I've heard worse 'Aida' stage bands than the one last night."

"On the stage, though, there were students only. It's hard to believe that out of a music department student body which, I am told, numbers barely 90, there could be assembled such a generally impressive cast."

"I have rarely seen such a pretentious task attempted so successfully by amateurs. Indeed, I've known some presumably professional companies that might do well to spend a little time at school at Xavier."

"You rather take it for granted THAT ANY NEGRO CHORUS IS A GOOD CHORUS. This one, as prepared by Norman Bell, really surpassed expectations."

"It was amongst the solo voices, however, that there came the real surprises. A young woman named EMMA GOLDMAN was positively astounding in the title role. She has some things to learn, of course. There is sometimes a tendency to cut phrases short or to sink unexpectedly into an inaudible pianissimo."

"For the most part, though, she sang with real beauty of tone and understanding. What's more, she moves gracefully and makes an appealing tragic heroine. When she wants to exert herself she can outsing a whole chorus without apparent strain."

"Miss Goldman is only a sophomore, I understand, and entirely without professional experience. Nevertheless, when she was on stage I forgot to listen critically and just enjoyed myself. I hope there will soon be other chances to listen to her."

"The male voices also were noteworthy—those of Anderson Williams as the King; Alfred McWen as Amonasro and William Brown as Ramfis. Mr. Williams in particular deserves praise for the clearness with which he sang the English text. The production as a whole was impressive from beginning to end. A rather narrow stage space was filled with a richly costumed ensemble. It left little room for ballet sequences but Eleanor Gallagher's dancers made the most of their limited space."

"What struck me most of all though, was the smoothness and ease with which such a small group of students were able to go through Verdi's demanding score. It was a show of which schools with a much larger reservoir of talent could be very proud. Much of the credit, naturally, goes to the faculty members who prepared the performance—especially to the general director, Sister M. Elise."

We wish to thank our cousin, Marie Boyer Brown, for the news release, which she forwarded to us by air mail, for this issue.

Negro Art Committee Sponsors Presentation Of Native Opera

It is not generally known that there are approximately twenty-five or thirty works for the stage created by Negro composers and authors that are now ready for production. Very few of these creations have ever been produced. New York has seen most of the few production that have reached the boards thus far.

The Committee of friends of Negro Art have organized to bring some of these works to the stage. Their first production will be a new kind of show "Lalibala" an evenings entertainment on an African theme, by Penman Lovinggood.

This work was produced twice in New York at the Central Opera House on East 65th Street, Nov. 16, 1936, and May 14, 1937, at Boerick Auditorium, Riverside Dr. The production is booked for three evening performances on June 26, 27 and 28 at the Embassy Auditorium.

Trotters And Pacers Open At Santa Anita Track Next Month

Southern California turf fans change gait from a gallop to a trot for the next horse racing activity on the local scene.

With Santa Anita's 13th thoroughbred meeting passing into history Saturday, preparations are already underway to convert the swank Arcadia racing plant for the 40-day Grand Circuit meeting of Western Harness Racing Association opening on April 21.

The nation's finest trotters and pacers will start moving into Santa Anita shortly after the first of April, close to 300 already in the advanced stages of winter training at Del Mar, California.

Thirty stake races coupled with the richest purse program ever offered for a meeting of this length in the history of harness racing is expected to draw every top name in harness racing, both horses and drivers, to Santa Anita this spring.

A and M Student Wins Tennis Laurels

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — Althea Gibson, National Negro Women's tennis champion and student at Florida A and M College, won her first, second and third round at the Eastern Indoor Meet this week at Kingsbridge Armory in New York City.

Her first triumph was over Devonika Katilus with a score of 6-0, 6-1. Her second victory was a 6-2, 6-4 defeat over Mary Brueneau. Althea's third victory was a dazzling triumph of 6-1, 6-2 in the quarter finals over Isabelle Troceole.

Last year Miss Gibson went to the quarter finals in the same meeting. Today she will go into the semi-finals.

The A and M quintet was handed its initial defeat recently in the new gym by a great Tennessee State cage combine. The score was 73-56.

Caliente, Old Mexico: With a banner crowd of more than 6500 fans on hand to enjoy a combination of feature attractions at Caliente last Sunday, Wantha Davis, the champion girl rider of the world, again was the winner of a match race between two of the greatest quarter horses in the country.

Breaking a little wide, she soon had righted Bright Eyes, her mount, and with hand, boot and whip, caught the Flying Tidy Step seventy yards from the wire to score by a neck. It was one of those Snapper Garrison finishes for the little miss from Liberal, Kan. The winner paid in the mutuels $4.70, and the time for the quarter of a mile was 22 1/5. Bettering the track record of the thoroughbred Nuh at of 22 2/5 seconds set in 1932.

The feature event of the day, called the "Lion Allowances" at six furlongs, was won by Orveda, rewarding his backers $10.80. The secondary, billed as "The Lamb," at one mile and seventy yards, was won by a field horse Call Pal Snip, paying $36.60. The daily-double combination of Chick's Pebble, winner of the second race, and Rose Zam, victor of the third, paid to its lucky holders — (hold your hats) $880. Nice investment for two dollars if you had it. The Quniela backers of U. S. Salute and Shining Sis, who finished in that order, received $45. Jockey R. York was the riding star of the day with four winners.

Baby Face Jones Returns To Legion In Battle With Herman

Harold Baby Face Jones, rousing lightweight roughie who has faced most of the top men in his weight class, returns to Hollywood Legion Stadium Friday night. The cherubic Detroit boxer Freddie Babe Herman, of Los Angeles, in the ten round topper billed for the Hollywood sock saucer.

Jones, a southpaw, won himself quite a following in these parts during his last local stay. He went to the post four times, came away with but a single win, over Charley Salas, and yet endeared himself to So. Cal. fistic fanciers by staging three stirring brawls with Aragon, Bolanos and Bernard Docusen.

Herman, too, has been traveling in fast company of late. He engaged Aragon in his Legion debut as a main bouter, losing on a cut eye. Freddie the Babe has already main evented four times since January 1st, dropping two close ones to Johnny Gonzales at Oakland, belting Ray Jones out at the Legion, and losing a most disputed clash with Elmer Beltz, also at Hollywood.

but it did in the $500 consolation prize when Roosevelt Taylor, a Negro car washer of San Diego, won the prize for a fifteen cent program, after receiving his prize he had plenty of friends who followed him to the bar and other places.

This Sunday General Manager Walter C. Marty has arranged a super program of twelve races with two big features. The main event will be the "Tides," at one mile and one sixteenth, with an added value of $1,500. A six furlong sprint for the best sprinters will be the secondary. Again $5,000 will be given away to anyone picking seven straight winners from the third race thru the ninth. In case no one picks the seven straight winners, a $500 consolation prize will be given after the last race.

Tanforan opened last Tuesday and some of the best horses that raced at Santa Anita were on hand to compete for the rich stakes offered by that track. The great stable of the Calumet Farms will see action at the northern track. The mighty Citation, Ponder, Two Lea, and others will be on hand.

Citation will pass the million dollar mark before he leaves California. This writer believes if Eddie Arcaro had ridden Citation in last Saturday's handicap, the wonder horse would have beaten Noor.

Not taking anything away from the ride Steve Brooks gave the champion, I think that Arcaro is a greater finisher than Brooks. He has outfinished Longden in many races at Santa Anita during the winter meet. This writer will bring the reader of this column live horses to watch during the meeting. So until next week, your's for better horse racing.

Auto Team Racing Program At Gilmore Stadium Next Week

Automobile team racing, that caught on like wildfire when introduced recently at Gilmore Stadium, will be continued for the afternoon thunderbug carnival scheduled for Sunday, March 19, it was announced by Gene Doyle, manager of the popular Gilmore thrill plant.

squad by a score of 42-30, has been challenged by a group captained by Bob Barker.

In addition to the 15-lap team race, the March 19 Gilmore Matinee card will include the 60-lap March Sweepstakes, 20-lap semi-main event, four sprint heats of eight laps each and opening three-lap trophy exciter. It will be 130 laps of racing in all over the world's most spectacular and fastest "dirt quarter."

Qualifying trials start at 1 p.m., first race at 2:30 o'clock.

Sports Chatter From ★ Jefferson High ★

Friday, Muroc airfield will take a back seat in the speed department as the eastside jets of track and field take off in an early season demonstration of there-he-is-is-there-he-isn't hocus pocus. Cause of all the rush will be the annual jamboree of jumping jacks from Jefferson and Jordan.

To the less enlightened it will be the renewal of track and field rivalries between two of the most talented schools in the city. But what a meet! Both coaches have promised to pour it on, and it's anybody's guess who will emerge the victor. From pre-season dope, Jefferson rates the nod in the varsity department, but the Cees and Bees will wage a close battle for top honors.

Last week's inter-class meet at Jefferson saw the B12 class walk off with the marbles, but not until everyone had been treated to some very nice early season performances. Guy Blackburn and Larry Williams were obviously running at second speed at the former breezed to a 10 flat hundred. Surprise of the event was that a B10, Leon Alexander, slipped by the coasting Williams for second honors. Likewise the boys held themselves in check as Guy (Fly Boy) Blackburn breezed to a comfortable win in the 220 in 22 flat. Gary Green chugged around the 440 in a nice 52.7 gait and Lang Stanley whipped all competition in the mile in 4:47. William Johnson and Arthur Scott both hopped over 22 feet in the broad jump, while Doug Eppright slipped over the 6'2" mark in the high jump.

Tub-thumpers at Jordan are claiming that the Bulldogs will come forth with some surprise material, but Jefferson Democrats are greeting this propaganda with "We'll see on Friday" replies. All spectators are requested to bring along their own smoked glasses. Some of these jets really blaze around that track. Field events get under way at 2:30. Track events will start promptly at 3:00 p.m.

Basketball World Series Will Open In Chicago Next Month

CHICAGO—The city of great sports spectacles—Chicago—will be the starting point for the cage world's newest and greatest extravaganza when the fabulous Harlem Globetrotters and a brilliant team of 1950 All American college cagers launch their trans-continental "World Series of Basketball" tour here at the Stadium on April 2nd.

This series, the most stupendous in basketball history, will include sixteen major cities from coast to coast. The initial game here is expected to attract a crowd of 20,000.

The All-Americans, selected from a field comprising virtually all the nation's outstanding college players, will be coached by Henry Iba of Oklahoma A & M, and Clair Bee, veteran Long Island University mentor.

Aiding in the selection and development of the All American squad will be "Chuck" Taylor, special basketball representative of Converse Rubber Co., as well as coaches, sports writers and radio commentators throughout the nation.

High on the list of players expected to make the All American quintet are: Kevin O'Shea, Notre Dame; Don Lofgran, Univ. of San Francisco; Bob Cousy, Holy Cross; Don Rehfeldt, Wis.; Bill Sharman of Univ. of Southern Calif.; Paul Arizin Villanova; Charles Cooper, Duquesne; Hal Hoskins, Hamlin and many other great players.

Promotion Of ABC Tournament Dropped By New York Daily

NEW YORK—The New York Journal American announced in a front-page article by Bill Corum that it is dropping its promotion of the men's bowling tournament which was to have started March 17, because of the rule of the American Bowling Congress restricting membership to "individuals of the white male sex." Similar action will be taken Mr. Corum stated, at the conclusion of the present women's tourney if the Women's International Bowling Congress continues to adhere to its restrictive membership rules.

Emphasizing his paper's friendliness in the past for the ABC and its tournaments, Corum said, however, that "To strike against race and bigotry in this free and wonderful country of ours is far more important. If all Americans can't play, we don't want to play either.

Sigma Cagers Shoot at Kappa's Crown in Frat Series Opener

The defending champion Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity team will put its crown on the block Saturday night, March 25th at Loyola high school gym, when it meets the fighting team of Phi Beta Sigma in the feature game of the opening round of the thrilling Inter-Fraternal basketball series.

In the schedule released this week by the Inter-Fraternal Council, Ivan ("The Terrible") Robinson, voted the outstanding player of last year's hard fought series, will lead his Omega mates against Alpha squad anchored by those two mighty mites, Kenny and Hugo Hill, in the opening game of the double feature program.

This year's meeting between the Kappas and the Sigmas is expected to assume all aspects of a real pier 6'er. Bruin great Gene Williams and his sharp-shooting pals, Davie Williams and Wes Robinson will be out to prove that those two thrilling-to-the-last-second defeats that they tagged on the Sigmas in '49 were for keeps. However, the Blue and White's great center, Doug Shaw, and their dependable reliables, Neil Collins and Fred Bluet, have a different idea of how things should go.

The talk sooner or later gets around to Ivan Robinson, called the "Terrible" by the men who must guard him and play against him. With more help than he had last year, Robinson will be the key man in what shapes up as the best Omega team in series history.

Pre-game and season tickets go on sale March 13th, members of the council announced.

for every household use, stop and think. Has your family increased in size? Have you installed an automatic clothes washer or dishwasher? Each steps up your use of hot water substantially. So for a constant hot water supply and real convenience, you may need a larger heater. Plan now to have oceans of hot water. For gas heats water three times faster and costs far less.

YOU CAN OUTGROW A WATER HEATER, TOO!

Just as easily as a baby outgrows his shoes, so can your family's use of hot water gradually exceed the capacity of your present water heater. Study the chart at right. "Adora's Rittings"

By Adora Lily Ulasi

THE READER'S WRITE

(The following is some pertinent comment on a recent column).

Adora:

I read the article you wrote in regard to Dear Primus. You must not feel too badly about "Man's Ingratitude," for it is really a part (or a whole) of human nature in some people. Unfortunately this ugly part shows itself quite often.

I was not going to write my reflections on this matter but, after I saw and heard you Sunday

ADORA

5th at the Bon Volage to Africa, I felt I should. In your Editorial you forgot to mention that you would like to hear from people (friends), who felt the same as you. Did you think no one would be on your side? How unselfish of you! But, courage is the word—for you—you, invited only the friends of Primus to defy you. That is good. They will. So will yours support you. That is good. They will.

Now—little writer (for a great newspaper), isn't it true, that to enjoy the culture of any people, one must possess culture? Culture is not so easy to acquire—more often, born and bred, it grows with the individual. In the veins of a person the love of mankind must run freely. The eyes must not only be open but must see the beauty—the good as well as the adverse. The brain will tell us the truth—the weight of good or bad. The disposition of us will color all these things, we think, see, and feel. One must have pride, honor, liberty and intelligence seasoned with kindness before we can enjoy any culture, other than the one which we are already familiar. Culture is a long process. It does not happen over night.

To so much as visit a land centuries old is more than reading all the library books it is seeing history—being history! To know your heritage comes of that particular soil must be a tremendous thing! Was thy of thanks for having tread that earth! To eat of the food—to enjoy the hospitality of an ancient people, who have continued to this time could not be thought decadent. Somewhere there had to be progression. You are here, Adora you are proof!

Let me apologize for Primus. Let me apologize for a rude, thoughtless, little girl!! She even forgot the little song Amiens signs in Shakespeare's, "As You Like It."

"Blow, blow, thou winter wind, Thou art no so unkind As man's ingratitude; Thy tooth is not so keen Because thou art not seen, Although thy breath be nude, Heigh-ho! Sing heigh-ho! Unto the green holly;

Most friendship is feigning, most loving mere folly; Then heigh-ho, the holly! This life is most jolly. Grieve, freeze, thou bitter sky, That does not bite so nigh As benefits forgot; Though thou the waters warp Thy sting is not so sharp As friends remembered not! Heigh-ho! Sing heigh-ho! Unto the green holly;

Perhaps—we should not be too exacting but, consider this, the kindness of you, your people, did cast a pleasant light on your ungrateful guest, hence you did not see the rawness within; you, were eager, proud of your progress and you felt you could not offer enough. No loyal response!

Having seen it so often I have had to recognize so many expressions of inferiority. And, so have you, perhaps. There is an instance here? There is more pretence than actual truth in such criticism. It is a compensation that pretends to know that which one does not know. Most deadly to self-judgment when one does this because one believes, finding such faults in things it will make them appear discriminating and intelligent for it only means this kind of fake intelligence has become stagnant and self-liberty is bound tightly.

So—I do not attach too much importance to Primus. She is a dancer—primitive is her tempo—perhaps, all of her.

I wonder if Primus would personally set aside some dividends from—maybe her first concert for one—one girl or one boy—the education of one; then according to her, at least there would be one less ignorant Nigerian. To criticize is not enough when you know the need of a people as well as Primus knows what your country needs! (Seems to know) that is!

"Et tu Brute!"

Thank you for reading this for some day I shall meet you. Mrs. Bass said she would arrange it. Sincerely,

HARRIETTE F. DAVIS, R.N.
P.S.: Don't tell Moses—but tell Primus "To Let Your People Go!"
—H.F.D.

paralleling its east bank was not complete, nor did it run closer than 50 to 100 miles from the river. An entire new rail network was built in wartime, radiating from a new trunk line along the west bank.

North of Stalingrad, there were 400,000 Germans living astride both the river and the railroad. It was deemed prudent early in the war to move this entire huge colony hundreds of miles to the east, as the U. S. did with the West Coast Japanese. Numerous industries evacuated from the west were set up in the cities along the river's banks.

The importance of the Volga is being even further enhanced by the construction of the Volga-Don Canal across the historic battlefield west of Stalingrad. The great steel, tractor and ship-building industries of the city itself, and its residential and public structures are being rebuilt. In the early stages this was done by volunteer labor, thousands coming to the heroic city from all parts of the country to contribute to its reconstruction. The largest water power project in the world is being built at Kuibyshev, which will be remembered as the temporary wartime capital during the siege of Moscow in 1941. The project will have nearly twice the electrical output of Grand Coulee. In addition to power for industry it will provide water for the irrigation of the great wheat-and-cattle-farming country between the Volga and the Ural. An immense lake will be created above the dam, which will increase the already great contribution which the Volga fisheries make to the country's food supply.

The Volga region was not originally a Russian area. Kazan, today again the Tatar capital, was conquered by Ivan the Terrible in the 16th century. Around the Tatar Autonomous Republic, centered at Kazan, are the Mari, Chuvash, Udmurt, and Mordva Autonomous Republics, inhabited by the people who lived in this area even before the Tatars came in the 13th century.

Tatars form half the population of the Tatar Autonomous Soviet Socialist Republic, which has a total of 3,000,000 people. An official report of the pre-revolutionary land board for that area describes the material conditions of the people in devastating terms: "Peanut tax arrears are so great that were all the cattle, cottages and household possessions sold, they would not cover one-half their debts." Official statistics of the time state that one out of every four peasant families owned no land, one in three had no horse. Tsarist policy with regard to the Tatars was stated in the following terms in a confidential report to the governor: "The experience of all time has shown that it is easier to govern an ignorant people than one which is enlightened to the smallest degree." Only 16 per cent of the population could read and write. Kazan University, in the heart of the Tatar area, had had exactly six native students in the 113 years of its existence under Tsarism.

The first step of the Soviet government was to distribute, among the peasantry 1,750,000 acres of the estates of the nobility, church and crown. Today 40,000 tractors and 1500 harvest combines till the fields of Ta-taria. This has made possible the cultivation of 50 per cent more land than could be worked when the wooden plow was the chief instrument of agriculture. Farming has become diversified. Dairy farming, and the growing of bean and pea crops, wheat, fodder grasses and potatoes, have supplanted the hardy, but low-yield grains which were once the area's main product.

Before the Revolution Tataria manufactured only boots, candles and soap. Even for this primitive industry, tallow was hauled from Siberia, and tanning materials from Japan. By 1938 factory production of all sorts was seven times as high as in 1913. Half the pelts taken by the huge Soviet fur-trapping industry are dressed in Kazan at a single huge plant. The old soap works grew into a major enterprise of the chemical industry. Typewriters for all the Soviet nationalities formerly using Arabic scripts are manufactured in Kazan. Shipyards build vessels to ply the Kama and the Volga. Dairy plants in the county seats condense milk brought in from the farms. Asphalt is processed from local city substances. Movie film and synthetic rubber round out the list of the new manufactures.

Kazan, the capital of the new republic, has grown from a sleepy provincial town to a major industrial and cultural center of more than half a million. Its wharves extend more than three miles along the Volga. To old Kazan University, other colleges have been added, and among their students in 1945 were more than 1,000 Tatars. There are more than 4000 schools urban and rural, and 10,000 teachers are Tatars. 100 new schools were built during the war. Cultural life centers around a permanent repertory theater, an opera and ballet company, and 22 scientific research institutions. In 1944 every second person in Tataria was attending school or college full or part time. That is twice as high as the average for the Soviet Union as a whole, and, to the knowledge of the writer, probably the highest anywhere.

Legislative Confer. March 13

An emergency conference on ways and means to gain passage of legislation coming before the special session will meet March 13 in the California Room of the Alexandria Hotel, Fifth and Spring, at 8 p.m.

The Governor's call placed on the agenda matters of child care, jobs, pensions, and relief, together with the subjects of slum clearance, lobbying, smog and others. However, Atty. Paul Major, Southern California chairman of the legislative conference, declared that rent control and fair employment practices legislation must be added by the Governor.

A first-hand report on the legislature will be given by Eleanor Raymond, executive secretary of the California Legislative Conference, who will return that evening from Sacramento.

Notes From Jeff

Students at Jefferson High School along with other students of California High Schools where driver education is a part of the curriculum received an added incentive for safety recently when the Association of Casualty and Surety Companies made their second annual safety awards. The top award, superior award, was granted to California and seven other states.

This award was granted to states having a full course of driver education in 50% of their secondary schools and having enrolled therein not less than 50% of their eligible students. For the competition a board of judges was set up, composed of experts in the safety education field and headed by National Safety Council President Ned H. Dearborn.

The governor of every state was then requested to appoint an official to coordinate the reporting of the state's driver education program. These officials were supplied with simplified reporting forms for use in compiling the necessary information which was subsequently referred to the board of judges.

Awards, in the form of bronze plaques, have already been presented to the governors of the winning states in appropriate ceremonies and a facsimile of the plaque has been mailed to every school conducting a course in the winning states.

As part of the total state program in drive education Jefferson High has been doing its share in the continuous improvement of this state wide safety project. Since September 300 students have taken the driver education course and this term over 275 students have enrolled in ten sections of the course. The course stresses the rules and regulations of the road, road demonstrations, various psycho-physical testing devices etc.

Jefferson High is currently working out the details of a safety program which will involve the entire student body.

To bring the facts about the new China to the public, the Committee has scheduled a mass rally at the Embassy Auditorium, 9th and Grand, for March 21, where Eslanda Goode Robeson, author and anthropologist, will be the main speaker. Mrs. Robeson, wife of the world renowned Paul Robeson, has just returned from China where she attended a Congress of Asian women. She is one of the first persons to have returned from liberated China with a report of conditions under the new peoples government.

"We believe that trade and friendship with China can bring billions of dollars worth of business to our country," said Sarajo Lord, Executive Director of the Committee, "and we are determined to bring the facts before the American public."

Miss Lord added that anyone who wishes to assist the work of the committee can phone the office at GRanite 4604.

Questions on health insurance, the storing of potatoes, the Brannan Plan, etc., were poured upon the speakers at the luncheon meeting of the Women's Division Democratic State Central Committee held last Tuesday at the Alexandria hotel. Mrs. Lillian Ford was there to help answer them.

A committee for traffic safety will be organized to improve traffic conditions in and around the school and community. GIVE THE PEDESTRIAN A SMILE AND A BREAK!

Traffic Signal At Long Beach Installed Soon

The long-awaited traffic signal at the corner of 48th Place and Long Beach Avenue is near completion, as was announced by Councilman Kenneth Hahn this week.

Over three years of red tape and legal technicalities involving the jurisdiction of the City of Los Angeles Board of Public Utilities and Transportation, the office of the City Traffic Engineer, Ralph T. Dorsey, and the State Board of Public Utilities in Sacramento plus the Pacific Electric Railway were involved in coordinating the traffic signal with the fast-moving express lines of the Pacific Electric trains going to Long Beach.

Ask Minority Members On Regents Board

SAN FRANCISCO — Governor Warren was requested this week to give strong consideration to minority group problems in making future appointments to the Board of Regents of the University of California.

In a letter from Mrs. Josephine W. Duveneck, president of the California Federation for Civic Unity, the Governor was reminded that "reports of discrimination in university life—whether true or not—require a Board of Regents fully alert to such issues."

Mrs. Duveneck suggested that the Board include "ethnic minority group representatives or at least individuals conversant with minority group problems." She added there are numerous persons who meet these requirements.

"The recent controversy over the loyalty oath... has focused wide public attention on the composition of the Board of Regents," the letter stated. The Governor will shortly be required to fill two vacancies on the Board occasioned by the expiration of the terms of two present regents.

Assistance League Outline Program For Ensuing Year

The lovely South Arlington Blvd., home of Mrs. Lillian Orange was selected for the meeting of the Assistance League of the Outdoor Life and Health Association recently.

The president, Mrs. Yolande Stovall, after presenting a tentative program of activities for the ensuing year and naming committee personnel, turned the meeting over to the program chairman, who introduced press representatives Leon Stewart and Robert Jackson.

These well informed men of the news-world traced in most interesting detail the growth of Negro journalism in our country and in local circles, paying tribute to the California Eagle as the proud parent of modern Los Angeles Negro newspapers.

Urban League Safety Council Urges Courtesy

As Los Angeles counted its traffic victims for the year, Mrs. Hazel Williams, member of the Urban League South Central Safety Council, announced the Council's March program of traffic accident education.

"If we are to strike successfully at the mounting toll of traffic victims," Mrs. Williams said, "we must do more than urge legislation and tighter enforcement. We must get at the cause of accidents. To do that, we must reach the individual driver. More specifically, we must convince motorists that bad attitudes and discourtesy are the big difference between safe drivers and potential killers."

"Where discourtesy ends and actual violation of the law begins," Mrs. Williams said, "is a fine line of demarcation. Many discourtesies that result in fatal accidents are either not considered grave enough for prosecution or are not detected by investigating officers."

Thrifty Offers Circus Tickets At Half Price

Circus-lovers from five to ninety-five were thrilled this week to hear that "The Circus Is Comin' to Town!" (March 28 through April 9 at Washington and Hill Streets in Los Angeles.)

And what made them even happier was the good news that again they'll be able to get half-price tickets to this year's great Clyde Beatty Circus by simply asking for 'em at any Thrifty Cut Rate Drug Store.

According to Thrifty officials, they are the only stores in this area distributing half-price Clyde Beatty Circus tickets, and the public is urged to secure tickets as soon as possible.

COURT VICTORY

"The Supreme Court's decision last week in the Wong Yung Sung case, ordering the Immigration and Naturalization Service to abide by the law in deportation proceedings is a victory for the democratic processes," Abner Green, executive secretary of the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born stated recently.

More than 150 non-citizens have been arrested in deportation proceedings on the basis of political opinions or progressive activities. Most of them have lived in the United States all their adult lives. They have American citizen families from whom they face life-time separation.

Taxpayer Fights Supervisor's Change in Township Boundary

The recent action of the Board of Supervisors in which they proposed to cut a slice of territory from the Jurisdiction of Justice of the Peace Stanley Moffat in San Antonio Township in South Los Angeles, will be aired in court.

Charging that his constitutional rights will be violated by the proposal, James A. Crum of 6924 Compton Avenue, through his attorney Claude L. Welch, has applied for writs of prohibition and mandate against the Board of Supervisors.

Crum sets forth that he voted for Judge Moffat, and that he wants Judge Moffat and not another judge, which would be the case should the supervisor's plan go into effect as proposed on March 11.

Superior Court Judge W. Turner Fox will hear arguments in the case on Thursday. According to persons in the territory which will be taken out of Judge Moffat's jurisdiction should the court fail to grant relief to Crum, the supervisor trimmed Moffat's district in an attempt to isolate him from a main source of his election support.

Reportedly, the supervisors are displeased with Moffat because he does not "cook" traffic offenders with heavy fines, and because of his liberal views.

Eastside Drive For Red Cross Needs Support

Box scores, charts and graphs marking the progress of the Red Cross fund drive went up this week on the Eastside as volunteers prepare for their second week of canvassing homes and offices.

Striving for quick and efficient coverage of the area, volunteers are determined to wind up the campaign with full quotas by stressing the campaign slogan, "For every dollar you gave before, this year add a quarter more," according to Evangeline E. Woodfolk, volunteer chairman here.

"We ask everyone in this community to consider the great need when a volunteer calls at your door."

Miss Woodfolk also reminded local working people that contributions may be sent to the Los Angeles chapter campaign office, 1107 S. Menlo Ave., in the event volunteers cannot reach them on their house-to-house rounds. Or, she suggested, a telephone call to DUanark 4-5261, Extension 237, will bring a volunteer at a convenient hour.

Could it be a leak somewhere, when a child in elementary school is unattended after an accident which happened at school, and is allowed to stagger home in a dazed condition suffering a slight concussion? Parents have tried to cooperate by school visits, and much hard work for the last three years, and were falsely accused of meddling in school affairs. Much could be said authentically, but this would become unfriendly and our corner is friendly and cooperative in every respect. Let's keep it this way. However, that leak just might burst into a huge flood with the least pressure if rules and regulations aren't put into practice.

Deadlines for news items must be mailed Friday night to your Watts Editor, Thelma Harper Berkley, California Eagle, 1864 E. 121st street, Los Angeles 2, Calif.

Mrs. Cora Johnson Designated 67th A. D. Assembly Candidate

Mrs. Cora Johnson Negro mother and veteran fighter for minority rights, received the nod of the 67th Assembly Non-Partisan Committee to run for the State Assembly on a ticket of progress and community improvement this week. The meeting was held Sunday, March 5th, at the 92nd Street Church of Christ, Rev. C. W. Arnold, pastor.

Mrs. Johnson was born in Indiana and graduated from Escambia College. She taught school three years in Tallahassee and five years in Ocala, Fla. She came to California in 1921, where she was employed for 16 years as manager and buyer for a fountain grill. Later, she taught Nursery School at McKinley Junior High School.

Mrs. Johnson has always been a staunch church member and, for 24 years she has held many offices of Grants Chapel, 108th and Compton. In 194 she spearheaded a campaign to pay off the church mortgages of 14 years' standing. In six months' time, the drive was successfully completed and $5200 was collected.

Mrs. Johnson is now a member of the choir of St. James AME Church, secretary of the Trustee Board, Sunday School teacher and a member of the Steward Board.

She is also an active officer of the following organizations: Willing Workers Club, Home and Foreign Mission, International Order of Twelve Knights and Daughters of Tabor, Grand United Order of Oddfellows and Ruth, Watts Industrial Council, South East Interracial Council, and participated in the Dedication Conference for Equalization.

Antioch College Practices And Teaches Interracial Amity

YELLOW SPRINGS, O. — A Mardi Gras festival that netted 220 dollars, launched the annual money-raising drive for the Inter-Racial Scholarship Fund on the Antioch college campus here this week.

Residents of Yellow Springs joined with Antioch students and faculty to don masks, pitch pennies, and eat pancakes covered with maple syrup that came from Antioch's own maple trees in 960-acre Glen Helen.

Since the Inter-Racial Scholarship Fund was begun in 1942, Antioch students and faculty have raised more than $25,000 to bring members of minority races to Antioch and to aid Caucasian students who plan to enter the field of race relations professionally.

They collected among themselves $2000 to see the first Negro students through. One-third of the fund is still contributed by members of the college community. The rest is raised from outside sources. At present thirteen Negro students are at Antioch receiving aid from the fund.

Antioch has the co-operation plan of education whereby students spend half their college lives on regular jobs anywhere in thirty states. Many students choose to work in inter-racial settlement houses and social service agencies.

Antioch tries to be a truly national institution. The Student body of 1100 comes from thirty-nine states, the District of Columbia, two territories, and ten foreign countries. Except for attempting to get students from all regional and economic groups, Antioch has no "quota system."

Since 1853 when the noted abolitionist Horace Mann was its first president, Antioch has not discriminated because of sex, color, or religious belief. But because its tuition was high compared with that of state colleges and universities and the college has no regular freshman scholarships, few Negro students applied. Through the Inter-Racial Scholarship Fund, Antioch is working hard to lose the reputation of being a "lily-white" school.

Dear Gang:
I've run across a poem, yes another one, that I think you'd like to read. The credit line is given to Andy Razaf and it reads thus:

"My color has stamped me as lazy.
One picked out by native to shirk
But the wonders performed by the Negro
Could have only been done through work.
My color stands for a people whom you have called evil and wild
Yet never a land have we stolen Or a weaker race defiled.
Yes, I am a Negro,
And from the hilltop I'll shout it aloud,
For one of a noble race, Should evermore be proud.
You see it's not so bad when you look at it that way, but in every day life we must do more than quote poems. It is incumbent upon us the younger generation to really do some hard work. Well I've run out of this weeks' allotment of paper—so, So Long For New.

Los Angeles Quota for Scout Jamboree Is Seventeen Troops

With 509 reservations made for Los Angeles Area Council Boy Scouts and Explorers to attend the second National Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., June 30 to July 6, only 54 places remain open for this city to complete its quota of 17 full troops, according to George C. Sopp, Council Jamboree chairman.

Reservations from all sections of the United States and Hawaii for the Scout conclave have reached a total of over 35,000, which is within 5,000 of the capacity of the camp grounds at Valley Forge, according to a wire received from New York headquarters this week.

Mr. Sopp announced that the Los Angeles Scout office, 1206 Maple Ave., will continue to accept reservations for the Jamboree as long as the 54 places remain open, with the qualification that national reservations are not closed. Reservations which are received locally following completion of the quota will be put on a special waiting list from which vacancies in the Jamboree contingent will be filled on a date-priority basis.

LIFE
There is no reason for boredom on the part of anyone who wishes to truly live. Even a single blade of grass has a story to tell. Everything we see has a reason for existence, no matter how we may view each.

All about us are wonders, but a bare few of them have been revealed. There are forces of nature that have existed since time began, and man is just now finding out what to do with them.

You have a great wealth at hand, for LIFE is indeed the greatest wealth man can possess. Make use of it!

O.W. Dear Prof. Herman: I read your column regularly and I am convinced that you can help me. I was recently laid off from my job and my bills are piling up. Do you think that I may be recalled soon?

ANSWER: A careful analysis of your problem indicates that most businesses have been affected directly or indirectly by the various strikes and other things. However, I do feel that after the major strikes are settled, you may be recalled to your position.

P.D. Conditions are upset at my house and I am at a loss as to what to do. Please advise me.

ANSWER: Several things are revealed to me at this time, and I suggest that you write in for a private reply. Three questions are answered for 25c. Send all letters to me in care of this paper and include your full name and complete birthdate.

T.C. A neighbor told me that my husband was interested in another woman. Is this true?

ANSWER: Idle gossip has ruined many a happy marriage. don't let it ruin yours. Your husband loves you very much and his only interest is your well being and happiness. Let me urge you to disregard what your neighbor told you, and judge your husband simply by the good qualities you know of.

A.D. Could you give me the exact location of the Galapagos Islands?

ANSWER: The Galapagos Islands is a group of 16 volcanic islands, crossed by the equator in the Pacific Ocean. They are located about 600 miles west of Ecuador and have been claimed by that country since 1832.

Child Care Centers May Close Unless State Aid Is Granted

The state legislature which opened its annual budget session Monday has a mandate to continue state aid to child care centers if the avalanche of letters and telegrams sent demanding such aid is to be considered. However, unless more support for state aid comes from the Senate, the 293 centers which take care of some 13,000 pre-school children of working mothers may have to close this June.

Assemblyman Augustus Hawkins and several other members of the Assembly have prepared bills, the passage of which would guarantee continued state aid. It is expected that less resistance will be offered in the Assembly than in the Senate, but organizations supporting the program plan to send wires, letters and delegations to members of both bodies urging passage.

Governor Warren who resisted including child care centers on the agenda of this session until he was forced by the weight of public opinion to do so, is not considered a supporter of the proposal.

Leaders of church, community and civic organizations plan to wire and write the Governor and the members of the Assembly and Senate urging that state aid to child care centers be voted at this session without a time limit. It was this time limit or "sudden death" provision voted during the closing session of the legislature last year that placed the centers in the present danger of being closed.

Spokesmen for interested groups point out that unless the public acts by writing and demanding state aid, the chances of obtaining it will be small.

BEAUTY HINTS

PEANUT OIL

Dr. Carved has left us the vast wealth of his gathering in the storehouse of peanut oil. Not least among these benefits is the wonderful beauty maker found in it. The face grows dryer with the years losing the natural oils of youth. This must be supplemented as time goes on. Nothing is superior in this regard to the oil of the humble peanut. Pat it into the face twice a week, and you will find the skin growing smoother, softer, finer and lovelier, day by day.

No Women in PO, Says Pasadena PM Sutherland

PASADENA—A committee of citizens from various organizations met with Pasadena Postmaster Fred G. Sutherland Tuesday night to discuss the dismissal of 13 female temporary employees. Four of the temporary clerks were Negro women employed for more than two years. The committee secured an audience with the Postmaster by finally appealing to Senator Sheridan Downey who interceded urging such a meeting.

Postmaster Sutherland stated that he was "biased against the employment of women in the Post Office and that he is determined to keep women from such employment." Committee spokesmen, including Mrs. R. Harris, Mrs. C. Hartford, Rev. Coleman, Rev. Carter and several others, pointed out that such bias towards women in employment was contrary to accepted Federal practices and equal rights for women. Mr. Sutherland stated that of 525 employees there were less than 10 female employees left and they are in secretarial capacities.

The committee expressed shock and indignation that such a policy was being followed in a Federal department, since Civil Service Examinations for post office work has especially been given for women both in this area and throughout the nation. Organizations interested in this matter are the Foothill Democrats, Franklin Delano Roosevelt club, Young Democrats, Independent Progressive Party, United Public Workers (CIO), American Veterans Committee, Friendship Baptist Church, Tuesday Morning club, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the American Civil Liberties Union and others.

More Taxes On Liquor Planned

Councilman John Holland, chairman of the city council finance committee will recommend next week that the council levy a 5 per cent. on liquor sold over the bar or in package stores.

Such a tax, Holland estimates, would yield between seven and a half and eight million dollars, the amount of the estimated shortage in income anticipated for this year. The 5 per cent tax would be in addition to the 1/2 of 1 per cent levy passed recently and put into effect last week. Bar owners absorbed the smaller tax, but it is expected that they will pass the larger tax on to the consumer should it become law.

Dental plate neglect may be costly to you in health and appearance—
ASK YOURSELF THESE 6 QUESTIONS

- 1. Am I nervous and irritable?
If your dental plates are loose—if they gouge your gums, making them SORE—chances are your gums have shrunk. Possibly your MOUTH HAS CHANGED, but your dental plates have not changed. No wonder you become nervous and irritable.
- 2. Am I suffering from malnutrition?
If you feel TIRED and RUN DOWN—if you seem old beyond your years—possibly you are not getting full value out of the food you eat. If you HATE TO CHEW, because you need new dental plates, it's likely ONLY A PORTION of your food is assimilated into your system.
- 3. Is my hearing being damaged?
If your bite is not correct due to mouth changes, you may be INJURING your hearing ability. This has been considered a CAUSE for loss of hearing for years. A national magazine recently quoted a leading doctor as follows: "Of the 10,000,000 deaf or hard-of-hearing Americans, bad bite is at least partly to blame in 40 per cent of the cases."
- 4. Are there new lines in my face?
If your face seems to have AGED due to sunken mouth and cheeks, shrunken gums may be the cause. Sometimes loose dentif plates PUSH BACK in the mouth, adding UNSIGHTLY LINES to your face.
- 5. Do I have a strained appearance?
If the tendons of your neck stand out, and your bite is closed, you may have a DISTORTED FACIAL EXPRESSION. Loose dental plates—out of adjustment—often bring about a strained appearance.
- 6. Are my dental plates becoming to me?
If you feel SELF CONSCIOUS about how your dental plates look, are they old fashioned or stained? Appearance can be a severe handicap.

New dental plates may be a great help to you—at least it should pay you to see a dentist. If your health and appearance can be improved, think how much more pleasant life may be.

Masters Of Prince Hall Mason Lodges Meet In Conference

The 1950 Prince Hall Masters of the various Lodges of Northern California went back to school last week-end and like it. More than 50 attended the conference called by Most Worshipful Starling J. Hopkins, Grand Master, of California at the Oakland's Market Street Y.M.C.A.

It was a day of memories. It was a day of instruction. It was a day of looking forward. For the conference was called, especially to acquaint the young Masters with the ramifications of the Grand Lodge's business structure, and procedures affecting the various Lodges of the jurisdiction.

Taking part on the Grand Masters' program and explaining the ritualistic work, was Grand Lecturer, James H. Finis, capable Past Master of Holland Lodge No. 20; and the public relation side of the Grand Lodge's function was given by the Director, S. C. Bottler, young Master of Western Knights Lodge No. 56.

The Grand Master's state of the fraternity message had as its high spot (1) the establishing of seven new blue Lodges since last July, which was sanctioned by the 1949 Grand Lodge's annual session. These Lodges included Gibraltar No. 58 at San Diego; Highland Heights, No. 59 of the Boyle Heights area of Los Angeles; Harmony No. 61, at Sacramento; Eli Baker No. 62, Philip A. Buchanan No. 63; and Fred C. Brooks No. 60 of Oakland and Bayview No. 64 at San Francisco. All these Lodges have an average membership of one hundred members.

(2) Other subjects briefly noted by the Grand Master, was the acceptance of the official invitation, extended the Grand Lodge by Excelsior Lodge No. 23 to hold its 94th annual session at Portland, Oregon. This invitation, said Grand Master Hopkins, had been acted upon by the issuance of an official proclamation to all Lodges throughout the jurisdiction and active plans are already taking shape. A record turnout of delegates was expected due to the large increase of Lodges.

(3) Emphasis was placed on the Youth program of the Grand Lodge and all Lodges were requested to send in their reports on progress and activities in their respective areas as to tangible action taken to further this all important program.

While in Oakland, Grand Master Hopkins, also made his appearance and extended official greetings to the Golden Gate Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, who was instituting a new Chapter, Rebecca U. D. and adoption of Eli Baker Lodge.

Grand Lodge officers attending the conference were Titus P. Martin, grand senior warden; Roy W. Taylor, grand junior warden; Wesson Massengale, grand senior Inspector of Northern California; and Grand Inspectors, Ed. Albert Fulcher, of Oakland; and Rev. D. D. Mattocks, of Sacramento.

Masters and Lodges they represented were William Jackson, Master of Hannibal No. 1; Albert Lewis, of Philomathean No. 2; Cecil, sec., of Victoria No. 3; Eli Bradshaw, of Adonis No. 25; Edgar Brown, of Firma No. 27; Burrell W. Porter, of Good Hope, No. 29; Esell Hilliard, of Pride of the West No. 30; Henry T. Brock, of West Gate No. 36; Sidney Blackburn, of East Gate No. 44; Clarence Lucas, of Peninsula No. 46; Eulogia Albalas, of Amicus No. 48; Rosendo F. Hadloc, of Philadelphus No. 54; James H. Vaughns, of Wm. J. Anderson No. 57; Fred C. Brooks, sec., of Fred C. Brooks No. 60; Clarence B. Conson, of Harmony No. 61; M. F. Pursley, of Eli Baker No. 62; Luther Johnson, of Philip A. Buchanan No. 63 and Lamar Vaughn, of Bayview No. 64.

Bantist Women Meet In Hot Springs

For the past month announcements of intentions to attend and inquiries concerning the annual conference of State Directors of Christian Education meeting simultaneously with the midwinter session of the Sunday School Publishing Board of Nashville, Tennessee, March 22-23, have been pouring into the Department of Christian Education of the Sunday School Publishing Board from every quarter of the nation.

A broader range of interest is noted than at any previous conference of this nature. Officials in every area of the field of Christian Education throughout the denomination and at every level from the national scene to the local church have indicated not only unusual interest in the set-up and content of the 1950 Conference but also have declared a desire to participate.

CALIFORNIA'S first religious disc jockeyette . . . checking her script, is Capitol Records pride and joy, Sallie Martin, renowned Gospel Singer. Mrs. Martin, known to her many fans as "Queen of Contraltos," recently launched her program over station KALI from 3:05 to 3:30, every Thursday. In addition to having her own radio program, Mrs. Martin was camera-viewed over Paramount's Television station KTLA, as directress of an ensemble from the Echos of Eden Choir of St. Paul Baptist Church. Her latest recording is "He's All I Need," on the Capitol Banner.

Pastors Preach Identical Text On Eve Of Great Hour

Pastors of hundreds of local Protestant churches will unite with thousands of ministers all over the nation in preaching Sunday morning on an identical text. The text, taken from the book of Galatians, "Bear ye one another's burdens and so fulfill the law of Christ," is the call to action of "One Great Hour of Sharing" which is to be observed in over 100,000 churches of nineteen major denominations next Sunday, March 12.

The purpose of "One Great Hour of Sharing" is to secure funds for the overseas relief, rehabilitation and inter-church aid needs. Some of this will be used through denominational channels; the other part will be used through Church World Service, the official Protestant relief agency.

Gems of Thought

Faith

He who believes in goodness has the essence of all faith. He is a man of "cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows."

—J. F. Clarke

Faith is a gift of God which man can neither give nor take away by promise of rewards or menaces of torture.

—Thomas Hobbes

No man has power to let another prescribe his faith. Faith is not faith without believing.

—Thomas Jefferson

Nothing in life is more wonderful than faith—the one great moving force which we can neither weigh in the balance nor test in the crucible.

—Harvey Cushing

Faith marches at the head of the army of progress. It is found beside the most refined life, the freest government, the profoundest philosophy, the noblest poetry, the purest humanity.

—T. T. Munger

Faith full-fledged, soaring to the Horeb height, brings blessings infinite, and the spirit of this horizon is the fruit of righteousness—"on earth peace, good will toward men."

—Mary Baker Eddy

Churches here, along with tens of thousands of churches all over the nation, will begin this week to center their attention upon the symbol of a church steeple with a clock pointing to eleven. This is the official symbol of the "One Great Hour of Sharing."

"Substance" Christian Science Lesson Topic

The Sunday Lesson-Sermon topic in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is "Substance." The Golden Text is from Ecclesiastes: "I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it."

In John's Gospel, it is recorded that Jesus said: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. . . . If ye love me, keep my commandments."

Mary Baker Eddy writes in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them."

Zion Baptist Church, Indianapolis, Indiana; and Rev. J. E. Nance, pastor of the Washington Tabernacle Church, St. Louis, Missouri, are the speakers.

Doings About Omaha

by G. Anita Hayes

Omahans continue to find it difficult to get the Daily and Weekly papers to print constructive and helpful articles and information through their presses to the reading public.

Many thousands of Omahans of all races and creeds join the writer of this column this week in giving to Mrs. Charlotte A. Bass, editor of The California Eagle, her flowers in the grand little lady of the press those sterling qualities which over the period of years in the newspaper business have been the requisites for success and the greatest good to the greatest number of readers. We find in Mrs. Bass, the qualities of selflessness, humility, patience, tolerance, understanding, fearlessness, honesty and courage to continue the fight for her people. She exemplifies in her every day activities that she will at any cost continue to fight for justice, equality and the recognition of the minorities in this country as first class American citizens.

Our medal of Honor for promoting Democracy and Brotherhood in reality through her paper during the month of February and the remaining eleven months. Her efforts for Democracy and Brotherhood occupy a yearly calendar and program.

Whatever is said or thought, her paper is nothing less, nothing more than, "A progressive paper for progressive people." While Mrs. Bass has been putting forth every effort in her paper to write and print the articles for Democracy and Good Will through Brotherhood, our daily paper, The Omaha World Herald has been utilizing its time, energies and space and the readers time to write up what they term an "Expose" of an apparent "nit-wit" who claimed that he was Kleagle for the Ku Klux Klan in Iowa and Nebraska. In one article the invitation for membership in the Klan was quoted and started as being extended to "nature born, white, gentle, protestant citizens of the United States." "Today the minorities are all organized against the white christian. In this fight to the death for control of our country it is necessary to oppose ruthlessness with ruthlessness." Another issue of the paper used three columns of the first page to give the history of this Kleggele A. T. Recard and an itinerary of his police and criminal records plus his picture and such statements of his as the following: "I've been a member since the early 1920's and the Klan is on the march again." "There is nothing wrong with the Ku Klux Klan because next to God comes our Country."

"Now you take the Catholics," he added. After God the Pope comes next. They owe allegiance to a foreign dictation before they support our country.

"We stand for segregation of the Negroes and I guess you know what we think about the Jews."

To all of this, through the World Herald claims it an expose. We have seen no editorial nor comment against such an outrage coming on the heels of World War II where Catholics, Negroes and Jews fought for Democracy and to destroy such cowardly organizations as the Klan and many others like it.

If to the World Herald, the Kleagle and the many thousands that he claims he represents in Iowa and Nebraska and the other thousands throughout the United States, this is their idea of Christianity, no wonder that America continues in its hysteria over Communism and other isms.

Nothing in any country could be more subversive and un-Christian than those who propagate racial and class hatred.

The World Herald certainly needs to take stock of itself because it would have done much more good and benefited many more persons had they used the space devoted to the Klan and the Kleagle to writing an article on Brotherhood and Christianity which was carried to them during Brotherhood Week.

When newspapers use their columns to propagate class and racial hatred and for their own personal gain, rather than dedicating it to the services of its reading public, then they have

Open New Occupational Fields For Negro College Graduates

Paving the way for the employment of Negro college graduates in many new occupational fields, Howard University and the National Urban League jointly brought to the campus of the University thirteen top industrial and business executives to meet with faculty and students during a three-day Career Conference last week.

Students in the physical sciences, engineering, journalism and public relations, business, social welfare, and pharmacy were given an opportunity to consult with representatives of business, industry and government to determine their job chances, to know more about careers, the kind of jobs offered and the qualifications required.

Panel discussions were held, all geared to the conference theme: "The Future Is Yours, Plan and Prepare." Each consultant discussed briefly occupations in his particular area of interest. The talks were concerned with aspects of training, qualifications, job duties, pay, beginning jobs, promotion and advancement.

Julius Albritton Of Pioneer Family Succumbs At Sawtelle

Julius Edward Albritton, better known as "Dock" to his many friends died suddenly at the Veterans Hospital at Sawtelle Saturday morning at three o'clock. While it seems that the cause of his death was an attack of acute indigestion, which brought on heart failure, an autopsy is being performed to ascertain the exact cause.

Mr. Albritton, the second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Albritton, was a member of one of the oldest families of this city. A military funeral will be conducted Thursday morning from the Veteran's Chapel on Sepulveda Blvd., in West Los Angeles at 10 o'clock.

He leaves a wife, Annie Albritton, six sisters, Mrs. Minnie Hampton, Mrs. Ethel Polk, Mrs. Lomax Dones, Mrs. Idell Bateman, Mrs. Beatrice Walden and Mrs. Elberta Franklin William-branch was a matter of policy and outside his authority.

He directed the group to take the matter up with Mr. Alvin Winston at the central branch of the bank. A letter is going out within the next day or two to Mr. Winston requesting an appointment to meet with the delegation.

The campaign against the discriminatory hiring methods of the Bank of America has been in progress for the past three months. Picket lines have been maintained in front of the bank at Slauson & Avalon every Saturday morning and all persons interested in seeing Jim-Crow go are invited to join the picket line this Saturday and every Saturday from 10 to 2 o'clock until the fight is won.

In addition to Dick Lewis, the delegation that went to see Mr. Swanson consisted of Mrs. Lucille Arthur of the South-East Interracial Council, Mrs. Clarissa Carbajal of the Mine, Mill & Smelter Workers Union, John Lee, Managing Editor of the California Eagle, Mr. Hyman Ordian, Business Agent of Local 26, Warehousemen's Union, Mrs. Viola Sample, representing the 65th A. R-U Women's Day Celebrated; IWO Auxiliary

Dancing, reminiscing of the old days in Russia and the Ukraine, listening to speeches lauding to work of women everywhere, eating a delicious turkey dinner—these were a few of the attractions on the program of the annual Women's Day of the United Russian-Ukrainian Women's Auxiliary of the IWO held last Sunday at 3300 City Terrace Drive.

Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor and publisher of The California Eagle, was the guest speaker for the happy occasion. She told briefly of some of the great women of the world and their contribution to the progress of the world—during the colonial period in American history, when Mary Astell was the first to suggest equal education for men and women.

Ann Hutchinson, in the religious field; Dolly Madison in the White House the first strike of women textile workers at Lowell, Mass., in 1836—these were a few of the highlights of the nineteenth century for women.

In the 20th century organization began and there is the General Federation of Women's Clubs, the League of Women Voters, American Association of University Women, Association of Business and Professional Women, etc.

The name of Eleanor Roosevelt is one of the best-loved among the women of today. Mary Baker Eddy, Carrie Chapman Catt, Mme. Curie, are a very few of the others.

Other speakers gave great women of Russia and the Ukraine and of Germany. Among them were: Krepskaya, the wife of Lenin; Kollantai, writer and diplomat; Zoya, the partisan girl who was martyred by the German Nazis, and Nina Popova, Russian trade union leader.

Among the German women were Clara Zetkina, who at the age of 82 opened the last Reichstag meeting as the Socialist deputy in 1933, before the Nazi seizure of power and Rosa Luxemburg, who was assassinated by the German police for her peace activities in 1918.

Young and old alike joined in the dancing and the occasion was a most enjoyable as well as informative one for all.

The "new" Republican statement of principles and objectives is a provocative, if sometimes conflicting, blend of "me-too" and "not-me" upon which GOP orators are now asserting they will win the House and Senate in 1950 and the Presidency in 1952.

NAACP Meets Sun.; Membership Drive

The March meeting of the local NAACP, will be held in South Los Angeles, Sunday, March 12 at 3:30 p.m. at the Tabernacle of Faith, 113th and Central Ave. Atty. F. Douglas Ferrell is pastor of the host church.

Dr. E. I. Robinson, president, has called a meeting of experienced campaigners, leaders and workers at the NAACP office, 4263 South Central Ave., Thursday, today, at 8 p.m. to discuss plans for the big drive for 20,000 members. He asks that persons desiring to have a part in this great campaign get in touch with the local office, (Adams 1-8192) at once.

Big business says: "Today and democratic heritage, we through our religious traditions have the necessary guide-posts to help us on the way toward true brotherhood if, as a people, we have the will to achieve it." —Nelson Rockefeller.

Two Day Institute of Internat'l Relations

Fisher, Assistant Professor of History at UCLA, will be the faculty for a two-day Institute of International Relations to be held in Santa Monica Friday and Saturday, March 10 and 11, at the First Christian Church, Sixth and Arizona.

This is the fourth annual Institute of International Relations to be held in Santa Monica, sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee. The emphasis of the Institute will be on the Quaker report recently published by Yale University Press, "The United States and the Soviet Union — Some Quaker Proposals for Peace."

Defeat Police

the biggest black-list bill in history.

Already, before passage of the bill, attempts have been made to black-list slum clearance organizations, child care groups, veteran housing committees public health organizations.

Already those who are for FEPC and anti-lynch legislation are being threatened with inclusion in that list headed "Organizations and individuals advocating totalitarian dictatorship."

It is significant that every time demands for passage of anti-lynch and FEPC legislation has reached national proportions, Congress has brought forward legislation like the Mundt-Ferguson Bill.

Aside from the fact that it would, for the first time in history, outlaw a political party, the Communist Party, this bill also places in the hands of a small committee or a single individual the power to place on the subversive list, without hearings, any organization deemed to be subversive. Already over 150 have been listed by the attorney general.

Nationwide opposition to it in 1948 and 1949 was so great (it was opposed by National CIO, the AF of L, the L.A. County Democratic Central Committee, the Americans for Democratic Action, and hundreds of other labor, church, religious and liberal organizations throughout the country) that Congress was forced to abandon these previous attempts at instituting a Police State.

WHAT YOU MUST DO TO STOP THE MUNT-FERGUSON BILL

1. Demand that the Mundt-Ferguson Bill be returned to the Senate Judiciary Committee for public hearings, so far denied.

2. Demand that the Senate Judiciary Committee report out for "Do Pass" the FEPC and anti-lynch bills now before them.

Telephone, Wire or Write to: Senator Sheridan Downey, Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D.C. Senator William F. Knowland, (same address).

Members and friends of the Home Protective Association! You are urged to come to a meeting Friday (tomorrow), March 17, 4 p.m. at the California Eagle office, 1055 East 41st street.

It's another Laws family case. Mrs. Bessie Woods, who purchased a home at 1116 W. 66th street, has been intimidated and threatened into the belief that she will have to give up and move out.

We didn't let this happen in the Laws' case, and we will not let it happen in the Woods' case.

Stop everything. Come to 1055 E. 41st street, Friday, at 4 p.m.

Pauletta Laws Fears, sec'y; Tommy Reeves, treasurer; Charlotte A. Bass, president.

NERO FIDLED WHILE ROME BURNED—President Truman fishes while a reactionary congress burns the bridges of democracy behind turns backward to the days of Hitler.

The Committee was formed to send a Negro to Congress. Vince Monroe Townsend is the choice of that committee. Now let's roll up our sleeves and get to work to elect him.

But you can't elect him without voting for him. And you can't vote unless you are registered. So REGISTER NOW!!!

People Must Be Alerted to Property Rights Abuses

A Negro family is being driven from their home unless something is done about it.

In an interview with The California Eagle this week, Mrs. Bessie Woods stated that on about February 2, 1950, she purchased a home at 1116 West 66th street, through a real estate agent by the name of Thelma Jackson. A few days after purchasing the home she and her uncle moved in.

In the evening of the same day she moved into her newly purchased home, Mrs. Woods said three persons who represented

A committee of civic-minded people waited on the Board of Trustees of the Montebello Unified School District last week, to protest a minstrel show with black face and grinning red lips to be given in the Montebello High School last Sunday under the auspices of the Eagle Fraternal organization.

A show of this kind "degrades, maligns, and de-Americanizes the Negro Americans," declared

Ku Klux Klan Burns Cross At Judge's Home

NEW YORK—Federal Judge J. Waties Waring who has earned the ire and threats of death from lynch-minded Southern whites because of his democratic and just treatment of Negroes is unmoved by the recent Ku Klux Klan demonstration and cross-burning outside his Charleston, S.C., home.

Said Judge Waring: "It's the savagery of Southern white supremacists." Judge Waring and his wife have been attacked frequently by certain Southern whites because of their outspoken views on race. Charleston police, playing their traditional role, arrested no one; suspected no one. Said a spokesman: "It was just some pranksters."

Clark Silent In High Court Loyalty Case

WASHINGTON—Former Attorney General Tom Clark, now a member of the United States Supreme Court, who arbitrarily set up lists of subversive organizations when he was carrying the ball for President Truman's loyalty program, did not participate in a decision to hear an appeal on the constitutionality of the loyalty program made by the high court last Monday.

The appeal was made by the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee which was placed on the subversive list by Clark. The Committee points out that classification of any group as subversive without a hearing of any kind deprives that group of its constitutional rights.

In acting on the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee's appeal, the high court will rule on President Truman's loyalty program from government workers.

H. A. Howard Indictments May Go On Like Perpetual Motion

All that can be said for the government's case against H. A. Howard, founder and one of the directors of the Broadway Federal Savings and Loan Association is that its representative, assistant U. S. Attorney W. L. Baugh, is earnest and thorough, and that he believes in what he is doing. It might be added that he appears to be thoroughly honest and fair-minded.

But of his works, it is not possible to write with the same clear directness. Having presented three different indictments against Howard, Baugh admitted it might be necessary to present a fourth and a fifth and a sixth indictment before he would be ready to argue his case. He explains this as "amending" the complaint to withstand the arguments of Howard's counsel. "I'm not perfect," he explains, "I make mistakes."

Judge Harry C. Westover before whom the preliminary skirmishes of the Howard case are being worked out showed some impatience with Baugh's "amending" last Monday. He agreed to a postponement of the next hearing until April 3 with some show of reluctance.

Because the three million dollar Broadway Federal Savings and Loan Association is a community main artery, this reporter sought an interview with Baugh. There were questions that grew out of frequently-heard rumors—questions asked by readers...

There was the question about persecution of Howard "by indictment." "So far as I'm concerned," Baugh said, "I am not a party to any conspiracy. Naturally I am prejudiced, but I believe we have a case, and I believe we will get a conviction. Of course I've been wrong before, but I've also been right before."

Baugh couldn't say why no other official of the Broadway Federal was made a party in the action. He didn't know why no officer or member of the organization was on the complaint. He didn't think this circumstance would hurt his case.

They're Busy
He admitted that indictments are usually drawn up by the complaint bureau. "But you know how busy they are," he explained. "I drew up the second and the third indictments. I may have to draw up many more before we can proceed to argument."

It was pointed out to him that while he was "amending," counsel for H. A. Howard was arguing... for dismissal, and seemingly making quite a point of it. "That's why I go back to the Grand Jury," he said, "to get another indictment they can't criticize. He didn't make it quite clear how a motion for dismissal could be construed as a criticism of the form of the indictment. It appeared to our layman's mind that this could go on forever. The assistant U. S. attorney smiled."

With commendable patience, Baugh explained the difference between a civil complaint which can be amended almost on the spot, and a criminal indictment which must be voted by a Grand Jury. It was all very clear, but it didn't explain why each motion for dismissal of the indictment against H. A. Howard was met by a request for dismissal of that indictment by the government and a notice that a new one would be presented.

Perhaps there is some clue to the mysticism in this thing in Baugh's admission that each time he got a new indictment he only changed a little bit of the old one. In effect, it's the same old hash, warmed over.

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, Pa.—The Nationalist Action League of Philadelphia, delighted by the recent action of the Chester County Grand Jury in refusing to bring an indictment against two Oxford proprietors admitting segregation, has now asked the Honorable T. The Pennsylvania public is thus presented with the interesting situation by which its attorney-general is asked to investigate an institution because its students sought the protection of the laws of the Commonwealth.

RESIDENTS OF LOS ANGELES are fortunate in having an office that practices New Yorker Technique—a haven for those who suffer where the cause of Toxic Poison may be removed—where relief of constipation—an elimination, may be obtained in 20 minutes.

NOTE: Toxic poisons cause practically all ills of mankind. When toxic poisons or that which causes disease is removed the result is so effective in producing quick results that the change experienced by the sufferer is hardly less marked than that felt by the prisoner when the ball and chain have been removed from his ankles. It has to be experienced to be properly understood and appreciated.

New Yorker Technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine. In simple language—it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that the contents may be passed by normal effort.

Dr. Brinkley D.C., has the only office that is permitted to practice New Yorker Technique. He has no branch offices.

DR. BRINKLEY HAS A STAFF OF MORE THAN 120 PEOPLE, 18 LICENSED DOCTORS AND MORE THAN 60 SPECIALLY TRAINED NURSES AND TECHNICIANS. He has his own private laboratory and complete laboratory facilities, the finest equipment—30 private treatment rooms. IT IS THE LARGEST INSTITUTION OF ITS KIND IN THE ENTIRE WORLD—NO EXCEPTIONS.

This notable organization is outstanding—without equal—and must be seen to be appreciated.

Dr. Brinkley says: To protect the sick against the wrong diagnosis, it is my belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made. In all cases tests should include complete blood count, urinalysis, microscopic examination and study of stool. If diabetes is suspected a fasting blood sugar test should be given; for liver disorders—various liver functional test given; for infectious diseases—sedimentation rate given; plus other laboratory procedures.

ALL OF MY PATIENTS, UNDER TREATMENT, GET LABORATORY TESTS AT NO EXTRA CHARGE. I will enjoy explaining New Yorker Technique to you without obligation, 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. For my trial treatment I charge $3, which includes various laboratory tests.

Call or write for FREE 120 page book. This book is outstanding. It is a most comprehensive explanation of "the true cause of disease." Book will be sent by mail—no salesman—no phone calls—no obligation. No follow-up letters.

The SIDEWALK

By C.A.B.

All is not well on the Western front.

Here in free America one hundred and fifty million citizens with scars inflicted in two bloody wars not yet healed by time, look out on a new horizon, clouded and muddled with streaks of hate, fear and unrest with not even a promised peace in sight, notwithstanding East and West joined in battle to win victory and peace over a German Fascist state.

Truly we do not envision a New World. We are already in a new world, but not the sort of world we fought and died for, and hoped to build.

Our allies who fought with us to defeat Fascism and help build the new world of good neighbors, now look upon those of us who fought with them as enemies who would destroy through the power of hate some say.

All branches of our government, we hear, are being infiltrated by foreign spies who would transform our democracy into a form of socialism foreign to our democratic way of life.

Excitedly we scream, "Stop the enemy. Send the spies out of the country! Conduct an intensive loyalty test in our schools, colleges, labor unions, universities, and all departments of the Federal government. If necessary go even into the churches, to ferret out spies!"

Any and all institutions—social, religious, or industrial—that refuse to operate on a basis of segregation and discrimination against Negroes, Mexican-Americans, or some foreign born Americans, must be classified as red or pink organizations with Communist affiliation or leaning.

A Congress vested with power to confiscate coal mines, declare war, and take over the operation of great railroads when emergency arises, will not lift a hand to quell riots, stop lynchings, and brutal murders of Negroes. Will not pass a Civil Rights bill promised by President Truman and many of his predecessors for the past eighty years to protect the civil rights of minorities.

The Ku Klux Klan is not a menace, but an asset in the pursuit of driving out Communism, according to some noble Republicans, notably the authors of the Planned censorship of the private lives and actions of Hollywood stars, which would act to place almost absolute government control over the motion picture industry through a licensing system, cause a loud howl of protest in the city of make-believe this week.

See Hollywood Ten Parallel In New Censorship Proposal

Announced as having originated from the office of Congressman Edwin Johnson of Colorado, the censorship would place a ban on pictures which featured actors whose private conduct is such as to cause unfavorable public comment.

Leading figures in the industry howled down the proposal calling it an attempt to restrict the freedom and liberty of the individual, and an attempt to enforce government domination of the industry.

Some leaders in the industry see a parallel between this proposal and the banning of ten

Caravan To Move On Sacramento

Jobs, Pensions and Relief Is Progressive Caravan Slogan

With jobs, pensions and relief as the slogan, a pilot Caravan bearing delegations in ten cars will leave Los Angeles Saturday morning and proceed to the San Joaquin Valley where each town will be visited and signatures collected. Street corner meetings will be held in order to rally support for legislative action.

The main caravan will leave on Sunday morning between 7 and 10 a.m. It is scheduled to arrive in Sacramento Sunday afternoon. Sunday night a mass meeting will be held in the Odd Fellows Hall.

On Monday noon a non-partisan mass meeting in which the trade unions and leaders of the pension movement will participate, will be held on the steps of the Capital.

Organized and carried forward by the Progressive party, the caravan movement is a dramatic part of a drive to get 100,000 signatures throughout the state on petitions demanding favorable action for jobs, pensions and relief. Los Angeles county has already collected 43,000 signatures and will go over the 50,000 goal set. Spokesmen for the Progressive party expressed confidence that the 100,000 signature quota for the state would be achieved.

Lynch Mob Leader Guilty In New Year's Eve Ax Slaying

RICHMOND, Va.—The leader of the white lynch mob which axed Samuel Taylor, 38-year-old Negro farmer, to death near Ballsville last New Year's Eve in the first lynching of 1950, has been convicted of second degree murder and given 20 years in prison, the Civil Rights Congress reports.

CRC observers at the trial called the verdict "a partial victory which proves that the guilty in lynchings, frame-ups and cases of police brutality definitely can be punished when Negro and progressive white Americans unite to demand it."

themselves as her neighbors came to call. They said that while they did not object, there were other neighbors nearby who did object to Negroes living in the vicinity, and they advised Mrs. Woods and her uncle to move.

When a California Eagle representative discussed the case with Mrs. Woods Monday evening, March 13, the woman stated that she had not had a moment's peace since moving into the West 66th-street property. Every evening when she returned from her job some neighbor or group of purported neighbors were waiting to tell her she would have to give up the property or take the consequences.

Under pressure and duress Mrs. Woods consented to release the property to Mr. Ted Rokos at 1414 West Florence avenue, who claims that it is now in escrow, waiting for a purchaser.

Monday evening the vigilante neighbors who were so solicitous of Mrs. Woods' safety and happiness, called a meeting at Legion Hall, 624 W. Florence ave., and started a financial drive to oust the Woods' family and keep other Negroes from moving into the neighborhood.

One of these neighbors who attended the Monday night meeting reported to The Eagle that he attended the meeting not knowing its nature, but that he was not in sympathy with the move. Other present reported that among the speakers was Mr. Rokos and a jeweler doing business on Manchester ave., whose name is Ted Ruth.

It is alleged that both Rokos and Ruth advised the neighbors to put up money to keep Negroes out of the prescribed territory between Vermont, Western, 6th, and Florence.

Following the plan in fighting the famous Laws family case, who were ousted out of their home on East 92nd street, the Home Protective Association, who waged that battle to the finish, is planning to enter this fight also. Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, president of the Home Protective Association, is calling for all members to meet in the office of The California Eagle, 1055 East 41st street, this (Thursday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

"The U. S. Supreme Court has declared restrictive covenants are unenforceable," remarked Mrs. Bass. "But even with that decision it seems we have to fight to secure the American way of life which should mean the freedom to live where we wish."

Vicious Mundt-Nixon bills, calling for authority to determine the life or death of organizations they may censor.

What we, the people, and particularly the Negro people, want is that this administration fulfill its campaign promises. Give us civil rights legislation. We feel that we have come of age and are capable of thinking for ourselves. Hence, we are not in the mood for thought control.

We are fed up on campaign promises. What we want again is ACTION. Action against such forces in our educational system that under some pretext or another promote discrimination against Negroes in our schools. We want to live where we can afford to buy, swim in pools our taxes help to build, and fill civil service positions in schools, libraries, fire and police departments on merit not on race or color.

Already we have found bars from your new campaign tune: "Good Americanism" and "Down with Communism."

We are interested in good Americanism in action, not the way your paid puppets strut it out at banquets and chicken dinners.

We are going to have no more of that. We have called for a new leadership, and it is coming forward. It will not be frightened off by your red herring scare. We are on the march to freedom and dignity and we will not turn back. All is not well on the Western front. Ours is not a wrecking crew. It is a correction crew. And we are on our way.

Blessed Relief from Cramp Pains

Scores of happy girls and women are finding that when they take Cardui each month they get blessed relief they never knew before, from functional periodic pains. That's because unlike pain-killing drugs, pills and tablets, Cardui helps correct painful contractions of the organ muscles and thus helps Nature resume a more normal rhythm. In this way it actually aids in overcoming a frequent cause of painful cramps. If your pains are due to simple functional disturbances—don't wait—ask your druggist now for a bottle of Cardui (Say: "card-you-ee"). You'll bless the day you first tried this tested relief.

YESTERDAY - TODAY - TOMORROW

YESTERDAY — Life Insurance was but a Dream — The dream of Heman Perry, Frank Gillespie, Harry Pace and countless others who envisioned organizations of security and assurance.

TODAY — Life Insurance is a Reality — Not less than 50 strong companies of our racial group, with no less than 150 million dollars in liquid assets, and more than 1 billion dollars of insurance in force. Supreme Liberty ranks with the top three in this group.

TOMORROW — A Life Insurance Prophecy — There should be a proportionate increase in the number of companies — a trebling of the assets and a quadrupling of business in force — and Supreme Liberty will hold its own. Life Insurance is on the March!

AN AMERICAN WOMAN SPEAKS ON CHINACommunity Rally
To Support
Cora Johnson

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE was delighted with the news that Mrs. Cora Johnson, active community leader in every worthwhile religious and civic organization, has decided to be a candidate for the office of representative of the 67th Assembly District in the State Legislature in Sacramento. She merits the support of every citizen in that district, regardless of political affiliation, race, creed, or color.

Mrs. Johnson has taught school eight years in Florida. She came to California in 1921, and during the 29 years of her residence here she has made her influence felt for good in church, civic, and social activities. She was employed for ten years as manager and buyer for a fountain grill, and later taught a nursery school at McKinley Junior High School.

For 24 years Mrs. Johnson held many offices in Grant's Chapel, 108th street and Compton avenue. She spearheaded a campaign to pay off a church mortgage of 14 years' standing, and in six months' time not only collected enough money to pay all debts, but also had a balance left over. A total of $5200 was raised.

Mrs. Johnson has fought consistently against deplorable school conditions, and other objectionable living conditions, in Watts and the immediate section of the city.

She is president of the Watts Industrial Council, or organization founded by THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE more than 20 years ago. The aim at the time was to secure jobs and better living conditions for the Negro people and all minority groups. It has not changed its goal. It has broadened its perspective, instead, and Mrs. Johnson has proven a trusted leader in guiding this organization toward attainment of that goal.

Mrs. Johnson is also an active member of these other organizations: Willing Workers Club, Home and Foreign Missions, International Order of Twelve Knights and Daughters of Tabor, Grand United Order of Oddfellow and Ruth, and Southeast Interracial Council.

THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE wholeheartedly endorses Mrs. Johnson as the member of the Assembly from the 67th District.

And while on the subject of endorsing, THE CALIFORNIA EAGLE also wants its readers to remember that Atty. Vince Monroe Townsend, Jr., is the candidate selected by the 14th Congressional District Unity Committee to carry the banner for this section of the city for Congress. Mr. Townsend has already won the endorsement of powerful church and civic groups who have pledged themselves to work for his election.

But, remember, you can't vote for either Mr. Johnson or Mr. Townsend unless you are registered. And without being able to vote, all the talking in the world won't do any good. So REGISTER NOW. Register, and be ready for the primary election in June, and the general election in November.

A Call for Control,
Not De-control

There are those who are always waiting to take advantage of any loophole in the law. Anent the matter of rent control.

Some people who live in rented houses seem to take a peculiar delight in destroying such properties, or in moving while in the landlord's debt. On the other hand there are landlords who gouge the average workingman by charging high rents in order to make a big profit, too often on dilapidated, run-down houses unfit for human habitation.

At this time when politicians

Mrs. Paul Robeson recently returned from China, where she made a close-up survey of the people and conditions under the socialist regime, will be presented in lecture, Tuesday evening, March 21st at the Embassy Auditorium, 9th and Grand at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Robeson, who is an author, lecturer and ethnologist, feels that friendly trade and exchange with the present Chinese government will not only ward off a depression in this country, but will create also a friendly relationship between us and the Chinese people.

It's Your Government

This past week—the first week of the 1950 Budget Session of the Legislature — has been devoted largely to the task of introducing bills, holding budget committee hearings, and in general getting the legislative machinery in motion, so actually we haven't seen too much action as yet. However, I thought I should report on the more controversial items that have been introduced up to the present.

Child Care Centers

On Child Care Centers there have been several bills introduced, but the two that probably will receive the most attention are AB 4, by Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins, and AB 6, by Assemblyman Ernest Geddes. Both of these bills provide for the continuation of Child Care Centers with State support, without the limiting "death sentence" provisions which, in the past, have always been amended into Child Care Center bills by our State Senate. The present emergency exists because the Senate last year added an amendment to the Assembly measure limiting State support of Child Care Centers to one year, ending June 1, 1950.

I have always supported the Child Care Center program and have opposed the terminating date clause, which I feel creates an unnecessary and unjust feeling of insecurity among those mothers who have children in these centers. Incidentally, I am the number two author of both AB 4 and AB 6, and I have considerable hope that one of these measures will be enacted this session, in time to save the Child Care Center Program.

Controversial Resolutions

There have also been introduced several rather "hot" resolutions that should cause some feelings to rise. One of these, AJR 2, by Speaker Sam L. Collins, proposes to rescind Assembly Joint Resolution 26 of the 1949 Session, relative to the participation by the United States in a World Federalist Government. The original resolution passed in the last session with very little fanfare, but during the interim a certain amount of opposition has developed against our participation in a World Federation, and the members of the Legislature are currently receiving a lot of mail from exponents of both sides.

Another resolution, ACR 1, commends the Board of Regents of the University of California for their action in requesting loyalty oaths from faculty members. This should also prove interesting, as even the Republican Administration appears to be divided and uncertain on this issue. It is the fear of many respected educators and scientists that if the "sign or get out" oaths were adopted, the University of California would lose many of its top-flight instructors.

A third resolution, AJR 1, by 15 Republicans condemning the statement of Secretary of State Acheson relative to Alger Hiss, is more or less regarded here as "purely political," but it will nevertheless probably come up for discussion and vote in the near future.

State Relief Act

The statement by Arthur J. Will, Superintendent of Charities for Los Angeles County, favoring re-enactment of the 1945 State Relief Act, drew considerable comment here at the capitol. Some of us advocated this at the last session, and this unexpected support from a new corner is encouraging. Obviously, with the increasing unemployment load, the Counties are going to need help, and the State should re-assume its rightful share of the burden. It is estimated that approximately 25 percent of Los Angeles County's tax dollar is going for relief, and since people tend to migrate to the metropolitan areas when they become unemployed, it seems only fair that the State should accept this responsibility and not leave it to be carried entirely by the metropolitan areas as it is now.

This, of course, is only an emergency measure. What we most need is a long range program that will encourage new enterprise and thus create new jobs in private industry. I shall have more to say on this subject later on, when the statewide picture is clearer. In the meantime, I would appreciate your views on the aforementioned subjects, as they will undoubtedly come up in the near future.

State—Strike Breaker?

After securing photostatic copies of a letter issued by the State Department of Employment, California, the Greater Los Angeles Council, CIO, charged that the department is being used as a strike-breaking instrument, and requested Gov. Warren for a full explanation, together with a demand that it be stopped.

The letter was in reference to are making bids for support, most anything will be promised. If it's rent control you want, Mr. Average Office Seeker will say O.K.

But aside from this, there are a few honest landlords who feel that under OPA they got a bad deal. Those few who lost, however, must realize that millions of families are victims of high rents and low wages. Now, if rent control is taken off, the heartless property owners or landlords will make life miserable and children homeless for millions of local and migrant families.

What we need is regulation, the nation-wide strike of the Communication Workers of America, now hanging fire, and it instructs office managers "to spy on picket lines and pickets and to work closely in every way with company officials."

A long list of duties is attached to the letter. Among them: Note the hour and minute picket lines are established. Note what is said to persons who approach or cross the picket lines. Watch for any indications of violence, threats, or intimidations, etc.

The government — federal, state, county, or city — is supposed to be concerned with bringing about an amicable settlement between employers and employees whenever a strike is held. But it is not supposed to take sides with either employer or employee. Acting as judge and peacemaker, it could not.

This letter, sent to employers and suggesting how they could break the strike, smacks of gross partisanship and injustice. Employers know enough about strikebreaking without being instructed by the State department how to proceed.

The Volga Region and Its Nationalities

The life of Gali Dinnukhamedov, President of the Tatar Republic, that is, Chairman of the Presidium of its Supreme Soviet, is a thumbnail sketch of the progress of his compatriots. He was born in 1892 into a peasant family. At the age of thirteen he went to work in a mine. After the revolution he became prominent as a labor leader, ultimately becoming a leading statesman. His responsibilities are indicated by the contents of a report he delivered to the Supreme Soviet of the USSR. The industrial production of the Tatar ASSR, he reported, was 42 per cent higher in the war year of 1943 than in 1941. Its wartime agriculture was kept up by women and by men like Ibrahim Nahumanov, seventy years of age. This farmer had given six sons to the war, one winning the Soviet equivalent of the Congressional Medal of Honor—the title of Hero of the Soviet Union. Hundreds of millions of rubles had been collected in Tataria for aviation and tank gifts, besides even larger sums subscribed for war bonds. 11 Tatar generals had thrown the Nazi race theories back in Hitler's teeth.

Today Tataria is engaged in building a large hydroelectric plant and drilling new oil wells.

A Tatar branch of the Academy of Sciences and a Conservatory of Music were opened in 1945.

The Chuvash Republic adjoins Tataria on the west, and typifies the other small native regions of the Volga-Ural zone. It is unique in having recently chosen a woman as President.

Chuvashia has a million people, 80 per cent Chuvash by nationality. The most elaborate Russian encyclopedias antedating World War I did not have more than a dozen lines among them about this area and its people. All they had to say was that three-fourths of all the Chuvash were stricken with trachoma, most horrible of diseases of the eye; that the main town, Cheboksary, was noted only for its 122 church bells weighing 97 tons, and that the Chuvash nationality was dying out.

Their poverty was rendered the more striking by the fact that begging was regarded as an unforgivable disgrace, so no Chuvash ever stretched out his hand for alms. They eked out a miserable living on tiny farms, hunted and fished, wove bast shoes and baskets, hired themselves out as laborers, and toiled on the Volga as boatmen, trudging hundred of miles harnessed to river barges as human donkey-engines.

Since the revolution both trachoma and illiteracy have been eliminated. In 1944, despite the war, 125 times as much was spent on education and health services by the Chuvash government as the Tsarist government had assigned to the region for these purposes in 1913. During the "Thirties, machinery, timber, chemical, printing, peat and phosphorite mining, starch and molasses industries came into being. Particularly interesting is the fact that a number of Chuvash acquired sufficient technical knowledge and experience—and were permitted—to become the managers of some of these plants. During the war, cotton textile, knitgoods, shoe manufacturing, tobacco and war industries were established, with the result that overall output in 1944 doubled the figure for 1939.

This rapid development was possible because, before the war, 6,500 miles of roads had been built and the Chuvash capital, Cheboksary, had been linked by rail to the main lines of the USSR.

Cultural development is typified by the fact that 48 newspapers are now published in this small country, with one-sixth the population of New York City. The military record of Chuvash soldiers is particularly interesting, because they had previously been known for an historical unwillingness to fight. Six rose to be generals. One of them, Colonel-General Alexander Bogoliubov, became Chief of Staff of Marshal Rokossovsky's group of armies which marched from Stalingrad to the Baltic.

Land of the Cossacks

Between Stalingrad and the Azov Sea lies a fabulous steppe farming country. Before the war, its homes were so substantial and well-furnished as to impress even American correspondents. This is the land of the Cossacks. In 1812, 1914-1916 and again in 1941-1945 the cry, "Die Kasaken kommen" — the Cossacks are coming—spread panic in the ranks of invading armies.

The Cossacks are an unusual people. They are Russians and Ukrainians, with some admixture of Tatar and Turk. They are farmers, not cowboys, although they raise fine cattle and horses. They grow endless acres of wheat. Their horsemanship is a sideline, based on historical circumstances. For hundreds of years no single generation has failed to see battle en masse. Yet they were not decimated, but have grown in numbers through these centuries of warfare. Today some six million people live in this area, of whom about one-third are Cossacks. The largest cities are Rostov, Krasnodar, Taganrog, the naval base of Novorossisk, Novovherkassk, and the oil town of Maikop. All were badly wrecked, and the population figures for pre-war years would give no indication of their size today. Novorossisk, like Stalingrad, must be rebuilt from the ground up.

Machine-building was the largest industry in the northern part of this territory. Two great farm machinery plants, Rostselmash and Krasnyi Akasai, produced a fourth of all agricultural machinery in the USSR (other than tractors). Other plants produced a fourth of the steam boiler output of the entire country. There are steel mills at Taganrog and Sulin. The coal mine of the eastern portion of the Donbass, which laps over into the territory, can produce nearly 10,000,000 tons a year. A truck assembly plant at Rostov served the entire surrounding area.

Krasnodar had an oil refinery, a meat-packing plant, margarine works, a fermentation plant, and a factory making tractor parts. Novorossisk had cement factories which accounted for 17.5 per cent of the USSR output before the war. (War damage reports have specifically mentioned them as destroyed.) We mention them because all are scheduled to be rebuilt during the Fourth Five-Year Plan, 1946-1950. However, the Rostov Coal Trust reached prewar output at the end of 1945.

The farms of this area were probably the most prosperous in the Soviet Union. Wheat yields were raised to 24-32 bushels an acre. In 1940 one county won nation-wide fame. Its 69 collective farms, uniting 8500 Cossack households, averaged 30 bushels an acre. Each village was building schools, community centers, and farm buildings. Some extended telephone service to every home or were erecting brick homes for their members. The year's harvest provided each family with a two years' supply of food and 3000 rubles in cash.

Agricultural reconstruction here has been rapid, and recent crops have again provided the customary huge surpluses for shipment to the cities of the north. Maurice Hindu's book, "The Cossacks," provides the first on-the-spot report of rural post-war reconstruction.

The North Caucasus and Crimea

Southeast of the Cossack lands lie the foothills of the Caucasus. Here are deposits of oil. In the campaign of 1942 the Germans and Rumanians took the wells at Maikop in the Kuban and bombed those at Grozny, which

Empty Bottles and Cigarette Butts

The litter of empty whiskey bottles and smelly cigarette butts left in the auditorium of Bell Gardens High School following the poorly-attended minstrel show presented by the Fraternal Order of Eagles recently shocked the school authorities. Likewise, the rental fee which went unpaid, put the Eagles on the school's blacklist.

JOHN M. LEE

Attempts by community leaders and organizations to halt the insulting minstrel show made no impression on the school authorities. They saw a chance to make a buck by renting out the hall. They were not concerned with the niceties of the situation.

Local 230 tried vainly to impress school authorities with the social and cultural injustice inherent in the presentation of a minstrel show. The union pointed out that the show would be a gratuitous insult to the Negro people; that historically the pure function of such performances is to hold up to public scorn and ridicule a whole nation of honest and earnest American citizens.

It might have been added too, that whiskey bottles and stale, acrid smoke are as much a part of minstrel shows as are the cowardly white men who block on their faces to perpetuate a vicious myth of racial inferiority. This might have been added, but local 230, despite the success of its opposition, was little more than superficially interested in the basic principles involved.

Perhaps it is because even such progressive spirit as that shown by Local 230 in this and other instances, is symbolic rather than heart-felt and earnest. There is a difference between doing what is expedient and doing what is right. No doubt, most of the members of local 230 know why minstrel shows should not be presented, and they can be depended upon to offer immediate opposition when one is proposed.

But what of the leadership? Evidently there are some men in the leadership of the local who don't understand, for it was necessary to have a committee investigate before the union went into action. Once it got rolling, local 230 gave a good account of itself. By passing out leaflets and establishing picket lines, members of the union kept the attendance down to a bare and unprofitable minimum. Their action is to be commended as one of the finest demonstrations of democratic behavior offered in a long time.

Nevertheless, there can be nothing but censure for those who are responsible for even momentarily submitting to the philosophy of superiority through ridicule. The leadership of all trade unions has the responsibility of informing itself on the issues that affect the Negro community. They must know what position to take, and they should be prepared to act without hesitation.

Currently engaged in a strike local 230 has received wide and deserved support from the Negro community. Some appeals made by this newspaper on behalf of the strikers were answered promptly. There was not even a suggestion of investigating the merits or demerits of the strike before giving assistance.

This is true because the community is informed on matters concerning the trade unions. Long before the strike was called, public opinion in the Negro community had considered the circumstances and was prepared to express itself on the side of the strikers.

Certainly the unions can do no less than the communities from which they must derive their support for organization drives and strikes. More and more it is becoming evident that it is not wise to wait for a strike or some other major crisis before meeting the people.

There will be other attempts to present public insults to the Negro people, and there will be continuing attempts to divide the Negro community on political and ideological questions. The trade unions must recognize that it is their responsibility to assist the Negro people in their struggle for full freedom. And they must recognize that progressive political action is the only means of attaining this goal.

This Changing World

By CYRIL BRIGGS

West Africa, which boasted many a flourishing civilization and powerful national state before the devastating slave raids made its peoples an easy prey for western European arms and trickery, today seems destined to play the leading role in the approaching showdown of the African peoples with western imperialism.

The will to freedom which is to be found in every section of Africa today burns with fiercest intensity in the West African colonies of Britain and France. Here are to be found the most powerful liberation movements, the most militant anti-imperialist programs and activities.

Nigeria, with its 22,000,000 population, its rich resources, populous towns, native proletariat, and its tropical climate which has discouraged white settlers, may well be the first African colony to successfully challenge the imperialist West. Nigeria has an area of 335,700 square miles.

The anti-imperialist struggle in Nigeria was recently dramatized by two events: the murder of 40 striking African miners by British troops and police last November, and the visit to this country last January of the Nigerian nationalist leader, Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe.

Affectionately known as "Zik" throughout West Africa, Dr. Azikiwe, a cocoa planter and newspaper publisher, is the leader of the National Council of Nigeria and the Cameroons, which heads the Nigerian liberation movement. Organized in 1943, the Council today represents a broad coalition of some 200 groups, including political parties, trade unions, peasants, youth and cultural organizations, professional and business associations. It has supplanted in popular favor older organizations like the Nigerian National Democratic party and the Nigerian Youth movement, which have become tainted with reformism.

Spearheaded by Labor

Organized labor spearheads the freedom movement in Nigeria as in other African (and Asian) colonies. African labor is highly conscious of its historic task. Nduke Eze, secretary of the Nigerian National Federation of Labor, which is affiliated with the Council, declares "the workers constitute the bed-rock of Nigeria's independence." It is they who today are most militantly and consistently challenging the strangle hold of foreign monopolies and cartels on the economic and political life of the country.

Nigerian labor has conducted many struggles against the British overlords, one of the most recent being the strike of coal miners against starvation pay of 20 cents a day, for an 80 cents day. Forty of the strikers were slain by the British last November at Enugu. A year before, at Burutu, employees of the United Africa Company, a subsidiary of Lever Brothers, were also subjected to armed police attacks. It's the old story of the ruthless use of armed might to intimidate the colonial peoples, keep them in subjection. Twenty years ago British troops fired into a demonstration of Nigerian women, killing 25 and wounding many others.

The Enugu outrage was answered by protest strikes in Aba, Port Harcourt, Ibadan and other Nigerian cities. In Lagos, the capital, 5000 persons participated in a protest parade organized by a national emergency committee set up to aid the strikers and to demand punishment of those who ordered the shooting.

Like most African leaders, the top Nigerian leaders realize the importance of vigilantly resisting any and all attempts by the imperialists and their stooges to

THINGS I SEE

By Marian Ingwood

The skies can't be bluer, the clouds fleecier, nor the air have a tangier nip than out at Lakeview Hot Springs, a few miles beyond Riverside. A level stretch of land rimmed in by rocks and mountains, some of them snow-capped this time of year, some of the land cultivated, some of it desert—this alone would make Lakeview an ideal spot for anyone who wishes to rest or to hike and climb during his vacation.

But added to this is the unique attraction of natural hot mineral springs that brought the Indians to this spot many moons ago to bathe in those waters that will restore tired, aching bodies to health and strength.

Lakeview, Hot Springs, the resort, was at one time the site of an Indian village. Bits of Indian pottery, of the smooth hallowed out stones used for grinding grain, can still be found in an olive grove on the outskirts of the resort community. The springs with their waters warm and salubrious, were on the surface of the ground then. The Indians sat in them, and supposedly traveled for miles to enjoy this luxury.

Today, however, the water has sunk beneath the surface of the ground, and it is pumped up for use in the bath houses. It flows through pipes the same as water in a city. The great difference is that it is comfortably hot all the time, and it does not need to be heated. Mother Nature has done that job. It smells of minerals, especially of sulphur, and it has a delightfully smooth silky-like feeling, like a bubble without the bubbles. And—it leaves no ring on the bath tub! Those of us who hate to scrub bath tubs will surely mark that one up in its favor.

The place was bought some time ago by Nathan Ginsberg. Beginning modestly he has turned it into a noted resort of this part of California. It is open to everyone, regardless of race or creed or color. In addition to the cabins he rents to guests, he is selling lots on land adjoining to everybody who wishes to buy. He is making a special offer just now which he and Mrs. Ginsberg think should appeal to the Negro people. It is the free use of the swimming pool, of the hot mineral baths, and a two weeks free vacation a year for two years for two persons, to anyone who purchases a lot at $500 full price, with $50 down, paying $50 per year, and no interest.

The tract of land he had mapped out in lots is just across the street from the resort cabins. A sign tells you: Sholom Aleichem Dorf is being built here. The name, Mr. Ginsberg will tell you, means, "Peace be with you village." Sholom Aleichem was the pseudonym of a famous Russian comedy writer, but whose stories, many of them folk stories, were often tinged with so much pathos that tears came into your eyes, even while you laughed.

It was a village that would do honor to such a writer that Mr. Ginsberg hoped, and still hopes to build. But some of his neighbors, although living several miles away, object. A woman came to him one time and told him, "You're going to get into a lot of trouble, if you don't quit selling to Negroes, Mexicans, and Armenians."

Then at night on February 26, the last day of Brotherhood Week, a body of hoodlums tore up the markers, the stakes and signs that had so carefully designated the lots which Mr. Ginsberg was selling to everyone who wanted to buy. The place now is desert land, and everything must be gone over, resurveyed, and laid out again in lots for the village of "Peace be with you."

This act of vandalism prompted the Rev. Magnuson, pastor of a church in Perris, a town about twelve miles away, to write Mr. Ginsberg expressing his admiration for the ideals he is putting into practice, and his contempt for the outrage perpetrated upon him.

Mr. Ginsberg answered: "I have been dreaming of Christians like you since I was 12 years old, when I saw a program in my old country, Russia, in 1945. And in 1931 when I was in China and the Japanese were killing men, women, and children. They didn't find a safe place in their own country. I have also witnessed a lynching in the South."

"And still I'm dreaming of finding many Christians like you. If we had many of them the world would be at peace. To my sorrow you are the only one that sent me such an encouraging and humanitarian letter."

To help build this world of peace, Mr. Ginsberg will continue to plan for his village of "peace be with you," as a small part of that greater world we all must help to build. A really good thing like that cannot be downed, no matter how many hoodlums are against it.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—The fifth annual convention of the Horner Phillips Internes Alumni Association, will be held in St. Louis April 17-21. Dr. Thomas Carr McFall, Charleston, S.C., is president of the Association. The meeting will present some of the country's foremost medical scientists during the five-day session.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 10—Latest press news reports that the Negro population of this country has grown at a more rapid rate than the white population. Latest figures show non-white population increase of 11.6 per cent over white increase of 7.5 per cent.

DURHAM, N. C. — A young white Georgia farmer, said to be of well-to-do standing in the community, applied a treatment of 16 hot bullets from his 22 rifle to a mob of white men clothed in the garb of the Ku Klux Klan, and rescued his Negro farm hand from a beating here last Thursday night, according to "The Asheville Times."

LONDON, England — In some parts of England ponies are still used to haul the cars in some of the older coal mines from the place where the men are digging to the shaft where the cars are carried to the surface.

OAKRIDGE, Tenn. — A man working on the atom bomb project at Oak Ridge quit because he said whatever it was the government was making there, could have been bought so much cheaper.

PARIS, France — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower was elected an associate member of the French National Academy of Moral and Political Sciences by unanimous vote last Monday.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — California's notorious death toll from traffic accidents took a nose dive in January to the lowest total in 16 years. The January death toll of 188 persons was 24 per cent below January of 1948, and was the first January since 1933 in which less than 190 persons were killed.

But that's still 188 too many.

POTPOURRI

The CIO, this week, asked the California Department of Employment to withdraw an instruction memorandum which it described as "directing a state agency to act as a strike-breaking instrument."

The protest was aimed at a memorandum which the CIO charged directed personnel of the Department of Employment to act as "an illegal spy agency." Center of the dispute was Area V Memorandum No. 286, dated February 14, 1950. It instructed Local Office Managers of the Department to "assign personal to serve as observers" and "note what is said to persons who cross or approach" pickets in the event of a strike of the CIO Communication Workers of America against the Bell system.

The Boy Scouts of America, Los Angeles area, announced this week that Judge W. Turney has been elected vice-president of the Los Angeles Area Council.

Rev. Clayton D. Russell, pastor of the People's Independent Church of Christ, is head of a committee that is staging a mass rally tonight, March 16, at the Independent Church, 18th and Paloma streets, to demand jobs.

Rev. Russell contends that 36 per cent of the unemployed in California are Negroes, and out of 300,000 unemployed in Los Angeles, 60,000 are Negroes.

Earl W. Jimerson, international president, and Patrick E. Gorman, international secretary-treasurer, of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of N. A., AFL, have written an editorial on FEPC appearing in the March issue of "Butcher Workmen," the official publication, AMCBW of NA, titled "Tolerance is a Lie," which unmasks all the subterfuges of those who profess to be "friends" of Jewish, Catholic and Negro people. They say "tolerance in matters of this kind is a contemptible lie."

"The time has come when so-called friendly congressmen and senators must stand up and be counted. The Negro has been politically double-crossed long enough."

COURAGEOUS CUBS

The Cubs did it, boys! They ripped the Ventura Pirates apart 58-56 to win the championship in the regional JC basketball tourney Sat. nite. We tipped you a month ago that they would do it. They are the best JC cage team in these parts. Watch them go places in the national tournament, starting next week in Kansas.

It's unfair to speak of the Cubs' victory unless mention is also made of "gentleman" Jim Powell and Rollen Hans. Both are transfers from Poly Hi and were always in the vanguard on the Cub attack. It's fairly safe to say that LACC wouldn't have the championship if they hadn't turned up at the right time.

Gentleman Jim was selected one of the All-tournament players off his expert control of the background and his devastating jump shots. Hans is always a key man in the Cub assault and is one of the best ball control artists in the business. That, however, takes nothing from Al Roges, and Hal Uplinger, also all-tourney selections, who gave the Cubs their one-two scoring punch.

Thus ends Compton's long dynasty as King of JC Sports. You know, it has been the custom for the Tartars to win the basketball and every other JC championship since time immemorial. But the handwriting was on the wall for the Tartars when CC fought them to a 28-all draw on the gridiron last Nov. Watch the Cubs run away with the track crown, and don't say we didn't warn you.

PASADENA PASTIMES

The LaBarons took the Pasadena cage tourney 67-61 Sat. nite, but all the Comet rooters claim that it was a lousy fest. In fact, they accused the refs of being a mite partial to the home-owners. Be that as it may, the LA club gave a good account of itself. Had Ernie Powell connected with more of his brilliant hook shots it would have been a different story. Bobby Pounds, Ernie Bond, Ronnie Powell, and George Murray added to Comet fireworks.

Both sides forgot their differences and flocked en masse to a captivating party hosted by lovely Lois Bunn at her Westgate residence. Who was there but luscious Lillian Williams with her favorite reporter, and luxurious Lela Bailey lamenting the absence of Nelson? Ernie Bond surprised with Ruby Jackson, and Mary Cantrell was admiring the gold basketball Bob Campbell had just won. Ronnie Powell took to the court with darling Delores Patterson while Ernie Powell remained in the car with marvelous Monna Jones.

Mary Grooms of PCC was sweetest of the Pasadenians, and Mary Notrica of LACC was among the finest. Madge Washington was fresh from Kansas, and Lillie Mae Campbell was fresh from Muir. There was Freda Hodge, curvaceous little doll of LA State, and her sis Gloria. Also was Lois Morris, who loves bop, and Mina Bunch, big bundle of charms. Melveta Johnson was the darling-est dish in Rose Bowl City, while Joan Leonard hit the tape with Orville McRiley, top hurdler for the Bulldogs.

Congrats to Anna King for beating all debaters in her district to reach the finals in the Dailey News girls' oratory contest . . . An oscar to Henry Finks for holding up under fire and reaching the finals with Alice Cunningham . . . A blue ribbon to Minta Johnson and Vickie Shaw for solving the riddle of the "cherie" tree . . . ON THE SIDE

Hayward Gray, youthful candidate for United States Congress in the June elections, initiated his election campaign with a forceful speech at a musical held at Crystal Tea Room Sunday. Speaking on the topic "Youth in Politics," Gray opined that youths will not be driven out of politics. An interracial crowd of almost 200 heard him and four other speakers expound on local politics.

Gray is 25 and a senior at LA State College where he is studying for his teaching credentials in social science. He is endorsed by the Democratic Party Central Committee and other civic groups. Since Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas bowed out of the race, he feels that he has a good chance to win from the 14th District. Should he succeed, he will be one of the youngest members in Congress.

WEEKLY TOPIC OF DISCUSSION

The girls continue to set the pace this week as Donzella Coulter and Murney Hardin sharpen their verbal knives on: Should a girl go out with more than one fellow?

Donzella—Yes. A girl of college age should go out with more than one fellow because it affords her a chance to improve her personality. With each person she meets she obtains a new experience. She should continue to go out with several guys until she meets someone in whom she is extremely interested.

Murney—No. I only go out with one fellow at a time. If a girl is going steady she should only go out with her boy friend or he will lose confidence in her and feel that he is wasting his time. It gives a girl a bad reputation to go out with a lot of guys, and men want to marry girls whom they think are exclusive, not those who go out with everyone.

NAACP Youth Council is sponsoring a meeting and program in the youth center at Second Baptist Church Sat. at 2 p.m. Two Indian students will speak and a party will be given afterwards. They also plan a dance for May 6. Hightlighters come off with their dance at the Elks Sat. nite. It's 1 a.m. again and time for us to close shop for the week, but may we leave you with this thought: "Our world is largely a mirror of our mood. We cannot change our world unless we change our mood." Good night.

Bits of Info

RALEIGH, N. C. — Kelly M. Alexander, president of the North Carolina Branch of the NAACP, announced this week a drive to register 250,000 Negro voters.

Under the Taft-Hartley law, 22 injunctions were issued last year. All of them against labor unions, the result of a law designed to work against unions and for anti-union employers.

Keep America Free

NEW YORK—The orgy of naming "reds" reaches the War Minister of England, to Dean Acheson's wife, to State Department's Dr. Jessup, and there is a further madness in the so-called probe of DDR's papers. None of this has the sharp edge of danger to our freedoms as that what's happening in Pittsburgh today, where offices of peaceful citizens are raided, where "reds" are being sought everywhere, where people are being fired indiscriminately, and where the whole behavior of the authorities, above all led by the House Un-American Activities Committee and the FBI, has become openly illegal.

There is not a single statute or law which gives these agencies, or any other, whether local, state or federal, the right to violate sacred American freedoms which are ours by virtue of the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. I have written the following letter to Senator Langer, asking for an investigation of the current "red scare" in Pittsburgh, which in my opinion, has become the testing ground for the proposed anti-people's Mundt Bill now before the Senate Judiciary Committee of which Senator Langer is a member, and which measure he and many others fiercely oppose:

Honorable William Langer,
Member, Senate Judiciary Com.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

I read your dissenting report on the Mundt Bill and am greatly encouraged and strengthened by your strong words in defense of our American freedoms.

It is a point of pride with me that I hold your opinion, especially since I was one of many who testified before the Senate Judiciary Committee in 1948 against this infamous measure. And I shared in the happiness of our people when it was defeated.

Now the danger threatens again; only its aspect is very real because I come from Pittsburgh where at this moment, much of what you describe in your report is occurring.

Pittsburgh, in my opinion, has become the testing ground of the FBI, the House Un-American Committee, and others who arrogantly assume that the Mundt Bill is already a law. Hysteria and witch hunting, whipped into a frenzy by the daily press, with the aid of federal and local agencies and committees, have so infringed upon political rights of citizens that a judge refused one the right to serve on a jury; the Board of Education refuses the people's public schools as meeting places to the Progressive Party and the Communist Party.

Senatorialism in the city's press, and the atmosphere of finger pointing, has been spearheaded by the FBI and the House Un-American Committee which take upon themselves the right to determine what a people's political ideas should be.

If you want to see a preview of the Mundt Bill, go to Pittsburgh. I believe it would be a great service to our country if you would demand an immediate investigation of the FBI, for its whole procedure is illegal and against our American tradition of democracy, against our Constitution and Bill of Rights. This investigation should halt, once and for all, the ambitious attempts of this agency to become the American Gestapo.

Three paragraphs of your report stand out remarkably well as a portrayal of the political thinking (in Pittsburgh) encouraged by the press and authorities:

"Under the guise of protecting our democratic institutions against an alleged threat of subversion from foreign agents who seek to overthrow our government by coercive means, it is proposed to regiment the thinking of the American people, and to impair or prevent the free exercise of constitutionally guaranteed rights."

Second, the policies of the Progressive Party are its own. They are determined by its own members acting democratically within their local organizations and through our national convention and elected party committees. Our policies are not determined and controlled by anyone who owes his supreme allegiance to any other party and we do not—and will not—permit any organized factions or groups within our party.

Third, our principles are vastly different from those of the Communist Party. We do not believe in the one-party system of government for the United States. Our philosophy is not based upon the principles of Marxism and Leninism. Our program is based upon reform by constitutional and democratic processes. We believe in progressive capitalism, not socialism. Our program is not a communist program, nor a socialist program—it is the only program that can save capitalism from itself.

Fourth, the Progressive Party calls to the support of its program all those who believe wholeheartedly in it no matter what party they belong to. We will not attempt the purge of any individual because of past or present labels. At the same time, we can't waste our time on endless bickering about fine points of doctrine which have little to do with the present world-wide tragedy. Sectarianism should have no place in the Progressive Party.

Fifth, as we approach the 1950 elections, the Progressive Party must convince the American people that we are fighting for peace, not because any foreign power wants us to fight for peace but because we understand the deep needs of the American people and the world. We must make it clear that there are no concealed strings manipulating us.

Sixth, the Progressive Party stands for civil liberties for all. Civil liberties like peace are indivisible. We believe in civil liberties in Eastern Europe but we recognize that except in the case of Czechoslovakia there has been no democratic tradition on which to build. We know that civil liberties will rapidly disappear in the United States as the cold war is fanned into a white heat by H-bomb planning.

The Communists have their party. We have ours. We agree with the Communists that peace with Russia is possible—but that doesn't make us Communists. We agree with the Democrats and Republicans that capitalism can be made to work—but that doesn't make us Democrats or Republicans.

I want labor to work hand in glove with us. I know what it is to work closely with labor. But since the death of Roosevelt, the labor leaders have changed—not I. More and more I am sure that labor will understand that belief in the desirability of ending the cold war is not evidence of communist control.

On the domestic economic scene the outstanding phenomenon of the past four years has been the postponement of the depression by heavy cold war expenditures and high consumer purchasing power. Year after year economists have predicted that depression was just around the corner. They were thinking in terms of Lord Keynes or Karl Marx and events have steadily proved them wrong. My personal belief is that the leaders of the capitalist system and of government have learned a lot about preventing a depression that they didn't know thirty years ago. But the rapid decline in capital investment in 1949 proves that they have not learned enough. Unemployment is now rapidly increasing and the panhandler has returned to the streets of New York.

American capitalism is on trial today in the eyes of the world. It cannot survive a severe depression or war.

mocracy and the prosperity of the world depend on our taking the following steps:

1. Promote the maximum number of peace-time jobs.
2. Pay wages high enough, and farm income high enough, to give consumers the power to absorb an expanding flood of consumer products.
3. Guarantee equal opportunity in education, health, and jobs without segregation or discrimination.
4. Cooperation wholeheartedly with government in the conservation of soil, water, mines, and forests.
5. Cooperate wholeheartedly with government to prevent depression, not by an arms program but by a peace program.
6. Use our influence through the press, radio, movies and television to stop the drive toward fascism, racism, intolerance and war.
7. Make it possible for small businessmen and family business to survive and expand.
8. Develop atomic energy for peace—not war.
9. Throw our full strength behind genuine world government which has an effective world police force and is based on a revised system of voting which will protect the legitimate interests of the United States, Russia, Britain and China.
10. Throw our full strength behind all practical plans through the United Nations to increase the productivity of the underdeveloped areas of the world, including Russia and China, for the sake of the people in those areas—not for exploitation.

If we fail to do these ten things, we shall fall into monopoly, fascism, war and communism.

I don't want any of the four on the domestic front in the United States. The big job on the domestic front in the United States is to convert our present reactionary capitalism into progressive capitalism, which is willing to plan effectively with government to prevent depression by expanding the peace-time production and trade of the entire world—including Russia and the New China.

Our present reactionary capitalism theoretically gives the opposition a chance to be heard. The opposition is not liquidated in the same way as in Eastern Europe, but through control by reactionary capitalism in the United States is progressing very rapidly.

Certainly England gives more freedom of expression than the United States. There is less intolerant trial of dissenters by newspapers in Britain than there is in the United States. Under the hysteria cultivated by reactionary capitalism in the United States, it has become impossible to protect dissenters by law.

And so I say the only effective way to stop the emergence of an increasingly oppressive American fascism is to push for a vital, progressive, dynamic democracy which is willing to plan in terms of the ten points I have mentioned.

As a private citizen during the past three years I have tried to promote peace and lay the groundwork for world abundance. As a result I have had as many tons of foul printer's ink and as many vibrations of false air waves directed at me as any American in history. Out of it all I have gained hundreds of millions of friends abroad while temporarily I have lost millions of friends at home. Both the psychic rewards and the psychic costs have been high. From now on the rewards will be far greater than the costs. Time is on our side.

A year and a half ago when we met in Philadelphia, the adherents of the cold war were riding high. The Truman Doctrine was killing Greens and arming Turks, the then "bold new approach" of the Marshall Plan promised economic strength to Europe and in the United Nations the Baruch Plan had stalemated all efforts to control the atomic bomb. We proceeded to build more bombs, arm more peoples—confident that the philosophy of force would mean the unconditional surrender of Russia.

We Progressives who urged sincere negotiation, disarmament and economic aid through the United Nations were drowned out by the drums of the cold war. But look at the situation today! All of our prophecies are coming true. All of their boasts are failing. They are losing adherents. We are now in a position to gain them. In '48 we lost a battle for votes. Now we are in a position to win a campaign for peace. In '48 opinion was all on their side. Today events are on our side.

Rising unemployment and devalued currencies in Europe and the need for a Point Four program are dramatizing the inadequacies of the Marshall Plan. The policy of containing Communism has failed spectacularly in China and Asia. The policy of terrorizing the Russians with atomic bombs exploded with the Russian bomb.

For months now, in all circles, there has been a deepening realization of the significance of these failures. But the only answer of the architects of the cold war who see their structure crumbling is to announce the blueprint for an H-Bomb. Secretary Acheson insists the foundation of our policy must be still more force. Truman gives the signal for building the H-Bomb.

dictate the tactics of the liberation struggle, decide along what lines it should be prosecuted, when it should seek its allies. These leaders know that African liberation is not possible without the active support of the powerful anti-imperialist forces in the imperialist countries. They welcome the aid extended by these forces in exposing the evils of colonialism, mobilizing home resistance against colonialism, refusing, as organized labor in France and other European countries is doing, to handle arms shipments designed for use against the colonial peoples. Nor are they afraid of the familiar "Red" label. They are aware that any liberation movement worth its salt will be bracketed by the imperialists and their stooges with Communism. And they have no illusions as to the fate western imperialism has in store for Africa. They are well aware that the West looks upon the African continent as its last imperialist preserve and as such to be subjected to the most brutal and intensive exploitation in the coming years.

No Faith in U. S.

Dr. Azikiwe expressed the attitude of African leaders when, during his recent visit to this country, he frankly told the State Department that he had no faith in President Truman's Point Four. "We are beginning to doubt the United States' intentions for technical development of 'undeveloped areas,'" he stated.

Later at a press conference in New York, the Nigerian nationalist leader revealed that Washington had balked a giving di-they almost overran. The destroyed wells, which will have to be drilled anew, had an output of 5,000,000 tons, or almost as much as the Ploesti fields in Rumania.

The slopes of the North Caucasus are inhabited by 2,000,000 people, mainly Russians. In the highlands are smaller peoples, organized as the Kabardin, North Ossetian and Daghestan Autonomous Republics, with a total population of 2,500,000 more. This country is famous for its health resorts, run on advanced scientific lines. They are now being rebuilt after having been put to the torch, and their personnel murdered by the Nazis.

The highland peoples of the North Caucasus have much in common with the hillfolk of Kentucky and Tennessee, including the habit of feuding. The Soviet authorities had done their utmost to stamp out this clan tradition both by legal and educational methods. However, when the Germans sought to vary their soldiers' "menu" by opening brothels housing highland girls, no one could stop the mountaineers from exacting blood vengeance. The Mohammedan mullahs declared a Gazavat—a holy war—against the invaders. Knives flashed silently in the night. With these voluntarily organized divisions of reckless horsemen, uniformed in their traditional native costumes, began the formation of the national units of the Red Army. From this and other factors stemmed the decision of the Supreme Soviet in 1944 that each Union Republic have its own armed forces.

The North Caucasus had not been completely conquered by the Tsars until 1864. Russians were thoroughly hated until the Revolution. The Red Army had therefore pursued a policy of no problems which affect the lives conscripting many of these peoples. Their volunteering en masse in 1941 and 1942 was an impressive tribute to the Soviet policy of national equality and aid to formerly backward groups. However, this area also provided exceptions to the rule of the loyal support to the government by non-Russians. The Chechen, Ingush and Karachew tribes of the North Caucasus, numbering 600,000 together, and the 135,000 Kalmyks of the semi-desert to the north, evidently were disloyal in their majority during the war. As a result, their governmental autonomy has been revoked. By way of comparison, the total number of non-Russians who came under German rule, and remained loyal to the Soviet regime in their great majority, was in the vicinity of 60,000,000.

The Crimea is separated from the North Caucasus by the Kerch Straits. It is connected to the Ukraine on the north by the Isthmus of Perekop. However, for historical reasons, it is not part of the Ukrainian Republic, but is an Oblast within the R.S.F.S.R., as the largest single nationality is Russian (42 per cent). The native Tatars, numbering 200,000 of the 800,000 population, were disloyal in the war, causing the area to lose its status as an Autonomous Republic.

Volumes have been written describing the beauties of the mountainous southern coast. Today they would need new chapters to detail the wreckage wrought by the Germans in the palaces which the Soviets had converted into sanatoria. Suffice it to say that the Crimea is a land of grain, cattle and winegrapes. Two Crimean cities have a great place in history. One is Sevastopol, which outdid the previous epic of its siege in the lost Crimean War with the greater epic of the victorious war of 1941-1945. The other is Yalta, where the second Roosevelt-Stalin-Churchill meeting took place.

The California Eagle, Thursday, March 16, 1950—7

Sacramento Newsgram

A number of Members of the Legislature were calling for some concrete legislative action to alleviate unemployment and to provide some relief for the destitute unemployed of the state at the special session of the Legislature which was convened in Sacramento last week. Surprise was expressed that Governor Warren made no mention of the state's unemployment problem in his message covering the present Budget and Special Sessions. Several bills are being introduced to meet this serious need. A number of Assemblymen joined in sponsoring a measure to reactivate the state relief act for unemployed and needy persons. Among the authors were Joe C. Lewis, Kern County, who strongly advocated this legislation when he foresaw the future need for it at the regular session last year, and Augustus F. Hawkins, Glenn M. Anderson, Carley Porter and Edward E. Elliott of Los Angeles County. These same legislators are supporting a proposed referendum measure for a billion dollar range state public works program. Other parts of a proposed program include extension of unemployment insurance, fair employment practices, and a full employment law. It was pointed out that revival of relief would only serve to ease the present situation and that the thing most needed is a long range program to aid private industry in creating jobs and to provide overall security.

Senior Citizen Security Bills Introduced

While several thousand members of the Townsend Clubs of California met in the state's capitol to urge the enactment of a more adequate old age and blind pension program a number of bills to improve the law were introduced in the Assembly. Measures were thrown across the desk to eliminate the responsible relatives law, reduce the eligibility age to 63, retain state administration, and liberalize personal property requirements. Broadcast of the bills is a A. R. 17 by Assemblyman Edward E. Elliott, Glenn M. Anderson, Joe C. Lewis, Augustus F. Hawkins, Carl Fletcher, Vince Thomas, Lester MacMillan, Robert Condon, Carley Porter, and others.

Continuation of Child Care Centers Requested

Continuation of the child care centers of the state was requested last week when legislation providing for this was brought before the Legislature. Two bills were introduced—one by Augustus F. Hawkins, Glenn M. Anderson, Edward E. Elliott, and others. Another bill is by Ernest Geddes of Pomona and others. Unless one of these bills is passed, the child care centers will be closed on June 30; and 14,000 children of working mothers will be deprived of them.

Assemblyman Elliott Calls for Repeal of Cross Filing Law as Best Approach to Lobbying Problem

Assemblyman Edward E. Elliott, downtown Los Angeles, announced this week that he is introducing a resolution requesting the Governor to amend the proclamation for the present special session of the State Legislature to include consideration and action on legislation to repeal the state's cross filing law. Elliott viding for the repeal of the state's had previously drafted a bill pro-cross filing law as the best way to prevent corrupt and unethical lobbying practices by restoring party responsibility. The bill was ruled inadmissible by the Legislative Counsel's office. The Assemblyman stated that, because of this ruling, he is sponsoring this resolution asking the Governor to amend the call for the special session to include this subject. Elliott stated that he considered the repeal of the cross filing law as a necessary democratic political reform vital to the future progress of California.

Physicians' Wives Organize To Aid Community Health

The Physicians' Wives' Organization held its initial meeting on Tuesday, March 7, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Henry McPherson, 1215 So. Wilton Pl. The purpose of the newly organized group is to contribute help to the Health program of the community as needed; to plan and follow through with new projects, which may be of consequence to the community. All physicians and surgeons wives are eligible and invited to attend.

Bill Slayton Jr. rubs his soft brown eyes as his subconscious mind hears the peal of the bell in the belfry of a tiny church in Kleburn, Texas. In ten minutes flat, he dons his Sunday best, gulps down the ham and eggs and makes a bee line down a street of Los Angeles toward the Methodist Church. This happens each and every Sunday. Taking a birds eye view of the other staunch church goers among the younger set we have at Second Baptist Cathy Whitworth, pianist, Artis Grant, head of usher board, Vivian Beck, Morris Hampton and Delo Grey D.D.S., Thaddeus Hobbs and Albert Jones are ardent workers at Hamilton Methodist, Sherrill Luke says his prayers at Wesley M.E. Roy Froggie Johnson is assistant director of the Junior choir at Westminster Church.

Attractive Margaret Goode is the reading clerk at Independent and Harriet Flowers and Norman Winston are ushers there. At St. Philips, Nonie Moore sings in the choir and Bill Alexander serves at the altar. Nancy Higgs, Betty Jean Perkins, Andre Green and Wilson Robinson flock to Trinity Baptist.

While at Zion Hill, Dixie Elaine Beckwith and Mr. Grimes are youth leaders and Irma Jean Jenelle is the youth organist. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farmer and Mercedes Goudeau attend Holy Name. Singing in the choir at Holman Methodist are Margaret Henley, Gloria Taylor, Sylvia Griggs and Mary Drye. Elaine Broady is their directress. William Philips is one of their hardest workers. Our columnist Bobbie Jean Anderza goes to mass at St. Odellias as well as Velma Beck (school marm) and William Lewis. The SpinBacks (composed of young bachelors and spinsters) of Lincoln Memorial went ice skating last week. Despite the fact that approximately one hundred seventy federal employees at Sawtelle Vets. Hospital lost their jobs last Thursday, this didn't seem to put a damper on the dance given for the employees that following Friday night. Doing some fancy ballroom dancing were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas. Jimmy Sanders, who used to be quite an Omega man at Hampton Institute, was whispering sweet words to his charming partner. Sorority to Aid Boy Scout Jamboree Trek

The meeting of The Beta Pi Sigma Sorority on March 6th found attended.

Guest speakers of the evening were Roger Willis, District Director of the McKinley Scout Troop 129C and Joseph Hines. Four of the McKinley troop were present to perform maneuvers for the group, and at the same time further their interest in supporting the efforts to send scouts from this area to the World Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania, June 25th.

The sorority agreed to be the first group to endorse such a worthwhile project.

Scouts present were: Elbert Pitts, Edward Bush, J. Ramsey and Benjamin Nance Jr.

Mr. Leon Hardwick, Public Relations Representative for one of the leading dairies in the city, spoke to the group of the many worthwhile job opportunities being opened up by his company.

From both projects the sorority gained many interesting bits of information. Essie M. Rodgers is president of the sorority. Sarah P. Reynolds, historian.

Elaborate Dinner Party Tendered Indiana Cotractig Scions

It isn't often that the Horatio Alger story is one which a whole community profits from. It isn't often at all. But the success story of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Means is well worth repeating.

The prominent Midwestern couple were feted at an elaborate buffet dinner last Thursday evening by their host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Driver.

During the evening a short program was rendered with Edward Don Wright, baritone, singing "Because", Victor Hugo Green, baritone, singing "The Lord's Prayer", and Mrs. Mason Driver, mezzo soprano, "Rose in Bud."

Mrs. Means was an office girl for Booker T. Washington at Tuskegee Institute when she met Mr. Means. After their marriage they started a contracting business on $90 capital. Since that time they are the owners and builders of five apartment buildings, including the beautiful Booker T. Washington Terrace in Gary, Indiana.

Best way to spruce up a telephone is with a soft, dry cloth...never with water, or any other liquid.

HOW TO TREAT YOUR TELEPHONE

Suggestions to help protect your service

1. A twisted cord can lead to trouble. Although the wires are especially designed for flexibility, too many twists and kinks may eventually break them and interfere with service until a repairman can call. Good idea to get the curls out by letting the receiver dangle and unwind by itself... then keep them out by remembering, each time you call, not to put turns in the cord as you handle the receiver.

2. It's built to take it... but your telephone can develop ailments if it's dropped. So make sure the stand it sits on is solid and is in a spot where it won't be accidentally bumped. Other ways to help protect service: Avoid "gadget" attachments for your telephone... keep cords clear of doorways where they may be pinched... and always keep water away from wires and fittings.

3. Did you ever stop to think that your telephone is one service or piece of equipment in your home that's repaired and maintained for life at no extra cost to you? This maintenance is one of the values included in the rates you pay for service... rates that make it one of your really good buys today.

NAT Postpone 'Golden Boy'

Because additional funds are needed, the Negro Art Theatre has postponed their opening of their first production "Golden Boy" by Clifford Odets. For those of you who are not too familiar with the NAT, the objective of the organization is to present in the theatre plays which will reflect the culture, the struggle and the progress of the Negro people, and to represent them honestly as an integral part of American life.

In order to set a definite opening date for Golden Boy, NAT invites their many friends to attend a cocktail party at 2265 West 22nd street, Saturday, March 18th from 9:00 p.m. until. You will probably receive a reminder reading like this:

GOLDEN BOY AND

RABBIT HUTCH

NAT doesn't think it's too much

To ask you to come and participate

In order to set an opening date

For Golden Boy, not Rabbit Hutch.

Negro Actors Guild In Dire Need Of Funds

NEW YORK (Atlas)—The Negro Actors Guild is in greater need of funds today than it has been since it was organized more than fifteen years ago, said Noble Sissie before a Press party last Thursday afternoon in the mezzanine of the Hotel Theresa.

The party was called by the Guild to acquaint the Press with the financial status of the organization, which was attended by representatives of every local paper and Dress Service.

"The Negro Actors Guild has been the means of curbing juvenile delinquency," declared Sissie, "But greater effort can be made in this field as well as rendering young and expiring artists an opportunity to show their talents in the theatre."

The party was unique, in that it included such personalities and old "timers" as Lionel Hampton, band leader; J. Rosamond Johnson, actor-composer; Edith Wilson, former musical comedy star, and now the "Aunt Jemima" over the American Broadcasting Company; Susie Sutton, Ida Forsythe, Percy Verwayen, Abbie Mitchell and Artie Bell McGinty.

An Interesting Interview With a Bronze Stripteaser

ED NOTE: (If you searched frantically last week for this story on the Bronze Venus of Burlesque . . . well here it is.)

Her name is Delores Mallory and she is professionally known as the Bronze Venus of Burlesque. She has been a professional artist and Sculptors model for about five years, posing for various art schools, illustrators and top artists up and down the coast.

Several of these paintings and sculpture have won local and national prizes. Outstanding among these was a life size kneeling figure by Ina De Can and a painting "Study of a Negro Girl" by Victor Bueh, which was purchased by the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. When asked why the sudden change, Miss Mallory pleasantly smiled and replied, "I just got tired of sitting and standing still for five years and decided to go in for something more active. With her well rounded figure, and having studied dancing, we readily understand her decision."

During the past year, Delores has become quite popular as one of the very few Sepia Stripteasers, mainly because she has one of the classiest acts in the business. Just completing a 10-week tour of Arizona, she is currently dancing at Polly and Alex Lucky Spot.

ALBERT J. McNEIL
Music Critic of the California Eagle

At this lenten season, it is perhaps only natural that we reflect on the great happenings which surround the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. In such a reflection, we have wondered about the present-day happenings in the world's newest republic, Israel, the scene of so many historic events. Zino Francescatti, violinist, a recent visitor to Tel-Aviv, reports the following on the musical activities.

An eight-hour non-stop flight brings one from Paris to Tel-Aviv. The distance is about the same as when one takes off from New York and debarks on the Pacific Coast, but Tel-Aviv at first sight is more like Miami, with a beautiful, sandy beach, a quiet sea, and the sky of Provence. Such was my first impression when I arrived there this fall for a concert tour. The people all looked cheerful and very busy. Everywhere were lights and smiles.

Israel is the Land of the Sky—vast and profound like an ocean. I could understand the anguish of Cain, who could not hide himself from the eye of justice—for this is a land of light, brightness and truth.

As for the panoramic view, can one forget the Raphael-like landscape of Nazareth; the gorgeous view from Mount Carmel above Haifa; Jerusalem and its Seven Hills; and the almost unreal beauty and grandeur of the Lake of Tiberias?

This country looks back on fifty centuries of history, and yet is the youngest nation on earth. The people are affectionate and gay, though they have more difficult problems than most countries of Europe. They have four meatless days each week, and are under rationing for many food items. However, they offer you the most unrestrained hospitality, and do not try to excuse some shortcomings—so proud and pleased are they to extend the honors of their new homeland.

And what about music? It would take long to give an exhaustive account, but—for something new under the sun, what do you think of a country where the musical managers have a hard time—NOT to induce listeners to come to musical events, but to keep them away? Notices are inserted in the papers apologizing for the fact that there are no more seats for sale. In Jerusalem sixty veterans who could not buy tickets for the orchestra's concert there, the house having been sold out, turned up ahead of time, took the first row of seats, and would not budge at concert time, despite an urgent appeal by the Mayor and more or less forcible requests from the police. We started that concert forty minutes late, and some ticket holders had to sit on the floor in the aisles, but the veterans were allowed to remain.

As for the number of subscribers to the Israel Philharmonic, (attention Los Angeles Symphony Association), you could not put them even into a huge theater like Radio City Music Hall at one time, as they are well over 7000—and this in a country of only a million inhabitants, about one-eighth of New York City's population. The Ohel Shem Theater, where concerts are given, has only about 1200 seats, so the same concert must be repeated six times. We even played one program ten times, six hearings in Tel-Aviv; once for the inauguration of the Weizmann Institute in Rehovot; twice in Haifa on the afternoon and evening of one day; and once in Jerusalem.

This admirable orchestra does not have an easy life. They play five concerts a week during eleven months of the year, in addition to many rehearsals, and most of the members give lessons and take part in chamber music activities. During the warm months, incidentally, they pay in white shirts and black ties, and if you have never felt the so-called KHAMSHIN, or "burning wind from the desert," you cannot know what hardship it imposes on the fingers and lips of the instrumentalists. The orchestra was under the guest direction of the noted French conductor, Paul Paray, this autumn, and with him in charge it was in top form, its members seeming never too tired to play with spirit. There are so many fine violinists in the string section from European countries that I shook hands with a different concertmaster at almost every appearance.

Is this a music-minded people? I can assure you it is. Shalom.

Future Artists
Must Register
By Tomorrow

Friday is the last chance Los Angeles' ambitious young singers have to register for the city-sponsored annual "Artists of the Future" youth voice contest. J. Arthur Lewis, city music coordinator, warned today. Entry blanks for the contest, with its $1500 worth of voice scholarship prizes, must be postmarked by midnight Friday.

Open to all Los Angeles singers between the ages of 13 and 20 who have had no professional singing experiences, and who have lived in the city for at least six months, or who attend a school under the jurisdiction of the Los Angeles Board of Education, the contest has already drawn a record number of more than 300 entries.

Registration blanks may still be obtained until 5 p.m. Friday at the Bureau of Music, Room 1306, City Hall. Auditions for the event, being held under the auspices of the Bureau for the fifth consecutive year, BENEFIT CONCERT by the Albert McNeil Choir will be given Sunday at the Second Baptist Church at 3:30 p.m. Hael Chapman will be featured soloist. The Sphinx Club of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity is the beneficiary of the concert.

Free Chamber Music Concert Series Will Open Sunday

Music by Beethoven, Mozart and Milhaud will open the 11-week spring series of chamber music concerts at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park, Sunday, March 19, at 3 p.m.

The Twentieth Century Shring Trio, whose members are Felix Slatkin, violinist; Sven Reher, violist, and Kurt Reher, cellist, will play the following program: Beethoven's Serenade for string trio, Mozart's Duo in G major for violin and viola and Darius Milhaud's String Trio.

In the ten weeks to follow, distinguished Southern California musicians will play compositions by the great names of musical literature from the time of Bach to the present day, with a strong representation of American works.

The museum concerts are made possible through a grant of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors and through the collaboration of the County Music Commission and Local 47 of the American Federation of Musicians.

Admission to the concerts is free.

Hungarian String Quartet In Concert At Wilshire-Ebell

The Hungarian String Quartet will be heard in a Guild concert in Wilshire-Ebell Theatre, on April 5. It is one of the oldest ensembles now before the public. Its members are still the same as in 1935 when the group was formed by Zoltan Szekely, Denes Koromzay, Alexandre Moskowsky and Vilmos Palotal.

These four men are so perfectly matched, not only artistic approach, but also in their personalities that their playing has the intimacy and spontaneity possibly among men who think and feel alike.

The Hungarians will be joined by the superb English clarinetist Reginald Kell, whom New York critics have ranked with Toscanini and Casals for his extraordinary musicianship and virtuosity.

Art Department Head Cites
Need For Public Facilities

"The city's art program must be geared to the needs of today and those of this particular area," stated Kenneth Ross, acting general manager of the Municipal Art Department, in an address last week to the Board of Directors of the Women's Division of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Pointing out that although Los Angeles is the third largest city in the nation it has proportionately less to offer in the way of public art facilities than many cities from 1 to 10 per cent of its size, Ross emphasized that Los Angeles citizens are losing out by not being able to view and appreciate the work of the many internationally famed artists, architects and designers who reside in this area.

Because of this lack of facilities, he continued, they are having to go elsewhere to receive the acclaim which should above all be rendered to them in their own city.

Ross, recently appointed head of the city's art department, cited ways by which the department hope to give aid to the solution of this problem.

Robt. W. Wells Granted Reprieve

Robert Wesley Wells, condemned to die because he struck a guard who was attacking him with a cuspidor which he picked up as he was falling to the floor under the blows of the guard, has been granted a short reprieve.

Federal Judge Louis Goodman before whom a re-hearing of the case is being held, has asked Wells' attorneys, Charles R. Garry, retained by the Civil Rights Congress, and C. K. Curtright, to submit a memorandum on the question of the power of the court in this matter. The hearing was held March 8. The memorandum is to be submitted within ten days.

The arguments of Wells' attorneys seemed to win the favor of Judge Goodman. Atty. Curtright said, "What condemned Wells to the gas chamber is not what he did, but who he is." Judge Goodman smiled in approval.

Wesley Robert Wells is a Negro.

The difference between the judgment given Wesley Robert Wells, Negro and that pronounced upon Albert Lee Gollihare, white, is startlingly clear.

Gollihare, 20, a San Quentin inmate convicted of stabbing to death a fellow prisoner in a mass hall fight last Christmas day, drew only an additional ten years to life as his sentence for the crime he committed. Superior Judge Edward I. Butler had found Gollihare guilty of first degree murder, but upon the recommendations of prison officials and the District Attorney of Marin county he was given only this comparatively light sentence.

Gollihare was sentenced to San Quentin in the first place for the murder of a rancher in Stanislaus county. Even lawyers not particularly interested in the case point out that "on the face there seems to be a much more severe attitude towards Wells than was disclosed in the Gollihare case."

Mr. Wells, this newspaper has learned, tried to send this story of what happened to a white man to The California Eagle but was prevented from doing so by the authorities at San Quentin prison. They probably didn't want the world to know the difference in treatment—even in a penitentiary.

Construction on a new hangar and new control tower will start soon at San Fernando Valley Airport with total cost of $52,882, it is announced.

Mrs. Berry Appointed Research Director of Perma Starch, Inc.

A talented but hitherto unrecognized Negro woman was appointed last week to an executive position with one of the country's fastest growing industries.

She is Mrs. Christine V. Berry of Chicago whose appointment was announced by Sidney R. Williams, executive secretary of the Chicago Urban League, an associate consumer research director of Perma Starch, Inc., the manufacturers of the world's first permanent synthetic starch.

Perry V. Eakin, president of Perma Starch, paid high tribute to the abilities of the young housewife and declared "we have given this recognition to Mrs. Berry because we know that she can perform important service for us in the research field and in giving us a greater understanding of the potentialities of the great Negro market."

After being graduated from West Virginia State College, where she majored in home economics, Mrs. Wood worked as a laboratory technician at the University of Chicago, assisting in experiments relating to the atom bomb.

Upon termination of the atom project, she was employed as a staff member of Provident Hospital and thereafter did social work for the Cook County Bureau of Public Welfare. Prior to joining Perma Starch, she had directed the chest clinic at Michael Reese Hospital.

Because her work has consisted of lending assistance to sick and needy families Mrs. Berry has a thorough understanding of the problems confronting the average Chicago homemaker. She has a wide circle of friends and acquaintances in Chicago and is affiliated with such groups as Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Woodlawn A.M.E. Church and the Chicago Urban League.

She resides with her husband, Roscoe Berry, at 4603 St. Lawrence Ave. Berry is an agent for the Metropolitan Mutual Assurance Company.

Exile Of African Prince By British May Cause Rebellion

LONDON—British authorities, stirred up a hornet's nest last week when they ordered a five-year exile for Prince Seretse Khama, potential ruler of the Bamangwato tribe because he married a white English girl and took her to his native land to share his throne.

This week it was reported that unrest which threatens to grow into a serious demonstration, is spreading among the Bamangwatos. They are united in their demand that Prince Seretse be allowed to return and rule over them with his wife by his side.

High-placed Britishers, admitting the exile ruling was a mistake, are reportedly trying to have the edict lifted before rebellion breaks out and before the high-handed ruling is carried to the United Nations.

Seretse, whose wife is about to become a mother, has indicated that he will fight the exile ruling and he has threatened to appeal to the United Nations. Frequently criticized by enlightened leaders all over the world for her arrogant treatment of native colonials, Britain is wincing under the biting comments coming from all parts of the world likening her treatment of darker subjects to that shown the Negro citizens of the United States.

Royce Houston Made Eligible For Track Team

Royce Houston, Jordan High School senior, was declared eligible to become a member of the 1949 track team at a meeting of the Policy Determining Committee, held last Monday morning.

Houston, last Friday, had filed a complaint for $10,000 damages, naming the Policy Determining Committee for the Los Angeles High Schools District, Superintendent of Schools, Jordan High School and Richard Nida, principal.

Rayfield Lundy, his attorney, then secured a restraining order, signed by Superior Court Judge Turney Fox at 2:30 Friday afternoon so that Houston could compete in the meet between Jefferson and Jordan. However, contact was made with members of the policy committee and Lundy and Houston decided to wait until the meeting of the board on Monday.

"The decision of the board makes me very happy," Houston said. He has been ineligible for any athletic competition for the past two years on technicalities.

Jordan High School students, who had rallied to Houston's cause, were especially jubilant. Some of them had worked until midnight the night before the track meet helping with the typing and proof reading of the various papers required to be filed.

The complaint for damages will be dismissed with prejudice.

Frank Prince Wins Crown

Frank Prince, Savannah State College's middle distance track star, won the 1,500-meters crown, finished second in the 800 meters and ran a blazing 48.4 leg to pace the Republic of Panama's 1,600 meter relay team to a new meet and Caribbean record of 3:17.2 in the recently completed Central American games held in Guatemala City, Guatemala. The old record was 3:18.4.

Lincoln University (Mo.) track men will compete in seven meets this season.

Sports Chatter From ★ Jefferson High ★

CHICAGO—The team of 1950 College All-Americans scheduled to face the dazzling Harlem Globetrotters in an April coast-to-coast world's series of basketball began taking form with the selection of Kevin O'Shea, Notre Dame's all-time All-American and greatest scorer in Irish history, to the first place on the squad.

Kevin O'Shea Leads College All-Stars In Trotter Series

One of the most artistic performers ever seen in collegiate ranks, the deft O'Shea finished with a four-year total of 1,065 points for a new Notre Dame high. The six-foot one-inch, 24-year-old 185-pounder captained the Irish this season. He is a senior and majoring in marketing in the commerce college at Notre Dame.

The post-season tour between the Globetrotters, currently compiling the greatest record in the history of basketball, and the All-Americans will open on Sunday night, April 2, at Chicago Stadium. Eighteen games in as many nights, many of them sponsored by leading newspapers for charity purposes, will follow. They will play in Los Angeles on April 10.

THE CHAMP BOOSTS THE NAACP: Joe Louis, retired world heavyweight champion, presents $500 check to Franklin H. Williams, assistant special counsel of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Joe's contribution, made in his home in Orlando, Fla., is for the legal defense of three Florida youths whose conviction on a trumped-up rape charge is being appealed by the NAACP.

34 Rounds Of Boxing Offered At Hollywood Legion Friday

Thirty-four rounds of boxing, with a pair of eight round bouts capping the bill, are on tap for Friday night at Hollywood Legion Stadium. The whole affair has been designated as a "Talent Show" by Matchmaker Baron Stumme with an eye towards developing a main bouter for the near future.

In one of the eighters it'll be Joe Danos, a newcomer from Denver, against Bert Mendoza. They'll mix at 165 lbs. The other eight will be between Irish Jimmy Lydon and Sal Flores, middleweights who staged a couple of fast fights previously, each gaining the nod once.

A six round bout between J. J. Cracknell and Chester Slider is also on the menu. Cracknell is that dandy prospect guided by Frank Crowley. Slider is a veteran campaigner who should make things interesting for the sharp punching J. J.

Four rounders carded for Friday night are as follows: Joel Fisher vs. Nicky Smith, 135 lbs., Red Top Fisher vs. Sammy Galvan, 135 lbs., and Tiger Snyder vs. Gil Aguilar, 135 lbs.

Oakland Fans Due Here For Holiday Game

Through arrangements made by Walter Dux, prominent Oakland businessman, with Don Stewart, and the L. A. Chamber of Commerce, the city will be host to over 1000 Oakland baseball fans, when the Oaks play the Angels at Wrigley Field July 4th.

All will be rooting for the team, but the principal attraction for the visitors, will be Art Wilson, great Negro Oak player, now in his second season in Coast League baseball.

Included also in the program of entertainment arranged for by Dix and the committee, are a tour of the motion picture studios, and breakfast at the station. The visitor's seats will have all been purchased in advance.

Ortiz Will Get Another Chance To Please Fans

Chico Rosa hails from Honolulu, though he started his ring career in San Jose, back in 1945, started in a blaze of glory by knocking out Frankie Gallardo, Bert Whit, Henry Zamora and Billie Rhodes, in rapid succession; topped off the list with a ten round decision over Paul (Fancy Pants) Requejo.

Rosa was undefeated for most four years in Honolulu, knocked out Rush Dalma, Manuel Anduha, Freddy Silvano and Marcel Baptiste, decisioned Lorenzo Saffora, Speedy Cabanella, Pedro Ramirez and Henry Davis.

Ortiz will meet Chico and have a chance to reinstate himself in good graces of the fans. Certainly he's entitled to it, he has been boxing since 1937, and the vast majority of his fights have been highly entertaining.

Labor Situation in Nigeria Reaches H-Bomb Temperature

This article might seem queer being published in America, but nevertheless I think it fits for those of us who love Nigeria, to once in a while look at some of the present situations.

We all love peace, and security, but how can we maintain peace when some nations still have that instinct of racial prejudice, segregation and the imagined superiority complex? Is it in hatred? All due to the result of difference in color? The world is now filled with blood-thirsty men, their main objective is to do away with anything colored if they have the opportunity.

Besides the recent disaster in Enugu, Nigeria, there was another shooting in French West Africa of a hundred thousand men, merely because the natives were tired of being bossed, and asked for their freedom. But the poor natives were shot because they expressed such an opinion.

The churches nowadays, are doing some men more harm than good. We have gone against everything that we had professed previously. I think most of us are just mere hypocrites; and we should please stop deceiving ourselves.

The recent shooting in Nigeria was caused because men all over the world, want a better standard of living. If Nigeria were freed today, she could have paid her workers a sensible amount of wage in order to avoid slaughter. Britain knows the sum she takes out of Nigeria yearly to maintain her public schools and all, while Nigerian workers and youths suffer in return. Is this the world's forth-coming Democracy? If it is, well we shall keep our hands off.

Any fool knows that this kind of shooting was a planned plot, but it was denied by Britain. I don't think Britain has enough common sense to realize that people always investigate facts behind acts. We the Nigerians have been deceived a lot of times. We do not need any more. All that we now demand is true justice. The British Government must do something or ELSE. Britain seems to exploit every nation that comes her way—Let me remind her, lest she forget, that national dignity and friendship are very essential among nations, especially in the time of need.

ELAJC New Class Rm. & Ad. Bldg.

Plans for the new $1,300,000 East Los Angeles Junior College administration and classroom building are now in the final stages of development, it was announced last week by Dr. Roscoe C. Ingalls, director.

Construction of this most expensive single unit in the college's $8,700,000 building program, will probably start by next fall.

This building will have almost as many classrooms, when completed, as the entire present college facilities. It will house the college administrative offices, health center, English and foreign language departments, social sciences, and business divisions.

Features will include the offices and conference rooms for the associated students' executive council, and offices, lecture rooms and counseling facilities for each department.

Registration will begin March 20 for the Spring accelerated session at the College, announced Dr. John Howard, dean of the evening division and branches.

Fifteen classes in the English, mathematics, music, physical education, social science and speech departments will be open to the public and students during evening hours, Mondays through Thursdays.

The accelerated classes will be of ten weeks duration, beginning April 10 and ending June 16. Dr. Howard expresses the desire to offer classes to meet the needs of people in the Los Angeles County area.

Five classes in the mathematics department are open to those people who can qualify on a refresher basis. The mathematics classes are: elementary and intermediate algebra, plane analytical geometry, and plane trigonometry. These classes are open primarily to help people who are now working and students who desire to do make up work.

The Southern Association of Dramatic and Speech Arts will meet at Kentucky State College the latter part of April. Sixteen Colleges have already indicated they will send representatives and dramatic groups to the convention.

The NAACP Youth Council is planning a dance preceding the conference. The next meeting of the Council will be held at Second Baptist Church, Saturday at 2 p.m. All youth invited.

Jeff Hi at Student Conf.

Representatives of Jefferson High School helped considerably last week to make a success of the Third Annual Student Conference on Group Relations for the Los Angeles City Schools. Working within the theme: Los Angeles Plans for All Her People, over 100 students tackled problems in the areas of health, housing, employment, transportation, recreation, culture and education, and human relations. The Jefferson representatives were in charge of the section meeting which discussed employment problems.

Dr. Alexander Stoddard led off the proceedings with a keynote address to the assembled delegates at Benjamin Franklin High School in which he discussed the importance of everyone assuming his civic responsibility.

In the employment section, Jefferson High student body prexy, Don Hamilton, ably led a spirited discussion of the problems in the area of employment. His co-representatives, Nancy Bryant, Akemi Mikawa and Ernesto Rodriguez acted as summarizers and recorders respectively.

Several salient points were brought out:

There is obvious discrimination.

The California Eagle, Thursday, March 16, 1950—21

tion in present employment practices.

There is an influx of more than 15,000 people to Southern California each month, and Competition is stiffer for jobs because of the greater number of skilled and semi-skilled jobs.

The discussion section advised: An FEPC for Los Angeles, and Added support to such organizations as the Urban League.

Radio commentator, Mrs. Georgia Sibley Hardy climaxed the day's activities. "Until people care for other people, not of their background, Los Angeles will not be able to effectively overcome her obstacles," she said.

A special showing of the heralded film, "The Quiet One," was shown to the delegates.

Twenty-three Seventh Day Adventist Negro congregations in the Pacific Union Conference last year gave $271,616 in offerings, it was reported today by Owen A. Troy, departmental secretary. Of this amount $69,547 was given for foreign missions.

The church leader compared this with $666 contributed by 26 members of the first colored church in the conference which was organized in Los Angeles in 1908.

Believing that all Christian groups should view 1950 as a Holy Year, Adventists are stepping up their program of evangelism with emphasis on personal evangelism by lay members, Troy stated. "The gospel of Jesus Christ is the only way out in this frightening atomic age," the Adventist official stated.

Convention business in Los Angeles during the current year is well on the way to breaking previous attendance records and placing a record volume of additional business in local retail and trade service channels.

There will be 38,400 first birthday celebrations for Los Angeles babies in 1950, but 4,000 of those snuffing out that single candle this year would not now be alive if health conditions of 1900 were still prevailing.

Tindley Temple Fourth Largest

The Tindley Temple Methodist Church, Philadelphia, and Saint Marks Methodist Church, Chicago, are among the 12 largest churches of the denomination, according to an announcement by the Rev. Albert C. Hoover, director of the church's Statistical Office. The figures are from the forthcoming General Minutes, a compiled publication of official 1949 statistics from the annual conferences of Methodism.

Tindley Temple, of which the Rev. Noah Watson Moore, Jr., is pastor, has a membership of 5862 and is surpassed only by First Church, Houston, Tex. (7901), the Metropolitan Church, Detroit (6800), and the Highland Park Church, Dallas, Tex. (5893).

Saint Marks Church, Chicago, ranks eleventh, with 4468 members. The Rev. Dr. Matthew Walker Clair, Jr., is the minister.

With the completion date set for the middle of May, ground was broken this week for the unique Bermuda modern home which is to be a prime attraction of the 1950 Los Angeles National Home Show at the Pan-Pacific June 10-18.

129 E. Chicago Avenue

Dear Sirs:

I am sure that you are very busy, but I do hope that you will take time to read this letter. I want you to know just how wonderful I think Perma-Strate is.

In March I first straightened my hair with Perma-Strate. It turned out straight, soft, and so in July I again straightened my hair with Perma-Strate, and also straightened my hair with two sisters, my husband, and my brother-in-law, so you see my whole family is really sold on Perma-Strate. Then I began to tell my friends about it and all of them who have used it are just as thrilled with it as we are. Your product is all that you advertise it to be and more. It certainly keeps hair straight, soft and easy to manage, equally well for men, women, and children.

Again I say that Perma-Strate is wonderful.

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs.) Dorothy Anderson Maxey

Jobs are born

Money spreads and people prosper

Three things happen when earnings go to work

There has been a growing need in the West for wax... the kind used on milk cartons, bread wrappers and containers of other foods and drugs you buy.

To fill this need, Standard of California recently completed a plant which refines excellent wax from petroleum. The plant cost $3,500,000; the money came out of earnings—or profits—and here's what it meant to you:

Better protected and packaged products, of course. More jobs for construction workers in building the plant; steady employment for the men who work in it today. More sales for small businesses because the money paid to the workers involved has naturally spread to the grocer, the department store, the doctor and every other business and profession.

This is one example—a 3½ million dollar example—of how earnings are put to work and keep our economy running. There are many others, for Standard of California has spent more than $500,000,000 just since the war for plants and facilities to serve you better.

WATTS FRIENDLY CORNER

There is a great need in the Willowbrook area for an Emergency Hospital. Accidents have no chosen place or time for occurring, they just happen and in cases where an injury is of a serious nature immediate medical aid is very necessary, but in the Willowbrook community the nearest hospitalization for emergency treatment is a number of miles away. A life could perhaps be saved if immediate treatment were near.

Friday night is the deadline for mailing news items. Mail to your Watts Editor.

Better Lights, Streets, Schools Needed In Watts, Says NAACP

Insufficient street lights, bad streets and inadequate schools in South Los Angeles were claimed by three speakers at the March meeting of the Local NAACP held in Watts, Sunday afternoon, as major problems in that area. The South Los Angeles people were also lauded for the dogged and intelligent fight they are making for adequate democratic schools for their children. The speakers were: Clinton M. Arnold of the Star Review, Wesley R. Brazier of the Los Angeles Urban League and James Anderson of the A.F.L. Central Labor Council. The panel of speakers followed the presentation of the pending campaign for 20,000 NAACP members by Mrs. Gertrude Hicks, general chairman, who was preceded by Dr. E. I. Robinson, president and campaign co-chairman, who outlined the NAACP program for the year. Also among those who spoke were Judge Ralph Dills, Compton Court Justice, who pointed out the need for such an organization as the NAACP.

Ferrell, pastor of Tabernacle of Faith, 113th and Central, the host church, upon being presented declared that he will continue to fight for better streets in Watts and will be glad to have the aid of the NAACP in so doing. He said that he will support the pending NAACP membership campaign in an all-out fashion. In the audience, participation by the membership resulted in a vote to investigate and take action in the public school situation in South Los Angeles.

Jordan High NOTES

Seventy students, all members of the Senior A Cappella Choir, journeyed via bus to South Gate yesterday to participate in the Reciprocity Day program put on by the South Gate Women's Club at its new clubhouse.

This occasion marked the first appearance of the Choir at an outside affair this term.

Ralph Holtz acted as master of ceremonies, with Ray Hawthorne, bass, and Johnny Brown, tenor, taking solos. Carrie Williams was the accompanist.

Among selections sung were Hall Jackson's arrangement of City Called Heaven, Noble Cain's Spirit of the Lord and two of Dawson's arrangements: Ezekiel and Balm in Gilead. Bizet's March of the Tereaders from opera Carmen was included as an encore.

According to Miss Medz, director, such an ambitious program could not have been presented so early in the semester if it had not been for the unusual amount of outstanding singers now in the Choir.

Here is the inside dope on the G.A.A. An official invitation was received from Banning inviting the Jordan G.A.A. to their coming playday to be held on Tuesday, March 22. The theme for their playday is "South Sea Islands."

Our girls have been practicing very hard for this great event. The volleyballs are getting a good beating from the girls first and the baseballs are being lost in the bushes at the other end of the field.

Playdays are to have fun so whether the girls win or lose they are planning to have a very good time.

Jordan's great gym squad is rapidly improving in every meet. When they met Gardena here, the final score was 45½ to 74½ in favor of Gardena. Here are the point-getters of our improved squad:

Clifford Richard, the "Mighty Midget," is high point man with 9 points from the first in the longhorse and second in tumbling.

Merle Jones with 8 points is second. Arthur Bowman is third with 7 points, and last but not least is Albert Burnett with 5 points, taking a first in the rope.

Others who score points for Jordan are Johnny Hernandez, Ernie.

Jordan's public speaking class, under the guidance of Mrs. Banks, is one of the most important classes around the school at the present. The students are often called upon to assist the school in various projects.

Each organization drive, such as the Red Cross Pelio, and Red Feather activities, needs the help of the public speaking class.

The class also represents Jordan in competitive ferensics with other schools, thereby stimulating the speech arts and affording splendid educational experi-

Urban League Job Clinic Held In Willowbrook Section

A "Job Clinic," presenting the basic factors in preparing for and securing a job, was held at the Willowbrook Grammar School, 124th Street and Wilmington avenue, Wednesday, March 15, 1950, at 7:30 p.m. The clinic highlighted the Vocational Opportunity Campaign, sponsored annually by the Los Angeles Urban League, according to Mrs. Hazel E. Josey, Vocational Counselor in charge of the program. VOC Week is sponsored by the National Urban League and is observed throughout the country, March 12 through 19.

Six experts in the field of vocational guidance spoke on topics pertinent to the subject prior to an open discussion from the floor. The speakers and their subjects were: Mrs. Honore Carey Levy, Vocational Counselor, Jefferson High School, "Vocational Guidance for Youth"; Mrs. Margaret Oros, Social Worker, Bureau of Public Assistance, "Parents Responsibilities for Youth's Career"; Mrs. Cora Hilton, Senior Psychiatric Social Worker, State Department of Mental Hygiene, "How Personality Affects Your Job"; Hugh B. LOVE
If the love problem could be disposed of, once and for all, like tonsils or measles, the lives of thousands of men and women would be easier. It is tragic to realize how many people spend the best years of their lives fretting, longing, imagining, crying, pleading over this thing called love, and how little they get in return.

Even wealth, travel, expensive clothing, popularity, and fame become shadows because some ordinary man, or woman happens to be somewhere in the picture.

So many are suffering because they won't do anything about this problem. It is so unnecessary, when Prof. Herman is willing to give you advice and help you find the love and happiness that is rightfully yours. Why not consult him today?

T.F. Dear Prof. Herman: I have found your advice to others very helpful and would like you to help me. I plan to be married within the next few weeks. Will my marriage be successful?

ANSWER: It is revealed to me that you are entering the field of matrimony with definite plans for a happy and successful marriage. I am of the opinion that if you and your husband work together you will find happiness and accomplish a great deal.

A.D. Who founded the anti-slavery paper, the "LIBERATOR"?

ANSWER: In 1831 William Lloyd Garrison gave impetus to the anti-slavery movement by beginning publication of the "LIBERATOR."

M.D. Should I leave now? Was he sincere? Please tell me what the outcome will be.

ANSWER: Due to the limited amount of space in this column, I can only answer one question. If you will send your complete name, address and birthdate along with 25 cents to me in care of this paper, I will be happy to send you a private reply.

B.T. Will I be successful with my plan?

ANSWER: It is revealed to me that you are a very conscientious worker and should do well in the field of endeavor you are attempting within the next two

Priceless Art Works On View In County Museum Exhibit

Priceless works of art in a variety of types and styles ranging from a large 16th century Italian fresco of the Crucifixion to a collection of ancient Greek vases, recently acquired by the Los Angeles County Museum, are on temporary exhibit in a special gallery, according to James H. Breasted Jr., director.

The New Acquisitions Gallery in which these works of art are to be seen is also displaying the following recent accessions:

A series of Gothic period French limestone reliefs on various religious themes, a collection of Italian and Spanish Majolica plates, a Hellenistic medallion of gold dating back to the 3rd century B.C., three paintings from Italy and Spain of the 14th and 15th centuries, a sepulchral effigy of a recumbent knight in armor produced in Spain in the 16th century.

Dental plate neglect may be costly to you in health and appearance—
ASK YOURSELF THESE 6 QUESTIONS

1. Am I nervous and irritable?
If your dental plates are loose—if they gouge your gums, making them SORE—chances are your gums have shrunk. Possibly your MOUTH HAS CHANGED, but your dental plates have not changed. No wonder you become nervous and irritable.
2. Am I suffering from malnutrition?
If you feel TIRED and RUN DOWN—if you seem old beyond your years—possibly you are not getting full value out of the food you eat. If you HATE TO CHEW, because you need new dental plates, it's likely ONLY A PORTION of your food is assimilated into your system.
3. Is my hearing being damaged?
If your bite is not correct due to mouth changes, you may be INJURING your hearing ability. This has been considered a CAUSE for loss of hearing for years. A national magazine recently quoted a leading doctor as follows, "... of the 10,000,000 deaf or hard-of-hearing Americans, bad bite is at least partly to blame in 40 per cent of the cases."
4. Are there new lines in my face?
If your face seems to have AGED due to sunken mouth and cheeks, shrunk gums may be the cause. Sometimes loose dental plates PUSH BACK in the mouth, adding UNSIGHTLY LINES to your face.
5. Do I have a strained appearance?
If the tendons of your neck stand out, and your bite is closed, you may have a DISTORTED FACIAL EXPRESSION. Loose dental plates—out of adjustment—often bring about a strained appearance.
6. Are my dental plates becoming to me?
If you feel SELF CONSCIOUS about how your dental plates look, are they old fashioned or stained? Appearance can be a severe handicap.

New dental plates may be a great help to you—at least it should pay you to see a dentist. If your health and appearance can be improved, think how much more pleasant life may be.

Metropolitan Observes St. Joseph's Feast

Metropolitan Church of Christ, 1003 East Jefferson, is inviting the public to join them in the services rendered all day March 20, in honor of Saint Joseph, spouse of the most blessed Virgin Mary. Some of the city's finest talent will participate on the night program which is sponsored by Mrs. Loretta C. Sartalamacchio. All of her friends are asked to come and support her in this, her first effort.

Eloise Alexander are co-pastors.

Gems of Thought

INDIVIDUAL THOUGHT
The happiness of your life depends upon the quality of your thoughts.

—Marcus Aurelius

Silence and reserve suggests latent power. What some men think has more effect than what others say.

—Chesterfield

Quiet minds can not be perplexed or frightened, but go on in fortune or misfortune at their own private pace, like a clock during a thunderstorm.

—Stevenson

The man who has begun to live more seriously within, begins to live more simply without.

—Phillips Brooks

A vivid thought brings the power to paint it; and in proportion to the depth of its source is the force of its projection.

—Emerson

Hold thought steadfastly to the enduring, the good, and the true, and you will bring these into your experience proportionably to their occupancy of your thoughts.

Annual Father and Son Night Big Hit at Bowen Methodist

"What Is the Matter with Father?" sang the fathers and the sons sang in reply "They're All Right." It was the first annual father and son night at Bowen Memorial Methodist Church and fifty fathers and sons representing both the church and its Boy Scout Troop were present.

Fathers and sons played checkers, ping pong, Chinese checkers and dominoes together prior to the supper at which they toasted and pledged allegiance to each other, then a unique and thought-provoking chalk talk on "A Father and His Son," by Rev. John C. Bain, pastor, which brought the occasion to a fitting climax. Following the dinner, fathers and sons enjoyed a moving picture of the 1949 world series in which Jackie Robinson and Don Newcomb were heroes. This feature was provided by Jones Brothers Sporting Goods Store and the 28th Street YMCA.

The committee in charge included Wilmer Colescott, chairman, Albert Cleaves, Alonzo Grubbs and Leon W. Steward. It was a project of the Men of Bowen of which Toussant Jennings is president.

In Memoriam

Rev. S. A. Williams

I remember the day we met
Though years have passed, I hear you yet
I remember so much you said,
And how you taught, to never dread
I remember how hard you worked
And how you hated to see one shirk
I remember how hard you preached
And the thousands of souls that you reached
I remember how plainly you taught
That righteousness, salvation, could not be bought
I remember how well you served,
All nations, whether they deserved
I remember what you bought,
And many many things you wrought
I remember how much you yearned,
That all God's children should be learned
I remember how hard you wept,
To build an edifice before you left
But you did build, 'twas in our hearts
Truth, through the ages, will not depart.
In Memory of My Beloved Husband
I DO REMEMBER—By Lu Vohie Williams

Baha'i World Faith

"Science Proves Religion" is the subject on which Mrs. Shirley Warde will address the public meeting of the Baha'i World Faith to be held at their Los Angeles headquarters, 331 South New Hampshire, on Sunday afternoon, March 19, at 3:30 o'clock. Quoting from Baha'i writings, Mrs. Warde says: "Religion must be in accord with science and reason. Science, which is knowledge of the universe, cannot be opposed to religion, which is the art of living, and it is here that religion plays its part, for upon the spiritual condition of mankind depends the uses to which scientific power is put, whether to the enrichment or the destruction of human life."

Dr. Jemison Endorses Campaign For Negro Business Program

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Dr. D. V. Jemison, president of the National Baptist Convention, USA, and ardent friend of the late Booker T. Washington, has given enthusiastic endorsement to the $50,000 fund campaign currently being conducted by the National Negro Business League for the purpose of establishing a permanent headquarters with a full-time executive director.

It was Washington who in 1900, fifty years ago, founded the National Negro Business League and during its infant stage turned to men like Dr. Jemison to help him to develop it into an influential medium through which to raise the economic standard of his people.

"I believe that the development of business enterprise is essential to the economic rise of the Negro (or any people)," declared the prominent Baptist leader whose home at Selma, Alabama, is virtually a neighboring community of Tuskegee Institute where Washington set the pattern for Negro life in almost every field of human endeavor.

The National Negro Business League has announced that April 23 through 30 will be observed this year as "National Negro Business Week," and during this period special emphasis will be placed on the importance of Negroes entering the field of business and industry, and giving stronger support to those who already operating such enterprises. April was selected in commemoration of the birthday month of Booker T. Washington.

Hold Statewide Mobilization On Jobs And Relief Monday

SAN FRANCISCO — In every part of the State of California, farm workers, housewives, trade unionists, unemployed workers, and pension groups are winding up their collection of the 100,000 signatures on the Jobs-Relief-Pensions petitions and are now preparing for the statewide mobilization in Sacramento, Monday, March 20th, to present the petitions to the Governor and the Legislature, with a demand for action.

The Jobs-Pensions-Relief petitions, now in circulation for some eight weeks, were initiated by a broad sponsoring group of more than 40 leading citizens, active in various statewide organizations, including the AFL, CIO, Independent Progressive Party, NAACP chapters, pension groups, churches, and fraternal groups.

The Sacramento Mobilization will have its headquarters at the Oddfellows Hall, 9th and K Streets, Sacramento, Sunday and Monday. The high point of the Monday mobilization will be a noon day rally on the Capitol lawn, to hear reports by mobilization leaders on the results of the meeting with the Governor, Hollywood writers who refused to divulge their political opinions and beliefs. The ten were cited for contempt of Congress and sentenced to jail. Their sentences are awaiting appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

One producer, who admitted he had not spoken out in defense of the Hollywood Ten said in commenting on the proposal: "First the mind, and now the body. Next time they'll try to shackle our souls. It's clear now that they want to get control of the industry so they can use it for their purposes in the cold war."

22 Eastsiders Recruited In Drive for Red Cross Action

Answering the call for additional workers, 22 Eastside residents joined the Red Cross ranks this week in various capacities, according to Evangeline E. Woodfolk, volunteer chairman here.

entirely by the federal government.

Blanchard told the supervisors that county residents pay federal taxes some of which are used for public housing, and he urged that the supervisors make it possible for the mto receive some of the benefit by accepting funds for a local project, but the big three stood firmly against it.

The action of the supervisors in rejecting the proposal ends the possibility for low-cost public housing for the county since the deadline for signing contracts with the Federal Public Housing Administration was Wednesday.

Supervisor Roach intimated that he and his supporters favored slum clearance and low cost housing, but they wanted it brought about by private enterprise. Blanchard explained that private enterprise public housing would mean the expenditure of county funds.

Axe Slaying

Hundreds of members of the Negro community in and around Ballisville, jam-packed the Powhattan Court House for the two-day trial, the observers reported. Many stood in the court room from early morning until late evening. A large number did not leave their standing spots for lunch on either day, so that "they could demonstrate their demand that Taylor's lynchers be punished to the full extent of the law," the observers reported.

Although there was a preponderance of evidence that the lynch mob leader, Frank Clayton, premeditatedly and in cold blood, murdered Samuel Taylor, the jury did not return a verdict of murder in the first degree as requested by Commonwealth Atty. W. R. Blanford.

One of the reasons for this failure, CRC's observers stated was the constant Negro-baiting by Defense Attorney Flannagan who tried to discredit the character of the prosecution's chief witnesses, Bernard Hague and Mrs. Annie Morris, both white. They were visiting Allen Liggon, Taylor's Negro neighbor, on the day of the lynching. On occasion after occasion the attorney said that "no self-respecting" white people would visit Negro homes.

Flannagan also attempted to intimidate the two Negro jurors by declaring that he had a right to strike them off the jury, but that he knew they were going to "do the right thing."

Other members of the lynch gang, though known, are still free.

Taylor was found in a pool of blood on New Year's morning by his own father, Spencer Taylor, who is 78 years old. His right ear was cut, his throat was slashed with deep cuts, and a deep, long gash, made with an axe, was found in his back.

Other colonels who have recruited more majors are: Mrs. Victoria Spears, who added to her roster Mrs. Isabelle Smith, 1011 E. 46th st.; Mrs. Modesta Fitzgerald, 725 E. 47th st.; Mrs. Charles Grose, 4964 Wadsworth.

Mrs. Dewey Hayden has enlisted Mrs. Hazel Anderson, 1233 E. 41st st., as a captain; Mrs. Vanilla Strickland will be aided by Mrs. Helen Pulliam, 646 E. 38th st., in the position of major; and Volunteer Chairman Woodfolk will be assisted by Mrs. Lorraine Apodaca, 435 E. 32nd st., and Mrs. Nina Brinson, 928 E. Adams, both majors, and Mrs. Ruby Morris, 627 E. Adams Budget hearings will open on April 3, according to Mayor Bowron, and the budget will be adopted on June 30. The fiscal year begins on July 1.

Protest

Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, who headed the committee. "Most people have the idea that a show of this kind was relegated long since to the archives of the past. Coming just after Negro History Week and Brotherhood Week, we admit it is somewhat of a shock to us."

The Bell Gardens Ministerial Association also protested, although their protest was coupled with the fact the show was given on the Sabbath day.

The show went on nevertheless in spite of all protests. A few of the Eagles said it was attended by "an enthusiastic audience." He didn't say large, however, and others who were there said the thing fell flat. There were only a comparatively few who came, and the enthusiasm was forced.

Mrs. Michael Mosquini is president of the Board of Trustees in her absence John C. Whinnery, supt. of the school, presided at the meeting.

Labor Government Almost Fell Over Prince Seretse Issue

LONDON — The high-handed banishment of African Prince Seretse Khama from his native Bechuanaland where he was the ruler of the Bamangwato Tribe came within a hairbreadth of causing the fall of the Labor government last week.

Relenting under ceaseless questioning from the opposition, the Labor government agreed to permit Seretse to return to his native land in time for the birth of his heir. Further persistence from the opposition brought forth the promise that the Prince would be permitted to visit his native land when "his personal affairs make it necessary."

In order to forestall a vote which would have resulted in a resounding defeat for his Majesty's government, Patrick Gordon-Walker, secretary for commonwealth relations, said that a white paper setting forth the reasons for the five-year exile imposed on Prince Khama, would be forthcoming in the near future.

Seretse Khama was forbidden by Gordon-Walker, acting in his official capacity, to return to his homeland for five years because he married a white English girl and took her with him to Bechuanaland to reign as his queen. The natives and most of the tribal chiefs accepted Khama's bride, and reports indicate bitter dissatisfaction among the various tribes over the ruling which makes Khama an exile while his bride is virtually a prisoner.

Paul Robeson, chairman of the Council on African Affairs, this week criticized the British government for its unwarranted and unprecedented act in banishing a ruling prince from the land of his people because he married a white girl. From all points of the world protests have been directed to the British demanding that the exile be lifted.

Prince Seretse has frequently insisted that the white paper referred to by Gordon-Walker be released. He has said that it will prove his contention that racial chauvinism is the only basis for his five-year banishment.

Federal Rent Control Hit By Fund Cut

WASHINGTON — The Federal Housing Expediter got $4,000,000 in a deficiency appropriations bill which the Senate sent to the White House earlier this week. The amount marks a serious cut in the amount asked to continue the federal rent control program.

The sum granted will carry the program until June 30 when the rent control law expires. The Senate has shown little interest in continuing controls beyond the expiration date, and unless there is an overwhelming expression from the people, it is likely that federal controls will end completely on June 30.

RESIDENTS OF LOS ANGELES are fortunate in having an office that practices New Yorker Technique—a haven for those who suffer—where the cause of Toxic Poison may be removed—where relief of constipation—an elimination, may be obtained in 20 minutes.

NOTE: Toxic poisons cause practically all ills of mankind. When toxic poisons or that which causes disease is removed the result is so effective in producing quick results that the change experienced by the sufferer is hardly less marked than that felt by the prisoner when the ball and chain have been removed from his ankles. It has to be experienced to be properly understood and appreciated.

New Yorker Technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine. In simple language—it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that made.

the contents may be passed by normal effort.

Dr. Brinkley D.C., has the only office that is permitted to practice New Yorker Technique. He has no branch offices.

DR. BRINKLEY HAS A STAFF OF MORE THAN 120 PEOPLE. 18 LICENSED DOCTORS AND MORE THAN 60 SPECIALLY TRAINED NURSES AND TECHNICIANS. He has his own private laboratory and complete laboratory facilities, the finest equipment—30 private treatment rooms. IT IS THE LARGEST INSTITUTION OF ITS KIND IN THE ENTIRE WORLD—NO EXCEPTIONS.

This notable organization is outstanding—without equal—and must be seen to be appreciated.

Dr. Brinkley says: To protect the sick against the wrong diagnosis, it is my belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made. In all cases tests should include complete blood count, urinalysis, microscopic examination and study of stool. If diabetes is suspected a fasting blood sugar test should be given; for liver disorders—various liver functional test given; for infectious diseases—sedimentation rate given; plus other laboratory procedures.

ALL OF MY PATIENTS, UNDER TREATMENT, GET LABORATORY TESTS AT NO EXTRA CHARGE. I will enjoy explaining New Yorker Technique to you without obligation, 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. For my trial treatment I charge $3, which includes various laboratory tests.

Call or write for FREE 120 page book. This book is outstanding. It is a most comprehensive explanation of the true cause of disease. Book will be sent by mail—no salesman—no phone calls—no obligation. No follow-up letters.

Mississippi Killer Gets Life For Slaying 3 Negro Children

KOSCIUSKO, Miss. — Found guilty in the brutal slaying of three Negro children as they slept, last January 8, Windol Witt, white, a 25-year-old bricklayer, was sentenced to life imprisonment last week.

An all-white jury composed of farmers and workers heard the case, which was presided over by

Circuit Court Judge J. P. Coleman.

Leon Turner, an ex-convict, and Malcolm Witt, 27-year-old brother of the convicted slayer, are awaiting trial on the same charge. Both are white.

The children, Frankie Thurman, 12, Mary Brunside, 8, and Ruby Nell Harris, 4, were slain in the home of their father and step-father, Thomas Harris, a tenant farmer.

The conviction of Witt marks one of the few times a southern white jury has found a white defendant guilty of a homicide charge involving a Negro. The life sentence pronounced by Judge Coleman was mandatory because the jury failed to agree on the punishment.

Heflin Estate Administration Sought By Wife

A petition for letters of administration for the estate of the late Bill Heflin, has been filed by Attorney Leonard Richardson for Gertrude Heflin, white, of 232 N. Avenue 53. Mrs. Heflin, who is 47, says she has been the wife of the deceased for eleven years.

The matter will be heard on March 31. Members of Heflin's family claim they had no knowledge of his wife. Mrs. Jennie Heflin, 80 year old mother of Heflin, who died less than a month ago, is also named as an heir in the petition.

The estate consists of a 1947 Chrysler and a diamond ring. If there are other items they were not listed.

The SIDEWALK

By C.A.B.

There is extreme danger inherent in the proposal of one Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (R) to require the Federal government Bureau of Investigation to investigate and pass judgment on a high government official such as Dean Acheson.

The citizens of this nation should rise up in arms and protest the leadership of such irresponsible representatives as McCarthy.

Is it not true that we have J. Edgar Hoover and the F.B.I. for such purposes of investigation as this being carried on by Senator McCarthy at the expense of an already tax burdened citizenry?

One of the strongest objections to this McCarthy holy war on Communist infiltration into the Federal government with Dean Acheson the target, is bound up with an effort by one big political party to devalue another party, at present in power, and take over government control in the coming election.

Already these parties or their representatives control the wealth of the world—one, the major portion, the other of course, the minor.

But while this battle for con-

Jack Tenney Insults Caravan Delegates Who Sought Jobs

The inspired and determined job caravan which rolled into Sacramento last week-end and climaxed its historic march with a mass meeting on the steps of the capitol, put in motion a grass roots drive for jobs, pensions and relief.

Composed of a cross-section of people of all races, the Caravan, organized and led by the Independent Progressive Party, presented petitions containing 125,000 signatures and demanding state action of jobs, pension and relief to Governor Warren.

The Governor, after considerable evasiveness, met with a delegation of 13 chosen from the Caravan by rank and file choice. He listened for almost an hour after accepting the petitions.

Senator Jack Tenney, met representatives of the Caravan in a hallway of the Capitol. Informed that he would be asked about jobs, pensions and relief, Tenney immediately demanded to know if the delegates were Communists or "real progressives."

Booed roundly by a chorus of delegates, Tenney grew angry and shouted: "You are all Communists, or led by Communists."

A delegate stepped from the ranks and moved toward Tenney. "I'm hungry," he said angrily, "I have no job, and you talk to me about Communism."

Delegates left the Tenney interview angrily promising to do everything in their power to insure his defeat in November. A former chairman of the State Un-American Activities Committee, Tenney resigned under pressure. He gained wide attention by his wild charges of Communism.

Rent Controls Voted Off Hotels By City Council Majority

Rent controls will go off hotels on March 31. This action was voted Tuesday by the City Council which issued a warning that controls would be restored if abnormal increases resulted.

A hot potato on the agenda of the council for some time, the matter was considered in Tuesday's session as a proposal to extend controls for another year. Voting for extension were: Councilmen Kenneth Hahn, Edward Roybal, Ernest E. DeBba, George H. Moore, Harold Harby and G. Vernon Bennett.

Councilman Roybal warned hotel proprietors not to increase rents 50 to 150 per cent as was the case when federal controls were lifted. Should this abuse occur, Roybal said, he would immediately move for restoration of controls.

The city has exercised rent controls over hotels for about three years. They were voted in following the lifting of federal ceilings. The city law allowed

Greeting Card From Dr. Henderson, Rome

A greeting card postmarked Rome reached the EAGLE office this week, from Dr. J. Raymond Henderson, popular pastor of the greater Second Baptist Church of Los Angeles.

The card stated that Dr. Henderson was sailing along above the clouds between Paris and Rome.

If even part of what we read and hear daily is true, when the Second Baptist pastor returns to his pulpit he will have a thrilling story to tell.

Mrs. Robeson Charms Audience; Pleads for Friendship With China

A magic carpet skillfully manipulated by the musical, cultured voice of Mrs. Eslanda Goode Robeson, world renowned traveler, writer, lecturer, and anthropologist, carried the hundreds that jammed Embassy auditorium last Tuesday evening to London, Moscow, up through Siberia, and finally to Peking, China, where a world peace conference was held under the auspices of the women of Asia.

Mrs. Robeson, wife of the great Paul Robeson, seemed to enter into the recital of her trip with as much pleasure as her audience. She took every one into her confidence from the very beginning, and like a charming neighbor chatting in your own living room, she told of what she had learned on her trip.

To get news first-hand was exactly why she went on her trip, she said. "For," she remarked whimsically, "you can't al-

Hawkins Offers Jobs Program In Legislature

Bills to provide a comprehensive state jobs program were offered the State Legislature in Sacramento last week by Assemblyman Augustus Hawkins and others. As a basis for his proposals, Hawkins cited facts to show that there are more than 500,000 unemployed in California, 118,000 on county relief, and expenditures by the counties are now in excess of $500,000 more per month than just a year ago.

"I have seen," he declared, "with my own eyes half-starved children, unemployed men and women and thousands of underpaid workers in our state. No one need tell me that there is no unemployment problem in California."

Hawkins outlined a three point program which he and others are presenting to the Legislature now meeting in special session in Sacramento.

First in the program is immediate activation of the Relief Act passed in 1945 but unused to date. Under this law, the state

Mass Trial Of 50 Mexicans Dismissed; New Trial Friday

In what has been termed "revengeful and vindictive retaliation for humiliation suffered when charges against 50 Mexican-Americans were dismissed last week, the Sheriff's office has filed charges against nine of the fifty to be heard on Friday, March 31 in the courtroom at 201 N. Gage Avenue.

Scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. the trial is an episode in a case that started on February 4 when deputy sheriff's decended on a baby shower being held in a private home, and with flailing clubs, broke down the door and herded men, women and children to the county jail.

Protest from the Mexican-American National Association, and from leading Negro organizations focused public attention on the case, and at the hearing last Friday all charges filed by the Sheriff were dismissed.

A Spokesman for the Mexican-American National Association, charging that the nine are being used to cover up the illegal acts of the Sheriff's deputies in breaking into a private home and assaulting men, women and children without cause, told reporters: "We cannot understand how charges against all fifty can be dismissed and yet nine innocent guests are jeopardized by the filing of new charges. We will defend them with every means at our command, and we call upon our friends and allies to assist us."

A dance for the defense fund of the victims will be held Friday night at Angelus Hall, 1954 East First Street.

Judge Clarke Declares California Alien Land Law Unconstitutional

Superior Judge Thurmond Clarke, who held that court enforcement of race restrictive covenants violated the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment more than two years before the United States Supreme Court arrived at the same result, held last week that California's Alien Land Law is unconstitutional because it too violates the same provision of the constitution.

The law, in effect forbade ownership of land by Japanese immigrants through prohibiting land ownership by "aliens ineligible to citizenship." Federal laws deny Japanese not born in this country the right to attain citizenship. The California statute has been on the books in varying forms since 1913.

One of the cases relied upon by Judge Clarke was the Supreme Court decision in the race restriction case, in a strange trol goes on and on, from its effect, who are the sufferers?

I answer, the people. The people that make up this nation. Not McCarthy, Parnell Thomas, nor Jack B. Tenney, head of California witch hunters.

So often do we, the citizens of this country and nation, point out that our government should clean the beam out of its own eyes before attacking the mote in its neighbor's eyes.

Ten per cent of the nation's population are second class citizens, with no rights nor privileges the advocates of States Rights are bound to respect.

Our Federal government and our President know that one stroke of the pen could break the chains of 15 million half slaves, and make America a free nation, with the liberty and justice for all we proclaim when we salute the flag.

Turn on your radio and you hear Walter Winchell, Cecil Brown, Fulton Lewis, and other lesser radio prophets screaming about Russian spies seeking to overthrow our government.

As a small-fry newspaper person, I am concerned first with the safety and preservation of my government. And secondly with the rights guaranteed by the Constitution to the 15 million Negro Americans of whom I am a part. Hence I am forever sticking my nose into affairs that perhaps people like John Rankin, that new menace, Senator McCarthy, and California's own Senator Jack B. Tenney, would like me to stay out of.

But I investigate because I want to know why the individuals so concerned with spies in the government pay so little attention to such things as racial discrimination in public places, restrictions in housing, bias in education, et cetera — together with many other abuses too numerous to mention look the other way when investigating.

It should be observed that our present method of loyalty tests, secret police investigation, intrusion upon the people's rights, are the same as those used by Hitler in Germany before the Second World War which finally robbed the people of their liberties and freedom, and plunged the whole world in war—a war from which we are still feeling the after effects.

The banning of Paul Robeson from Mrs. Roosevelt's television program illustrates the trend we are following. I am giving you the comment by William L. Patterson, national executive secretary of the Civil Rights Congress, and of Anne Shore, Los Angeles executive secretary, on that incident. Needless to say I fully concur in their sentiments.

"The censorship of Mr. Robeson's appearance on TV is a crude attempt to silence the outstanding spokesman for the Negro people in their fight for civil and human rights," declared William L. Patterson, national executive secretary, and Anne Shore, Los Angeles executive secretary of the Civil Rights Congress, this week in a joint statement.

They further stated that "Mrs. Roosevelt has repeatedly proclaimed her anti-Communism, yet she too is now being threatened by the conspirators against our Bill of Rights."

"This proves beyond a doubt that basic democratic rights are under attack under the smoke-screen of anti-Communism."

"The answer to threatening fascism in America is unity of all Americans, regardless of political beliefs, in defense of the rights of minorities, and, at this moment, unity to defeat the Mundt-Nixon Bill."

EDITORIALS

The Awakening in Africa

From North Africa to neo-fascist South Africa, and from Liberia, America's own protectorate, in the west to Uganda in the east come reports of increasing violence against the peoples of Africa. A few instances follow.

LIBERIA. A strike of African employees on the rubber plantation of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co., which pays them 18 cents per day, started in early February and culminated with the Liberian government sending riflemen and machine gun squads against the strikers. All but a tiny fraction of Liberia's 1,800,000 people are in desperate need of schools, hospitals, and other social services, but money is being spent for American arms and equipment.

IVORY COAST. On January 30 police attacked a gathering of Africans, killing 14 people and injuring 70 more. The gathering was held to protest the continued imprisonment of leaders of the African Democratic Union.

GOLD COAST. Since early January the government of this British West African colony has been waging war against the trade union movement and the People's Party. Peaceful meeting has been broken up by club-wielding police. Three Africans were killed and 9 injured in one such meeting.

UGANDA. A special secret service branch is being set up by the British colony, equipped with aircraft, tanks, radio, look-out posts — and riding boots as a "useful weapon against bare-footed natives." Last April, 8 Africans were killed and over 1300 jailed.

SOUTH AFRICA. Street fighting broke out in a ghetto settlement on the fringe of Johannesburg. A cordon of 400 armed police and mounted men was thrown around the place, and at dawn they arrested 600 men and women. That same evening an enormous mass meeting was held under the auspices of the African National Congress, condemning these police methods.

Violence again broke out on Feb. 14. Police attacked the Africans with machine guns, tear gas bombs, and hand grenades. Armed white men, and civilians joined in the attack. Seven Africans and one white policeman were killed. When asked how many Africans had been killed by whites in South Africa, the Minister of Justice said he hadn't time to look up the answer.

Forced labor is practiced on South African farms. Every native resident on a private farm must obtain a document of identification before going to any other place, except his home. South African police and courts assist in maintaining the system of farm peonage. Africans convicted under this "pass" law are offered the alternative of serving a prison sentence or of "volunteering" to work on the farm. Private jails are built by the farmers to care for their "help."

One day in Johannesburg a farmer was taking two of his native helpers to his farm padlocked in a cage in the back part of his truck. An angry crowd gathered, muttering "slavery," and threatening to take action. The farmer drove away before anything happened, and a government official to whom the matter was reported said there was nothing in the law to prevent a farmer locking his help in a cage and taking them out to his farm, if he wanted to do that.

These incidents have been happening more and more frequently. They are not new. But the awakening of the people of Africa to the chains that are binding them, and their resistance to that slavery, is something new.

If the members of the white

'The K-K-K Is Watching You!'*Certain Sections Suffer From Excess Noise

In the Central Avenue District, which is semi-residential, smoke, grime and noise—some of which could be avoided—cause the residents great annoyance.

Early morning trucks with their mufflers open and smoke pouring from exhaust pipes, add to the already smog clouded atmosphere, making life miserable for poor people who before Central Avenue became a business thoroughfare, establish their homes in the section, and are now forced to remain in it. They are assessed the same tax rate as the people living on Sugar Hill, and even Beverly Hills. Hence they should be given the same type of protection from such abuses.

Further, the streets in the Central Avenue District are not kept as clean as they are in other sections. Often garbage, ashes, and tin cans litter the side streets and alleys over a period of weeks.

A filthy stream of water that seemingly originates somewhere on Central Avenue, north of 41st street, trickles along 41st street, forming dirty pools here and there along the street. Automobiles run over these pools, splashing the dirty water on the sidewalk to the great discomfort of occupants and pedestrians.

Residents have discovered that despite the fact that this condition is hazardous to their health and safety, nothing is done about it. Inspectors who visit the District and condemn certain living quarters, it seems are not inclined to recommend relief in such cases from such abuses of the people's rights.

The Only Cure

The world has not yet known a disease for which no one would venture a cure. At present, however, our American people seem to be in a tither over what—no one ventures a cure.

The trouble, however, seems to have originated at the top, among high governmental officials. Ambassador-at-large Philip C. Jessup accuses Senator Joseph R. McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, of aiding international Communism by making false and irresponsible Red charges against him and other State department officials. George C. Marshall and Dwight D. Eisenhower, however, are on Jessup's side.

Senator McCarthy who is said to be spokesman for power-hungry Republicans, did not enter the Federal housecleaning episode with his own hands clean. It is hinted that he has some soiled political linen back in Wisconsin, the state from which he hails.

So fierce is the battle waged against some White House brass hats who have to date enjoyed race were cognizant of this fact, they would try to pacify the angry Africans by treating them with justice. Instead they seem to be goading them on with greater cruelty, and eventually they may learn that like a wild beast tortured beyond endurance, they will leap upon them and tear them to shreds. That is the cure, and the only cure.

Chapter Two
The Urals and Siberia
—Also Russia

"The history of Siberia and her heroic population reminds me of the history of the Far West of the United States. The pioneers of both countries, in titanic struggle with nature, with the hard conditions of life, fearlessly forged ahead, built new towns and villages, a new industry, a new life, for the good of their homeland and all humanity. It is not accidental that in the present war, Siberia has played and continues to play such an important part . . . A free people born on free expanses cannot tolerate any injustice and violence, and cannot even temporarily live in slavery."

Henry A. Wallace, Speech at Irkutsk, June 1, 1944.

The Ural mountains stretch 1,000 miles from the shores of the Arctic to the sun-scorched deserts of Kazakhstan. In the minerals of this narrow range, from 30 to 90 miles wide, there have been discovered all but four of the chemical elements. Iron ore, copper, zinc, lead, phosphorites, coal, oil, the world's largest deposits of calcium salts, and vast stands of timber—these are but the most important of the treasures of the Urals. These resources have been developed to very considerable extent everywhere except in the Arctic zone, which falls within the Komi Autonomous Republic, and a steel industry is to be established there. In 1945, the industrial output of the Urals was more than three times as high as in the record pre-war year of 1940. Power output doubled, coal output more than doubled and pig iron production rose to nearly twice the pre-war level.

In the northwest is the Molotov Oblast, lying on the western slope of the range and along the Kama River. In 1939 it had two million people. Its main riches are table and calcium salts, iron ore, timber and water power. Oil was recently discovered. Industry has developed almost entirely during the past 20 years. There is a great chemical industry at Bereznikovo, the pride of the First Five-Year Plan, and a plant manufacturing superphosphates at Molotov (formerly Perm). The steel industry in the city of Chusovaia increased greatly during the war. Coal, steel, machinery, wood-processing and paper-pulp industries have also been established in Molotov Region. The farms grow grain (flax, potatoes, and seed clover).

The population of Molotov city in 1939 was 255,000. It had doubled in thirteen years; today it is estimated at half a million. Formerly an administrative and provincial trading center, it has become a major industrial city. It boasts a university and several colleges and one of the oldest Russian opera companies.

East of the Molotov Oblast is that of Sverdlovsk, which experienced the greatest wartime boom of any in the USSR. The pre-war population of 2,500,000 increased at least by half. Its main resources are iron ore, copper and bauxite, source of aluminum. It also has platinum, gold, asbestos, precious stones and timber. Its chief agricultural products are grain, potatoes, and flax. The city of Sverdlovsk itself has grown from 70,000 before the Revolution to 750,000 today. Its people ferine copper, manufacture heavy industrial equipment, and produce high-quality steel. During the war industrial output multiplied seven times. From a dismal provincial town of one-story wooden houses, it has become not only an industrial but a cultural center. Its cultural institutions include 12 universities and colleges, 29 technical high schools, 19 scientific institutions and 7 repertory theaters.

Sverdlovsk Oblast also has two other large industrial cities. Nizhni Tagil has a steel mill with three of the largest blast furnaces on earth, each capable of smelting 400,000 tons of pig iron a year. In peacetime much of its steel goes to a local plant capable of making 50,000 railway freight cars a year. This city also produces heavy pre-fabricated steel structures and has a copper refinery. During the war Tagil's industrial output multiplied 8½ times. So did that of Kamensk, aluminum center of Sverdlovsk Region. The steel mill at Serov, founded in 1890 to make rails for the Trans-Siberian, also expanded greatly during the war.

South of Sverdlovsk Oblast, and also on the eastern slope of the Urals, is the region of Cheliabinsk. Even before the war it had nearly 3,000,000 people. It contains more than half of the Ural iron deposits. The best known is Magnet Mountain, at whose foot has been built the completely new city of Magnitogorsk, which rose from zero 15 years ago to 146,000 in 1939 and 240,000 in 1944. During the war the number of towering blast furnaces here was run up to six, making it one of the world's most powerful single plants. Less known, but almost as important, are the iron resources of Mt. Bakal.

But iron is not the only wealth of Cheliabinsk Region. Its worked resources include copper, zinc, bauxite, magnesite, brown coal and peat.

The city of Cheliabinsk is estimated to have doubled its 1939 population of 273,000. It is the site of one of the Soviet Union's three pre-war tractor plants, and the only one at least not partially destroyed. (The others were at Kharkov and Stalingrad.) The city also builds heavy machine tools and makes iron alloys, and is the site of what before the war was the largest power plant in the Urals. Nearby there are large coal diggings. Wartime industrial production in the city multiplied 5½ times, based largely on the new metal supplied by two new blast furnaces of 250,000 tons annual capacity each.

Cheliabinsk does not compare to Sverdlovsk as a cultural center, but it does have three colleges, 9 technical high schools and four theater companies. The Region includes a large section of forest steppe and treeless plains. The plains are fertile, yielding exceptional crops of spring wheat, oats and rye, and nourishing fine dairy and beef cattle.

Construction was begun on a new traffic signal at the corner of 48th Place and Compton Avenue, as was requested by residents of this community who stated that traffic along Compton Avenue was exceedingly fast and it was dangerous to cross this street without the protection of a traffic signal. The signal should be completed within three weeks.

"Is the Soviet Union a Menace to World Peace?" was the question discussed by Jerome Davis, D.D., Ph.D., who has spent many years in the Soviet Union, at a meeting held last Sunday in the Calvary Methodist Church, 5268 West Adams Blvd. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Friends Service Committee.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

The Outlook Could Be Brighter

Statistics and surveys upon which statistics are based, have a way of hiding things, or exaggerating them all out of proportion, according to the impression it is desired to create. For political reasons first, the administration holding sway in Washington, does not want the full truth of the appalling unemployment spreading throughout the nation to be generally known. And there is the further consideration of the cold war.

JOHN M. LEE

It will not help us create the illusion that the United States is the generous and warm-hearted provider for the poor and backward nations of the world if it becomes known that 10 or 11 million of our men who want to work can not find a job.

We are not prepared to admit, at home or abroad, that our capitalist system has not yet found a way to create a security balance on the middle and lower levels, but the truth is . . . the middle-income and small wage earners are comparatively worse off now than they have been at any time during the last 50 years.

Despite the pseudo-socialist practices eased into our economic structure, and certainly in spite of the strange government price support programs, we have millions of workers and their families subsisting on sub-standard and, many times, starvation diets, while jobs grow scarcer and the unemployment rolls increase with unbelievable rapidity.

Standing foremost in the world as a nation of money-makers and financiers, we build and manufacture only those things which return an easy and assured profit. As an example: It is a common thing to find in our infested slum-ghettos, shack after shack equipped with the latest model washing machine and television set, though none of these hovels boast an indoor toilet and few of them have running water or windows for light and ventilation.

We heed whole families afflicted with consumption and other diseases into filthy, decayed holes, then set up a budget for the Health Department so we can be educated on how to live surrounded by threatened pestilence and still remain healthy. Our hospitals transport the sick and the ailing from our vast slum communities to be cured or treated, then haul them back for further aggravation and infestation.

Preoccupied as we are with witch-hunting at home, and war-hunting abroad, we have no time for the undernourished babies born and raised in the little cities of sickness and despair, and we have long since forgotten the men and women who sit through the night to defend these babies against marauding rats.

A not inconsiderable amount of our national profits are made on the slums. Slum landlords make a cleaner profit on dirty, rotten housing. The upkeep is nil, and the rents are comparatively the highest in the land. Some of our finest (so-called) citizens are landlords of slum property. They are powerful men, with influence in high places.

The citizens of the ghettos are powerful men too, but they are divided and confused by the hysteria of the times. They have been intimidated by the excessive loyalty behavior demanded of all Americans today, and they fear the government more than they fear the wrath of a just God.

They make up the vanguard of the unemployed too, and their ranks are swelling. But if they are confused and frustrated, it is understandable. Their unions are either rendered impotent by the rules laid down by a national dictatorship, or they are on the defensive against management-inspired radio perpetrated by management-controlled unions.

There is a blueprint prepared to relieve the unemployment situation. It is based on war, and the manufacture of the weapons and implements of war. It will provide occupation for millions of young men, and it will offer the opportunity of escape into death for millions of older men, and women and children.

As matters stand now, we are faced with the choice of unemployment and the nerve-wracking sort of peace we enjoy, or an all-out H-bomb war which will keep everybody busy alright. Although it is close to treasonable these days to stand immovably for peace, there is no other way to wipe out the unemployment and misery with which this nation is afflicted. Peace with government-supported projects to eradicate slums and disease is a slogan that can save the world from complete destruction.

The Two Cold ers

Many of us must have recognized by now an unpleasant familiarity in most of the techniques of that cold war which today holds the international limelight, threatens humanity with a world catastrophe without parallel in history. We can recognize, for example, the technique of the Big Lie, of which the Negro people have been the victims on countless occasions, in myriad ways; the techniques of gross exaggerations, of vicious baiting and provocations, as well as that traditional Anglo-Saxon practice of smugly-monopolizing at the virtues, imputing to others all that is evil.

We, too, are the victims of cold war—a cold war waged with rope and faggot as well as with monstrous lies, jimcrowism, segregation, job discrimination, all the devices of the racist mentality of the Anglo-Saxon ruling classes. That cold war was tagging long before Britain's Winston Churchill, in his Truman-endorsed Fulton (Missouri) speech, sounded the call for the cold war against the East. It originated with the slavocracy which sought to justify Negro slavery with pseudo-scientific claims of Negro inferiority, even linking the Negro with the lower animals. Its first aim was the permanent enslavement of Negroes in the New World, to which was added in time the conquest and partition of their ancient homeland. It was waged in every section of the New World under Anglo-Saxon control, but was most virulent in the United States.

The Two Now Merged

The new cold war, now merged with the old, has for its purpose nothing less than the domination of the world by the prejudice-ridden industrial moguls of the United States and their political stooges, with all that this would mean in terms of degradation and savage exploitation for the non-white peoples.

Launched allegedly to "contain Communism"—that is, to deny the peoples of Europe the democratic right to change political and economic systems—the cold war now has the twin objective of maintaining the status quo in both western Europe and in the colonies, and the crushing of all opposition on the home front to Washington's aggressive and adventurist policies.

From its very inception, the new cold war was accompanied by a brutal drive against the democratic rights of the American people, as witness the loyalty oaths, witch hunts, indictments and firing of progressive intellectuals as in the case of the Hollywood Ten, and the persistent campaign to smash the Communist party, jail its leaders.

Attacks on Militants

How the two cold wars have been merged can be seen in the stepped-up persecution of the Negro people since the enunciation of the Truman Doctrine, the marked increase in mob attacks and lynchings, in courtroom frameups (the Trenton Six, etc.), in mass firings of Negro workers, in the determined drive to force Negro women out of industry, back to the kitchens of white folk.

Simultaneously there was launched a ferocious campaign to isolate and discredit those Negro leaders who refuse to be the yes-men of the white ruling class. To an extent never witnessed since the unleashing of mob violence and frenzied invectives against the great Frederick Douglass, the rulers of America are today openly insisting on their century-old prerogative of hand-picking our leaders, imposing their Uncle Toms upon us. It was Douglass then whom they hated and feared. Today it is the courageous and outspoken Paul Robeson against whom they concentrate their venom and their

By Marian Inglewood

At long last an investigation is being made into the living conditions of the migratory agricultural workers in San Joaquin Valley, one of the richest agricultural regions in the world. If you remember, it was last October when this situation was first called to the attention of the public. But it hasn't been until six months later that the Warren administration has seen fit to do anything about it. Now it is only because a well-known Eastern magazine has revealed the true conditions that the attorney general of California, Fred N. Howser, has been forced to do something.

Eleven babies, it was reported last fall, died from starvation then. That number has increased to 28. Their death certificates are signed by physicians listing starvation outright in at least 10 of the cases, and malnutrition as a contributory cause in the others.

And yet all that Howser (I almost said Hoover) can think of doing is to appoint an investigating committee to "study the circumstances!"

A similar situation has been discovered in Arizona. No babies have died there yet, according to all reports, but whole families have gone without enough to eat for weeks. Some have cooked the weeds that grew about their shacks for food. Conditions here were discovered by a juvenile school officer who investigated why so many children were absent from school. He learned they had no clothes to wear to school, and not only that, he found out that 100 children were slowly starving to death.

But this news was not suppressed in Arizona as it was six months ago in California. It made the headlines of virtually all the newspapers of the country on March 8 and 9. And by March 10 food and medical supplies were pouring in from everywhere. According to a United Press report, "Trucks and private vehicles sped across the 16 miles separating Phoenix from the migratory workers' camp."

"They were loaded with boxes of canned goods, flour and medicines for families in the 100 one-room shacks. Not long afterward smiling youngsters ate their first meal in days, some in more than a week."

One just can't help noticing the difference between California and Arizona. In California the terrible need suppressed, and nothing but an investigation offered after 28 children had died. In Arizona—the need made public and help solicited, which met a generous response at once. Arizona, you see, has a Democratic governor and a Democratic administration. California—well, everyone knows what we have here. Republican all down the line.

No matter how much we say "there is no difference between the two old parties," we'll have to admit there is a difference. As long as we have our private profit system, we'll have the extremes of poverty and of wealth. Democrats, however, will do something about it, at least in an emergency. Republicans, never—not even when human beings are dying, unless they are forced to do so. The Democratic Party places human rights above property rights. The Republican Party, the exact reverse. You can notice that difference in private, as well as in public life.

But just how stupid our private profit economic system is, not to say how cruel and inhuman, is manifested in the fact that our government has millions of bushels of potatoes right now that it doesn't know what to do with. It also has millions of pounds of dried eggs, milk, butter, etc. It mustn't let the people of America buy these valuable foods at a very low price, because that would do away with the profits we're almost selling our souls to maintain.

In the March 14 edition of The Daily News, an editorial warns that we are in danger of over-production. "Wheat, corn, cotton, beef," writes M.B. "show signs of acute over-production. How long can over-production continue on one relatively small area of the earth, while acute war-breeding under-consumption exists practically everywhere else?"

"Soon or late our internal controls must give way and our over-production must find its way into the vacuum that surrounds us. Then, indeed, will come a new and critical phase of the cold war."

Well, if we had just ordinary common horse-sense, we'd quit being so stubborn as to continue to erect artificial barriers to the natural flow of over-production to under-production. If we ever do learn to do that, then indeed will come that new and better world for which we have been so long praying and working for.

A rather glaring typographical error occurred in this column last week. In the letter Mr. Ginsberg wrote to Rev. Magnuson, which was quoted, we had: "I have been dreaming of Christians like you, since I was 12 years old, when I saw a program in my old country, Russia, in 1945." It should be: "when I saw a pogrom . . . in 1905." The date is especially important, since the pogrom Mr. Ginsberg witnessed occurred under the czarist regime, definitely not under the present one.

Judge Ralph C. Dills of the South Los Angeles Township was assured this week of the united support of all A.F.L. Unions and Councils in Los Angeles County in his campaign to succeed himself in the June 6th Primary Election.

In New York's wealthy Westchester County Republicans threw themselves a $100 a plate dinner. They felt it was far enough away from Washington to avoid charges of me-tooism.

General Eisenhower says he's stopped reading newspapers because they're full of terror about the hydrogen bomb, that students should defend "the right to work, to keep what you earn, and to make a profit." There are about 5 million people who are unemployed who will be particularly interested in the General's definition of "right to work."

The Supreme Court has agreed to listen to a war veteran who wants $100,000 because Army doctors left a towel in his abdomen during an operation. The outcome is awaited by others who got a bellyfull in the Army.

LOS ANGELES — Forty-two English war brides and their 33 children are planning to visit the folks back home this summer. They have paid $25,000 down for a chartered plane of Transocean Airlines. They will leave L. A. April 22 and return August 16.

CALEXICO, Mex. — Governors of two Mexican states will join Gov. Earl Warren tomorrow (Friday) in opening the three-day International Desert Cavalcade at Calexico. This 11th annual celebration will honor California's 100th anniversary of statehood.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Charter Day exercises commemorative of the founding of Howard University were held in the Andrew Rankin memorial chapel last Thursday morning, March 2. Lillian Smith, author, delivered the Charter Day address.

CHICAGO—Mr. J. Paul Elliott, president of the Los Angeles City Board of Education, was re-elected president of the National School Boards Association for another year, at their meeting in Atlantic City, N. J., last week.

Although the NSBA has existed for some years, this is the first year that it is to exist as a year-round functioning organization, with a full-time paid secretary, stationed at the headquarters in Chicago.

This year's conference in Atlantic City is the largest meeting in the history of the organization.

VOICES OF SPRING

Spring is here again, and with it comes the traditional basketball fest when the four frats settle the perennial issue of "who's the greatest" via the ball and basket route. But the point isn't proven on the court, Sphinxmen will tell you. Alpha is King, claim the gems of A Phi A, though they don't figure to do any too hot at basketball this semester.

On the contrary, the Kappas should come in first again with the Sigmas in a good position to overhall them during any stage of the tourney. The Omegas figure to continue their role as "the little spoilers" by pulling some nasty upsets, once they get the chance. Pick whom you will or may to win the crown, you'll get your money's worth from every game. With the likes of Harriet Daniels in the cheering section and the picture of Laurita Alexander in the souvenir program, you'll get the treat of your life when the whistle blows initiating hostilities Sat. nite.

Little Willie Littlefield, Charles Brown, Floyd Gibbons, Jimmy Witherspoon and the Minto Brothers joined in a jam session to send Roy Loggins' open (and packed) house screaming with hysteria at the Victor Theater last Thursday. Over 1000 persons paid homage to the young disc-jockey's greatest and last show at the Victor. He won't hold any more sessions there 'cause the place is too small.

For his sincere efforts at promoting free programs for youths and for designing his radio show to appeal especially to them, we select Roy as the Outstanding Youth of the Month. We will officially present him with the award on his program in the near future.

VILLAGE VESPER

Pandemonium reigned in Rodger Young Village Sat. nite as Freeman Lacy and his entourage charmed a sparse crowd into spasms and sent them away well versed in the magic of a horn. Lacy and Don Upshaw flirted with tenor sax, David Thomas tooted trumpet, Ledell Addison aired alto, Abraham Mills punched drums and Maurine Burleson wiggled on piano.

Village Queen Jean Neal dominated operations on the dance floor, while Florine Sommons, marvelous Miss or Marshall Hi, was far-and-away the cutest little dish to ever wear freckles. Francis Jones, and Joy Lee Brewster were the most promising villagers, and Robbie Hill and Peggy Roberts were the finest two. Corliss Bell fared well, and Gloria Taylor was pretty.

From Pasadena came Pearlina Elliott, big dog on PCC campus, who was with Grant McGruder; Loyce Riles, also of PCC, who is queen in her own right; Irene Brown, classy little number; and Dorothy Garrett and Wilma Martin, two beauties from Muir. KAPPA KAPERS

While the above affair was in the process of becoming newspaper copy, the Kappas were giving their ditty at the Alpha. (No reflection on the fraternity of that name). Stanley Robertson, dean of L. A. police reporters, continued his No. 1 beat with Lillian Williams, chick with the lovely eyes. Rita Simons, girl with the pleasant smile, was flashing an engagement ring bequeathed by Allen Perry, gentleman above all else. Sweet Suzi Moore, sister of Joan—girl of Sherrill, was having the time of the century in the absence of her suitor.

Two New York Republicans—Reps. Cole and Kilburn—say they will sign all their letters in red ink as a protest against government spending. They've cleared it with Sen. McCarthy (R. Wisc.) in case of future misunderstanding.

Harriet Daniels produced her hunk of lover, Johnny Gipson from Howard and Clayton (L.A. State) Moore clinched with Cosetta Eubanks, U.C.L.A. John Herod continued his march with Darling Scott, and James Bragg surprised with Jo Smith. The Crawford duo of Jean and Joyce were with a handsome two, and the Goffney trio of Lorraine, Franklin and Chappel chalked up another great nite. Harriet Hawkins, Pat King and Janet Draper made a clean sweep of fine chicks, and Elizabeth Amos showed plenty form in winning her event.

Great girls and always fine, Mildred and Alice Walker showed up after a leave of absence, and Ruth Vernon showed up with Howard Gamble, also after a leave of absence. George Murray was speculating on the outcome of City College's great basketball team in the national JC tourney, and Artis Rhodes was waiting for Julia. Andy Allen took an off nite from spinning records, and Erma Beary enjoyed the night with David Reed.

IT'S THE TRUTH

The Cubs turned back Mel Patton's Long Beach Vikings 88½-42½ last Friday in the first dual meet of the season. The Vikings' Russ Miller showed possibilities of being the best sprinter in JC ranks as he registered times of 9.8s and 22.1s. Wa Wa Washington maintained his undefeated record for the season by taking the quarter in 50.5s. . . . George Adrain will not run for the Cubs.

"Georgeous" George Brown admitted that he plumb forgot that he promised not to broad jump for the Tartars in March. Even though she didn't win an award, Ana King gave excellent account of herself in the Daily News oratory contest last week. Dimple cheeked Vera Lee took a forward step by pledging to Epsilon Pi Tau, honorary nursing society at CC. While a student at Manual Hi, she was the first Negro to serve on the cabinet of the Lyric Club, and was also on the Girl's League cabinet. On the basis of her record, we will nominate Vera to run for Executive Council in the next elections. Charming Eva Williams is the second Negro to pledge to Toast-mistress club. . . . The youth of Pasadena are giving a classical concert at Pasadena public library Friday nite at 8 p.m. Performers include: Barney Durham and Terrell Sandell, pianist; Don Bowman, violinist; Mary Notrica, Pearlene Elliot and Alma Thornton, vocalists. . . . Vivacious Audrey Brazier added on another precious year and hosted a grand party in celebration at her home Friday nite. She also began the first running of the Audrey Brazier Relays in which Ed Washington and his good friend and track mate dead heated in their first lap. But Ed argues that he hasn't been beaten this year and figures that this ain't no time for his winning streak to be broken. . . . No sooner had Donzella Coulter set forth her erudite argument in this corner last week than she set out to prove it in fact. To be exact, it was Friday nite that she added Cairo Collins to her long list of experiences. The occasion was a Kappa reunion at the home of Julius Boyd, and who came stag but the city's No. 1 and 2 citizens respectively, Roy Loggins and Sherrill Luke? . . . Again our typewriter waxes cold and our word supply has been depleted, but allow us to quote Henri Christopher, first and only Negro king of Haiti: "To be great is to be lonely; to be magnificent is to have men hate you." Nite, all.

persecution, moving heaven and earth to deny him the right to present the case for his people. As at Peekskill, N. Y., when fascist thugs twice mobbed his meetings. As only this past week when bigots successfully pressured Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt into calling off a television program in which Robeson was slated to discuss, with others, "the position of the Negro in American political life."

At the same time, the requirements of the anti-Communist phase of the cold war pose before the rulers of the United States the necessity of attempting to (1) refute the shattering exposes of American jimcrow by Russian, Asian and European Communists, (2) stem the rising militancy of the Negro people who, together with their Labor, Jewish and other allies, are demanding a showdown on FEPC and civil rights legislation, and (3) sell the Negro people on an atomic war against the Soviet Union, the Eastern European people's democracies, Communist China and the rebellious colonial peoples, on the pretext of "Red imperialism" and similar lies.

Thus we have the contradiction in that concurrently with the intensified drive against the Negro people certain sophs or concessions have been thrown us, such as the appointment of a few Negroes to semi-important government posts the outlawing by the U. S. Supreme Court of the notorious practices of the lower courts of policing restrictive covenants, and a few half-hearted attempts by Hollywood to deal honestly with the Negro Question—mostly in the manner of soft-peddling and distortion, however. And now there is being filmed "The Jackie Robinson Story." Obviously intended primarily for use abroad in the cold war it is a safe bet for anybody's money that this film will not depict any phase of the long and heart-breaking but successful struggle of the Negro people and their allies to breach the color line in baseball, win for Jackie and other Negroes an opportunity to play in the major leagues.

The rulers of America miscalculate the mood and the maturity of the Negro people if they think we are going to be satisfied with petty concessions or be deceived by the hogwash that the rise of Jackie Robinson is either proof of the ineffectiveness of the color line in America or a sign that the big boys have had a change of heart, are now willing voluntarily to concede to the Negro a first-class citizenship status. Every Negro knows from bitter experience that the American jimcrow pattern still persists, that where it has been breached this has been the result not of concessions from above, but of firm united action from below. Neither the Negro nor the people of Europe, Africa and Asia will be taken in by any cold war propaganda to the contrary. Nor will they support a cold war directed against themselves in the final analysis.

Canada

Dear Friends in Christ,

May I thank each and every one of you for your gracious and generous gifts of money, toys, clothing, books and magazines, as well as candies and religious objects that made it possible for us to bring the joy of Christmas to so many in this distant Northland of Canada.

In His Infinite Charity,
Sincerely yours,

Address By Henry Wallace

But now we in the Progressive Party are no longer alone in our opposition to this policy of force and more force. Even some of the staunchest supporters of the cold war foreign policy now realize that the H-Bomb can mean death for untold millions of Americans, as well as of Russians—they now realize that the policy of force can never attain peace.

Within the past two weeks there has been more open criticism of the cold war from every shade of opinion than during the previous two years. Churchmen, atomic scientists, columnists like Walter Lippmann and Arthur Krock—even such stalwarts of the cold war as Senators McMahon and Tydings question the policy of force and urge an alternative.

We predicted that the policy would fail. It is failing. I now predict that public opinion will force men of good will on both sides to sit down face to face and work out the problems of real peace. It is our opportunity, as never before, after the events of the past few weeks, to make articulate this growing sentiment for peaceful solution of the world's problems.

True Christians cannot tolerate the thought of two nations stockpiling hydrogen bombs capable of destroying the planet. Force never settled anything. The continual process of toughness being answered by a greater toughness in an ever-mounting crescendo of hate can lead only to the outcome which Jesus perceived long ago when he said—"All who take the sword shall perish with the sword."

The United States and Russia stand out today as the two big brutes of the world. Each in its own eyes rests on high moral principles—but each in the eyes of other nations is guided by force, and force alone.

We of the Progressive Party proclaim the day of force is over. Jesus saw it in the year 30. Gandhi saw it in 1920. The atomic scientists saw it in the fall of 1945. Millions of Americans saw it when President Truman announced on September 23, 1949, that Russia had the bomb. Other millions saw it when President Truman announced on January 31, 1950, that we would make the H-Bomb. And so men of spiritual insight say—"Those who trust in bombs will perish by bombs." There never has been—and never will be—any constructive answer in force. The only real answer, as I pointed out long ago, is in a genuine, non-political, Point Four program applied in a big way through the United Nations to all countries of the world—including Russia and the New China. Today we spend about $600 on destruction for every dollar we are planning to spend on Point Four. I would reverse this and spend at least $5 on Point Four for each $1 spent on arms.

We in the United States now rely on a Department of National Defense for our security. I say we should be relying on a Department of Peace for our security. Such a Department of Peace should devote all its efforts to bringing higher living standards for all peoples when every man shall live without fear under his own vine and fig tree and all peoples shall flow to the Mountain of the Lord and each shall worship God in his own way.

Two years ago—on December 29, 1947—in announcing the launching of the New Party, I made a statement which has been only partially fulfilled. I said, "We have assembled a Gideon's Army—small in number, powerful in conviction, ready for action. We have said with Gideon, 'Let those who are fearful and trembling depart.' For every fearful one who leaves there will be a thousand to take his place."

We were a small but devoted band. The fearful and the trembling ones have departed. And now I wish to say that the thousands, yea the millions, will come when the people of the United States believe that the Progressive Party is fighting as wholeheartedly for America as Gideon was fighting for Israel. Gideon fought for the Lord and for Israel. We must fight for the Lord and for America, remembering always that the Lord is the Lord of all the world, and not of any one nation, race, class, or religion. We shall save our lives here in America only as we go all out to save the lives of all the people of the world. For a nation as powerful as ours, any lesser goal is suicide. Gideon's Army in proclaiming the greater good can yet save America from the false Prussian concept that "right means right."

We are not Prussians.
We are not materialists.
We are Americans.

Child Care Gets Approval In Assembly

The State Assembly, where opposition was not expected to be too strong, passed a bill Tuesday to include a $6,000,000 appropriation in the current budget for the continuing support of child care centers.

The bill will now have to get through the Senate and then be stamped with Governor Warren's signature before it becomes reality. The action of the Assembly comes in response to thousands of letters and telegrams from parents and organizations who demanded that the centers be continued as a vital aid to mothers who must go to work.

Leaders in the fight for the continuation of the child care centers stated they would ask organizations to write and wire their Senate representatives urging them to vote in favor of the Assembly action.

John Wall, radio's Richfield reporter, is scheduled to be guest speaker at the assembly at East Los Angeles Junior College on March 23.

100th Bellamy Anniv. Honored

A reception and dinner meeting honoring the 100th anniversary of the birth of Edward Bellamy, author of "Looking Backward," will be given by the Bellamy Centenary committee at the New Armenian Center, 1501 Venice Blvd., on Monday evening, March 27, from 6 to 10 p.m.

Mrs. Marion Bellamy Barnshaw, only daughter of Edward Bellamy, will be the guest of honor. She will fly from Springfield, Mass. to attend the reception and dinner.

Edward Bellamy, born March 26, 1850, is known best perhaps for his book, "Looking Forward," although he was the author of many others still found in the libraries of intellectuals. "Looking Backward" is the story of a man who fell asleep in the 19th century, and awoke in the year 2000. The changes he found were those from the private profit to the socialist economic system, with all the advantages accruing therefrom.

Among those on the program which will follow the dinner are: little 9-year old artist, Judy Spain, who will sing a group of Negro spirituals; Earl Robinson's International Labor Chorus who will sing "Ballads for Americans" and "Bring Me a Little Water." Bill Oliver will give Folk Songs of America, and Silan Chan will give a number of Chinese dances. Wade Denning will give "Let America be America Again."

Among the speakers will be Mrs. Earnshaw who will tell of her father, "Edward Bellamy, the Man." Others will be: Newton Van Dalsem, Dr. L. G. Pandit, Prof. D. M. Morandini, Dr. Ernest Caldecott, Councilman Edward R. Royball, Floyd C. Covington, Fred A. Hale, and Judge Edward Totten, who will speak on the life of Bellamy and the effect of his philosophy on the economic life of today.

Robert Marcus Lee, living at 1943 West 37th street, told the California Eagle this week, that he was first place winner in a recent Los Angeles Examiner contest, but when it was discovered that he was colored he was dropped from the list. He has promised a full expose of the case.

NAL Demanded LU Probe; Now It's Subversive

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY, Pa.—The Nationalist Action League of Philadelphia was revealed last week to be a "subversive organization" named by the U. S. Attorney General on its official list of Communist, Communist-front, and other organizations working to create dissension among Americans and generally to undermine the American Way of Life.

Faculty and students at Lincoln enjoyed a good laugh on learning that their would-be investigators were now the object of an investigation.

The League has taken an active part in rallying public opinion to the support of the proprietors of a coffee shop and a theater who were charged with violating Pennsylvania's Civil Rights statute by Lincoln University students. It has circulated League propaganda among Chester County citizens and officials, petitioned Pennsylvania authorities to launch an investigation of Lincoln University, and in other ways made itself felt in the cases that so far have ended in the refusal of the Chester County Grand Jury to return indictments against Vergos and Crowl.

Now the tables are turned.

PRIVATE CEREMONY—Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Grimes greeted many well wishers Sunday afternoon at their wedding reception held on East 43rd Place. The radiant young couple were married in a private ceremony Saturday eve by Dewitt Turpeau at Hamilton Methodist church. —Blair foto.

Venetian Lace Worn at Jones-Grimes Reception

It was a full and busy weekend for newlyweds Sara and Leonard Grimes, who spoke wedding vows Saturday, 6 p.m., in a private ceremony before Rev. Dewitt Turpeau at Hamilton Methodist church.

For her wedding the bride chose a pink suit with navy accessories, while Miss Jane Criner, her sole attendant, wore gray with navy. The groom was attended by his brother, Clyde Grimes, both of whom wore navy.

That evening the newlyweds greeted more than 150 of their young friends at one of the merriest dancing parties ever held. Jane Criner was their hostess at her 29th Place residence.

Their reception, held Sunday afternoon, March 19, at 1148 E. 43rd Place, captured the sentiment of young love. Amid a background of tall white stock and gladioli, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Grimes met a steady flow of well-wishers. The bride's gown, styled in enchanting Venetian white lace, swept to the ankle with a full skirt edged in a deep nylon net ruffle. It was topped with a matching short sleeved bolero and white orchid corsage.

The table was centered with a magnificent floral arrangement of white stock and gladioli with two huge net hearts entwined on top. A quadrupled decked wedding cake stood majestically at the corner of the room.

The decorations were by Mrs. Mary Grimes, mother of the groom and outstanding florist, assisted by Mrs. Minnie Hough. Receiving the guests were Mes. Willie Zanders, Ida Clay, Isabel Yancy, Dorothy Clay, Cora Sweeney, Fanny Woodruff, Sayda Hawkins, Mattie Redd and Selina Foster. The gift hostesses were Minnie Holmes, Gloria Mithcell, Ella Pruden, Jackie Wilson, Bertha Butler and Grace Cassanar.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Jones and granddaughter of Mr. Ragland, a pioneer family, is a USC graduate in library science. She later went into social work and is now employed with the Bureau of Public Assistance. The new Mrs. Grimes is a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority and Crop 'n' Tails Riding club.

The groom, who attended UCLA, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Grimes. He is a fine photographer who has been able to utilize this talent in his work in the public relations department of the Golden State Mutual Life Insurance company. Mr. Grimes is an active member of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

They are at home to friends at their East 43rd Place apartment.

Stripped of our professional titles, fur scarfs, Piguet creations, and Cadillac cars, we are just home-loving folks with simple homespun ideas. In a cotton dress or a pair of jeans we attempt to wield a paint brush and move the furniture to make the rooms look larger or cozier.

Take for instance James Wallace, who nightly bounces eight months old Randall on his knees; Carra Dell Felder in her blue cotton damask toweling dress, giving her husband Warren an appropriate morning send-off before she steps out of the car for work.

Or the radiant look on the face of Joe Dean's wife when he unexpectedly brought her home a huge bouquet of flowers; Willie Shorts pulling up those criminals of the garden—the weeds; Ozie Robinette trying to keep awake after an all night session with his baby girl Michele; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hopson studying into the wee hours of the morning between sips of black coffee and dagwood sandwiches and oh, my, the elaborate plans that Johnny and Leroy Beaman and Odie and Ann Brooks have drawn up for their future home.

Is it any wonder that the eyes of Leonard Grimes were twinkling as he said "I've been a married man for a full seven hours now"? He and personable Sara Grimes dashed hither and yon among the guests seeing that everyone had plenty of chicken salad and sparkling champagne.

The occasion was a gay party given last Saturday night for the newly married couple by beautiful Jane Criner at her home on West 29th Place. Off in a corner chatting over old times were Nellene Russell, the Andre Vaughns, Paulitte Coleman and Virgil Benson, the Rudy Eaglesons, Sam Strain (the ladies man) and Jackie Wilson. Entering the party were Atty. and Mrs. Chris Wright, Atty. Leo Branton, Mr. and Mrs. Zeresh Eberhart, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Tate. Partaking of the refreshments were Ray Johnson, Minnie Holmes, Marston Washington, Bill Slaton, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Faulkner, Lambert Green, Balinger Kemp, Wrenna Clark, George and Emily Jones, Jewel Lockett and James Stanley. Folks there I hadn't seen in ages were Connie Scruggs, Fay Hopkins and Bill Duffy, Gloria and Stanley Malone.

Saturday night at seven-thirty P.M. in the Loyola Gym, the debutantes, uc S.R.Ma, cavalcade of photographers, debutantes, stylish matrons, all types of men, college coeds, fraternity aspirants, and part high school enthusiasts will once more shout themselves hoarse for their favorite team. Celestine King tipped out of the Independent Church in a "real gone" knitted cardinal dress. I also saw Francois Andre who is presenting "The California Man" an Interracial show at the Golden State Auditorium on Sunday, April 2nd from four to seven P.M. I got news for you—Elledge Penland will be one of the male models. Couldn't help but notice the starry look in Tommie Ayers eyes as she discussed five week exams with her Tommy.

Who'll Win The Series

Basketball season is here. Already sororities, fraternities, and collegiate clubs have mapped a full calendar of social events around the seven week annual classic . . . soooo, it looks like everyone will be in for a lot of fun, including your social writer, who asked six basketball enthusiasts, "Who'll win the Series?"

Hazel Shumate said, "From last year it seems that the Sigmas are going to give the other teams a lot of trouble."

Dr. Fred Griffin—I think the Sigmas, due to the number of veterans they have returning and their experience, should be favorites in the Series but I feel that the Omegas and Sigmas will be the dark horse teams this year.

Joan Pierson: "I think the Kappas will win because they have that spirit which is needed to pull a team through."

Emory Cain: "For Sigmas, this is it! They will win."

Vera Jackson: "I think the Kappas. And if Dave Williams and Lloyd Thomas are playing, I don't see any reason why they can't."

Frank Donaldson: "The Omegas will surprise everybody by winning the League."

Who'll win the Series? For a complete report from the sidelines, follow Charles Lloyd in the Sports section of The California Eagle beginning next week.

Liggins' Honeydrippers Held at Downbeat

The Dancer Says

HOLLYWOOD, Calif.—A series of five forum dance evenings entitled, "The Dancer Moves to Say" will begin on Monday evening, March 20 at the Coronet Theater. They will continue the third Monday of each month for four months thereafter. These series promise to be provocative and unique, inasmuch as dancers, choreographers will speak on their approach to the dance generally and the specific dances they will perform each evening. At the conclusion of each Forum the audience will be invited to participate in discussion with the choreographer.

Benjamin Zebach and Inesita will appear on the first forum. Edward Eliscu, lyric writer of "Meet the People" and the current Actor's Laboratory production, "The Banker's Daughter," will act as moderator.

Honeydrippers Held Over at Downbeat

Joe Liggins and his popular Honeydrippers have been held over another week at the Club Downbeat by popular demand. Because of the nitely crowds that swarm to hear this swiny little aggregation, the management secured their services for another week. The Honeydrippers have the place rocking when they do their recent hit number, "Rag Mop." Featured along with Joe Liggins on piano is of course "Little Willie," alto saxaphonist, who makes that sudden change to baritone without missing a note; James Jackson, the young fella who blows all of that fine tenor; Frank Pasley is the guitar man that adds the final touch to the band and last but not least, Peppy Prince, the drummer and who does a wonderful job of doubling as a vocalist. So there you have it all in one, those famed Honeydrippers, appearing nitely at the Club Downbeat.

LITTLE WILLIE LITTLEFIELD—Will make his first local appearance when he plays a dance Sunday nite.

Timmie Rogers Wins 'Y' Invite

ST. LOUIS—Comic Timmie Rogers received what is tantamount to a Command Performance invitation from the officials of the "Y" circus this week, to appear as one of the headliners in their week-long event in St. Louis. Timmie will be co-starred with some of the biggest names in showbusiness in this year's event which will debut on March 24.

Even more important is the fact that producers of films and shows are always among the audiences as the "Y" circus because of the reknowned theatrical taste of the bookers of the Missouri event. A performer, invited to appear at the Circus, invariably offers for both movies and Broadway shows. Timmie Rogers is no exception.

Nellie Lutchter On Southern Tour

Nellie Lutchter, on April 15, will start a Southern tour of one night engagements. This will mark her initial appearance in each of these cities, including her home town of Lake Charles, La. She is planning a benefit in Lake Charles for school children. Tour will be the first time Miss Lutchter has played a series of one-night dates.

BILL ROBINSON

Sydney Greenstreet, Spencer Tracy and James Stewart plot a dangerous mission in this scene from "Malaya," M-G-M's romantic adventure drama. Also starring in the new offering are Valeria Cortese, glamorous Italian actress, John Hodiak and Lionel Barrymore. Now playing at the Bill Robinson Theater. Plus 2nd Big Hit.

ROY LOGGINS, JR. (center), popular conductor of KALI's "Blowin' With Roy" record show, was "mobbed" by eager fans last Friday as he opened a series of Open House events in the Victor Theater, 18th and Main. street. This week, and thereafter, the Open House will be held on Thursday, 3:00 to 5:30 p.m. Admission is free.

Sarah Vaughn at Million Dollar

Sarah Vaughan, the most talked about voice in America, is currently at the Million Dollar Theatre, beginning March 22, with the Benny Carter band backing her.

Recently returned from a tour of the Northwest, where she set new records, Mis Vaughan will make a musical at Universal International Studio with the Trenier Twins following her Million Dollar stint. She will then open March 30 at Ciro's San Francisco, after which she and her husband-manager, George Treadwell, leave for New York City for engagements there.

Will Appeal Atlanta's Ban Of "Lost Boundaries"

ATLANTA, Ga. (Atlas) — Because Judge M. Neil Andrews ruled last Monday, that films are not a part of the press and are subject to censorship, "Lost Boundaries," lost a temporary opportunity to show in the city of Atlanta.

The suit grew out of Atlanta censor Christine Smith's ban of "Lost Boundaries," on the opinion that the film "might adversely affect the peace, health morals and good order of the city." The producer, Louis de Rochemont, his RD-DR Corporation and film classics and distributors, challenged the ban on the ground that it violated the 14th amendment as well as freedom of the press guaranteed in the First amendment.

Attorney Ambrose Doskow, of Judge Samuel Rosenman's office, admitted that the Atlanta decision was disappointing and heartening, however, the fight is not over by a long ways, "for we plan to take the case to the Court of Appeals immediately."

Borough Plan Proposal Is Popular Here

Possibility of widely-favored action toward adopting the borough system of government for Los Angeles loomed this week with the passage of a resolution directed toward investigating such a system by the state assembly.

Introduced by Assemblyman Vincent Thomas of San Pedro, the resolution pointed out that a borough system is need to replace the "antiquated methods of centralized government in Los Angeles."

Aimed at obtaining relief for outlying suburbs, the borough system would also bring benefits to citizens in the city proper, it was claimed by some civic leaders. They point out that too few councilmen represent too many citizens. Complaints of dirty streets and neglected areas in almost every councilmanic district indicate strong public support for the borough system.

A preliminary check shows strong support for the Thomas proposal which was announced less than two weeks ago. The Judge Charles B. McCoy, who presided over the case, awarded Mrs. Mitchell $10.00 cash, and cancelled the $390.00 contract, thus making a "GRAND" total.

Letter-Carrier Wins Divorce

Roscoe Conklin Brown, a letter carrier out of Station K, was awarded an interlocutory decree last week in a divorce action filed in 1948. Superior Judge Walter R. Evans granted the decree.

The divorce complaint pre- pared in the law offices of Atty. Ivan J. Johnson III, in December of 1948, revealed that the plain- tiff entered into wedlock with Lorraine L. Brown in 1940 and separated in 1947.

Cause for the action was deser- tion. Brown claims his wife left the home and abode he had pre- pared for their wedded life on July 10 of 1947 and has since then lived separate and apart, velegue on West Africa to a full audience of students at Lincoln University (Mo.) last week.

CALIENTE, Old Mexico—Another banner crowd of 7000 lovers of the sport of kings was on hand at Caliente, the home of Sunday racing, last Sunday and witnessed the annual running of the Powder Puff Derby. Eight beautiful girls had mounts in the race but it was Joan Pratt who captured the event on Razzum, a 5 to 1 shot Concur, with Donna H. was installed favorite and all the early pace, and at one part of the six furlongs dash, her mount was four lengths in front, turning into the stretch Concur looked all over 'a winner, but Donna Hall on Razzum, whipping, booting and riding like she was in the Santa Anita Handicap, caught the tiring pacemaker to win by half a length to pay in the mutuels $12, $4.20, $2.80.

In the feature attraction, the "St. Patrick," Investition came from off the pace to score a handy victory over Wickford Point and Reciprocity, paying $9. Yorkton and Nitrate, the two-horse entry and favorites, finished out of the money.

The Daily Double combination of Double Mary, winner of the second race, and Galla Fox, victor of the third, paid $53.60. The Quinela rewarded its backers of Tee Em Ess and Xon, who finished in that order, $10.60. Apprentice jockey Eugene Gifford was the star of the day, booting home four winners. His longshot was Rare Sir, paying $32.40.

More than 10,000 fans are expected this Sunday at Caliente. The big attraction will be the $5,000 cash prizes given away for a lucky number on your program. The first number drawn will receive $2,500, second $750, third $500, fourth $250 and the next ten unmbars $100 each. Drawing will be held after the last race.

Last Sunday's $500 prize was won by a Negro girl. Besides the big feature, General Manager Walter C. Marty has arranged one of the best programs of races in many weeks. The of goes to "The Scots," who will be guests of the management.

This race is at 1 mile and seventy yards. Supported by "The Pharoah's Handicap" at six furlongs. "The Kirkpatrick," also at six furlongs is an added attraction. Post time will remain at noon. Six of the races are at a mile and over. It will be ag ala day Sunday.

Ponder and Two Lea will soon go postwards. Noor who defeated Citation at Santa Anita, also will be a nearly starter.

Key To City For Oakland Team Fans

With reservations already pouring in to Walter Dix, 980 87th Ave., Oakland, railroad authorities here, and the Chamber of Commerce are expecting a record crowd to arrive on the "Oaks in Los Angeles special train" with this civic minded business man has arranged.

While here a week ago, completing arrangements for the Fourth of July doubleheader, which Oakland faithfuls will watch between the Coast League Oaks, and the Los Angeles "Angels," he declared that the majority of the persons on the interracial special became ardent followers of Art Wilson last year, when he made his first season on the upstate team.

One of several important events scheduled to take place in honor of the visitors, will be presentation of the "Key to the City" by the mayor or other city official, a welcoming party of celebrities, breakfast at the Union Station and a tour through five motion picture studios, through arrangements made by Harry Levette, nationally known Hollywood representative of the Associated Negro Press. Their seats at Wrigley Field will have already been purchased for them by Mr. Dix. A large souvenir book of Los Angeles business places, and points of interest will also be presented each of them to take home.

"Adora's Ritings"

By Adora Lily Ulasi

Serette Marriage Question

Reading an editorial in the papers of last week, I found an article written on this white girl who is married to an African chief. I must make this clear to the American people that British girls are undesirable on African thrones. I am not prejudiced at all, never. I hold no prejudice against other nations except England. Maybe if this white girl was from another nation, we could have considered her a little bit, that is, to have her as the second Queen with a Negro girl in the lead.

ADORA

But to have a girl from Britain? Never! Not in the midst of all these riots going on in Africa. We are not too satisfied with the British and to have a commoner, a mere typist from an ordinary family to enter into an African royal family, we shall deal with all problems accordingly. We can't tolerate any more nonsense from Britain, she has done enough to Africa. We, the African people, want to keep our color and race. We want our children to be brought up with pride and not like British diplomatic hot-tempered imps. Look at Hawaii, her race is dying.

Let the American Negroes look around among themselves, to see what is happening, because of the shame to be called a Negro. I am a Negro—African yes—but I am somebody. I don't object to anyone marrying whom he chooses, but let us first fight for our main objectives; let us realize our position today in world affairs; let us examine ourselves to see actually where we stand.

I also want to correct this impression. Segregation is not practiced in the whole African continent, as the papers said. Egypt is a free country by herself, no segregation is practiced; Liberia is free; Nigeria and the Gold Coast are making long strides towards independence; no segregation is practiced.

I never knew the meaning of segregation until I met it in the south. None of those countries I mentioned above believe or advocate what I may call white man's supremacy. Africans believe that all men are equal, and that no individual has two heads—that is act superior. We are a nation by ourselves with national respect and dignity. We respect every nation, and we want them to do likewise.

Africans care no more for British officers than for their offspring. The part she has already played in Africa has made history, the minds of young Africans are now so bent, that even a young Nigerian boy told a British commission "that he must go." Well, those are young men we want, fearless, outspoken men, in whose hands lies the future generation.

Mrs. Hoxie's Troop was in the lead selling 600 boxes. The whole South Section held second place

YPA Announces Sports Evening At Jefferson

In connection with its mid-Century Membership Drive, the Young Progressives of America, Southern California Region, announces a gigantic sport event to be held at Jefferson High school, 1319 E. 41st Street, on Friday night, March 24.

Horace Alexander and Harriet Jaffee, youthful leaders of the Y.P.A., on announcing this city-wide sports festival also said, "Our organization is composed of both Negro and white members, and we take pride in conducting sports, recreational and cultural activities in a manner, that truly reflects the composition of our organization and the principles for which we fight."

With discrimination being a general practice by all of the major sports leagues," he continued, "as in the American Bowling Congress, the National Invitational Tournament, and with the various other open and subtle forms of eliminating Negro youth from full participation on college teams, the Y.P.A.'s program of non-Jim Crow sports is of special significance in the fight for America (YPA) invites all young people who believe that sports, recreation and culture are to be enjoyed regardless of race, creed, or sex, to join them at the Jefferson High School Gymnasium at 7 p.m., Friday night, March 24 to make for fun with the nets and baskets. There will be a dance afterward.

MOZART'S REQUIEM

We spent the early days of our childhood in the Catholic Church, since that time our work has taken us to many churches. During the interim, the Catholic Church has changed many of its policies; particularly those regarding the use of music within its sanctuary. Sunday night last in the beautiful church of St. Joseph, we were thrilled by the magnificent performance of the energetic Requiem by the Catholic composer, Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. The new symphonic-polyphonic Mass, like the string quartet and symphony, reached its perfection in the hand of Haydn and Mozart. The earlier Masses of both masters share the conception of church music prevalent in their time; namely, that while the general mood follows the meaning of the liturgic text, the setting depends entirely on purely musical reasons, disregarding both prosody and continuity of recitation, with individual syllables or words, or even whole passages, repeated at will.

This young composer did not copy any of the devices of the great church composers; he merely assimilated their spirit, translating it into the modern language of his times. Legend has it that the Requiem was composed at the request of a strange visitor who called on Mozart one evening at dusk. This stranger required the completion of the composition in one week. This being accomplished the stranger returned took the manuscript. One week later Mozart died; aged thirty-five.

Under the capable direction of Mr. Wagner, who with his chorus of over one hundred twenty-five singers produced the works gripping dramatic utterances and seraphic imitations with authentic dignity. The orchestra although at times overcrowding the balance, performed in good taste. We were extremely critical of the poor enunciation of the Latin phrases which soloists Ralph Isabell, bass, and tenor Lloyd Gysin performed. Estelle Marshall and Marni Nixon, sopranos with Darline Miller, alto, were the other soloists. Jewell Smith was the only race member of the group.

EIGHTH NOTES

The Los Angeles Musicians Association will meet Sunday at 5 at Wesley Chapel. Jeannette Jackson, Vice-President and Program chairman has prepared an interesting program. . . . The Albert McNeil Choir appeared Sunday last for the Sphinxmen of Alpha Phi Alpha as well as in Pomona's Congregational Church. . . . We regret our inability to attend charming Dorothy Speights concert last Sunday. We understood the affair was one of the musical highlights of the current series conducted there under the auspices of Music Appreciation Guild. . . . George Robert Garner will conduct Theodore Dubois' The Seven Last Words of Christ in Los Angeles' First Congregational Church on Palm Sunday promptly at 3:30. There will be a chorus of three hundred voices with orchestral and organ accompaniment. We urge your attendance. Mr. Garner has done much toward cementing sound interracial associations. . . . Arthur Leslie Jacobs was guest at the Independent Church last Sunday. He delivered the charge to the Choir which observed Recognition Day. . . . Auditions are in process at Independent Church for soloists to perform in Brahms' Requiem scheduled for Sunday May 28th. . . . Marguerite Chapman will appear in Song Recital Sunday May 14th in Wesley Chapel. . . .

Carmen de Lavallade Debuts as Dancer-In Role of Salome

Carmen de Lavallade, 17-year-old Negro dancer, has become a member of the Lester Horton company, and will make her debut in "Choreo-1950" April 7 at the Dance Theater in the title role of "Salome."

Miss de Lavallade's debut as a modern dancer will mark a distinct step forward in interracial relationships in the arts. A local girl and a student at Los Angeles City College, Miss de Lavallade has been groomed by Horton for the past 2 years.

Besides the stellar proportions of her debut role as the classic wanton, Miss de Lavallade is also taking over other roles in the present repertoire.

As Salome, the young Negro artist will be the central figure in a "choreodrama" that has been described as a "study in the morbid psychology of decadence," based on the famous Oscar Wilde version of the classic.

Negro Repertory Players Here For Three Weeks Belasco Bill

Irwin Parnes will introduce the widely discussed and highly acclaimed American Negro Repertory Players of New York to the West Coast for a three week run at the Belasco Theatre, opening Wednesday, April 19, with a distinguished all Broadway cast in the Patrick Hamilton thriller, "Angel Street."

Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit," smash comedy hit of the New York and London stages, will open on April 26, with actor, director, Milton Wood in the lead role. The Western premiere of three provocative short plays on contemporary American by the Pulitzer Prize dramatist, Eugene O'Neill and Paul Green, will follow on May 3, under the title "Three for Tonight."

Wood, who first won national attention with his portrayal of Eddie in "Anna Lucasta," founded the American Negro Repertory Players to provide broader scope for Negro actors in the field of legitimate drama. The company has won wide acclaim during three years of successful tours throughout the nation. The South Bend (Ind.) Tribune said of the group:

"That the theatre has gone beyond race and color was determined here when the American Negro Repertory Players presented their beautifully mounted, magnificently acted festival of plays. From the opening act to the final curtain, the Company was rounding cheered."

Tickets for the Los Angeles engagement of the American Negro Repertory Players are popularly priced from $1.00 to $2.00 plus tax. Mail orders are now being accepted at the Belasco Theatre.

Martha Graham Features Free Exuberant Dance

By Phyllis Scott

Almost every student and enthusiast of modern dance turned out en masse Friday night to witness the Mary Bran presentation of Martha Graham at the Philharmonic.

The performances during the first half of the program, which included the selections "Diversion of Angels" and "Deaths and Entrances," though tediously long and heavy, were intense and repetitious. The second half was lighter and more entertaining.

It was rather interesting to note the various sizes of the women. The audience could remember the tall dancer for her grace and beautiful form and Yuriko won plaudits for her exuberant, free dancing.

Exhibiting great versatility, the men were at their best in the number on the Purgatorial history of King Lear, as was Yuriko.

Most enjoyable of all was Miss Graham's "Every Soul Is a Circus," in which she starred. This comedy, a circus of a silly woman's life, climaxed an evening with America's foremost exponent of modern dance.

Reginald Kell Two Concerts

Reginald Kell, the celebrated English clarinetist who was recently the subject of feature articles in the "New Yorker" and "Life" magazine, will be featured on the next two Music Guild concerts.

Omahans are still wondering what became of the green cloth coat trimmed with Persian Lamb fur that belonged to a guest from the Fair acre section at the Ever Ready Club dinner of St. John A.M.E. Church on Sunday. What strange happenings among church people.

Mass Attack On Tuberculosis Is Opened Here

Los Angeles County's mass attack against tuberculosis, the largest chest x-ray program yet undertaken, opened yesterday as units of the Los Angeles County X-ray Survey Foundation began operation.

Following brief opening ceremonies at the unit located in Pershing Square, downtown Los Angeles crowds received the first of more than three million free chest x-rays which will be made here before the end of the year.

The x-rays are being made as the first step in a plan which may virtually eliminate tuberculosis as a local public health problem within the next five years. They are used to detect previously unsuspected cases of tuberculosis, particularly those in the early stages when the disease gives no outward warning signs.

Eastiders Get Merit Awards

In recognition of their outstanding work with youth groups 150 Eastside men and women will receive Awards of Merit on Sunday, March 26, at 2:30 p.m. in the Will Rogers Park Community Building, 1423 East 103rd St.

Mrs. Sumner Spaulding, chairman of Youth Services Division and former president of the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Los Angeles, will present the certificates.

Jordan High NOTES

Thespian groups all over Southern California presented their spring plays at Pomona High School, Saturday, February 18, 1950. Jordan was one of the schools participating in the event.

Jordan students presented the last scene of "Ali-Baba and the Forty Thieves." They will also present the whole play here at Jordan.

Mrs. Shields is the sponsor of this production. She comes to Jordan with years of experience, so students in the drama class do not find it hard to act under her supervision. She has supervised plays such as "Ghost Wanted," "Home Sweet Home," "Gypsy Rover." Now she will present "Ali-Baba and the Forty Thieves."

The drama class has a lot of fun while studying their scripts. Some of them are dancing for one of the scenes in "Ali-Baba."

On February 16 the girls division gave an assembly. It was very successful in many ways.

Margie Wiggins gave a talk about good grooming for girls. In her speech she mentioned how to dress on different occasions.

SMOKING

Smoking was a good topic to give to the girls. Each girl of Jordan would take the advice of what it was said in the assembly, there would be a better school in which we come to.

PERFORMANCE

Willie Bess Brown with her all around talent gave a terrific performance. Miss Brown was accompanied by Mrs. Banks.

Val Verde News

The Building Committee of the First AME Church held its first rally Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the church. The main speaker was the minister of the white community church in Newhall, Calif. He was accompanied by his wife and several of the members of his church.

Plans are being made to extend the church building to the boundary line in order to erect a large community center. All the local ministers with members of their congregations were present. The attendance was very large and over $200 was contributed. The Val Verde Park Civic Club, Inc., has pledged a large sum, and Rev. E. L. Johnson, pastor of the church, is looking forward to the ground breaking soon.

Members of the building committee are: Mrs. Hattie Baldwin, chairman; Mrs. Lenora Watson, secretary; Mr. Culpepper, treasurer.

An Easter program is being planned by the Sunday school and choir of the First AME Church for Easter Sunday morning at the church. There will be plenty of Easter eggs for the kiddies. Rev. Johnson will preach the Easter sermon.

The beautiful sunshine has brought many week-end visitors to the homes, the community house, and the park at Val Verde. We welcome them back for the season.

PROF.

HERMAN

TO ASSIST YOU IN MAKING WISE DECISIONS

ARIES

If you were born under this sign, the first sign of the Zodiacal circle, you are a born leader and are happiest when in command. You possess a self-reliant manner and commanding personality and it is not difficult to attract a position of responsibility and authority.

The mind of ARIES individuals is of the impulsive type and they act upon their ideas with great spontaneity, therefore they should cultivate the habit of always thinking prior to acting instead of after they have acted, for nearly all their troubles will be due to this tendency to precipitation.

It is necessary to their happiness in marriage, that their partner be on the same mental and spiritual level as they, for a marriage based upon purely physical attraction would be unendurable to one of this idealistic nature.

For more information regarding your Zodiacal sign, why not write to Prof. Herman today.

T. C.—Dear Prof. Herman: I enjoy your column very much and would like very much for you to help me. Will I be able to return to college this fall?

ANSWER—It is revealed that you are a very intelligent person and your desire is to become a teacher. If you continue saving part of your earnings as you are presently doing, in all probability you may be able to return to college this fall and complete your education.

B. O.—Which planet most closely resembles the earth in size and mass?

ANSWER—Venus is the second planet in order of distance from the sun. Of all the bodies in the solar system, it most resembles the earth.

South Africans Want Free Speech

Reports received by the Council on African Affairs in New York reveal that South Africans of all races are being summoned to a Defend Free Speech Convention against the Nationalist Government's ban on Dr. Y. M. Dadoo, leader of South African Indians, who is prohibited for one year from speaking at or attending any gatherings in the eight main centers of the Union of South Africa.

The ban was imposed on Dr. Dadoo just a few weeks after his return from a visit to Britain, Europe, Indian, and Pakistan, where he traveled to enlist support for the cause of South African Indians.

The Defend Free Speech Convention is jointly convened by the three national liberatory organizations of the non-Europeans, the African National Congress (Transvaal), the Transvaal Indian Congress, the African Peoples Organization (a movement of Colored People) and the Johannesburg District of the Communist Party. "Let Dadoo Speak" is the Convention slogan. National, political, religious, cultural, social, sports, trade union and peasant organizations, student and women's movements will send delegates to the convention which opens in Johannesburg on March 26, 1950.

The Riotous Assemblies Act, passed in 1914 following a strike of European miners, gives the Minister of Justice absolute powers to ban from speaking or deport individuals from any center, and authority also to prohibit any publication or newspaper. There is no appeal to any court or government authority against the Minister's decision. The Act was first used by the Malan Government to impose a similar ban on Mr. Sam Kohn, Z. T.—Will my son marry the teen-age girl he is now seeing?

ANSWER—My Psycho-Mentalist Crystal reveals to me that both your son and the girl are very fond of each other. However, neither is planning on a marriage at this time. Their only interest at the present time is having a good time. I feel that they intend to complete their education.

D. F.—What happened to my watch? Did she take it? How shall I go about getting it back?

ANSWER—I would like very much to help you, but due to the limited amount of space in this column, I am only permitted to answer one question. I suggest that you write in for a private reply. Three questions are answered for 25c, six for 50c, etc. Send your complete name, address and birthdate to me in care of this paper.

Dental plate neglect may be costly to you in health and appearance—
ASK YOURSELF
THESE 6 QUESTIONS

1. Am I nervous and irritable?
If your dental plates are loose—if they gouge your gums, making them SORE—chances are your gums have shrunk. Possibly your MOUTH HAS CHANGED, but your dental plates have not changed. No wonder you become nervous and irritable.
2. Am I suffering from malnutrition?
If you feel TIRED and RUN DOWN—if you seem old beyond your years—possibly you are not getting full value out of the food you eat. If you HATE TO CHEW, because you need new dental plates, it's likely ONLY A PORTION of your food is assimilated into your system.
3. Is my hearing being damaged?
If your bite is not correct due to mouth changes, you may be INJURING your hearing ability. This has been considered a CAUSE for loss of hearing for years. A national magazine recently quoted a leading doctor as follows: "... of the 10,000,000 deaf or hard-of-hearing Americans, bad bite is at least partly to blame in 40 per cent of the cases."
4. Are there new lines in my face?
If your face seems to have AGED due to sunken mouth and cheeks, shrunken gums may be the cause. Sometimes loose dental plates PUSH BACK in the mouth, adding UNSIGHTLY LINES to your face.
5. Do I have a strained appearance?
If the tendons of your neck stand out, and your bite is closed, you may have a DISTORTED FACIAL EXPRESSION. Loose dental plates—out of adjustment—often bring about a strained appearance.
6. Are my dental plates becoming to me?
If you feel SELF CONSCIOUS about how your dental plates look, are they old fashioned or stained? Appearance can be a severe handicap.

New dental plates may be a great help to you—at least it should pay you to see a dentist. If your health and appearance can be improved, think how much more pleasant life may be.

Gems of Thought

"THE WAY"

I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

—Christ Jesus

An era in human history is the life of Jesus, and its immense influence for good leaves all the perversion and superstition that has accrued almost harmless.

—Emerson

The only sound and durable foundation for true fellowship and brotherhood is love for God, and the teachings of the Christ (Jesus) that direct us in love for others.

—Henry Geerlings

The Home Protective Association, the little organization which fought to keep the Laws family in their home on East 92nd street and won, decided in a called meeting last Friday afternoon to back up Mrs. Bessie Woods in her struggle to keep the home she bought at 1116 West 66th street last February. The HPA declared they would insure any legal assistance necessary.

Mrs. Woods told the story to

The 14th Congressional dinner to be held in the Elks auditorium, 4016 South Central avenue, on March 31 at 6:30 p.m. promises to be one of the most magnificent civic events in this section of the city. More than 5000 invitations have been sent out. Those who wish to attend are urged to make their reservations early.

Hon. William L. Dawson, congressman from Illinois, and vice-chairman of the Democratic National Committee, will be the guest speaker.

Mr. Andy Razof, poet and lyricist, has written a poem entitled "Go to Town with Townsend," as the campaign song.

The poem reads as follows:
If you want a man in Congress
Who is really qualified
Who is one of your own people,
And will not have you denied,
Who is honest and courageous
And respected all around
Then go to town with Townsend
He will never let you down!
He's the man to represent you
For he fully knows your needs
And will fight for equal justice,
For all races and all creeds,
Here's your big chance, Negro voter

To vote right and prove to all;
That Negroes in Los Angeles,
This time, are on the ball!

The California Eagle of being constantly annoyed by neighbors ever since she moved to her new home with an elderly uncle, who come to her as soon as she gets home from work in a very sympathetic tone, advice her to leave, that they know she will not be happy there, etc. etc.

It seems to be a new wrinkle in the attempt to outwit the U.S. Supreme Court, which declared restrictive covenants are not enforceable.

The Southwest Property Owners, comprising property owners in the section of the city in which Mrs. Woods resides, held a meeting last Friday evening at 5301 South Western avenue, at which the speakers emphasized the need for greater efforts to combat the rising tide of Negro and other minority groups coming into the "white" residential section.

"The Federal government in deneging its decision, took away the rights of the white man and gave them to Negroes and other minorities," they said bitterly. "Negroes have the same rights now as white people."

Then, in order to get around this decision in some crafty way and yet not fall into the hands of the law, one speaker remarked significantly, that if a flock of birds flies anywhere, and a small bird gets out of line, the larger and stronger birds put them back into line, or "eat them up."

It would all have to be done "legally," however, it was agreed.

Registration Drive

SAN FRANCISCO—Stimulation of a state-wide interracial voter registration drive was underway today, with publication of a 16 page handbook by the California Federation for Civic Unity.

"Every Citizen a Voter" was the theme of the pamphlet, which is to be used by the Federation's 55 supporting organizations as a guide to get the maximum number of people to the polls. Several thousand copies are being distributed throughout California.

Judge Clarke

quirk of fate, one of the lawyers who argued the Alien Land Law case was Loren Miller, who was the attorney in the Sugar Hill case in which the judge held the courts weer without power to enforce racial covenants. Other lawyers appearing for the Japanese litigants were James Purcell, A. L. Wirin and Saburo Kido.

Judge Clarke heard evidence that five sons of Huruye Masaoka, a widow who came to this country from Japan in 1905, had bought a home and vested title in her in order to provide for her in her old age. When the state threatened to forfeit her title to the land which is in Pasadena, the boys sued to quiet her title.

Four of Mrs. Masaoka's surviving sons served in the Army in World War II and all were wounded. Another son was killed in action in France. The boys asserted that they intended to use pension funds to pay for the land and build the home.

"I am satisfied," Judge Clarke said, "that the Alien Land Law is directed against persons of Japanese ancestry solely because of race. It is clear that State legislation which seeks to impair the constitutionally protected right to acquire, own and enjoy real property violates the due process and equal protection clauses of the Fourteenth Amendment. I hold that the Alien Land Law is unconstitutional."

• Mrs. Robeson

ways trust what you read in the newspapers, at least some of them."

The women—and men and children, too—met her and the other delegates to the peace conference at the airplane depots, at the railroad stations, with singing and dancing. Wherever they stopped they spoke at mass meetings arranged for them.

"You are the first people who ever came to see us," they were told again and again. Oh, there had been explorers, missionaries, teachers, tradesmen, businessmen, foreign governments, and troops sent by those governments but "We were the first people who just wanted to drop in for a call," smiled Mrs. Robeson.

And all along the way the people wanted it to be like that. They wanted peace. The trend everywhere, said Mrs. Robeson, behind all the "Iron Curtain" countries is for peace. They think over there that the greatest obstacle to peace is the United States, and point to the arms and military supplies we are sending to Indo China, Indonesia, and Malaya, to say nothing of the constant threat of the atom bomb and the H-bomb this country keeps dangling over their heads.

The conference at Peking, she said, represented 500,000,000 women of the world, who were fighting for peace. She spoke of colonialism, one of the props in the imperial, capitalistic system, as being finished, dead. "All that remains to be done is to bury it."

"But," Mrs. Robeson warned, "in throwing out the foreign governments the natives must be very careful they do not inaugurate a native regime as dictatorial as their foreign masters were."

She told how the women of Madagascar and of the Ivory Coast in Africa banded together to resist the French and British governments, how they went on a sit-down strike outside the jail where their husbands were confined, how they threw themselves down in the streets to prevent the trucks from taking their husbands to prison. And they won! The trucks didn't dare go over the bodies of those women in the streets!

The People's government in China is solid, declared Mrs. Robeson, and will not crack-up, no matter what you may read to the contrary. Land reform is the greatest thing that has happened there. When the People's Army marched through China, they seized the land and divided it equally among all—rich and poor alike. Everyone in China has a home now. Everyone had a chance to go to school. Everyone has a job. Women are on an equality basis with the men.

"Women are people," Mrs. Robeson said she was told. "People are citizens. Citizens are equal." And that's all there was to it.

Perhaps the most startling story of China told by this ambassador of goodwill was that of the Los Angeles nursery. Some years ago in 1942 a number of women of Los Angeles heard of children in China who were destitute. They collected money for them, and a nursery named "The Los Angeles Nursery" was founded in a cave near Yunan. In 1946 when Chiang's army approached, the nursery moved north, traveling secretly by night. When Peiping was liberated, they returned. "And every child that had been entrusted to their care, they brought back safe and well," Mrs. Robeson reported.

Mrs. Robeson stressed the need of friendship with China, of trade to solidify that friendship. William Lawrence, regional director of the I.L.W.U., spoke especially of that need in order to supply jobs to the people of America. He urged that we bombard our representatives in Washington with letters and telegrams until that trade is established. Bill Elconin, of the UE workers, made a similar plea.

The chorus of the California Labor School sang several selections, and Si-Lan Chen, noted dancer, captivated her audience with two interpretative dances. George Wong, of San Francisco, introduced Mrs. Robeson, and remarked feelingly, "The hands of the people of China are offered to you in friendship. We ask for yours in return."

The meeting was sponsored by the Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy. Mrs. Jeanette Orel acted as chairman.

Wherry Demands Street Paving For Southeast

Public support is being sought by Charles D. Wherry, civic leader and prominent in legal circles for a demand he has made to the City Council and the Board of Supervisors to pave dirt and muddy streets in the Watts area and in other parts of the city.

Wherry requests civic leaders and interested organizations to call upon the City Council and the Supervisors to act impartially in paving sections of the city inhabited by minority groups.

Fun and Food Frolic Financial Success

Several thousand dollars worth of groceries and a contribution of $3,597.58 in hard cash was the sum total for the Food and Fun Frolic sponsored by the UAW Chrysler Local 230 last Friday evening.

"But the Chrysler strike," warns Local 230, "did not end with the Frolic. Welfare alone is running $1500 per day, and we must have more food and money."

John F. Allard is president of Local 230, and Gene T. Malcolm, recording secretary.

The Chrysler workers are on strike nationally for 10c an hour increase, either in direct wages or in pensions. There are 1500 members in Local 230 UAW, and all are on strike.

TO PROTEST ARRESTING OF VICTIM

The California Eagle and several community organizations will launch a drive this week to force the police department to release George L. Shenvair from the prison ward in General Hospital, and place him under proper medical care in the hospital without police guard.

Shenvair, 56, is the garage attendant at the Voltaire Apartments on North Crescent Heights Drive who was shot by plainclothes policemen last Friday after he had intervened to save a tenant of the apartment building from a possible fatal beating from a man who had followed him into the building's garage.

The tenant, Milton H. Frankenthal, 71, has incurred the ire of 28-year-old Robert Thomas who was driving on Sunset Boulevard with a girl friend, Gertrude Mertes, 28, of 3822 1/2 Gregory Way. According to Frankenthal, the youth was driving with one hand while he cuddled his girl friend with the other. The elderly man honked his horn when Thomas' erratic driving impeded his progress.

Angered, Thomas followed

Told 'We Don't Use Negroes'

"Sorry. We don't use Negroes." This was the answer Paul Scott, 5714 Duarte St., received when he answered an ad. for a salesman by the California Medical Foundation, of 4757 So. Broadway, Rm. 211.

Mr. Scott is a fine-appearing young man. Well dressed. He is a native of Kansas, but has lived in Los Angeles 12 years. He is well educated, a graduate of Kansas State College, and for several years was superintendent of the Fred C. Nelles School for Boys.

He was well qualified for the job in every way except in color. The ad. for salesman was in one of the metropolitan papers. Mr. Scott applied for the position. The interviewer as soon as he saw him said, "Oh, I'm sorry, we don't use Negroes."

When Mr. Scott told his story to The California Eagle, an Eagle reporter called the Medical Foundation by phone, and remarked that she knew a young man well qualified for the position. The man at the other end of the line was very much interested.

Minorities Ask Investigation Of L. A. Police Discrimination

SACRAMENTO—The California State Assembly Rules Committee

voted out a "do pass" resolution this week calling for an investigation of police discrimination against minority groups in Los Angeles. The resolution was introduced by Assemblyman William Rosenthal of Los Angeles. Rosenthal acted following the receipt by him of letters of complaint from Negro and Mexican national organizations pointing out unwarranted invasion of their civil rights by police.

A long series of police out-

Gus Hawkins Honored for Outstanding Work

The Southern California women's division of the American Jewish Congress last week paid tribute to Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins "for his outstanding contribution in the field of better group relations."

The tribute was conferred as a highlight of the division's annual donors' dinner, attended by a capacity guest list of 800, in the Biltmore Bowl. The dinner climaxed six weeks of intensive activity by more than a score of women's division chapters.

Hawkins, assemblyman from the 62nd district since 1935, was absent on legislative business in Sacramento, and the plaque presented by the American Jewish Congress.

K. K. K. on Front Door of Mission

That the KKK is everywhere was evidenced recently when the Rev. John H. Owens, of 1478 W. 37th street, received a letter from the Fathers of St. Edmund, oblates of the Sacred Heart of Jesus and of the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Mother Mission House, of Selma, Ala.

Rev. Norman E. Lambert, S.S.E., who wrote the letter, said, "We were astounded recently when we found some KKK signs plastered on the front door of the mission church and the Mother Mission House here in Selma, advising us that the 'KKK is looking at you.'"

Rev. Lambert writes, however, "We are not worried. Just continue as you have done in the past, to pray for the success of your missions."

Dr. Robinson to Speak

Dr. E. I. Robinson, president, Los Angeles Branch National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will give a detailed report of the National Emergency Civil Rights Mobilization Conference, recently held in Washington, D. C. at the First A.M.E. Church, 8th and Towne avenue, Sunday, Feb. 12, at 3:30 p.m.

Four thousand delegates from 33 states launched an intensive drive at that time aimed at arousing public support for the civil rights in their home districts and states.

Assembly Votes $3,000,000 For Child Centers

Child Care Centers will continue with State aid if the budget passed by the Assembly earlier this week, is okayed by the Senate. Simultaneously with the passing of the 1950-51 budget, the lower house introduced a new tax bill that is designed to raise two and a half to three million dollars a year.

What the ultimate strength of the child care centers will be is not clear since the amount of money allotted for their support was pared from six million to three million dollars. Because the amount voted is exactly half of the sum estimated as necessary, there is some concern that the program may have to be curtailed.

The budget was passed in the Assembly by a vote of 60 to 13.

Name Brazier Acting Director Of Local Urban League Branch

Floyd E. Covington, Executive Director of the Los Angeles Urban League, a Community Chest agency, for 19 years, has been appointed Racial Relations Advisor for the Federal Housing Administration, according to Attorney Bernard S. Jefferson, president of the Board of Directors of the League.

Mr. Covington, who has an enviable record in the field of human relations and has gained a national reputation, has directed the Urban League for 19 years. He has been granted a year's leave of absence.

Wesley R. Brazier, who has headed the Industrial Relations Department, for two years, has been named Acting Executive Director. Mr. Brazier distinguished himself several years ago when he directed a study of race relations in three Southern States.

Attorney Jefferson said the Board agreed to release Mr. Covington because it feels that the opportunity to improve the restricted "housing pattern" in California is of such vital importance that the league is willing to sacrifice for the good which can be derived.

community. "This amount," says Dr. E. I. Robinson, president, "should be collected before the opening date of the Campaign for 20,000 members, which is set for Sunday, April 16."

Dr. Robinson declared also that he has no doubt but that business and professional people and organizations of the community will be pleased to cooperate in this effort to make permanent our present office and to make effective our services of ameliorating inter-group friction, protection of the rights of minority groups who seek employment justice and status becoming the American citizens. "No person with the intelligence required by the members of these groups," he says, "will find it easy to say no to the Advance Gifts Committee during this and next week."

COMPETITION

HOLLYWOOD—Lex (Tarzan) Barker turns many a feminine head when he's on the screen but, in real life, Cheta the chimpanzee draws the gals. During filming of Sol Lesser's "Tarzan and the Slave Girl" for RKO Radio, 47 women visitors asked to see Tarzan, almost 200 wanted to look at Cheta.

Gus Hawkins

Congress was accepted for him by his wife.

His acceptance speech, read by Mrs. Hawkins, stressed the necessity for all citizens to take an active interest in politics.

"How we live, where we live, and if we live," he said, "depends, and is going to depend, on our interest and participation in politics. And we who have left this field to others had better wake up to an inquiry about the men to whom we have left our lives."

The quality of our statesmanship has not always kept pace, he said, with the nation's phenomenal physical growth. "Never before," he declared, "has this deficiency been so evident and important as now, when our scientists talk in terms of H-Bombs, and a large section of politicians still talk about a 'a white, Gentile, native born American.'"

The donors' dinner this year celebrated the tenth anniversary of the Southern California women's division of the AJC. History of the group was dramatized in a script written by Playwright Lewis Allan.

Taking a prominent part in the gala ceremonies were Mrs. Lou Kerner, dinner chairman; Mrs. Edward Harris, division president; Mrs. Fred C. Pollock, president; Alfred L. BETAION TAO Pacific Region women's president; Alfred L. Buckman, Southern California AJC president; and Rabbi Leonard A. Greenberg, the organizations Pacific Regional executive secretary.

The Allan script, which reaffirmed the division's 10-year-old program for achieving democracy was narrated by Actors Rose Hobart and Stanley Waxman, with musical portions by Cantor Julius Blackman accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Greene on the violin and piano.

ADDED TO STAFF—Eddie Burbridge, who once wrote sports for the California EAGLE, has returned to this paper as its sports editor. Nationally known as a capable sportswriter, his addition to our staff is another indication that the EAGLE is sincere in its effort to provide the best journalistic talent available.

Loyola Student Broadcasts Prize Oration

Walter Norwood, Negro student at Loyola Catholic High School, was awarded second honors in an elocution contest at the school recently.

Norwood, who is a freshman, later delivered the prize-winning oration over Radio Station KFMV.

Collections of alcoholic beverage excise taxes in February, 1949, based upon January sales by wholesalers and manufacturers, amounted to $1,091,887, four-fifths of which were derived from distilled spirits sales and the remaining $215,318 from beer and wine sales.

Minorities

rages stemming from the notorious "Sleepy Lagoon" case, and including the unwarranted slaying of Augustin Salcido and Herman Burns by police, have kept the Negro and Mexican-American communities in a state of constant intimidation.

Brutal arrests and beatings, and continuing "roasting" by the police have been the basis for protests registered with Mayor Bowron and the Chief of Police. The recent mass arrest and brutal beating of 50 Mexican Americans who were guests at a baby shower in the Maravilla district is pointed out as an example of ruthless persecution by the Sheriff's office.

Only last week, two plainclothes officers shot and critically wounded George Shenvair after he had rescued a tenant in the building where he is employed from a brutal beating from a man who had followed the tenant into his garage.

Rosenthal's resolution calls upon city and county authorities to investigate the reported abuses and it requests the Assembly Committee on Crimes and Corrections to conduct an independent investigation.

RECORD SET

A new record was set last year by the Division of Fish and Game when 98,633 upland game birds were released from State game farms and holding pens. It has been revealed by Fish and Game Commissioner William J. Silva.

RESIDENTS OF LOS ANGELES are fortunate in having an office that practices New Yorker Technique—a haven for those who suffer—where the cause of Toxic Poison may be removed—where relief of constipation—an elimination, may be obtained in 20 minutes.

NOTE: Toxic poisons cause practically all ills of mankind. When toxic poisons or that which causes disease is removed the result is so effective in producing quick results that the change experienced by the sufferer is hardly less marked than that felt by the prisoner when the ball and chain have been removed from his ankles. It has to be experienced to be properly understood and appreciated.

New Yorker Technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine. In simple language—it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that the contents may be passed by normal effort.

Dr. Brinkley D.C., has the only office that is permitted to practice New Yorker Technique. He has no branch offices.

DR. BRINKLEY HAS A STAFF OF MORE THAN 120 PEOPLE, 18 LICENSED DOCTORS AND MORE THAN 60 SPECIALLY TRAINED NURSES AND TECHNICIANS. He has his own private laboratory and complete laboratory facilities, the finest equipment—30 private treatment rooms. IT IS THE LARGEST INSTITUTION OF ITS KIND IN THE ENTIRE WORLD—NO EXCEPTIONS.

This notable organization is outstanding—without equal—and must be seen to be appreciated.

Dr. Brinkley says: To protect the sick against the wrong diagnosis, it is my belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made. In all cases tests should include complete blood count, urinalysis, microscopic examination and study of stool. If diabetes is suspected a fasting blood sugar test should be given; for liver disorders—various liver functional test given; for infectious diseases—sedimentation rate given; plus other laboratory procedures.

ALL OF MY PATIENTS, UNDER TREATMENT, GET LABORATORY TESTS AT NO EXTRA CHARGE. I will enjoy explaining New Yorker Technique to you without obligation, 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. For my trial treatment I charge $3, which includes various laboratory tests.

Call or write for FREE 120 page book. This book is outstanding. It is a most comprehensive explanation of "the true cause of disease." Book will be sent by mail—no salesman—no phone calls—no obligation. No follow-up letters.

School Girl, 15 Gives Birth In Class Room

RIVERHEAD, N. Y.—Latest reports indicate that the baby born to a 15 year old girl here and which spent the first half hour of its life lying naked in a freezing snow storm, is progressing normally.

The infant's mother, frightened and alone, gave birth to the 6 pound 1 ounce girl in an empty class room at Riverhead Junior High School during a recess period. The principal of the school found out about the birth and called police. The young mother was found sitting in a class room with other students. She led police to the new-born baby which was wailing lustily in the snow.

A 28 year old youth has been arrested and charged with a morals offense against the girl whose name is withheld because of her age.

By C.A.B.

Judge Turney Fox's courtroom on the 20th floor of the City Hall this week has furnished the setting for a tragedy drama, the cast consisting of the 16 county employees who refused to sign a Loyalty Oath. They refused on the ground that they had been loyal Americans living up to the letter of the Constitution. As county employees they show they are honest, conscientious workers, never betraying any trust imposed upon them in the line of duty.

Representing the 16 discharged persons before the bar of justice, is tall, graying, dignified, soft-spoken John McTurnin.

John McTurnin is a lawyer who himself believes in justice for all people alike. He has in this case endeavored to convince Judge Fox that here is a case in which the defense rather than the prosecution is upholding the law laid down by the 1st and 14th amendments to the Constitution.

From the Atlantic seaboard to California, people like the 16 persons on trial for defending their right to think and speak according to the dictates of their own conscience, are asking, "What is this Loyalty Oath?"

Perhaps the best answer to this question is: "New Jersey Special. Loyalty oath for political candidates thrown out by State Supreme Court. Said the court: There is an oath in the State constitution. No other is needed."

And "New York. Feinberg law aimed at teachers—out on its ear. State Supreme Court, perhaps with one eye cocked at the Los Angeles County affidavit, listing 142 organizations as verboten, says of it, "This is guilt by association with a vengeance."

The Los Angeles County employees' case was the first of its nature to go to the U. S. Supreme Court, but that august body, which is supposed to be the last word in making such decisions,

Man Arrested for Interfering with Police, Dismissed in Court

Thomas P. Walton, arrested Saturday, February 25th for alleged interference with a police officer in the performance of his duty, had two charges which were preferred by the officer in question, dismissed against him in the Municipal Court of Los Angeles, California, on Friday morning the 24th of March. City Attorney Whiteside stated to the Court that they had no evidence sufficient to convict him of either of the two charges that had been filed against him, and for that reason they were making a motion for the dismissal of the case.

The motion was granted and Mr. Walton was dismissed.

Walton's arrest arose out of an altercation between a bootblack and the officer, whose name we did not get, when the officer threatened to kick the bootblack if he did not shut up. Mr. Walton happened to be in the vicinity and started taking down names and addresses of people to use against the officer as possible witnesses. The officer objected to this, according to our information and Walton was placed under arrest.

Walton said that the reason he took the names was because of a meeting of Negro citizens in answer to a protest of police brutality held in the Newton Street Police Station by Chief of Police Worton, at which time citizens were advised when they saw any evidence of police brutality, to make a notation of the time and place, persons present, and report the matter to him. Walton did, and got arrested.

The case was handled by Attorney H. L. Richardson.

Former CIO VP Before US Court

The case of Charles A. Doyle, formerly international vice-president of the CIO Chemical Workers will be argued before the United States Court of Appeals on April 4 at 11 a.m., it was announced for Protection of Foreign Born. Mr. Doyle was sentenced on August 15, 1949, to serve one year and fined $500 for making "false and misleading statements" in crossing the border from Canada to the United States.

Mr. Doyle, 44, a native of Scotland, of Irish descent, has lived in the United States since 1923. He is married and has four American-born children and two grandchildren. On January 9, 1948, Mr. Doyle went to Windsor, Canada, to attend a meeting of the executive board of the CIO Chemical Workers. He was in possession of a border crossing card. On January 9, 1948, when he attempted to return to the United States he was barred.

Mr. Doyle remained in Canada until February 18, when he returned to the United States and voluntarily surrendered to the immigration authorities at 70 Columbus Avenue, New York City. He was arrested and held without bail for deportation, on Ellis Island. After participating with four others in a hunger strike he was released on bail.

In March 1949, Mr. Doyle was indicted by the Grand Jury in Buffalo, New York. He was tried and convicted on August 2, at Jamestown, N. Y., and sentenced on August 15.

Mrs. Robeson Tells IPP Audience in San Pedro Colonialism Is Failure

In spite of the storm and the rain which made virtual rivers flowing through the gutters of the streets, the Yugo-Slav Hall in San Pedro was well filled with an interested and enthusiastic audience to listened attentively last Friday evening to the message brought by Mrs. Paul Robeson.

son, speaking on China particularly and the women of the world in general.

The meeting was held under the auspices of the Progressive Party of San Pedro. Mrs. Charlotte A. Bass, editor and publisher of The California Eagle, and vice-president of the IPP, presided.

Mrs. Robeson stressed especially the fact that the colonial regimes of the various countries in Asia and in Africa, are falling and that they soon will be abolished entirely. She said women advocate picketing the ships of the U.S. which are taking arms and military supplies to Europe. These supplies, she said, will be eventually used against the people in the colonies of those countries. Everybody believes that.

She described graphically the conference for peace held in Peking, China, which she attended and whose delegates represented something like 500,000,000 women of the world.

The most interesting change in China, and the one which produced the greatest results, was land reform. The land, the cattle, and the products of the soil were distributed equally among the people of China, when the people's army captured the country and took over the government. This affected the entire country, since 90 per cent of Justice Dept. Violates Law, Rev. Durr Says

In a letter to President Truman, Rev. John W. Durr, Jr., Chairman of the Board of Directors of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, called on the President to remove the Immigration and Naturalization Service from the Department of Justice and to establish the Service as an independent agency of the United States Government. It was announced this week.

Rev. Durr's request was based on the decision of the United States Supreme Court of February 20th holding that the Justice Department must hold deportation hearings in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act, as a result of which hundreds of deportation hearings in all parts of the country will have to be held over again.

"The Department of Justice has been found guilty of violating the law as passed by Congress," Rev. Durr stated in his letter to the President, "and ignoring basic democratic principles in its treatment of non-citizen residents of this country."

Marion Downs Gives Concert At Harvard

Marions Downs, widow of the late Rev. Carl Downs, pastor of Scott's Chapel ME Church, Pasadena, before he became president of Wiley College, Texas, writes enthusiastically of her tour through the mid-west.

"Things are happening in such a wonderful way," she says. "My concert the other week at the famed Harvard University was such a terrific success. I am just coming back from three wonderful weeks on the road in Michigan, Nebraska, Missouri, Indiana, and Illinois. All were glorious experiences. What a joy it is to sing for college audiences. So cordial, so appreciative, so genuine."

Mrs. Downs began singing before her husband passed away, and now is considered top billing. Her concert sponsored by the Wesley Foundation at Harvard University included selections from Mozart, Handel, Brahms, Strauss, Chausson, Bizet, and many others.

Mrs. Downs' mother, Mrs. Jackson, of Baltimore, Md., is a prominent leader in the NAACP.

Peace-Leadership Stressed At 50th Anniversary Of Sam Huston Alumni Meeting

"Throw out national leaders who want war and support those who do not want war," was the advice given by John M. Lee of

The California Eagle, the principal speaker Sunday afternoon when the local chapter of the Samuel Houston College Alumni Association celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the college, at Bowen Memorial Methodist Church.

Lee stated that it is his firm belief that no man should be another man's master and declared that Christians should prefer to die for God and right rather than for country. He closed his address on "Peace and Leadership" by challenging the Association to raise money for their college. Support it in every way but also give time to such matters as working for an effective F.E.P.C. and protesting such undemocratic things as the arresting of 50 Mexican American at a baby shower.

The meeting was chaired by Samuel P. DeBose, Alumni president, who traced the college from the days when it was scarcely more than a hope to its actual founding and development, through its first president R. S. Lovinggood to a real college, which has since justified itself by the men and women it has produced, including Rev. Carl Downs, who died shortly after being recalled to the presidency of the college.

The music was excellent, being rendered by Amanda Haynes Nelson, contralto; Andrea Greenwood, a talented young woman pianist who incidentally is blind and tenor selections by one of the deceased presidents sons, R. Perman Lovinggood. A large audience of alumni and members of the church were in attendance.

MARION DOWNS, lyric soprano, autographing programs at her recent concert at the University of Illinois in Urbana. Before a large, enthusiastic audience of students and faculty, Mrs. Downs appeared and because of popular demand responded with six encores. (See story).

"But," hesitated the reporter. "I want you to know this young man is a Negro."

"Oh," came over the wire, followed by a shocked silence. Then, "I'm sorry, but we don't use Negroes. It isn't our policy," said the voice, trying to crawl out of an embarrassing position. "That's the policy of the Foundation. We serve only a white clientele. And it couldn't serve our purpose to employ a Negro as a salesman."

"But isn't yours an American institution?" inquired the Eagle reporter. "And shouldn't every American be considered in your service?"

"Yes, that's true," admitted the voice. "But, you see—" and he

Along the Political Front

China needs us. And we need what China in imports can send across to us. And this poses the $64 question. Why do we, a rich but Christian nation, refuse to establish a trade relation with China.

The people of China and the people of this country can't understand why we refuse to trade with New China. People everywhere in the world are entitled to their own opinions and their political beliefs. We have repeated this truth again and again as part of our American doctrine of democracy.

Then why militate against the People's Republic of China? It is definitely the government of that country now. And although the old regime of Chiang Kai-shek is still represented in the United Nations, it is the opinion of political observers on the world-wide front, that Chiang's representation in the UN is numbered. He should have stepped out long ago, if he could have sensed the trend of things. That he is still clinging to the old wreck is but an example of tenacity, encouraged perhaps by a most powerful member of the UN. We blush to say that country is our own.

We also blush to say Chiang's forces have attacked the Chinese people, they have strafed them with airplanes, they had shot at them—with bullets made in the United States, with airplanes made in our airplane factories, piloted by men taught in American schools.

Yet, in spite of all this, China is willing to forget and to engage in trade that will help us and help her. America needs this trade badly. The longshoremen, the sailors along the Pacific Coast need the jobs this trade will provide. The men and women in the interior also need the jobs that always accrue when there is a brisk business or trade in any other part of the country.

Part of the work of all progressives in the political front is to see that our representatives in Congress grant this trade with New China.

On the home front there is the Mundt-Nixon bill, the most vicious anti-democratic bill that has ever been proposed.

Last year in California aroused citizens defeated the Mundt-type bills authored by Jack B. Tenney. Not one of his proposed bills was adopted by the Legislature. The people of Maryland, of Michigan, of Illinois, of Washington, and New York did likewise.

But what was done on a state level must now be done nationally. Here is just a bit of what that intolerable law proposes to do.

Senators, judges, teachers, laborers, or housewives, yes, even children, in concert or individually, could be jailed for 10 years by daring to discriminate against reaction. They could be jailed summarily for merely criticizing the government. They could be jailed without knowing their crime. And 3 designated men with inquisitorial power would discover untold "heresies." They would be "The Subversive Activities Board." They could arrogantly rebuke our rights to speak and assemble freely!

By comparison The Alien and Sedition Acts were minor administrative writs. But what a precedent this Act of Tyranny sets! The Mundt-Nixon Bill would destroy the Bill of Rights. It would subvert our liberties, nullify our Constitutional Government, and strike at Democracy everywhere! Let all of us protest! Let a wave of public indignation submerge this disaster act!

This bill must be defeated on the home front, as trade with China must be won on the foreign field.

Elephant Kills Boy. Must Die

Dolly, the circus elephant who crushed to death 5-year-old Edward Rogers while the little school boy fed her peanuts, must pay with her own life for the crime.

There is wide speculation as to whether Dolly realized that a caress with her big trunk meant death or a huge hug for the little lad who meant to be kind.

For her crime, whether intentional or accidental, Dolly must pay with her life.

However, the case of Dolly, while it is not paradoxical, reminds one of a decision rendered last week in that same section wherein a man who helped to deliberately kill three Negro children was given life imprisonment for his share in the crime.

And there is the case of Wesley Robert Wells, San Quentin prisoner, who while engaged in a free-for-all fight at San Quentin, when a guard struck him on the head and knocked him down, heaved a cuspidor which landed on the prison guard.

For this act Wells has been condemned to death in the gas chamber.

The elephant gets death because she actually committed murder—killed an innocent little school boy.

Wells gets the gas chamber not because he killed—he did not even injure the guard seriously—but just because he threw that cuspidor at a guard. California law says you must not strike a prison guard. So whether accidental or intentional, Wells fares like the elephant—gets death as his due.

The Southern white man who killed three small Negro children gets life in prison.

We condone neither act. Always our contention is that the law should be meted out straight and sharp, with no concessions for race, color, or religion. For such is the path and the only course that leads to true democracy.

But we just can't help comparing the difference.

A Sour Note

The editor of The Daily News says in his Wednesday, March 29 editorial, that humanity at home and elsewhere in the world is afflicted with a wide range of problems for which there is no apparent solution.

Listen to this pray of words: Mr. Boddy further states in a sort of pathetic swing "The basic problem, of course, is the fact that mass man — 2,250,000,000 people — is struggling for survival. We call the struggle world chaos."

"And of course," says The Daily News editor in the same pathetic tone, "of immediate danger to our civilization is the threat of imperialistic conquest by the forces of Communism. This has already embroiled us in a cold war — and there is widespread fear that it may expand into hot war."

Editor Boddy, the people you are supposed to be speaking for under the guidance of Franklin D. Roosevelt were moving in the direction of a peaceful world. We were building a firm friendship between the western and eastern divisions of our world. We were certainly not inviting a row with Russia. We were building homes for our people, making jobs on work projects. We were building for peace, not for war.

At the death of Roosevelt, the only man could and would have carried forward the Roosevelt program, was Henry A. Wallace. But that was not to the liking of Editor Boddy, Editor McCormick, the New York Times, and most of the metropolitan papers of the country, and of Wall Street.

What you wanted and what you are getting is an un-American Activities Committee, a Taft-Hartley measure that splits up labor, a Loyalty Test, and a rip-smorting Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy investigating from bottom to top U. S. officials. Nobody trusts anybody. Confusion is created such as never before was known in the world.

Of course you, and all like you must have a scape goat. That goat is Russia.

The people of this country are not worried about the sort of government Russia is building. We want peace.

We ask our government to open trade negotiations with China. To send food and not ammunition to the starving countries of Europe.

These are the things the people of America want—peace, security, jobs, homes, health, and happiness. We have worked for them. We have struggled for them. We are looking to the officials of our country to secure them to us. We trusted President Roosevelt. But he has gone. The others have failed. What will you do?

A Trilogy

A MAN

A white man looked
On a black man's face
And saw his image
Mirrored there—
Saw gospel written
In sterling truth;
That black and white
Are one—just one.

SURRENDER

I looked into a pair of eyes, and
Like magnets in disguise,
Before I even was aware,
They stole my heart and layed
It bare.

I've hid in citadels of books;
Stationed guards of anger and reproach;

But even armored indignation
Will retreat,
When a pair of pleading eyes
Tease my mind, and insist that I surrender—even tenderness.

LEAVES

Leaves, defiant leaves!
Millions of strong leaves,
Breathing the breath
Of prophetic gale;
Suddenly, a mighty wind
Whips millions and billions
Of bold, angry leaves in Rampant tornado upheaval;
Till the very earth trembles
From majestic tempest purge
Of fierce winds, angry leaves,
And protesting useless things.

The Urals and Siberia

Just west of Magnitogorsk lies the territory of the Bashkir Autonomous Soviet Socialist Republic, one of the five autonomous republics that cluster around Tataria. (The others are the Mari, Mordva, Chuvash, and Udmurt.) Bashkiria, with its capital at Ufa (246,000) is the largest in size and population. It had 3,150,000 people in 1939, before the influx of refugees, some of whom have remained permanently. The western portion is a hilly plain; the eastern, forested mountains. It is rich in petroleum, iron ore, manganese, copper and gold. Its machine-building, wood-chemical and oil industries are new, while the ancient Belortsk steel mill and the Balmak copper refinery have been modernized and greatly expanded. The old railway shops at Ufa have been converted into a locomotive plant.

Collective farming has brought higher yields and blooded cattle to the Moslem farmers of Bashkiria, formerly poor and ignorant. They grow wheat, rye, oats, fodder-grasses, flax, and the sunflower for its oilseeds, and keep bees. Bashkiria is one of Russia's chief sources of mutton, beef, and dairy products. As in the Tatar Republic, education is now on a high level. There are six colleges and technical schools, as well as five museums, fourteen scientific institutions and an equal number of permanent theater companies, all established since 1917.

Southernmost of the regions of Urals is the Oblast named after Valerii Chkalov, the great pioneer transpolar aviator who flew non-stop from Moscow to Seattle in 1937. This area is not mountainous, hardly even hilly, but underlying it is a continuation of the geological strata and the mineral wealth of the mountains to the north. Its iron ore, nickel, copper, gold, coal, combustible shale, salt and phosphates have led to its rapid development despite the droughty summers and bitterly cold, windy winters. Industry is centered at the city of Chkalov. Great herds of beef cattle graze on the open plains of the region.

The Ural-Kuzbass Combine Western Siberia

Industry in both the Urals and Siberia was virtually non-existent until the decision, in June, 1930, to launch the Ural-Kuzbass Combine. This was a plan to use the iron ore of Magnitogorsk in the Urals and the coking coal of Kuzbass (the Kuznetsk Bowl) in Siberia, 1500 miles to the east by rail—as far as from London to Moscow. The plan was to build two huge steel mills, one at each of these two sources of the primary raw materials. The long haul was to be made feasible by keeping freight cars full in both directions.

This plan was carried out. By 1939 there had also been developed great coal resources at Karaganda, over 600 miles nearer to the Urals than the coal of Kuzbass. Iron deposits only a hundred miles south of Kuzbass were also discovered. During the war, additional coal deposits were found right in the Urals. Thus the two poles of this enormous project became less dependent on each other.

From 1940 to 1944, annual output of the combined regions rose 22 per cent in iron ore, 47 in pig iron, 43 in steel, and 45 in rolled steel. This means that in 1944 there was produced about 7,800,000 metric tons of pig iron and 10,000,000 of steel. Each area, the Urals and Siberia, became in wartime a producer not only of basic industrial materials, but of a wide variety of machinery, munitions and consumers' goods. None of these had ever been produced there previously.

Western Siberia, closely resembling Canada, is the huge flat territory from the Urals through the Kuzbass to the Yenisei River. It has been in Russian possession for over 300 years, but due to the serf's inability to leave his land and his owner, settlement on a large scale did not begin until after the abolition of serfdom in 1861. Moreover, the first, and until the last decade, the only railroad, was not completed until the turn of the century, fifty years after America's pioneer transcontinental line. A second line is now being completed a couple of hundred miles to the south, running from Magnitogorsk to Stalinsk in the Kuzbass.

Western Siberia is vastly rich in mineral resources, particularly in the Kuzbass. It also possesses huge tracts of fertile farmland and great timberlands into which farming can be extended by clearing. There are also immense marshlands which it is planned some day to drain. Work has already begun on one huge tract of 1,250,000 acres in the vicinity of Barabino. The first 25,000 acres were cleared in 1945 by the efforts of local farmers, who then began the digging of a 25-mile long canal which will enable another 125,000 to be brought under cultivation.

The development of the resources of western Siberia resulted in a 50 per cent increase in population from 1926 to 1939. Nevertheless, the population of western Siberia by the latter date was only 9,000,000, concentrated along the 1500-mile right-of-way of the Trans-Siberian railroad.

As in the Urals, the war brought an increase of at least 50 per cent in population. Aside from war materials, many other industries have been founded since 1939. These include aluminum, iron, alloys, tin, bismuth, synthetic gasoline (from coal), synthetic rubber, sulphuric acid, aniline dyes, plastics and textiles (from the cotton of Central Asia). Turbines, excavators, turret lathes—the basic machines tool of modern industry, and longitudinal planers are also made.

The biggest city is Novosibirsk, on the Trans-Siberian railroad at the eastern end of the great forested plainlands. It had 400,000 people in 1939 and has 700,000 today. Its industrial expansion, like that of the Urals cities we have cited, was based on the installation of new blast furnace capacity. Another important city is Omsk, which boomed from 280,000 in 1939 to 514,000 in 1944. Stalinsk, site of the Kuzbass steel mill, is southeast of Novosibirsk. Its furnace capacity was also increased during the war. Kemerovo, capital of a new Oblast set up during the war to embrace the Kuzbass area alone, Prokopyevsk, also in the Kuzbass, and Tomsk, on the Trans-Siberian, each had more than 100,000 people before the wartime boom. Kuzbass coal production rose 35 per cent during the war, steel by 500,000 tons a year at Stalinsk. Electric power capacity doubled from 1941 to 1945.

Western Siberia is important as cattle country. It is also one of the main bread-baskets, and includes a large portion of the 5,000,000 acres of virgin soil put under the plow east of the Volga during the war. The potato crop here rose 2½ times, and other vegetables tripled in wartime.

LABOR ON THE MARCH

OLD MOTOR IN A NEW CHASSIS

These are not happy days for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Weakened from years of shortsighted and timid national leadership, the Association is alarmingly impotent on the branch level. Representing as it has for years, the strongest expression of unity among the Negro people, the NAACP is expected to move forward on the struggle for full citizenship advances.

This it has failed to do, and the failure is attributable to the confused and narrow views held by a band of self-seekers who manage to get into positions of influence, and then behave like the latter-day Uncle Toms they are.

In Los Angeles, the NAACP branch has managed to be out of step with events on almost every occasion. Seemingly operating for the none-to-flattering purpose of undertaking membership campaigns that don't quite come off, the branch is more noted for its hesitancy than its militancy.

A case in point is the recent request made by the United Public Workers Union, local 9, for permission to send a representative to the branch's executive board meeting in order to solicit support for a fair employment campaign being carried on at a Bank of America branch office. The request was denied. We learned that it would be denied some days before the board could have considered the matter.

A so-called Negro labor statesman (junior grade with Jim Crow portfolio) let it be known that he was the little giant who would see to it that the question would not get before the board. He was carrying out the orders given to him by his bosses in the Jim Crow CIO company unionism set-up.

The reason advanced by the local NAACP for its refusal is rather perplexing. It was set forth that one or two branches of the Bank of America does hire Negroes and other minority persons in clerical capacities. Although the NAACP did not participate in the struggle which resulted in the hiring of Negroes, it did learn about it somehow, and since it is true, it cannot be denied.

But what happens in one branch of the Bank of America is not sufficient to indicate an unbiased hiring policy. Nor will the employment of four Negroes in the branch office at 25th and Central where the patronage is preponderately Negro, off-set the failure to hire a single Negro in the branch office of Slauson and Avalon where there is considerable Negro patronage. To agree that Negroes can work in a bank in a Negro district, but cannot be employed in a bank located in a mixed district is to support discrimination... a little more subtly perhaps, but none-the-less viciously.

The NAACP is not a patriotic debating society, nor is it the Central Avenue branch of Phil Murray's back-tracking national CIO. Local agents of Murray's new-day labor philosophy have little regard for the Negro people's welfare when they send paid Negro workers into the community to create disunity and confusion.

Because of the changing pattern of democratic action, the NAACP must more and more find allies among progressive labor and non-Negro groups. It cannot afford to close its door in the face of any genuine offer of cooperation. To have heard the representative from the United Public Workers local would have been proper and sensible.

To have denied him the privilege of appearing before the board because of timidity or prejudice, is not at all becoming to an organization that came into being as a mighty protest against the American tradition of prejudice. Those of us who must daily encounter and struggle against the machinations of the professional hate-mongers should be wary lest we allow our organizations to be diverted to their service.

The new leader of the local NAACP branch is an able man. He has a program for building the branch until it assumes its proper place as one of the largest and more effective in the nation. He recognizes that the work of the NAACP is not witch-hunting and political foraging. Given support and proper counsel, he will build efficiently.

He can become the new motor which the machine has needed to catch up with the accelerated march of events. It is obvious, however, that there are some persons who don't want a new motor. They apparently want a new chassis in order to disguise the old worn-out motor. If that is the case, the branch won't travel very far.

Political Pot-Pourri

The Integretive Research Forum meets every Sunday night at 8:00 p.m., 648 S. Broadway, and is attended by from 40 to 75 people. This group is boosting Holdridge for governor, and has a platform of "Equality for All," including jobs and pay envelopes.

The Middle Income Housing program was killed for this year by the Dixiecrat-Republican coalition in the House Wednesday (Mar. 22), and future action in Congress must await action by the people in the November elections.

Labor generally, and many other groups—such as the American Legion—backed the program. But the real estate lobby won when the program was knocked out of the housing bill by a vote of 218 to 155.

Senator Taft's new publicity man was formerly a public relations officer with the Air Force group that dropped the two atomic bombs on Japan. Destruction seems to be his specialty.

Zachariah Chaffee, noted professor at Harvard, in a recent letter to House Un-American Activities Committee Chairman John Wood (D, Ga.) has a descriptive phrase for the pending Mundt-Nixon bill. Chaffee says the measure, which is an alleged anti-subversive bill, "is like using a hammer to swat a wasp on baby's head."

Col. Robert R. McCormick, publisher of the Chicago Tribune, recently made an aerial tour of Europe, North Africa and Southern Asia. Reporting to the people of Chicago on his trip, the Colonel declared, "slums are the products of slum-dwellers who create them."

The Colonel also reported that the Shah of Iran "urged upon me a great increase in his Army at American expense. He was not at all impressed by my more experienced view or the miniature medals I was sporting for the occasion."

Thuh Shah joined the great many of people who are not impressed by miniature medals or by miniature men.

Of all the vents taking place April Fool's Day the following seems the most appropriate. The Marine Corps League national Americanism award for 1950 will be presented on that date to Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R. Wis.).

Rep. John Rankin (D. Miss.) has offered McCarthy another ring for the Senator's circus. "I think it is about time," Rankin said, "the American people know that Henry Luce bribed Whitaker Chambers for nine years at $30,000 a year when he was probably not worth $2,000 a year, and put him ostensibly as one of the editors of Time magazine, to keep Whitaker Chambers from telling what he knew."

We know a man who says he has it on reliable authority that Henry Luce once got a passport from the State Department.

About 85 per cent of the eligible voters cast their ballots in the general election in Great Britain.

But in our last Presidential election only 52 per cent of those eligible went to the polls.

At the request of Councilman Kenneth Hahn, a traffic signal will be installed at the corner of 83rd and Central.

This signal is needed because of the heavy pedestrian traffic, and because of the many people going to the Judson Memorial Baptist Church, of which Rev. William Lawrence is pastor. The signal will be installed within two weeks.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

The following exchange of letters between Mr. Roy Fulwider and Postmaster Michael D. Fanning gives rise to the question of how far one should go in the "discharge of one's duty," in regard to the loyalty tests being foisted on postoffice employees.

Mr. Fulwider says: I had written him (Mr. Fanning) in regard to an item in your paper re: dismissal of Rev. Owens from the post office. I told him I could not see how one could permit himself to sign dismissal orders if he didn't agree with "loyalty oaths."

In other words perhaps Mr. Fanning has sacrificed his principles by remaining on as a Truman appointee in the postoffice.

Perhaps your readers would be interested in Mr. Fanning's letter. Personally I would not remain in a position in which it became "my duty" to sign the discharge papers he mentions. I would feel I was selling my soul for a few pieces of gold.

Very truly yours,
ROY FULWIDER.

P.S.: I find your paper stimulating and hard hitting on vital issues and your editorial position warming. However I do not like those skin lightening ads for self-explanatory reasons in themselves.

Postmaster Fanning's answer to Mr. Fulwider follows:
Mr. Roy W. Fulwider,
Lawndale, Calif.
Dear Mr. Fulwider:

Your letter of February 18 is very disturbing to me because it shows that you simply do not understand the processes of the Loyalty Board established by President Truman on a national basis and the Loyalty Board established by the Post Office Department in Washington.

You have evidently jumped to the conclusion, because it has become my duty to act as the informing agent when a decision has been reached by the Loyalty Board, that I personally have something to do with these loyalty cases.

Anybody in the Post Office knows, of course, that I have no such connection, and none knows it better than the Rev. Mr. Owens. Whenever the Loyalty Board has reached a decision it informs the Postmaster, and it then becomes the duty of the Postmaster to inform the employee as to whether or not he has been found guilty and is to be dismissed, or whether the charges have been dropped and he is to be retained. I am very glad to say that I have sent more letters out retaining people in the service than letting them out; but in neither case do I have anything to do with the decisions which are reached by the Loyalty Board here and in Washington.

I very much appreciate your letter and hope that you will use your influence to see that this misunderstanding is corrected.

Sincerely yours,
MICHAEL D. FANNING,
Postmaster.

Dear Mrs. Bass:

Enclosed please find a real news item, concerning a gift of $40,000 which has been made to the United Order of Friendship of America, in our drive to raise $165,000, which will be brought up to a million dollars by the State of Mississippi and the Federal Government to build a 100-bed hospital here at Mound Bayou, Mississippi.

I would appreciate it if this item of news could be given a prominent place in your paper as I believe it to be one of the largest gifts that has been made by a Negro to a Negro charitable cause within recent times. Any support given to our cause will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely yours,
T. R. Howard, M.D.
Chairman of Board of Directors and Chief Medical Examiner for the United Order of Friendship of America.

Dear Mrs. Bass:

We are writing you in regard to Blind Activities and Recreation, Inc., with the hopes that you will become better acquainted with our work for the blind and that you will help us to bring more happiness and independence to the visually handicapped. Our program consists of all types of activities for the blind, especially in the field of sports and recreation. Our board of directors is made up entirely of blind people and through the assistance of our sighted friends we have been given the opportunity of showing what we can do.

In order to understand blindness one must live it so we feel and know what the needs for the blind can be. We have now started, along with our recreational program, a guide dog school. In doing this we feel that we are doing a two-fold job for we have found blind people that have been turned down for guide dogs due to the lack of physical ability to handle a dog. One particular case is quite a story in itself. A young man of our acquaintance was turned down for a dog not because he was physically unfit but because he was afraid to walk and to stride out with confidence. We are happy to report that through sports and recreation, this young man has become very active and graceful and will, in the near future, have his guide dog.

We are in great need of dogs to be trained for guide dogs and are asking the public to help in this need. The German Boxer and the German Shepherd between the ages of 1 and 2 years are the preferred dogs for this work. We have been licensed by the State Board of Guide Dogs for the Blind and our trainer, Everett Espy, is a licensed guide dog trainer.

This request is urgent and any person who would care to donate or to sponsor a dog may contact us at the above address and telephone number. We will be glad to furnish you with any additional information you may desire and will be extremely grateful for your cooperation.

Respectfully,
BOB ANDERSON,
President.

CASING THE KIDS

CHARLES LLOYD

THE WISE OLD OWL

RESOLVED: That the Sigmas have the best team in the inter-frat series and L. A. City has the best junior college quintet in the nation. You know by now that the Sigmas trounced the Kappas in the featured game of the frat double header and the Omegas foiled the Alphas bid for fame. (If you haven't heard, turn to the sport's page.) The series are young now, but we pick the Sigmas to win their first championship.

What you might not know so well is that the victorious Cub team arrived in town Monday with the coveted national junior college basketball championship tucked under their belts. Connoisseurs of modern basketball laughed when we tipped you that the Cubs would triumph in the Western Regional tourney a few weeks ago. Ventura is best, they claimed. They scoffed when we warned you to watch them go into the nationals. Ask George Murray. But the Cubs took both tourneys with outstanding performances; so you have to admit that Lloyd was right again.

Back to the series: The inter-frat council is to be commended for selecting such able young gents as Howard Morehead and Stanley Robertson to handle their publicity. Both boys are masters at their own art and have compiled a long record of outstanding work. Howard should hold some kind of a record among photogs in the city of taking the most shots of pretty dolls, and certainly Stanley should hold the city's mark of the most consecutive gossips without a libel suit. Started long before I came on the scene.

Take it one way or the other, you gotta give it to the boys 'cause they know their onions. It has been our contention all along that youngsters should get the break, which is seldom because the case. Old timers have had their chance and either failed or succeeded. So the younger generation is preparing itself to take the reins, seemingly without avail, because it doesn't get the breaks.

But the inter-frat council has erred every year on just one point. It should provide the fans with a program containing the players names, numbers, height, schools, the coaches names and other pertinent information. Fans crowd the place out every Saturday night during the series to watch their favorite teams, and they don't even know the names of the players. The series is one of the top social events on the calendar for colored citizens in the city. Every guy and his girl come to watch it. They pass out a buck to get in. Its worth a program, boys.

AFTER HOURS

Sigma cheer leaders, like the team they rooted for, won out as the classiest on the floor. With the likes of Ruth Vernon, who has king size limbs, and Ann High, who went high as the sky, these dolls sported lots of class in their scanty blue and whites. Other members of their troupe were Edith Enoex, Peggy Parrish, Ola Straughter, Gloria Jean Williams, who has perfectly balanced proportions, and Jay Gonder, the brown skin wonder.

Lovely Maurine Taylor, beautiful Barbara Garrett, gents Gilbert Nunn and Herbert Rucker.

Leon Thompson played host to Gloria Person, while Milford James led cheers for flowerful Flora Tryon. John Weems jumped the gun with Donzella Coulter in beating another admirer to the draw, and Lee Coleman moved out front with Bernadine High to nose out his closest competition by two yards.

AT AFTER THE PARTY:

Glasses flashed and "punch" splashed as the city's professional men sojourned to a weird get-together to enjoy the after effects of thrilling games. Messrs. Tank Younger, super dreadnaught of L. A. Rams; Ismael Evans, well-to-do sportsman; and Roy Loggins Jr., ace disc jockey and talent scout, led the march to the home Cecil Parks, whose honored guests were Dr. Dan Williams and Dr. Ben Major from back east.

Darling Daphne Philibert headed the list of beauties, while her cuz, Yvonne Philibert also added glory and glamour to the family name. Howard Morehead completed the day's activities with his first love, Jay Gonder, and Andrew Wallace held sway with Maryellen Drake.

There was Milton Scott, who coached Monrovia Huntington elementary school to a county track and field championship, and his assistant Warren Giles, law student and play boy of U.S.C. (Ask Dottie, Jerry, Rudell, or Doris). The greatest gent of the lot was Winifred Taylor, who was with his friend Samuel Samuel Marlowe.

SOCIAL SCENE

Young Negro Artists of Pasadena received wide acclaim from the daily press for their performances at a concert Friday night in honor of Mrs. Mae Reese Johnson, who will leave soon to attend the world Women's Temperance Union Convention in England. . . . When Lillian Williams donned a short skirt Sat. nite, we saw more than pretty eyes. . . . June Session ended her session with Enoch Spann and is now on the market for a worthy challenger. . . . At the end of 15 stanzas Gil Nunn is still going strong with Antoinette Brown. . . . Chuck Neal signed to go on the market as a lover but changed his mind when Yvonne Prejean decided to give him another chance. . . . It's Gil at school and Gip at nite for Harriet D.

ONE FOR THE GANG

You can't find a sweeter gang than Jean, Joyce, Barbara, and the rest. How could we ever forget girls like you? . . . We ain't forgot the Santa Monica gang of Bert and wife and the darling Douglas sisters either. Just waiting for the chance to get back over. . . . By golly, what happened to Big Boy and brothers? Things aint rite without you guys around. . . . Was really a grand week end, Kathy, or should we say a lost one? . . . The Kaps are featuring Jimmy O'Brien and his band in a dance upstairs at the Elks Sat. nite. To quote Jimmy in his own words, "We'll tear the roof off the house."

Again we come to the end of another pleasant evening of writing, and we find it profitable to leave you with another of our favorite quotations: "There is no room for pride in any man. There is no room for unkindness. There is no room for wit at the expense of others. All men are born the same and equal."

Willowbrook Citizens Win In Campaign Against School Bias

The citizens of Willowbrook victoriously concluded a two-months campaign against discrimination in the Willowbrook Junior High School. Over a hundred people met at the school to press their demands.

The program of the Citizens Committee, representing the Palm Lane Tenants Council, the Southeast Inter-racial Council, the Independent Progressive Party, and other organizations, was presented by Mr. Ted Watkins, President of the Palm Lane Tenants Council, and agreed to by Mrs. Wagstaff, th principal of the school.

A small committee will meet with Mrs. Wagstaff to work out details of the settlement.

This citizens' committee has taken up in good faith the fight against discrimination by an instructor in Willowbrook Jr. High School.

We are frankly dismayed at the attitude shown by Mrs. Wagstaff.

Prepared for cooperation and agreement, we have found instead antagonism, and a manufactured defense, including faculty members, students, and alleged leaders of the Negro community against our just demands as well as clear evidence of intimidation of students and parents concerned.

We have been accused of bargaining in bad faith, and with the desire to stir up trouble in the community.

Proof contradicting this charge has been evidenced by our continued efforts to arrive at a solution satisfactory to all concerned.

Our committee, designated three times to discuss our decisions and our thinking with Mrs. Wagstaff, has been met by a defense organized against our thinking and proposals.

Insofar as the Library public is concerned, however, interest in books about the theatre and in plays themselves goes on all year 'round. Your Public Library suggests some recent favorites that anyone stirred by the fine old tradition of the foot-light will enjoy reading.

MATINEE TOMORROW

Word Morehouse

This is a book to quote to old timers who mourn for the vanished glories of the old trouping days. It is a history of the last fifty years of our theatre, written informally by a distinguished critic, and indicates, for all its nostalgic glances at the years since 1898, that the contemporary stage is more than holding its own with the golden era of Maude Adams and Richard Mansfield.

NEXT WEEK EAST LYNNEL

By Gladys Hurlburt

A hilarious account of life in an old-time traveling stock company that is sure to be a great favorite. The author who describes herself as a "short, round, red-headed and terribly near-sighted girl," forced her way from boarding-school and the convent to eventual success, but she did it the hard way, and her mishaps and ups and downs could only happen in that fantastic world known as "show business." The book contains many quotable and very funny anecdotes about stock company days.

SOUTH PACIFIC

By Oscar Hammerstein

The fabulously successful musical show, which is to be part of the Los Angeles light opera season this spring, is now available in book form; and you can add to your coming enjoyment of the production by reading it in advance. Like Oklahoma by the same librettist, it forms an interesting play in itself, even without Richard Rodgers' enchanting music.

CURTAIN CALLS

By Jack Gaver

An absorbing study of the

New York theatre from behind the scenes. You may have often wondered how a play gets chosen and put on, and why so many wealthy backers are found for productions that flop at once. Here is the inside story, and you will enjoy the Alice-in-Wonderland atmosphere of theatrical production. Hollywood isn't the only daffy place, after all.

WITH A FEATHER ON MY NOSE

By Billie Burke

A vivacious, readable account of the popular comedienne's career in the American theatre. Miss Burke's gaiety, gallantry, and love of life is evident on every page of the book, and her account of her marriage to the late Florenz Ziegfeld is especially memorable.

DEATH OF A SALESMAN

By Arthur Miller

Proof that the modern American stage can assume adult proportions is furnished by this Pulitzer Prize play still going strong on Broadway. It describes the tragedy of a man who wakes up too late to the fact that his life has been based on illusion bolstered by false values.

FAMILY CIRCLE

By Cornelia Otis Skinner

Can a famous stage family be at the same time a normal, wholesome American family, such as we like to think typical of our home life? Well, it was in the case of Otis Skinner and his wife and daughter. At the same time, family life with the Skinners was as picturesque and unexpected as you could wish. The book is especially a tribute to the author's mother, who succeeded in maintaining an affectionate home life for her husband and daughter through every vicissitude.

IMMORTAL SHADOWS

By Stark Young

A collection of the essays of one of our best dramatic critics, whose writings have done much to establish the current reputation of Eugene O'Neill and other famous figures of the American stage. If you are interested in trends in our theatre, this book will reward your attention.

THE MAN IN THE STRAW HAT

By Maurice Chevalier

Here is one for those who like the French touch. This engaging autobiography of the man with the jutting underlip and the jaunty straw hat tells of his progress from a miserably impoverished childhood to his present world fame. It is an unpretentious book that reminds us of his before-the-curtain talks.

NO EXIT & THE FLIES

By Jean Paul Sartre

If you have been wondering what the fad of existentialism, which is fluttering in these French plays, which have been widely discussed.

SPOL Meets Friday

Small Property Owners League Southeast Area

The South area, Small Property Owners League, will hold weekly meeting, Friday, March 31, 8:00 p.m. at the 28th Street YMCA.

Needless to say, our confidence in the fairness of the school administration of Willowbrook Junior High School, as well as in the integrity of Mrs. Wagstaff has been weakened by this refusal to admit and publicly correct such an intolerable condition by such measures as we have repeatedly proposed.

However, mindful of the importance of maintaining community confidence in our school administration, as well as pressed by the immediate call of other civic duties, our committee hesitates to embark upon the widespread activating of the community and press necessary to gain the dismissal of Mrs. Stein, if other acceptable measures may be agreed upon.

Consequently, in lieu of the demand which we have made heretofore for the dismissal of Mrs. Stein from the Willowbrook Junior High staff, we now propose:

1. That a panel of two or three prominent and respected citizens, to be named by our committee, and mutually agreed upon shall be invited by the principal to conduct a panel discussion in the school auditorium before the assembled students and faculty on the undemocratic and fascist nature of racial discrimination, and on the desperate need for eternal and day to day vigilance to destroy any evidence of such un-American philosophy as white supremacy.

2. Mindful as interested citizens of the problems of school administration, we propose that the recent case of discrimination in the school shall not enter specifically into such discussion, but shall be alluded to only indirectly, as a method of introducing the topic under discussion.

3. That the principal should express publicly to the students and faculty, in such manner as she deems proper, the feeling of abhorrence which she holds for any words or acts of intolerance or discrimination, and her determination to keep them foreign to Willowbrook Junior High School, as she has frequently expressed herself to our Citizens Committee.

4. That the principal instruct Mrs. Stein that due to the honest question raised in the minds of many students and citizens of this community as to racial prejudice on Mrs. Stein's part, Mrs. Stein must take all necessary precautions to guarantee that she will never act in the future in such manner as to cause recurrent doubts as to either her ability or desire to treat all students impartially and fairly, particularly as regards minority groups.

The citizens of this community threatened by, and subjected to the outrages of discrimination more frequently than are members of most communities, declare flatly and without reservation that we will tolerate neither the teaching nor practice of racial discrimination in our public institutions, most specifically, in our schools.

Recalling Mrs. Wagstaff's cooperation in the past relative to such matters as our campaign against the presentation of a degrading minstrel show by the Elks organization at Compton Junior College, and her cooperation and aid in celebrating Negro History Week at Willowbrook Junior High School, we anticipate her acceptance of, and help in the presentation of this essential matter to the students and faculty of Willowbrook Junior High School, to the end that the serious misgivings of the community shall be allayed, and that a firmer foundation for unity and true brotherhood among all groups shall thus be established.

$40,000 Gift Aids Drive To Build Hospital In Mississippi

MOUND BAYOU, MISS.—The United Order of Friendship of America, a non-profit Negro fraternal organization operating under the Insurance Laws of the State of Mississippi received a gift of $40,000 in its drive to raise $165,000, which together with grants by the State of Mississippi and the Federal Government, will provide one million dollars with which to build a modern, fire-proof, well-equipped, 100-bed hospital in the all Negro town of Mound Bayou, Mississippi.

This remarkable gift was made by Dr. John William Brown of Pittsburg and Washington, D. C. This gift which represents one of the largest gifts ever made by a Negro to a Negro charitable cause was made by Dr. Brown in memory of his beloved sister, who served for years as a Trustee of Howard University. Dr. Sara Winifred Brown who was fatally injured by a city bus in Washington, D. C. in November, 1948. The name of the new million dollar Mound Bayou hospital will be, "The Sara Winifred Brown Memorial Hospital."

The organization is carrying on a general Health Educational program in this area where health information is so much needed. At present, there are fewer than 700 acceptable hospital beds for the more than one million Negroes in Mississippi. The overwhelming majority of the Negro babies born are delivered by mid-wives who have had no training. Infant mortality (80% per 1000) is the greatest in the nation. Because of the poor maternal care, due to the gross lack of modern hospital facilities, thousands of Negro women develop cancer and die without treatment in a hospital.

The Sara Winifred Brown Memorial 100-bed hospital will provide the greatest single need of this section of our nation. The gigantic campaign is on now to raise the balance of $165,000 by April 30th, 1950. Those desiring to help in this worthy cause may make check to United Order of Friendship and send to Dr. T. E. M. Howard, Mound Bayou, Mississippi.

STANDING BESIDE his attorney, Curtis C. Taylor, ace criminal lawyer, is Nathaniel Williams, of 4106 S. Main street. Williams, his attractive wife, Rosa Lee Williams, and his cousin, David Lithicum, were arrested and jailed on March 13th, charged with the murder of J. C. Osborne, San Pedro dock worker, who was stabbed to death at the "Little Harlem Cafe" in Wilmington. This picture was snapped in the court room at San Pedro last Thursday afternoon during the preliminary hearing. Attorney Taylor succeeded in having Mrs. Williams' charge reduced to "assault by means of great force", and she was immediately released on bail. Williams, however, was held to answer on the murder charge, and the couple must enter their plea on April 10th in the Superior Court at Long Beach. Attorney Taylor will base his fight for freedom on a plea of self defense.

JHW Program Emergency Conference Demands Sun., Apr. 23 Defeat Of Police State Bill

The School of Jewish Studies is preparing a musical, dramatic, and educational evening for Sunday, April 23, at 8 p.m., at Symphony Hall, 232 South Hill street, to celebrate Jewish History Week. The planning meeting will be held Monday, April 3, 8 p.m. at 233 South Broadway, Rm. 411.

Jewish History Week is being celebrated April 16-22. The traditions of the Jewish people, the ideals of freedom, peace and social justice were forged in the some bitter struggles that confront all minority groups today. Jews and non-Jews alike should know this history.

So says Dr. Sanford Goldner, speaking for the School of Jewish Studies.

One hundred and fifty-four representatives from 72 pension, labor, minority, church and civic organizations called for the defeat of the Mundt-Ferguson-Nixon bills Monday night at the Alexandria Hotel, at a special Emergency Conference called by the California Legislative Conference, Southern California division, it was announced today.

Attorney Paul Major, newly-elected Southern California chairman of the Conference, in presenting an analysis of the Mundt-Ferguson-Nixon bills stated that "if passed, these bills would endanger all organizations working for pensions, rent control, FEPC, labor and other social issues . . . These bills are clearly aimed at all New Dealers—witness Senator McCarthy's attacks on prominent individuals of President Roosevelt's administration."

Quoting from a statement by the American Civil Liberties Union, Mr. Major pointed out that "the Mundt Bill makes possible the destruction of innumerable organizations working for social or economic changes."

A 12-point action program was approved, calling on organizations to contact Senators Lucas, Knowland and Downey, and Vice-President Barkley, and the respective Congressmen to speak and vote against the Mundt-Ferguson-Nixon bills.

TEA TALK WITH A TRAVELER—At the lovely reception tendered Mrs. Eslanda Goode Robeson, wife of the great singer, tea and travel talk was the theme. The Phyllis Wheatley Home on South Harvard provided a fitting background for the honored guests. Fotoviewed above are Mildred Simon, Dean Ellie H. Matthews, Sarah Riffman, Frances Williams, Eslanda Robeson, Charlotta A. Bass, Mrs. Max Hiken, Betty Willette, and Mamie Yaskin.—Sheffield foto.

Eslanda Robeson Gives Stirring Report At Tea

The Electra Tea honoring Mrs. Paul Robeson last Thursday afternoon at the Phyllis Wheatley Home, 2125 South Harvard blvd. was huge success.

Mrs. Robeson, in her talk to the guests, was even more dynamic than she was at the Embassy Auditorium. She re-emphasized the awakening by the women of the Far East on the international situation, which was duly brought before the Conference in Peiping, China.

Delegates from the Far East and Western world represented more than five women. Particularly outstanding were the two representatives of Madagascar and East Africa.

Sharing honors with the chairman, Frances Williams, were senior hostesses Betty Willette, Dean Ellie H. Matthews, Pearl Fagelson, and co-hostesses Fannie Zander, Harriett McIntosh, Myrtle Pitts, Myrtle Brown, and Jean Thompson.

It was a grand reunion for the shower guests of Eleanor Elkins and Marjorie Williams, who entertained more than 25 young ladies at a Kitchen Shower in honor of bride-elect Jackie Wilson last Sunday in the South Arlington abode of Mrs. Williams.

The table was beautifully decorated and centered with blue snapdragons and yellow daffodils around which were placed blue and yellow individual baskets for the guests. The blue and yellow theme was carried out throughout the decorations and enhanced by the bright spring colors in the molded chicken salad and frappe punch.

Youth Rampages

By NELLIE BECKER

Guest Columnist—Anne Johnston

"Me write a column? Oh no you don't Nellie Becker—why my brother used to help me with my term papers and . . ." Well mom and dad that's how I happened to be a society columnist on the rampage in Los Angeles, Calif., for one whole week-end. Tell "Pee Wee" (Albert) that I can teach him a few things about composition now. All kidding aside, Aunt Marcia (Baumann) and Connor Baumann have been showing me the best time. Aunt Marcia has let us have open house every other week-end. I guess she's just about worn out now.

But back to my job of reporting. Let me see—What happened to the great Alpha basketball team? Could it be that they just can't get along without Don Barksdale and Dave Minor? Not only that but they lost that crackerjack basketball player Bobby Pounds to the Sigmas during the recruitment of prospective pledges this past fall. Their two lonely cheer leaders with their bright chestnut hair were so sharp and shapely that the men couldn't cheer "for looking."

However the Kappas put up a frantic fight against the Sigmas. It was one of the most exciting games that I have ever seen. Those determined Sigmas upset the Kappas in the last two minutes of the game. The Kappas five teasing brown cheer leaders were just out of this world. Nor will I forget the cute Sigma girls in their satin outfits or the Omega cheer leaders—who had lots of rhythm.

The Delta's gave their third annual "Greek Reunion" Sunday. It isn't very often that the fraternities and sororities get together. Each chapter offered some type of entertainment on the program. They were all so very entertaining that it's hard to say who was the best. Some of the people seen mingling around were: Donzella Coultier, Gloria Crouch, and Kenny Hill, Andrew Wallace, Dave Williams (he's a good basketball player), Sherrill Luke, Louis Robinson, Peggi Beasley, Lorrie and Lloyd White (she has a gold type-writer) Wally Niles and Frank Raspberry.

The choirs of Pepperdine College are giving their production of "Song of Time" this Friday and Saturday, featuring the fine baritone voice of Edgar Mitchell. It will be a delightful light opera well worth seeing. Speaking of music, I hear that Jack Lewis (that's my cousin) will be giving her recital, on April 10th at the "Green Room" at Pepperdine.

The Little club met with Mrs. Rhea Butler Friday evening. A Chinese dinner and bridge were enjoyed.

Mrs. Mabel Miles was a gracious hostess to the C. C. club Saturday at her home on West 27th street.

YWCA Annual Coffee To Feature Top Look For Midcentury

The annual staging of the Coffee of the Business and Professional Women's Club has attracted the public over the years. This one big project presented by the club nets profitable proceeds to enable them to carry on their civic as well as club responsibilities throughout the year.

One of the chief projects will be sending delegates to Asilomar, a YWCA camp, for the annual Young Adult Summer Conference. Meetings are held at Woodlawn Branch YWCA every second and fourth Tuesdays from 7 to 9 p.m.

Officers of the club are Elwels Lacey, president; Benetzer Fisher, vice president; Marilyn Ward, recording secretary; Dorothy treasurer; Florabelle King, librarian; c. correspondent; Evelyn Austin, financial; Jean McNeill, pianist; and Katherine Smith, parliamentarian.

The theme for the affair is "Mid-Century Top Look."

Pan Hell Council Officers To Be Installed Sunday

Installation of the Greek's council of new officers and the fraternity and sorority representatives will take place on Sunday, April 2, at 4 p.m., at the lovely westside home of Miss Lena Torrence, 2265 W. 22nd St.

Installation officer will be Attorney Martha Jefferson. Addressing the Greeks and presenting to them their new Council will be Dr. E. I. Robinson.

Chairman of the installation program is Miss Eddie Mae Armstrong.

All Greeks of member organizations are invited to attend!

Ohio Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Joyce of 1655 West 35th street have as their houseguests, Mrs. Joyce's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee of Zenia, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Heffron of Cleveland, Ohio, are also stopping with the couple.

DREAMS IN SILHOUETTE, a fashion review, will be presented at CIRO'S on Sunset Boulevard Sunday April 23 from four to six. Don Loper of Beverly Hills heads a bevy of smart fashion designers including, Harriet Wadleigh, Betty Wilson Clark and Meyer Berliner, who will be featured in the review. Betty Wilson Clark is chairman of the committee with Frances Driver as co-chairman. Members of the committee shown above are: Hazel Shumate, Kathryn Johns, Florine Edwards, Edith Martin, Gwendolyn Valentine Boyd, Celestine Shambrey, special funds director for the Outdoor Life and Health Association, Frances Driver, Betty Clark, Bernice Nance and Antha McCauley. Proceeds of the affair will go to the Outdoor Life and Health Association.

IMPRESSIVELY INSTALLED at their recent March meeting were the officers of the Zenith Social and Charity club. Eula Earls heads her cabinet with Evelyn Cummings, Ann Goodall, Christabel Morris, Hester Rainwater, Lydia Adams, Audrey Atkins, and Winifred Orr Smith. Other members are Frances Perry, Avelia Edwards, Maurice Saunders, Elgie Thompson, Marjorie Scott, Catherine Neary, Argralia Earls, Miriam Harvey, and Mary Wiley. Installing officer was Mrs. Exie Lee Hampton of the Eastside Settlement House, which is the club's adopted charity project.

Greeks Fraternize At Third Annual Delta Reunion

Highlighting the social activities surrounding the Interfraternity Basketball Series was the "Greek Reunion" given by undergraduate members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority on Sunday, March 26, at the Wilfandel Club. Sororities and fraternities represented include Alpha Kappa Alpha, Alpha Phi Alpha, Kappa Alpha Psi, Omega Psi Phi, Phi Beta Sigma, and Zeta Phi Beta.

Delta soror, Ethelyne Smith, very ably conducted the program as mistress of ceremonies. Sorors Daniellen Mabry and Mary Drye played incidental music and accompanied informal group singing until the program commenced at 5:30. The program included solos by Bobby Brooks, former child movie singer; Grady Orange, Omega; Oscar Plant, Omega; Ioni Ross, Zeta; and Jackie Lewis, A.K.A. Piano solos included numbers by James Warren, Alpha, and Beverly Joyce Anderson, A.K.A. The Kappas were represented by an instrumental number featuring Otis Green, saxophonist, and Lloyd White, guitar player. Rip Ridley, Sigma, dramatically recited passages from "Gunga Din."

After coaches of the four basketball teams were introduced by Ethelyne Smith, the teams and also cheer leaders were presented. With representatives from each fraternity singing their respective songs, the program was ended with all the Delta sorors singing "We Love the Name of Delta."

Undergraduate committee members under the leadership of presidents Janez Lawson and Vivian Johnson, and advisor Leola Beavets, included; general chairman, Joan Pierson; program, Tavis Fortier and Ethelyne Finlayson; invitations, Alma Torrence and Harriet Roberts.

The Delta Greek Reunion is an annual affair and this, the third year, has marked another successful date on the calendar of events of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.

Carey Jackson, Halor Miller, and Jens Ramos entertained 50 young people with a dancing party Friday at the Jackson's home at 2235 South Western avenue.

Wilfandel Benefit Dance, April 13

Special invitations have been placed in the mail inviting Los Angeles society to dance to the strains of Jimmy Franklin's music, Thursday, April 13, from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. at the El Sombrero ballroom.

The adorable babies of Peaches Johnson and Gloria Mitchell, each vying for first place in the Wilfandel Baby Contest, are the reason for this fund-raising activity.

The sponsors for the Wilfandel benefit dance are Mmes. Hilda Allen, Minnie Green, Faye Griffith, and Della Williams. Among the younger set assisting with the dance are: Elizabeth Garrett, Stella Lee, Marilyn Hudson, Norma Williams, and many others.

Basketball Sidelights

More than a thousand people crowded Loyola Gym last Saturday night for the opening of the Interfrat Series. Though not much basketball was played; nevertheless, old friends got a chance to see each other and socialites, a chance to be seen... the Clarence Armstrongs, the Wells Forde, the Horace Clarke, Roy Loggins strolling in with a fine white camel-hair coat, and ex-cheerleaders of '49 sitting it out on the sidelines this year.

Alpha and Kappa cheerleaders, who last year set the games afire, take the back seat this year in favor of Omega and Sigma, whose cheerleaders and rooting section are way out front. The Interfrat Council would do well to be rid of that prejudiced umpire, who fails to see errors so glaring, a five-year-old would understand what's happening.

The Series are on... for better or worse. Who'll win?

Bridge Points

"Docendo Disclmus"

Bridge is not a matter of life and death, and since most of us play it for pleasure, we owe it to ourselves and those we play with to know the fundamental principles of the basis of: 1. Opening Bids. 2. Raises, Rebids, and Takeout Bids.

These are the instruments necessary to play the game; you would not think of going out to play golf or baseball without the ball, bat, or golf clubs, neither should you sit before any partner without the above bridge knowledge, these are the necessary instruments used in the game, along with the following rules: (a) Rule of 8 to 8½, (b) 4-5-6, (c) 2-3, (d) Q92, and (e) X plus 1. All of the above can be obtained in six lessons (dependent upon your interest and mental ability to absorb instructions) and a minimum cash outlay of $5.00. Don't you think you owe this much to those with whom you play, since it is the most inexpensive fascinating sport of this century?

All of the above instructions are given free every Thursday at The Harmony Duplicate Bridge Club at 2711 S. San Pedro St. from 8 to 8:30 p.m. by a Certified Master Culbertson Teacher; come and bring your friends.

The Hand of the Week

Let's wish her the best of luck eh? Betty Gordon, Attorney Walter Gordon's daughter from Berkeley celebrated her twenty-first birthday Saturday night with some friends after the game in Santa Monica. It was held at the home of her Aunt and Uncle—and what a beautiful modern home they have. Betty is in her last year at Lewis and Clark College studying P.E. Some of the fireside chatters were: Loretta Pruitt, Mildred Houston, Norma Williams, Frank Harvey, Connor Baumann, Virginia McMarries, Peggi Westfield, Sherman Janes and Ann Smith, Norma Lee Winston, Jackie Lewis and Jimmy Dougherty. Excuse me, there goes the phone again. Say mom that was Carleton Carpenter. You remember he was the boy that played my boy friend in the picture about our family "Lost Boundaries." He has invited me out to the movie set to lunch and then a tour around the Hollywood studios. But back to my job of reporting. Let me see—Lena Torrance certainly went all out giving a benefit cocktail party Sunday evening for the Negro Art Theatre. The atmosphere was definitely tropical what with Niles West Indian band playing their native music and the sophisticated theatrical and society folks going a la West Indian. Listened to personable J. T. Gipson over the radio Sunday afternoon. They call him the second Walter Winchell. Gee there just isn't anybody who can hide their business from him. Betty Hall Lee and Bob Lee are busy hanging up diapers these days. Their baby is three weeks old. Jaffalyn Brown and Alvin Johnson up Pasadena way are planning to tie the nuptial knot right soon. Idell Moore gave a surprise birthday party for her husband Oswald Moore after the Inter-frat game Saturday night. The party of all parties was one given by Halliver Miller, Gene Ramos and Carey Jackson at the home of Ralph Jackson. The highlight of the evening was impromptu microphone acts by Jimmy Riddle, George Whittaker and Douglas Dorsey. A few of those dressed in lovely formals were the winsome Nicholas twins, Trinia and (Angelina) Gloria Hunnicutt, Dorothy Cain, Barbara Grant and Nira Harden.

Aunt Marcia came home raving the other night about the dessert Bernice Barnum (she is a very attractive school principle) served to the County Club Drive Bridge Club and their guests. It was a basket full of fruit... ice cream fruit. Each frozen fruit had its own special flavor. Oh mom be sure to kiss my other two brothers Paul and Donald for me and tell Dad that I will be home in two more weeks.

Anchoresses Observe Third Anniversary At Italian Inn

The Anchoresse club celebrated their third anniversary Saturday with a luncheon at Lucca's Italian cafe at 501 South Western avenue.

A large anniversary cake with three candles centered the long table with handmade place cards for 25 smartly dressed debs and sub-debs.

The Birthday Song was played to Sandra Shields, Lystretta and Angelita Nincholas, who birth-dated this month. The Birthday Song was followed by several request numbers.

Introducing the lovely young president, Miss Richmonda Dunn, was the orchestra leader, who also introduced the club advisor, Mrs. Emily Portwig. A corsage was presented Mrs. Portwig by the club's first president, Miss Barbara Garrott.

The Easter sunrise services at Val Verde promises to be quite outstanding with Rev. Bennie Shaw preaching, assisted by Rev. Judge Wiley. Solos will be rendered by Miss Fae Miller and Mr. Paul Johnson; recitations by Mrs. Sydneta Smith and Mr. Marcus Slayter. A number of weekend parties have been planned.

BUSY MAKING PLANS for their benefit "Cabaret Party" to be held Sunday April 16th from 3: P.M. to 7: P.M. at the Club Oasis, are the members of the L. A. Women's Social and Athletic club. Returns from this affair will be used for the Clubs' Scholarship Fund. Though only two years old, the club has done much philanthropic work. The Scholarship Award to be presented in June will be an annual gift.

A GROUP OF FRIENDS gathered to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brown, 2126 W. 31st street on Monday evening, March 20, 1950, for the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary. Other friends dropped in to offer felicitations also, which made a delightful evening for all. Many beautiful cards, gifts, and telegrams were received. Mr. Eli Brown and Carrie Estelle Bass were united in marriage in Danville, Ill., March 20, 1890. Rev. William Lee officiating. Of this union two children were born. Donald Eli Brown, now deceased, and Lucille Estelle Payne, now living at 9323 Grape St., Los Angeles, Calif. One grandson, Donald Thomas Brown, resides in Indianapolis, Ind., and Mrs. Sally Brown of Chicago.

Erskine Hawkins Gets Into Spring Training

NEW YORK CITY—Maestro Erskine Hawkins, like his beloved Brooklyn Dodgers, has begun his Spring training. The Twentieth Century Gabriel bowed into the Savoy Ballroom last week for his traditional Spring appearance during which he tried out his new ideas in dance music.

Through his current engagement, the Hawk hopes to forward some radical innovations in band presentations which will back up his recent blast at the lack of production, imagination on the part of dance band leaders.

Base Harris Disc Jockey Of "House Of Fame"

By GERTRUDE GIPSON.

If you've heard that new heavy rumbling, something you are quite sure you haven't heard before, then you are probably trying to describe the voice of the Angel City's newest disc jockey Base Harris.

Base holds the distinction of being the FIRST Negro disc jockey west of Chicago initiating his first air show in Portland. His greatest asset is his very heavy voice which accounts for his first name "Base." His pattern and style is very different and unlike the usual disc jockey show, and if you've been fortunate to catch him on his KWKW 10:15 a.m. daily broadcast then you know that the "House of Fame" is undoubtedly one of the most entertaining new shows on the air. As you travel with Base from room to room in his radio house, you find that you can't do a thing but relax and listen to this new exciting voice. Base is the brother of the very talented Mrs. Bilbrew and the uncle of the very versatile Kitty White.

Also added to the Bostic music entourage is glamorous vocalist Helen Young.

Those who will be cited for their "contribution to the general community in the field of human relations" are: Darryl F. Disc Companies Bid for Timmie Rogers

NEW YORK CITY—Timmie Rogers' recent success at Cafe Society Downtown won for him his biggest reward last week when representatives of two recording companies approached the comedian-tunesmith with contract offers. The young humorist, who is currently headlining the stage show at the 421 Club, in Philadelphia, could not decide between the two disc outfits but told the talent scouts that he would forward an answer when he returned from his out-of-town engagements.

Comedian Rogers, in concluding discussions with both record agents, made it clear that he would not record any of his straight comedy routines since most of his material is based on current events and must be changed frequently to keep up with the headlines.

Negro Art Theatre Rehearses 1st Play

The Negro Art Theatre is in rehearsal for its first production, "Golden Boy," by Clifford Odets; and is considering its second project, "Earth and Stars," by Randolph Edmonds.

The objective of this group is to present plays which will reflect the culture, the struggle, and the progress of the Negro people, and to present them honestly as an integral part of American life. But although the interest of this theatre group is primarily with the Negro community, it will not block participation of any person of whatever race or color, and it will welcome the support of all civic, social, professional, and labor groups.

Members of the advisory board are: Ralph Vaughn, Louise Beavers, Atty. George Cannady, Carlton Moss, Dr. C. W. Hill, Hattie McDaniel, Atty. Leo Branton, Mrs. Charlotta Bass, Laura Bowman, and Libby Clark.

Noted Piano Duo In Concert At Philharmonic On April 14

Charles Lampkin, nationally known pianist, baritone composer, lecturer, and authority on the folk lore, delighted the audience in the Yugo-Slav hall, San Pedro, gathered to hear Mrs. Paul Robeson speak on China.

Mr. Lampkin recited with great feeling, "I am a Negro" by Langston Hughes. It was applauded enthusiastically.

Mr. Lampkin was born in Alabama. His great-grandmother, a former slave, befriended the great educator, Booker T. Washington, and aided him in the founding of Tuskegee Institute. From her Charles picked up much of the authentic history and legends which make up our great American Negro folk music. His boyhood was spent in Cleveland, Ohio, where he attended the public schools, John Carroll University, and the Cleveland Institute of Music. During the war he was music director of a USO hospital unit.

Charles Lampkin's life has been wide and interesting, the story of a teacher, director of music, guest artist, conductor, etc. "From the Bosom of the Congo," of which the poem by Langston Hughes is a part, is a lecture recital in which Mr. Lampkin uses piano and voice, both singing and reading poetry set to music by himself.

Ronald Reagan Joins 'Standby' Cast

Ronald Reagan, popular motion picture star, today was the latest luminary to join the star-studded cast of "Standby," Radio-Television Directors musical show set for February 21, at the Shrine Auditorium.

At the same time, Murray Bowen, general chairman of the three-hour variety show, announced that Ralph Edwards, famed emcee of "Truth or Consequences" radio show, would also take part in the gala revue.

Many of the participants include Marie (Irma) Wilson, the gorgeous "dumb-blonde"; Garry Moore, who will be master of ceremonies; Phil Harris, who will deliver several of his famous "Dixie" songs; and the Andrews Sisters.

Tickets for "Standby," scaled from ninety cents to $5, are now on sale at the Southern California Music Company, 737 South Hill; Music City at Sunset and Vine in Hollywood and all Mutual agencies.

Call for Volunteers

Volunteer wanted for Motor Corps!

When a child in a Red Feather children's home need some important treatment at a distant clinic and is unable to take public transportation, the home calls the Volunteer Bureau at MI. 821 and asks for help. The Bureau calls those people who have volunteered their cars—and off the child goes to keep the necessary appointment.

Would you like to be a volunteer? If you have a car and a driver's license, call the Volunteer Bureau or drop in at 733 S. Figueroa St. and ask more about it.

There are clinic appointments to be kept for convalescing children whose parents do not have a car, for post-polio patients who have been released from the hospital but need to return regularly for therapy in the swimming pools and for many ailing folks who would remain ailing without your help.

Edward Johnson Retires

Canada-born Edward Johnson has held grand opera's No. 1 managerial post for 15 years. Before coming to the Metropolitan, he had been a world-famous tenor who got his start in Italy as Edoardo di Giovanni. In 1922 under his rightful name, he became Tenor Johnson of the Metropolitan. Saturday while listening to the Met performance of "Boheme," we were pleasantly concerned with the great ovation given Mr. Johnson.

Mr. McNeil

The dramatic rendition of happenings surrounding the Met during Mr. Johnson's regime began like this: He well remembered the day he had been asked to step up to the Met's top job. He was preparing to sing a performance of "Peter Ibbetson" in Detroit when the phone call came: Met Manager Herbert Witherspoon had just fallen dead in his office, and the trustees wanted Johnson to succeed him. It was a job he never regretted taking. In 15 years, Manager Johnson had withstood roars of rage from all sides; but even his bitterest critics would admit that, when the books of the Johnson era were closed this May, there would be more written in the black than in red. He had taken over a depression-ridden opera company and kept it going through hard times, a war and mounting battles with the twelve unions with which the Met does business. But in those 15 years, only once did the Met have to admit that it could not get its golden curtain up.

Johnson has given Met audiences many a performance they might not have seen but for him: the Met's first "Abduction from the Seraglio" of Mozart (incidentally to be performed next week in English by a Los Angeles county subsidized performance in the Wilshire-Ebell Theatre), the first "Alceste" of Gluck, Mussorgsky's "Khovanchina." He had resurrected the dusty "Marriage of Figaro" (now one of the Met's best performances and biggest hits), "Boris Godunov," "Otello," "Falstaff." He brought the best of Europe's singers to the Met, but he made his era the era of the American singer too: in this year's roster of 108 singers, more than half are U. S. born.

The Met's subscription list, its backbone, was up to a strong $1,000,000 a year; there were some 15 million weekly radio listeners. And over 14 years, the Met had played to some 180,000 high school children.

With all these accomplishments, the Met under Johnson's management has made no place for the prepared and talented Negro singer. Furthermore, he has shown absolutely no concern for American-born Negro composer William Grant Still who submitted a score for performance with the sponsorship and aid of some of America's most influential personalities including Leopold Stokowski. Yes, the Met is in the black now, but why does it not now become a truly American Institution with, by and for all of the people?

EIGHTH NOTES

Meet The World Modern Drama Of The X-Bomb

How to be happy in the X-bomb age is stirringly dramatized in "Meet the World" which will be presented for one night only, Thursday, March 30, at Royce Hall on the UCLA campus by a picked cast of over sixty stars of stage and screen plus an A-Capella choir of sixty-five voices.

Principal character in the three-act modern drama is authoress Peg Fenwick's bizarre conception of the H-Bomb's successor, the X-bomb. Intricately created of bronzed arcs and lucite to express the world's impressions of nuclear fission, atom forces and uranium radiations, the fearsome bomb is suspended over the cast throughout the action, and its lights and eerie sounds mirror the world's affinity to destruction.

Jeff Chandler is the narrator. Many Hollywood personalities have joined "Meet the World" either to accept the challenge of its action packed roles, or because of the aura of excitement attending the premiere of the new play.

Noted Pianist-Lecturer Delights S.P. Audience

Pierre Luboshutz and Genia Nemenoff, world-famed duopianists, return to Philharmonic Auditorium on Friday evening, April 14, for their first recital in two years under the Behymer banner. No other duo-piano teams have accorded the signal honors that Luboshutz and Nemenoff have won during the thirteen years of their partnership.

One of the most heavily booked teams in the music world, they are the only two piano artists who have performed with Toscanini and with every major orchestra, including the Boston Symphony under Serge Koussevitsky, the Philadelphia Orchestra, the New York Philharmonic Symphony and the N.B.C. Symphony.

The program to be played here by this unique team includes Mozart's Sonata in D major, Saint-Saens' Variations on a Theme by Beethoven, Suite Champetre by Rieti and Rondo by Chopin.

With the return to Hollywood of Joe Kirkwood, title-roler in Monogram's Joe Palooka series, plans are nearing completion for the coming personal-appearance tour of Kirkwood and Robert Coogan in connection with openings of "Joe Palooka Meets Humphrey."

Pepperdine College Choral Group Presents "Song Of Time"

"Song of Time," Pepperdine College's outstanding choral production of the year, will be presented by combined student choruses of the college at 8:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday, March 31 to April 1, in the Pepperdine auditorium.

The program combines an appropriate theme for the Easter season with the choral groups' annual pops concert. By using a unifying narrative and a few central characters Director Neil Hill has transformed a group of varied chorus works into an evening of "choral drama."

Among songs, to be heard are Negro spirituals, Russian songs

Repertory Players Will Offer Plays On Contemporary Themes

Two of America's perennial stage favorites, "Angel Street" and "Blithe Spirit," and the West Coast Premiere of three provocative short plays on contemporary themes will be presented by the American Negro Repertory Players during a three week run at the Belasco theatre beginning on Wednesday, April 19, under the auspices of Irwin Parnes.

Heralded as one of the most significant dramatic offerings of the current season, "Three for Tonight" views the problems of the Negro in America through the eyes of a distinguished trio of dramatists, Paul Green, Ridgely Torrence, and Eugene O'Neill.

"Granny Maumee," Torrence's poignant tragedy of nineteenth century Louisiana, is a portrait study of an aged mother whose son was lynched for a crime he did not commit. In "The Dreamy Kid," Eugene O'Neill, probably this generation's most controversial playwright, dramatizes the conflicts of a young Negro caught up in New York's underworld. Third offering of the trilogy is Paul Green's most popular and widely produced play, "The No Count Boy," a poetic folk comedy.

In the conviction that "drama is written for actors and not for races," the American Negro Repertory Players has long pioneered in the staging of all types of legitimate hit plays. To open their Los Angeles run, star-director Milton Wood has chosen the Victorian melodrama, "Angel Street," by Patrick Hamilton.

Egon Petri Here For Last Guild Series Concert

The date of the last Music Guild Concert of the season, originally scheduled for April 19, has been advanced one week to Wednesday evening, April 12, in Wilshire-Ebell Theatre.

This concert promises to be an extraordinary musical event. The great Dutch pianist Egon Petri has been persuaded to emerge from retirement and to fly to Los Angeles for a joint appearance with the Pagnini Quartet and the celebrated English clarinet-virtuoso Reginald Kell.

The varied and interesting program will include one of Beethoven's masterpieces, the rarely heard Trio Opus 121A, and in addition the "Clarinet Quintet" by Mozart, the "Overture on Hebrew Themes" by Prokofeff and the "Piano Quintet" by Brahms.

Tickets are on sale at the Wilshire-Ebell Theatre Box Office.

Documentary Film At Museum Friday

Britain's great wartime documentary film, "The Raider," will be presented at the current series of film programs at the Los Angeles County Museum in Exposition Park, this Friday night at 8 o'clock.

The feature-length picture is based on an actual incident in the war at sea during World War II. A British warship is torpedoed and the survivors, about to be rescued, have to help fight off another sub attack on the rescue ship.

Admission to the film programs, which are presented in the Museum's second floor lecture hall, is free.

SPORTS

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

HELLO AGAIN—Here I am again dishing out sports in my old bailiwick which I sincerely hope will meet with the approval of EAGLE readers. Plenty water has flowed under the bridge since I left here but sports are still sports and Negro athletes are winning even more laurels than in the past. This is mainly because Negroes are being given more chances in major and coast league baseball, and I might add . . . basketball. Well, here goes:

THIS AND THAT—Larry Doby, centerfielder for the Cleveland Indians, showed Pacific Coast baseball fans why he is regarded as a valuable player last Friday afternoon when he poked a 450-foot homer to give his team a 6-5 victory over the San Diego Padres. His teammate, Bob Kennedy, was lurking on first base when Doby's four-bagger in the seventh heat sent him scurrying home. . . . Don Barksdale, former UCLA basketball great, was a big star in the National AAU cage tourney. Although his team, the Blue 'N' Gold of Oakland, lost in the finals to the Phillips Oilers, 65-42, Don and his teammate, Dave Minor, also a former Bruin, were outstanding during tournament play. . . . Another star in basketball, Ed Warner of CCNY, has been pacing his team in tournament play. In New York last Saturday, CCNY (N. Y. City College) won the eastern NCAA cage championship by beating North Carolina State, 78-73, before 18,000 fans at Madison Square Garden. Warner tallied 17 points during the game.

REGRETS IN ORDER—Sorry to hear that Kenny Washington failed to make the New York Giants team after his tryout but this by no means spells curtains for Kenny's baseball aspirations. He'll probably get a berth on a minor league nine. . . . We are sorry and glad that Joe Louis announced that he'll forsake boxing and take to the sawdust trial of the circus. Last Saturday he told the press that he had given up the idea of fighting Ezzard Charles and then retiring even if he won the title back. Joe joins the Dailey Brothers Circus for a 94-day tour of Canada, starting May 24, but first he'll go to South America on an exhibition tour leaving in about a week.

INTERFRAT TOURNEY—The Interfraternity Basketball Tourney is attracting its usual host of fans at Loyola High gym and interest is at fever-heat. There is probably no other sports event during the year that brings out the guys and gals like this cage feast. Last Saturday night the Sigmas edged last year's champs, the Kappas, 39-37. The Sigmas were on the short end of a 25-19 score at the half but successfully closed the gap in the second half and managed to get under the wire two minutes before the game ended. If you haven't been to any of these games and want to feel that old college spirit, take in one of these games on Saturday and you'll get it.

A PLEA—If you or your club are indulging in sports of any kind, drop this scribe a line about your activities in care of the EAGLE before Tuesday of any week and we'll be glad to publish your sports news. We'll be looking to hear from you.

Carlos Chavez Bags Decision

Carlos Chavez, 134, gained a unanimous 10-round decision over Baby Leroy, 128½, Sacramento, before 1500 fans at the Olympic Auditorium Tuesday night. Leroy elected to fight in spots and that spelled his doom. Chavez scored the most telling blows of the fight with a body attack.

Every once in awhile Leroy stopped using a feeble left jab to trade punches but these flurries were too infrequent to pile up many points.

NEXT TUESDAY

It was announced that next Tuesday night the Olympic would present a stellar card. Names of the principals were not given up to the time the Eagle went to press.

Tuesday night, April 18, will be a banner night at the Grand avenue arena when Art Aragon tangles with Guillermo Gimenez, the South American lightweight who stopped Maxie Docusen in New Orleans.

WON'T COME BACK—Joe Louis, who ruled the heavyweight throne for 11 years and retired as champion March 1, 1948, announced last Saturday that he will not come back to fight Ezzard Charles, NBA champ. Instead Joe said he is going on a South American boxing exhibition tour first, after which he'll tour for 94 days with the Dailey Brothers Circus in Canada, starting May 24. Louis is pictured with his friend, Eddie "Rochester" Anderson of the Jack Benny radio show.

Highlights of the Fremont-Jeff track meet: The canine 440 in which Gary Green had to side step a frisky dog all the way around the track in order to avoid stepping on the rascal. Gary posted a slow 54 seconds, but that is a remarkable time in consideration of the hurdle in his path. P. S.: The dog came in second. The rain really made sluggish going but "Smoothie" Williams really ignored the elements in posting a 9.8 ahead of "Fly Guy" Blackburn.

Omegas Measure Alphas

By Charles Lloyd

While the Bruins were off blowing the duke to Baylor and the City College Cubs were winning a national championship Saturday night, the fraternities moved a step towards settling their annual brawl on the Loyola High School hardwood. First round play saw the Sigmas and Omegas emerge as victors in the 18th Annual Interfraternity Basketball series.

In the feature game of the night between the giants of the series, the Sigmas, perennial challengers, looked good in downing last year's championship Kappa squad, which was badly disorganized in the closing stages of the contest. Final score was 39-37 in the Sigma's favor.

Trailing 19-25 at the half, the blue and white clad Sigmas surged back in the second stanza under the inspired directions of Bobby Pounds, Fred Bluet, and Doug Shaw and Company to cut the Kappas' lead step by step. Spenser connected on a push shot for the Sigmas and knotted the score 35-all with four minutes remaining to play. Dave Williams countered with a free throw which put the Kappas ahead for the last time. Doug Shaw missed a charity toss but completed a field goal to give the victors a 38-36 margin with two minutes left in the game.

It was at this point that the Kappa machine fell apart and failed to connect on four consecutive shots. Dave Williams' last-ditch effort to save the day with ten seconds to play was foiled when his long shot from center hit the roof of the building and fell harmlessly to the floor.

Coach Balford Gland's Sigma charges, who now rate as the team to beat in the tournament, showed expert team work and smooth ball handling. Bobby Pounds and Doug Shaw were their big guns. Dave Williams and Whitney Arceneaux were fire-works for the Kappas.

In the series' opener the Alphas were stymied in their efforts to reclaim the honors which they won on the court in '48 and lost last year. The Omega "Little Giants" victimized them 34-22 in a low-scoring contest. Charles Reed drew first blood in the opening minutes of the game and gave the victors a lead that they never relinquished, which, on the contrary, was increased down to the last two minutes of play.

The Omegas' Ivan "The Terrible" Robinson lived up to advance billing by connecting with 7 free throws and 3 field goals to wind up as the game's leading scorer with a total of 13 points. Charles Reed, who also put on a brilliant performance for the victors, came in second with 11 markers, and Kenneth Hill was outstanding for the Alphas.

Early in the first half the Omegas ran the lead up to 13-5, but the Alphas' one-two punch of Hill and Hill put on a scoring spree of their own and whittled the lead down to 14-10, which is about the closest score ever got. The count was 16-11 at the half.

The Alphas' greatest consolation came when Bill Jones made the longest shot of the game from the center of the floor early in the second half. Both teams exhibited excellent defensive tactics which accounts for the low scores and which fact might make it a little tough for the offensive minded Sigmas and Kappas in nights to come. Vernin Melton was the artist of ball control for the victors while Isaac Israel mastered the ball for the Alphas.

ON THE TURF

GEORGE RAMSEY

CALIENTE, Old Mexico—About 9000 fans braved a chilly and drizzly afternoon to witness one of the best programs of horse racing seen at the border course in many weeks. They were there to try and share in the $5000 given away. No one was able to pick seven straight winners from the third thru the ninth after ten weeks try. There were 14 cash prizes given away to the lucky program holders. Two of the prizes were won by race men, one for $500 and the other $250, a good investment for fifteen cents. This is the second time the track has given away $5000 free cash program awards.

The feature race of the day was won by the consistent nine-year-old Wickford Point, who came from sixth at the half-mile post to catch the leaders in the stretch and win going away by a half length. Installed as favorite he paid in the mutuels $6.20. The six furlongs was run in 1:11.35 over a dull track.

In the secondary, Annapolis Ayr, co-favorite with Inlight, scored a three-length victory over his field. Inlight came from far back to be a easy second over the longshot Equisonance. Annapolis Ayr rewarded its backers $6.

The daily-double combination of Gloria Saxon, winner of the second race, and Hydroma Tic, victor of the third, paid $69.80. While Quintela holders of Bond Market and Barnello, who finished in that order, received $29.00.

Apprentice jockeys G. Parker and B. Steed were the riding stars of the day, each having three winners.

This Sunday General Manager Walter C. Marty has arranged three feature attractions to support the twelve race program. Main event will be "The April Fool Handicap" at one mile. Secondary, "The Challenge" at six furlongs, third "The Prank," for maidens, four-year olds and upwards. Six races are at a mile or over. Post time remains at noon.

At Tanforan (up San Francisco way) more than 18,000 fans were at the track last Saturday to witness the running of the Peninsula Handicap at six furlongs, which was won by California's leading money winner, On Trust, who ran coupled with Prevaricator. Bolero finished second and the morning favorite was in front to midway in the stretch when On Trust came with a rush to score by three lengths with Steve Brooks aboard, paying $9.10. This victory brings On Trust's lifetime earnings to $505,970, more than any California bred horse has ever earned in the history of the track.

Harold Jones Faces Beltz At Legion Friday

Junior welterweights Harold "Baby Face" Jones and Elmer Beltz clash in the ten round top attraction at Hollywood Legion Stadium Friday night. The winner may find himself in line to box Art Aragon at the famed film capitol club in the near future.

Jones, who already has had one crack at Golden Boy Art, will likely be favored to hurdle his youthful foe. This, in spite of the fact that Beltz recently turned back Freddie Babe Herman, who in turn whacked out a ten round win over Jones. Both bouts took place at Hollywood.

Friday's semi-final shows Joel Fisher, a good lightweight prospect, against Nickle Smith, a young Negro who has fought mains in the past.

Oscar Reyes, who showed some class in the recent Golden Gloves Tourney turns pro in Friday's four round special, meeting rugged Benny Jordan.

BOBCAT LOSES

PHILADELPHIA — Eddie Giosa handed Bob Montgomery his fourth setback in a row since the former lightweight king began a comeback, scoring a unanimous 10-round decision Monday before 1000 fans at the arena. Both weighed 134.

WINS TOURNAY

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—Middleton High School of Tampa, Fla., won its second straight cage tournament, and its sixth state championship in the past 10 years.

Luke Easter, Cleveland right-fighter, had a perfect day at bat last Saturday at Wrigley Field but his team was trounced, 4-3, by the Chicago Cubs. Luke walked twice, hit a double and smashed a homer over the fence.

Louis To Give Up Boxing

WACO, Tex. — Joe Louis, who was heavyweight champion almost 11 years and retired undefeated, said last Saturday he will hang up the gloves for good after a South American exhibition tour.

The former titleholder said instead of fighting he will join Dailey Brothers Circus to demonstrate ring tactics at $1000 a day. He said he will not, as expected in many quarters, challenge Ezzard Charles, who succeeded him as world's heavyweight champion. He added he will even quit fighting exhibitions after this year.

Louis retired as champion March 1, 1948, but ever since then there has been talk that he would make a comeback. He himself said on numerous occasions that he would like to have one last fight with the idea of beating Charles and becoming the only man in ring history to accomplish such a feat.

But now Louis said he really didn't want to fight Charles and that if he did there wouldn't be enough money in it. He also said that the idea of the grueling training routine he would have to go through for such a fight was a major barrier.

Louis will be with the circus for 94 days, starting May 24, in a tour of Canada. But first he will go to South America on an exhibition tour, leaving in about 10 days.

Joe said that if he had decided on a fight with Charles he would have asked 35 per cent of the gate. "That wouldn't work," he added. "You know, fighters only get 60 per cent and Charles would have had to fight for less than me, and him the champion."

Walcott Puts In Claim For Heavy Crown

CAMDEN, N. J. — Jersey Joe Walcott, through his manager, Felix Bocchicchio, Tuesday claimed the world heavyweight boxing title providing Ezzard Charles is unable to fight again.

Charles was forced to cancel his title bout with Freddie Beshore this week because of an injury.

Bocchicchio said he is claiming the title in belief that Joe Louis will remain in retirement and that NBA Champion Charles has suffered an injury to a heart muscle which also may force him into permanent retirement.

Lloyd LaBeach, the Panamanian sprinter who is now attending Loyola University, blazed to a 9.5s 100 and a 21.3s furlong while running unattached as the Los Angeles State track team trounced Loyola, 98-32, on the winners' oval Tuesday.

Jefferson High PTA Officers Re-Elected For Ensuing Year

So, well have the present officers of the PTA of Jefferson High School discharged their official duties and the body has re-elected them for the year 1950-51, making only the changes necessary by the PTA By-laws on the time limit of service.

Energetic Mrs. S. T. Johnson has by her capabilities and devotion to the work, raised such a high standard of leadership, that the organization will find it a task to replace her. She was elected president for the second term.

Mrs. Martha Sanford through her faithfulness and efficiency, not only was called upon to continue in the office of corresponding Secretary, but has added the office of recording secretary. Mrs. Sanford has served the double role this year because of the illness of Mrs. A. Christopher who was elected Recording Secretary.

Mrs. Joe Robertson, first vice president; Mrs. Hazel Whedon, second vice president; Mr. John Houston, auditor, and Mrs. Hattie E. Chamberlain, parliamentarian, succeed themselves.

Mrs. Janie Wise, financial secretary; Mrs. Ruby Wiggins, treasurer, and Mrs. Addie Derrick, historian, are the new members of the official staff.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, April 11. Executive Board meeting at 12 noon, followed by the public meeting at 2:15 in the school cafeteria. All are welcome. It will be held at Jefferson High School, 41st and Hooper Av.

White Teacher Calls Students 'Nigger,' 'Darky'

Miss Stein, a white seventh grade teacher at the Willowbrook Junior High School, 124th street and Wilmington, has been accused by her students of the promiscuous use of the words "Nigger" and "Darky" in their presence. The students are predominantly Negroes.

A meeting was held last week by a group of Watts citizens to protest the matter, at which time Miss Stein denied using the words. She was strongly defended by Mr. Wagstaff, the school principal, white, and Mr. Baker, a substitute teacher, colored.

The citizens' meeting last week was attended by Atty. Rayfield Lundy, a member of the Legal Redress Committee. Mr. Lundy reports that the children are positive and convincing in their accusation, even though somewhat awed by the school authorities, and it is his desire that this organization direct its attention to the matter.

It was therefore recommended that one of the committees directly concerned with the problems of education investigate the matter and recommend action. Mr. Rayfield Lundy, attorney, will be glad to cooperate in the investigation.

The chairman of the Legal Redress Committee is Edward Carter Maddox.

Roosevelt Adult School

To meet the ever increasing demand for licensed real estate sales people, the Roosevelt Adult School, 450 South Fickett Street, announces a new real estate class, according to Roy L. Stone, Principal. The fact that 2,750,000 people have moved to and found homes in this State since 1940 is evidence of the job that has been done in the real estate profession.

The Roosevelt Adult School is also accepting applications for a course in vocal music. Any person who is interested in this class may now enter a group tentatively starting on Tuesday, April 11, 1950, at 6:30 p.m. The class which will be conducted by Mr. John Mitchum, will feature sight singing, ear training, vocal technique, and choral singing.

Persons interested in enrolling in these classes may fill out an application at the evening school office, 450 South Fickett Street or by telephoning ANGELUS 94300 after 2:00 p.m.

Iota Phi Lambda Announces A Broad Progressive Program

The Eastern Regional Conference of Iota Phi Lambda sorority convened in Norfolk, Va., March 25 and 26 with Alpha Chi chapter as official hostesses. Nona B. Diggs, president.

Several national officers were present, including the president, Alice P. Allen of Birmingham, Ala.; first vice-president, Jeanne S. Scott, Pittsburgh, Pa.; second vice-president, Marion H. Elliott, Washington, D. C.; journalist, Edna M. Kinney, New York City; director of education, Evelyn D. Wilkey, Baltimore, Md.; and the regional director, Beulah J. Murphy, Washington, D. C.

On Sunday afternoon Dr. Alonzo G. Mason, president of Hampton Institute, was the guest speaker at a public forum. The theme of the conference was "Democracy on Trial."

Gamma Chapter, Washington, D. C., was awarded the regional plaque for outstanding achievement and contribution to the program of the Eastern Region.

Officers elected were: Treasurer, Mary G. Sirls, Washington, D. C.; co-signer, Ethel G. Holt, Washington, D. C.; secretary, Juanita Mack, Philadelphia, Pa.; assistant secretary, Beatrice Crawford, Philadelphia, Pa.; journalist, Mary Crump, Baltimore, Md.; assistant journalist, Terry McClain, New York.

The Eastern Regional Conference adopted the following resolution:

Whereas, the advancement of Negroes in America depends upon a number of factors, a major one being self-help, and integrity;

Whereas, economic development through business enterprise is a primary form of self-help, one which is deserving of every support and encouragement since it produces jobs and wealth, and is the medium to which Iota Phi Lambda itself is dedicated;

Resolved, that Iota Phi Lambda sorority does not countenance improper conduct on the part of those people in whom the public is asked to place its trust; nor shall it seek to usurp the powers of the Courts by passing judgment upon any person or persons, guilty or innocent, before all the facts have been properly presented;

Resolved, that the Eastern Regional Conference of Iota Phi

Lambda sorority goes on record as cautioning all those who might be motivated otherwise, that forbearance and wisdom should be the governing influence in their feeling and attitudes regarding this and similar matters until proper adjudication has been made.

The Eastern Region also went on record as endorsing any legislation that will make for better housing, employment, educational opportunities and the general welfare of all people, and further that it will continue to support all Civil Rights legislation. Iota Phi Lambda sorority is cognizant of the fact that although employment is at a high peak there is a comparative high rate of unemployment.

We will remain alert to the changing trends in the economic picture affecting minorities in their communities and will urge additional establishment of or implementation to FEPC. Further, we will urge the education of minority groups to make effective use of labor unions for the stabilization of their economic security and we will continue to urge the training and placement of minorities in varied fields in order to achieve new job opportunities.

Saturday Is The Day When The Census Takers Come Around

School will end for 3500 census takers on Friday, and on Saturday morning the official United States census of people, agriculture and housing will get under way. In California, the farmers will take their own census, answering questions on questionnaires sent them by the government.

Householders must answer eight questions. Additional questions will be asked every fifth and every thirtieth person. The information gathered will be published as statistical data and no specific identification of any individual's answers will be available for any public purpose.

Census takers will be sworn in as government employees, and they must take an oath of secrecy. While questions will be of a highly personal nature, all persons must answer them under penalty of the law. There will be no invasion of privacy since the information is for statistics only, the government says.

Every census taker has proper identification and householders are advised to demand identification when a representative calls.

Doings About Omaha

by G. Anita Hayes

The Archie B. Youngs of 2624 Maney Street received a letter from their daughter, Miss Bertha M. Young, music teacher in the Garfield Intermediate School, Detroit, Michigan, stating that she had been promoted from her present position to that of Girls Counsellor. The position pays a yearly salary of $5700 and includes a permanent contract status.

Congratulations to this product of Omaha that she achieved despite the lack of opportunities offered her in her own hometown.

Miss Young's promotion gives rise to deep reflecting and reason for a very precise comparison between the liberal opportunities offered Miss Young who was forced to leave Omaha to find a permanent position and advancement in the field of education. Her position is not one offered her because she was a Negro nor because she teaches in a school populated only by Negro pupils and an all Negro faculty, but because she was a human being, capable and deserving of such consideration. The principal, teachers and pupils at Garfield School, compose a mixed racial group.

Although Miss Young is working toward her master's degree, the Detroit Public School system does not employ adual system of qualifying requisites as the Omaha Public School system does.

The Long Public School in Omaha, a grade school populated wholly by Negro students and teachers has five or six teachers on its faculty who have masters and some are even working toward their Ph.D. A masters degree was not required for Miss Young's promotion.

The problem of discrimination and segregation in the Omaha Public School can only be solved through an active constructive program launched and carried through by the citizens. Teachers on a probationary and substitute list with no permanent status can never solve their own problems.

The Detroit system only became liberal because of a continued fight by the citizens against segregation and unfair policies by the citizens.

The Late Charles S. Dodge Won High Position In Bank Here

The California Eagle regrets to report that the Pittsburgh Courier was only seven years behind the times, in its recent story about Charles S. Dodge, Negro official of the Bank of America.

The Courier reported that Mr. Dodge is still living, at an advanced age, at his Inglewood home. The fact is that Mr. Dodge, who held the highest position ever held by a Negro in a white financial institution in the United States, died on December 27, 1942.

"Many friends have written me, believing the rumor of Mr. Dodge's passing was false," writes Mrs. Dodge, widow of the bank officer. "I wish you would correct the error, as I have been annoyed by such a report."

Mr. Dodge was a graduate of Fisk University, where he supported himself by cutting the hair of his fellow students as well as by regular part-time work. In 1890 he entered law school in St. Louis, but after three years financial difficulties forced him to accept work as a janitor.

His janitor job was with the St. Louis Bank and Trust Company. Realizing that he could never complete his legal training by the way of the job and broom, Mr. Dodge set out to learn the banking business. Every night, when his janitor work was done, he practiced writing blank checks and balancing pass books.

Then one night he asked the chief clerk if he could help balance pass books, on which the work was far behind. Impressed by Mr. Dodge's sincerity, the chief clerk accepted the janitor's offer and gave Mr. Dodge some of the hardest books to balance. Mr. Dodge completed the job in an incredibly short time.

Mr. Dodge continued to help out the chief clerk, in addition to his duties as janitor, until his work attracted the attention of the bank's president. The president was much disturbed at first, but upon checking Mr. Dodge's work, he found that his janitor was highly proficient in the clerk's work. A small promotion resulted.

Finally, Mr. Dodge's competence won the respect of the bank officials to such an extent that the president of the bank ordered that all drafts due the bank should be made payable to Charles H. Dodge, in cash.

In 1912 Mr. Dodge moved to San Diego, where his recommendations from St. Louis brought him a clerk's position with the growing Bank of Italy—later to become the Bank of America. As in St. Louis, Mr. Dodge won the confidence and friendship of all connected with the bank.

After a few years had passed, the Bank of Italy cashier, who had become a close friend of Mr. Dodge, was advanced to vice-president. Mr. Dodge asked him if he could be appointed to take his place—suggesting that title be changed from "cashier" to "currency counter."

The board of directors approved the change, and for 20 years Mr. Dodge served as "currency counter" for the Bank of America, the strongest financial institution in the U.S.A. outside of New York City.

Mr. Dodge's contribution to society did not end with his own personal advancement. Among his many progressive and humanitarian activities, Mr. Dodge secured the erection of Summer high school, St. Louis, the first high school in the United States built for Negro students.

For 12 years, Mr. Dodge fought for release from a federal prison of Corp. Harry B. Ivey, who was serving a life sentence. After spending hundreds of dollars of his own money and making a personal visit to President Calvin Coolidge, Ivey's release was finally won by Mr. Dodge.

On another instance, Mr. Dodge obtained complete vindication for a white physician in San Diego who had been sentenced to life imprisonment of Sam Quenton on a murder charge.

Upon the election of President Warren G. Harding, Dodge was urged to file application for Registrar of the U. S. Treasury. Although he did not receive the appointment, he was endorsed by five senators, two governors, five bank presidents, and 11 states—including Tennessee, Alabama, and Texas.

Ill health finally forced Mr. Dodge to retire to the ranch in Inglewood where he resided until his death. He is survived by his widow and one son, Charles H. Dodge, Jr.

Top Pacers to Grace Harness Racing Here

Twenty-two of the finest crop of pacers developed in modern harness racing history have been nominated for the $50,000 Golden West Pace at Santa Anita on June 17, General Manager Bernard Kearney of Western Harness Racing Association announced.

The growth of the sulky sport in recent years is clearly indicated by the superlative crop of sidewheelers in training for the 1950 campaign, and all of the brighter lights have been named for the rich Western Harness classic, first major test of the season.

Two former Golden West champions—Jerry the First and April Star—head the list by virtue of past performances in the classic. Jerry the First, Eddie Cobb's fast-closing pacer, won last year's event at Hollywood Park in the final five yards. April Star was the 1947 winner, and is being brought out of retirement by R. L. Craig of Urbana, Ohio.

The nation's two finest three-year old pacers last season—Good Time and Prince Jay—will make their first important starts in free-for-all competition in the Golden West Pace. Good time, Bill Cane's "Lazyzones," was voted Harness Horse of the Year in 1949. He defeated Prince Jay by a head in the $10,000 Western Pace at Hollywood Park last fall, and the time of 1:59 2-5 was the fastest ever recorded in California.

Parry O'Brien, sensational frosh shot putter for the University of Southern California, set a new Trobabe record in his first meet against Occidental Frosh with a put of 51ft. 1 1/2 in.

People Pledge End of M-F Bill

The West Adams Committee Against the Mundt-Ferguson bill held a rousing meeting in the Jewish War Veterans Hall, 2604 West Blvd., last Tuesday evening, at which the 225 people or more who attended pledged continuous warfare until this vicious piece of legislation is killed.

Ben Margolis, prominent labor attorney, gave a most illuminating analysis of the bill, the same as the Mundt-Nixon bill which died in the 80th Congress for lack of support. This bill, Atty. Margolis pointed out, is supposedly directed against the Communists in America.

"In reality," he said, "it means all of us. It means everyone who dares to speak his mind in America, where we are guaranteed free speech by our Constitution. It means anyone who dares to say the people should have jobs, should have homes, should have enough to eat. Declare your sympathy for the babies starving in San Joaquin Valley, for the people without jobs huddled in shacks without floors and without lights, and you will be called a Communist sympathizer, and subject to a jail sentence or a heavy fine under this bill."

Dave Gordon, of the ILGWU, stressed the danger to organized labor if this bill becomes law. Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor and publisher of The California Eagle, spoke feelingly of the harm it would do to Negro people and to all minority groups. A total of $115 was collected to fight the proposed bill.

Shirley Grey and Lee Barry, balladists, delighted the audience with several selections.

United Jewish Welfare Fund Drive Supports 50 Agencies

April 10 is the opening date for the Los Angeles 1950 United Jewish Welfare Fund campaign which this year will seek $11,620,000 for more than 50 Los Angeles, national and overseas health and welfare agencies.

"The urgent need for funds both here and abroad sets the pace for one of the most unified campaigns we have ever known," Oscar S. Pattiz, Chairman of the drive advised.

"The $11,620,000 being sought this year represents the minimum needs of many agencies both here and overseas whose continued activity spell the difference between life and death for hundreds of thousands of desperately dependent human beings," Pattiz said.

The slogan for this year's drive is "See the Miracle Through," and refers, Pattiz explained, to the rescue of displaced persons throughout Europe and their readjustment in Israel which main tains an open door policy to all refugees.

Education is a fine thing, and we should take advantage of it whenever possible.

Many young people do not realize its importance until it is almost too late to do anything about it. Parents therefore, should see to it that their children take full advantage of all educational facilities.

But, there is something else, far more important than education which should be instilled in their minds. That is religion. For God alone can give eternal life, and without Him, there would be nothing worth living for in this imperfect world. A Godless education is invaluable, for it lacks a good foundation, which is necessary to build upon.

R.B.L.—Dear Professor Herman: I enjoy your column very much. Please help me with my problem. My marriage is going on the rocks. What shall I do?

D.C.—I plan to graduate from high school in June. Will I find work after graduation?

Dr. F. E. Campbell

Dental plate neglect may be costly to you in health and appearance—
ASK YOURSELF THESE 6 QUESTIONS

1. Am I nervous and irritable?
If your dental plates are loose—if they gouge your gums, making them SORE—chances are your gums have shrunk. Possibly your MOUTH HAS CHANGED, but your dental plates have not changed. No wonder you become nervous and irritable.
2. Am I suffering from malnutrition?
If you feel TIRED and RUN DOWN—if you seem old beyond your years—possibly you are not getting full value out of the food you eat. If you HATE TO CHEW, because you need new dental plates, it's likely ONLY A PORTION of your food is assimilated into your system.
3. Is my hearing being damaged?
If your bite is not correct due to mouth changes, you may be INJURING your hearing ability. This has been considered a CAUSE for loss of hearing for years. A national magazine recently quoted a leading doctor as follows: "... of the 10,000,000 deaf or hard-of-hearing Americans, bad bite is at least partly to blame in 40 per cent of the cases."
4. Are there new lines in my face?
If your face seems to have AGED due to sunken mouth and cheeks, shrunk gums may be the cause. Sometimes loose dental plates PUSH BACK in the mouth, adding UNSIGHTLY LINES to your face.
5. Do I have a strained appearance?
If the tendons of your neck stand out, and your bite is closed, you may have a DISTORTED FACIAL EXPRESSION. Loose dental plates—out of adjustment—often bring about a strained appearance.
6. Are my dental plates becoming to me?
If you feel SELF CONSCIOUS about how your dental plates look, are they old fashioned or stained? Appearance can be a severe handicap.

New dental plates may be a great help to you—at least it should pay you to see a dentist. If your health and appearance can be improved, think how much more pleasant life may be.

Baha'i World Faith

The hour of spiritual destiny is the subject on which Mrs. Virginia Foster will address the public meeting of Baha'i World Faith to be held at their Los Angeles headquarters, 331 So. New Hampshire Avenue, on Sunday afternoon; April 2, at 3:30 o'clock.

"The sun of the human spirit is the word of God, revealed in every age by the founders of the great religions. Moses, Jesus, Muhammad, Krishna, Buddha, were the mediators through which this sun shone in past ages. Owing to them, great civilization arose. Today is another springtime, when in fulfillment of the ancient promises, the spiritual sun has again risen to guide mankind in his hour of darkness, to shed the light of truth upon the difficult problems of the age, and to evoke in human hearts that faith and radiant love which are the first requirements of reconstruction. The word of God is revealed today by Baha'u'llah," says Mrs. Foster.

Dr. J. Raymond Henderson Returns From Africa

The eminent pastor of the Second Baptist Church, Dr. J. Raymond Henderson, has returned to his pulpit for Palm Sunday, April 2, after an extensive journey to the Baptist Mission Stations in Nigeria, Gold Coast, and Liberia in West Africa. His travels included stops in these principal foreign cities—London, England; Paris, France; and Rome, Italy. He will give a comprehensive review and show moving pictures of his pilgrimage to the church and the general public on a date which will be announced later.

Dr. Henderson continually expressed his deep gratitude in letters to the membership of the church for their generosity in financing this trip. In one of the letters he said:

"I have been far, seen and learned much. I am profoundly grateful for this marvelous experience. But I've also concluded: That the best part of the world is North America—the best part of North America is the U. S.—the best part of the U. S. is California—the best part of California is Los Angeles—and the best part of Los Angeles is Second Baptist Church, and don't you know I'm coming on home?"

The Second Baptist Sunday School is sponsoring a "Homecoming" dinner in honor of Dr. Henderson at 1:30 p.m. the same at the First Congregational Church of Los Angeles Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The cantata will be presented by 250 trained singers of six choirs, including the Cathedral Choir of the host church.

Soloists are Fern Sayre, soprano, Ralph Horel, tenor, and Merwyn Daut, bass, according to Melvin L. Gallagher, music minister of the host church.

Master of the art of spiritual singing, Dr. Garner, internationally known Negro tenor, brings to his ministry of music faith coupled with patience, long suffering and deep gratitude for life. A graduate of the American Conservatory of Music, he has sung with the Chicago, London and N.B.C. Symphony Orchestras, and in Europe, Canada, the West Indies and in all parts of his native U.S.A.

SILKS AND BAGS

The age that rocks
The world will be,

Attorney And Client In Name Mix-Up

LOS ANGELES (NPB)—Atty. Curtis C. Taylor, widely known barrister with offices at 2510 Central Avenue, despite his popularity was in a bit of quandry last week over a case of mistaken identity.

The W. K. Barrister, had just been retained by a client, Curtis Taylor (same name) to represent him in a divorce action against his wife, Beatrice of 5121 Ascot Avenue.

Then and there, the mixup in names and positions on the side of the legal fence began. Many persons remembered that Atty. Taylor had begun a divorce action in 1947 against his wife, Lotus Taylor and quickly concluded that the action had not been consummated.

As a result, one local paper erroneously printed the story that it was Atty. Taylor filing the action on his own behalf instead of the true facts, that he was representing a client by an identical name. The lawyer was quick to inform newsmen that he is still "free and easy."

New Faces Plus Ability Sought By Ida Lupino

HOLLYWOOD—Ida Lupino, gifted actress and shrewd student of things theatrical, is presently directing "Outrage," a dramatic production by Filmakers, Inc., for RKO Radio distribution.

When "Outrage" reaches the nation's cinema houses it will introduce at the head of its cast three new players—Mala Powers, Tod Andrews and Robert Clark. To many movie makers this might seem a terrific boxoffice gamble. It doesn't seem so to the woman who discovered the trio.

Miss Lupino interviewed more than 200 young women before she selected Mala Powers as the co-star of "Outrage." She plucked the youthful actress from radio and Little Theater work in the Hollywood area.

New York contributed Andrews and Clarke. Miss Lupino found Andrews playing opposite Margaret Phillips in a Tennessee Williams play, "Summer and Smoke," and signed him to co-star with Miss Powers. She spotted Clarke on Broadway in "The Play's the Thing"—and gave him the romantic lead in "Outrage."

FTA Local 22 Willowbrook Rebuffs Raid Cross Walks By CIO Union

In a sharp repudiation of CIO raiding tactics, workers at the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co. in Winston-Salem, N. C., voted by more than six to one in favor of the Food, Tobacco, Agricultural Workers Union and against the CIO Transport Service Employees Union.

The vote for FTA Local 22 was 3,323 with only 541 voting for CIO. An AFL union, also on the ballot, received 1,514 votes.

Of a total of 8,992 votes cast in the biggest Southern election recently conducted by the National Labor Relations Board, 3,426 were cast for no union, making a runoff election between FTA and "no union" necessary. This is expected to be held within two weeks. Votes for the three unions on the ballot totalled 5,378, showing that FTA Local 22 decisively defeated both the AFL and the CIO unions by a better than three to two majority.

Committee Report Hits Police Discrimination In Los Angeles

Alleged brutality and racial discrimination against Negroes by Los Angeles police was noted in a report by the Assembly interim committee on crime and correction submitted this week.

Pointing out that California lags behind other states in rehabilitation of criminals, the report urged instruction for prisoners about to be released on the "outside world," and it proposed that prisons take on a "new look" with cottage type architecture and no walls.

San Quentin prison was criticized for its inadequate psychiatric department and its lack of cleanliness. San Quentin has long been regarded as a tough prison where hardened criminals are hardened even more, and where new offenders learn to "get tough or else."

Robert Wesley Wells, condemned to die for hurling a cuspidor at a San Quentin guard, is a product of the cruel cynicism of San Quentin. National support has been mobilized in a campaign to have his sentence commuted.

The interim committee's report concerned itself with reports

His letter to the board follows:

"After careful deliberation I have decided to withdraw my resignation submitted in 1949 as secretary of the NAACP. I take this step for the following reasons:

"I feel able to withdraw my resignation because I have been informed by Dr. Arthur Master that my health has improved to such an extent that, although I have a coronary condition, my present problem is more enurogenic than coronary. He states that if I will lead a "sensible

Demand Policeman's Suspension In George Shenvair Shooting

Action by the California Eagle brought the release of George L. Shenvair from the prison ward of General Hospital last Friday following disclosure that he was being held after having been shot by plainclothes detectives who failed to properly identify themselves, and who appeared with a man who had previously severely beat Shenvair and a tenant in the apartment building where he is employed.

A California Eagle reporter visited Shenvair at the hospital Tuesday and learned from him the full story of the unwarranted shooting which nearly cost him his life. Shenvair showed the reporter the spot on the left side of his chest where the policeman's bullet emerged, barely missing his heart.

The wound was inflicted by either detective Jerry Uhlik or detective William Muncres of the Hollywood police. The detectives appeared in the garage of the Voltaire Apartments on Crescent Heights drive where Shenvair is employed as garage attendant with 28-year-old Robert Thomas, who had been routed by Shenvair a short time before, after he had attacked 71-

Landlords Brought To Court For Overcharging Tenants

Fifty-one landlords, large and small, this week, were called to account for bonus-collecting and over-charging proclivities cited in a mass filing of complaints in United States District Court by the Office of Housing Expediter.

Grand total of the amounts the federal rent agency asserts were extracted in violation of law was $30,832, and three-fold restitution may be applied by the Court in assessing the amount the landlords can be ordered to refund.

In addition to naming the 100 tenants for whom restitution is sought, the Housing Expediter's attorneys asks the court to issue injunctions permanently restraining each landlord from any future violations of the federal rent act.

Among those destined to "tell it to the judge" are the following:

A. Philip Giuliano, owner of a four-unit rental property at 551 South Gramercy Place. The federal agency has traced the departed landlord to New Jersey and served him with notice to appear and explain $3117 in alleged overcharges, including bonuses of $995 and $1595 which tenants Alex Nulin and Jack Simon say they had to pay Giuliano to get possession.

Mrs. Delilah Avery, 1164 E. 23rd Street, who assertedly collected nearly $600 in about six months from a rental unit on the same lot by jacking up the rent to more than four times the lawful rate.

Alexander Norman, 682 E. 36th Street, Los Angeles, who assertedly applied the "triple rent" principle in his own way by collecting three times the ceiling rate for a rental unit at the same place.

Julius Goldberg, apartment operator of 409 - No. Soto Street, whose alleged collection of bonuses of $200 and $300 from would-be tenants as a condition of rental drew unfavorable attention of federal rent attorneys

Evictions For Non-Payment Of Rents Increase

Eviction notices for non-payment of rent have doubled since January 1, and eviction action against unauthorized (doubling-up) families are increasing in Los Angeles, according to Gregg H. Watson, deputy area rent director.

The inability of a great number of families to pay high rents, and the rapidly swelling unemployment lists are responsible for the non-payment evictions, Watson says, and the doubling-up results from evictions, and the flight of families from surrounding areas where decontrol has already set in.

Landlords don't like doubling-up, and they have the right to evict. Also landlords don't like lower rent scales, so it can be expected that evictions will increase.

The highest score ever made by a University of Southern California basketball team against a Southern Division opponent was 72 points when they beat California, 72-56, last season.

of police brutality and discrimination against Negroes in Los Angeles, and it pointed out that the situation "is improving" under Chief Worton.

Last week Assemblyman Rosenthal's resolution calling for an investigation of police discrimination against minorities in Los Angeles was reported out of committee with a "do pass" recommendation. Assembly action on the resolution is expected soon.

Assemblyman Vernon Kilpatrick is chairman of the interim committee on crime and correction which submitted the report.

NAACP Youth Conference On

Youth and Student chapters of N.A.A.C.P. will sponsor a "Youth Conference on Civil Rights" next Saturday at the Victory Baptist Church, 4802 So. McKinley Ave., with more than 50 presidents and leaders of organizations lending their support.

Seven L. A. congressmen have received telegrams from Miss Juanita Fuller, Western Regional Director of the Youth and Student Chapters. Congressmen were invited to attend the conference and asked to oppose the Mundt-Ferguson bill and similar legislation in the lower house.

It is expected that Miss Fuller will bring to the youth conference, the N.A.A.C.P. views on the Mundt-Ferguson bill. The conference is also expected to approve the California State Assembly's action in ordering its Interim Committee on Crime and Corrections, headed by Assemblyman Vernon Kilpatrick, to investigate reports of brutality by Los Angeles police and sheriff's officers.

E. V. Franklin, Regional Chairman of the United Auto Workers Fair Employment Practices Committee, will be among speakers at the opening session, which will follow 9:30 a.m. registration. The conference will close at 5 p.m.

Saturday night, following the conference, the Los Angeles N.A.A.C.P. Youth Council will be host at a "Jam Session and Dance" at the LaVada ballroom, 249 E. Vernon Ave. All youth who cannot attend the day conference are urged to attend the dance to meet conference participants. Admission to the dance will be 50 cents.

RESIDENTS OF LOS ANGELES are fortunate in having an office that practices New Yorker Technique—a haven for those who suffer—where the cause of Toxic Poison may be removed—where relief of constipation—an elimination, may be obtained in 20 minutes.

NOTE: Toxic poisons cause practically all ills of mankind. When toxic poisons or that which causes disease is removed the result is so effective in producing quick results that the change experienced by the sufferer is hardly less marked than that felt by the prisoner when the ball and chain have been removed from his ankles. It has to be experienced to be properly understood and appreciated.

New Yorker Technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine. In simple language—it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that the contents may be passed by normal effort.

Dr. Brinkley D.C., has the only office that is permitted to practice New Yorker Technique. He has no branch offices.

DR. BRINKLEY HAS A STAFF OF MORE THAN 120 PEOPLE, 18 LICENSED DOCTORS AND MORE THAN 60 SPECIALLY TRAINED NURSES AND TECHNICIANS. He has his own private laboratory and complete laboratory facilities, the finest equipment—30 private treatment rooms. IT IS THE LARGEST INSTITUTION OF ITS KIND IN THE ENTIRE WORLD—NO EXCEPTIONS.

This notable organization is outstanding—without equal—and must be seen to be appreciated.

Dr. Brinkley says: To protect the sick against the wrong diagnosis, it is my belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made. In all cases tests should include complete blood count, urinalysis, microscopic examination and study of stool. If diabetes is suspected a fasting blood sugar test should be given; for liver disorders—various liver functional test given; for infectious diseases—sedimentation rate given; plus other laboratory procedures.

ALL OF MY PATIENTS, UNDER TREATMENT, GET LABORATORY TESTS AT NO EXTRA CHARGE. I will enjoy explaining New Yorker Technique to you without obligation, 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. For my trial treatment I charge $3, which includes various laboratory tests.

Call or write for FREE 120 page book. This book is outstanding. It is a most comprehensive explanation of "the true cause of disease." Book will be sent by mail—no salesman—no phone calls—no obligation. No follow-up letters.

Harry Bridges In San Pedro For Convention

Harry Bridges, the scrapping leader of the ILWU, who was found guilty of conspiracy following a trial in which trained witnesses perjured themselves, will head the two-day convention of his union being held in San Pedro Thursday and Friday.

Scheduled to be sentenced Monday in San Francisco, Bridges has announced through his attorneys that he will move for a new trial and a stay of sentence. Should this fail, it was announced, he will appeal right up to the United States Supreme Court.

Waterfront employers who have frequently opposed Bridges in strike action were stunned by the verdict though none of them would speak for publication.

By C.A.B.

The U. S. Supreme Court, after exhausting the patience of the American people on the issue of who at the National Capital did or did not act as spies for Russia, has decided at long last to give some attention to Civil Rights.

According to Ted Poston in The New York Post, the question of Civil Rights cases as they relate to present-day conditions pose a question as controversial in race relations as the Dred Scott case back in 1857.

The Court must consider the plea of Herman Marion Sweatt, the Negro veteran of World War II to enter the all-white University of Texas, and of G. W. McLaurin, a University of Oklahoma graduate student, to sit in the same classrooms with his white fellow students.

A decision in these cases, opines Mr. Poston, may be as eventful and far-reaching as the Dred Scott decision. "For many historians contend that the outbreak of the Civil War was hastened when Chief Justice Taney sent the runaway slave back to his master, remarking: 'The Negro might justly and lawfully be reduced to slavery for his own benefit' and being inferior, 'has no rights which the white man is bound to respect.'"

Now let's see what the Constitution of the United States has to say on this: "Historically, the prevailing ideology of our democracy has been one of complete equality. The basic law of our land, as crystallized in our Constitution, rejects any discrimination made by government on the basis of race, creed, or color."

This concept of true equality as set forth here should be the basis for an all-out fight for equality, not only by Negroes but by all Americans who believe in the letter as well as the word "Equality."

The court, at the present, is making a frontal attack on the whole "separate but equal" doctrine of Negro-white relations, must be pressured to finish the job it undertook back in 1857, but did not finish.

In my opinion this country has

Food Workers Union Scores in Gaining Back Pay Settlement

The Dining Car and Railroad Food Workers Union continues to win benefits for the dining car employees, even though the bargaining rights with the Union Pacific Railroad are with locals number 465 and number 372.

The weaknesses and lack of union protection in the present agreement have been exposed by the Food Workers Union in recent months in cases where the representatives have apparently chosen to follow the policies and practices of the company and the International Union preferable to working for the rights and benefits of the employees who pay the Union Representatives to protect their interests.

Last week, Sherman Higgins, waiter on the Union Pacific out of Omaha, received a voucher for $90.00, after the Food Workers Union had intervened in his behalf, after he had gone to representative Willis Porter of local number 465, who had told (Continued on Page 4)

Old Jim Crow On Trial Before United States Supreme Court

WASHINGTON.—An attack on the "equal but separate" customs of Jim Crow America is before the United States Supreme Court. Carried forward in an action that could end the "legal" aspects of discrimination against Negroes in almost every facet of American life, the assault on the doctrine of white supremacy is coming from an appeal filed by Elmer W. Henderson a representative of the Fair Employment Practices Commission during the war.

Since 1942, Henderson has been suing the Southern Railway Company because he was refused service in a company diner due to his race. The company later set aside one or two tables in its diners for Negro passengers, thus providing "separate but equal" facilities in deference to the old American custom. Henderson, however maintained that equal facilities is separate are seldom equal in a physical sense, and he pressed on to the high court.

The Justice Department is supporting Henderson's appeal as well as appeals being heard against the school systems in Texas and Oklahoma where the "equal but separate" doctrine is grown and exported.

A favorable decision from the high court would have the effect of knocking the props from under Jim Crow in this nation, not to mention the return to the provisions of the United States Constitution.

B'nai B'rith Re- jects ABC Jimcro

B'nai B'rith, 107 year-old Jewish service organization, will withdraw from participation in American Bowling Congress tournaments if the ABC fails to eliminate its racist "Caucasians only" policy at its Indianapolis convention this year.

The decision "not to permit itself or any of its component agencies to participate in an organized activity which maintains an un-American admissions policy," was adopted by the B'nai B'rith in a resolution voted at the order's triennial convention in Washington, D. C.

The National B'nai B'rith Bowling Association participates in ABC-governed tournaments. B'nai B'rith is also a member of the National Committee on Fair Play in Bowling, organized several years ago to work for discon-

Wesley Wells Given 90 Days Reprieve

Wesley Robert Wells who had originally been condemned to die January 27 for throwing a cuspidor at a prison guard, was again granted a stay of execution.

Judge Louis Goodman, of the Federal District Court in San Francisco, ruled last week that Wells was denied "due process of law" when he was sentenced to die for a seemingly trivial offense. It was Judge Goodman who intervened in the first place, when Governor Warren, in spite of hundreds of letters and telegrams urging him to do so, refused to lift a finger in Wells' behalf. At that time Judge Goodman granted a rehearing of the case. That rehearing was held last week.

According to the law of California a life-term prisoner, attacking a prison guard, must suffer the death penalty, whether the guard dies or not. According to the record, Wells

V. M. Townsend Candidate For Congress Dinner

Peace and security for all were set forth as achievable goals by Atty. Vince Monroe Townsend, Jr., Fourteenth District Congressional candidate, in an address before a banquet last Friday at the Elks' Temple, broadcast over Station KFWB.

A strong F.E.P.C. and repeal of the Taft-Hartley law were advocated by Mr. Townsend as the first steps to "a permanent solution to our problems of unemployment and economic deprivation, of ill-housing and juvenile delinquency."

"Without security," Mr. Townsend said, "there can never be peace. Until there is security for every citizen, there can be no security for any citizen. And until there is peace and security in every nation, there can be no peace nor security for any nation."

Mr. Townsend called for a Fair Employment Practices law with teeth, pointing out that such a measure "would insure equality opportunity for all workers, and a more efficient production for industry and enterprise, because

Ask Grand Jury Action On Civil Rights

NEW YORK—Governor James H. Duff of Pennsylvania was urged this week to institute a special grand jury investigation of violations of civil rights in Oxford, where members of the Lincoln University chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People have been conducting a campaign to break down racial barriers in the theaters, restaurants and other places of public accommodation.

Widow With Sick Son Is Turned Down

Mrs. Rose Dupart, of 1021 East 33rd street, is greatly in need of a job. She is a widow with a sick son she must support. When work was plentiful she bought a home in which she and her invalid son now live.

Last week Mrs. Dupart saw an advertisement for 17 women workers in a cannery at 607 Hill street. Together with some friends also in search of employment, they hastened to apply.

The Hill street address was that of the Canning Employment Agency. When the man apparently in charge of hiring applicants observed that these applicants were colored, he hastily told them, "You will have to go to 742 South Hill. We don't hire colored here."

The women hastened to the 742 South Hill street address, where they met the same abrupt. "We don't hire Negroes."

"The government collects taxes from all property owners, without regard to race or color," observed Mrs. Dupart. "If I fail to pay my taxes my property will be confiscated by the govern-

Dr. Charles Drew Of Blood Plasma Fame Is Killed

By Nellie F. Becker

Dr. Charles R. Drew, head of the Department of Surgery at Freedmens Hospital in Washington, D. C. was fatally wounded in an automobile accident enroute to John A. Andrew Clinic at Tuskegee, Alabama. The accident occurred Saturday April 1st just outside Burlington, N. C. His colleague, Dr. Sam Bullocks, who was traveling with him is reported in fair condition.

Dr. Charles Drew received the Spingarn medal in 1943 for his outstanding service in the processing of the blood plasma so that it could be used in the field. He was instrumental in setting up the blood bank in Great Britain as well as the United States.

Behind his tacit expression there was a wealth of kindness. In his lectures all over the country, he was constantly encouraging Negro undergraduates and those in graduate school not to be satisfied with just getting by

Claim Double Jeopardy Threat In Latest Howard Indictments

Indications that the government is employing strategy to make up for the apparent weakness in its case against H. A. Howard were given Tuesday when Federal Judge Harry C. Westover heard arguments from Eric Rose and Russell H. Pray, attorneys for Howard and W. L. Baugh, assistant U. S. attorney, on the latest 22-count indictment returned against Howard.

Counsel for the founder of the three million dollar Broadway Federal Savings and Loan Association moved for the dismissal of the indictment, claiming the allegations were not set forth clearly enough to give the defendant knowledge of that with which he is charged, and that further, the indictment does not conform with the sixth amendment to the U. S. constitution in that it does not allow the defendant the right to interpose a plea of double jeopardy at a later date.

him that he had no grievance, thus had no claim for time lost while he waited in Oakland for a younger employee who had been sent out instead of him to return from Chicago to Oakland. The winning of such benefits should awaken all dining car employees to the fact that they should wake up and rebel against the jim crow policies, coercion and unfair labor practices and to free themselves from the collaborative partnership between the Company and the International A. F. of L. Union.

Equal job opportunities, job security, seniority rights and union protection can only come through an election of the rank and file employees in the dining car department, which is the Dining Car and Railroad Food Workers Union.

It is rumored that the dining car crews on the Union Pacific are making plans to give Mr. H. A. Hansen, manager of the D. C. & H. Dep't., who is retiring from service soon, a present. The present is to be bought with solicitations of $1.00 from each dining car employee. The Oden crews, so it is rumored, plan to give him a television set.

It is hardly thinkable that dining car employees who have been robbed of their rights through the maneuvers of this individual and many more like him could be stupid enough to contribute money toward a gift for a man who has been paid a stupendous salary over the years for robbing employees of their rights and opportunities.

The retirement of Mr. Hansen comes not because it is time for him to retire but because of pressure extended by the Food Workers Union in their fight for seniority rights and job security for all dining car employees.

life" so far as work is concerned, I can count on a number of years of continued active life.

"I have discovered also that I am heartbound to the Association. Although I have been flattered and perhaps even tempted by several offers of positions more lucrative and less taxing than my work with the NAACP, I find myself unable to accept or consider another kind of life. "During recent months I have received numerous inquiries as to whether or not I will resume my work with the NAACP upon the completion of my leave of absence. This is my answer—if it pleases the Board and membership of the NAACP, I hope to continue on the job for as long as my strength and ability endure.

"It is my firm conviction, to paraphrase the statement of a greater fighter for the Negro's cause, "The NAACP is the ship, all else is the sea" in the forty-one-year fight for human freedom which countless thousands of Americans, living and dead, have struggled to win."

a bigger stake in making democracy work here, than it has in giving financial and moral support to the nationalist government in China to fight the Communists.

Every department of our government, every civic and religious organization should recognize the fact that our democracy that we have flaunted in the face of other nations as an example to be emulated by them, is unreal, a promise unfulfilled to millions of American citizens who have given freely in blood and tears to make it work at home as well as abroad.

Especially those of us who are heirs of that vicious period of slavery in the U.S.A., must realize the greatest menace to our complete liberalism is our willingness to accept segregation which in itself is discrimination.

We must recognize the fact that our citizenship rights are tied up with the rights of all minorities. And unless we struggle as a whole against those forces which deny us equal educational opportunities, justice under the law and all the attributes guaranteed to all Americans by the Constitution we will lose again in the court fight to make the Constitution a real instrument of freedom for all.

year-old Milton Frankenthal and Shenvair.

Thomas followed Frankenthal into the Voltaire Apartments garage last Friday and dragged the elderly man from his car. He threw Frankenthal to the floor and was beating and kicking him when Shenvair came to the rescue. The youth turned on Shenvair, knocking him down and kicking him. Shenvair seized a tool and routed his attacker.

Later, uniformed police came to the garage and questioned Shenvair. He was told that Thomas received treatment at Hollywood Receiving Hospital for what he claimed were stab wounds. Shenvair denied having stabbed the youth, and he told the officers he acted in self-defense. The police left.

Shortly after, Thomas appeared with two men in civilian clothes. They approached Shenvair, and he believed they were going to beat him up. When the plainclothesmen started questioning Shenvair about the attack, he became frightened and ran.

The plainclothesmen pursued the fleeing man, firing their pistols. At the corner of Sunset and Hayworth one of the bullets hit Shenvair in the back and came out of his chest. He was placed under arrest and held in the prison ward at General Hospital.

Attorney Herbert Simmonds, who has been retained by Shenvair, and the Civil Rights Congress, as well as several other community organizations, are joining with the California Eagle in a demand that the detective responsible for shooting Shenvair be suspended, and that the whole matter be investigated. Shenvair told the Eagle reporter he intends to bring suit against the city as soon as he is released from the hospital.

Frankenthal, who credits Shenvair with having saved his life, stated last week that the garage attendant acted in self-defense, and he had the two detectives who accosted and shot Shenvair come to his door, but he refused to admit them because they did not properly identify themselves.

Members of the Town and Village Committee to end discrimination in the City is giving the fire victims temporary shelter until the city can provide homes for them. More than that, a committee of tenants in the project collected clothing and funds to aid them.

claim that because the indictment names certain round sums of money which allegedly were embezzled on specified dates, and because the government holds unto itself the right to repeat this process again and again, should any of its efforts fail to carry, the defendant is at a serious disadvantage.

The defense insisted before Judge Westover that it must be made clear whether the money allegedly embezzled was the property of the Association, or whether it belonged to a depositor. It was also pointed out that the indictment does not make clear whether Howard was acting as an officer or employee of the Association, without authority, or in excess of authority when the alleged embezzlements took place.

The assistant United States attorney held that his indictments were in proper order and that to be any more specific would be to offer material of an evidentiary nature. In counter to this, Howard's attorneys argued for clear and proper identification of the time, the amount of money, and the question of proper ownership of the money. Judge Westover took the arguments under advisement and said he would read the authorities quoted and notify opposing attorneys of his decision.

Should he grant dismissal, the case against Howard would end. Failure to grant dismissal would mean proceeding to trial.

"DON'T FENCE ME IN!"

Fully Responsible

Over a long weary period of months the most we have heard from our Congress has been the production of bombs to destroy other nations and peoples, and investigating committees—first to investigate the little employee in lowly positions from which he earns barely enough to keep body and soul together, and now the higher ups!

Then we turned loose all the legal forces at our command to run down the Communists. And finally one senator from Wisconsin launched an all-out search for Communists and Communist sympathizers high up in government employ.

As a result of such investigations the public composed of the citizens of the United States have been subjected to a smear campaign hitherto unknown in the annals of any nation's history.

There can be neither harmony nor a sympathetic understanding between the different departments of government in Washington.

The misunderstanding caused by these various and sundry investigations has spread fear over the nation. Men of different political beliefs distrust each other. They think of each other as liars, traitors to their country and the best interests of mankind.

Perhaps one of the most serious situations that not only affects us but also many other nations, has arisen out of the cold war tirade between our country and Russia.

Every disturbance whether terrestrial or celestial is blamed on Russia. Mysterious submarines, flying saucers, visits from Mars, are all the cunning, under-hand workings of Socialist Russia, destined to change our democratic nation into a demagogic socialist state.

We, the people of the United States of America, accept these fairy tales as being literal truth. Or, if we do not fully believe them, we laugh them off with a shrug of the shoulder.

Yet these rumors, wild as they are, are but part of the great lie which Hitler advised should be used to deceive the people. "The people are more likely to believe a big lie than a little one," he said.

His observation is proving true in our case. Yet we are supposed to be fully clothed and in our right minds. Why do we permit these lies to circulate? Why do we believe, and spread, all the false rumors we hear about Russia? We, the people, are fully responsible for the heavy curtain of false rumors that darken our skies, and that is shutting us out from the friendship of Russia and all the rest of the world. We sleep. And let the world go by. And if it falls in upon us, it will be our responsibility.

Easter and World Peace

At this time of the year there are many signs of a great revival of man's faith in God as the maker and ruler of the earth.

Is such a renewal of faith stimulated by a greater desire on the part of mankind to understand the real Christian doctrine of Easter—the same as that of Christmas, peace on earth, good will toward mankind—or does it come about because of the feeling of human helplessness in the face of the frightful forces which scientific knowledge has unleashed? The feeling of inability to cope with the future destructive forces in the making?

No doubt many people in the world today are deeply concerned, not with whether our nation is militarily strong enough to hold the world in abeyance to its demand for despotic leadership, but for a better understanding between nations, races and men.

There is much more in Jesus' teachings than knowledge of an atom bomb, capable of blowing to bits a part of the world in the flash of an eye. More than the invention of loyalty oaths to test men's respect and devotion to their government.

From the time of that first Easter morning when Mary met her risen Lord in the garden, there has never been such division and unrest as of today. It seems that instead of teaching the doctrine of Jesus who admonished us to love one another, we are teaching the doctrine of hate one another. And this doctrine applies to nations, as well as to men.

In the adversities of our day and time, and the forebodings of the future, instead of turning toward a deeper feeling of hate and fear, we should turn to a deeper feeling and practice of what Jesus taught: Love ye one another.

On Easter morning when we go to the various sunrise services, let us go with a new determination to promote peace. And to practice brotherhood among men—Jew and Gentile, black and white.

Let's Try Something New

The practice of denying Negroes employment in the local industries with professional and skilled labor, is growing alarmingly in California daily.

Gov. Warren has winked at many requests to advocate or promote a Fair Employment Practices Commission. As of now nothing has been done to relieve an ever-growing unemployment situation, especially among the Negro people.

Factories and other industries advertising for help brazenly tell

Negroes, even war veterans, "We don't hire Negroes."

A political campaign is coming up. Even Negroes who fight for their "parties" will be around telling you to vote for a governor who refuses to support an FEPC.

They will also tell you that certain editors who fight against racial discrimination and contend for an equal share of jobs and housing for you, are "Red." You, the people, must organ-

The Harry Bridges Case

All the world stood still for a minute when the announcement came over the wires and through the air that Harry Bridges, veteran Union Labor Leader and President of the International Longshoremen Workers Union, was found guilty of perjury.

There was manifest a gloating joy in the faces of some of the people. Others showed indifference. A few, those of us to whom the finding of the jury means more than condemning one man of lying, were simply thunder-struck.

"How," we questioned, "could a jury of intelligent men and women arrive at such a conclusion?"

We went over in our minds the testimony we had read. We remembered the halting assertions the witnesses gave of having seen Mr. Bridges in pro-Communist meetings. We thought of the strong denial of witnesses in his favor—denying he had ever been a member of the Communist Party. And again we wondered how could any intelligent person arrive at the conclusion the Harry Bridges jury did.

The answer, no doubt, is the strong hysteria and fear that has gripped the nation. The fact that today it is the fashion to decry anything that has the faintest odor of "Communism." Perhaps it's as much the latter as any fear that induced those twelve men and women to come to the conclusion that they did.

It's the correct thing just now to oppose those "Reds," and anything or anyone that seems to be dyed even a faint pink. And it sometimes takes more courage to oppose what is considered "correct" than it does to back a strong evil, especially if that evil is one that is recognized by nearly everyone.

Be that as it may the Harry Bridges case is not settled. There will be appeals, just as there have been appeals in the case of the Communist Twelve and their attorneys in New York. There will be thousands of dollars, even millions, spent again.

For the few who believe in the right morally and politically rather than in the correct thing to do according to some Emily Post who dictates our actions, will not rest until all the Harry Bridges in the country are cleared and right eventually rules.

ize against these mls-leaders in the Negro race as strongly as you organize and fight against the Rankins, the Gerald L. K. Smiths, the McCarthys, the Thomases and all others who are fighting to take from you the rights our fore-fathers gave us in our Constitution.

Unless we organize with the support of liberal Jewish, Mexican, Japanese, Chinese, and all other minority groups, in a united struggle to defeat the traitors in our ranks and the white supremacists who deny us our rights, we are surely doomed to the slave camps as were the people of Germany under Hitler.

Eastern Siberia and the Far East

Eastern Siberia and the Far East is the plateau and mountain country between the Yenisei River and the Pacific watershed. The Far East is the rugged area from the watershed to the ocean. Combined, these two areas are as big as the United States and all its territories and possessions put together. Yet they had less than 8,000,000 people on the eve of the war.

This whole vast area, as distinct from Western Siberia, is still served by only a single railroad, the Trans-Siberian, which runs along its southern frontier. A second line, the Baikal-Amur, is to run around the north end of Lake Baikal to open a new tier of mining, timber, and farmlands. The steel shortage during the German occupation of the Donbass interrupted construction; but it is now resumed.

The only farmlands in the eastern portion of this area, with its rigorous climate, that can be cultivated with a reasonable degree of success lie in the valleys of the frontier rivers—the Amur and Ussuri. This has resulted in the concentration of the population of the Soviet Far East mainly within 50 to 100 miles of the Manchurian border.

The proximity of the Japanese tempered the boom experienced by the Far East and its hinterland west of Lake Baikal. However, remarkably well-balanced and independent industries were built, although on a smaller scale than in western Siberia. They are based on two medium-capacity steel mills, one at Petrovsk-Zabaikalsk, east of Lake Baikal, the other at Komsomolsk-on-the-Amur. This area accounts for the bulk of the Soviet Union's huge gold production. It also produces other non-ferrous metals in large quantities. Its great fisheries provide one-third of the entire supply of that staple of the Russian diet, and were to double their catch in 1946 as a result of the acquisition of southern Sakhalin. The plateaus around Lake Baikal are cattle country, and the Amur and Ussuri valleys grow grain, soya, the sugar beet, vegetables, and even rice. The oil wells of northern Sakhalin doubled their output in wartime and continued to grow rapidly in 1945, but their production is still insufficient to meet the needs of the area. The southern half of Sakhalin, called Karafuto, was reacquired from Japan as a result of the war. It has a population of 327,000, centered at Otomari. Coal, gold and oil are mined. There are lumbering, paper, cellulose and fish-canning industries. Potatoes, oats and barley are the main crops. Ten new canneries and coldstorage plants were to be built in 1946.

The Soviet Far East includes two Autonomous Republics, the Buriat-Mongol, on the eastern shore of Lake Baikal, with the modern industrial city of Ulan-Ude as its capital, and Yakutia, embracing the basin of the Lena River. Both are inhabited by peoples of the so-called yellow race. Wendell Wilkie described this area in One World:

"The Yakuts were Mongol people who spread north as Genghis Khan moved to the west. Their characteristic high cheekbones, slanting eyes, and black hair still persist. Most of them trapped for furs or picked the earth for gold. They live in huts, low-ceilinged, dirt-floored, smoky from open fire, with cattle and human beings living under the same roof, breeding places for tuberculosis. In winter, they lived on spoiled fish and roots; disease and frequent famines decimated what was once a hardy people. During the time of the Tsars, Yakutsk was famous for syphilis, tuberculosis, and furs . . .

"In an old but well-lighted building, clean and well staffed, Yakutsk, a town of 50,000 people, has accumulated 550,000 volumes. . . the records showed that over 100,000 people—many had come from the countryside around—had used books during the past nine months . . .

"The houses had the neat, buttoned-up look of homes in any northern town, with light from the windows and soft smoke coming from the chimneys . . . Most of the houses were built of logs, with felt packed between them . . .

"I wondered about the amusements of the people . . . We saw a gypsy opera, performed by a Leningrad company on tour. The dancing was excellent, the staging good, the singing fair . . .

"Earlier in the twilight with the new snow crunching under our feet, we had gone to see the district museum. There we found vivid reminders of the war. The graphs on the walls showing the increase in schools, hospitals, cattle, retail trade, all stopped at June, 1941, as if the country's life had stopped them . . .

"I asked Muratov what he was doing about the education of the people.

"Mr. Wilkie," he said, "the answer is simple. Before 1917 only two per cent of all the people of Yakutsk were literate; ninety-eight per cent could not read or write. Now the figures are exactly reversed."

"Muratov showed us with pride Yakutsk's newest motion-picture theatre. It is one of the concrete buildings with which he has disproved an old belief that only wooden structures could be built on eternally frozen subsoil . . .

"This town is still largely populated by Yakuts. They made up eighty-two per cent of the population of the republic. As far as I could see, they lived as the Russians lived; they held high office; they wrote their own poetry and had their own theatre . . .

"These people have developed an enthusiasm and a self-confidence which reminded me repeatedly of the romance of our own Western development. I came away from Yakutsk with a powerful curiosity to know what it will look like ten years from now."

Birobidjan

Also in the Far East is the Jewish Autonomous Region, popularly known as Birobidjan, after the name of its capital city and the two tributaries of the Amur along which it is situated. It was established for those Soviet Jews (although some settlers from abroad were also admitted) who desired an opportunity to develop to full nationhood in a territory of their own. Others, whose means of livelihood had disappeared when commerce became a state or cooperative function, needed a new start in life. To meet this situation, and at the same time to help in building up the population of the Far East, the border area between the Bureia River and the city of Khabarovsk was set aside in 1929 as an Autonomous Jewish District. By 1934 settlement had proceeded

Mr. Boddy, the Guild and the News

Almost simultaneously with the announcement of his candidacy for the United States Senate, Manchester Boddy, publisher of the Los Angeles Daily News, announced the lay-off of some 40 employees. There would be no more significance in this lay-off than can be found in the usual pre-depression cut-back were it not for the fact that the Daily News is one of the largest patrons of the Los Angeles newspaper guild.

JOHN M. LEE

While it is not possible to accurately say that the lay-offs were effected with the assistance of the guild, it cannot be disputed that they were carried out in spite of the guild. Without the News and the Herald-Express units, the Los Angeles newspaper guild would be a tiny branch of national CIO's political action committee. As it is now, the Los Angeles newspaper guild has about as many members as there are employees on the unorganized Los Angeles Times.

Both the guild and the Daily News are Jim Crow organizations. There is not a single Negro employee in the news or editorial departments of the News, and according to Zula Ferguson, who ruled the roost at the guild until recently, "Negroes should not belong to the guild because there is nothing the guild can do for them." "It can not," Miss Ferguson told me, "get them jobs on metropolitan papers, and it can only help them in their sub-standard jobs with community papers."

Making an equation of Boddy, the guild and the News is academic when you take them in relation to the fair employment of Negroes. All three of them are coldly aloof from the proposition. Boddy, the great mystic who speaks authoritatively on the subject of "mass man," and his newspaper, know the Negro only as a news subject that is handled infrequently, and then with some evident patronization.

For years, the News has enjoyed wide circulation in the Negro community. On several occasions, competent Negro newspaper men and women have applied for employment in the news or editorial department of Boddy's paper. They have always been treated with studied courtesy, then told to await developments. Some time ago, this corner urged the local Urban League to join with the guild in an attempt to secure fair employment practices at the Daily News. A candidate was selected and sent in for an interview. He was told he seemed to have the proper qualifications and would be notified.

Then came the lay-off. The Los Angeles newspaper guild, having emerged from its lily-white cocoon for the purpose of cooperating with the Urban League for a brief moment, must now abandon that temporal role and concentrate on getting the laid-off employees established on a seniority list for future re-employment. The question of fair employment must wait until the guild extricates itself from the mess it made by salaaming toward national CIO headquarters while the problems of the local members went begging.

It is conceivable that Manchester Boddy can indulge his desire to be Senator without receiving support from the Negro community. Evidently, for all of his high aims and his frequently repeated ideal of brotherhood, Boddy just can't bring himself to hire a Negro newspaperman. Given to vague generalities on definite subjects like peace and political freedom, Boddy could probably write a series of editorials explaining why not hiring a Negro newspaperman is in essence, and in finality, a true expression of the highest democratic ideal.

Because he has been in a position where he could have demonstrated for fair employment and failed to do so, Manchester Boddy could hardly be depended upon to support such a measure were he elected to the United States Senate. For that reason alone, Negro voters, and true friends of the Negro people cannot support his political adventure.

Simply stated, supporting Jim Crow in a labor union, a newspaper or a candidate for public office is a disservice to the cause of full freedom for the Negro people. It is not enough to speak against it; we must act against it whenever the opportunity presents itself. When Manchester Boddy makes an appeal for Negro votes it will be necessary to tell him that what he has failed to do speaks so loudly, it is impossible to hear what he is saying.

KITZINGEN, Germany—The Kitzingen Kavaliers basketball team, European Command champions for 1950, remained invincible when they trounced an all-star aggregation in Trieste to the tune of 64-49.

The Kavaliers left Kitzingen Training Center last week for Trieste where they will meet an all-star team from the 351st Infantry in six exhibition games.

This is the third trip for the Kavaliers to a country outside Germany since 1948 when they played an exhibition game in Paris. The other trip was to Vienna last year.

The members of the Kitzingen Training Center Security Police were presented letters of commendation for their outstanding work in helping to maintain order and good conduct at the Enlisted Men's Club.

Congratulating the men for their soldierly bearing and neat appearance, Major Marcelle complimented the ten men for their services above and beyond the call of duty.

Among the ten was Cpl. Lawrence Stiger, 4810 Hubert Ave., Richmond Calif.

LINCOLN UNIVERSITY (ATLAS)—President Horace M. Bond, of Lincoln University will serve as lecturer in the U. S. Indian Service Schools at Santa Fe, New Mexico, and Chemawa, Washington, it was announced last week by the Education Division of the U. S. Indian Service. His topics will be Rural Education, and merging culture patterns.

Dr. Bond has done extensive research in the field of rural education and race relations and culture patterns. He recently made a study of the secondary school system of British West Africa under the auspices of the African Council on Arts and Research, headed by Nnamdi Azikiwe, Nigerian political leader and a graduate of Lincoln.

This Changing World

By CYRIL BRIGGS

Until the latter part of the year 1879 the slightest rumor that a Zulu impi (regiment) was on the march was enough to strike terror to the hearts of the white invaders of South Africa. That year witnessed the last great armed conflict between the Zulu people, under Cetewayo, and the British who by then were spearheading the drive to enslave the South African natives.

The Zulu people were at that time a powerful nation with a complex social organization, and a highly disciplined army based on the regimental system. Their impis, armed only with assegais and cowhide shields, had slowed up European penetration into the hinterland.

The Zulus achieved their greatest power and renown under the Chaka dynasty. Its founder, Chaka, was one of their greatest leaders in such heroic resistance to the British and the Boers that for a time the fate of the European invasion hung in the balance. The discovery of gold and diamonds in South Africa decided the issue, brought the vultures of Western Europe flocking by the thousands to the country.

In the early stages of the Zulu War of 1879, Cetewayo's impis wiped out, almost to a man, one of the British armies invading Zululand, forced other British armies on the defensive. The British imperialists, whose cupidity had been excited by the reports of huge deposits of gold and diamonds, rushed reinforcements from London and Cetewayo was finally defeated, his dynasty deposed and his country divided up under the rule of 11 chiefs handpicked by the British. A few years later, in 1893, British machine guns broke the power of Lobengula, king of the Matabele, another branch of the Zulu people, and brought under British control the country now known as Rhodesia. Other minor conflicts followed, but the military power of the proud Zulu people had been broken.

Today the descendants of Chaka's warriors are on the march. The Zulu people, together with other native peoples in the southern part of Africa, are once more challenging western imperialism, defying the bestial terrorism of its fascist brood in the Union of South Africa.

Strikes and other mass actions have shown a marked increase in South Africa, as in practically every section of the huge continent, following the end of World War II. One of the most spectacular was the strike of 50,000 native gold miners in the Johannesburg area. Paid 40 to 46 cents for a work day of 10 to 14 hours, the miners struck for a minimum pay of $2 a day. This modest demand was answered with ruthless attacks by British troops and police who forced the strikers back into the mines at the points of bayonets. Police raided the offices of the African Mine Workers Union, arrested J. C. Mark, its president. Hundreds of other labor leaders and strike supporters, including leaders of the Communist party, were thrown into jail. The strike was smashed but its significance was widely recognized. As a writer in the South African Guardian put it:

"The miners strike was more than an industrial battle—it was a blow for African freedom and a democratic South Africa."

The militant mood of the South African natives is further emphasized in a growing revolt against the pernicious pass system which serves to keep the natives in a state of peonage. Mass burning of passes occur frequently. At one such burning (at Lange, a settlement outside of Cape Town), the following resolution was adopted:

Soviet Expansion At Home

By WILLIAM MANDEL

There were two million more jobs in the USSR in 1949 than in 1948. In the absence of unemployment, they were filled by young people coming out of school. The people bought twice as many clocks and watches, 71 per cent more woollens, 70 per cent more radios and bicycles, 60 per cent more preserved meats, 57 per cent more phonographs, 55 per cent more silks, 50 per cent more soap products, 31 per cent more leather and 28 per cent more rubber footwear, 19 per cent more clothing, 18 per cent more hosiery and fish, and 15 per cent more food of all kinds including those already mentioned, than the year before.

The most rapid rates of increase, it is clear, are in the finer and more expensive products, indicating an upward shift in type of living standard, as well as in quantity.

A new three-room apartment in Moscow now costs $20 per month (100 rubles). A large furnished room in Molotov in the Urala, with unlimited free telephone service in the hall, costs $6 per month. A home phone in Moscow, with unlimited calls, costs 47c per month. The problem, as with us a few years ago, is to get one, although they are being installed at a rapid rate. Gas costs between 12c and 30c per month, depending upon the number of burners on your stove, with consumption unlimited. An electric stove and broiler costs $8. Good television sets sell at $240, and the public is demanding an increase in the number of stations. They had been opened before the war, i.e., long before we had television for public consumption, but since the war expansion has been in receivers rather than transmitters.

In Moscow, private cars, selling new, at $1,800 to $2,400, are beginning to create a traffic problem in Moscow's immensely broad, new avenues. Overnight parking is forbidden, and a network of municipal garages has been provided which, thus far, has kept up with the demand. However, in terms of earnings, new cars are out of the reach of the average man, and there is not our immense backlog of used cars to be bought at cheaper prices. Yet I know personally of one case of a collective farmer who bought his son a new car as a present when he graduated from high school with top honors.

On the other side of the picture, products made from materials in which war-caused shortages are still felt remain at high price levels, and absorb part of the savings gained through the figures I have mentioned, and the fact that rent averages only 4% of income, varying between 2% and 7%, depending upon size of accommodations and earnings of the chief breadwinner in the family.

Most Soviet sugar came from the beet fields of the Ukraine, which Germany occupied for three years and ruined completely. Sugar products are therefore still very expensive. A piece of pastry costs 60c. Yet the people bought 14% more sugar in 1949 than in 1948, and 40% more confectionery. Meat and dairy prices, and those of eggs, reflect the lasting effects of German requisitioning and slaughter of 17-

000,000 cattle, 20,000,000 pigs, 27,000,000 sheep and goats, and 110,000,000 poultry. Most Muscovites, therefore, have to buy their milk, loose, at farmers' markets at 20c per quart, because bottled, pasteurized milk is still sky high. Nevertheless, universal anti-typhoid vaccination, sanitary controls over collective farm cattle and marketing apparently make this quite acceptable for the time being, as typhoid fever is extremely rare, and tuberculosis has been very sharply reduced.

Competition among the three types of retail outlets is bringing prices for all types of goods tumbling down, and quality and service up. These are the government-owned stores, the cooperative stores, and the farmers' markets. Prices are lowest in the last-named, because of low overhead, but convenience and service are higher in the others. The coops now maintain purchasing agents all over the country, buying wherever wholesale prices are cheapest. This encourages the village, county and small town-owned industries that provide 20% of Soviet production, devoting their efforts to consumer goods almost entirely. Half of them are public property, the others cooperatives of producers.

A new phenomenon in the Soviet Union is the consumer's demand for quality, not just quantity. Not long ago he bought shoes. Today he buys a specific model of shoes, and if they can't be had at one store they will be at another. The government has helped him to get them by ending its system of subsidies to enterprises that go into the red. Therefore, they must turn out saleable goods or find themselves in financial difficulties which result in management being fired out and, if willful negligence is shown, being prosecuted.

The most important government measure contributing to rising purchasing power has been a series of drastic reductions which have put $31,000,000,000 in additional values into the pockets of the public in the past two years. This, in turn, was made possible by an increase of 11% in average labor productivity in the past year alone, and a reduction in costs through greater efficiency.

Overcrowding, still a terrible problem in the main cities due to endless expansion of industries and failure of war refugees to leave, is slowly being reduced by a tremendous housing program. Nevertheless, it tends to result in birth control. Despite the government's encouragement of large families to repopulate a country which lost seven million, its pharmacies display and sell contraceptives freely. But the birth rate is rising, and, as life becomes easier, many women are choosing not to work while their children are young, although the day nursery facilities have been vastly expanded.

The forward-looking life he leads causes the Soviet citizen to have little patience with what he believes to be decay, stagnation and destructive tendencies. He is as tired of the cold war as we, and shows it by reading and talking about home news and that from Eastern Europe and China, paying little attention to us, Britain and the rest of the world, which he thinks are going nowhere fast.

Political Pot-Pourri

NEW ORLEANS—In a radio debate with Louisiana's two leading Dixiecrats, Father Vincent J. O'Connell urged the passage of Fair Employment Practices legislation as "an effective cudgel against racial discrimination in the South."

Father O'Connell, a Catholic priest who heads the Catholic Committee of the South, told the radio audience that "To deny any man the right to a job is to deny and defy God's law."

In the open give-and-take discussion that followed the presentation by the speakers of their prepared statements, Father O'Connell declared that he resented his opponents' advice "not to get into these things" and stay out of "purely political matters."

The priest, who is professor of moral theology at the New Orleans seminary, replied that racial discrimination is basically a moral evil.

SERIES CIRCLE

No disputing that the frat series occupies the center of the sepia social circle nowadays, and we have no other choice but to give you a blow-by-blow description of the proceedings each week, socially as well as sportially.

Second on the series yell leaders: The Alphas always get girls with a lot of shape to shake to lead their cheering. This year Lillian Williams and Harriet Daniels are "way out." All along we have said that Harriet is one of the best on the market. Take her legs for instance, with contours that an artist can't design; or up a little further, which is artistically out of this world; or up a little more further, where two ends meet at exactly the correct spot; then go up some more, to hair as gold as an autumn sunset, and a smile as bright as the Dipper. Put them all together and you have Harriet Daniels, the likes of which never existed on or off the basketball court.

Stanley ain't the only one who has an eye for talent, 'cause we see in Lillian Williams the makings of a wonderful being. Take her eyes, created just for her; then her over-all proportions, or did you see her at the Apache Dance? Then throw in her kind disposition, and there you have little Lil, all wrapped up in one big package, ready for a king.

We'll chew the fat on the series later, right now we have a bone to pick with the inter-frat council. It's the same one of last week—about those programs:

GENTLEMEN OF THE COUNCIL: It is generally conceded that the series is one of the top events among Colored citizens in the city. The games are superbly played with college stars on all teams. They are well attended every night and have an excellent promotion staff in the inter-frat council. Why should the event fall so miserably low on just one point? The fans don't even know the names of the players, and no athletic event is complete without that knowledge!

Now we know that the council could easily mineograph a few hundred sheets with the names of the players, their numbers, age, height, weight, school, the coaches' names, and other pertinent data. It would cost very little to give these to the patrons, after they have forked over a buck to get in. Think it over, gentlemen. We can't let the high schools beat us. Certainly you know the names of their players.

AT THE GAME:

Iretha Simons and her ring-giver turned up to witness the games. She's still one of the loveliest dishes in the vicinity. Won't be long 'fore wedding bells ring. . . . Joanne Riddle and Muriel Arnaud came out of hibernation for the spring. Both appeared real sweet, from the press box. . . . Robert Andrew, retired lover, never misses a game. Comes out to see his boy Doug Shaw sink 'em in. . . . Also Winston McKesson surprised with Jerry Johnson, whom we ain't seen since she went one round with Leon. . . . Geneva Waller was all prettied up and was her same dear self. . . . Wardell Moss was secure with his henchman Earl Broady Jr.

. . . The daintiest of dishes on the nite's menu, Josephine (Gorgeous) Giles, made her return to society circles. An All-American in the Basil Bowl of last Thanksgiving, Jo is now quarterbacking for someone else. . . . Scroller Newton Harris strolled out with pretty Patricia Bruce and his cute sister Wanda. . . . George Biggins besieged Pauline Trent, his colonel of many campaigns. . . . Saw Alma Torrence, the chick who got it all up top, and Mitzi Nelson, who has it all period.

ANTICS AT THE ALPHA

Making good his vow "I will return to the village," his Lloydship Charles I crowned Ledonia Slayer First Lady of the City in a special ceremony at the Challengers' dance at the Alpha Friday nite. Popularly known as "Miss Fine of '49" and "Miss Legs of '50," the First Lady made a promise to serve the king's court well.

Little Willie Littlefield cut up on the ivories with sweet "Peaches" Thurmond canned in his corner. Precious Pat Allen, featured entertainer on the dance floor, did a little novelty number called the "Matricia Polka," in honor of Pat Chatman and Cora Foster, whose true loves remained at home. Jay Gonder, last week's wonder, two-timed with Michael Gradney, and Nuita Woodson of East L.A. moved up into the Wonder Woman spot.

Alma Johnson starred with Gentleman John (Youngblood), and Leonard Frazier dated up Vallerie Coleman. Beautiful Bernadine Francis appeared with her cute sis Gwendolyn Cravens, and our girl Erma Thompson made a solo appearance. Heavyweight champ Wilbur Webb of the Freddy Wade stable issued a standing challenge to any bachelor gal, and Violet Nichols said of her true love, "He's home again." Delores Clams laid claims to being the third of the Francis clan, but we're too naive to believe it; and Joann Pratt completed the Violet gang.

ON THE SIDE

Mary Notricia is knitting the prettiest pair of socks on record. They're made in dark green with a lime green champagne glass in angora. Red lips are over the glass with a cherry on the inside. She is doing it all for her boy, Roy! . . . Kan't Konnie tell us about Wilson Robinson now. They seem to be as straight as a couple can get. . . . This scribe got a lead on Joe and Gifford Montgomery. They are operating as free-lance photographers with the Earl (of Watts) Griffin and as play-men about town. . . . Kan't Kathy keep an appointed rendezvous? . . . Ola Morrison is a student nurse at Glendale hospital, though she is still taking lessons from studious Major Smith in her off time. . . . "Mid Century Top Look" will be the theme when the Business and Professional Women present their 17th annual Coffee Fashion Show April 16 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Woodlawn Y.M.C.A. . . . Time to cut again, kids, but remember this: The Lord is a righteous Lord. He metes to all according to what they have given. He gives to the good and takes from the wicked, and none shall escape His wrath in the time of judgment. Good night, friends.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

LETTER TO THE EDITOR
(A Call for Help)

Dear Mrs. Bass:

I am writing you this letter concerning an offer of employment for me.

I am here in San Quentin, and I was due out on parole Tuesday, March 28, but I don't have a job. I had a job offer in, but I was told by the Bureau of Paroles that the Southwest Builders, of 439 South Western avenue, Los Angeles 5, where I thought I would get a job, was going out of business on the 1st of April, and that my offer of employment had been withdrawn.

Mrs. Bass, will you please assist me in trying to find employment, so I won't be too much overdue? I will take any job at any kind of work.

So, please Mrs. Bass, through your paper, try to find employment for me. Thanks.

Sincerely yours,

(If anyone has a job for this young man, or if anyone knows of some one else who has a job, please communicate with him directly.—Box No. 10162, San Quentin, Calif. Or come to the California Eagle office, 1055 S. 41st street, and fill out an application form. It surely will be a good deed for that day.)

My dear Mrs. Bass:

The Committee for a Democratic Far Eastern Policy wishes me to extend the Committee's heartfelt thanks for your many-faceted contribution to the success of Mrs. Robeson's recent tour of Southern California.

I could wish that the Committee had the words to give me to express adequately its deep gratitude but, still I do understand their wordlessness; how, for instance, Mrs. Bass, would you say to another Mrs. Bass, assuming there could be such another who had given so much to her community, her country, "Thank you?" Thank you for letting us know that we can continue to look to you for courageous and enlightened leadership in every good fight.

Very sincerely,

Sarajo Lord,

For the Committee.

As you have already known, the local branch of the NAACP will launch its annual campaign for 20,000 members on April 16. Plans for a city wide mobilization are nearing completion and the committee feels the need of your advice. The next meeting of the committee will be held this Friday, April 7, at 8 p.m. at the campaign headquarters 4263 South Central Avenue. We realize your interest in the NAACP and in the community as a whole and we are sure that you will want to participate in this program. If it is not possible for you to attend, will you please send a representative from your paper?

Sincerely yours,
Gertrude Reese Hicks,
Chairman.
Dr. E. I. Robinson,
Co-Chairman
NAACP, President.

(The following letter was received from a white girl who noticed in the court room of our justice department the disrespect accorded Negro attorneys by their fellow white attorneys. We are giving it herewith, as an informative bit of news.)

Los Angeles, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Bass:

I am a young white secretary for a prominent Atty. downtown. I was reared and educated in Des Moines, Iowa, and my employer is from Cleveland, Ohio. I won't give my address, nor his, nor his name. My employer said

THINGS I SEE

By
Marian Inglewood

The Mundt-Ferguson-Nixon bill, authored by Republicans, is supposed to be supported by the Republican Party. But there are some Republicans who gag at its rabid Red-baiting features, and denounce it as a law to destroy liberty as vehemently as the members of the Democratic Party do.

The authors of the bill are Senator Karl Mundt, of North Dakota, and Senator Homer Ferguson of Michigan—both Republicans. In the House, Congressman Richard Nixon, also Republican of California, has introduced a similar Bill. This monstrosity is therefore sometimes called the Mundt-Ferguson bill, or the Mundt-Nixon Bill, or the Mundt-Ferguson-Nixon Bill.

The Senate Judiciary Committee approved its anti-subversive measures by a vote of ten to one. And that one lone vote on that committee was, believe it or not, a Republican vote. It was the vote of Senator William Langer, Republican, of North Dakota.

This bill which would jeopardize the right of all liberals to organize, was characterized by Senator Langer in his scorching 5000-word minority report, as "the greatest threat to American civil liberties since the Alien and Sedition laws of 1798. Like that bill," said Senator Langer, "it is the product of hysteria and frantic, unthinking fear. Like that bill, it would strike at the very foundation of our democratic institutions—the right of the people to speak their minds, to hear every viewpoint on public questions, and to associate together freely to advance their common views. Like that bill, it merits opposition of all who cherish liberty."

The preamble to the Mundt-Ferguson-Nixon bill states that the Communist movement is a "worldwide revolutionary political movement whose purpose it is, by treachery, deceit, espionage, sabotage, terrorism . . . to establish a Communist totalitarian dictatorship in all countries."

This bill, if passed, would require registration, not only of the Communist Party and each of its members, but also of all organizations which would be considered "Communist front."

In this last category, remember that the Un-American Activities Committee, which would be working over-time if that law were passed, has listed in its pamphlet, "100 Things you should know about Communism in Religion," the names of the YMCA and the YWCA as being suspect.

In the Jack Tenney report for the California Un-American Committee, your favorite newspaper, The California Eagle, was honored by being on his subversive list. One section of this nefarious bill would establish a Subversive Activities Control Board, composed of three members appointed by the President, whose job it would be to decide what organizations were Communist "fronts."

Who would be cleared under such a board? Not all the protestations of the NAACP would avail then. Because isn't the NAACP for equal opportunities and first class citizenship for all? And isn't that Communistic, in the eyes of Red-baiters? Neither would the purges of the CIO help either. It too, no matter what it said, would definitely be labeled Red.

"It is proposed to confer on a politically-appointed board," said Senator Langer, "vague and therefore unrestricted power to outlaw associations of citizens whose views and policies are considered y it to be 'dangerous.' Under these vague powers trade unions and other organizations . . . could be branded as traitorous agents of foreign governments. . . . In the atmosphere created by this bill American traditions of freedom could only stifle and die."

This bill must not become law. A similar bill in the 80th Congress, also authored by Mundt and Dixon, was defeated through the efforts of the people of America. Write your Congressman, your senators, to do all in their power to defeat this menace to the liberty of the American people.

And remember Richard Nixon is a candidate for the U. S. Senate in this coming election. He is being opposed by Helen Gahagan Douglas, who as a member of Congress has fought tenaciously against any and all encroachments upon the freedom of all Americans. Nixon must be given such a trouncing at the election June 6 that he'll never even want to talk politics again.

But you can't do that unless you can vote. And you can't vote unless you're registered. REGISTER NOW. The dead line is April 13. Register now.

people. We are glad to notice this. But if they would use half the energy they put out in leaflets, which few read, and half the money they waste in postage, and state in a few words exactly what they stand for (1, 2, 3) the people generally, and the newspapers particularly who are compelled to deposit most of their ebullitions into the wastebasket, would feel grateful to them. And perhaps feel more like voting for them.

First Woman on Supreme Court

Hon. Annette Abbott Adams, appointed by Supreme Court Chief Justice Phil S. Gibson, is the first woman to serve on the California State Supreme Court in the 100-year history of that court.

Justice Adams is a native daughter, a graduate of the University of California, and was admitted to the State Bar in 1912. Her appointment to the State Supreme Court is not permanent, however. She served only in the place of Justice John W. Shenk, who could not attend.

But nevertheless Justice Adams is the first woman ever to sit on the Supreme Court bench, even as a sub for someone else.

he heard these remarks and he resented them and so do I. So I took it upon myself to call up and find out the names and addresses of some of the colored papers in this city.

My employer said he was downtown in the court room, and he heard remarks made about Negro girls and Negro attorneys, using the names that no decent, respectable person would use in speaking of the Negro people. He said that most all of the colored attorneys give their work to white men. That made him very angry and he wanted the colored people here to know it.

He said he heard some of these attorneys say that some Negro girls (but they didn't use the word "Negro." It was another word) are so dumb that they should be scrubbing floors and washing for their living. They send papers out wrong, and the Negro attorneys draw up papers wrong, and so many have to go back and be done over, and that means more work. Some of these N---s should be shining shoes or doing work as they are doing on Central ave., digging with a pick and shovel, and not try to practice law.

We heard that some of these colored attorneys are very prominent and smart men. But you can see what the white race thinks of the Negro race after getting their money.

(The name was given to The California Eagle).

Red Cross Fund Drive Extended Through April

"The Red Cross fund drive is gaining momentum—the 'deadline' will have to be extended well into this month—and Los Angeles chapter is going to attain its $2,193,000 goal."

This was the three-point observation handed down by Drive Chief Earl M. Jorgensen as he resumed his personal conferences with key campaign leaders in all geographic districts, branches and areas.

"Enthusiasm and spirit among our 30,000 volunteer canvassers is high, and they have all vowed to 'stay on the job' till the 1950 quota is met," Jorgensen stated.

Senola Green Dramatization At Jefferson

Mrs. Senola Maxwell Green presented Mrs. Elizabeth Cloud Miller, former teacher of Dramatics at the Jefferson High School, now retired, in a dramatization in the Little Green Theatre, Sunday afternoon, March 19.

An appreciative audience of friends and representatives of the PTA of Jefferson acclaimed the delightful interpretation of the artist. The Little Green Theatre is located in the home of the Greens, 2215 So. Harvard. Mrs. S. T. Johnson, PTA president, presented Mrs. Miller with a love token from the audience.

ourselves of the pass because we recognize it as the most important administrative instrument by which the government is able to carry out its policy of impoverishing us, and preventing us from improving ourselves economically by denying us the right to move freely in search of employment in the land of our birth.

"We are resolved not to carry passes any longer, and, if arrested, not to pay fines."

The South African liberation movement is rapidly gaining momentum despite the special difficulties with which it is confronted by reason of the presence of a large European population (2,003,572) and the success of government and employers in bribing large sections of the local white workers to support the status quo. The native population is 7,000,000. In addition there are some 60,000 mulattoes and 220,000 Indians.

As in other sections of Africa, the South African natives reject dictation by their oppressors on the question of how they should conduct their struggles against those same oppressors; or with whom they shall ally themselves. For example, denied the right to elect any but whites as their representatives in the Union parliament and in the provincial Capetown Council (they are allowed only one representative in each body), the natives elected two white Communists to represent them in those bodies. Nor have they had cause to regret their action.

William Esterman Announced In 20th District Congress Bid

With great pride the Independent Progressive Party in the 20th Congressional District announces that William B. Esterman has filed as its candidate for Congress in this district. The Independent Progressive Party has selected Mr. Esterman as its standard-bearer because he is eminently qualified to serve the people of his district as their intelligent and responsive representative in Washington, and because he is ready at all times to discuss and act on the real issues which face the voters in this Congressional campaign. We submit that this has not been done and will not be done by the incumbent congressman, Mr. Carl Hinshaw.

Among the important issues which your congressman must act upon to insure your greater security and welfare are: growing unemployment, problems of the senior citizens, the rights of labor, equal opportunity and equal rights for all regardless of race, creed, color, religion, political affiliation, or sex, and above all the control of the H bomb and the establishment of permanent peace.

Mr. Esterman has been an outstanding spokesman and advocate for these and other issues which affect the general welfare. He has been a successful attorney in our community for many years—especially concerned with labor and civil rights.

ed to the point where the district could be raised in status to that of an Autonomous Oblast within Khabarovsk Territory. As such it is directly represented in the Council of Nationalities of the Supreme Soviet of the U.S.S.R.

Quite logically, the plan for the development of the Far East provided for utilization of the traditional skills of the Jewish settlers in making this area the chief center of light and consumers' goods industries in the Khabarovsk and Maritime Territories. On the eve of the war, the furniture factory in the town of Birobidjan (population 20,000) already supplied the needs of both these territories.

Although the population of the Region increased tenfold between 1926 and 1939, it numbered little over a hundred thousand in the latter year. Sixty thousand were Jews. Schools, newspapers, theaters, and courts function in the Yiddish language. However, it is evident that Birobidjan is relatively unimportant in the lives of the Jews of the Soviet Union. The million-and-a-half survivors of the pre-war population of 3,000,000 have returned to the cities of the Ukraine, Belorussia and Lithuania from their wartime refuge in Central Asia. They did not move east to Birobidjan. After a quarter-century of complete equality with their Slavic compatriots, guaranteed by a specific law making anti-Semitism a punishable crime, they evidently feel more at home in their long-time areas of settlement than they would in the unfamiliar surroundings of Birobidjan. Nor is the choice one of convenience, for the rebuilding of the utterly leveled cities of the West is hardly easier than pioneering the forests and farmland of Siberia. The publication of Yiddish newspapers, magazines and books, and the maintenance of world-renowned Yiddish theatre companies seems to satisfy their desire for contact with their own culture. But everyday life they prefer to live in contact with their countrymen of all nationalities, Slav as well as Jew.

Colorful Blessing Of Animals Ceremony At Historic Church

Out of Los Angeles' storied past has come many colorful pageants, most interesting of which is "La Bendicion de Los Animales," the blessing of the animals.

This rite, which honors our domestic beasts and the part they played in helping to open up the Golden State, takes place on April 8, the Saturday following Good Friday.

The blessing is conferred on the animals in the patio of the ancient Plaza Church, Los Angeles' most venerable religious edifice. Goats, sheep, pigs, cows, pigeons and countless other animals are carried in, or ridden in, by their gayly costumed owners.

The ceremony is preceded by a parade of the animals, from the Macy street entrance of Olvera street, the city's first thoroughfare, to the church.

It is interesting to note that the Plaza Church was built with funds raised by the sale of domestic beasts way back in 1715.

Together with Mrs. Christine Sterling, founder of the Olvera Street Mexican center, the Los Angeles S.P.C.A. this year plans to arrange the most colorful blessing pageant ever seen here.

For the first time since its inception, "La Bendicion de Los Animales" will be seen via television.

Conviction Of Dennis Hits Film Lecture

The upholding of the so-called 'contempt' conviction of the Communist leader who challenged both Congressman Rankin's right to sit in Congress and the denial of the vote to millions of Southern Negroes "is part of a pattern to stop the fight for civil rights for the Negro people," William L. Patterson, Executive Secretary of the Civil Rights Congress has charged.

The Communist leader, Eugene Dennis, General Secretary of the Communist Party, refused to appear before the Un-American Committee in April, 1947, charging that the composition of the committee was contrary to law in that a member, John E. Rankin of Mississippi, is not a legally elected member of the House.

Dennis explained that because of its conspiracy to deprive Negroes of the vote, the State of Mississippi is not entitled to seven seats in the House under the 14th Amendment and that therefore, the tenure of Rankin is unlawful.

The 1949 total was 3,166 persons killed, as against 3,089 in 1948, an increase of 2.6 percent. The state had 4,514,241 registered motor vehicles, more than 11 percent of those registered in the nation.

16th Biennial Convention Of Nurses Planned

Plans have been completed for the 16th biennial nursing convention to be held in San Francisco May 7-12 under joint sponsorship of the American Nurses' Association, the National League of Nursing Education and the National Organization for Public Health Nursing, Miss Ella Best, R.N., chairman of the convention committee, announced this week.

Eight thousand nurses representing 200,000 professional registered member nurses in the United States, Hawaii and Puerto Rico are expected to attend. Convention theme is "Health—a Unifying World Influence: Nursing Accepts Its Role."

Safety Rules

Watch that bike! That warning was made this week by the California Highway Patrol to motorists and cyclists, alike.

Some of the more common violations of safe bike riding, according to the Patrol, are:

Hitching to other vehicles. More than one rider on a bicycle. Riding against traffic (on the left side of the street or road). Riding at night without lamps and reflectors.

Stunting is particularly dangerous, the patrol stated. Both hands should be kept on the handlebars at all times, except when signaling.

Youth Rampages

By NELLIE BECKER

You've given to the Red Cross, you've given to the polio drive, you've given to the cancer fund, you've given to the community chest, you've just given another $10 to your church and now your car needs repairing again. You definitely shouldn't give another cent. Not even when a tired but hopeful campaigner puts his foot in your door and tells you that the one and only Negro YMCA in the city of Los Angeles will close its doors because of lack of funds. Yes you vaguely remember attending a lecture at that 28th St. "Y". In fact that was where you learned to swim and play basketball when you were a kid. Many a Negro athlete got his star there. The Y.M. did an awful lot for that mischievous Jones boy who lived next door. When the club couldn't afford a hall or a spacious room in one of the west side mansions they could always pay a small fee and have it at the "Y". But you definitely shouldn't give another cent . . . no, not one penny.

Lawrence Price Named Municipal Court Marshal

LOS ANGELES—Lawrence H. Price, 6829 De Longpre Avenue, Hollywood, assumed the duties of the municipal court marshal Monday, April 3, upon the retirement of Frank L. Holt. Price was named at a meeting of the municipal judges last week.

Price, 35, was born and raised in the Hollywood and Los Angeles area, and was educated in the commerce and law schools at The University of Southern California. He is now continuing his studies in the night law school at Southwestern University.

Active in Hollywood church work, Price, his wife and two daughters, 9 and 5 years of age, belong to the First Baptist church of Hollywood. He has participated in Hollywood YMCA work for several years and is a member of the Native Sons of the Golden West, Ramona Parlor 109.

A First Lieutenant in the war, Price was a platoon leader of the 505th parachute Infantry, 82nd Airborne Division, and was wounded in the Battle of the Bulge.

Price has been a deputy marshal for the past eight years and was appointed temporary marshal Tuesday by the 35 municipal court judges. The judges have the power to make Price's temporary appointment permanent after he has served for six months.

Established in 1927, the Los Angeles municipal court is the largest municipal court in the United States and Price is the third marshal since the founding of the court, succeeding Charles Thomas and Frank L. Holt. Holt was marshal for 12 years.

Joint AJC-NAACP Study Racial Bias

The American Jewish Congress and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, in a joint report on the status of civil rights in the United States during 1949, drew attention to the sharp contrast between "the encouraging advance on the state and local levels and the failure of the United States Congress to enact a single civil rights law during the year."

At the same time, the report warned of the "ominously increasing recourse to violence by groups intent on maintaining existing discriminatory and racist patterns" and, in a sharp criticism of local law enforcement officials, asserted that "in each instance of unchecked violence, the police forces were guilty of laxity or inadequate preparation."

The 71-page report, "Civil Rights in the United States in 1949; a 'Balance Sheet of Group Relations,'" was released by Dr. David W. Petegorsky, executive director of the American Jewish Congress, and Roy Wilkins, acting secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, as the second in their annual series of joint reports.

The report emphasized the deadlock in the United States Congress on the civil rights program, "the continued shame of segregation in the nation's capital," and the resort to violence in many instances, among them the riots in Peekskill and Chicago. According to the report, there were three lynchings in 1949 as compared with one in 1948. Many Negroes were terrorized by lynch mobs. Thirty-four Negroes were killed while in the custody of police officials, and there were 25 recorded instances of violence designed to prevent Negroes and other groups from moving into formerly restricted residential areas.

In their statement, they concluded that:

"Segregation continues virtually unbroken in Southern institutions and white supremacy in Southern government. Throughout most of the country, racial discrimination governs the sale and lease of housing, while discrimination in employment and education still affects all minority groups. Finally, the international scandal of segregation in the nation's capital persists."

The 1949 report was prepared by Morroe Berger and Joseph B. Robison of the staff of the Commission on Law and Social Action of the American Jewish Congress.

Roosevelt Heard By Thousands In Northern California Tour

James Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for Governor, is winding up his second Northern California street corner campaign this week, after holding 32 meetings with a total attendance of 20,146 people in the opening week.

The first leg carried him from Porterville up the western San Joaquin Valley and thence up the coast to San Jose. The second part of the tour, started in Santa Rosa, carries him as far north as Eureka, then inland to Colusa County, winding up Friday night with a big outdoor meeting in the ball park at Yuba.

He will do no campaigning over Good Friday and through Easter. His weekly statewide radio program, usually heard on Friday night, has been switched to 7:30 p.m. Tuesday night, April 11, on CBS. From Yuba City, he returns to spend Good Friday and Easter with his wife and three children in Beverly Hills.

Monday, April 10, he will clear up details which have accumulated in his Los Angeles headquarters, and the next day makes his first street corner swing, aboard the Roosevelt

Special trailer, in Southern California. The opening day of his Southern campaign will start at 10 a.m. in La Habra, with Fullerton the second stop at 10:55 and with a 12:35 meeting in Anaheim. At 2 p.m., the party will be in Garden Grove; at 3:15 in Orange; 5 p.m. Costa Mesa, and at 8 p.m. the day will close with a mass meeting in Santa Ana High School auditorium.

Thus far, in the first three weeks of such campaigning, Roosevelt has appeared before a total of more than 70,000 people, with none of the campaigning in the metropolitan San Francisco or Los Angeles areas. He will continue this type of campaign up to the night before the June 6 primary election.

Flies are prolific. Various estimates have been made as to the number of offspring which could theoretically result in three months from the single mating of a pair of flies. Suffice to say that, if the food were available and the continued breeding were permitted, the earth would be covered to a depth of about 50 feet.

Negro Art Theatre Planning Community Program

LOS ANGELES—The Negro Art Theatre is making plans for a program that will prove beneficial to the entire Los Angeles community, it was announced this week by its chairman, Joel Fluellen.

To Present "Golden Boy"

The first project of the organization is the presentation of Clifford Odets' famous play, "Golden Boy," now in rehearsal.

Excellent Objectives

The objectives of the organization include the presentation in the theatre of plays which will reflect the culture, the struggles and the progress of the Negro people, and to represent them honestly as an integral part of American Life. Chairman Fluellen says: "We feel that in Los Angeles—as the fastest growing city in the United States, and certainly as a cultural center—the Negro artists should be represented by a theatre which will offer an opportunity for development of their talents."

No Color or Creed Bars

While the group will be known as the Negro Art Theatre, there will be no blocks from participation because of color, creed or national origin. Any person of any race or religion will be welcomed to participation.

Fund-Raising Necessary

The chairman also reports that the presentation of "Golden Boy" is being delayed for lack of funds. Social affairs and other types of entertainment have been given for raising money, but the treasury is still inadequate. The organization is non-profit making, and all monies collected go strictly for defraying expenses. Persons interested in making contributions may send them to the Negro Art Theatre, 2265 West 22nd Street, Los Angeles. Information may be obtained by phoning Parkway 8746 or by writing to the above address.

Suit Over Peekskill Violence Stalled By Delaying Actions

The granting of another delay in the $2,000,000 Federal damage suit by Paul Robeson, Howard Fast and 26 others whose civil rights were denied by the violence at Peekskill last summer, was denounced by the Civil Rights Congress.

Federal Judge Conger in New York has stayed court proceedings on the grounds that "it might impede the work of the Grand Jury."

"What work?" asked William L. Patterson, Executive Secretary of the Civil Rights Congress. "The very defendants in the court suit themselves control this so-called Grand Jury. From witnesses called and the questions asked, it is obvious that they are planning to indict the injured concert-goers."

More Taxes On Tobacco And Cigarettes

That off-again, on-again additional tax on cigarettes and tobacco being toyed with by the state is on again. Earlier this week, the state Assembly which last week voted against additional tobacco taxes, voted 42 to 34 to add three cents tax to all cigarettes and about 15 per cent intaxes to other tobaccos.

Ten millions realized from this added burden on tobacco addicts will be used to support the schools. The state Senate is expected to get the measure on the agenda soon and deal with it in one motion. It is expected that the Senators will pass it just like that.

SHARPS & FLATS

By
ALBERT J. McNEIL
Music Critic of the California Eagle

Pepperdine College Presents
On last Saturday evening the George Pepperdine College, department of music, presented a musical epic entitled "The Song of Time," written and produced by Neil Hill. The work was presented in three parts, the first, "The Voice of Ancient Origins," the second, "The Voice of Great Events," and third, "The Voice of the Present."

Musically the composition consisted of a potpourri of selections, many of them by Mr. Hill, and others by Handel, Bach, Dubois, Gershwin, Wilshousky, and other modern composers. We felt that the inclusion of music by so many composers in one work destroyed a basic continuity established by Hill in the opening sections. The musical materials he demonstrated here were of sufficient caliber to deserve further exploitation or development in the succeeding sections. The textual matter was certainly conducive to such continued composition.

The presentation opened with a prologue recitative-like in character. The first chapter devoted to the Creation featured Edgar Mitchell, bass, whose vocal equipment includes a pleasing resonance, clarity of diction and enunciation, particularly in the lower register, good dramatic interpolations, and commendable stage presence.

There is considerable work required for an improved placement in the higher register. We regret that Mr. Mitchell's portrayal relegated itself to a "De Lawd" characterization, actually such dramatizations are obsolete—they only tend to increase the stereotyping done in school productions where Negroes form a minority of the student body. The white full-dress suit with the satin lapels did not help matters. We became confused at first as to whether or not this was a minstrel show or an opera.

Ursula Lewis' rendition of "Go Down Moses" was exciting as well as effective. The most pleasing voice of the evening was the baritone of Warren Wheatland who sang the "Messiah" excerpt, "Why Do the Nations So Furiously Rage?" This young man's projection was above reproach. The solidity of the vocal production in both upper and lower registers was exciting. We should like sincerely to hear the gentleman in a concert.

Virginia Murphy, mezzo, sang "He Shall Feed His Flock," also from "The Messiah." The tone quality was pleasing despite the consistent clipping of the phrases. William Estes was the philosopher in the prologue. The accompanists were: Julianna Smith, Margie Holt and Gloria Jorgensen.

The Stabat Mater

St. Martin's Episcopal Church, located in the southwest part of Los Angeles, presented the Rossini oratorio "The Stabat Mater" last Sunday afternoon in the church's chapel under the direction of J. W. Sanford, recent UCLA graduate in music, with Francis Alexander and Dr. Robert Cross accompanists at piano and organ.

At the onset we wish to commend the choirmaster for his attempts at the performance of music of a worthy caliber, and surely congratulate the choir of enthusiastic singers whose renditions demonstrated their eagerness and genuine interest; however, we reiterate and more loudly this time, that these performances should aim for a production which is consistent with good taste and high standards. We felt sincerely that the presence of a narrator, the inclusion of "Messiah" excerpts after such a long preliminary dedicatory service, wholly out of place. We have been guilty too of over-enthusiasm for the cause of "good music," but it is such efforts as these, which last almost two hours and a quarter, which make it difficult for the "cause."

Soloists for the production were Georgia Ann Laster, soprano; Jeanne Jackson, contralto; Willie Stark, tenor; William Valentine, bass. The opening chorus, "Lord, Most Holy!" featured a quartet consisting of Peggy Woodard, Margaret Winstead, Richard Kennedy and Reginald Fisher. Of the four, Mr. Fisher's contribution was most significant. His intonation was good and the enunciation clear.

William Starks' "Lord! Vouchsafe" met with general approval. It has been many years since hearing Starks. He still projects a solid high A Flat. It was regrettable that the accompanists played so loudly and in some cases too hurriedly. The duet, "Power Eternal," presented by Georgia Laster and Jeanne Jackson, was cohesive but fell through in the cadenza which lacked the polish only attained through consistent and careful rehearsal. The selection, "Through the Darkness," sung lustily by William Valentine, certainly did not live up to his earlier presentations of the work. Frankly, Valentine has become flagrantly negligent about his vocal production. Poor posture and improper breath-control were highlights of his Sunday renditions.

Georgia Laster was redeeming in the "Inflamatus." Miss Jackson's presentation of "I Will Sing of Thy Great Mercy" was sincere and convincing. This young woman is showing marked improvement in both diction and enunciation.

Fran Williams Brings Tears In 'Son' Role

A packed house saw and heartily applauded the world premiere engagement of William Soroyan's "The Son," a presentation of the Circle Theatre, last Tuesday evening. Truly, it was one of those rare and great moments in theatre when the audience and actor responded in electric unity.

A stellar performance was given by Frances E. Williams, character actress, who brought the audience to tears with her tender portrayal of a noble housekeeper. Her counterpart was little Dickie LeRoy, as young Douglas Forrester, and William Schallert, as the matured gentleman, both of whom gave the character real depth.

Though the first act was a bit disconnected, Clark Ordon did an excellent job as Mark Rexford, an idealistic vaudeville actor. Sydney Chaplin also shared honors, as did Bernard Hamilton and George Crionas.

If Soroyan's play is a protest against war, it is also a protest the forces in society that are responsible for frustration, poverty, disillusionment, and oppression; for his characters are wrecked before the outbreak of the two wars.

Ruth Lipscomb Scores Triumph At Bluefield

ising pianist of the century, added to her laurels as one whose technique and musicality is based primarily on beautiful tone quality and an inborn sentiment. She is without doubt, the pianist of the century. It was actually possible for one to close his eyes and gaze upon Bach, Schumann, Chopin, and Debussy so completely was she lost in the mood of the composers and their compositions as she played them.

Miss Lipscomb recently finished a successful concert tour beginning at the St. Paul Polytechnic Institute. She had hardly had a minutes rest when she embarked on another which began at Bluefield State college April 4.

Leon Kirkpatrick In Recital At Pepperdine April 30th

That Leon Kirkpatrick is a composer of real worth as well as one of the country's most outstanding performing artists, was proved last summer when an original composition of his, for two pianos with symphonic band accompaniment had its first hearing at the UN Rally for Dr. Bunche in Hollywood Bowl.

The work was performed with Lorenza Jordan Cole and Charlie Lawrence at the Duo Pianos and the band under the excellent direction of Percy McDavid. Due to its popularity and requests for its repetition, Mr. McDavid presented it again at the rally for Dr. Bunche in the Shrine Auditorium. At this time Naida McCulloch and Andre Greene were the pianists.

Mr. Kirkpatrick, the composer of the piece, will be presented in recital at Pepperdine College Auditorium, 1121 West 79th street (Vermont at 79th street) on Sunday afternoon, April 30th, at 3:15 o'clock. The affair is sponsored by Iota's Auxiliary Club, and the proceeds will go to the Iota Scholarship Fund.

Sponsor of the special concert was Percy H. McDavid, the music instructor at Lafayette Junior High School. Miss Nonah Lawrence of the Conservatory arranged the event.

The Conservatory group was led by Earle C. Voorhies, a native of Los Angeles.

LAYIN' IT ON THE LINE

By EDDIE BURBRIDGE

SHORT ORDERS—The Los Angeles Rams of the pro football ranks will pitch their summer training camp either in Pasadena or Long Beach. Pasadena is favored because the Rams can play their intra-squad games in the Rose Bowl. . . . Henry Armstrong, former triple boxing champion, who turned preacher, grabbed an American Airliner to Baltimore last Thursday. On Palm Sunday he preached in a big evangelistic church before a capacity crowd. "Hank" may tour a bit doing preaching chores before returning, or he may get back in time to appear at an Easter Sunday affair to which he was invited. If you don't think he's taking preaching seriously, you should look in on him at home when he's in town. He spends nearly all of his time writing sermons, reading the Bible and other religious books. He also puts on some rather spirited rehearsals.

BASEBALL DOPE—The Hollywood Stars, who are playing to plenty empty seats this season thus far, don't have to blame it all on television. If the brains of the organization had had enough foresight to latch on to a few Negro players, this writer, for one, is sure a lot of Negro fans would turn out. Right now, after their series with Portland, we believe the Stars would like very much to have Luiz Marquez, Beaver Negro centerfielder, who proved a decided headache to the Hollywooders throughout the series. His colored teammate, Johnny Ritchey, catcher, also did a good job. Marquez averaged .370 in hitting during the series here. He also consistently robbed the Stars of hits in the outfield with his great fielding. We are willing right now to bet anybody connected with the Hollywood Stars that the Los Angeles Angels, who have Booker McDaniels, Negro pitcher, will run up a bigger attendance and their games will be televised also. Both Hollywood and the Angels have good teams but for boxoffice appeal they certainly are overlooking their best bet by not signing up more good Negro players. It is exceedingly strange that nearly every other West Coast team in the league boasts more Negro players than the localites. Just figure this out. Jackie Robinson helped swell Brooklyn receipts tremendously when he was signed by the Dodgers. Brooklyn is a small town compared with L. A., one of the largest cities in the world. Forget about television and use a little gray matter, you guys who are holding the reins. The new census now being taken will reveal Los Angeles as having one of the largest Negro populations in the U. S. and just take a teeny, weeny tip from me. Negroes love baseball, but Robinson, Campanella, Newcombe and others have instilled in them a desire to see their own players in uniform both in the majors and minors and they are not going to lay their money on the line for less. The same goes for the fight game. Baron Von Stum-

ON THE TURF

GEORGE RAMSEY

CALIENTE, Old Mexico — It was a beautiful warm day at Caliente last Sunday and over 7000 lovers of the "Sport of Kings" were on hand and gave pretty Phyllis Kennedy a great ovation when she finished first in the all-girls Challenge Cup. Nine girls had mounts in the special event, the champion girls from Arizona against the stunt riders of Hollywood.

Concur, a fast breaker, with Billie Niyton up, took the lead at the break out drifted out on the far turn where La Canada with Miss Kennedy forged to the front to hold Concur in the final drive. The winner paid in the mutuels $5.40. It was Miss Kennedy's second victory here, having won the Powder Puff Derby, another all-girl-race on Golden Slipper.

In the feature attraction Ever Dominick, ridden by Jockey R. York, made it a wire to wire win over Deep Sand. These two staged a battle royal from start to finish with the former gaining the victory by a half length, to pay in the mutuels $11.00. The favorite, Vain Doctor, finished fourth. It was Jockey R. York's third winner of the afternoon.

The daily-double combination of Equisonance, winner of the second race, and eves, a first starter at this track, who won the third, paid $16.20. Both were favorites in their races. The Quiniela backers received $25.40 when Relayer and Bond Market finished in that order.

General Manager Walter C. Marty has arranged three features to support the twelve-race program for this Sunday.

"The Inauguration" at four furlongs for two year olds, "The Roseland" at six furlongs, "The Skytracer" at one mile.

(SPECIAL NOTE) — Another $5000 cash prize program award contest will be held in the near future. Watch this paper for date. It won't be long now.

TANFORAN — (Up San Francisco Way) — After winning the $10,000 added Sequoia Stakes at Tanforan last Saturday, Clifford Mooers may send his good three-year-old Hawley to run for the roses in the Kentucky Derby. The race will be run May 6th and has an added value of $100,000. But if Hawley is shipped to run in the Derby he will have to run better and faster than he did in winning The Sequoia. His time for the mile and an eighth Saturday was 1:50 3/5. Oil Capito is still the winter book favorite. The famous Calumet Farms Theory, a son of the great Pensive will give them all a battle. Your Host from California is the dark horse.

At Brooklyn last weekend, Eugene (Silent) Hairston, New York welterweight, won a unanimous 8-round decision over Charles Sala of Phoenix, Ariz., at the Roadway Arena.

Luke Easter's Homerun Helps Tribe To Win

TUCSON — The Cleveland Indians bunched eight hits for six runs in three innings last Wednesday to shade the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-6, in an exhibition baseball game.

The Tribe pounced on Pitcher Hal Gregg for four runs on four hits in the third inning. Luke Easter, outfielder, lifted a 370-foot home run out of the park with one man on base. It was the big rookie's fifth homer of the season.

Sigmas Defeat Alphas' Kappas Take Omegas

Although badly out-classed from the start, the Alphas asked no quarter of their champion-bound Sigma adversaries. The little men seemed to forget that they were supposed to lose and turned on the heat in the opening minutes.

The Hill twins started festivities off and accounted for all their points when the Alphas enjoyed their last lead at 11-10 with the game ten minutes old. For the Sigmas it was Bobby Pounds again, who poured in baskets unmercifully to run up a total of 17 for the night. Aided by the rapid fire of Doug Shaw and Fred Bluett, the Sigmas held a comfortable 30-19 margin at the half, and went on to win the game.

KAPPAS WIN

The frat series got underway in dead earnest Saturday night as all four teams showed a vast improvement over their lethargic showing of last week and played dogged ball which has characterized the series through the years. Campanella Hits 2 Homers To Spark Bums

MIAMI, Fla. — Roy Campanella's two home runs off Pitcher Bob Hooper helped the Dodgers even their spring training series with the Philadelphia Athletics as the Dodgers scalped the Mackmen, 6-4, in Miami Stadium last Saturday night.

Ray's first homer tied the score at 1-all in the second inning, and his second blow produced a 4-4 tie in the seventh frame. The tie-breaking run came when Reese was safe at home as Catcher Joe Tipton dropped Sam Chapman's throw on Jackie Robinson's liner. Banner Season Is Predicted For Newcombe

How many baseball games will big Don Newcombe win this year? OUR WORLD for May asks in a story on the Dodgers' speed-ball artist. In his first full season with Brooklyn, Don may surprise even his most ardent supporters. He has a chance to be the first big league pitcher since Dizzy Dean to win 30 games.

Many interesting sidelights on Don's career are related and the story also recalls some of the old-time pitching feats that are world records. Don's pitching form is discussed and is shown in a series of camera-eye pictures, starting with the wind-up and ending with Don's follow-through.

To round out the story, OUR WORLD visited Don's comfortable New Jersey home and made pictures of Don's charming wife, Freddie, as well as his prize Boxer pup.

Easter Celebration in Nigeria

During this time of the year, people are engaged in tremendous preparations for the Easter celebration.

This being my second Easter vacation away from home, I have been able to notice a slight difference through contacts with different people in the celebration of Easter, and the prelude to Easter Sunday. Some people wanted to know whether we have different days for the celebration of the festivals than those observed in the U. S. The only answer I have been able to give them is this:

That all individuals with the exception of those living in Switzerland, are supposed to be in bed or to get up almost at the same time, with of course, a little difference in the hour, but this does not mean that everything in Africa will be somewhat peculiar to the rest of the world, because she happens to be across the Atlantic.

All the days set for festivals are just the same, and we do celebrate them to the extent that a visitor might wonder whether or not we are observing a brotherhood week. Students go to fun-fairs, parties, to the beaches, and on out-of-town vacations, while some of the elderly people stay home to entertain their visitors. On the whole it is really enjoyable.

The one great difference I have observed is that each church here is too interested in its own personal affairs. For instance, a minister brought an Easter advertisement to me while I was working in the office. He told me that this particular advertisement was rejected by another newspaper because of its difference of opinion on religious matters. This old minister was rather upset.

But lest we forget, we should all note that we are running towards one goal. Regardless of what our faith may be, our beliefs, or the difference in churches, we are all brothers, and a product of this great universe of humans into whose nostrils the great God has breathed the breath of life. We have no right at all to condemn or to reject.

We must also remember that we are fighting in the same cause, which is to love God, serve our fellow man, and hate the devil.

28th St. 'Y' Sent Notices Jobs End May 1 Unless Funds Raised

Members of the staff of the 28th Street Branch YMCA have been given 30-day notices stating that their jobs will end May 1, unless funds can be raised to continue the work of the "Y."

The Board of Managers has decided upon this drastic action in order to clear the way for staff reduction at the end of the thirty days. If at the end of that time "the financial position of the Branch requires such action" the staff will be reduced to only a skeleton of what it has been. If, however, the funds can be raised in that time, the members of the staff will be re-employed and all will go on as before.

There has been no discrimination against the 28th Street "Y," it has been made clear. Exactly the same action has been required of the 21 other branches of the YMCA in Los Angeles. Each branch is required to show that its program and services are supported by the community in which it operates. The funds needed for the work are the criterion by which the support is judged.

The 28th Street "Y" is working especially hard to raise the funds needed. It would be a virtual calamity to hundreds of boys if this "Y" should be forced to close its doors. Churches, civic organizations, social clubs, the people who live in the community and whose children have been called upon to help. They have nobly answered the SOS signal. But even more and greater sacrifices must be made in order to prevent the "Y" closing its doors.

Will you help? This is the appeal sent to everyone by the 28th Street "Y."

Eagle Columnist At Sojourner Truth

Miss Adora Ulasi, a Nigerian student at East Los Angeles Junior College, spoke to the youths at the Sojourner Truth home on Saturday.

The eager American youths were enthused to hear Miss Ulasi speak on NEW AFRICA. This helped to clear the wrong conceptions they had gotten through the influence of false pictures of Africa. A dinner party was given to her at the home of Elsa Gibson, a student at the John Adams high.

Doings About Omaha

by G. Aneita Hayes

With Spring on the threshold, sunny skies and blue clouds, Evelyn Beck of 2250 Florence Boulevard, who has been such a darling for the past year to substitute on a moment's notice for the Birthday Club, entertained the members of the Birthday Club and many of her friends at one of Spring's prettiest and enjoyable luncheons on last Thursday. Flowers for this occasion were sent by Mrs. Corene Jones who was unable to attend the party.

The living and dining rooms of the Beck residence were transformed into a picture like one sees in books with such beautiful linens, dishes and silver with Mrs. Grace Flannagan at the helm for preparing the luncheon of deliciously fried chicken, spring salad, green vegetables and Gussie McPherson's tasty rolls to complete the menu, nothing was lacking. The relish dish arranged as only Gussie could was almost too pretty to eat. Lemon pie for dessert completed the luncheon menu.

Mesdames Grace Flannagan, Gussie McPherson, G. Aneita Hayes and Mrs. Beck's two daughters, Violet and Evelyn assisted her in entertaining her guests.

Those attending this affair were Mesdames A. L. Hawkins, Lewis Artison, Milton E. Johnson, Luberta Arnold, I. S. McPherson, Gertrude Morgan, Charles Harreld, Jessica Wright, Jessie Hilton, E. M. Mason, Avery Washington, Helen Potts, Camille Webster, Orlo South, Henry Thomas, Oliver Frazier, Henry Wilson, Arthur Flannagan, Thomas E. Hayes.

The secret is out now so it's in order to say that the Becks, Evelyn and Thomas are "In-Fan-Tici-Patin again after 17 years. Congratulations are certainly in order and best wishes too.

Omaha citizens need to keep their eyes turned toward Kellon Pool and the personnel to be employed there. The best jobs don't necessarily have to be manned by white personnel who have no interest and do not even live in the community.

It is rumored that Miss Edythe K. Hall, principal of Kellon School has been asked to manage the Pool. It doesn't seem fair nor plausible that a person with one good job should be given another on the city payroll, when there are other eligible persons in the community.

Billy Meyers, Recreation Supervisor, told the writer that the manager job had already been settled.

Only a united citizenry can correct the existing evils of discrimination and segregation and lack of opportunities for qualified Negroes in Omaha.

Successful PTA Year At Jeff Closes With Praise For Head

On the eve of the closing of a very successful year of PTA work at Jefferson High School, the factors contributing to that success are noted.

Mr. Arthur Farnham, principal, and Mrs. Hazel Whedon, girls' vice-principal, have cooperated in every way with the parents to make a go of the work.

The almost 100% attendance of the faculty, their active participation in the programs, was due to the direction of Mr. Farnham. Mrs. S. T. Johnson, president of the PTA says that without the big help given her by Principal Farnham and Whedon, the work couldn't have succeeded as it has.

Recently, in the parent education series of the combined Carver and Jefferson Schools, the question of the curriculum offered at these schools was met and answered, not only by Principal Purdie of Carver and Principal Farnham of Jefferson, but by the Counsellors of the schools. Facts and figures were submitted to prove that the counselling and curriculum offered at the schools were the best to meet the needs and demands of the student body.

Consolidated Rlty Bd. Holds Grand Opening

The Consolidated Realty Board, Inc. of Southern Calif., licensed as a non-profitable organization by the secretary of state, held its grand opening Saturday, April 1st, at their new home, 3654 South Western Ave. This office is managed by Mrs. Mayme G. Lewis under the direction of the board president, Willis E. Carson.

This is believed to be the only realty board of this type that is inter-racial throughout the United States. It was organized two months ago with its chief purpose of creating a better relation among brokers and the general public.

The officers of the organization are: Willis E. Carson, president; Cluene Reid, vice-president; H. W. Davis, secretary; H. J. Gleed, financial secretary; W. H. Black, treasurer; Mayme G. Lewis, office manager. Board of directors: W. J. Fairchild, chairman; Willis E. Carson, Cluene Reid, B. D. Wisner, W. H. Black, H. J. Gleed, C. D. Jolly, L. V. Spencer, Robert B. Newman.

UN Studies Inram Case

When the Human Rights Commission of the United Nations convened for its first session on March 27, at Lake Success, New York, it had for consideration, the facts of the celebrated Inram Case presented by the National Committee to Free the Inram Family.

Mrs. Inram and her two sons, Sammy and Wallace, were sentenced to die in the electric chair February 27, 1948, for defending her honor and her virtue against an enraged white farmer who attacked her with a rifle and knife.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt is chairman of this committee which is made up of delegates from 18 countries, and of course, represents the whole assembly. The sessions of the Commission will probably cover several weeks.

Last year, each of the fifty-nine countries represented in the United Nations received a copy of a brief on the Inram case prepared by the eminent author and scientist Dr. W. E. B. Dubois. Delegations from the National Committee to Free the Inram Family have visited the offices of thirty-two countries in New York City, requesting them to present the Inram Brief to the Human Rights Commission and to the General Assembly of the United Nations. Mrs. Mary Terrell, National Chairman of the Inram Committee presented the Inram Brief to Mrs. Alva Myrdal, Acting Assistant Secretary-General of the department of Social Affairs of the United Nations Secretariat, on September 21, 1949. One-hundred and thirty men and women participated in the ceremony. The comments, protests, and petitions from all parts of the world can be summed up in the words of Dr. Jan Drohojowsky Polish delegate to the United Nations: "A most flagrant and brazen violation of human rights."

Many of the sponsors and members of the National Committee to Free the Inram Family will be on hand during the sessions of the Human Rights Commission at Lake Success, New York.

Over one-half the hospital beds in the United States are occupied by mental patients. 664,399, or 54% of the 1,217,154 patients comprising the average daily hospital census in 1948 were patients in nervous and mental hospitals.

An average of 25 persons lost their lives every three days in traffic accidents during the year, while 10 were injured every hour.

East Side Volunteer Workers Given Credit

The East Side volunteer workers were given credit for the marvelous work they did in the Red Cross drive last week, announced Miss Evangeline E. Woodfolk, area chairman.

The people with the greatest contributions were Mrs. Dewey Hayden, who solicited alone the $100 for the battalion she heads; Mrs. Nina Brinson, Mrs. Lorraine Apodaca and Mrs. Florence Robinson who are each canvassing a full battalion, Miss Mary Walker and Mrs. Maddie Miller and Nellie Tolan, combed the district for Red Cross solicitations. Mrs. Lucille Scott, accomplished an organizational job with recruitment of six captains. Mrs. Mary Reed was the first major to reach the quota assigned to her, whose aides were Mrs. Ethel Garret and Mrs. Ollie Hamilton. Miss Woodfolk pointed out that all these workers showed enthusiasm in their work and that special mention of their names were made last week.

Just how serious grasshopper outbreaks will be in 1950 now depends primarily on weather conditions at hatching time, and the availability of green food for the tiny hoppers as they leave the egg beds. Greatest threats of grasshoppers appear to be in Montana, North Dakota, and Wyoming.

586 hospitals for mental disease in the United States have a capacity of 691,499 beds. There is an immediate need for 350,000 more beds for mentally ill patients.

Rev. Linwood G. Fauntleroy's Statement on Senate Candidacy

Rev. G. Linwood Fauntleroy today issued the following statement concerning his candidacy for state senator from Alameda County on the independent progressive and Democratic tickets:

"The incumbent is unashamed, open representative of the reactionary political machine which at present largely controls Alameda County Politics. The incumbent's records on jobs, relief, pensions, low cost housing, fair employment practices, civil liberties and other grave problems facing labor and the people of our country is best expressed in his own words, spoken recently in Sacramento, 'I will commit myself to nothing...'. When I first announced my candidacy for state senator on March 25th, I hoped the voters of Alameda County would be able to unite around a single candidate pledged to a progressive program. 'Unheralded, unannounced, at the 11th hour, another candidate, Mr. Robert Ash, entered the race on the Democratic ticket thus making impossible complete unity in opposition to the incumbent. 'I hope all true progressives will remember that the main fight is against the incumbent and the reactionary machine politics for which it stands. I intend to carry on my campaign for the Democratic and Independent Progressive nominations on the basis of program and actions in the best interests of the majority of the people of Alameda County. My program is centered on the fight for more jobs and adequate relief and pensions for all citizens without discrimination. 'I hope Mr. Ash will join me in the fight for a peoples program and against the reactionary politicians trying to thwart such a program. 'Since we are both in the race, the people's interest will best be served by both candidates concentrating on the positive program and against the common enemy. 'The vote of the people, based on our respective programs and actions, will decide which of us will gain the nomination.

New Area For Sport Fishing Is Requested

RIVERSIDE—The County Conservation Commission reported last week it has sent a formal request to the Metropolitan Water District for Lake Mathews to be opened to the public for fishing.

The proposal suggests the water district sign a long-term contract with a concessionaire for boat rental and fishing permits and appoint a conservation board to hire a ranger and deputies to police the lake against pollution by fishermen.

O. T. Harvey, chairman of the commission, estimated annual profits would be high. Sportsmen from scores of parched Southland communities have been eyeing the lake for years and Harvey says it is teeming with game fish.

Ass'bly to Investigate L.A. Police Brutality

The State Assembly, by a voice vote, last week ordered a full investigation of charges that Los Angeles police and sheriff's officers often show disregard for the rights of members of minority groups.

The investigation will be conducted by the Assembly's Interim Committee on Crime and Correction headed by Assemblyman Vernon Kilpatrick. This committee, in a recent investigation, directed nation-wide attention to the practice of brutality against Negroes by the Oakland police department.

Plans for such an investigation in Los Angeles originated in the course of last month's delegation to Sacramento for Jobs, Pensions, and Relief. A representative of the Mexican-American National Association directed the attention of Assemblyman William Rosenthal, Democratic representing the Boyle Heights area, to a recent raid in which deputy sheriffs arrested 50 Mexican-Americans attending a baby shower at Maravilla.

Rosenthal introduced a resolution, which was adopted March 30, and called for the investigation and that "such steps be taken as may be necessary to eliminate any existing discriminatory practices."

Grateful Artist Presents Oil Painting Of The Champ To YM

The grateful memory of a successful artist who once was without funds to pay for board and lodging was responsible for a touching ceremony at the 28th Street YMCA last Saturday night.

Talented artist Calvin Bailey, who now enjoys an international reputation because of his fine portraits and paintings, returned to the 28th Street Y last Saturday night, and with him was retired heavyweight champion of the world, Joe Louis. Jammed into the lobby were hundreds of young boys and girls who with their parents and newsmen, listened raptly while Bailey told why they had been assembled.

"I was hungry once," Bailey said, "and I came to this YMCA. They took me in even though I couldn't pay for my room. They let me stay and they inspired and helped me until I was able to help myself. I could never repay what they gave me, but I can show how deeply grateful I am."

Bailey then revealed he had painted an oil portrait of champion Joe Louis and donated it to the 28th Street Y. "I want to give it to the Y," he said, "as an inspiration to the boys who find so much to admire and emulate in Joe Louis."

The champ spoke to the boys, and then in the boys' game room, he and the artist unveiled a magnificent likeness of the greatest champion of them all.

Emory L. Cain, boys' secretary, presided over the ceremonies. Treasurer Jennings, an official of the ranch, spoke, and executive secretary Harold Prince accepted the gift in the name of the branch.

To each of you may I extend, "EASTER GREETINGS"

This Sunday is Easter, the time we turn our thoughts to the Bunny for the children, colored eggs, and the Easter Parade, but we must not forget the full significance of the day. Attendance at church services would more than likely prove worth while and we will perhaps feel easier after we pay tribute to one who suffered for each of our sins during his Crucifixion, so I think, that if Christ could suffer what must have been extreme agonizing pain on Calvary, that I should at least, be able to attend Mass Easter Sunday Morning.

NAACP Refuses Resignation of Judge Bolin

The Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People at its last meeting, voted by a vote of two to one that the Board not accept the resignation from the Vice Presidency of Judge M. Bolin, but that the Chairman appoint a committee, including himself, to confer with Judge Bolin to request her to withdraw her resignation. The committee appointed consists of Dr. Channing Tobias, Judge Charles Toney and Dr. Louis Wright.

In commenting on the action of the N.A.A.C.P. This wedding promises to attract socialites up and down the Coast, where Mr. Murray and his deceased wife, Lela O. Murray, were well-known as genial hosts of the popular resort ranch for the past 20 years.

Robeson Speaks To Fans In Harlem

NEW YORK CITY (CNS)—Paul Robeson returned to Harlem in a blaze of glory and triumph as more than 5,000 enthused fans welcomed him to the Golden Gate Ballroom (Thursday night) where they were assembled for a rally in a Labor salute to the Negro people. Approaching the platform amid storming cheers as his recording of "The Ballad For Americans" was heard over the loudspeaker, Robeson had to but wave his hand from the platform and there was silence.

At once he broke into song... "Let My People Go"—followed by "Scandalize My Name"—a Yiddish and American union song and "Ole Man River." Here he changed the closing words to "We must keep fighting until we're dying while Ol Man River—he just keeps rolling along."

The other honored men were Ferdinand Smith, Maritime leader who put up a powerful defense at Ellis Island against deportation and Ben Davis, Jr., one of "The Twelve" accused Communists who was defeated in the recent election for Councilman.

The rally, sponsored by the Harlem Trade Union Council of which Ferdinand Smith is Executive Secretary, featured many local leaders from trade unions. High spot of the evening was rising star Harry Belafonte singing his original "Recognition," a sort of blues-ballad with stark words: "I want recognition as a man... I want to put my shoulders to the wheel of freedom and help it roll along."

Your Public Library, therefore, urges for 1950 a Lenten observance through reading. Your librarian will be glad to supply you with any of the following books and will recommend others appropriate to the season.

THE WAY TO POWER AND POISE

By E. Stanley Jones

Of the making of books on improving your personality there is no end—but here is one with a difference! Dr. Jones, the well-known minister and teacher, approaches the subject through a revitalization of the Christian faith, so that it may play a basic part in our everyday lives. The book is in the form of a series of year-round devotional exercises designed to strengthen the spirit in its contact with the problems of everyday living in an atomic age.

THE VATICAN: Behind the Scenes in the Holy City

By Ann Cornahan

Since this is a Holy Year, there have appeared a number of books suitable for those who are contemplating a pilgrimage to Rome and for those who will proceed to the Eternal City by means of the imagination alone. This is one of the most interesting of these timely books. With photographs on every page, it describes informally the daily life in the Holy City, as well as its artistic treasures.

THE WEIGHT OF GLORY, AND OTHER ADDRESSES

By Clive Staples Lewis

C. S. Lewis, the British writer who combines an ardent Christian faith with wit, popular appeal, and the ability to clothe a rattling good yarn with religious significance, is here represented by five timely addresses that are ideal reading for Lent. They are charming, shrewd, and common-sense discussions of such eternal questions as a future life, the value of the individual, the problem of pain.

SEEDS OF CONTEMPLATION

By Thomas Merton

The author of that phenomenal best-seller, "Seven Storey Mountain," presents a series of meditations on the life of contemplation. His other work showed how a typical young man of this century was led to a life in a Trappist monastery; in his new book, he presents some of the material of the inner life which may be followed by everyone. Some of the subjects covered include, solitude, faith, humility, integrity, and freedom.

SPOKESMAN FOR GOD

By Edith Hamilton

One of the great scholars of our time has written an illuminating study of outstanding teachers of the Old Testament. The book includes some interesting interpretive chapters on the first five books of the Bible.

THE MAN FROM NAZARETH

By Harry Emerson Fosdick

The life of Jesus as He must have appeared to the man in the street of His day—this is the task Dr. Fosdick sets himself in this new book, and the result is a vivid picture that is pertinent to our own times. You will return refreshed to your reading of the New Testament after sharing Dr. Fosdick's insight and his power to bring to life a bygone civilization.

THE MODERN READER'S GUIDE TO THE BIBLE

By Harold H. Watts

This new interpretation of the Bible is especially stimulating, for the general reader as well as for the scholar. At a time when we are becoming increasingly aware of the part played by the Hebrew-Christian ideas in the forming and maintenance of the Western civilization, the author declares that to understand these ideas and their crucial value for our times, we must go back to their source—the Bible.

MASTERPIECES OF RELIGIOUS VERSE

Edited by James D. Morrison

The editor has produced this valuable anthology as the result of many years' experience as a preacher and teacher. Containing over two thousand poems, it illustrates Dr. Morrison's contention that poetry often deepens and illuminates our emotional experiences. On such topics as God, Jesus, Man, the Christian Life, Death and Immortality, and others, we have here a panorama of the great poems of all ages.

Letter to the Editor

The California Eagle
To the Editor, Mrs. C. A. Bass
Los Angeles, California

Dear Editor:

In response to the letter printed in your paper last week written by Roy W. Fulwider concerning the dismissal of Rev. Owens from the Los Angeles Post Office, we wish to take this defense of Mr. Michael D. Fanning, Postmaster. Although the letter from the Postmaster, which Mr. Fulwider quoted, was very clear in stating the Postmaster's position, Mr. Fulwider has made other assertions which should be clarified.

Mr. Fanning does believe in the loyalty check as administered under President Truman, and believes in it as a good measure by which a group of people, such as we, have chosen to protect ourselves from subversive activities. Postal employees have in many instances vital information as to military train arrivals, departures, ship movements, etc. Every one knows that safety precautions must be taken whether they are by means of a "loyalty check" or otherwise. Mr. Fanning and employees of the Post Office well remember the deaths of fellow employees due to explosives being placed in the United States mail.

It should be made clear to your readers that any employee retained in the Los Angeles Post Office after his release orders have been received from Washington, D. C., would have to be paid from the personal salary of Mr. Fanning, or by Mr. Fulwider, if he were the Postmaster.

Mr. Fulwider is very quick to ask Mr. Fanning to step down from his position because of a difference of opinion on one point. A man of such status as Mr. Fanning has already proved his vital importance to the Los Angeles area. In 1945, when Mr. Fanning took office under Mr. Truman, eleven percent of the regular personnel of the Los Angeles Post Office was Negroes, among them were three Negro supervisors. The total income to the community, was less than a million dollars annually. Today twenty-five percent of the personnel is Negroes, over thirty are supervisors, some of which hold positions not yet attained by Negroes in any other city in the United States. Salaries paid to Negroes of this community average over six million dollars annually. The Los Angeles Post Office is the only business, with the exception of insurance companies that has a gross of over a million dollars annually, where a dollar is spent and fourteen cents is returned to a Negro family.

We feel that Mr. Fanning has always been very frank with the press and has called the press many times to give them news about measures pertaining to the Post Office Department and the people. Not at any time has he refused to make public any of his activities. Mr. Fulwider would have found Mr. Fanning, even upon this occasion, willing to state publicly his position on the loyalty check had Mr. Fulwider received permission to make Mr. Fanning's personal letter to him an open letter to the public.

The Phalanx, a group of postal supervisors, are proud of the manner in which Mr. Fanning has executed his duties as Post-

PROF. HERMAN
The Astrologer
TO ASSIST YOU IN MAKING WISE DECISIONS

LOVE

To some people to live is a man for himself. That is not really living. If we do not love we do not live. No one has begun to live whose whole existence has been consumed upon self. Life is not worth living until we have something or somebody to love for.

A good example of the necessity of loving and giving is the transformation we see in a careless young girl you once knew, to the sweet seriousness of wifehood and motherhood. A new light comes into her eyes, a new love into her heart and a new interest in her life.

Love works a wonderful transformation. Life is love.

R.R. Dear Prof. Herman: It has been quite some time since I have written to you, but I feel that now I really must ask your advice. My husband has been in another city working for quite some time, he wants us to come there, but I hate to take the children out of school so late in the season. What do you think about this?

ANSWER: I can readily understand your husband's point of view, as he wants to be with his family. I can also understand yours, for it does disrupt their schooling to a certain point to move them at this time of year. I suggest your making a short trip to visit your husband and explain this to him. I am sure he will agree with you when he understands.

T.J. Will they move or shall I?

ANSWER: Probing into the matter I find that your neighbors have been causing a lot of trouble and it seems that they are not planning on moving else-master of this city and feel that Mr. Truman, or any other President, could not have made a better choice in selecting a man of good wholesome American ideals.

Very truly yours,
Jesse L. Robinson, President
(Editor's Note: While we admire Mr. Robinson's attitude in upholding his superior officer's decisions. We surely violently disagree with the loyalty oath for post-office employees, and for any employee of the government, as an infringement on the rights of American citizens.)

There is no law to compel holders to turn in the bills, and for spending purposes as they would for any purpose, but Uncle Sam would just like to have them.

Gems of Thought

TRUST

It is better to suffer wrong than to do it, and happier to be sometimes cheated than not to trust.—Samuel Johnson.

To be trusted is a greater compliment than to be loved.
—George MacDonald.

Trust truth, not error; and Truth will give you all that belongs to the rights of freedom.
—Mary Baker Eddy.

We do not trust God, but tempt Him, when our expectations slacken our exertions.—M. Henry.

An undivided heart, which worships God alone, and trusts Him as it should, is raised above all anxiety for earthly wants.
—Geikie.

A childlike trust of heart, that can take a hand, and wondering, walk in paths unknown and strange, is the prime requisite of all religion.—James Martineau.

Blind Evangelist to Conduct Revival At Church of God

The Rev. R. A. Daniels, the blind evangelist of Portland, Oregon, will open a 30-day revival at the 21st Street Temple of The Church of God in Christ, 1327 E.

21st Street on Tuesday, April 11.

Rev. Daniels was born blind, and according to Overseer W. L. McKinney, pastor of the Temple, he is one of the greatest revivalist preachers ever to be heard in this section. In addition to his great spiritual power, Rev. Daniels is an accomplished pianist.

Overseer McKinney invites all to attend the revival services, and receive a blessing from the Lord through hearing the inspired and moving sermons of the Blind Evangelist.

HUNDREDS HAVE SAID, as time has passed, that the ceremony we conducted was one of correct appointment, and that our personal assistance was with a spirit of sincere helpfulness.

SUCH PUBLIC CONFIDENCE is not won by words. Actions are the only reliable symptoms of sympathetic sincerity. And that is what you get in a CONNER-JOHNSON service, whether it is one of utmost simplicity, or the most elaborate.

Consult us about our recommended pre-payment plan of funeral expenses, with no obligation. It costs only a few cents a day.

Christian Science Text Declares Disease Unreal

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" This question will be the subject of the Sunday Lesson-Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text, selected from Proverbs, reads: "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death."

In Matthew's Gospel it is related that a centurion came to Jesus "beseeching Him, and saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof; but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. . . . And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour."

Mary Baker Eddy says in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "It is the transgression of a belief of mortal mind, not of a law of matter nor of divine Mind, which causes the belief of sickness. The remedy is Truth, not matter,—the truth that disease is unreal."

Claim Discrimination On Loan Request Made by Local Company

The N.A.A.C.P. and S. Alexander Co., a local plastering company, today made known the fact that R.F.C. (Reconstruction Finance Corporation) a government agency for lending money to private enterprise, was discriminating against the S. Alexander Co., in its attempt to secure $90,000.00 loan to finance its expansion and current building program.

S. Alexander Co., a local Negro owned and operated corporation with a large group of Negro and white employees, has contracts totaling $1,000,000 for this year.

Wesley Wells

was not serving a life term at the time of the attack. That sentence was given him later, and the death penalty was then made retroactive.

Said Judge Goodman: "This court must conclude that in the true and historic sense, the petitioner (Wells) was not accorded due process when the death penalty was adjudged against him.

"By deliberate and designed inactivity the administrative body known as the adult authority of California kept the petitioner in an indefinite status for the purpose of making it possible to impose the death penalty upon him in the event he committed an offense under Section 4500 of the California Penal Code."

Section 4500 is the law making the death sentence mandatory if a life-term prisoner attacks a guard.

Gov. Warren had refused to intervene in Wells' case on the grounds that Wells was supposed to be "incorrigible." Judge Goodman called such reasoning "reminiscent of the policy of liquidation of present and past dictatorships."

Charles R. Garry, Wells' attorney, hailed the decision as a tremendous victory, although Wells is still not out of danger of the death penalty. His case must still go through the state courts. Judge Goodman granted a stay of execution of 90 days before he renders his final decision, after all "means of relief" in the state courts have been exhausted.

The case of Wesley Robert Wells has gained nationwide prominence. Hundreds of letters and telegrams in his behalf have been sent to Gov. Warren. The Civil Rights Congress, the Ministerial Alliance of San Francisco, The California Eagle, The Daily People's World, other newspapers and organizations, radio commentators, including the nationally-known Walter Winchell, took up the cudgels in his defense. The case is not yet won. Letters and telegrams are still needed. Write. Wire. Gov. Warren. Tell him, in view of the national disgrace being visited upon California because of this case, he should himself intervene and should urge the California Legislature to repeal such an unjust law.

B'nai B'rith

tinuance of the Jim Crow exclusion in organized bowling. Since 1916, the American Bowling Congress has had a "white males only" restriction in its by-laws. Efforts to remove the ban have been made at teach annual ABC convention since 1946. The issue was finally forced into the open, on the convention floor, last year in Atlantic City, but ABC delegates, in a voice vote, supported continuance of the discriminatory policy.

Contracts cover the plastering on the University of California at Los Angeles Law Building, the Tuberculosis Unit at the Patton State Hospital and the Wilmington High School.

Attorneys Thomas G. Neusom and Edward Carter Maddox of the Legal Redress Committee are now preparing a formal protest of the discriminatory practices, and if no satisfactory action is taken here the case will go to Washington.

Trip Around World Planned By Wiley Colege Club

The Wiley Club was honored at the March meeting with the presence and talent of Mrs. Johanna Sauter, public librarian of the city of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Sauter gave an interesting "book review" on several interesting subjects bordering on academic, social and religious background.

The setting for the review was at the residence of Mrs. Elsie Francois, after which a very nice luncheon was served.

Several new Wileyites (recent graduates) were present, as well as were many "old-timers."

The next meeting (April) will entail a "trip around the world," beginning at the home of Mrs. Obelia Washington, 9602 Anzac St., thence to the home of Dr. H. W. Osborne, 744 E. 95th St., and ending at the home of Mrs. Bernice Nance, 124 N. Benton Way.

All members are requested to be present and bring another Wileyite.

in their studies but to be up there with the cream of the crop. His trips included frequent tours to the rural areas of the South. His students at Howard Medical School had a deep respect for him and always felt free to chat with him about their problems.

Perhaps his unfailing interest in the welfare of the Negro student was due to the fact that he had to work his way through school.

He graduated from Mcill Medical School in Canada in his middle thirties, took graduate work at Columbia Univ. and did a remarkable piece of research on water balance at Presbyterian Hospital in New York.

Dr. Drew is survived by a lovely wife and four very young children, three girls and a boy. His ten active years of service to mankind is an inspiration to all of us who knew him but especially Howard students of medicine.

nation and Hawaii showed a solid support of their leader.

Several calls from Negro trade unionists have come to the California Eagle asking where they might contribute to the Harry Bridges defense fund.

Bridges will lead the San Pedro convention in a program upmost of which is the planned campaign for wage increases, it was reported.

The Community Medical Foundation Is an Interracial, Non-Sectarian Organization

Community Medical Foundation, sponsors of the non-profit Community Medical Center, 5503 S. Broadway is not to be confused with the California Medical Foundation, 4757 S. Broadway charged last week in a CALIFORNIA EAGLE story with refusing to hire Negroes.

Dr. Alexander M. Riskin, director of the low cost, interracial clinic pointed out that the Center's doors are wide open to patients of all creeds.

In addition, said Dr. Riskin, the Center's staff is interracial Nurse Ruby Evans and receptionist Glenadean Ballard are the Negro members of the staff.

Organized in 1946 to provide topflight medical care at fees within the reach of all, the Center has served more than 9,000 men, women and children to date.

Last week the Foundation launched a $50,000 fund drive to enable it to expand present cramped facilities, provide free and part-pay treatment to needy patients and open a low cost dental clinic.

City Councilman Edward R. Royball is campaign treasurer.

the placement of employables would be in accordance with their occupational skills.

"Confidence between capital and labor," Mr. Townsend continued, "can never be created so long as the government, under the monstrous instrument of the Taft-Hartley law, can be utilized as the Simon Legree against the collective voice of Organized Labor.

As a final solution to "Our Economic Dilemma," Mr. Townsend offered a concept of government as "the insurer of the success of industry and enterprise, at the same time charging them with the duty of absorbing the total employable potential of all our citizens."

Mr. Townsend is a practicing attorney in Los Angeles, having served as Regional Director of the National Bar Association; assistant pastor of the First A.M.E. Church of Los Angeles; Grand Western Director, Elks Civil Liberties Department; a member of N.A.A.C.P., A.F. of L., and several veterans' organizations for his service in World War II.

ment. I contend that my government should protect me against this type of job discrimination that deprives me of an opportunity to work and live decently."

Neither Mrs. Dupart nor her friends secured the job they asked for. A State Fair Employment Practices Commission would be a step in the right direction to break down these daily discriminatory practices against Negroes in the employment field.

Friends of real American democracy are planning to picket the offices at 607 South Hill St. today (Thursday) at 3 p.m. Everyone interested is invited to join the protest picket line.

Winners at Atlanta Univ. Exhibition

ATLANTA, Ga.—A former student at Atlanta University has been announced as the winner of the coveted John Hope Purchase Award of $250 for the Best Landscape at Atlanta University's Ninth Annual Exhibition of Paintings, Sculpture and of Prints by Negro Artists, which opened to the public on Sunday, April 2. He is John Howard, art instructor at A. & M. College in Pine Bluff, Arkansas, whose painting "Arkansas Landscape" was the unanimous selection of the judges.

Mr. Howard has won several honors for his paintings and his works are included in the Museum of Fine Arts in Little Rock, Arkansas and in the Design Work Shop at Nyack, New York.

James Reuben Reed of Boston, Mass., won the $300 Edward B. Alford Prize for the Best Portrait or Figure Painting. Reed's single entry was a huge canvass of an aged Negro whittling a stick which he titled "Depressed." It was also a unanimous selection.

Merton D. Simpson of Brooklyn, New York, took the first Atlanta University Purchase Award of $150 for his oil painting, "Portrait of the Wise Men." He is a student at New York University and employed as a frame-maker.

In the Water Colors, the first Atlanta University Purchase Award of $125 was won by Warren L. Harris of Brooklyn, New York, for his painting, "East River," and the second award of $75 was won by Estella W. Johnson of New York City for her painting "Delancey Street, N. Y. C."

The sculpture winners were Eddie Fred Jackson of Orangeburg, South Carolina, who was awarded the first prize of $250 for his plaster figure which he called "Madonna and Child," and John W. Rhoden of New York City, whose Female Figure took the second prize of $100.

Three wards in the graphic arts of $25, $15, and $10, respectively, went to Samella Sanders of Baltimore, Maryland, for her work in silk screen called "Cane Field"; to Robert Blackburn of New York City for his lithograph "Boy with Green Head"; and to John T. Biggers, Texas, for a tempera and carbon work called "Young Mother."

Those who received Honorable Mention in the exhibit were J. Eugene Grigsby of Phoenix, Arizona, for his oil painting, "Desert Mountains"; Robert Willis of New York City, for his water color, "The Musicians"; John W. Rhoden for his head in stone titled "Ebonia"; and John Wilson of Boston, Massachusetts, for his lithograph "Boulevard de Strasbourg."

Serving on the jury of three were: Ben E. Shute, administrative director of High Museum; Robert Rogers, a member of the faculty of the High Museum and School of Art; and Steffan Thomas, sculptor, of Stone Mountain, Georgia.

National Mental Health Week, designed to focus public attention on America's No. 1 Health Problem, mental illness, will have its second annual observance during the week of April 23-29, 1950.

There are approximately 8,000 graduate nurses specializing in psychiatry in the United States. The National League of Nursing Education estimates our need is at least 47,000 psychiatric nurses (6 times the present number).

C'm'ty Medico Campaigns For $50,000

Community Medical Foundation stepped into high gear this week with a campaign for $50,000, headed by George Oppen, Redondo Beach president. Oppen, a veteran, is one of the 9,000 patients treated at the interracial clinic in the past three years.

"We who have benefited from the center's policy of providing the topflight medical care at low cost want to do something to help the clinic expand and serve others," said Oppen.

The funds will be used to provide free and part-pay care and install a low cost dental clinic. A series of fund raising events is planned by the committee. The campaign will conclude May 27.

SPONTANEOUS RANK AND FILE ACTION in a demonstration for higher unemployment benefits, jobs, low cost public housing and fair hiring of Negroes and other minority workers, was carried out by United Electrical Workers recently. One of the militant trade unions that has not abandoned the basic principle of unionism. . . the right to bargain for higher wages, UE leads in integrating Negro workers in the union and in the shops.

Defeat Negro Councilman With Smear Campaign

The Elsinore Leader-Press in its Thursday, April 6 issue, published on its front page in bold headlines this statement: "Communist Front Organization Backs Yarborough Campaign."

Under this caption the article stated that: "A meeting held last month under the auspices of the Independent Progressive Party and Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor and publisher of The California Eagle, convened in Elsinore in support of the candidacy of T. R. Yarborough for re-election to the Elsinore City Council."

When he made this statement the editor of The Leader-Press knew that it was false and without foundation based on fact.

On March 13, Mrs. Bass, the editor of The California Eagle, was invited to speak at a meeting conducted by the Elsinore Branch of the Progressive Party. In no sense was the meeting partisan political, nor did the California Eagle have any part in the arrangement or conduct of the meeting, which was a day-long panel discussion of such issues as jobs, housing, education, Mundt-Ferguson Bill, etc. The Tuesday, April 11 election and its relation to Councilman Yarborough's re-election, was at no time during the entire day even mentioned.

Let Me In, It's Hubby, But It Wasn't

Wives who are at home alone, waiting for their husbands to come home should be warned by the experience of Mrs. Nadya Brisson, 18, of 259 East 41st place. Mrs. Brisson, expecting her husband early Tuesday morning, heard a hoarse whisper, "This is hubby, let me in," the voice which she mistook for her husband's urged. When she opened the door a man she described as a big, black-haired giant forced his way into the apartment. He threw her on the bed and

The meeting was open for the attendance and inspection of any citizen in Elsinore or anywhere else.

This little editor from the little town of Elsinore, said in the same story that the 1948 report, which was the Jack Tenney report listed the Independent Progressive Party as a Communist Front organization and The California Eagle which boosted the Yarborough meeting, as a Communist dominated publication.

It just isn't necessary for a newspaper editor to resort to such lying tactics to defeat a city official because this particular councilman is the wrong color in his estimation.

It seems to me, Mr. Editor, you could have invented something new for your attempt to smear the Independent Progressive Party, The California Eagle and its editor. Are you not aware of the fact that Senator Jack B. Tenney in California; a government embezzler, one J. Parnell Thomas; a Gerald L.K. Smith, a Senator Rankin, and a very silly man, Sen. Joseph McCarthy, have just about worn out the Communist label, pinning it on everybody and everything except the donkey's tail, where it belongs?

The Progressive Party and The California Eagle could take exception to what you have said and demand proof or retraction. But what's the use? We know the mission of you and your kind—setting one group and one race against another.

The Negro people know that it is you who would prohibit them from buying property in the most desirable sections of

WOMEN DECRY NON-HIRING OF NEGROES

It was an altogether different story which the Cannon Employment Agency told to a group of women who protested their attitude last week when a Mr. Green, head of the department for factory employment, proclaimed in a loud voice, "We aren't hiring Negroes."

According to Miss Rosie Dupart and Miss Violet Williams, the Cannon Agency had placed an ad in one of the papers, advertising for help for a certain factory. A long line of applicants waited in the hall outside the agency's room at 607 South Hill street. When Mr. Green saw it, he whistled, "Whew! what a

Bridges Wins Citizenship Fight Delay

Attorneys for Harry Bridges won a delay this week of a hearing to revoke his citizenship. The revocation action was instituted by the government following the sentencing of the militant leader of the Longshoremen's Union, to five year sentence on a conviction for perjury in connection with his application for citizenship.

Bridges plans to appeal his conviction to the United States Supreme Court if necessary, and following his sentencing, he reiterated his charge that the conviction was engineered as part of a frame-up built on perjured testimony uttered by rehearsed witnesses and stool-pigeons.

Appearing before Federal Judge George B. Harris in San Francisco, attorneys for Bridges

It has been said by the patriarchs of old that deeds done in darkness will eventually come into the light.

Willie Jyles, a porter at the popular Hollywood Broadway department store, without any effort on his part, was so popular with the other store employees that in a shop election he received the highest number of votes and was elected to head the employees' organization.

But something happened in the dark. It seems that when the votes were counted Willie was robbed by someone in authority who was not even a Communist, and the man in second place, so far as votes were concerned, was pushed ahead of Willie Jyles.

Willie was off color. The other man met color requirements and got Willie's heritage.

At this Hollywood store Mr. E. M. Stewart, who it is said is a minister; Miss Mildred Cooper, secretary to the assistant manager; and a Mrs. Kiefer who it is said counted the votes, comprise the official staff of the Hollywood Department Store.

In this case it seems that democracy was in reverse.

Mrs. Johnson Goes As WCTU Delegate To World Conv.

More than $1000 has come in for the Mae Reese Johnson Fund, now being raised by the community and other friends, to send Mrs. Mae Reese Johnson, founder of the Scattergood Youth Center, to the world's convention of the Wman's Christian Temperance Union in Hastings, England, June 3 to 10.

mob! Well, now to make it easier I'll tell you right now we aren't hiring Negroes."

A group of women headed by Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor and publisher of The California Eagle, waited upon Mr. Green last Thursday afternoon, and demanded to know why they would not employ Negroes.

Mr. Green, very much subdued, said the policy of the agency was not discriminatory, but that this particular factory had specified it did not wish to employ Negroes. He made no apology, however, for the rude way in which he had announced this policy, nor for the humiliation he had caused the Negroes standing in line waiting for a job.

Mrs. Bass refused to be appeased by his explanation, and asked him if he personally believed in giving to Negro citizens of America the same opportunities as other Americans, the same chance to live decently, to secure the same kind of jobs, the same education, in short, to be Americans in every sense of the word, the same as white people have.

"If we are going to build a new world for peace," she said, "we must begin at home. We must learn to live in peace here, among ourselves, Negro and white and every other sort of people, regardless of race, or creed, or color."

In a general discussion other members of the Cannon Employment Agency protested their inability to cope with discrimination, if the "employer wants it that way."

"It isn't always the white people who discriminate," declared one. "There's a Negro on the Eastside who owns several garages, and he won't hire anybody but whites. There are some Jews who employ only Gentiles. And there you are."

The first name of the Negro who employs only whites is Ed. We wanted his full name and address, but they refused to give it to us. Neither would they give the name of any Jewish person who wants only Gentile people to work for him, nor of any factory or business firm who insists upon "No Mexicans and no Negroes."

"But we have made those people of the Cannon Employment Agency think," observed Mrs. Bass. "I'll guarantee that man Green won't yell out quite so loud again. 'We don't want Negroes.' And if we've accomplished only that much, it is a good job well done."

Others in the group besides Mrs. Bass, Miss Dupart and Miss Williams, were Mrs. M. Foster, 463½ East 29th street; Mrs. Lyriss Williams, the mother of Violet, both of whom live at 930 East 31st street, and Marian Inglewood. Miss Dupart lives at 1021 East 33rd street.

Local Delegates Attending Bread And Butter Conference

Three delegates led by Dean Ellie Matthews will attend the National Bread-And-Butter Conference on Child Welfare to be held in Hull House in Chicago on April 15 and 16. More than 200 delegates from all over the nation are expected to attend.

Flora J. Cooke, founder of the Francis Palmer School, and a leader in progressive education will be the honorary chairman of the conference. Octavia Hawkins, active trade unionist and treasurer of a United Automobile Workers local will be the conference chairman.

The two day meeting will be divided into four panels. The child's needs in the family, in the community, in school, and to achieve good health. Panel chairmen are: Family, Bertha G. Reynolds, Community, Mary Jane Melish, School, Jack Ellison and Health, Dr. Harris Peck.

The theme of the meeting will be based upon the growing unemployment menace, wide-spread relief cuts, and public concern over wasteful use of surplus funds.

RESIDENTS OF LOS ANGELES are fortunate in having an office that practices New Yorker Technique—a haven for those who suffer—where the cause of Toxic Poison may be removed—where relief of constipation—an elimination, may be obtained in 20 minutes.

NOTE: Toxic poisons cause practically all ills of mankind. When toxic poisons or that which causes disease is removed the result is so effective in producing quick results that the change experienced by the sufferer is hardly less marked than that felt by the prisoner when the ball and chain have been removed from his ankles. It has to be experienced to be properly understood and appreciated.

New Yorker Technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine. In Simple language—it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that the contents may be passed by normal effort.

Dr. Brinkley D.C., has the only office that is permitted to practice New Yorker Technique. He has no branch offices.

DR. BRINKLEY HAS A STAFF OF MORE THAN 120 PEOPLE. 18 LICENSED DOCTORS AND MORE THAN 60 SPECIALLY TRAINED NURSES AND TECHNICIANS. He has his own private laboratory and complete laboratory facilities, the finest equipment—30 private treatment rooms. IT IS THE LARGEST INSTITUTION OF ITS KIND IN THE ENTIRE WORLD—NO EXCEPTIONS.

This notable organization is outstanding—without equal—and must be seen to be appreciated.

Dr. Brinkley says: To protect the sick against the wrong diagnosis, it is my belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made. In all cases tests should include complete blood count, urinalysis, microscopic examination and study of stool. If diabetes is suspected a fasting blood sugar test should be given; for liver disorders—various liver functional test given; for infectious diseases—sedimentation rate given; plus other laboratory procedures.

ALL OF MY PATIENTS, UNDER TREATMENT, GET LABORATORY TESTS AT NO EXTRA CHARGE. I will enjoy explaining New Yorker Technique to you without obligation, 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. For my trial treatment I charge $3, which includes various laboratory tests.

Call or write for FREE 120 page book. This book is outstanding. It is a most comprehensive explanation of "the true cause of disease." Book will be sent by mail—no salesman—no phone calls—no obligation. No follow-up letters.

CUTTING THE CAKE.—This is one of the scenes in a real honest-to-goodness show put on by the Independent Progressive Party last Friday night at the Chase Hotel, Santa Monica. Seen in the picture are Ed Mosk, who guided the destiny of the IPP for more than a year. Reuben Borough, candidate for State Treasurer, who was chief founding father of the IPP, and Charlotta A. Bass, who was also on the ground floor when the organization was founded. Mosk is holding the cake, and Borough and Mrs. Bass are lighting and extinguishing the candles. The IPP is two years old.

The SIDEWALK

By C.A.B.

The pure white people who live in the Leimert Park section of Los Angeles are on the warpath. Their wrath was first kindled when four or five Negro families purchased homes in the district.

During the month of December, 1949, however, when Mrs. Lena Wilson and her family bought a home on Sixth Avenue and moved in, the white supremacists' indignation reached white heat. Some few families called on the Wilsons and advised them not to move in, stating that only Caucasians lived in that neighborhood, and Negroes would not be tolerated.

Mr. Wilson advised them to return to their own homes and mind their own business; that he had no intention of interfering with them, and in case of any intrusion on their part, would be met with such resistance justifiable by any and every law abiding citizen for the protection of his home and family.

The Wilsons are educated, cultured people and would be intellectual assets to any community.

Two weeks ago on a Sunday afternoon people from the immediate neighborhood and from all parts of the city, tendered the Wilsons a reception. Outstanding among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Marshall. Mr. Marshall is head of the Catholic Interracial Society of the Catholic Church.

Peering through a maze of facts that have been piling up in my files over some several months I find that these people who object to decent, intelligent, resourceful colored people moving out of ghettos into healthier sections, are the same ones who blame the Communists for every disruption, disturbance and un-American act committed in our state and government.

They twist words and phrases to mislead the people they hope to deceive. The week after the Wilson reception, a meeting was called at the Audubon Junior

IPP Birthday Party for 2nd Anniversary

The second anniversary of the Los Angeles Branch of the IPP was observed with a birthday party in the Chase Hotel, Santa Monica, last Friday evening.

Two of the founders of the party, Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass, editor and publisher of The California Eagle, and Reuben Borough lit the two candles on the birthday cake for the lusty baby, and then blew them out—the first try.

There was much jollity, congratulations, some entertainment, a few speeches, and singing.

Council May Seek Decontrol In Spite Of Housing Shortage

Charges that the $25,000 spent by the city at the bequest of the Apartment House Association was a needless waste, and indications that some members of the Council, under pressure from the Apartment House Association will try to use the completed survey which shows a low vacancy factor, as a means to effect decontrol, followed submission of the survey report Tuesday.

In demanding the survey several months ago, the Apartment House Association representatives agreed that decontrol would be sought only if the survey showed a vacancy factor of 4 per cent or higher. The report submitted by Peacock Research Associates show a vacancy factor of 2.6 per cent. This figure is even lower for low or cheap rent housing, and slightly higher for high rental quarters, but under no circumstances does it approach 4 per cent.

However, a spokesman for the Civil Rights for all Americans, regardless of race, color, or creed, and defeat of the Mundt-Ferguson bill were demanded by almost 250 young people, members of churches, unions, colleges, high schools, and other groups, who joined in a "Youth Conference for Civil Rights" last Saturday under auspices of the NAACP Youth Council.

In an all-day session at the Victory Baptist Church, the conference discussed ways of fighting discrimination in employment, education, health, and recreation facilities; cultural discrimination; and police brutality against minorities as it affects youth.

The conference voted its support of the coming legislative investigation of charges that Los Angeles city police and sheriff's officers show brutality toward Negroes and Mexican-Americans. Delegates agreed to ask their organizations to aid the Mexican-American National Association and other groups in gathering facts to be presented at the investigation.

The group voiced opposition to the Mundt-Ferguson bill because, as Ozie Boone, local president of NAACP Youth Council, pointed out, "this bill would prevent groups of young people like us from meeting to discuss even the problems of civil rights."

Continuations committees, carrying on the work of the conference, will survey discrimination in local health and recreational facilities, and the extent of anti-Negro, anti-Mexican-American, (Continued on Page 30)

Dr. Henderson will show pictures taken on his trip. His lectures promise to be most interesting. The public is invited, also other civic, social, and religious organizations.

Statements Support Charge Of Slurs By Willowbrook Teacher

Because of the serious nature of the charges brought against Miss Stein, a teacher in Willowbrook High School, the California Eagle publishes statements from the mother of one of the students and from a student who heard the racial slurs uttered by the teacher. Following is the mother's statement:

On January 10, Mrs. Scruggs, Mrs. Holloway and myself went to Willowbrook High School to see the principal concerning this Miss Stein. We were referred to Miss Douglas since the principal was out at a meeting. After about 11 o'clock Miss Douglas had Miss Stein come in to talk with us and also asked Mr. Zackheim in.

Miss Douglas stated what our purpose in coming was to see Miss Stein and find out why she used the words "darkies" and "niggers" in the classroom to the colored children. Miss Stein said she had never used the words in her entire life and went on to say how well she liked Negroes.

Mayor Accuses Councilmen Of Log Rolling And Horse Trading

The Bowron—City Council honeymoon is over. The delightful state of harmony and blissful understanding which abruptly entered the previously embattled relationship between his honor and the gentlemen of the Council when the recall threatened, blew up last Tuesday.

The rift was caused when Mayor Bowron, speaking before the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce put his approval on the recently advanced proposal for a borough form of government for Los Angeles, and accused the members of the council of "log rolling and horse trading."

Government costs for Los Angeles are excessively high, the Mayor said because of the deals made among councilmen. Council members, angered by the mayor's blast after all they had done for him when the going was rough, looked upon his remarks as a betrayal. They charged that high government costs were due to the mayor himself.

Hollywood Ten Supported In Latest Supreme Court Appeal

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Attorney Bartley C. Crum, appealed to the United States Supreme Court Tuesday to withhold the order which would make it necessary for John Howard Lawson, Dalton Tumbo and eight of their screen writer colleagues to go to jail on a contempt of Congress charge. The high court had earlier refused to hear arguments on appeal of the one year sentences and fines levied against the ten by a lower court.

The ten prominent Hollywood screen writers were cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities because they stood on their constitutional rights and refused to answer questions about their political beliefs and affiliations. They were among the first to fall victims to the witch-hunting and hysteria which resulted from President Truman's loyalty check program.

The refusal of the Supreme Court to hear the appeal is tantamount to a decision that Congress has the right to abridge freedom of speech and the right of silence in the face of self-incrimination. Legal authorities express the opinion that the high court will be forced by public protest to hear the appeal because of the vital constitutional question involved.

The eight screen writers who with Lawson and Tumbo elected to sacrifice their careers rather than submit to a violation of their constitutional rights, are: Ring Lardner, Jr., Herbert Biberman, Albert Maltz, Alvah Bessie, Lester Cole, Samuel Ornitz, Adrian Scott and Edward Dwytryk.

Southern California basketball teams ran up a 42-game winning streak against UCLA's Bruins from 1932 to 1943. The Bruins finally ended the string with a 42-37 victory with Don Barksdale scoring 18 points.

blanks of their student employment. Mr. Zackheim wanted to show us we had the wrong attitude. He said Jackie had the wrong understanding of Miss Stein's teachings. He said, "You know how children will gang up on a teacher they don't like. We are lucky to have a teacher like Miss Stein. We have searched all over to get a teacher with her experience. She is the only one who has guts enough to tell them the truth like they need to be told."

I said, in the course of the discussion, "Suppose there were Jewish children in the room and she would pick out the Jewish children and tell about their background and the way they talk?"

He said, "I happen to be Jewish and I don't have that feeling."

I said, "You're a grown man and know how to place yourself in the world."

Mrs. Holloway then spoke. We tried to explain the meaning of the slander. Miss Stein tried to show how she was misunderstood. She said she came from the south and had lots of experience with these things. "I happen to be hipped on this," she said.

We were there over an hour. They decided that the children were wrong and I was wrong for coming up there. Miss Douglas said that Miss Stein has the best recommendations for being a teacher qualified to teach any race and not have race prejudice.

At the Seventh Grade Tea in the early part of the semester I met Miss Stein and she told me what a lovely student Jackie was. When I went on the visit on this matter she told us how terrible these girls were in school. She said Jackie especially seemed to have a chip on her shoulder. I told Miss Stein that Jackie would come home and even cry about her using the words "darkie" and "nigger" and she has never been to a school where that has happened before. Miss Stein said, "The southern children seem to have a chip on their shoulders and seem to have an inferiority complex."

I questioned Jackie very carefully on whether these words had actually been used. She told me they had been used many many times.

Following is the statement of Jackie Earl, student at Willowbrook High School, seventh grade:

Since September of 1949, when we first went into Miss Stein's room, she would say that she had been teaching kids in the South and she would say we come from Oklahoma and are Okies, and we speak like Okies. She would call us "darkies."

Some of the children would be noisy. Mrs. Stein would come into the room. All during the term she would single out the Negro children.

I once said, "Miss Stein, what do you mean by darkies?"

She said that all of us came from South Africa.

She has called us "niggers" a lot of times.

I said, "I don't think any of the kids in our room come from South Africa."

Once when Miss Stein used the word "darkie" there happened to be two girls in the room from another class who were friends of ours. Miss Stein at that time said, "You darkie, be quiet." Those girls were teasing us about it. I said to Miss Stein, "Miss Stein, there were two girls in our room who heard you say 'darkies' and they were teasing us about it." She said, "Were they black or were they colored?"

Redwood, unlike most woods, shrinks in but one direction.

high school by the "Neighborhood Endeavor Society" to protect restrictions on property in the Leimert Park area.

It has come to my attention that these "neighborly endeavors" who called the meeting screened the people attending and locked the doors against such neighbors as those not desired—perhaps those who believe in the preamble to the Constitution which says, "We, the people," and those who believe in the pledge to our flag, which says, "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic to which it stands, one nation indivisible with liberty and justice for ALL." Those who respect and practice what they repeat when they come into a public school building like the Audubon.

And I wonder on. I wonder if these advocates of white supremacy would fall dead if they knew that John James Audubon for whom, I have every reason to believe, this school is named, was a colored man. And further do they know the Federal government outlawed restrictions on property, not only in Leimert Park, but all over the nation more than a year ago.

I have reached the conclusion that the people who wave a red flag in my face, have but one motive—and that is to blind me against the things which are the real enemies of my peace, security and happiness.

So as I pledge allegiance to my nation and the flag that waves over and above it, I also pledge allegiance to fight with all the persecuted who are denied human rights—among them the right to live in their homes, to have jobs, and enjoy freedom of worship, of thought and expression.

British Government Retreats On African Prince Racial Ban

LONDON—Retreating in the face of outraged public opinion expressed from all points of the globe, Prime Minister Clement Attlee this week modified the five year exile imposed on Prince Seretse Khama, African tribal ruler-designate.

Attlee, in a marked reversal of his former adamant position, announced that Prince Khama would be permitted to live in his native land until an expected child is born to him and his white British bride. It was Khama's marriage to the former English secretary that brought about the Labor Party edict of exile. The ban caused a heated debate in Commons, and came close to causing the fall of the Labor government, an event that would have made a new election necessary.

Paul Robeson, chairman of the Council on African Affairs in New York, and an international leader of the movement for freedom of the darker races, led the wave of international protests which thwarted Britain's attempt to foster and advance racial prejudice.

So disturbing were the protests, raising movement, reports that a cross section of citizens is represented in the donations. The pre-convention tour includes Ireland, Cork, Killarney, Dublin, and Belfast; Scotland (Glasgow, Edinburg); Melrose and Abbot'sford Abbeys, English Lake District, Stratford-on-Avon, London, Windsor, and Hampton Court.

"In order to meet the full expense of the trip, more money is needed," said Mr. Hay in a last minute call. Objective of the campaign has been small gifts from many persons rather than large sums from only a few. The money may be sent to Mrs. Johnson, 913 N. Orange Grove, Pasadena 3, Calif., or to Mr. Hay at the Security-First National Bank. Mrs. Johnson sails from New York May 11. With her husband, Master Sgt. George Johnson, she has given twenty-three years of service to the youth of Pasadena, California.

Attlee and leaders of his Labor party held a secret caucus earlier this week. Many of the party leaders angrily denounced the exile as an embarrassing evidence of racial prejudice. News of the modification of the exile leaked out. It was also learned that some leaders favored absolute lifting of the ban. From New York it was learned that Paul Robeson would press for complete lifting of the exile.

A flash that came to The California Eagle office just as we were going to press told the bad news that the propaganda of The Leader Press did its dirty work efficiently. Mr. Yarborough was defeated. He received a total vote of 231. The victor, Ray Hull, received 465 votes. The vote also shows that the Negroes of Elsinore did not turn out for election. If they had the result would undoubtedly have been different.

The election results were: Mann, 123; Gamberg, 215; Hull, 465; Yarborough, 231; and Washburn, 449.

We Remember Five Years Ago

"No one will ever forget what happened just five years ago today."

That was the comment that greeted us over the radio yesterday morning, Wednesday, April 12. It was the fifth anniversary of the death of the greatest friend the people of America have ever known, President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

Yes, we remember. We remember the consternation, the unbelief, the fear. No, it couldn't be true. But it was. And wringing our hands in grief. We wondered what shall we do? How can we get along without him? How can the American people, how can the people of the world keep on living with their leader gone?

And just before this world-shaking news tortured us, the heart-breaking telegram had come telling us our beloved nephew, John Kinloch, had given his life in Germany to rid the world of Fascism. The two blows, one on the heels of the other, seemed more than human nature could endure.

Yes, we remember those two martyrs. They shall always be linked together in our memories. Each gave his life that you and I and all the world might go free.

How have we honored their sacrifice? Each one of us must give that answer to his own conscience. Have we kept the faith?

Can Any Good Come Out of the U. S. Senate

After listening to the rantings of the Rankins, the Thomases, and the McCarthys, we sometimes wonder if any good can come out of the U. S. Senate. When our hopes became hopeless and our fears almost triumphed over our faith for a brighter future, out of the cloud or despair came the voice of William Langer, of North Dakota. He was speaking on the Mundt-Ferguson-Johnson-Nixon Bill, commonly called the Mundt-Nixon bill. He said:

"This bill, if enacted, would constitute the greatest threat to American civil liberties since the alien and sedition laws of 1798. Like that bill, it is the product of hysteria and frantic, unthinking fear. Like that bill, it would strike at the very foundations of our democratic institutions—the right of the people to speak their minds, to hear every viewpoint on public questions, and to associate together freely to advance their common views. Like that bill, it merits the opposition of all who cherish liberty. . . .

"Under the guise of protecting our democratic institutions against an alleged threat of subversion from foreign agents who seek to overthrow our Government by coercive means, it is proposed to regiment the thinking of the American people and to impair or prevent the free exercise of constitutionally guaranteed freedom of speech and association. . . .

"Under these vague powers trade unions and other organizations which may seek to alter the status quo or oppose this or that governmental policy, by lawful means, with no evil intent be branded as traitorous agents of foreign governments or movements. Their members could be relegated to the position of second-class citizens—made subject to economic and social outlawry."

It is a subtle cloud that is hanging over us, threatening to obscure the light of freedom entirely. And we, unconsciously, may help to bring that darkness upon us. How? By permitting the co-author of that bill, Richard Nixon, to be elected U. S. Senator from California. Have you registered? Today is the last day. Midnight is the deadline. Our educational system should be governed by the sane thinking of the people and not by the emotion of a rabble-rousing American segment described for the convenience of the public as the Un-American Activities Committee.

"American education is now in the most critical period in its history." This is the opening sentence of the annual report of the United States office of education, submitted by Commissioner of Education, Earl James McGrath.

His report further states that: If a pupil register of 30 is set as a desirable class size, then, according to the report, 25,000 new school rooms will be required each year at least till 1958 merely to house the increased enrollment. This will not take care of dangerous, unsanitary, and obsolete buildings. The report estimates that a minimum of ten billion dollars will be needed for school buildings in the next ten years. Greater population growth than the figures used in this estimate may bring the need closer to 12 or 14 billion dollars.

In 1948-49 with 28,000,000 children enrolled in the elementary and secondary schools, the teacher shortage was already acute. In many communities children are herded into classes with registers of over 50. In other communities education is curtailed by dividing the school population into two part time sessions. Thousands of classes are taught by emergency teachers.

But the present teacher shortage is mild when compared to the prospects for the future. By 1960 enrollment will be about 37,000,000 with the most rapid increase in 1952, 1953, and 1954. During the next academic year at least 100,000 additional teachers will be needed and the prospects are that only 25,000 trained teachers will be available. In the next four years graduates from colleges and universities will hardly replace the normal number of vacancies caused by retirement, death, marriage, and change of occupation. In the years ahead, 30,000 teachers will be needed each year merely to take care of increased enrollment—to keep the schools at their present rate of efficiency.

One of the most important factors in the teacher shortage, Mr. McGrath admits, is the low salary level. Salaries have been increased in some communities, but the real wage of teachers in actual purchasing power is shown to have remained almost unchanged since 1939.

There are other factors which keep young people out of the teaching profession. Some of these are the lack of opportunity to lead a normal life unshackled by local prejudices and conventions; the demand in many communities that teachers adapt their conduct and social activities to suit the school board; the fact that teachers are expected to lead abnormally restrained and inhibited lives. And the report adds, "The attitudes of suspicion concerning the teacher's political and social views, increasingly common in recent years, likewise deprive the teaching guild of some of its most alert and enterprising minds."

It is unfortunate that Commissioner McGrath does little more than point to these appalling conditions. He says at one point, "Nothing can now be done to forestall the emergent crisis which will mean educational privation for many of our children. We have already delayed beyond the point where even the most drastic steps can quickly relieve the situation." However, Mr. McGrath does not propose any drastic steps to relieve the situation in the future.

With these glaring discrepancies facing us, it just doesn't make sense that so much money is used to investigate teachers, to drive the best out of our teaching profession, to convict writers who produce plays and books and magazine articles along the educational line, and that we are spending billions abroad to "fight Communism."

Spend a few millions where they are so badly needed. Build up our educational system. Then there will be no need for investigations and loyalty oaths, etc. While we are starving out the infinitesimal gnat of "Communist tendency," the greater camels of an utter lack of the fundamentals of a real education are all but choking us.

CHAPTER THREE

The Ukraine Is a World Power

The Ukraine extends from the mouth of the Danube almost to the Don. By any reckoning, contemporary or historical, the Ukrainians are one of the greater nations of the world. In population—almost 39,000,000 at the time of the elections of February, 1946—the Ukraine ranks approximately with England, France and Italy. The territory of their Republic—227,000 square miles—is somewhat larger than that of France. It borders Poland, Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Rumania for a distance of 800 miles, and has a coastline of 720 miles on the Black and Azov Seas.

The Ukraine stands comparison with the advanced countries of western Europe in more than sheer bulk. By the end of 1949 its basic industries will be entirely restored and ready to produce, the following year, more than in 1940. In that year it was second only to the United States in the mining of iron ore, and dug twice as much as France, the leading European producer. Its blast furnaces smelted more pig iron than England and twice as much as France, being exceeded only by the United States and Germany. In steel production it stood fourth in the world, far ahead of such countries as France and Japan. Coal mining stood in the same position. Its importance with regard to the rest of the USSR was similar—it accounted for half to three-fifths of the Soviet output in each of these fields, and in aluminum output as well. At Zaporozhe on the Dnieper the Ukraine has the largest electric power plant in Europe—and the first of its nine turbines is going back into operation this year. It will be 1949 before the plant is in full operation again.

Its grain-growing steppes were for generations the bread-basket of Europe, until the Soviet regime diverted this produce to the ill-nourished people of the former Empire. German pillage of more than half the farm equipment for scrap metal has reduced yields very sharply. The Ukraine was one of the great livestock countries of the world. In 1941 in all the world only the United States had more horses, although Ukrainian agriculture ranked with our own as the most highly mechanized on earth, far beyond comparison with any European country whatever. The Germans took or killed 62 per cent of the horses and destroyed 52.4 per cent of the tractors. In cattle, among European countries it was exceeded only by Germany and France, but had more than Britain and Italy, with comparable human populations. The Germans ate or exported 46 per cent. Of hogs, only Germany, among European countries, had more. 49 per cent were slaughtered by the invaders. (None of these rankings include the Russian Republic, which far exceeds the Ukraine in livestock and cultivation of the land.)

In field husbandry the Ukraine is famous for more than its grain. Its potato crop is exceeded in the world only by Germany and Poland. It is the world's largest producer of beet sugar, providing three-quarters of the entire sugar production of the USSR. The Germans destroyed the entire refining industry. Vegetable oil is pressed from an annual crop of more than a million tons of sunflower seed. Cotton, and natural rubber from the roots of the dandelion-like koksagyz plant, are large new crops.

CULTURAL ACHIEVEMENT

The place of the Ukraine among the nations of the world is determined not only by its material wealth—although that in itself stems from the applied intelligence and organization of its people. Its achievements in the sphere of culture are even more significant. Again excluding the rest of the Soviet Union, it had more college students on the eve of the war than any country on earth, except the United States. There were 130,000 in the Ukraine, by comparison to 100,000 in Hitler's inflated Reich, with twice the population, and 80,000 in so famous a center of culture as France. Every child of school age was in school, and the 238,000 teachers were sufficient in number to keep average class size well below thirty. Of the 30,000 schools, the Germans destroyed 8,000. Half of these were replaced in 18 months after liberation, but all schools functioned virtually without supplies, textbooks or libraries, as the Germans had destroyed them and the paper mills and printing plants.

There was a public library for every thousand in the population and a community clubhouse in the smallest village before the war. There were 7000 movie houses and no less than 135 permanent repertory theater companies, by comparison to five at the time of the last Tsar. Kiev alone, the thousand-year-old capital, maintained 12 companies for its 900,000 people. So did Kharkov, with the same population, and Odessa had ten for its 600,000. Even Stalino, coal and steel center in the donbass, which had mushroomed from 174,000 people to 462,000 in 13 years before the war, maintained three theater companies of its own.

1120 newspapers were published in the Ukraine, and 68 magazines, chiefly in the Ukrainian language. (School was most often taught in Ukrainian, and most of the theaters performed in that tongue. The rest were for native minorities—Jews, Russians, Poles, and others.) There were 15 museums. The invaders plundered and wrecked every one. 30,000 doctors served the needs of the population—one for every 1300—and what is more important, they were distributed fairly evenly between town and country. German destruction of medical facilities was universal. However, 18 months after liberation 4500 of the 6000 dispensaries and 86,400 of the 129,000 hospital beds were again available. But they functioned with insufficient linens and blankets, anesthetics and instruments.

Ukrainian cultural achievement is more than quantitative. In the past century it gave the world Nikolai Gogol, whose Dead Souls has been translated into virtually every modern language, and whose Inspector-General has been performed by professionals and amateurs in every country that knows the theatrical art. His olonovy as His novel Taras Bulba, also available in English, is based on the historical struggle of the Ukrainians against the Polish feudalists who dominated part or all of the country for centuries. But more beloved to the people, for he fought actively and suffered

A Matter of Geography

Dr. J. C. Corbin is president of the NAACP chapter in Pulaski, Virginia. He will be surprised to know that he is the president of an organization that Phillip Murray's National CIO union-busters have proclaimed a "Commie Line." Assuming the pose of a champion of civil rights for the Negro and other minority people, and beating unceasingly in favor of President Truman's cynical FEPC mirage, National CIO stubbed its toe on the Mason-Dixon line.

JOHN M. LEE

Because the United Electrical Workers rented a meeting hall from the Pulaski NAACP, leaders of Murray's National CIO got out a leaflet dedicated to white supremacy which attacked UE and smeared the NAACP. "The NAACP," the leaflet which was widely distributed said, "is one of the Commie lines and their program is to make the Negro equal with the white people in the south."

Here is the first reported instance of CIO's alliance with fascism. It is the first warning to the Negro people and their allies that Phil Murray's CIO is preparing to move against the minorities in the next stage of its offensive against self-determination and true democracy.

Never more or less than a semi-Jim Crow organization in its best days, CIO has long been perplexed by the problem of the Negro worker. Having been forced as a matter of self-defense to enlist Negro workers, the CIO never quite knew what to do with them. Alert to the exploitation of the times, the CIO printed thousands of democratic-sounding slogans on civil rights and passed them around, at the same time, taking pains to maintain archaic seniority rules and other devices that would keep the Negro in his place.

The much-heralded "Operation Dixie" upon which CIO embarked a few years ago, soon degenerated into a shameful "Operation Jim Crow." The once-powerful labor organization that professed to be a friend of the Negro people went into the south to lend its prestige to the Un-American customs of segregation and discrimination.

It remained for the recently-chartered IUE, a union launched with the blessings of Murray and his cabinet of labor statesmen, and headed by fascist-loving Jim Carey, to make clear the official CIO position on the Negro and the NAACP.

In the interest of consistency, and for several other reasons, Murray and each one of his hand-picked henchmen who have been placed on the national board of the NAACP should resign immediately, and should they fail to do so, then a demand must come from the membership all over the nation that they be removed.

There is no time for temporizing with the fifth column tactics of this former labor organization that has been turned into the advance guard of American totalitarianism. Murray will seek an opportunity to explain away the disservice that one of his very own unions showed the Negro people, and, no doubt, there will be apologies offered, but neither he nor his southern race-supremacists should be given another chance to further smear the NAACP.

This is not the first time that the CIO has talked out of both sides of its mouth, nor will it be the last. The record will show that while Murray has lopped off more than a million members in a holy crusade against freedom of thought and expression, he studiously avoids taking action against the notorious anti-Negro sentiment that infests his organization.

It was a mistake to put Murray and other top CIO officials in a controlling position in the NAACP in the first place. The small amount of labor democracy in the CIO was brought about by rank and file action. The Murphys, Beuthers and Careys contributed little more than a lot of meaningless words. It is significant that Murray has planted CIO stooges in many of the NAACP branches throughout the nation.

These men, paid by the CIO for some vague function known as organizing, are actually planted for spying and keeping the heat turned in another direction. It is painful to admit that they are Negroes. Like their counterparts in the south they are working for white supremacy and against the democratic rights of their own people.

Geographically remote from the realities of the situation, they cannot see that the Jim Crow, red-baiting sentences spoken in the south, were formed in the north at the command of the very men from whom they indirectly take their orders. They too must resign, or belatedly finding their way, they must join in the protests. The eyes of the community will be upon them. They can't hide this time.

in the struggle against Tsarist denial of the existence of the Ukrainian nationality, is the poet Taras Shevchenko, whose shaggy-moustached portrait hangs in every Ukrainian clubhouse across Canada and the United States, as well as in his native land. Gogol and Shevchenko are world renowned, but Ukrainians think the rest of mankind should also know the works of Franko, Kotliarevsky, Kotsiubinsky, Lyossya Ukrainka, and others.

The Soviet Ukraine has produced a new generation of literary—and for the first time—scientific figures. The playwright Korneichuk, and the poets Tyehina, Rytsky, and Bazhan are known throughout Europe. Thousands of persons throughout the world have been saved from blindness by the discoveries and techniques of Doctor Filatov, who originated the transplantation of the cornea from corpses to the living. The medical world is gradually probing the possibilities of the anti-reticular cytotoxic serum developed by Alexander Bogomolets out of a lifetime of research into the problem of the prolongation of human life. Thousands of wounded Red Army men in deep shock and probably doomed to death were saved by this "ACS" serum. But perhaps the most widely recognized Ukrainian scientist is the botanist Trofim Lysenko, whose methods of speeding plant development has enabled crops to be grown and saved from frost in areas formerly regarded as hopeless for farming.

A clear picture of the legislative picture in California and a listing of the way in which the members of the State Legislature voted on key issues demonstrating their positions on legislation affecting the welfare of the people of the state were revealed to the public this week in a booklet published by the State Legislative Board of the Railroad Brotherhoods. All five of the brotherhoods, consisting of the Railway Clerks, Railway Carmen of America, Railroad Trainmen, Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and Locomotive Engineers, and various affiliates—representing the many thousands of employees in the railway industry in California—joined in the report.

Heading the list in the ratings of the Assemblymen in the State Assembly of the Legislature—with all perfect records on the nine key votes—were Assemblyman Glenn Anderson, candidate for the State Senate from Los Angeles County, Assemblyman Augustus F. Hawkins, 62nd District, Assemblyman Edward E. Elliott, 44th District, downtown Los Angeles, and Assemblyman George Collins of San Francisco.

In the State Senate on a rating on five key votes indicative of the records of the members, Senator George Miller, candidate for lieutenant governor, was first, with an all-perfect record. Senators Gerald O'Gara and Henry Dillinger were among those with near-perfect records.

The Railroad Brotherhoods' Joint Legislative Board has worked in close cooperation with the American Federation of Labor and other segments of organized labor. Key votes used for the sample roll included the subjects of housing legislation, health insurance, collective bargaining rights, equal pay for women, child care centers, cross filing, water and power, civil rights, and the compliance with the mandate of the people for a state constitutional convention. Copies of this important booklet are available at the Los Angeles office of the Joint Legislative Committee of the Railroad Brotherhoods, 108 W. Sixth St.

Assemblyman Glenn Anderson, Augustus F. Hawkins, Edward E. Elliott and George Collins, who are among the assemblymen with consistently progressive voting records, have the unified support of organized labor in their present campaigns.

TO CHARLES DREW (The Third Day)

Only this morning did I know in truth that you were gone
Gone from our midst, gone from the earth

Your day forever done.
Only this morning my eyes filled
With quiet tears, bowed down
I faced the grim reality—
Sunset almost at dawn.

No more to hear the tender chords
Of your one melody,
No more to see within your eyes
The soul's serenity.

And yet, the God who made the world
Knew best the thing to do,
When He reached down from up above,
And lovingly took you.

Bits of Info

Now being formulated are the plans for a community investment course to be sponsored jointly by the Women's Division of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce and the Los Angeles Stock Exchange.

The series will define the role of investment in our American economy and offer assistance in the personal investment planning of individuals and families. The course will be designed to interpret every aspect of securities and the securities industry.

POTPOURRI

James Roosevelt, Democratic candidate for Governor, will launch the local phase of his statewide street-corner campaign in the 16th Congressional District on Thursday, April 20, it was announced today by the campaign headquarters of Democratic Congressional candidate Esther Murray.

Mrs. Murray and Roosevelt, with other party leaders, will climax the day's events by speaking at a free public meeting at University High School, 1800 Texas Ave., West Los Angeles, at 8 p.m.

Judge Ralph C. Dills last week requested Governor Warren to broaden the special session call of the Legislature to permit legislation to be introduced increasing the jurisdiction of small claims courts from $100 to $200.

The grand opening of the James McMullen for assembly, 65th District headquarters, is planned for FRIDAY evening, April 14, from seven to ten-thirty, at 4512 S. Western Ave. Phone AX 10634.

Refreshments will be served, and a little entertainment is planned also.

Wilbur Jerger, Democratic candidate for the Assembly, 60th A.D., at the house warming of his new home, 11655 Montana Avenue; and in special celebration of the morning christening of his two children, Tuzo and Tia, in the Unitarian Church, Santa Monica, spoke for prison reform and the rehabilitation of the criminal, not his death.

Manchester Boddy, editor and publisher of The Daily News, and candidate for the U. S. Senate on both the Democratic and the Republican tickets, is making preparations to go to all parts of the state and meet as many people as possible in his campaign.

California Republicans will hold their convention in Fresno, Saturday, April 22. Gov. Earl Warren heads the list of speakers for the convention. Among others will be Congressman Richard Nixon, co-author of the Mundt-Nixon bill.

"The ordinance demanded by the anti-vivisectionists is a great danger to the health of this city," Dr. Ernest Bashor, member of the Los Angeles Board of Health Commissioners, announced at a meeting of the Public Health Committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Wage-Hour Law meetings will be held Monday, April 17, in the Maywood City Hall; Tuesday, April 18, at Pepperdine College; on Wednesday, April 19, in the Elks Lodge, Pasadena; and Thursday, April 20, in the General Petroleum Building, 6th and Flower, in downtown Los Angeles.

Discussion meetings have been scheduled for 3:30 p.m. except Wednesday's meeting in Pasadena which will be a luncheon meeting. They are held under the auspices of the Merchants and Manufacturers Assn. of Los Angeles.

The IPP is boosting Robert W. Kenney, on the Democratic ticket, for State Senator to oppose Jack Tenney, present senator from Los Angeles county. The Progressives speak of him as an outstanding political figure whose efforts have always been on the side of minority groups.

But Glenn Anderson is also a candidate on the Democratic ticket for the same job. And Jack Tenney, notorious for his red-baiting of all that support the welfare of the people, especially for minority groups, although he is a Republican, has crossed over to the Democratic ticket.

What do we want to do? Defeat Tenney? Or simply boost our pet candidate? The more the votes are split, the better chance Tenney will have to win. He won both nominations four years ago.

Do Jews Discriminate?

By LIONEL S. ROSE
(Copyright, London Jewish Chronicle Feature - News Service)

The embroilment of Jews in one way or another in the deplorable racial riots which arose when Paul Robeson, the Negro singer, appeared last year at Peekskill, New York County, the cleavage and apparent confusion of views among South African Jewry and Dr. Malan's policy of racial segregation, and the fact that Israel has a section of colored population, make it imperative for an examination to be made of how far Jews, individually and collectively, can help in the resolution of the "Color Question." It is clear that the superficial reactions of Jews to this issue depend in large measure on the countries in which they live, and on the degree to which they have had to face up to the problem.

Anglo-Jewry and American Jewry, for example, undoubtedly differ in their attitude. Audience reaction and press reviews in the two countries following the showing of the present series of American films which deal with the Negro question, "Pinky," "Intruder in the Dust," "Lost Boundaries," and "Home of the Brave," amply illustrate this. It is not without significance that, in "Home of the Brave," a story of traumatic shock suffered by an American soldier while on a reconnaissance of a Japanese-controlled island in the Pacific war, linked with racial conflict in the reconnaissance party itself, while the central character in the film is a Negro, in the play, the action revolved around "Coney," an American Jewish G.I.

Significant Parallel
In contrasting the attitude of mind of the British on such questions with, for instance, that of the Germans, facile observers often make a parallel between the barring by a London hotel of the famous West Indian cricketer, Leary Constantine, and the refusal of Hitler to shake hands with the great Negro sprinter, Jesse Owens, when he won the 100 meters at the Olympic Games in Berlin in 1936. The significant feature is that, while the action of their fuhrer passed without apparent dissent or opposition by the Germans, the incident in Britain not only aroused widespread public protests, but also led to a statement by a Minister in Parliament to the effect that while he had no direct powers against the hotel in question he deplored this manifestation of racial intolerance. All sides of the House agreed.

It is difficult to clarify how far, except at the most fundamental level, there is an identity between the intolerance involved in anti-Semitism and that which runs through the whole of the color problem. Nevertheless, subjective experience of prejudice and discrimination throughout their history should enable Jews to make some positive contribution towards the solution of this burning issue. Anti-Semitism as a problem of the first importance in human relationships may well disappear by the end of this century under the influence of the many solvents now at work. But with the opening up of Africa, the revolutions in China and South-East Asia, and the coming of independence to the Indian sub-continent, human relationships from the point of view of

Series on Parade

Frat series continue to dominate the social spotlight among the sepi citizens. We continue our rundown of the cheer leaders:

Kappa yell queens are mimicking the hip-shaking routine which the Alpha Girls have made famous through the years. Doing an expert job of it, too. Or course, you have to blame their versatility in the ancient art on what we will call 'nature's gift to a fine chick.'

Amazing thing is, all the Kappa queens on the court this season are endowed with this wonderful gift. To prove our point, we refer you to admirable Ruby McClennon, or have you had the honor of focusing upon her from a close-up? Or perhaps you would prefer the honor of crystal-gazing on Joyce Robinson in cheer-leader attire. You have not seen a fortune teller till you do. Or maybe you like the showings of Madeline Carter—a million dollar's worth. Rounding out the all-star quartet is Ann Allen, the angel from C.C.

ON THE SOCIAL SIDE: We saw Myrtle White, retired cheer leader after two seasons of giving out battle cries for the Omegas. . . . Andy Allen gave the series a great innovation when he concocted the idea of playing records between halves and games. He's the guy who spins platters for all the frat dances, and who is always in company with marvelous Mitzi Nelson. . . . Shirley Stevens who made her comeback to the social scene with Sigma Kenneth Ingram. Says she's a courting Micky Grooms in the main event. . . .

Westwooder Joyce Overr spent the evening with Ollie Matson, Frisco U's great athlete. . . . Cosy Eubanks sounded off when Clayton Moore bounded the ball down the floor. . . . Connie McAllister made another showing with Wilbur Robinson, while Artis Rhodes sneaked in with a classy little doll all duded in red. . . . Darlings Pearlene Harrison and Dolores Parker came sporting their pretty Blazons sweaters. . . . Winston McKesson and his twin brother looked exactly alike, down to the rim of their specs. . . .

Robert Andrew and Joe Johnson came sporting identical green flowered shirts, and both on the lookout for worthy challengers. . . . June Mathis was real gone in her scanty summer print, and her colleagues Betty Smith and Marvell Henderson were a pleasing sight for tired eyes. . . . There was immaculate Erma Beary, staunch Kappa rooster; Jackie Thomas and her Alpha sweetheart, Thurmond Johnson; and pretty Pat Roberts keeping close company with a devoted friend.

Partying Around

Vera Lee upped with the first party of the Easter vacation when she hosted a grand one for her brother James, home on leave from the army, and his wife Grace. On hand to take in the pleasures were Billy and Elinor Glover, who took their vows long ago without giving us a mention of it; Gentlemen Dick Powell, back from the basketball wars and in the center of things with Mary Louise Payne; Cliff Allen, expounding on his great philosophies and ideals; Marvelous Madelyn Glover, returning to the social spotlight; Benny Veal, great amateur pug who has dropped only one in 32 fites, making his main event debut with Connie McCallister.

Jane Miller, leading the parade of beauties; Pat Huntley, who left her sweetie at home; Ever loving Evelyn Franklin with Bob Golden; Billie Brannon, with Philip Lishey, because Fant was at work, she said; Baby Bonnie Maxwell with Louis Keyser, 'cause that's her love; Millard Johnson with cute Jessie Carl; James Garland, snug with Delores Potter; Wade McClain, wiggling on his sweet little girl; Dorothy Newsome, taking up time with the above mentioned; Charlotte Stevens with Howard Washington; Ann High, strait with John Mollins; Pauline Smith with some one new; Ola Morrison, someone fine, and LaVera Porter, some one sweet. . . .

Doris Rivers held a rendezvous with Old Man Time last week and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver honored her with a birthday at their home Saturday nite. Of Mrs. Moore, we call her charming, to say the least. . . . Other scribes complaining about not getting invites to some of the great parties around this man's town. We can hardly make that complaint. . . . A thousand pardons to the Blabbers for not attending their party Friday nite. It was a hard one to miss, but we just couldn't make it.

Other Things

Still ain't thru picking that bone with the Inter-frat Council. An incident came up during the Sigma-Omega game Saturday which proves our point to a "T." Bob Pounds' number was confused with someone else's and the score keeper had him down for three fouls when the Sigma coach claimed he only had two. There would be no mixups like that if the Council would issue printed programs with the players numbers, etc. It would be for the benefit of the fans, players and officials, and nobody would have to shed out a fortune in order to have the things made up. . . . We hear tell from someone who is supposed to know that Compton will rout City College when the two titans meet on the cinders not long hence. Jerome Walters will romp in the quarter and half mile and "Georgious" George Brown will win handily in the sprints, plus in his specialty, the broad jump, our informant states.

The Cubs will also bite the dust in the mile, and mile relay, it was opined. Now, this is supposed to be City College's golden year, and we don't believe that Compton can turn them back, by George. We'll stick with the Cubs, boys. Bring us all the Compton money in the house. . . . Well, it's nearing dawn again and the typing machine needs oiling. So while we are fixing it up for next week's contest remember: The brave man is one who will do something that he is afraid to do.

color will loom much more largely in the foreground of world affairs.

Judaism has made unequivocal pronouncements on the subject of the unity of the human race. In Chapter X of the Book of Genesis, which referring to the descent of the nations from the sons of Noah, has rightly been styled a Messianic document, the races and peoples of the earth are arranged as different branches of one great family springing from the same ancestry, and, in the eloquent words of the commentary of the late Chief Rabbi, Dr. J. H. Hertz, "This sublime conception of the unity of the human race logically follows from the belief in the unity of God, and, like it, forms one of the cornerstones of the edifice of Judaism."

Protection Demanded

Thus it is not surprising that the Jewish organizations combatting anti-Semitism, both in Great Britain and in America, should have directly integrated into their work the fight against racialism in general and the color bar in particular. The case of the protagonists in Britain for a Community Libel Bill, for example, includes a demand for protection for all groups "identifiable by race, creed, or color."

Jews, therefore, as they become relieved of the burden of being themselves a main target of attack, should apply their experience and abilities to this world-wide problem of human relationships. It is a great pity that in our reactions to the Jewish aspects of the "Merchant of Venice" we should have missed Shakespeare's deep understanding of the color prejudice, so movingly expressed in the opening lines of the Prince of Morocco's courtship of Portia: "Mislike me not for my complexion, The shadow'd delivery of the burnish'd sun." What poignancy of pleading is therein expressed!

It is in the struggle for the fundamental recognition of human equality that all Jews can be of service. The same person who will fight tooth and nail to prevent a Negro, Chinese, or Indian from living in his neighborhood or from entering his trade or profession will not hesitate to employ a Negro, Chinese, or Indian servant. If he believes that colored people, are lacking in moral integrity, how can he allow his children to be cared for by a colored servant? If he believes that colored people are physically unclean, why does he permit his baby to be bathed by an Indian ayah?

Plain Answer

The answer is plain. He does not really believe either of these things; but he does believe that no one of coloured ancestry is his equal as a human person. This is surely the same experience we have had as Jews. During periods of the most rigid anti-Jewish discrimination the healing are of Jewish doctors was not refused, and even today those who would still exclude Jews from full participation as equals in human affairs daily accept, without objection, the personal contribution of Jews to human welfare in every field of endeavor.

Forward-looking men and women who now realize that politics is not essentially the art of governing people but that of governing the relationships between people have already been at work on the problem for some years. It is to be hoped that Jewry, having witnessed their own leap forward towards normality, may make the contribution to this great issue which their religion and history alike demand.

Your gift to United Jewish Welfare Fund will help the Joint Distribution Committee complete the necessary task of removing every Jew from Yemen, a total of 38,000 people.

THINGS I SEE

By Marian Ingledod

The Easter Parade, all down Hollywood Blvd., at Hollywood and Vine, through all the beautiful boulevards of all the cities in America, if not in the world, is over for one year. Its flowers, its furbelows, its new dresses, new hats, new styles and new fashions, having been displayed for a few brief hours, will be followed now in a greater or less degree by all of us who heard or read about it, who saw it over television, or who witnessed the real thing.

No law, not even any of the Mdes and Persians, rules with a more despotic finality than that of the fashion of the times. Does the prevailing style say skirts should be shorter this year? They are made shorter. Do the powers that be in the fashion world say they should be longer? They are made longer. Should they sweep the floor? They sweep the floor.

I don't know whether psychologists have ever found out why we are such slaves of fashion. And that's no mere figure of speech. We surely and definitely are slaves. We crawl on our knees, we cringe and fawn before this god, and no boasted will power of ours can deliver us from his rapacious decrees.

But this following of the trend of things is showing itself in a far more dangerous mood than that of merely obeying the dictates of fashion in dress. It is showing itself in our thinking. Or rather our lack of thinking. We are rushing alarmingly with the current towards the brink of Fascism. It's the "style" now, it's the correct thing to speak of everything that is of any social value, as being Communistic. We in America are following that style, that trend as slavishly as any fashion in dress or hat.

The decision of the jury in the Harry Bridges case is an example. It wasn't just the hysteria and the fear generated by the witch hunting in America that worked upon the minds of those American citizens serving on that jury. It was also the psychology of the humiliation of being out of style. Members of the "cultured" class in America do not permit themselves to be tainted with anything that smells of Communism. Ergo, if you don't want to be considered a boor, you'd better observe the niceties that cultured class has set for you. Ergo, you must condemn Harry Bridges.

This idiotic fear of not conforming to the prevailing style is being felt in Congress too. Believe it or not, it has become the "correct thing to do" to favor the Un-American Activities Committee! This committee, beginning with Martin Dies, down through John E. Rankin and J. Parnell Thmoas, now in jail for cheating the government, has "violated" all the rules of decent investigating procedure, and smeared countless innocent citizens."

From the beginning a small band of Congressmen has stood out against its methods. That band, however, has dwindled in size with the years. In 1943, ninety-four Congressmen voted against continuing the committee. In 1946 that number went up to 186. But in 1948 it came down with a thud to 37. And week before last when this infamous committee asked for $150,000 to compile a list of "250,000 individuals as well as several thousand organizations to be used as a Bible of subversive activities in the United States," there were only 12 members of Congress who dared to stand up and vote "No."

Only 12! Think of it! But there were 348 who wanted to be in the prevailing style, and who voted for this outrageous request. They included some of the best known liberals in Congress, elected by members of labor unions and by the people to fight against the very thing they advocated. But they were to cowardly to be out of the prevailing style, and they went along with the crowd on the Easter Parade.

Among the twelve, however, who dared to vote "No," we say with a fervent "Thank God," was our own Helen Gahagan Douglas, Congresswoman from the 14th Congressional District, now a candidate for the U. S. Senate. Adam Clayton Powell, Jr. and Vito Marcantonio, of New York, were also in that number. Of the nine others, one was a Republican, one a member of the Farmer-Labor Party, and the others were Democrats.

We must change this trend in the political thinking, or lack of thinking in America. We must make it be the correct thing once again to be a liberal, as it was in the days of President Roosevelt. We must elect liberal members of Congress, liberal candidates for every office in the land. But you can't elect anyone without voting for him, and you can't vote unless you are registered.

REGISTER NOW, if you haven't already done so. Today, April 13, at midnight is the deadline. Go to the nearest deputy registrar, or go to the registrar's office, 800 North Spring, and REGISTER NOW!! Make it the style to be a real American.

REVIEWED BY MARIANNE LEE

"Stranger and Alone," by J. Saunders Redding, Harcourt Brace and Co., New York, 300 pages, 1950. Available at Hugh Gordon Bookshop, $3.00.

"Stranger and Alone" is a novel about a traitor and about the social and personally psychological effects of his moral prostitution. It is also a story of the suffocating effects of false and phony leadership, and of the gloating, greedy disdain of those who take advantage of a betrayal.

Unfolding in the atmosphere of two Negro colleges in the South, the plot centers around the developing personality of a young man whose healthy energy and ambition are gradually corrupted by opportunism and egocentrism. The background premises of the novel are the hierarchy of the Negro educational system in a typical Southern state and the way it is being exploited by the white school and political officials; and the opportunism and blundering kow-towing of certain persons of Negro-white parent-age who have achieved a position of leadership within the Negro community.

Shelton Howden, offspring of an inter-racial marriage, was raised in an orphanage, and developed a "double chip on his shoulder." He works his way through a small Negro college where he becomes indoctrinated with the propositions that (a) Negroes are racially inferior to whites, and that (b) as an intellectual, he had better forget the problems of inter-racial relations and dedicate himself to the realization of his own personal character and security.

Through several fortunate circumstances (not necessarily resulting from his own initiative efforts) Howden is awarded in succession a graduate scholarship, a professorship in another college, and the position of State Supervisor of Negro Schools and Colleges.

As his fortune and prestige increases, so do his selfishness and his desire to build and maintain an all-repelling shell around

Destitute Cotton Pickers In United Action Against Poverty

One hundred Mexican-American and Negro cotton-pickers, confronted with the spectre of want and disease on a plantation in Delano, California, took new heart last Friday following the visit of a committee from Faithful Central Baptist Church in Los Angeles headed by Jackie Klack, civic worker and well-known community leader. Two car-loads of food and clothing were distributed to the cotton-pickers by Mrs. Klack and her committee.

Living in tents and cardboard houses crudely thrown up on the plantation where they are seasonally employed for meager wages, the cotton-pickers, according to Mrs. Klack, show a fighting spirit and are determined to take united action against their plight. They have formed themselves into an organization called THE UNEMPLOYED, and all of them registered to vote last week.

In order to gain strength and support, the group plans to affiliate with local 84 of the AFL farm workers union. Fighting for restoration of the right to work for the county at fifty cents an hour which they once held, and which is now denied them, the one hundred cotton-pickers sent postcards to county officials demanding that they be given such employment.

Donations

Appealing for donations of food and clothing to be distributed among the Unemployed, Mrs. Klack revealed that she has been invited to speak to a similar group in Pixley next Thursday, April 20. Donations of clothing for men, women and children and all kinds of food may be sent to Mrs. Klack at 3720 S. Wall Street.

In the camp at Delano, the farm workers must haul water for drinking and washing from a considerable distance. There are no bathing facilities and toilet facilities are contained in outhouses near the tents and flimsy cardboard shacks. The children get little or no milk to drink and the menace to health is evident throughout the makeshift community.

There are no doctors and hospitals in Delano, and this becomes alarming, Mrs. Klack pointed out, because there are seven pregnant women in the camp. Churches and community organizations are invited to send contributions to Mrs. Klack before April 20.

CANDIDATE for Congress from the 13th district, Esther Murray has the support and endorsement of a wide range of labor and community leaders. Her experience over a long period in public affairs make her eminently qualified for the post she seeks.

Mass Demonstration Saturday Protests High Court Refusal

A public demonstration and protest meeting, called by the Art Science and Professions Council will be held this Saturday at 1:30 in front of the Federal Building at 312 North Spring Street.

Organized to protest the refusal of the United States Supreme Court to hear the appeal of the Hollywood Ten, the meeting and demonstration will start an avalanche of letters addressed to Chief Justice Vinson expressing shock and anger over the high court's refusal to hear an appeal in a case concerned with a vital American principle.

Community leaders who announced their intentions to participate in the demonstration charge that the Supreme Court has washed its hands of American civil liberties. They urged letters and telegrams to the Chief Justice in Washington, D. C. demanding that the court immediately schedule a rehearing in the case in order that the people most concerned with civil rights abuses will have assurance that the court will afford them proper protection.

BEHIND the figures that comprise Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company's 25th Annual Report is a story of continuous, rewarding service to human beings.

For example... the $50,598,002 in Insurance in Force has a double meaning. Statistically it represents the 160,529 policies in life and disability insurance coverage. Economically, this insurance means security against financial emergencies caused by sickness and death. Since the company's organization, $4,276,813.24 has been returned to policyowners and beneficiaries in "living benefits."

Insurance funds perform a double service. They benefit the individual policyowner as well as the community in which he lives. The investment of insurance funds helps to provide the utilities, industries, and transportation facilities that serve the policyowner and the community. Insurance funds invested in mortgage loans make homeownership possible for many.

Golden State Mutual's assets show $1,494,334.60 invested in federal, state, municipal, and high-grade industrial bonds. Loans on Real Estate amount to $1,014,704.23.

Important too, is the opportunity for employment for skilled men and women of your communities. At the end of 1949, 642 employees were engaged in careers in this rapidly growing business. For the year they received $1,750,222.66 in personal income.

The growth of your Company, as reflected in the figures of the 25th Annual Report, is the result of satisfactory service rendered to the individual and the community.

Youth Rampages

By NELLIE BECKER

This is the weekend of the 16th of April. The echoes of Easter songs are faint and the corsages have wilted and faded. But our children with their fruitful imaginations can still remember the sunrise services, Easter egg hunts and pretty ladies very vividly.

To them it was more than just a pomp and show. . . . Henry McPherson Jr. said that his piano solo "Airplane Winging" that he played Easter Sunday reminded him of the guardian angels "winging" to heaven. Dr. and Mrs. Henry McPherson were so proud of him as he walked to the piano of the Westminster Presbyterian Church in his Palm Beach suit, with dark brown accessories, and white tie. Derek Hill gurgled with delight in his blue and white knitted Easter suit while his Godfather Hubie Knight (dental student at the Univ. of Cal. at Berkeley) played with his toes. However Hubie stopped long enough so that Derek could tell his parents Charlette and Hugo Hill, Beverly Winston, Charlene Derrick and Phryom Taylor about Sonny Reeds orchestra playing in Santa Monica next Saturday night.

Donna Lightner in her white organdie dress accompanied her parents Martha and Sonny Lightner to the wedding of Jaffelyn Brown and Alvin Johnson in Pasadena. Edward Patterson got a new playpen for Easter and he was showing it off to Eddie Mae Armstrong much to the amusement of Marion and LaVert Patterson. Dale Pierson looked as glamorous as her mother Joan Pierson in her royal blue coat, yellow taffetta dress with hat to match. She went with her brother Terry for a long ride in their grandfather Dr. John Robinson's car. Valerie Shaw went to an Easter egg hunt given for Beverly Harris from Washington, D.C. Beverly is staying with her aunt Mrs. Levine. Dr. and Mrs. Robert Woods and their children Jan and Jerri Suzanne stopped and looked at the Easter Parade before they wended their way to a special Easter treat. And that's not all—little Michele Kingsley is still talking about the wonderful Easter egg hunt that three-year-old Jerrylyn Jackson gave at Mrs. Gladys Johnsons (God-mother) home at 3133 Montclair St. Because you see the grown-ups had an Easter egg hunt too. There were her parents Dr. and Mrs. Roy Kingsley, Jerrylyn's mother Sue Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Landrum and their daughter Carol from Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Buck Jones and three-year-old Phyllis, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Watkins and their son Michael and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Davis with Dale and Davey.

NEWSY BITS

The playoff game of the Interfrat series will be called the John Kinloch playoff. Dr. Cato Robinson is in the army now. Good looking Freddie Guiles and Joe Spears have left sunny California for the staid New England shores.

Harold and Mary Townes Adams newly weds from Oakland had a scrumptious dinner at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ellis Toney. A few days later they called Wini and Ellis from Phoenix to tell them what a fine time they had at the Kappa Regional.

The James Rufus Portwigs who are always the perfect hosts had as their guests at Val Verde, Barbara Brown, Mrs. Roselle Fernandes and her daughter Phillipa. Also at Val Verde were the Jack N' Jils. They started the day off with an egg hunt, went horse back riding and bicycling.

The Interfrat series still carries its surprises every Saturday night especially since the Omega's and Sigma's have such powerful teams this year. Earline and Wilbur Tate celebrated afterwards by serving hot waffles at their home to a few of the weary basketball fans. Admiring the Easter theme which was carried throughout the Tate household were Bill and Louise Watson from Boston, Mass., Clare Fentress (has quite a write-up in this month's Ebony) and Edward Drye from Oakland, Calif. Phyllis Scott and Russell Brooks and June and Herbie Swanigan.

After a strenuous day at the picnic grounds the group of USC students ended up partying at Milton Smiths abode. Among the visitors present were Oily Matson (Cal. at Berkeley) and Katherine Maxwell attractive schoolmarm from San Francisco.

EVENTFUL HAPPENINGS

Joe Adams will be the emcee at the Doll League "Spring Cocktail" party next Sunday. Invites are in the mail for the Iotas coffee hour the 23rd of April. Margaret Goode, Gloria Vaughn, and Mary Frances Peterson are three of the fine models appearing in the fashion show. To encourage the Negro High school seniors to enter into the business world, the Iota's have arranged for each girl to work in the businesses throughout the community during their observance of National Business Week.

ATTORNEY CURTIS TAYLOR is exhibiting a decree of divorce to his client whose name is also Curtis Taylor. Second In "The Dancer Says" Series At Coronet Theatre

The traditional dances of India, Japan and our own Indians of the Southwest provide the unusual theme of the second in the monthly series of dance recitals, "The Dancer Says," to be presented Monday evening, April 17, at the Coronet Theatre.

Bhupesh Guha, Hindu dancer who has appeared in concert at the Philharmonic and Wilshire Ebell here in Los Angeles as well as in auditions all over the country, will open the evening with four numbers, varying from the ritual "Light Festival Dance" to the gay "Gypsy Vendor." He will be introduced by Lal Singh, former editor of India News, who will briefly explain the cultural background and special significance of the dances.

San Pedro Club Of IPP Opposed To Mundt Bill

Opposition to the Mundt bill was announced this week by Loyd Seeliger, chairman of the San Pedro club of the Independent Progressive Party. Members of the San Pedro club have already written letters and sent telegrams to congressmen and senators concerning this matter.

Mr. Seeliger stated that many harbor trade unions and organizations have gone on record against this bill designed to strait-jacket American civil liberties.

In another action, the Independent Progressive Party executive committee meeting last night announced a harbor-wide I.P.P. membership meeting to be held Friday night, April 28th.

The club has a campaign under way to supply food and clothing for starving San Joaquin agricultural workers, and have established a receiving station at 523 W. Anaheim, Wilmington.

Name Dr. Franklin Frazier To Housing Research Committee

Dr. E. Franklin Frazier, chairman of the sociology department at Howard University, and author of "The Negro Family in the United States," and "The Negro in the United States," has been appointed to the Housing Research Advisory Committee, by Housing and Home Financing Administrator Raymond M. Foley.

Formerly president of the American Sociological Society.

Relief Clients Must Work For County Checks

The Board of Supervisors this week passed Supervisor Raymond Darby's bill making it mandatory for recipients of county relief to work for it... or else. An estimated saving of $20,000 a month resulting from cutting off relief seekers who do not work, dangled before the board by County Manager Wayne R. Allen did the trick.

Allen told the Supervisors that a recent spot check of 60 relief clients showed that 11 who had been ordered to work, had not complied, and had not been cut off relief.

Acting in the spirit that relief clients are persons who don't want to work and would do so if they are faced with starvation, the board passed Darby's ordinance. Previously the work or else rule was a matter of policy. It was interpreted loosely because of the great number of relief clients who are too old, too crippled or too ill to work. The ordinance makes it necessary for all county indigents to work out relief checks.

Dr. Bradford Takes Part In Southern Calif. Dental Meeting

The Southern California State Dental Association held its 53rd annual Scientific Meeting at the Biltmore Hotel in Los Angeles, California, last week and it was attended by 4000 dentists from many parts of the United States as members and guest clinicians.

A new method of preparing teeth for fillings without the use of a drill is under experimental study at the University of Southern California, the 4000 dentists were told.

In a group clinic given by the members of The American Society of Dentistry for Children, directed by Rex Waggner, D.D.S. president, Dr. Clarence Bradford, a member of the Avalon Medical Group was invited to participate as Clinician, the subject being "The Morphology of Primary Teeth." This is the most modern trend in dental care as children can now be given attention which they have been unable to receive in the past.

A STATEMENT FROM SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GAS COMPANY REGARDING THE THREATENED STRIKE

In the event of a strike, the Company will use every proper means at its disposal to maintain continued gas deliveries to homes and business establishments. Our interconnected system will continue to bring gas from many sources of supply and, in the absence of illegal interference with our operations, there is no reason to expect interruption of gas service. However, during any strike period, we will appreciate your limiting your requests to emergency service calls.

WHAT IS THIS STRIKE TALK ALL ABOUT?

The labor contract covering wages, hours and working conditions expired on April 1. Negotiations with the union leaders have continued for three months without reaching an agreement. Now, the membership of locals in some areas we serve have already voted to strike. Others are scheduled to vote shortly. Meanwhile, the union leaders have issued statements to their membership and to the newspapers. Therefore, a statement of the Company's position seems to be in order. Here are the principal issues involved in the controversy:

WAGES

The union is demanding a fifth round post-war increase in wages for all C.I.O. represented employees.

There has been no "fifth round" increase in any publicly regulated utility in California and none appears remotely in prospect. Present wages are very much in line with rates paid by similar utilities in the state — and California wage levels for representative utility jobs are the highest in the United States. Our wages are up 89% since 1941 while the cost of living in this area has risen only 62%.

PENSIONS

While the union leaders agree that the liberalized scale of pensions now being offered by the Company is an increase — they say that the increase is not enough.

The Company has long been a leader among all businesses in providing pensions as well as insurance and disability benefits. A liberal plan has been in effect since 1932 and its benefits are without cost to the employee. The new plan now offered by the Company steps up the pension benefits substantially. The over-all formula on which pensions are based is increased by 12%. The minimum benefit for retirement with 25 years of service would be increased by 17% to $100.00 per month (including social security). This is in line with the national pattern established in recent settlements for retirement at 65 with 25 years service. These settlements were based on the recommendations of the President's Fact Finding Board in the steel industry case. For retirement with either more or less service than 25 years, the Company's offer is in excess of the national pattern.

These are the important issues in a long list of demands made by the union. On a number of important items affecting working conditions, the Company has granted material improvements. However, the union's wage demands alone would add about $1,500,000 to the Company's annual wage bill. This combined with demands for additional pension and other welfare benefits would add an unreasonable burden in the face of an already liberal employee program. We do not believe there is any present justification for the union's demands, the cost of which would ultimately have to be reflected in the rates charged for gas service.

Real Shooting Gallery Used

HOLLYWOOD—A shooting gallery which adds much to the suspense in RKO Radio's "The Woman on Pier 13" is not a studio-made set. The gallery was rented from a concern which provides carnivals with equipment, and was authentic right down to the cheap prizes awarded to marksman customers. Lorraine Day and Robert Ryan play some of their most tense scenes in this gallery.

Count Basie And The Spring Blues

BROADWAY, N. Y. (CNS)—The thermometer read 80 degrees and standing outside the Strand Theatre's big green backstage door was none other than Count Basie. He was wearing a huge black and white plaid wool shirt and a brown felt hat with a turned up brim. He hadn't known it was going to be so warm.

It was such a beautiful spring day the Count decided to take a walk down to the corner (47th St.) in-between his shows. So he walked down to the corner. But at the corner he met a guy who buzzed him a "sure bet." The Count, who'll put anything on a four-legged creature to win, took the chance. He waited around for the results. Ooops—his luck ran out. Despite the warm Spring day, the Count walked fast back to the big green door. Perhaps he had 'lost his shirt,' the black and white wool one.—It was too hot for it anyway.

NBC Auditions Timmie Rogers

NEW YORK CITY—Timmie Rogers dual talents as a comedian and songwriter received recognition last week from executives of the National Broadcasting Company, who auditioned him for a featured spot on their proposed revival of "Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street." The producers of the show are planning to utilize Timmie's songwriting and singing ability on the program and will transpose his comic talents into musical themes.

Lena Horne Sponsors Carmen deLavallade Young Negro Dancer

Lena Horne, on the eve of her departure for an eight-month tour of Europe, has come forward as sponsor for Carmen de Lavallade, 17-year-old Negro dancer who makes her debut April 21st in the title role of "Salome" at Lester Horton's Dance Theater, 7566 Melrose Ave.

Miss Horne, who has consistently fought for equal opportunity for the Negro artist, has just won her freedom from MGM after nine years of being stereotyped in musicals.

Miss de Lavallade will dance non-stereotyped roles, including a leading part in the new Horton work to be premiered shortly under "Choreo—1950" banner, "Brown County, Indiana."

A local girl and first cousin to new dancing star Janet Collins, Miss de Lavallade has been groomed by Horton for the past two seasons.

"Salome," originally produced by Horton in 1948, has been revised to some extent, with completely new costumes designed for the impending revival. Miss de Lavallade's role is the focal point of an exotic and sensual work.

Featured in the cast are Luisa Kreck, Kenneth Bartmess, Rudi Gernreich, George Allen and Jack Dodds. Other numbers on the program are "Totem Incantation" and "Estilo de ti."

"SILVER LINING" Sweethearts Shine Again . . . Filled with songs, comedy and romance, Warner Bros. new Technicolor musical, "The Daughter of Rosie O'Grady" opens Friday, April 14th at Warner's.

Warners Rushes Hawk To Philly

PHILADELPHIA—As far as the Earle Theatre is concerned, Erskine Hawkins' nickname should change from "The Twentieth Century Gabriel" to the "Twentieth Century Pied Piper." The trumpet-playing maestro opened in the City of Brotherly Love last week at the special request of Warner Brothers theatre chain officials who signed him, and a full stage show, overnight.

The Hawk chose Errol Garner, Derby Wilson and Savannah Churchill to co-star with him in Philadelphia and the ensuing business supported the local bookers' faith in Hawkins' drawing power and producing ability.

Ink Spots To Tour West With Star Studied Show

CHICAGO—Three of the best-known units in show business are flying to Chicago this week to join Bill Kenny and the Ink Spots in an extended tour of the midwest. Gil Lamb, the motion-picture comic, Boyd Raeburn and his orchestra and the Piero Brothers, one of the best-known novelty balancing acts in vaudeville, will tee off their junket with the quartet at the Paradise Theatre, in the Windy City this week.

The midwest has not had as name-heavy a show as this for a long time.

Despite the holiday week, the Hawk's show attracted a near-capacity crowd for the duration of his run.

Star Cures Speech Defect
HOLLYWOOD—Faith Domergue currently co-starring at RKO Radio with Robert Mitchum in "Where Danger Lives," spent 12 months curing a speech defect. A dramatic coach made her do all her reading for an entire year with a toothpick stuck between her lips. There is no trace today of the lisp that once threatened her career.

Summer Scenes in Winter
HOLLYWOOD—Irene Dunne, Fred MacMurray and other members of the cast shivered and shook during the filming of location scenes for RKO Radio's "Come Share My Love." The players worked in light clothing, in keeping with the picture's summer setting, while the thermometer dropped steadily during a winter cold snap.

Xavier Cugat Signed By RKO

RKO Radio Pictures has completed negotiations with the Music Corporation of America whereby Xavier Cugat will appear in three pictures at this studio.

Now in South America, Cugat will return to Hollywood May 1, at which time conferences with Executive Producer Sid Rogell will determine his future screen roles for RKO.

Under consideration as the first assignment for the rhumba king is a major role in "Two Tickets to Broadway," big-budget musical which Producer Alex Gottlieb is readying for early production.

Greet W. Wells On Birthday

Wesley Robert Wells will be 43 years old on May 23. It has been suggested that all his friends, and all who have heard his story, send him birthday greetings for that day.

Mr. Wells is a victim of our prison system. He has spent most of his life behind prison bars, and is at present in death row in San Quentin for having struck a prison guard with a cuspidor. He has been granted another hearing, however, and on March 29 Federal Judge Louis Goodman ruled that Wells had been denied "due process" of law when he was sentenced to die for that act. The guard did not die. He was not even injured very badly, but according to a California law, if a life-term prisoner attacks a guard, the death sentence is mandatory. He was granted a 90-day stay of execution pending further litigation on the case.

Send him birthday greetings—Wesley Robert Wells, No. 24155, San Quentin, Calif. And write Governor Earl Warren, asking for executive clemency for Wesley Wells.

Poster Appeal For NHW
One of the most poignant posters to bring to the public the evils of discrimination was that of the Douglas Lincoln Fraternal Society, IWO, of New York, for National Negro Health Week, which was observed last week April 2-9.

The poster pictured a little Negro girl, with the caption: "Give this child her ten stolen years!! This child has ten years less to live, the poster explained, than a white child as a result of discrimination, according to government life expectancy statistics.

Such an appeal should make all of us work 365 days a year to eliminate the evil.

Special Achievement Award To Golden State Mutual Life

The Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company will be presented the initial award of the Eugene Kinckle Jones Roving Trophy for outstanding achievement, at the Los Angeles Urban League's Award Night celebration Friday evening, April 28, at Polytechnic High School auditorium, 400 W. Washington Blvd.

Mr. Jones, retired executive secretary of the National Urban League, will award the huge trophy bearing his name to George A. Beavers, Jr., chairman of the Golden State Insurance Company's Board.

The trophy, which has been given to the League by Golden West Lodge 86, I.B.P.O.E. of D., will be formally presented to the league by William D. Veil, chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Lodge, before its presentation to Golden State.

The trophy will rotate annually to individuals and organizations selected by the League for significant contributions to the community.

A spokesman for the Awards Committee said that the insurance company's development from a one-room office at 1435 Central Ave., with a total capital of $17,800, to the ultra-modern five-story building and total income in 1949 of 3 1/2 million dollars is an achievement deserving the commendation of the entire nation. The firm will celebrate its 25th anniversary in July.

things to come in Southern League competition. There is a distinct possibility of a Southern League championship in baseball for the Democrats... there is a big game on this week at Fremont, which means an awful lot to the boys... they'd like to get back at the Pathfinders for some pastings received last year... come on out to Ross Snyder for a look see at this year's club.

The chances of making a triple killing in spring athletics are high with the track title almost in the bag, the baseball title a real possibility, and the tennis title a distinctly better than average chance to be taken by the Demos. The "Crats" have won every practice match but one, and are ready to sail forth against their Southern League rivals. We'll try and keep you posted on the developments in tennis and baseball as well as close tabs on our great track squad.

Jefferson and Jordan High School girls were in the running this week for a scholarship of $50 offered by the Los Angeles Women's Athletic Club. The scholarship is called the Los Angeles Women's Athletic Club Award and will be presented to the girl who has shown the best scholarship and best athletic ability. The award will be presented on Sunday, April 16, at the Oasis on Western Avenue in a special dinner award ceremony. Three girls from each of the two schools will be invited to attend. Mrs. Margaret Whittier and Mrs. Estelle Conquest will represent the Women's Athletic Club. This award is designed to encourage greater scholastic and athletic effort on the part of the girls of Jefferson and Jordan.

Administrators at Jefferson announce that the selection of the winners of the various awards given to members of the senior class will be made public soon. The students have put forth exceptional effort in the past semester to qualify for these outstanding awards.

The exhibits at the Sportsmen's Show include hunting and fishing tackle, sports apparel, trailers, boats, television, photography, airplanes, camping supplies, travel and resort bureaus, wild game, woodcarving, forestry and outdoor living.

Eateries Labeled

If you eat out, you'll soon be looking for placards in Los Angeles restaurant windows certifying that the places employ someone trained by the city health department in the art of keeping the food and premises clean.

That statement was made last week by Dr. George M. Uhl, city health officer, who, with Robert F. Callender, chairman of the Food Sanitation Advisory Committee, an organization of industry, labor, and health department representatives, began awarding the placards to more than 1,000 local restaurants and public eating places.

"The placard is official, and signifies that the restaurant employs at least one of the 3,900 graduates of the Food Sanitation Institute, which is operated by the health department with the sponsorship of the Advisory Committee," Dr. Uhl said.

MOZART'S 12th MASS

The opportunity to be a part of another exciting production of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart's 12th Mass in G, was ours again last Sunday evening when the Wesley Methodist Choir presented the work in the First Methodist Church under the direction of Lucille Huley, with Irm a Tresville at the piano and this writer at the console of the Ewart Watchorn Memorial Organ.

Mr. McNeil
y-on Cabel, soprano; Buell Thomas, tenor, and William de Valentine, bass.

Few of us realize that the great mass of compositions by Mozart were composed while he was yet a young man. The little pieces composed by Mozart in his fifth and sixth years show an unswerving progress in which every step in the development of the sonata form is represented. The violin sonatas, written in London and Paris at the age of seven are full of inventiveness and technically as competent as most contemporary works of the same period (between 1756-1791).

Mozart's studies in strict counterpoint gave him the greatest mastery of choral music attained since Handel and more than one movement of church music, written before he was yet 15, deserves to take rank as a true masterpiece.

At the age of 17 Mozart wrote the inspiring Mass in G or the 12th Mass heard last Sunday evening. It is its freshness and vitality which places the work in the masterpiece category.

The Department of Music of the Wesley Church is the only church of our group in Los Angeles which boasts a staff of paid soloists. As a matter of record, this church has pioneered in a field of church music heretofore ignored by the churches of this community.

Unfortunately, most Negro ministers feel that talented professional singers should give their services. This idea is of course without regard for both the money spent in cultivating this vocal talent and the necessity for making a living with

Kirkpatrick Recital,
Pepperdine, April 30

Among the Eastern dailies to pay tribute to the artistry of Leon Kirkpatrick, pianist, are The Chicago Tribune, Music News, Detroit Free Press, Omaha World-Herald and many others, which join the chorus in acclaiming this outstanding musical personality.

Mr. Kirkpatrick will be presented in recital in the auditorium of Pepperdine College on Sunday afternoon, April 30, at 3:15 o'clock, by Iota's Auxiliary Club. The proceeds will go to the Iota Scholarship Fund, and the members of Iota Phi Lambda and their president, Ruth Mars, as well as the I.A.C. membership are working earnestly for the success of the affair.

Eunice Evans, president of I. A. C., Marion Jackson, organizer, and the recital committee, Alpha Jackson, Olva Ellison, and Pauline Yarbrough are thrilled with the popular response with which their efforts have been met.

the voice in an environment where opportunities for Negro singers are extremely limited.

It goes without saying that in the large churches of this community, the religious administrators expect their choirs and conductors to present the finest in the choral and solo literature but they still feel that such presentations and continuous enhancement of religious worship should be accomplished without payment of fees commensurate with the artistry and talents produced.

Of the four singers, Marguerite Chapman, Buell Thomas, and William Valentine, displayed a convincing and intelligent interpretation of the delicate ornamentations popular during this period. We felt, however, that there were several obvious discrepancies in the variety of tempi employed.

It should be remembered that the rubato is used only sparingly. There is a tendency for many of us to forget that the use of the rubato is characteristic of the Romantic period. In the interpretation of the early masters, a strict adherence to the style is required for an authentic performance.

Juanita Hall
Sings Ballads

Juanita Hall... Bloody Mary of "South Pacific"... and singing star of RCA Victor Records... opens at the Shelburne Lounge Thursday, April 13th.

This marks Miss Hall's second appearance at this popular East-side nitery.

Musicians Play
For Themselves
Friday Night

What kind of music do classical musicians play for their own pleasure? When they give a program for themselves, are they apt to really go "longhair," or do they seek relief from Tschalkowsky with a dose of bebop?

The Bohemians of Los Angeles—whose membership includes many of this area's most noted instrumentalists, composers and music teachers—provide an interesting answer to this question with the program they have worked up for their invitational concert at the Assistance League Play House in Hollywood on Sunday night, April 16.

The most unusual oddity on their program is Heitor Villa-Lobos' "Bachianas Brasileiras" No. 1, which calls for eight solo cello players. It will be conducted by Zoltan Kurthy, and the players will be Ilya Bronson and Kurt Reher, both former first cellists of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, and James Arkatov, Cyrus Bernard, Joseph Coppin, Virgil Gates, Alexander Reisman and Jascha Schwarzman.

Art Exhibit at Museum

Prize-winning painting by 70 contemporary French and American artists, winners in the $28,000 international Hallmark Art Award competition, will be shown for five weeks starting Friday, April 14, at the Los Angeles County Museum, James H. Breasted, director, announced today.

Featured in the show will be the $2,000 first-prize paintings of Edouard Goerg, whose "Nativite aux Oiseaux" won the French prize, and Fred Conway whose "Mother and Child" won the American award. These two tied for the additional international award of $3,500.

Exhibition Of Fine Drawings
By Mexican-American Artist

Throughout the month of April, an exhibition of drawings by the young Mexican-American artist, Domingo Ulloa, will be on view at the California Labor School Library, 233 South Broadway, Los Angeles, under the auspices of the California Labor School and the Graphic Arts Workshop.

This is the second of a series of monthly exhibits planned by these two organizations in an attempt to bring the socially-aware artist of today closer to the art public and at the same time, bring the art public from the street, shop and office closer to the artist.

Domingo Ulloa was born in Pomona, California, and has lived on both sides of the Mexican border. His early years were spent in Mexicali and Mexico City where he received his art training at the Academia de San Carlos.

Living now in Los Angeles with his young wife and family, Ulloa is working (when ever work is available) as a painter and interior decorator, is a member of the Painter's District Council No. 36, Local 116, and is attending night classes at the Jepson Art Institute.

Negro Repertory Players Hold Record For College Training

American Negro Repertory Players, who open a three week run at the Belasco theatre on April 19 with "Angel Street," may hold a record on the number of college degrees within a single cast. Not only does each member of the all professional, Equity company have a degree from an accredited college, but several hold two or three sheepskins.

Oden Browne, the suave villain of "Angel Street" is a master of arts from Yale University. A navy ensign, he enrolled under the G.I. Bill, took the big jump from college to Broadway as star of an original racial drama, "This Way to Me."

Director-producer Milton Wood earned his BA at West Virginia State, his Master's from Iowa University. Jacqueline Levy, who portrays the sensitive young wife in "Angel Street" studied music at Fisk University; while her stage rival, Geri Bryan, earned degrees at West Virginia State College, where her grandfather is president emeritus, and at Hampton Institute.

Edith Whiteman, who joins the Players from a tour of Great Britain, graduated from Bennett College in North Carolina. Final member of the cast is Peter Stanford, whose alma maters include A and T College and North Carolina College in his home state, and Columbia University.

Program of Dances

A program of traditional and authentic dances under the sponsorship of the Dance Division of the Arts, Sciences and Professions Council will be given at the Cornonet Theater, 366 N. La Cienega on Monday, April 17, at 8:30 p.m. There will be Japanese, Hindu and American Indian dances.

DIRECTOR... Producer Milton Wood of the American Negro Repertory Players holds a Masters Degree from Iowa University. All of the cast are college graduates. (See story).

Doings About Omaha

by G. Aneita Hayes

The Omaha Police Department, the hostess and honoree, Mrs. Sadie Bly. Guests at this occasion were Mesdames Gussie McPherson, Mary Faucett and G. Aneita Hayes.

Miss Bertha M. Young, that lucky and successful $5700 a year school teacher and Girl's Counselor at Garfield Intermediate School, Detroit, Michigan and daughter of the Archie B. Youngs, 2624 Binney street, is spending her spring vacation with her family in Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Belford Moses, nee Edna Blair, and their small daughter, Marilyn Irene of Los Angeles, California are spending their spring vacation in Omaha with Mrs. Moses parents and family, the George Blairs, 2722 Corby street.

Zion Baptist Church at 2215 Grant street, is installing new pews and beautifying the floors in the upstairs auditorium.

Mr. Roy Wilkins, Acting Executive Secretary of the National Association for the advancement of Colored People, addressed Omahans at Zion Baptist Church last Monday evening. He stated that though he was reared in Minnesota that he was not so proud of the middle west because it seemed as though this section has stood still while other areas have progressed. He further stated that Omahans need a chance for more jobs and that F.E.P.C. needs a chance in Omaha and will not take jobs from white people, but will merely place capable persons in responsible positions.

The keynote of his speech lay in his suggestions to Omaha citizens that if the Negro waits and depends on goodwill, brotherhood and Christianity of white people for fair employment and civil rights that they would wait until dooms day.

He challenged voting citizens on their interest or disinterest in what their Senators and Congressmen from Nebraska do in Washington for the welfare of Negro voters. In telling them that Wherry, Miller and Curtis of Nebraska voted against a permanent F.E.P.C., which means life or death to the Negro, he stated that their vote could change this picture of negative representation in Washington.

The winning of civil rights for the Negro so says this eminent speaker means the winning of the fight for democracy in America.

A record attendance at the meeting of the N.A.A.C.P. where Mr. Wilkinse spoke at Zion Baptist Church last Monday evening, will mean nothing unless the citizens take note and act upon the suggestions of the speaker.

New bonnets trimmed with flowers, ribbons and veiling. Spring coats and suits of exclusive design and make, frocks of all colors for the little misses and grown up ladies, suave sophisticated little boys and gentlemen in top coats, tailored suits and new chapeaux and vari-colored crochuses peeping above the earth, all significant of a new birth in everything, herald the fact that Spring is at last here, though the winds outside continue to howl like March.

The past week has been one of continued hustle and bustle for the young and older ones in their preparations for Easter. Easter, somehow, seems to belong to the young. Its religious significance, which in all sincerity, means new life in the believer through the power of His resurrection. Through the power manifested in his rising from the dead, it is suddenly Spring again.

The Binney Street Art Club celebrated the birthday of Mrs. Sadie Bly at her residence, 2853 Binney street last week. There were some beautiful and useful gifts for the honoree. This group of ladies has such a grand time of relaxation and fun. The members of this neighborhood club are Mesdames Addie Seals, pres.; Roberta Bailey, sec'y.; Luberta Arnold, treas.; Gertrude Lucas Morg; Martha Jefferson and

Praise Robeson For Protest on Prince's Exile

NEW YORK—The Council on African Affairs, headed by Paul Robeson and W. E. B. Du Bois, which is at present securing endorsements to a petition to the United Nations on the case of Seretse Khama, has announced receipt of the following message from the African ruler who was ordered exiled by the British government following his marriage to a white woman.

"It is pleasant and reassuring to know that Africans overseas and those of African descent remain conscious of our homeland and its welfare. Permit me to say that on our account, my wife and I will always be indebted to you."

The petition to the United Nations, drawn up by the Council on African Affairs, charges the British Government with the violation of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, Article 7 of which states: "No one shall be subjected to arbitrary arrest, detention, or exile," and also with the violation of Article 73 of the Charter of the United Nations, covering obligations toward people in colonial dependencies.

The petition charges the British Government with using its troops and police forces to enforce its decision against Seretse and crush the resistance of Bamangwato people in Bechuanaland in order to appease the white governing class of the neighboring territories of the Union of South Africa and Southern Rhodesia with their rigidly enforced Color Bar codes.

A life-size, four color cutout of Shirley is now appearing in the windows of over 3000 gas appliance dealers from Canada to Mexico.

Eastside Tops RC Goal

No one was more surprised than the division colonel herself—Miss Evangeline E. Woodfolk, who also serves as Red Cross area chairman for the Eastside—when campaign headquarters revealed last week that her division had reached its quota.

A $500 check from an individual donor put the division "over the top" but Miss Woodfolk reports that she and her volunteer workers aren't resting on easily-won laurels.

Who shares Standard of California Profits?

No college football stadium in the country could seat all the owners of Standard of California.

With 97,000 individual stockholders, it's one of the most widely owned companies in the West... and more than 70% of these people are small stockholders with less than 100 shares.

Among the large stockholders, you'll find literally hundreds of companies and organizations which work for you or benefit you every day—hospitals, universities, museums, churches, insurance companies, YMCA groups, research laboratories. And, of course, thousands of our employees are also owners. Standard of California profits, therefore, are divided among a tremendous number of people.

You share, too. Just since the war we've invested more than $500,000,000 in oil wells, refinery units, pipelines, tankers, distribution plants and marketing outlets... facilities to help us meet our responsibilities to serve the growing West.

"Adora's Ritings"

By Adora Lily Ulasi

"ONE OF THOSE THINGS"

Hollywood has once again portrayed its ignorance in a presentation on Africa.

ADORA

reveal the real facts on American life.

Some of the Hollywood stars who went to South Africa for the shooting of "King Solomon's Mines" said things that were least expected. They received instructions from the dumb British Officers, but they shouldn't be so hypocritical as to praise the colonial people, while they knew that America was once under Britain, and had at least experienced the evils of imperialism.

Film actor, Richard Carlson, forgot the unpredictable weather of California, but he was able to criticize the weather of S. Africa—WHAT A MESS—He termed S. Africa a jungle, while there are many families here across the mountains who live the same sort of life and maybe worse.

The actor continued by saying that the dance done by the natives was madlike, forgetting that all dances originated from Africa, and that the Africans are the ones entitled to criticize for they understand the rhythm and continent.

The meaningless American jitterbug is considered madlike by Africans, so people shouldn't come up with lots of funny stuff. I am not a person who is in favour of criticizing nations, but people should on the other hand think twice before they speak.

Mr. Carlson found it difficult to catch up with the African language—he thought he was so smart to do it in three months. WHAT A BRAIN. Even a Nigerian native born, cannot understand all the languages in Nigeria, how much more in the whole of the continent.

I think Hollywood actors will do well to keep their mouths shut, for no nation is a hundred per cent civilized or a hundred per cent good.

Trip To Mars Arranged At Observatory

"Hold onto your space-travel tickets and fasten your safety belts for the rocket-ship takeoff to Mars," visitors to the April planetarium show at Griffith Park Observatory are being told, as eager "passengers" this month embark upon a thrilling though imaginative space journey to Earth's neighboring planet.

"A Trip to Mars" is the title of the spectacular presentation, arranged at the Observatory by the City Recreation and Park Department, which simulates a swooshing rocket ship jaunt out to that other world that currently has swung close in on its orbit to a mere 60,000,000 miles from here.

Folks who have been reading feverish reports about tiny men from Mars arriving on Earth aboard flying saucers, will be able to compare these tales with actual known facts that will be revealed to them as they get a closeup of the red planet through the planetarium show's simulated rocket-ship visit.

Cotton Day at Jordan High

The popular annual Cotton Day Festival will be the feature event in Jordan High's observance of Public Schools Week, April 24 to 28. The theme for this year's Cotton Day is "Stairway to Fashions." This traditional event, sponsored by the homemaking department, emphasizes spring cotton clothes designed and made by girls in the personal grooming and homemaking classes. High point of Cotton Day will be the fashion show in the auditorium, where the girls' work will be displayed.

This open house day will also give members of the community a chance to meet Richard H. Nida, popular new principal of Jordan, as well as teachers and other administrators.

PEN PALS CORNER

By BARBARA JEAN

Went over to South Park last Sunday afternoon, you know, to that Easter promenade. Gosh, it was simply out of this world; but I have one objection. There were children present ages ranging from 5 mo. to 90 years and in the entertainment were very suggestive parts. For instance, that joke told by Mister Leonard. Why not save it for the nite club boys.

Barbara

Cause we, the decent people would certainly appreciate it. Well, so much for that . . . Victor Clark sends to all the pretty little girls his love and of the rest, his regards . . . Wonder why Barbara Jean A. has been singing there's something missing lately . . . Dotty Johnson, give James Kirkwood a chance, Huh . . . Billie Johnson, who is it? Donald, Charles or Dickie. Wonder what M.M. said to E.M. . . . a certain popular young lady with the initials of N. B. got all spruced up the other nite. Thought she was going out with her perspective husband, Bill . . . Called him up to get the appointment straight and he put her lovely soul to rest with these soothing words . . . GO TO BED . . . Try it sometimes boys, it works. Say there, I wonder what has happened to the Emersons? Quite a successful dance was given by St. Peter Clavier's organization, last Sunday. Heavenly goose pimplers . . . just about everybody was there. Just to name a few: Olivia Castile, Betty Metoyer, Richard Hudson, Charles Gale, Albert Carpenter, and Louis Chafette . . . Eugene Long, Tiffany Caulton, Earl Anderza and Alfred Goodson spent their Easter at the beautiful Cabrillo beach, dining . . . Alvinis Richare, "Am you in love with Kitty or Jo Ann?" Isaac, please get hep to yourself and get turned down with Frankie Wilson. If Willie Mae Johnson thinks that Frank Johnson is a and she has another though comin' . . . Mable Neal, he is waiting for the answer. HINT! That sweet little boy that you were talkin' to while he was on post. Billie Alice Hall, there's a certain person who has eyes for you. If you're wondering who, you were over at his house Tues. Leonard Whitehead, why are you so darn lame? . . . Quite a playboy is Willie Curry. It is rumored that Harvey Polee, and Veverly Jones are back together again. Lawrence Green has finally woken up.

Lover Man of the Week

He is 190 lbs. of sweetness. Yes, you've guessed correctly, it's Vic Clark. Dark brown hair and eyes, a dimple in his chin and an excellent taste for women justly characterize him. Gosh, he's sweet.

Hint List

To Charles Norman from J.A.C. . . . "Can't you forgive and forget?" To Stanley Davis from Ora Williams . . . "Lover come back to me" . . . To Willie Crawford from a certain little party. Am I "Just a Fool in Love" . . . To Debby Miles from the lonely hearts, "Wake Up Old Maid, Don't You Know You're Growing Old."

Lover Girl

Miss Jo Anne Jackson, with her sparkling personality, great big beautiful brown eyes, reddish brown hair and olive complexion, also weighing 138 lbs. with a darling little dimple is this week's lover gal.

"I want a real cute gal to love," says Robert Curry. Anybody that is interested please call CE. 2-4596.

WATTS FRIENDLY CORNER

Thelma Harper Berkley

We mourn the death of a dear friend and one who lived a beautiful life, in the passing of Mrs. Hazel Marie Ramsey, of 1733 E. 122nd street.

Hazel Ramsey was active in both community and church work, being helpful in the organization of one of the community churches. The King Solomon Baptist Church on Wilmington Ave., later moving her membership to the Union Baptist Church on 110th street, under the pastorate of Rev. M. Marshall, where she was an active member up to the time of her illness. She was also an artistic craft worker, her pieces of art stood out in beautiful array, and her ceramic objects were molded beauties including dainty pieces of needle work in crochet, portraying exquisiteness of her sense of beauty. She was also noted for her entertainment. I shall never forget the numerous dinner parties and luncheons I attended at her home and the feverish way she worked to see that each guest was happy and well entertained. It was at one of these luncheons that she showed me various pieces which she had completed.

Schmidt, Chairman C'mty Medic Center

Civic leader and attorney George R. Schmidt has accepted the chairmanship of Community Medical Center's $50,000 campaign, it was announced last week.

Schmidt, a member of the board of Volunteers of America, has long been active in local Community Chest and Boy Scout affairs.

The Center has served more than 9,000 people in the past three years—men, women and children who would otherwise go without any medical attention at all.

The funds will be used to provide a free and party-pay treatment to the needy, expand present outpatient facilities and open Los Angeles' first lowcost dental clinic at 5503 S. Broadway.

City Councilman Edward R. Boyball is campaign treasurer.

Compton College Notes

Well I'm back from another two-weeks vacation that I take so often. If I were a regular columnist I'm sure I'd have been fired, or shall we say released, about a million times. STOP, LOOK, LISTEN:

The Pyramid Pledge Club of the Delta Sigma Theta sorority will present their annual cabaret entitled "Gay Nifties of 1950" tomorrow night. They will take you back to the flapper days and there before your eyes leap over 50 years doing the Apple Jack, Huckle Buck, and everything else you can think of. Solo dances, chorus lines and feature numbers by the girls. The Andrews Sisters style will be one up by Pauline James, Audrey Burrell, and Cynthia Goodson.

The Alpha Gamma Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha sorority will remove the roof of the Allena Club when they present their "Backward Dance," to be presented soon. A bottle of Scotch and a quart of milk will be given to the person holding the right ticket stub. The tickets will be in the form of pink elephants and will probably be the decoration scheme.

Tickets may be purchased from members or pledges of the sorority. Cleopatra Johnson is General Dance Chairman for the whole affair and she will be assisted by Rubye Jackson, and Eleanor Rosemond. Better be there, you'll be missing something real great.

WHAT'S HAPPENING:

Vera Lee entertained guests at her home last Thursday night. Playing cards were Enul Woods, Louis Keyser, Major Smith, La Vera Porter, Ola Morrison, and Renee Hatcher, others prancing and dancing were Dolores Ivory, Millard Johnson, Harold Cowen, Edwin Starr, Toreesa Dennis and Adolphe Banks.

The Omega Phi Psi Pledge the Lampadas entertained Friday night.

Pledges seen working real hard were James Burnett, Ted Daniels, Mickey Krooms, Roosevelt Grisby, and the rest of the "Zars."

Dear Gang:

Easter Vacation is over. Better get busy and study cause before you know it, final examination time will be right upon you.

I know I've been missing for quite a longtime, but I'll try to do better.

The NAACP Youth Council sponsored a Youth program at the Victory BPT Church last Saturday, Sholmuir Green, editor of the Slayacs Journal represented this area. Thanks Sholmuir.

"GUARD YOUR EMOTIONS"

If you are one of the people who let their emotions control them, you have missed a great deal in life.

For instance, mothers whose children are their whole lives find themselves emotionally occupationless when the youngsters leave home. Some men retiring from business, literally pine away. I cannot think of a single case where complete concentration of emotional interest brought happiness. But can cite hundreds where it led the single-track individual to a dead-end crash.

Try new experiences, experiment in various ways and fields of endeavor, to make your life more interesting and worthwhile.

R. B. Dear Prof. Herman: I would like very much for you to help me with my problem. I have inquired several times, with no results, to secure aid for my children. Will I get help.

ANS. It is revealed to me that the Welfare Agency is investigating your claim for aid. After they have reviewed all the facts and ascertained your need for assistance, some arrangements may be made for help.

J. C. Where is he? Will he marry me? Will I be able to buy a home?

ANS. Only one question is answered in the column due to the limited amount of space. I do feel however, that he will contact you soon and explain the reason for his absence.

M-B. C. Please tell me who broke into my apartment.

ANS. I am of the opinion that a prowler, a stranger in your neighborhood, broke into your apartment. If you have not already done so, by all means report the matter to your local authorities. In the future, ask a neighbor to watch your apartment while you are working.

T. D. Where and what are the "Cyclades?"

ANS. The "Cyclades" are a group of about 220 islands of volcanic formation in the Aegean Sea, forming a department of Greece.

J.O. I am having a very grave problem and would like to write to you personally. Please state the procedure I should follow.

ANS. I will be more than happy to help you dear friend, and if you will send your three questions along with 25c to me in care of this paper, you will receive a prompt reply. Also send your complete name, address and birthdate.

himself. He enters only superficially into his own marriage and is hardly aware of the rich and warm friendliness of his young wife. He not only rejects all responsibility to his people and to society, but also becomes stupidly oblivious to everything other than the details of his professional life.

The college president who was his first boss—and who nursed and nurtured him—is, like Howden, an unscrupulous opportunist as a protest against his inter-racial parentage. Together they humiliate and compromise their darker Negro colleagues and employees, purely on a color basis, and yet scamp and stammer before their white associates. Howden, finally, is comfortably eased into actual political betrayal of the Negro community in the town where he has settled.

Literally and psychologically speaking, "Stranger And Alone" shows careful and convincing character development, supported by an interesting and well-described background. Thus it has the classical ingredients of a good novel.

Philosophically, speaking, the novel poses the question of national consciousness and responsibility. The inter-racial background of the hero is clearly not an excuse nor a justification for his betrayal. That is true because no one, including himself, considers him NOT a Negro. He merely escapes reality, weakens his character and commits countless little acts of "stool-pigeoning" until his final act of treason. Those who use and exploit him need only thinly disguise their disdain and contempt for him, and when he has served his purpose they will undoubtedly discard him together with the people whom he betrayed. He is a negative example of leadership in a political or national or racial minority, because he refuses to fight for self-determination, respect, and integrity.

Author J. Saunders Redding is a professor at Hampton Institute and therefore well acquainted with the Southern educational setup. He has authored two other books, contributed to several nationally circulated magazines. He has held a Guggenheim Fellowship and a state award for distinguished writing.

Church Hears Daniel Sawyer Sunday Morning

Daniel Vaughn Sawyer, district manager of the Universal Life Insurance, L. A. branch and forcible speaker will deliver the morning message at Avalon Christian Church, Sunday, April 16th, during the absence of the minister, Rev. Banter C. Duke. Mr. Sawyer, a graduate of Bishop College has been a resident here since August. For seven years, he was Agen's Supervisor for the State of Louisiana, with headquarters in New Orleans, La. He is married and father of two children.

"Walking With God" has been chosen as the subject by Mr. Sawyer and the public is invited. Services begin promptly at 11 a.m.

Baha'i World Faith

This, the Baha'i Vision is the subject to be discussed by Mrs. Isabel Downing in the lecture which she is scheduled to deliver at the public meeting of Baha'i World Faith to be held at their Los Angeles headquarters, 331 South New Hampshire avenue, on Sunday afternoon, April 16, at 3:30 o'clock.

For thousands of years men have had the vision of a great day when "they shall beat their swords into ploughshares," when "the earth shall be full of the knowledge of its Lord," when there will be real brotherhood, the kingdom of God on earth. "Thy kingdom come," was once a realistic and confident cry. Now that it has lost, or is losing its practical meaning, the astonishing announcement comes from Baha'u'llah, "This is the Day." He declares that the vision which we have preserved for so long is a true one, and the goal of history is now to be reached. That goal is world brotherhood, or World Order.

A Nursery and Toddler's Room where your babies and pre-school age children are attended free of charge on Sunday. Good preaching and good music. A community Center named in honor of the present minister, supported entirely by the church with no aid from the Community Chest.

This Center has a Day Nursery for pre-school age children to assist mothers who must work, a Home for Aged Women, a Recreational Building for all age groups, and a large surfaced playground, also two dormitories for Younger Women. And if that is not enough, up at Lake Elsinore, right on the lake at 1548 Graham Ave., the church owns a Beach House, recently beautifully renovated, capable of sleeping 26 persons at one time, and with sulphur baths just installed.

All of this is for the use and enjoyment of members of Second Baptist Church. The Community Center is open to everybody. Reservations for use of the Beach House may be made by churches, clubs, or individuals who are not members of the church by calling the church office.

Here is your church all set up with its properties now valued at a half-million dollars paid for. It is a church at peace and at work. If you have no "Church Home," you are hereby extended a most cordial invitation to cast your lot with us. We need more consecrated, generous, faithful, and loyal members to help us "carry on and expand this great work."

COMPTON GOD'S ACRE

Impressive sacred Easter Sunrise services were held in Compton's God's Acre which is otherwise known as Lincoln Memorial Park at 16701 S. Central Ave.

Starting shortly after 5 a.m., the sounding of trumpets of the Ben Bowie Post, American Legion's Bugle Corps under the directorship of Major Rutherford opened the services. Then the mighty choir of over 100 voices sang: "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today."

The Easter message was delivered by the Rev. L. L. White, pastor of Holman Methodist Church. Rev. M. Frederick Mitchell, Dr. G. W. Reed, Rev. R. L. McDonald and Rev. G. Albert Miller also participated in the devotional program.

AVALON CHRISTIAN CHURCH

On Easter morning at 6 a.m. the Avalon Christian Church, corner of 43rd and Avalon boulevard, presented an original spectacular panorama-drama of the life of Christ. The church was dark, and the scenes were illuminated by spotlights. Music for the occasion was furnished by the Capella and Gospel choirs of the church. The soloists were Ollie McDonald, Harvey Huggins who is director of the Capella Choir, and Beulah Terry who is known for her fine work at the Golden State Auditorium of recent date. There were some twenty-five or thirty actors who participated who came from the drama groups directed by Ollie McDonald and Zoro Donohoo. These were mostly high school pupils.

Sanitation Drive

"An intensive campaign to improve environmental sanitation is under way in the Southeast District," Dr. Konstantin Sparkuhl, Southeast District Health Officer, announced last week.

Golden State Mutual Submits Silver Anniversary Report

Celebrating its 25 years of operation, Golden State Mutual Life Insurance Company reports growth at the rate of more than $2 million a year in its silver anniversary statement to policyowners, released this week. The firm reported $50,598,002 life insurance in force on 160,529 policyowners at the close of 1949, as compared with $500,000 insurance in force in 1925, the year of its founding.

The 25th annual report showed $4,270,204.99 in assets, an increase of $433,133.08 over the 1948 figure. Assets in 1925 amounted to $17,800. Maintaining a record among Negro insurance concerns the company paid dividends on life policies to its members for the 21st consecutive year.

Another 1949 milestone was the firm's occupancy of its six-story home office at Western Avenue and Adams Boulevard last August. Thousands of persons from all parts of the United States have visited the building which has as one of its features the celebrated Woodruff-Alston murals on the history of Negroes in California. Tours are conducted daily from 2 to 4 p.m.

The new building will be headquarters for the meetings of the National Negro Insurance Association when Golden State Mutual serves as host for the Association's 30th annual convention July 18-22. Over 300 insurance executives and representatives from all over the country are expected to take part in the Los Angeles conference.

Operating in California, Illinois and Texas the company offers life, endowment, retirement income and sick and accident insurance plans to residents of these states.

BEAUTY HINTS

The sky is as blue for you as it is for me, it belongs to each of us—Sometimes we fail to look up and see the blue, and we hang our heads and imagine it is overcast, we do not enjoy its radiance, we think it is cloudy. We forget that even the clouds have a beauty all their own. The rain is refreshing and brings its own joy. And then, there is a real pleasure that comes when it storms, all nature is lovely. Above all, we should be happy that we are alive, that we are above the sod where grasses spring and flowers bloom. It's good to be alive, be glad of life. Just to be alive is glorious!

and anti-Jewish ridicule in advertising, motion pictures, and radio.

In a resolution directed to the Board of Education, the conference urged employment of teachers who are members of minority groups at schools in all neighborhoods; requested dismissal of Vice Principal Costello of Fremont High School for reported anti-Negro statements; and sought reconsideration of the proposed location of a grade school near 116th St. and Avalon.

The Board of Education has chosen a site east of Avalon, without sufficient space for adequate playgrounds or cafeteria. A larger site, west of Avalon, had been recommended by the Los Angeles Planning Commission.

Other resolutions called on local colleges and universities to remove the questions on race and religion from the application ment offices. The Board of Regents of the University of California was condemned for attempting to dictate the opinions of teachers by the "loyalty" oath; and the UCLA Student Executive Council was praised for attacking discrimination against Negroes in women's residence houses on campus.

In the panel on police brutality, Ted Weaver told the story of his cousin, Wesley Wells; and Ralph Cuaron, National Secretary of the Mexican-American National Association, described the fight spearheaded by his group against the arrest of 50 Mexican-Americans attending a baby shower two months ago.

Other cases discussed were the recent shooting of George Shenvair, first publicized by the California Eagle; and the victory in the Anderson Lark case. The officers who beat Lark and stole his money were discharged from the police force.

Police brutality in the San Joaquin Valley was described by Fred Holtzer, member of Hod Carriers and Laborers Local 330, who pointed out that in his area the big agricultural interests use police intimidation of minority agricultural workers to prevent them from organizing unions or demanding higher wages.

In the field of discrimination in employment, the conference urged Senator Scott Lucal to call up the FEPC bill before the Senate instead of Mundt-Ferguson, and called for passage of State Assembly Bill 63, the "Full Employment Construction Act," which provides a billion dollar bond issue for public works.

Morning chairman of the conference was Larry Alvarez, member of Local 2058, CIO Steel workers, and chairman for the afternoon was Betty McCandles. Senior sponsors were Dr. E. J. Robinson, president of Los Angeles NAACP, and Rabbi Jehu Cohon, Pacific Director, B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation.

Youth sponsors were Betty Baskin, Legislative Chairman, Young Men and Women's Division of American Jewish Congress; Sherill Luke, President of the UCLA Student Council; Dorothy Andrews, Scrooby Club, Western Knoll Congregational Church; Juanita Fuller, Regional Director, NAACP Youth and Student Councils; Ralph Cuaron, National Secretary, Mexican-American National Association; Ann Schwartz, President, Bill Bernstein Chapter, American Jewish Congress; Jim Garst, former editor, UCLA Daily Bruin; Ozie Boone, President, Los Angeles NAACP Youth Council; K. Wallace Longshore, Vice President, Southern District, National Student Association; Bob Lyons, Executive Board, Amalgamated Clothing Workers, CIO; Evelyn Fishler, President, Zangwill Chapter, American Jewish Congress; Rick Ratcliffe, President, UCLA NAACP Council; Jimmy Wilson, President, Long Beach NAACP Youth Council; Shalmir Green, South Los Angeles Young Adult Club; Roosevelt Counter, Youth leader, Peoples' Independent Church; Chuck Posner, Vice President, Hillel-USC; Earl Thomas, Hamilton Methodist Church; and Louis Gibbons, Steward, United Auto Workers, CIO.

An unannounced visitor to the conference was Atty. Vince Monroe Townsend, candidate for Congress in the Fourteenth District. Atty. Townsend expressed great interest in the youth conference, emphasizing the fact that young people often have more influence on the actions of their elders than either realize.

He stressed the importance, however, of a sound factual basis in dealing with civil rights cases. "My experience in doing the legal work on police brutality cases has convinced me that you must have all the facts at your command before you start to publicize one of these cases. If you know your case fully, you can put up the best possible fight on it," Atty. Townsend said.

Attorney General Fred N. Howser, in a statewide broadcast to the people of California, specifically named Warren Olney III and Drew Pearson, charging Olney with smearing state law enforcement officers, and describing Pearson as the "Champion rabble rouser of the United States," because they attacked his administration and por enforcement of the law.

Average cost of state, county, and city hospital long-term patient maintenance in the United States was only $549 per year, or $1.50 per day in 1947. Compare this with $5.00 per day for acute and recovering mental hospital patients, and an average $13 per day for ward patients in a general hospital.

IPP Birthday

Jack Berman, State executive vice-chairman, was master of ceremonies. Robert W. Kenny, candidate for State senator on the Democratic ticket, gave a short talk. Although Mr. Kenny has not crossed the IPP ticket, and cannot therefore be officially supported by the IPP, all members present pledged him their whole-hearted support.

"We can support him morally, if we cannot politically," they said, and promised to get as many Democrats to vote for him as they could.

The regular IPP candidates are: Secretary of State, Robert Welch, San Francisco; State Treasurer, Reuben Borough, Los Angeles; and State Controller, Mrs. Alia Washington, San Francisco.

Minna Linn and Shirley Grey entertained with several delightful songs, and Chris Ruiz, guitarist, played several selections of his own, and accompanied the singing of the birthday guests.

of his markanship the mayor said he wouldn't take back a single word. "Let the Council have a good time," he remarked gleefully.

The proposal for a borough form of government for Los Angeles is gaining wide support. Citizens who have found their councilmen unapproachable and uncooperative, feel that two few representatives are elected for too many citizens. They see decentralization in the new plan, and a more efficiently run city.

tory, the late Dr. Woodson dedicated most of his life to a crusade for the recognition of the rich history of the Negro people.

He founded Negro History Week which this year was celebrated in almost every state of the union and received official proclamation and observation in most of the nation's large communities.

Council May

Apartment House Association claimed the survey made it necessary for the Council to call an immediate public hearing on decontrol. The survey was submitted to the Council's Health and Welfare Committee, and Councilman Edward Roybal who was outspoken against the costly survey, and who is chairman of the committee, said he would "forget it."

Reportedly, some Council members will find it necessary to go along with the Apartment House Association, and it has been predicted that an attempt will be made to hold a public hearing and jam through decontrol.

Police White-Wash Indicated In Near-Fatal Shooting Case

Indications that the police department plans to white-wash the near-fatal shooting of George Shenvar, garage attendant at the Voltaire Apartments on Crescent Heights Drive, was given early this week when a delegation headed by Margie Robinson of the Civil Rights Congress visited chief Worton to demand an investigation of the shooting and suspension of the officers responsible.

Chief Worton produced two statements purportedly taken from Shenvar in the ambulance on the way to General Hospital and in the hospital later. Both were obtained during the time Shenvar was suffering great pain, and at a time when he had been told by doctors he was going to die.

In effect, the statements relate that the policemen, detectives Jerry Uhlik and William Muncres, did show their badges and identify themselves as policemen. It also points out that Shenvar did not believe them.

In a statement to a California Eagle reporter who visited him in the hospital, Shenvar said he ran when the detectives appeared because they were accompanied by Robert Thomas, the youth who had previously attacked him and 71 year old Milton Frankenthal (a tenant in the Voltaire Apartments) in the garage.

Shenvar further stated that three uniformed policemen had visited him earlier and questioned him about the attack. He told an Eagle reporter that he thought Thomas had returned with some friends to beat him up.

Chief Worton could not tell the delegation why Shenvar had been released from the prison ward in General Hospital following revelation of his arrest made by the California Eagle, nor could he explain why charges preferred against Shenvar by Thomas were hastily dropped.

The police chief indicated the police were within their rights

NOTES

HOLLYWOOD—Forced to take a bath fully dressed even to his familiar spectacles and cigar for a scene in RKO Radio's "It's Only Money," Groucho Marx climbed out of the billowing suds wearing a king-size scowl as well. "I'm so wet even my glasses have shrunk," he complained.

HOLLYWOOD—Women's clothes seem to have completed a cycle since the full skirts, tight bodices and flounces of the Gay Nineties. With slight alterations, a gown Jane Russell wore in "Montana Belle," to be distributed by RKO Radio, became one of the loveliest gowns in the star's personal wardrobe.

HOLLYWOOD—Over 140 Pasadena Junior College co-eds appear as candidates for the coveted Rose Queen role in Universal-International's "Peggy," the story of Pasadena's famed Tournament of Roses, starring Dianna Lynn, Charles Colburn, Charlotte Greenwood and Barbara Lawrence.

HOLLYWOOD—Yvonne De Carlo and Andrea King stage a slugfest as a dramatic highlight in Universal-International's technicolor "Buccaneer's Girl." The glamor gladiators were conditioned for their screen scrap by Frankie Van, studio physical education instructor and former amateur pugilist.

KITZINGEN, Germany — The Kitzingen Kavaliers, 1950 European Command basketball champions and the Kitzingen Koronets, EUCOM runners-up in the WAC-WAF play-offs, were honored at a colorful banquet at the Kitzingen Training Center following their triumphant return. Colonel Henry C. Newton, 1272 N. Flores St., Los Angeles, Calif., commanding officers of the training center, commended the two teams.

Police And Hoodlums Molest Pickets Fighting Bowling Ban

Complaints have been registered with the Wilshire police over the illegal actions of policemen in interfering with a picket line thrown around a bowling alley that refuses to permit Negroes to bowl. Police Captain Hayes was told by a delegation Monday night that not only did the police intimidate pickets by rousting and making threats, but that the police refused to act against hoodlums who hurled curses at the pickets and set up a racket with racing motors and screeching horns.

The commanding officer of the Wilshire police was told that police followed Simon and John Natory, two members of the picket line and subjected them to a rousting. One of the policemen took the light fuse from the youth's car and put it in his pocket. "I hope you get arrested for not having lights," he told the youths. When one of the young men produced a flashlight, the policeman took it from him and threw it into some weeds across the street.

"If I see you around here again, I'll break your neck," the policeman told the Natory brothers.

Irving Smith, a press photographer, was threatened by police and hoodlums when he went into the bowling alley. He was ordered out of the place by a policeman who later demanded to see his press credentials. "We give you these things and we can take them away from you," he said as he snatched Smith's press pass. Later, after making a phone call he returned Smith's pass.

Jack Palmer, manager of the alley, refused to give Smith a reservation for a bowling date, and hoodlums menaced Smith and another member of the picket line when they sought to leave.

Captain Hayes apologized for the conduct of the police, pointing out they are "young kids who are just out of the army and never had a job. They don't know any better." When told that hoodlums threatened to bring out the night riders next Saturday when the picket line will again go into action, Hayes promised police protection.

Members of the delegation were: Jack Burke of the California Union of Veterans, Joe Steinberg of the Westside IPP, Anne Shore of the Civil Rights Congress, Simon Matory of the NAACP Youth Council, Morris Goodman of the IWO, Marvin Faber of the Labor Youth League, Bunny Luks of the LYL, Gil Rivers of the Westside CRC and Harry Tanner.

Captain Hayes told the dele-

Broady Wins Self Defense Plea Again

On April 8, 1950, a group of men, including Jackie Bell Williams and Norman Jones, 33 years of age, were enjoying a friendly poker game. After a while, Williams became dealer in a game of "Spit," dealing himself three aces and Jones three Jacks. Spit is a variation of draw poker, and when the men drew a card apiece Jones caught the wild card, with the Spit card, gave him five Jacks. Williams failed to catch a wild card, and in the showdown had only four aces. The pot contained less than $2.00.

Jones' luck with the cards inflamed Williams to violence. He whipped out his knife and slashed at Jones' throat with the blade. Jones fled from the house to his car parked just outside, seized his gun from the rear seat, and felled the charging 205 pound Williams as he brandished the razor-sharp. Death was instantaneous.

Attorney Earl C. Broady, counsel for the defendant Norman Jones, again scored as "Self-defense Broady," when the Coroner's Jury found the slaying justifiable and the office of the District Attorney issued no complaint.

Freed in Poker Game Killing

SELF DEFENSE plea won freedom for Norman Jones, shown with his attorney Earl C. Broady, following a coroner's jury verdict. The district attorney did not issue a complaint in the case.

NEW YORK — Fabulous Bill Robinson, the Bojangles of 'capasetic' fame, the dancer whose happy feet entertained millions and earned millions, left an estate slightly over $3000 when he died recently.

The revelation that Robinson left an estate of $3150, approximately the amount he earned for a week's work, was made this week when letters of administration were issued to Elaine Dash Robinson, widow and sole heir.

For sixty years the world's leading tap-dancer, Robinson reputedly earned as high as $6600 dollars a week in Hollywood pictures. Known as a free spender with a charitable heart, the late dancer is suspected of having given away the greater part of the more than $2,000,000 he earned during his long career.

The estate does not include cash, but is made up of personal property estimated to be of the value set forth in the letter of administration.

RESIDENTS OF LOS ANGELES are fortunate in having an office that practices New Yorker Technique—a haven for those who suffer—where the cause of Toxic Poison may be removed—where relief of constipation—an elimination, may be obtained in 20 minutes.

NOTE: Toxic poisons cause practically all ills of mankind. When toxic poisons or that which causes disease is removed the result is so effective in producing quick results that the change experienced by the sufferer is hardly less marked than that felt by the prisoner when the ball and chain have been removed from his ankles. It has to be experienced to be properly understood and appreciated.

New Yorker Technique is a scientific method of bringing about a state of erosion to impactions and the slate-like fecal content of the large intestine. In simple language—it reduces solids to a state of solution, so that the contents may be passed by normal effort.

Dr. Brinkley D.C., has the only office that is permitted to practice New Yorker Technique. He has no branch offices.

DR. BRINKLEY HAS A STAFF OF MORE THAN 120 PEOPLE, 18 LICENSED DOCTORS AND MORE THAN 60 SPECIALLY TRAINED NURSES AND TECHNICIANS. He has his own private laboratory and complete laboratory facilities, the finest equipment—30 private treatment rooms. IT IS THE LARGEST INSTITUTION OF ITS KIND IN THE ENTIRE WORLD—NO EXCEPTIONS.

This notable organization is outstanding—without equal—and must be seen to be appreciated.

Dr. Brinkley says: To protect the sick against the wrong diagnosis, it is my belief that no doctor should diagnose or treat any illness without and until certain scientific laboratory tests are made. In all cases tests should include complete blood count, urinalysis, microscopic examination and study of stool. If diabetes is suspected a fasting blood sugar test should be given; for liver disorders—various liver functional test given; for infectious diseases—sedimentation rate given; plus other laboratory procedures.

ALL OF MY PATIENTS, UNDER TREATMENT, GET LABORATORY TESTS AT NO EXTRA CHARGE. I will enjoy explaining New Yorker Technique to you without obligation, 8 A.M. to 8 P.M. For my trial treatment I charge $3, which includes various laboratory tests.

Call or write for FREE 120 page book. This book is outstanding. It is a most comprehensive explanation of the true cause of disease. Book will be sent by mail—no salesman—no phone calls—no obligation. No follow-up letters.

By C.A.B.

Truly Africa is fighting for freedom. After reading a 15-page pamphlet by Alphaeus Hutton, published in New York, entitled "Africa Fights for Freedom," my schedule brought me up to the time to hasten to the Second Baptist Church, where the first of a series of lectures on Africa was being delivered by a local but eminent Baptist clergyman, Dr. J. Raymond Henderson, who has but recently returned from a trip across part of West Africa.

The plane flight from New York to Nigeria, as described by the Second Baptist Church pastor, was not without its thrills, apprehensions, and perhaps—

But these were minor incidents. In the African delegation there were 56 clergymen of the Baptist faith, the largest body in Baptist church history to compose and undertake such a mission. The ministers in the delegation came from all sections of the United States. They were sent by the National Baptist Convention, Inc., to inspect church supported mission schools in West Africa.

This mission to Africa was a fine gesture of interest in the affairs of Africa by a church organization, as they affect the future of the African people.

Dr. Henderson pointed out that their first stop after leaving New York was Lagos, chief city and capital of Nigeria.

Nigeria, according to Dr. Henderson, is making great strides educationally and there is an atmosphere of independence on the part of the natives which bears out this statement quoted from Alphaeus Hutton's "Africa Fights for Freedom."

"At the head of the Nigerian Liberation movement is the National Council of Nigeria and the Cameroons, led by Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe or Zik as he is popularly known throughout West Africa. Organized in 1943, the N. C. M. C. today represents a broad coalition of about 200 political parties, trade unions, professional and business associations, peasants, youth and cultural organizations. The N. C. M. C. has taken a much stronger stand against continued British rule than older organizations in the country, such as the Nigerian National Democratic Party and the Nigerian Youth Movement."

Passing from this scene the delegation of ministers journeyed from Lagos by auto, which was described as a rugged trip, in a British manufactured Austin automobile to the mission school some four hundred miles from the city. Upon their approach to the school they were met by a band of students who lined the pathway with flowers while the band played a heart-warming welcome.

After the visit and inspection of the mission school the delegation returned to Lagos, and were soon on their way to the Gold Coast, Sierra Leone, and finally Liberia where they touched many points of greater interest, particularly the Gold Coast University which rests its pillars on a hilltop five miles in width and five miles in length.

"We were fortunate in reaching the Gold Coast when the Legislature was in session," Dr. Henderson said, "and had the opportunity of seeing native chiefs arrayed in their flowing,

NAACP Challenges Segregation Before U. S. Supreme Court

WASHINGTON — A blistering attack on the 54-year-old "separate but equal" segregation doctrine was made recently before the United States Supreme Court, as attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People were joined by the Attorney-General and Solicitor-General of the United States in asking the high tribunal to declare that racial segregation in itself constitutes discrimination and is unconstitutional.

The arguments, made before a jam-packed courtroom, were presented in two precedent-shattering cases involving segregation in higher education and a third involving segregation in railway dining cars.

Seek Extradition Refusal For Southern Chain Gang Fugitive

Governor Warren will be asked Thursday to deny extradition of Eugene Beckstron, also known as Nathan Scott to Marshall County, Mississippi to serve a life sentence for a crime he did not commit and of which he knows nothing. A board delegation of community organizations and leaders will tell the governor that in the light of the recent Middlebrooks decision handed down by Federal Judge Carter pointing out that justice for a Negro escape in the South is not possible, he can grant the denial and not make it necessary for Beckstron to fight his case in the courts.

Beckstron was first arrested in Marshall County in 1929 with another man for breaking into a store and stealing groceries because they were both hungry. Beckstron confessed and was sentenced to seven years. He escaped with another prisoner named Albritton. During their period of freedom Albritton stole eight dollars. Beckstron did not know anything about this theft, and he was not with Albritton when it occurred.

Nevertheless, Albritton implicated him and Beckstron was beaten and tortured until he confessed. He was sentenced to life imprisonment following a trial in which he was not represented.

Rev. And Mrs. Troy Will Write Travel Impressions For Eagle

Returning from a 10,000-mile trip which carried them from California to Mexico, Cuba, Haiti and Jamaica, Rev. and Mrs. Owen A. Troy will give their observations and impressions of their tour of these lands to the readers of the California Eagle beginning in next week's issue.

Rev. Troy, western representative of the Seventh Day Adventist denomination with oversight of the work among the colored American churches in California, Arizona, Nevada and Utah, and with offices in Glendale, went to the Caribbean to make first-hand observations of what is being done by and for these peoples of the West Indies.

Since 98% of the people of Jamaica are of Negro or East Indian descent and the inhabitants of the Republic of Haiti are about 9% of African descent, it naturally follows that the activities of these countries revolve around and involve peoples of great interest to readers of the Eagle.

The initial article, "The Magic Isle of Haiti," will present the impressions that first-time visitors have when landing there for their first tour of the country.

Pictures of Trip to Be Shown
This Saturday evening, 8 p.m., Rev. Troy will show colored pictures of his trip at the Los Angeles Academy auditorium, 846 East El Segundo Blvd., Los Angeles. This picture travelogue, presented under the auspices of succeeded in having the charges against the youth reduced from statutory rape to one of contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

The girl, whose name is withheld because of her age, was discovered last Sunday morning on the porch of her home. She was unconscious, and it was later determined that she had been plied with liquor and wine, then drugged. There was evidence that she had been sexually molested.

Persons who attended a party where the girl had been a guest said she left the party in the company of a married man and three or four youths. Young Mills did not attend the party and was not in the girl's company that evening. His mother was confined to bed with illness, and his father had business away from home, so the youth remained at home to take care of his mother.

Neighbors who visited Mrs. Mills are prepared to testify that Billie Gene was at home when they called. The boy's mother told a California Eagle reporter that pictures of the married man with whom the girl reportedly left the party were given to the police. He was shown hugging and fondling the girl in several poses. Despite this, the police have failed to arrest him.

Reportedly the police said the girl named ten or twelve boys with whom she had indulged in sexual acts. Billie Gene Mills name was mentioned by the girl when she regained consciousness. Later she recanted and denied that she had ever had relations with him. Of the twelve youths named, young Mills is the only one arrested by police.

gowns, gaily decorated, with some made of leopard skins. "The legislative body is composed of native chiefs and Brit- ishers. We were cordially greet- ed and extended due courtesies by the lawmakers.

"Our order was dampened, however, when we attended two churches in Freetown, Sierra Le- one, one an Anglican, the other a Free Methodist. Even though we descended in a body in re- ligious dignity, the native priests ignored our presence, not giving us even a passing glance. When the service ended, we almost ran after them for a word of greet- ing, but with a shrug of the shoulder while leaning heavily on the arm of a British fellow traveler, these ministers of Chris- tian churches completely ignored our effort to make friends."

"And this brings us to the fo- cal point of concern," observed the minister. "When foreigners are around the British watchdogs who are determined to keep Af- ricans in subjection to British rule, and slaves in their own land and country, never expose the natives to any outside influ- ence that may perhaps awaken greater interest in the world struggle for freedom and peace that has already taken root in Africa."

And again I quote from Mr. Hutton: "The African people are on the side of democracy and world peace. They, together with the Viet-Namense, Malaysians, and other colonial peoples, are in the front line of battle — in actual physical combat — with the imperialists.

"The colonial people's resist- ance is at the very core of the present world struggle. Without Africa's bases, resources, and manpower at their disposal, the American-Western European im- perialists are doomed.

"Here in America, too, the Ne- gro people's struggle for full equality and democracy is at the core of the fight against Ameri- can Fascism. The fight of black Americans for their rights is the Achilles' heel of American sup- porters of reaction throughout the world.

"Thus are the struggles of the 180 million Africans and the fif- teen million black Americans closely linked. To allow these front lines of the war against imperialism to be breached and broken is unthinkable: to strengthen them is to guarantee the successful building of a new world order of peace, friendship and equality among all peoples."

Phone Rates Uped

The Pacific Telephone & Tele- graph Company has applied to the California Public Utilities Commission for increases and ad- justments in certain telephone rates throughout the state, it was announced this week by the company.

"The application for the Los Angeles exchange calls for an increase in the business service charges of $1.25, in residence service from 75c to $1.00. Other changes proposed under the plan include an increase in the coin- box rate from five to ten cents.

to change, he got out of his car and wiped his windshield. When the light changed, McLain turned right and was proceeding west on Vernon when he heard a police siren.

He pulled to the curb and a police car stopped beside him. He was ordered from his car and asked if he had not heard the policemen when they blew their horn. McLain said he had not since his windows were closed. One of the police men asked if he had been drinking. McLain answered that he had not, and identified himself as a bail bondsman on his way home.

The policemen conferred to- gether for a few minutes, and McLain heard one of them say "let's book this s... for drunk driving." The policemen then proceeded to put McLain through a series of tests to determine whether or not he was drunk. They burlesqued his successful action in taking the tests, and one of the policemen ordered him to repeat a childish tongue- twister. McLain demurred, and mindful of his position in the community and the impression that was being created in the minds of the people in the crowd that had gathered, he insisted that he be arrested.

The policemen swore at him and insulted him when he sought to remove his bail bonds and a pool cue stick from his car. At Lincoln Heights, where he was booked, McLain emptied his pockets according to police customs. He was told to take off a ring he was wearing, and he answered that it would not come off. One of the policemen tried to remove the ring, and failed to do so. McLain was told that this was done to prevent his losing the ring, but since it was on so tightly it could not be lost.

However, one of the police- men cursed McLain and again ordered him to remove the ring. McLain demonstrated that it was on too tight to come off. Swearing, the police- man advanced toward McLain saying he'd get it off. He grab- bed the bail bondsman's arm, and McLain raised his free arm to defend himself. He was of the policemen choked him beaten to the floor where one into unconsciousness. Five hours later he regained con- sciousness in Pasadena Receiv- ing Hospital.

Not only is the league the parent body of virtually every national Negro organization and move- ment launched during the first half of the 20th Century but its leaders have played important parts in the total advancement of the Negro race in America.

NAACP Kick-Off Drive Inspired By Postmaster Fanning Speech

More than 500 campaign workers and NAACP members heard Postmaster Michael D. Fanning kick off the 1950 Mem- bership Campaign of the Los An- geles branch at Second Baptist Church Sunday afternoon.

Introduced by Henry L. Ches- ter, president of the Postal Al- liance, Mr. Fanning gave a short descriptive exposition setting forth the NAACP as an organi- zation working hard and effec- tively to make our country truly democratic.

Fanning stated that the up- grading of postal employees on personal efficiency rather than racial basis does more to influ- ence others to do likewise than many lectures on the subject might have done. He said al- ready he gets inquiries from other postmasters and local oc- cerns asking his advice on inte- gration of races. He said he con- sidered the work that he is doing an integrated part of what the NAACP is doing over the nation.

Chris Scott Elevated

Describing several of the top positions attained by Negroes during his administration, he de- clared "Tomorrow morning Chris Scott will become Assistant Su- perintendent in the Money Or- der Department, highest office held in the postal service by one of his race."

Excellent musical numbers were rendered by Mrs. Lois La Fevere and Miss Ella Ruth Rey- nolds, contraltos. The Dave Wes- ton Singers and J. Raymond Henderson, Jr., organist.

Following the meeting many availed themselves of NAACP campaign kits in answer to Post- master Fanning's challenge to make this the greatest campaign ever undertaken by the local branch.

The goal set in the NAACP Membership Campaign is 20,000 members and $40,000. Persons de- siring to work in the campaign are urged to call at Campaign Headquarters, 4263 South Cen- tral Avenue or telephone ADams 1-8192 for information on how to get material. The campaign is scheduled to close May 15.

Public Opinion Vs. Russia

It is getting to be a habit among the American people to measure everything we, those people, say and do in terms of what Russia might think of us. How it would affect our attitude on Communism in the eyes of the world.

A healthy respect for public opinion is very often an effective deterrent upon the conduct of persons who otherwise might not be able fully to control their actions. "What will people say?" has kept more than one person in the straight and narrow path of moral rectitude.

Is it keeping us in line in regards to what Russia, the Communists, think of us? We shy away from discussing our crop-sharing in the South. Whenever we hear of racial discrimination, we hastily cover it up as much as we can, for fear Russia will see and criticize. What will Russia say? Have we given a handle to the Communists to attack our system? Won't they laugh at us when they read of some of our antics?

The latest escapade upon which Russia seems to have poured out its spotlight of publicity—or that we fear she might do so—is that of Senator McCarthy and his attacks upon the State Department, saying there are hundreds of "Commies" hiding there. From Pres. Truman on down everyone in public and private life who declares he is opposed to Communism, has shrunk back at what he fears Russia may think of McCarthy. Said Harold L. Ickes, the "Old Curmudgeon" of Franklin D. Roosevelt's administration, "Senator McCarthy's useful services to the Communists should be especially appreciated by them because he is serving as a volunteer. This makes his recent performance all the more notable. He is not even being paid by the Politburo for his blatherskite assistance."

Well, of course, anyone except a rockbound reactionary could find the McCarthy performances a source of amusement. And of course one could expect the Communists and the Russians to laugh themselves almost sick not only at Senator McCarthy, but at our nervous attempts to keep him and his escapades out of the view of Russia. What will Russia say? What will the Communists think?

If we're so afraid of the public opinion of Russia and the Communists, we should keep our skirts clean, not only in the State Department, but also in our domestic relations—in providing jobs, in securing homes for all, in abolishing discrimination, segregation, in granting education for all—in short, in

Young People on "Civil Rights"

The California Federation of Young Democrats, which under that imposing title gathers in all members of all groups, and especially of the minority groups, with a wisdom that would credit to older heads, says that the "potentiality for party leadership" is found among the minorities. "For it has learned that the best watchdogs for civil rights are men who have experienced civil wrongs."

Here are excerpts along the same line on "Civil Rights," an editorial by a young member of the staff who signs himself E.D.L.

Most doctrine on civil rights is addressed to the unoppressed majority. With some reason: If the majority is either intelligent or decent, it will do right by the minorities. But the majority is not aggressively decent, or intelligent. Not aggressively. If it were, civil rights would be a fact, not an issue.

When something is done for civil rights in California, it will not be because the bulk of the unoppressed are crusaders, but because the minorities are doing a job.

The minorities have to carry the ball. Some people will help them. A majority will acquiesce. That's all.

That's enough. The minorities of California can have every public justice they ask for if they will quit asking, and use the action available.

Don't send a letter to Congress. Send a congressman to Congress. Send a congressman who hates discrimination in covenants, employment, insurance, immigration, citizenship, and people.

If you can find such a congressman.

You can. But not by waiting for nice people to provide him. You help find him, you help get him nominated, you help get him elected. In California you can do that. But you don't do much.

Say you are a standard Negro, Armenian, Oklahoma, Jew, Nisei, Filipino, Mexican, Chinese. Do you know why you don't have civil justice? Because you don't want civil justice. You want to steal into respectability. You want to lie low. Or you want to be a Republican. Like the best people. Like Governor Warren.

It won't work, of course, unless you're in a position to deny your parents. Your respectable associates will sell you down the river. Do you recall what happened to the proper and conservative Jews in Germany? Germany nothing. Do you recall what happened to the proper and making our American way of life so rich in opportunity for everyone that we need not fear to hold it up to the view of all the world.

conservative Nisei in California? Down the river.

It's the race-baiters that do it. The majority does not approve. It protests a little. But that's all.

Now, passive as they are, the nice people are important. FEPC is not like prohibition. It is not legislating morals. The majority liked a drink. You couldn't legislate them out of the notion. The majority does not like race-baiters. It permits injustice, but it does not approve of injustice. Civil rights is one of the few clean-cut, right-and-wrong issues in politics, and people know it. So, when FEPC gets on the books, as in New York, it works.

But the majority will not put it on the books for you. Nobody will, for you. A party will, with you. Quid pro quo. You help with my baby, I'll help with your baby. This is not an offer. It's a fact. For its own good and proper reasons, the Democratic Party is for civil rights.

Maybe you say you aren't made to feel welcome in political councils. Good. Why should you be made to feel welcome? Do you think labor feels welcome? (Their votes are.) Do you think politicians feel welcome? (Their work is.) What do you think politics is, a welcoming committee? Your support will be welcome. For largely a party is a great pooling of interests and strengths. Show your strength and the party will regard your interests.

Don't ask anyone to give you civil rights. To ask isn't dignified, it isn't democratic, and it won't work. Earn civil rights.

Here's one way. Show up at a candidate's club, or a Young Democrats' club (if you don't find one, write them at 214 Cambridge, Fresno.) Line up half a dozen friends. Offer to work half a dozen precincts. You'll be welcome, and you'll be taught the work. No Democratic club, and no Democratic candidate, is going to sneeze at half a dozen precincts, especially the kind of precincts you have to live in: Those are poor men's precincts—Democratic precincts. When they get off the dime and vote, Democrats win. When they don't—which is predicted to be this year—Democrats lose. That's your hold on a party. The Democrats need you bad.

You'll be welcome anyway. The Democratic Party and the Young Democrats have the beginning of a good record on civil rights. They have some leaders for whom civil rights go beyond vote-getting.

There was a time when almost all the people of this country were second-class citizens. Do you know how they became first-class? First they asked. Then they worked. You've been asking. Now work. —E.D.L.

A Guide to the Soviet

By WILLIAM MANDELL

The Ukraine described above is the product of thousand years of historical development, including 700 as a well-defined nation. The beginning of Ukrainian history coincides with that of the other East Slavic nations—the Russians and Belorussians. However, it is interesting to note that this beginning took place on the territory of what is now the Ukraine. In the 9th century a government came into being at Kiev, "the mother of Russian cities," and today the Ukrainian capital. It was called Kiev-Russ. In the 12th century it became divided into a dozen separate principalities, out of which three modern nations developed. These principalities maintained close relations based upon their unity of origin and religion (Greek Orthodox Christianity) as well as upon the dynastic relations among them.

During the 12th and 13th centuries, the Ukrainian nationality crystallized in the principalities of Kiev, Galicia-Volhynia, Central Galich, and later Lvov and Chernigov. The Tartars overran the Ukraine in the 13th century as they did Russia, but the struggle against them during their invasion served to crystallize the Ukrainians into a fully defined nation. This is demonstrated by the fact that the Trans-Carpathian Ukraine (Ruthenia), taken by Hungary in the first quarter of the 14th century, remained separated from most of the rest of the Ukraine for six centuries thereafter until 1945, and yet retained the native language and customs with very little differentiation from the main body of the Ukrainian people. Likewise, Bukovina, under Turkish domination from about the same time, and later, with Trans-Carpathia, part of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, also retained the national characteristics virtually unchanged. This occurred despite the Austro-Hungarian policy of Germanizing and Polonizing the people. This policy was a chief cause of the large-scale Ukrainian immigration to the United States and Canada during the past century.

Although the Ukrainians also fought Turkey and Russia, the main object of their struggle for independence was Poland. This battle lasted from the 15th to the 18th centuries. It reached its height after Poland succeeded in conquering most of the Ukraine early in the 17th century, and ended with the partition of Poland at about the same time as the American Revolution. For the Ukrainians at least, the partition had the positive effect of uniting most of this people under a single government, that of Russia. Although the Ukrainians came to hate Tsarist oppression, this union was not unwelcome at the time it occurred. As a matter of fact, the greatest Ukrainian military leader, Hetman Bogdan Khmelnytsky, who organized a bitter war against the Poles in 1648, felt that the best solution for the Ukraine was to unite with Russia, and in 1654 he brought it into the Empire. The Ukrainians, incidentally, had organized their own form of republic, the Cossack Sech, and the Hetman was an elected ruler.

The Ukrainians soon found, however, that unity under the Tsar meant denial of their nationality, and Russification for the benefit first of the Russian nobility, and, later, of Russian and foreign entrepreneurs exploiting the mineral riches of the Donbass. Nevertheless, the Ukrainians preferred their co-religionist Russians to any other master—if master there had to be.

Thus, Peter the Great owed his victory over Charles XII of Sweden at Poltava in the Ukraine in 1709 to the refusal of the Ukrainians to follow their Hetman, Mazeppa, who went over to the invading Swedes.

However, within the empire the Ukrainians struggled for equality and personal freedom. Shevchenko typified that struggle. He was born a serf in 1814, his early youth was spent in backbreaking toil on the land. His freedom was bought by liberal intellectuals who recognized his immense literary and artistic talents. However, he refused to be content with the simple fact that he personally was no longer the property of another, and turned his ability against Tsarist feudalism in general and the oppression of the Ukraine in particular. As a result he was drafted into the army as punishment and assigned to the then barren southern Ural for ten years, and his sufferings brought his life to an end after his discharge. He died at the age of 47.

Tsarist oppression showed itself in many ways. The forms of feudal land relationships in the Ukraine were more backward and oppressive than in most of Russia proper. Schools, where there were any, were taught in Russian. The description of a single village speaks for all. In 1905, in the village of Velikaya Dymarka, Kiev Region, the education inspector reported after a visit to the school: "113 pupils in all; only six are girls. Three teachers; one a teacher of Scriptures." A year later the same inspector reported that the number of pupils had fallen to 82 and that only two of them were hoping to continue to graduation. In 1940 the same school in Dymarka was a high school with 700 students and 23 teachers. There were physics, chemistry and biology laboratories and a good library.

World War I was, in a way, a repetition of the Swedish invasion two centuries earlier. The ousting of the Esarat Petrograd made possible the establishment again of a Ukrainian government. However, when the Kerensky regime in the capital was replaced by the Bolsheviks, the landed and merchant element who headed the Ukrainian government sought the protection of their property rights in subordination to the Germans. They won this in exchange for serving as the Germans' quiescent middlemen in plundering huge quantities of produce from the people. As their forbears had renounced Mazeppa in 1709, so did the workers of the Donbass and the peasantry reject the Rada, as the collaborationist government called itself, in 1918. They did this the more readily because the Soviets did not follow the Tsarist precedent of saying that protection from foreign invaders could be bought only by subordination again to the Russian cousin.

On December 25, 1917, the First All-Ukrainian Congress of Soviets in Kharkov proclaimed the establishment of the Ukrainian Soviet Republic. A constitution was adopted on March 10, 1919, under which the Ukraine undertook not only independence in internal affairs, but the maintenance of her own foreign relations and armed forces, including the declaration of war and peace. This independence was recognized as bona fide by much of the outside world for from 1919 to 1923 the Soviet Ukraine had her own diplomatic representatives in Great Britain, Poland, Italy, Austria, Czechoslovakia, Estonia, Latvia, and Bulgaria, and concluded treaties

GOVERNMENT INSPECTED CATTLE

The shadow of totalitarianism grows shorter and broader. It is more definite, and embraces where previously it merely threatened. For the first time, it becomes clear that there is a determined purpose in the strange affinity between the CIO and the government secret police. Masking their true objective with a melodramatic hunt for Russian sympathizers, the CIO and the FBI are united in a plan to select and herd government workers like cattle.

JOHN M. LEE

Cooperative Phil Murray and his lieutenants were operating on cue when they cast off the public workers and office workers unions. This was an assist with a double objective. The government, notorious exploiter of employees, has never felt comfortable with public workers and office employees unions breathing down its neck. Patriotic Phil Murray eased this situation by throwing the unions out of the CIO, and ordering his regional henchmen to help government agents prepare dossiers on their members.

Right in your own community CIO officials, acting as spies on labor, are feeding fact, half-fact and gossip to government investigators who are supposedly gathering information on workers against the day they apply for government employment. Neither the secret police nor the super-patriotic labor betrayers are bothered by the fact that only a small fraction of the thousands of workers being spied on would ever apply for government employment.

Millions of trade unionists are placed in the position of financing a colossal invasion of their civil rights. The dues sweated out of dwindling take-home pay checks are being used to underwrite a government-inspired master plan for control of the political thinking and rank and file action of organized workers.

The government, like most of the big industrial employers, has in mind a docile, politically-obedient type of employee. The CIO under the leadership of Phil Murray is committed to provide this specified type. Stool pigeons in the shops and in offices keep their ears peeled for every jot of information that can be passed on to the big shots who operate the regional spy headquarters.

Started as retaliation by President Truman against certain unions that failed to support him in his last campaign, the great union purge has developed into a brazen sell-out on the part of CIO leadership. The Truman administration and the pro-Truman CIO leadership are the forces which determine what is permissible and what is forbidden political action.

Translated into current frenzied war-mongering terms, a philosophy of peace, jobs and security becomes pro-Russian propaganda. Because of this, the scheme of herding workers will not be confined to government employment alone. In the preparation for war, and in the presence of war, every process of labor and manufacture becomes a matter of national security.

This nation is preparing for war. The peculiar logic which persuaded Murray to expose CIO members to government spying will compel him to take the next step and turn over records on union members to private employers. Perhaps this is already being done. Certainly this was done in Los Angeles when CIO raiders made an abortive attempt to take over a social service employees local.

With government permission, the CIO will shortly launch a drive to enlist public and office workers in a union with the correct (Truman) political slant. The members will be selected carefully, and only the meek and submissive who will not object to company unionism will be recruited. Building such a union will take a great deal of discrimination, but this should not prove difficult for the CIO, since that organization has been able to practice wanton discrimination against Negro and other minority workers while proclaiming for equality and democracy.

There will be some who will welcome a chance to affiliate with the new police-approved union, but there will be more who will object to being inspected by government agents in order to belong to a union. Under present leadership, the CIO is rapidly becoming a dangerous enemy of free labor organization.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

U. S. NAVY RECRUITING STATION

Los Angeles, California

Editor of the California Eagle News

Dear Mrs. Charlotta A. Bass:

On behalf of the U. S. Navy Recruiting Service, I wish to extend our sincere gratitude for your cooperation in printing the Navy Recruiting press releases that were recently delivered to your paper.

The press releases have done much to help us in our efforts toward "filling the fleet" as evidenced by the increased number of applicants from your part of the city.

Again may I say, thank you.

Sincerely yours,
THOMAS WICKS

(The following is a letter sent to Senator Ferguson, which the writer has kindly given the EAGLE permission to use.)

Dear Senator Ferguson:

I heard your voice over the radio last night in debate with Senator Kilgore, and it may interest you to have my impressions. In these days when we have depended on force and more force, only to find our dependence too dangerous to use, ordinary people become afraid, suspicious, hysterical; but if our leaders get that way too, we are rudderless.

H. G. Wells in his Outlines of History says that the papacy in the middle ages, by resorting to force in their effort to control men's thinking, effected the decline of the Roman Catholic Church. The men at the head of the church were too small for the great ideals of brotherhood and forgiveness taught by Jesus. Might it not be similarly true that the men at the head of the Russian government are too small for the ideals of Communism?

And may it not be sadly true that some of our leaders are too small for our Democracy, balked at giving the Negro his rights, afraid to tackle the Klan, using un-American methods in Congressional investigations, and spreading fear and suspicion?

If you can obtain a recording of last night's debate, please (Continued on Page 9)

By CYRIL BRIGGS

The tremendous sweep and power of the liberation movement in the French West African territories can be judged both by the hysterical attacks on its top leadership by the French colonial authorities and by the massive protest movement evoked by the arrest of the leaders of the African Democratic Union, which heads the freedom movement in this part of Africa.

Organized in the fall of 1946, the African Democratic Union today leads an anti-imperialist movement one million strong in actual membership. It is further buttressed by several million sympathizers. Its affiliated organizations represent practically every strata of the population: organized labor, the peasantry, professional and business associations, youth and cultural organizations, etc.

"By their blindness to general oppression and misery, the colonial forces have created the basis of unity for the liberation drive to free our country," points out Gabriel d'Arboussier, general secretary of the Union. "That is why our anti-imperialist movement has developed so rapidly that it now contains over a million actual members and several million sympathizers."

The Union functions in an immense area, 15 times that of France, with a population of 24 million people. Three simple principles underlie the activities of the anti-imperialist movement, according to d'Arboussier:

• The struggle for freedom from the colonial yoke—politically, economically, socially and culturally.

• Unity of all Africans, regardless of origin, social condition, religious or ideological beliefs, in the struggle against colonialism.

• Alliance of the liberation movement with all anti-imperialistic forces of the entire world; and especially with the French working people, "who are burdened as we are by the oppression and exploitation of imperialism."

Look to U. S. Negro, Too

In French West Africa as in other parts of the huge embattled continent most Africans recognize the strategic position of the American Negro, situated as he is at the very heart of the world's greatest imperialist power. They remember the important part the Irish-Americans played in the fight for a free Ireland, successfully influencing U. S.-British relations; the more recent but equally significant role of America's Jewry in backing the new state of Israel, exerting pressure on Washington, with partial success at least, to reverse State Department support of Arab feudalism.

African leaders have been watching with growing concern Washington's moves to take over from the crumbling British empire the "white man's burden" of keeping non-white peoples in colonial subjection. They saw how Washington aided the Dutch against the people of Indonesia. They see Washington giving aid to the French in Viet Nam, extending recognition to the French puppet regime of Bao Dai, while denouncing the independent Viet Nam government of Ho Chi Minh. They noted Washington's shameful colonial strutting in sending two warships and the aircraft carrier Boxer to Viet Nam on March 19, while U. S. war planes roared over Viet Nam towns and countryside in an attempt to intimidate the people, force down their throats the unpopular Bao Dai and his hated French masters.

It is the hope of African liberation leaders that their kinsmen in the U. S. will take a lead out of the books of America's Irish and Jewish citizens, and make their weight felt in U. S. foreign and colonial policies.

REPUBLICAN DOCTRINE

(Taken from "This Nation under God" by Senator Elbert Thomas, (published recently).)

"There are four predominant tenets of the conservative doctrine. One is the so-called 'American System,' which firmly believes in the inequality of men, and the inevitability of insecurity in life and of large numbers of poor people.

Such quotations as 'The poor ye always have with you,' and 'The Lord must have loved the poor people, because he made so many of them,' serve to bolster this tenet.

"The second is (and some consider this a contradiction of the first) that this is a land of opportunity for all, in which everyone by the exercise of his energy can achieve success; and that poverty is due to personal laziness and general worthlessness. This tenet includes the thought, so well expressed by Lord Macaulay, that the poor or common people are unreliable and need to be ruled by their betters.

"The third is that any form of co-operative endeavor by the people to achieve mutual security destroys human incentive, which is built on fear; and also ruins character, which is based on self-dependence rather than on mutual reliance.

"The fourth is that any form of co-operative endeavor in which the government is used as an instrument destroys individual liberties and fundamental freedoms, because it imposes regimentation of the people, and reposes authority in bureaucrats whose decisions are based on self-seeking motives, rather than retaining authority in bankers, magnates and others, whose motives are necessarily more unselfish."

This is a splendid description of Republican philosophy. It pinpoints the contrast between the Republican Party and the Democratic Party, which believes in the people and which believes that the opportunity for economic security does NOT weaken the character nor dull the energy and self-reliance of the American people.

Formal announcement of the candidacy of O. R. Angelillo for the nomination for Governor of California was made last week by Leo Welch of Visalia, who reported that Angelillo had filed on both party tickets in keeping with the prevailing practice in California.

Joseph P. McCarthy, who became a candidate for the office of Sheriff, brings to the voters of Los Angeles County a long and brilliant record in the profession of law enforcement. Among many achievements he actively participated in wiping out the Dillinger, Baby Face Nelson, Karpis and Barker gangs among others.

Ernest Debs, councilman from the 13th Councilmanic District, announces his candidacy for the State Board of Equalization with the slogan "A Democrat for Decency." He pledges the protection of the rights of all minority groups, and to fight to put a stop to juvenile delinquency.

A telegram sent by the San Pedro branch IPP, following a meeting honoring Mrs. Paul Robeson, to Senator Sheridan Downey, was answered by his secretary.

"Regret Senator Downey's illness prevents his immediate attention your wire. Will be placed before him first opportunity. He will be grateful for your views."

Walter Phair, secretary for Sheridan Downey.

Senator Downey has stepped out of the race for re-election to the U. S. Senate, because of his illness.

THE TWO JOES

A cartoon in the "Washington Evening Star" pictures Senator Joe McCarthy, of Wisconsin, who has been proclaiming from the housetops that the government in Washington is filled with Communists and Communist sympathizers, and Uncle Joe Stalin sleeping peacefully in the same bed. There's a broad grin on Stalin's face, even in his sleep.

Couldn't help the Communists any more if he were paid to do it, is the observation of most American people concerning Joe McCarthy's antics. Republicans are saying he will come out of the investigation he has started either a hero or a heel.

Couldn't be anything but the latter, could it?

Herbert C. Legg, Downey business man, a candidate for Supervisor from the 1st District at the June 6 election, reminded the taxpayers they have a deadline of Thursday, April 20, in which to complete payments for the current fiscal year without paying a penalty.

"It is disheartening, after scraping together enough money to keep property off the delinquent rolls this year, to be reminded publicly by your present Supervisor that he expects to add 34 cents to the existing $1.60 county tax rate," Legg commented.

Bits of Info

NEW DELHI, India (Atlas)—More than a million Hindu pilgrims are crowding into the city of Hardwar, in the Himalayan foothills to take part in the great ceremonial bathing in the sacred waters of the Ganges River.

This event, called Kumbh Mela, and occurs every twelve years, is the most important of the Hindu religious festivals.

Correction: Due to a typographical error in my column on South Africa the number of mulattoes in the Union of South Africa was given as 60,000. The correct figure is 600,000.

CASING THE KIDS

CHARLES LLOYD

We blew one Saturday, boys. Due to circumstances completely beyond our control but which were in the hands of a certain chick and a guy, we missed the frat games. The first one we ever ducked out on since we came on the writing scene four-score years ago. We hope it's the last.

Really we hated to miss it, 'cause we're supposed to be carrying a story on it every week on the sport page. And we wanted to give you a week-by-week description of the social proceedings of the year's biggest event. Just the same: We are told that the Kappas duked the Sigmas, a mild surprise; and the Omegas spanked the Alphas, as expected. That narrows the field down to two, Omegas and Kappas. So we'll have to change horses in the middle of the stream and admit that the Sigmas won't take the crown. So what? We as good as admitted that when Vernon Riggins showed up in the Omega lineup couple weeks ago. Yep, it'll be the Omegas who'll whip the Kappas this Saturday and go on to win the championship.

FROM COMPTON TO CENTRAL:

Now, we ain't going 'round patting ourself on the back but we did tip you that the Cubs would win the Jr. College Relays and every other track meet they enter this year. They came through beautifully in the Relays Saturday, nosing out Santa Anna for the team champs. Virgil (F.B.I.) Stanley deserves a gold trophy for his iron man antics in anchoring two winning Cub relay teams, in the quarter and half mile events, and running the third leg in the mile relay. . . . Ed Washington continued his magnificent performance by anchoring the mile relay in record-breaking time. . . . "Georgeous" George Brown of Compton crow-hopped on his best jumps and didn't do so hot. But look for the Georgeous One to come back in the next meet, 'cause he has the heart of a true athlete. . . . Robert Perkins, renowned columnist and scholar, is currently perking around with Ann Swan, his only one. . . . Bettie McMain, the kind of a girl that you seldom meet, who is oh! so sweet, quoted thus: 'James and I are through forever. I have my eyes on other horizons.' . . . Kute Kathy Keys went to East L. A. picnic with John Bowden but she will come to the frat game with someone else. . . . Sweet "Peaches" Thurmond wiggled with Little Willie Littlefield last week and her boy friend, Lowell Brinson, brought two chicks to the picnic. Shouldn'ta donnit, son, 'cause "vengeance is mine," said the Lloyd. . . . Has kool Konnie McCallister and Wilson Robinson broken up or gone back together? . . . Why wasn't Joanne Riddle at the dance Friday? What did her escort tell her on their date the Sunday before Easter? Kall Er-B-o-n-d and find out. . . . Is Jane Miller interested in her books or her good friend during their frequent visits to the library? Buzz Mi-W-i-l-l-i-a-m-s for all information. . . . East L. A.'s outing at Griffith Park turned out to be "no dice" far as Bob Perk, my good brudder and I were concerned, but we were fortunate to run into a bunch of beauties wearing the Blazons banner. Sporting shorts, they answered from left to right to: Lovely little Lorraine Normant; darling little doves, Dessie Hilley-Dolores Parker, whom we can never tell apart (Which one has the red hair? Which on the brown?); beauty Barbara Fleming, and kream of the krop, wonderful Juanita Heard.

ENCORE AT THE ELKS:

Sax mistress Elvira Redd was in another encore (if you can call it that) at the Elks Friday nite, and as it invariably happens when she toots her horn and gives with her mellow voice, all the city's youngsters flocked around with open ears and sturdy legs.

Idella Woods was "IT" for the nite as she primed up and stood out as the cutest thing on the floor. Oliva Chappelle, sis Jean Franklin, and Lorraine Goffney came in one-two-three to make a clean sweep on their pet event, being about as fine as you want a chick. Delores Patterson was great despite her devotion to her true love. Muriel Arnaud was cratched because she cut into the wrong lane. (Did it, didn't I, honey?)

Our favorites, Mildred and Alice Walker captured the sprints (to our hearts). Freddie Wade was saying "I love you, and I will to the end" to Patrinnella, who was home in bed, and Pat (Matricia) Chatman and Joe Johnson were saying to each other, "Yours forever more." Wade McClain made the proper apologies to charming Cora Foster and explained that we were just having fun last week. Adolph Banks came through with Theresa Dennis, and we discovered that Mary Burnley is the same cute little babe after all.

All the James kids were there, 'cause there was Pauline in the floor show. Charlene stating that Isaac better be working; amgrous Aberzine, who became a Walder by the process of marriage; and militant Milford with curvacious Rlora Tryon, not quite a James yet. The Crawford kids were in it, too: Jean stated that she was there in person but her heart was elsewhere, and Joyce looked the prettiest of her whole career.

There was the magnificent Yvonne McLemore of Santa Monica and gent James Clisby. Champ Chuck Jones said "it better be a boy!" (real soon) to carry on the old Jones tradition. Harold Brooks was just there, and precious Percy McIntyre was with some great guy. There was enchanting Earmine Moore and Leroy Walker, plus beauty Betty Dorsey with Frank Coleman. Of course there was the darling Erma Augustine and vivacious Velva McLurkin of State College. Lee Coleman, the great lover of USC, was there as guest of Her Majesty Bernadine High. Count Cecil Waters was there in the interest of the Queen's court, and gentleman Joe and Gifford Montgomery were trotting about tending the sound system while their partner in business, Earl Griffin, was photographing legs. Lorenzo Wallace stole somebody's chick, and Billie Gued made his famous statement, "I'll call Grace tomorrow."

Then there was Frank Braxton, making it a regular go with Peggy Sue Terry; Willy Collins, with some chicks; Eddie Cline with Mildred Pilkington; Pauline Smith, beautiful in her green and white flowered dress; Phillip Bean with Jean Humberg; Curtiss Dorsey with Vera Small, visitor from Cleveland; Charles Williams and Fabian DaSilva; and Winston McKesson, minus his brother. Pat Allen saved the nite by showing us Cherie, the girl of our fondest dreams.

A REMINDER!

Don't forget to send a birthday greeting to Wesley Robert Wells, Box 24155, San Quentin, Calif., if you haven't already done so.

Mr. Wells' birthday comes on Sunday, April 23. He is the man who was sentenced to death for striking a prison guard with a cuspidor, although the guard fully recovered. His case is now being reviewed by the Federal court. But Wells is still in death row in San Quentin.

About Milwaukee

By J. R. EGGLESTON

Beginning this week The California Eagle will carry a column of news events from Milwaukee, compiled and edited by J. R. Eggleston.

These quips from this beer-producing Middle Western city will be both factional and entertaining.

Mr. Eggleston is a young writer, but from the tone of his first release, he is ready to go places in the journalistic field.

The Eagle staff welcomes young Mr. Eggleston to its room in the fourth estate.

MILWAUKEE, April 15—Milwaukee led the nation in the production of beer in 1949. It is now leading the nation in producing "lily white" beer.

All of the major breweries in the city had their night in the week-long celebration of the $5,092,000 Arena, which was opened April 9. The Negroes in the Milwaukee area are still waiting for their day, when they will be hired by the breweries.

The fight, to end the century-old ban on employment of Negroes in the world-famous breweries here, is being conducted by the Milwaukee Urban League, the Wisconsin Industrial Commission and the Mayor's Commission on Human Rights. These organizations have been working behind the scenes, trying to get the agreements from the breweries and the CIO Brewery Union, Local No. 9, and progress has been reported to place Negroes in the breweries this spring.

While these behind the scenes conferences were going on, the Wisconsin Civil Rights Congress was conducting mass meetings, protesting the "Jim Crow" hiring policy of the breweries.

The Sixth Ward branch of the Civil Rights Congress launched a campaign to get Negroes to apply in mass for jobs at the breweries. The employment manager would not permit them to file applications, while they accepted the applications from white people applying for jobs and called the Negroes applying "Communists."

A local jingle that had been flying around the Negro community on the brewery situation is:

I'm from Milwaukee . . . The city of beer . . . Where breweries ban Negroes . . . Year after year . . . I'm from Milwaukee and I ought to know . . . Milwaukee is famous for . . . Beer that's Jim Crow . . . Schlitz made Milwaukee famous, they claim . . . Blatz, Pabst and Millers . . . Boast of the same . . . Braumeister clamors . . . To share in the fame . . . Gettermann also . . . Brags of its name . . . But I'm from Milwaukee . . . And I ought to know . . . The names do not matter . . . They all spell . . . Jim Crow.

Since the fight started one Negro has been hired by one of the major breweries as a janitor. This small but welcome beginning shows that the situation can be licked this year.

MILWAUKEE, April 13—Mrs. Eslanda Goode Robeson, wife of Paul Robeson, said "it just happens I'm no Communist." Mrs. Robeson spoke to about 275 people at the Milwaukee Hall, 812 W. State St.

Her talk was under the sponsorship of the Milwaukee Youth Forum committee, which is a newly-formed organization to sponsor speakers on public opinions.

Mrs. Robeson recently returned from the all-Asia women's conferences in Peiping, China, and from a tour of China and USSR, "behind the so-called iron curtain you hear a lot of talk about peace." She said that Americans "participation" in the colonial wars in Indo-China and Indonesia was the greatest obstacle to peace.

She criticized the United States for keeping occupation armies in

THINGS I SEE

By
Marian Inglewood

The coils of Fascism seem to be drawing closer and closer around the American people. The Hollywood Ten, the Bridges' conviction, and scores of other signs point the way down to the police state we have been struggling desperately to avoid.

We sometimes wonder if Hitler himself might not be here, directing in person the campaign of hate, of lies, of propaganda intended to confuse the people. He was a past master at that sort of thing, you know, and more than one person has doubted the stories of his death. If he is still living, there could be no more logical place for him to hide and at the same time direct this campaign for Fascism than right here in the United States of America, in the shadow of Wall Street.

We certainly are following his line, whether he is here in person or not. As a sample of the justice being dealt out by our courts, even by our higher court, the case of a civil-service clerk who was dismissed from government service for "disloyalty" is described in a recent issue of The New Republic. She appealed to the Loyalty Review Board, then to the District of Columbia Court of Appeals. Her dismissal was upheld by a 2 to 1 opinion in a court of three. But the one lone judge, Henry Edgerton, whose decision on restrictive covenants was later upheld by the U. S. Supreme Court, dissented in this case also, and declared the procedure was unconstitutional.

He said in part: "Without trial by jury, without evidence, and without even being allowed to confront her accusers or to know their identity, a citizen of the United States has been found disloyal to the government of the United States. . . . No charges were served on appellant. The chairman of the Regional Board said, 'Nobody has presented any charges.'"

All the court had to go on was that "informants believed to be reliable had made general statements purporting to connect her with the Communist Party. . . . The informants were not identified. . . . Their statements were admittedly not made under oath."

Yet this little government clerk denied, under oath, that she was ever a member of the Communist Party. A crime that seems to be worse than murder in the eyes of our private-profit adherents. She submitted her own affidavit and the affidavits of some 70 persons who knew her—bankers, federal and state officials, members of her Labor Union, and others—all stating her sympathies were definitely NOT, so far as they knew, in any way Communist.

She tried to find out the names of the informants against her. Or if the names were confidential, then at least she asked if they were members of the same Labor Union of which she was. There had been factional quarrels there and she guessed some of her opponents in the Union might have informed against her.

But the Loyalty Board did not even know that! Said the chairman of the Board: "I haven't the slightest knowledge as to who they wear or how active they have been in anything." All the Board knew was that "unidentified members of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, believed them to be reliable."

"On such material," wrote Judge Edgerton indignantly in his minority report, "the Review Board sustained the action of the Regional Board and directed the Federal Security Agency to dismiss the appellant."

This case is only one of thousands—clerks, postoffice employees, secretaries—all the little people who make up the vast army who do the menial tasks which keep the United States government, and the governments of the states, cities and counties of the United States, running. We hear little, if any thing about them. Their names are not in the headlines, like the names of the Hollywood Ten, the New York Eleven, or the Los Angeles Twenty-one.

But the dismissal of this clerk, and of the thousands of others who have not the means to appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court, if sustained, says Judge Edgerton, means that "the livelihood and reputation of any civil servant today and perhaps of any American tomorrow are at the mercy not only of an innocently mistaken informer but also of a malicious or demented one. . . . Freedoms that may not be abridged by law may not be abridged by executive order. . . . We cannot preserve our liberties by sacrificing them."

Around the World

DIXIE DAILY DOESN'T BLAME NEGROES

CHARLESTON, S. C.—The influential News and Courier of Charleston has cast aside any importance that the Negro vote in the state has anything to do with the deterioration of the Democratic Party there.

In a stirring editorial, the News and Courier put it like this:

"The party in South Carolina that has been called Democratic, though angrily opposed to the Truman civil rights program, may swing to the tail of the national 'Democratic' party lest it lose dollars handed out from Washington, and if the white Democrats of South Carolina shall thus sell their state they cannot blame poor Negroes if they sell their votes to salaried demagogues in office for a dollar or two dollars a vote, election day."

WITH THE EIGHTH ARMY IN GIFU, Japan—Private First Class Jimmie C. Bradford, son of Mrs. Alice Powell of 16 East 134th St., Los Angeles, is a member of the 24th Infantry Regiment, now stationed at Gifu, Japan. The 24th Infantry is a part of the 25th Infantry (Tropic Lightning) Division, commanded by Major General William B. Kean.

Private First Class Bradford is a rifleman in company "M" and recently departed Camp Gifu for spring maneuvers at the base of Mount Fuji, Japan's most famous mountain. He entered the Army in May, 1948, received his basic training at Fort Knox, Kentucky, and departed for overseas in September, 1949.

Private First Class John H. Roach, Jr., son of Mr. John H. Roach Sr. of 1447 Hopper Avenue, Los Angeles, has recently been assigned to Headquarters Company, 3rd Battalion, 24th Infantry, at Camp Gifu, Japan.

Private First Class Roach entered the Army in June, 1942, received his basic training at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and departed for overseas duty on February, 1950.

CIVIL RIGHTS DELAY

Already the National Council on Human Rights, made up of members of Negro college fraternities and sororities, sent to President Truman a telegram protesting the delay. More significant was the fact that the telegram asked Senator Lucas, seeking re-election from the state of Illinois to protest the delay.

The NAACP message to the White House said:

"Continued delay and evasion on the part of the Democratic leadership not only forestalls enactment of this FEPC bill, but imperils the entire Fair Deal program."

Youth Rampages

By NELLIE BECKER

Mrs. Benjamin Lee Nance (Bernice to you) is one of those energetic club women who just takes your breath away watching her in action. She is not only an efficient mother and housewife, but a designer of furs at Berliners. Her son, Ben Jr., is one of our faithful Eagle newsboys. Bernice directed the fur fashion show at the Y.W.C.A. last Sunday, at which thousands of dollars worth of beautiful spring stoles, capes, and scarfs were modeled. Bernice and Celeste Shambrey are director and co-directors of the Outdoor Life and Health Ass'n. style show which will take place at Ciro's April 23rd. The entire show, including the designers, will be interracial. Bernice is also working with the director of the McKinley district Boy Scouts in staging affairs for the benefit of the Boy Scouts. The first will be April 30th called "Boy Scout Soiree" at Music Town. The last is on May 18th at the ElSombbrero. With all of these activities she still manages to serve on the Board of Management of the Woodlawn Y.W.C.A. Her husband claims that she is the best cook in Los Angeles.

Impressions.

Wilma James, charming petite artist who spent 18 months in Japan studying art, was presented by Les Petites Femmes last Sunday afternoon. Her oriental exhibit consisted of rae fans, silks, pottery, brass, gems, and jewelry which she had collected in Japan. Placed in strategic places around the room were her own original paintings and ceramics depicting the subtle Japanese motif.

I think that seeing the smile on Jackie Wilson's face as she walked down the candlelit aisle to her prospective husband, Collier Boulton, was the most beautiful part of the ceremony. A few of the hundreds of friends seated in the audience were Mrs. George Garner and Paulen, Verna and Peter Dauterive, Florence Nukes, Gloria Vaughn, Toussaint Jennings, Lorraine and Luke Harris, Lucille Bonnet, Joan Pierson, Jean Watkins, Evelyn West, Clara Fentress and Wilbur Tate.

The Alpha's were really in there fighting Saturday night. I'm sure they will 'cause an upset at the next Interfrat game. Kenneth Washington (social worker, artist and playboy) walked in the Loyola gym with another blonde. Enoch Spann was running around getting the kids together for an after party. John Buckner chatting with a real sharp school teacher and suave Jim Gordin with a fine looking willowy young lady. Yvonne Philibert, Betty Wallace, Earline Shaw, Winifred Toney, Corrine Ashby, Donzella Coulter, Hazel Shumate, Dorothy Washington Duvalle (she is definitely going to Europe this time) and Gloria Taylor were a few of the pretty lassies who gave the teams their moral support.

The Merry-Go-Rounders met at Rosemary Schomburgs home last Friday night. From all indications they will have a real surprise for you soon.

Personal Items

I don't know what the change has been in Willie Shorts life but it apparently agrees with him . . . now he laughs and jokes with the folks all the time. Adora Lily Ulasi, popular coed at East Los Angeles Junior College has been reading a certain letter stamped Lagos Nigeria Africa over and over for five days. Had coffee with the tall strapping Calvin Johnson, young printer who does some excellent work. Since his shop has become unionized he can take in all types of printing. Its located in back of the Eagle office. Dorothy Redd Cloud lovely wife of Frank Cloud has been appointed probationary teacher at the exclusive John Burroughs J.H.S. I understand that Johnny Delgado, Sam Strain and Leroy eBavers are doing "velly" well as insurance agents at the Golden State.

The Silhouettes representing Oakland, California were Mmes. Opal Massy and Mary Adams; Mrs. James O. Whaley represented San Diego; while Los Angeles was represented by Mmes. Evelyn Green, Ethel Bradley, Clara Webb, Barbara Mounts, Helen Broyles Smith and Audrey Goddard.

A slit designed to show the value of training at Henrietta's will be entertaining and will reveal the latest trends in hair styling and cutting.

Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Webb and small son Jerome Jr., spent the weekend in Phoenix, Arizona.

ROMANTICALLY INSPIRED—One of the most fabulous wedding ceremonies and receptions the Angel City has ever witnessed was held last Sunday afternoon, when Jacqueline Amelia Wilson spoke vows with Collier Roosevelt Bolton in a spring setting. The newlyweds are fotoviewed above cutting their 3½-foot wedding cake that stood majestically in the midst of varied and colorful hors d'oeuvres, flanked at each end with champagne and punch bowls. Mrs. Floyd S. Wilson, the bride's mother, looks on. —Grime foto.

Doll Leaguers turned out another of their perennial successes last Sunday at their Spring Cocktail held at 1919 South Harvard Blvd. Though the occasion was saddened by the deaths of Lula Bendy's father-in-law and the father of Marion and Lottie Ford, prominent club members, the affair was nonetheless gay and light. The Doll League Charity club is headed by Marion Brown Jackosh.

Milliner Harriet Wadley will be wearing a chic white ensemble in the Outdoor Life and Health Show Sunday at Ciro's. She'll wear white satin shoes, white crepe dress, and her headpiece... ahhh, a surprise.

MEETS ROYALTY

HOLLYWOOD — Van Johnson, back in Hollywood after several weeks' stay in England, has had it proved to him that he's a favorite with the British Royal Family.

During his stay in London Princess Margaret Rose persuaded her good friend, Sharmen Douglas (daughter of the U. S. Ambassador to England) to invite him to dinner just so that she could meet him.

Savannah College Notes

A keynote address by Mrs. Mattie B. Payne, campus first lady and a fashion show by L'Tanya, highlighted the observance of the fifth annual Charm Week at Savannah State College April 10-13.

Theme for the four-day confab was "Developing a Charming Personality."

Savannah's ladies, and men too, marveled at the superb fashions of the internationally famous designer, L'Tanya and the modeling by her professional—Ada Williams, and the local ladies and co-eds.

The Wahl Ensemble, a relatively new organization on the musical horizon, will appear in concert at Savannah State College Saturday evening, April 22 at 8:15 o'clock in Meldrim auditorium.

The eighth region of the G.T.E. A. held its annual Student Day activities at the Savannah State College, April 7.

The 1949-50 top trophy was won by Evans County with a compiled score of 50 points. The second place winner was Emanuel County with a total score of 38 points, and Bulloch County followed with a total score of 29 points. The special trophy for singing was won by Laurens County, and the special trophy for the Maypole was won by Candler County.

The peace and quiet of this college community was shaken by the tragic death of John Harrison Warrick, assistant technician of masonry at Savannah State College. Final rites were held in the college's Meldrim chapel.

Mr. Warrick was born in Baxley, Ga. He came to Savannah as a lad and entered what was then known as Georgia State Industrial College with the late Maj. R. R. Wright as president. There he remained until the outbreak of World War I when he was called to the service of his country.

He was one of the organizers of Vance Allison Post, V.E.W., and served as one of the members of the Trustee Board and chaplain.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Esther S. Warrick; one son, John Warrick; one daughter, Jean Elizabeth Warrick; one sister, Birdie W. Stewart; two brothers, Samuel W. Warrick of Baxley and Ronald M. Warrick of Fort Pierce, Fla., and a large number of nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of friends.

Petition President

A Petition to President Harry S. Truman calling upon him "to exercise his executive powers to transfer the Immigration and Naturalization Service out of the Department and to establish it as an independent agency of government" was issued last week by the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, initiating a campaign for signatures.

SHERMAN ASCHE, Los Angeles business executive, has been named president of the Los Angeles Tuberculosis and Health Association for the 1950-51 fiscal year, succeeding Dr. Emil Bogen.

Savannah St. College

SAVANNAH, Ga. — "Current Leadership Problems in Georgia" is the theme of the Regional Leadership Conference to be held in Savannah State College, April 23-24. The conference is the first of its kind at the college. Several outstanding authorities in the field will be the consultants.

There are 1208 students enrolled in the college for the spring quarter. They include 215 vets.

Miss Leomia Mitchell, Savannah, was crowned "Queen of Trades and Industries" by President William Kenneth Payne at the open-house observance by the Division of Trades and Industries held recently. The outdoor coronation was held for some 250 guests.

Golden West Bridge

The Golden West Bridge members compliments the Westsiders Duplicate Bridge club on their Open Pair Regional, which was held April 15-16 at the Crystle Tea Room. The charming atmosphere enriched the well conducted and successful regional.

G. W. B. A. members were there, thirty strong, a third of the attendance, supporting the Western Vice-President, Mr. Ellis Veil.

We cordially invite all A. B. A. members to participate in our Men's and Women's Pairs Regional, April 29-30.

Ten More Days For YMCA Drive

Ten days from today, on April 30, the final total of the 1950 Support Fund for the 28th St. Branch of the Young Mens Christian Association will be fixed. Immediately the Branch Board of Managers will take action to make sure that the Branch budget provides for balanced operation for the year ending February 28, 1951.

If the Board finds that the community has provided a Support Fund of $15,000 for 1950 then it can set up a budget that will permit the Branch to operate at the present level. If the Board finds that the Support Fund on April 30 amounts to only $10,000 it will be obliged to terminate at least two secretaries. If the Board finds only $10,000 is available in the Support Fund it will have no choice but to close the Boys' Entrance to the 28th Street building and plan a budget that will include one secretary and clerical and maintenance personnel needed to operate the YMCA residence.

As of April 17, the Support Fund totaled $4,933.44. Whether the YMCA will be limited to the service of young men in the residence or will be maintained to serve the youth of the community will be determined in the next ten days by the community.

GETTING THE NEWS FROM A NEWSGIRL

Once in awhile we see something that really gives us such a lift and something that we enjoy so much, we can hardly wait until we get a pen and start writing about it . . . Such is the case of a recent visit to the Highland Playhouse where the Donhoo Workshop of Theatre Arts presented Hatcher Hughes "HELL BENT FOR HEAVEN" . . . a play in three acts . . . it is a wonderful story of mountain life and a winner of the Pulitzer Prize . . . the impressive part about the story, is the fact that the Donhoo players composed mostly of Negroes presented in this play, a group of teenagers that actually impressed me more, with their dramatic ability and potentialities than many of the veteran actors and actresses I have seen in recent stage plays.

The cast included Johnnie Thomas as David Hunt, Robbie Tapscott as Meg Hunt, Carnation Plummer as Sid Hunt, Paul Roby, terrific, as Rufe Pryor, Shelton Taylor as Matt Hunt, Doyle Livingston seemingly wonderful and shows a great deal of talent as Andy Lowry, Shirley Livingston, the real life sister of Andy, also plays his sister June Lowry and is outstanding also . . . So if we were throwing orchids this week, there's no doubt about it, we'd cast it in the direction of Mrs. Donhoo for the wonderful work she is doing in her workshop of theatre arts.

Warner Bros. has signed Juano Hernandez, and his 9-year-old son little Junao, for their newest picture, "The Breaking Point" . . . just for the records it's a make over of the old flicker "To Have and Have Not" . . . One of the top M.C.s in show business is back and he's right at the Last Word, handling the show . . . his name is Billy "Mushmouth" Smith, he brings on a well-rounded show with names like Bobby Lopez, interpretative dancer, formerly with Tondelyo of New York; Ray Wheaton, soothing vocalist; Princess Jean, torso hurler, and the Sampson and Deliah act which gets raves from the audience . . . The band of Earl Jackson supplies the music . . . And oh! by the way, Last Word has a new, cut rate bar . . . highballs 25 cents . . . We're crazy about! moan about! the wailing of Sonny Parker "Sad Feeling."

Eythel Waters, we understand, will star in the new Beulah TV show . . . Slim Gaillard a scream at the Oasis . . . We heard that Duke Ellington took along an extra drummer when he teed off on his European trip (just to play the thing safe.)

NOTES, NEWS AND NONSENSE . . .

Nat King Cole and the Trio will record Timmie Rogers latest hit tune "If I Were You Baby I'd Love Me" . . . Downbeat Club presents—that terrific All-Girl Band in which every member is a star . . . Billy Eckstein will go to court with that messy story when he returns in June . . . Back to the Ellington crew, he added another trumpeter, Ernest Royal, and also sent for Al Kilian to rejoin the band . . . Al left the band here on their recent appearance, because of illness, but the Duke just had to have that man . . . The American Negro Repertory Players opened with Angel Street last night at Belasco Theatre, we will follow with a review in the next issue.

Carter Woodson's Death Is A Great Loss To All Americans

By Adele R. Young

America has suffered a great loss in the death of Dr. Carter G. Woodson, historian, recorder and publisher of past and contemporary historical and cultural contributions of the Negro people to American history.

Mr. Woodson evinced an all-embracing love and devotion to his country and its peoples, and undertook the most difficult task of correcting the two sins of other American historians (a) the sin of distortion and (b) the sin of omission. His was the purpose of bringing the "truths" into the light—the "truths" about the contributing of the Negro people to American history, to urge its incorporation in the text-books which are used in teaching the American children "American History"—he has pointed the way—his idea in initiating national Negro History Week was not the narrow conception of placing emphasis on only the cultural achievements of the Negro—I quote from the March issue of the Negro History bulletin—"Most of the calls for materials are for picture and brief accounts of persons who are at present in the limelight. These seekers want to talk about the prominent athletes, musicians, politicians recently arriving upon the scene, and similar characters whose careers may be traced in clippings from daily papers. This is a most regrettable situation for neither these persons who are active and prominent at present nor their forerunners who have passed can be understood without knowing history in general and that of the Negro in particular." Unquote. His idea was recognizing the great men and women who had, in some instances, given their lives to bring America to the place she is today. The "idea" to recognize the contributions made by the American people, both Negro and White, in their fight to abolish chattel slavery and criminal injustices of man against man, his was the burning desire to correct the "two sins" of other American historians and breed "truths." But let me quote further from the above editorial (IBID)—

"The average educator of the descendants of the oppressed has never known or has forgotten the priority of these reformers in advancing freedom. (Note: Mr. Woodson does not say Negro freedom. A Y) to ignore their record would be like despising the rock from which we were hewn. It is necessary, moreover, for our instructors in history to avoid teaching the record of the Negro in isolation. The history of the Negro in Europe must be presented as European history; and the account of the natives of Africa as African history. The records of all the elements in any given area become so inextricably interrelated that the one cannot be understood without the other. Teaching history in isolated fashion, moreover, leads to chauvinism, race hate, and social strife. The real historian sees the world as a stage and all men as players. In teaching the role played by the Negro in this drama, therefore, stage also how the parts played by others revolve around his special role." Unquote.

Yes, America has suffered a great loss, and we in the Hugh Gordon Bookshop will miss the help and guidance which he offered and gave to us. We received the following statement from Mr. Woodson in February which he had hoped to use but which arrived too late for use. We are sure the people in Los Angeles would like to read it.

The celebration of Negro History Week was inaugurated in 1926 by the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History in order to invite the attention of the world to one of its greatest evils—the so-called teaching of history. The misinformation passed on from one generation to another as racial and national history accounts for the readiness with which one nation thus inflated flies at the throat of the other. Propaganda labeled as history accounts for practically all the silly notions which drive people mad with the thought that they are superior to someone else and should have the right of way to everything worth while. The First and Second World Wars were caused by such teaching of history. The persecution of the races today has resulted from the same cause. The solution of the problem lies, then, with the homes, the churches, the schools and colleges—with boards of education, their superintendents and the teachers whom they control.

The Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, the sponsor of this celebration, was projected in 1915 in the belief that God is not a respecter of persons, that He has not stamped periority, and has not ordained any race with inferiority or such that one race should achieve all the great things of life and therefore set itself up as entitled to enjoy everything which may be obtained at the expense of others. Fortune may be on the side of the one race in the lead today but all races have had or shall have their day of ascendancy—not, however, for selfishness, but as a stewardship for which they must render a final account.

History shows that one race has accomplished about as much good as any other in fulfilling its destiny. All people have contributed to the making of our civilization. But if you leave it to one race to publish its special achievements while ignoring the valuable records of others, history becomes propaganda to distort facts and to make half truth appear to be the whole truth. Such has been the teaching of so-called history in the modern world. On this account race hate and religious prejudice have grown to be terrible evils facing us everywhere, and the talk about the brotherhood of man has become a mockery.

The teaching of history based upon the whole truth, however, can do much to uproot these evils. In such an enlightened state the achievements of the Negro will crown him as a factor in early human progress and as one of the makers of modern civilization. In his native land the Negro developed kingdoms and empires of complex cultures. Their civilization was contemporaneous with that of the early Mediterranean nations. According to historians and anthropologists, the Negro influenced the cultures then cast in the crucible of time. He taught the modern world trial by jury; music with stringed instruments; the domestication of the sheep, goat and cow; and the use of iron by which science and initiative have remade the universe. The African Negroes distinguished themselves as the great metal workers of the ancient world. Building on their achievements in the industrial arts, they reached a high level in the fine arts of wood and ivory carving and bronze sculpture.

"Yet we do not encourage the teaching of the record of the Negro in isolation. What he has achieved in Europe is European history. What he has achieved in America is American history. Negroes accompanied the discoverers and explorers of the Western Hemisphere. Nuflo de Olardo assisted Balboa in crossing the isthmus to discover the Pacific. Juan Garido served under Cortez and planted the first wheat produced in America. Under the direction of Fray Marcos de Niza, Estevanico discovered the Seven Cities of the Zuni Indians and thus explored the part of the United States now known as Arizona and New Mexico. The Negro in America has supplied the demand for labor in a large area; he has been a conservative force in its economic development; he has defended the honor of the; he has given the nation a spiritual stimulus; he has developed the most popular music of the modern era; and he has preserved in its purity the brotherhood taught by Jesus of Nazareth.

In our own country's history we should not dim the least the lustre of any star in our firmament. We should not learn less of George Washington, "First in War, First in Peace and First in the Hearts of his Countrymen"; but we should learn something also of the five thousand Negro soldiers of the American Revolution who, following the example of Crispus Attucks and Peter Salem, helped to make this "Father of Our Country" possible. We should not underestimate the unusual contribution of Thomas Jefferson to freedom and democracy; but we should invite attention also to one of his outstanding contemporaries, Benjamin Banneker, the mathematician, astronomer, maker of the first clock produced in America, and advocate of world peace. We should in no way detract from the fame of Perry on Lake Erie or Jackson at New Orleans in the second struggle with England; but we should remember the black men who assisted in winning these victories on land and sea. We should not cease to pay tribute to Abraham Lincoln as the "Savior of the Country"; but we should ascribe praise also to the 178,975 Negroes who had to be mustered into the service of the Union before it could be preserved, and who by their heroism demonstrated that they were entitled to freedom and citizenship. We should assist in every way in making the world safe for democracy, but we should teach our citizens history rather than propaganda and thus make this country safe for all elements of the population at home.

Freeway Moves Along, May Be Running in '52

Hollywood Freeway may be completed in 1952 instead of 1953, according to Neil Petree, chairman of the highway committee of the State Chamber of Commerce.

Petree told members of the Electric Club that work on the freeway is progressing faster than scheduled.

Completion would mean motorists could spin into central Los Angeles from Vineland Ave. in San Fernando Valley—and continue on toward the southeast on Santa Ana Freeway as far as Atlantic Blvd.

Eventually the Hollywood route will start at Van Nuys.

American Woodmen Celebrate 49th Anniversary With Parade

Local members of the American Woodmen will celebrate the 49th Anniversary of the organization with a street parade and Thanksgiving Service next Sunday, April 23. The parade will begin at the District Office, Central Avenue and 43rd Street at 10 o'clock. The procession will move southward on Central, then westward to the Victory Baptist church, 48th street at McKinley Ave. Rev. Arthur A. Peters, pastor of the church, will conduct the religious portion of the service. Music will be furnished by the Hightower Band, Church choir and special soloist.

Prominent guest who have indicated their intentions to attend are Congresswoman Helen Abagan Douglas, City Councilman Kenneth Hahn, Attorney Vincent M. Townsend, Assemblyman Glenn M. Anderson, the former mayor of Hawthorne and Deputy Marshal Carl J. Johnson, a past officer of the woodmen, will be marshal of the day. Local officers in charge of arrangements are commander Clarence D. Hargrave, director of activities; Clark Odell M. Rhodes, manager of the local office and chief adviser; Clerk Opal Moore, program chairman; Commander Leve N. Ros, general chairman. Officer Wm. H. Allen is in charge of publicity. Other officers with special responsibilities are: Ben M. Johnson, Ophelia Smith, Cora Cornea, Rosa H. Hill, Carl R. Rhodes, Henry T. Elmore and S. P. Johnson, Jr. Four camps of the Los Angeles District, the Green Cross Nurse Corps under its new Captain Ellen T. Richardson and all Social Clubs of the organization will participate.

American Woodmen members point out that the organization was started 49 years ago in Denver, Colo. by a group of Caucasian leaders because similar fraternal groups refused to accept Negro members. Now the organization is controlled by Negroes and is the most substantial of its kind. Under Supreme Commander Lawrence H. Lightner of Denver it now operates in 23 states and the District of Columbia, and has more than six million dollars in assets with more than 26 million dollars of insurance in force. Total claims of over 7 million dollars have been paid. Similar Anniversary observances will be held in the other states on the same day.

NOTES

HOLLYWOOD—When M-G-M's "Quo Vadis" comes to the screen, you'll be seeing Nero's army marching to the strident notes of a bagpipe-playing band. Research for the Technicolor production has revealed that the instrument was first used in ancient Rome and it was the Roman army which introduced it into Scotland, where it has become traditional.

HOLLYWOOD—After an enthusiastic preview of M-G-M's "The Next Voice You Hear . . ." Dore Schary, film's producer, presented cast and crew with a sterling silver medal.

Roger Baldwin Speaks At OC, Friday

Roger Baldwin, for thirty years Director of the ACLU, will be the speaker at Thorne Hall, Occidental College, this Friday evening at 8:00, at what promises to be the biggest civil liberties rally ever held in Southern California.

"Is American Foreign Policy Promoting World Peace?" will be the theme of his address. However, Mr. Baldwin has been asked to make a preliminary statement as to the ACLU position on such hot issues as the University of California Loyalty Oath, the case of the Hollywood Ten, the Communist Eleven, and the Harry Bridges trial.

Mr. Baldwin is scheduled to speak at Santa Barbara Thursday evening and at a luncheon at Pepperdine College on Saturday as a phase of the conference on Democracy in Germany. On Monday evening he will address a third ACLU rally in San Diego.

District AME Conference Meets

The district conference of the Los Angeles district of the Southern California annual conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, considered the "best in history," ended last Thursday evening at services held in Bethel AME Church, 1511 W. 36th street. Dr. T. Leslie Scott was pastor-host, and Dr. A. W. Johnson, presiding elder.

Rev. Ralph R. King, minister of Emanuel AME, and former chaplain in the U. S. Army, was elected secretary; Rev. J. S. Bagnier, Jr., minister of St. Stephen's AME, reporter; and Messrs. Philip Robinson, A. A. Sapp and R. Swain, Jr., marshalls.

Atty. Vince M. Townsend, Jr., candidate for Congress from the 14th District, following an address in which he urged all to vote and work and pray for a stronger America where all men can enjoy life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, was endorsed by the conference representing 16 churches, with a membership of some 15,000 members.

The AME church continues to pioneer in that it now seeks to send one of her sons as the first Negro Congressman from the West Coast.

Improvements at Marie Bryant S. P. Playground Gets No Credit

By Dolores Calvin

Work on the general outdoor improvement and installation of many new recreational facilities for the South Park Playground, East Fifty-First and Avalon Boulevard, was scheduled to be started this week by the City of Los Angeles, with a program of development aggregating approximately $50,000 in value to be carried out by the City Recreation and Park Department.

Buildings nearly completed include a modern and attractive playground clubhouse, swimming pool and combination bathhouse-auxiliary clubhouse.

Outdoor developments will include baseball and softball diamond, athletic field, paved courts for basketball, volleyball, handball, and other sports; night lighting of sports fields and play areas, children's play facilities, and a new water system and general landscaping.

This work, like that being done on the new buildings, will be financed under provisions of the City's playground bond issue voted by the citizens for this purpose.

To prepare for the new installations, general clearing of the site and grading operations were to begin immediately, with the City moving in bulldozers and other heavy equipment to start the job rolling. The playground area will, of course have to be closed to public use while the improvement work is under way.

NEW YORK CITY (CNS)—At a recent press screening of "Wabash Avenue," we noted that the screen credit for staging the dances was given to Billy Daniels, a top Hollywood dance director, who is a great, genial friend of Marie Bryant. We felt at least some of the credit rightfully belonged to Marie, who was hired to teach Betty Grable the routine. And many of the ideas that went into those torrid dances Miss Grable did in the early part of the picture, were ideas of Marie Bryant.

Nevertheless, she did not get any official screen credit. Instead, she was placed in a menial role as a "background." She was Miss Grable's maid, appearing twice in the picture with one speaking line. The part was indeed a letdown to one who is so talented as Miss Bryant in her field.

Tutor to Cyd Charisse, the dancing star of "Words and Music," to Paulette Goddard, who did a shimmy dance in "Anna Lucasta," and to Vera Ellen, whose "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue" got the personal attention and staging of Marie, the youthful expert has gone unheralded in many instances.

Unworried, she works hard at her profession which was given a promising push by star-maker Mary Bruce, popular New York instructor. Marie, taught by only Negro professionals, got an early start with Miss Bruce at 6 in Chicago. She gives her much credit for her "basic training." Later, she was schooled in the Katherine Dunham technique which "finished her up" for the Hollywood critics.

But back to "Wabash Avenue," Marie, though in official capacity as assistant dance director, and a great necessity to the department, lost her credit without any reason that we can see or understand. And why they cast her in a menial maid's role where the average layman, not knowing of her great talent, would chalk up her appearance as "just another maid," is something else we don't even comprehend. But maybe we aren't supposed to understand it. Maybe that's just Hollywood!

Harness Racing Meet Opens At Santa Anita Tomorrow

ARCADIA—Ushers, clean-up crews, and mutual department personnel hustled through final preliminary duties this week as Santa Anita Park prepared to throw open its gates Friday for Western Harness Racing Association's 1950 spring trotting and pacing session.

Preparatory activity in the stable area, meanwhile, reached the high pitch toward which trainers and owners had been pointing all winter. The results of their months of off-season labor will begin to pay off Friday afternoon at 1:30 when the 40-day Western Harness meeting gets under way with an eight-race card.

Much of the shining and polishing activity by maintenance crews was centered around Santa Anita's exclusive Turf Club, which will be utilized as a clubhouse for the general public for the first time during the Western Harness meeting.

Also getting a final spring cleaning were the hundreds of grandstand area boxes that will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis to all grandstand patrons at the meeting.

Ticket-sellers, cashiers, and mutual department messengers received their final briefing for operations during the five-day racing weeks—Tuesdays through Saturdays—that will be in effect during the session.

The Santa Anita infield, although not open to the public during the Western Harness meeting, is being maintained in all its beauty and couples with the imposing mountains in the background and the lightning-fast racing strip to form the perfect setting for the nation's number one trotting meet.

Some 650 trotters and pacers are on the grounds and ready for the opening, and most of the nation's top standardbred stars will be on hand for the 30 stake events, first of which is the $5,000 Arcadia Trot on Friday. The $5,000 Pasadena Pace on Saturday will feature the first nine-race program, scheduled for every Saturday and holiday.

Past performance programs and the daily double, two popular features of the 1949 Western Harness meeting at Hollywood, will again be presented at this spring's meeting.

CALIENTE, Old Mexico—The lovers of the sport of kings take off their hats to petite but powerful Waltha Davis, who can horseback better than most male jockeys. In one of the features, called the Beaux and Belles, four of the best jockeys at Caliente had mounts against four of the best girl riders in the country, but the spoils went to the girls. Concur with Miss Davis up caught Wired Music at the half mile post and these two staged a hot stretch duel with Concur getting the verdict in the last jump. It was her second victory in this special annual attraction. Wired Music was a second and More Ali, third. The male jockeys finished out of the money. Concur, the favorite, paid $5.60.

The feature event of the day was won by the good three year old Sir Shamrock, with Mr. Bam, a first starter at this track, second, and Neves, third. The winner paid $16.80.

The longshot players had a field day when eight nice price horses were able to visit the charmed circle. The longest price winner was Fog Lite, paying $77.80. Next was Remuda, winner of the first half of the daily-double, paying straight $41.50. The shortest price winner was Dina Bam. She paid $3.00.

The daily-double combination of Remuda and Linda Flag rewarded its backers $333.20, while the Quiniela paid $270.40 to the lucky holders of Rockwood Play and Paljuan, who finished in that order. E. Gifford was the star jockey of the day, riding three winners. The crowd of over 8000 fans enjoyed the balmy sunshine and twelve thrilling and exciting races.

This Sunday, General Manager Walter C. Marty announced that the feature attraction will be (the San Rafael) at one mile, with an added value of $1,500. The San Carlos will be the secondary. The opener will be for two year olds at four and one-half furlongs. It was also announced that starting the 30th of this month another free cash program award contest of $5,000 will be awarded to anyone picking seven straight winners from the third thru the ninth race, and if no one picks the seven straight winners after ten weeks the money will be divided into 14 cash program awards, with the first prize $2,500, second, $750, third $500, fourth $250 and 14 at $100. Post time for Caliente on Sundays has been changed to 12:30 p.m.

Trotters Vie For Trophy In World Series

One of the most impressive trophies ever offered in professional sports—The Philip Morris Award—is now up for competition among the famous Harlem Globetrotters in the current World Series of Basketball against the 1950 College All-Americans.

The Philip Morris trophy—established by the noted cigarette manufacturer—will go to the Globetrotter who is voted the most valuable player to his team in the 18-game nationwide tour. The player who wins it will have ample evidence of his outstanding basketball ability, for the huge trophy is as beautiful as the competition for it is tough.

In each city where the World Series is scheduled a panel of 12 working newspaper and radio representatives, plus local coaches, will vote for their first and second choices as the most valuable in that game. A first place vote counts two points and a second place vote counts one.

After the completion of the final game, scheduled for April 19 in Washington, D. C., the player with the highest total of points will be given the big trophy for his permanent possession. There is not a Globetrotter who doesn't figure to draw plenty of votes, be he the veteran Babe Pressley, the great clown Goose Tatum; Marques Maynes, the master dribbler and floor man; Ermer Robinson, the brilliant sharpshooting forward... or Chuck Cooper, Duquesne University All-American this year, and the newest member of the Trotters.

Rams, Eagles Play Nite Tilt Here August 30

The Los Angeles Rams and the Philadelphia Eagles will settle the 1949 "dry field" championship of the National Football League here August 30.

Scheduling of the non-conference night game in the Coliseum was announced by Dan Reeves, Ram President.

The Eagles, paced by the great running of Steve Van Buren, edged the Rams, 14-0, in a driving rainstorm last December 18 for the league championship. Since that time there has been widespread controversy as to whether the brilliant Ram aerial game could have turned the tide on a dry field. The ankle deep mud and rain which fell throughout the game shackled the sparkling passing of Ram quarterbacks Bob Waterfield and Norm Van Brocklin, and slowed the lightning thrusts of the speedy Ram scabbacks.

The Eagles are the Rams' traditional rivals under the new league division, and when Reeves learned that the league game this year was scheduled for Philadelphia, he went all out to bring the Eagles to Los Angeles.

"Los Angeles grid fans have been demanding this rematch ever since last December's debacle," said Reeves today. "We feel we owe them the opportunity to see these teams meet on a dry field."

NAACP Attacks ABC

Nation-wide attack on the discriminatory membership provisions of the American Bowling Congress, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People filed a brief as friend of the court in the suit filed here against the ABC.

James W. Dorsey of Milwaukee filed the brief on behalf of the NAACP. The suit was filed at the request of the Association, which seeks to prevent the ABC from operating in Wisconsin and other states having civil rights statutes, while in maintains its constitutional limitation of membership to white males only. Other suits are pending in New York, Illinois, and in Ohio, where the ABC will hold its annual tournament this spring.

BLACK & WHITE PLUKO HAIR DRESSING

The story of Mr. and Mrs. Charley Duncan, of Lake City, Fla., is the heartening story of what two young people can do—with just a little help from agricultural county agents.

County Agent McKinley Jeffers has helped them improve the breed of their hogs, and increase their corn yield; and District Extension Agent says they have one of the most highly diversified farms in the state.

Mr. Duncan is the third of 11 children of sharecropper parents. Twelve years ago he married and moved out from his parents to make room for his younger brothers and sisters who needed his space and his share of the food.

For seven years he sharecropped from farm to farm in north Florida. "It didn't seem that I was ever going to get a toe hold," says the young farmer.

Then five years ago he moved to his present farm near Lake City to sharecrop with the white owner of the land. Up to that time, Mr. Duncan had been growing cotton as his main cash crop. But his new landlord believed in diversification—hogs, cattle, peanuts, tobacco, sugarcane, watermelons and corn.

Three years ago, the owner decided to retire from farming because of ill health and move into town. He offered the Duncans an opportunity to buy. The young couple jumped at the chance, dug deep into their savings and paid almost half down.

Philharmonic Picket Line Hits Flagstad

Music groups and choruses that object to the kind of Americanism which makes it impossible for Paul Robeson to sing in Philharmonic Auditorium will throw a picket line around the building Sunday in protest over the appearance of Kirsten Flagstad.

Miss Flagstad sang for the Nazis during the war and showed her friendship for the human furnace operators. The same management that denied the use of the hall for an appearance of Paul Robeson rented it for Miss Flagstad's concert which is scheduled to begin at 2:30.

Progressive American organizations are invited to send representatives to walk in the picket line, and it is suggested that letters and telegrams be sent to the management protesting Miss Flagstad's appearance.

And today? Well, read this report.

Last year, they produced 1,000 bushels of corn on 35 acres to feed out 30 hogs that brought $900 and still they sold $600 worth of corn. Also, they grossed $1,500 from tobacco, $400 from watermelons, $200 from cane syrup, $150 from a couple of calves, and $800 from peanuts.

To help make their work lighter, they bought a tractor last fall and paid cash for it. Their next move is to build a new home. Upon the advice of their farm and home agents, they began sawing up timber off their land and stacking it dry two years ago. "We hope to build next spring," says Mrs. Duncan.

FBI Indicts Officers In Groveland Abuse

NEW YORK—The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was informed by the Department of Justice that the case against the law enforcement officers in the Groveland, Florida rape cases was presented to a Federal Grand Jury in Ocala on April 17.

U. S. District Attorney Her F. Phillips, sought an indictment, on behalf of the Justice Department, against any state officers who might have violated the Groveland defendants' constitutional rights. FBI intervention followed reports by NAACP attorneys that Samuel Shepherd, Walter Lee Irvin and Charles Greenlee, the three youths whose conviction is being appealed by the Association, were brutally beaten and otherwise badly mistreated by state police officers following their arrest. Franklin H. Williams, NAACP assistant special counsel who is handling the case, reported, after a visit to the prisoners in the state penitentiary, that the beatings continued after their conviction.

The appeal of the convictions was argued by Mr. Williams and Alex Akerman, Jr., of Winter Park, Fla., on April 13, before the Florida Supreme Court at Tallahassee.

YOUNG MUSICIANS PERFORM

Sunday afternoon before an enthusiastic audience of music lovers, two teen-age musicians, Carl Johnson, organist, and Donald Jackson, pianist, were presented in joint recital. Of significance was the sincerity and genuine musicianship demonstrated by these young men. It is easy to understand their anxiety over the state of better musical opportunities in a community which limits its musical offerings to a few die-hards who succeed in capturing almost the entire performing possibilities this area affords.

We are always tempted to hop onto our soap box and preach the cause of "good music" and its subsequent needs in the community, for we have been "through the fire" and realize only too well the need which exists. This type of editorializing does not always meet eager ears; however, it is a problem that can no longer be ignored.

Those of us close to our developing young musicians, realize alarmingly the meager medias of expression available and consequently we use these columns to encourage and congratulate the Victory Baptist Church through its minister, Arthur Atlas Peters, whose foresight and interest in the youth activities of the community made this effort possible, and many others like it.

Back to the concert. . . Carl Johnson, a Jefferson High School student, included works of Sibelius and other masters and demonstrated if not always technical surety, an innate musical sense worthy of development. His organ registrations were chosen in good taste and were demonstrative of the training the student has had.

Donald Jackson, a Carver Junior High School student, included works of Bach, Chopin and Liszt. Although immature in emotional intent, the works were presented with a dexterity and velocity of unusual proportions. The interpretations were of surprising maturity. This young pianist should go far under the competent leadership of pianist-teacher Maude Rosemond Watson.

Genial and talented Edith

Katherine Owens, whom we haven't seen in "ages" and whose abilities as a young musician-teacher in her own right are well known, was the mistress of ceremonies. Miss Owens is the organ instructor for Mr. Johnson.

EIGHTH NOTES

The Albert McNeil Choir appears in Carlebad's United Presbyterian Church Sunday at 7:30. . . Charles Williams was the talented soloist presented last Sunday under the direction of Avalon Christian Church's Music Appreciation Guild. . . Harvey Huggins, tenor and teacher of music in the Los Angeles Academy, will return East in the fall. . . Leon Kirkpatrick will be presented in concert Sunday the 23rd in the Pepperdine College auditorium. . . Monday evening the Civic Light Opera season opens. . . Jester Hairston will work with Walter Schumann this summer in the Summer Music Camp sponsored by the College of the Pacific, Stockton. . . We are sincerely proud of Jester's signal recognition as an authority on Negro music. . . Don't forget the Robert V. Edwards-Lewis recital scheduled for next Sunday at the First A. M. E. Church.

Jewish Children's Play Theme Based On Struggle For Liberty

The noted author, Irving Fineman who has written such novels as "Ruth," "Hear, Ye Sons," "Sons of Jacob," and "Dr. Adams," has just completed his first play for children, titled "Akiba." It will be performed by children from Jewish schools affiliated with the Bureau of Jewish Education, at the forthcoming Lag BaOmer Festival at Hollywood High School on May 14, 1950 at 2 p.m.

In Mr. Fineman's own words concerning the play he writes, "The basic theme is the struggle for liberty. It is here exemplified in the heroic attempt of the Talmudic sage, Rabbi Akiba and his followers, Bar Kochba and his followers, to free the Jews from Roman tyranny. This struggle is incidentally related to the American Revolution and the recent achievement of free Israel. The play lightly indicates how early in Jewish history arose this aspiration for human freedom which is today one of the most important tenets of Western civilization."

The festival is being sponsored by the Bureau of Jewish Education and the Los Angeles Association for Jewish Education. Jewish children and their parents are cordially invited to attend the celebration. Free general admission tickets may be obtained by writing to the Bureau of Jewish Education, 560 North Vermont Avenue, Los Angeles 4, Calif.

Negro Cultural Contributions On 2nd UNESCO Program Series

The second program of the significant UNESCO Program series being presented at Los Angeles Evening High School will be held Tuesday evening, April 25th in the Auditorium at 8 o'clock. Following a week after the initial meeting titled "Contributions of the American Indian to the Culture of the United States" the subject on April 25th will be "The Contributions of the American Negro to United States Culture."

Samuel Browne, Chairman of the Music Department of Jefferson High School will act as Moderator for the evening. Mr. Browne is a musical director and arranger, as well as being a recognized composer.

"Few people realize the significant influence upon the ordinary day-to-day lives of Americans made by the American Negro," says Carl E. Hendrickson, Principal of Los Angeles Evening High School. "The Negro race has given great scientists, world famed musicians, writers, architects and artists to the vast storehouse that is American Culture."

Several artists of national scope will be presented, each in his especial field of endeavor. Beulah Woodard who is internationally famous for her African masks, will exhibit some of them, and describe her inspiration and work. Several feature articles with national distribution were published during the recent Brotherhood Week.

Repertory Players To Present Several Benefit Performances

To aid Southland organizations in their cultural, welfare, and charitable aims, the American Negro Repertory Players will present a series of benefit performances during their current three weeks' run at the Belasco theatre. Second play in the series, Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit," will open Wednesday, April 26, while Eugene O'Neill and Paul Green's "Three for Tonight" will premiere on May 3.

Helen Gahagen Douglas, Congresswoman, heads the theatre committee for a benefit performance sponsored by the Outdoor Life and Health Association, Friday night, May 5. Kathryn Mozelle Kinney, secretary of the Woodlawn branch, Young Women's Christian Association, is co-chairman.

Proceeds have been earmarked for the association's fifty bed tuberculosis sanitarium at Duarte. President of the association, a non-sectarian, inter-racial, and non-profit group, is Dr. Leonard Stovall. Celestine Shambrey directs the association's fund raising activities.

The "Stars of Harmony" and the "Zion Travelers" are bringing back to the city the famous Kansas City Gospel Singers, of Kansas City, Mo., whom we all know and love to hear.

There will be a three-star contest among these three very fine groups at the Star's auditorium, 55th and Central avenue, on April 30, at 3 p.m. The "Stars" will endeavor to keep their reputation of being the most popular group on the West Coast. You will certainly miss a treat if you fail to hear this unusual concert. Donation at door. For information call CE. 2-5229.

Noted Pianist Pays Tribute To Public Aid

Always generous in his support and encouragement of young musicians, Leon Kirkpatrick, famed pianist, says, "An understanding and appreciative public helps to inspire an artist toward the achievement of greatness. We must give appreciative support to our young artists in every field and so elevate our cultural standards." "A passion for absolute perfection of technique, plus an unselfed sincerity in interpreting the composer's idea as expressed in his composition," is Mr. Kirkpatrick's formula for attaining pianistic artistry.

Mr. Kirkpatrick will play in recital in the Auditorium of Pepperdine College, 1121 West 79th Street (Vermont Avenue at 79th Street), Sunday afternoon, April 30, at 3:15 o'clock. The recital, a benefit for the Iota Scholarship Fund, is sponsored by Iota's Auxiliary Club. Tickets are available at the Southern California Music Co., Pepperdine College, and from members of I.A.C. or Iota Phi Lambda.

Players in expanding the theatrical horizon for their people, many professional and labor groups support their activities. The West Temple Street Citizens' Committee to Observe Negro History, hosted a theatre party April 20, under the chairmanship of Sarah Shuldiner, for the current presentation, "Angel Street." The Los Angeles Federation of Teachers has announced plans for a later theatre party.

Doings About Omaha

by G. Aneta Hayes

Mrs. Ludie Thomas of 2802 Ohio street concluded the Easter festivities for quite a number of Omaha's matrons by entertaining the Monday evening Bridge Club and other guests at her residence at 6:30 p.m.

The living and dining rooms were beautifully decorated with some of spring's most beautiful and colorful flowers. The tables with such beautiful cloths and enhanced with such beautiful silver and china were very inviting.

The delectable dinner of barbecued chicken, spring vegetables, salad, dessert and coffee plus Ludie's warm and gracious cordiality made the unfavorable weather outside vanish into unreality.

Those enjoying this delightful affair included Mesdames Addie Seals, Mayme Mason, Ruby Reese, Evelyn Beck, Belma Hawkins, Grace Flannagan, Gertrude Vawter, Leone McVay, Bertha South, Edgar Camper, Belle Taylor, Sarah Washington, G. Aneta Hayes, Ocie Cooper, Roberta Bailey, Camille Webster, Viola Frazier and Pearl Wilson. Four changes of Bridge were played. High score for the guests went to Mrs. Evelyn Beck.

Mr. Watson, the founder and instructor of the school and his students are to be congratulated for giving to the public such a splendid program and presenting such marvelous talent in Oratory and music. Williams, song, "Morning"; Watson's Chorus, Salutatory address; Mrs. Grace King Davis, Guest Soloist; Mr. Lester Corbin, Address; Mrs. Naomi Hall, song, "Trees"; Watson's Chorus, Salutatory Address; Miss Thelma Parks, Solo; Miss Luella Steele, Guest Speaker; Mrs. Thomas E. Omaha was honored with Easter guests for Easter and the week afterwards. Mrs. John Taylor, Elois, teacher in the Dallas Public Schools left Omaha Saturday, accompanied by her Auntie, Mrs. Georgia Brown, to return to her duties after having spent a most busy and enjoyable week with her husband and relatives and friends. Mrs. Doris Pittman Love, teacher in the Topeka, Kansas Public School System, continued her interrupted honeymooning in Omaha with her very likable husband Kenneth and his family, also with her mother and dad the L. C. Pittmans of Wirt street.

The Howard T. Swains Easter was made more enjoyable by the visit of Mrs. Swains sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Peyton of Marshall, Missouri.

Many courtesies were extended these spring vacationers and visitors to our city. They expressed themselves as having enjoyed the gracious hospitality of Omahans immensely.

Miss Shirley Owen, daughter of Mrs. Thelma Owen became the bride of Welcome Bryant on Sunday, April 16 at 3 p.m.

Details of the wedding and reception will be written up in next week's paper.

Jewish Welfare Fund Women In Homes Campaign

A determination to achieve its goal of 550 houses for Israel is reflected in the decision of the Women's Division, United Jewish Welfare Fund, to hold twin Advance Gifts luncheons, April 25, 26 at the Beverly-Wilshire Hotel, in order to accommodate women from every section of the city, according to Mrs. Jacob H. Karp, chairman.

"Through the Advance Gifts luncheons we hope to raise sufficient funds to build 166 one-room concrete houses in Israel," Mrs. Karp explained.

Rockwell Kent at The Embassy Sun.

Rockwell Kent, prominent American artist and author, will give a first-hand report on recent moves for peace in the capitals of Europe in an address at Embassy Auditorium, 847 S. Grand Avenue, Sunday at 8 p.m., April 23.

Mr. Kent has just returned from Moscow, Paris and Stockholm where he made a dramatic plea for "sanity in an atomic world" to high government officials. As a member of an international peace delegation, Mr. Kent presented a petition to the Supreme Soviet and French Parliament calling for "termination of the armaments race and the immediate reduction of military budgets and strength of the armed forces" and the "prohibition of the atomic weapon."

Mr. Kent's paintings, engravings and lithographs are represented in many of the leading museums and private collections in this country. He has lectured widely in America and is the author of six published books and illustrator of several modern editions of classics.

He appears at the Embassy under the auspices of the Arts, Sciences and Professions Council.

Tickets are available at the ASP office, 1586 Cross Roads of the World, Granite 4188 and at the Hugh Gordon Book Store, 1109 E. 42nd Place. Reserved seats are $1.20, general admission 80c.

Named to New Post

Major C. Udell Turpin of Chicago, formerly employed with the Remington Rand Inc., as special representative of the tabulating machines division, took over his new position with the company last week as manager of special markets for the management control division.

A major from the Eighth regiment in World War I, Mr. Turpin is a native of St. Louis but has been connected for many years with the civic and political life of the Windy City. He has served on the directors' boards of the NAACP, Chicago Urban League and the YMCA.

Kenny Scores Pension Ballot

California's voters were misled by deceiving wording on last November's ballot, Atty. Robert W. Kenny charged in appealing to a court to forbid the ousting of 18,000 persons in the 63-to-65 age group from old age pension rolls.

"Nowhere in the ballot title does there appear any reference or intimation that the measure if passed would raise the age requirement for old age assistance from 63 to 65 years," Kenny said.

Kenny's brief requests Superior Judge Theresa Meikle of San Francisco to declare unconstitutional the disqualifying provision and to restrain state officials from carrying out the act.

The court is urged to protect the rights of California's older people in the spirit of Article 25 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights of the United Nations, which is quoted by Kenny:

"Everyone has the right to a standard of living adequate for the health and well-being of himself and his family, including food, clothing, housing and medical care and necessary social services, and the right to security in the event of unemployment, sickness, disability, widowhood, old age or other lack of livelihood in circumstances beyond his control."

DR. WILLIAM L. CRUMP, director, division of business, Tennessee State A.&I. College, Nashville, is the new editor-in-chief of the Kappa Alpha Psi Journal, beginning with the current May issue. He is a graduate of the Lincoln University (Missouri) and holds the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Northwestern University in business education. Dr. Crump, 29, served 3 years in World War II.

Protest Dismissal

NEW YORK—The discharge of Dr. Lee Lorch from the faculty of Pennsylvania State College, reportedly for participation in the drive to end race discrimination in Stuyvesant Town, was condemned as a denial of academic freedom by a recent resolution of the Board of Directors of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Trenton Six Appeal For Right To Have Counsel Of Their Own

The Trenton Six have appealed to a higher court for an injunction to stop Judge Hutchinson from depriving them of counsel of their own choice. Warning that the arbitrary removal of their lawyers sets a dangerous precedent that could be used in the South and wherever Negro citizens require out-of-state counsel for a vigorous court-room defense, they asked the U. S. Court of Appeals, Third District, Philadelphia, to reinstate O. John Rogge, former Assistant U. S. Attorney General, William L. Patterson, Executive Secretary of the Civil Rights Congress, and Emanuel H. Bloch, as their lawyers.

In announcing this second appeal, filed last Thursday, the Civil Rights Congress declared,

Rent Control End Planned For December

WASHINGTON—Federal Rent Controls are doomed to end for all time at the end of the year unless public pressure forces stronger Congressional action. Plans now are to extend controls until December 31. They are due to expire on June 30.

The December 31 proposal represents a compromise suggested by Representative Spence, a Democrat of Kentucky. Spence discussed his compromise with President Truman this week, and indicated the President does not object.

In addition to the early expiration date, Spence's proposal would enable community so desiring to continue controls until July 1, 1951. Controls would not terminate in any community requesting they be continued. Local legislative action or popular referendum would be necessary to benefit from this provision.

Morando Smith Dies

PHILADELPHIA—The death of Morando Smith, a nationally known woman trade union leader and a member of the International Executive Board of the Food, Tobacco and Agricultural Workers Union, was announced at union headquarters here this week.

Mrs. Smith, who had been one of the builders of the largest local union in the South, FTA Local 22 at the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company in Winston-Salem, N. C., died suddenly at her home in North Carolina.

In a statement issued today, the national officers of FTA said: "The death of Sister Morando Smith is not only a great loss to FTA and the tobacco workers she led so valiantly, but to the entire American working-class."

In painting, plan at the start to use decals for high-lights and to emphasize the decor of every room. Take your color cues from the decals you plan to use.

"Prosecutor Volpe and Judge Hutchinson, the officials responsible for the Trenton Six frame-up, were on the verge of final exposure when Hutchinson announced his 'removal' of the lawyers. The aim was obvious—to lull into inactivity a great mass movement fighting for the freedom of the Trenton Six."

Auto Accident Hospitalizes UAW Member

Willie Anderson, a member of Local 230, the Chrysler Local that has been on strike for almost three months, was seriously injured in an automobile accident in Arizona. Last week, through the assistance of the assistance of the Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers' Union in Miami, Arizona, Anderson was flown to Los Angeles.

He is in Queen of Angeles Hospital in room 509, encased in a cast because of a broken hip. Having also suffered other painful injuries, Anderson is expected to remain in the hospital some time.

Visiting hours are from 2 to 3 in the afternoon, and from 7 to 8 in the evening.

Nat'l Negro Ins. Wk.

The National Negro Insurance Week will be observed May 8 to 12 according to an announcement made by President B. G. Olive, Jr. of the National Negro Insurance Association this week.

There will be team work and co-ordination between salesmen from sixty-two (62) member companies in twenty-nine (29) states and the District of Columbia with one ultimate aim—to help increase America's economy.

While the insurance in force runs into millions of dollars there is still a tremendous untapped market in the field... many potential policyholders are to be serviced.

About Milwaukee

Germany, Japan and southern Korea and for retaining military bases. As a member of the American "family" she said, "I'm going to criticize the family and it can lump it. When I asked the people (in USSR) if they were preparing for war, they said, 'Certainly not, we're building for peace. If there is a war we will fight and we will win a war because we have more to fight for.'"

Before the people took over China the "women had about as low a status as statues get," when I asked them what is the status of women now, they said, "Women are people, people are citizens and citizens are equal."

MILWAUKEE, April 14—All of the American Legion Posts in Milwaukee County will be asked to oppose the "white male" provision of the American Bowling Congress membership rule, Christ T. Seraphim said this week.

The announcement was made in a letter to James A. Meyer, acting commander of the Purcell-Schuh post, which Wednesday night pledged its support of efforts to eliminate race restrictions in the bowling league.

"We in the American Legion want our citizenry to know that we advocate Americanism and we also wish to practice it. We do not believe that there is more than one class of citizenship," said Seraphim.

"To violate the principles of democracy is to weaken this government at a time when we are competing with enemies of this country for the minds of men."

What's wrong with Eslanda G. Robeson? That question has been popping up for a number of years and even more so since she has been touring this country, after returning from a trip to the Far East.

It is a disturbing question to the peoples of the world, because there is a design to make the Robeson family an enigma in recent years.

It is very hard for anyone to say, who is not conscious of the world situation, that they have not developed some unconscious doubts about Eslanda Robeson. I, too, had developed some questions in my mind about her. But chatting with her informally for an hour or so the other night, these questions were dissipated.

Nothing Wrong With Her

There is nothing really wrong with Eslanda Robeson. She is definitely sane and purposeful. With the loveliest personality of any person I have ever known.

The only thing enigmatic about the socio-political situation revolving around this 53-year-old woman is in the minds of those who are trying to figure her out.

When one says that Eslanda Robeson has traveled extensively, that she has written several books, that she is the wife of a great man, these facts cannot portray Eslanda Robeson. For she has a personality so charming and dynamic that even the best camera fails utterly in its portrayal.

When you talk with her for a while and listen to her unfold herself into your consciousness, you cannot help but ask why does Americans which once look her as a great anthropologist, author and speaker now find her dangerous and menacing?

Jackpot Questions

Why have the press and radio joined hands to bring about her destruction?

Why are some leading Negroes attempting to discredit her in the eyes of her own people and turn them against her?

Why has she been prevented from speaking in halls in Milwaukee, Minneapolis and Seattle?

Fell Into Trap

The self-satisfied people, the professionals and the intellectuals have fallen into this trap and those who once felt honored to be in her company now run from her, trembling and afraid like little rats. Those who once gloried to be among her intimates now deny they know her.

Mrs. Robeson knows only too well that those who denounce her most do so from fear and insecurity and for those people she has nothing but pity and a little contempt.

She knows that the grass roots people of the world believe and understand the things that she has to talk about. She feels that the so-called "wheels" that are denying her appreciate the things that she is saying but have neither stature nor the wit to say it themselves.

The voice of Mrs. Robeson is not only the voice of the 15 million Americans struggling for their daily bread in a predominantly white America where they will always be a minority, but she speaks for the hundreds of millions of black people in Africa and other sections of the world with whom she feels very much related. She knows that the attacks on her or her family are not at them alone but at the symbol of black emergence which has the audacity to stand up and talk back to the white man.

Can't Hate Eslanda

A number of people can be taught to hate Eslanda Robeson because she does not hate the Soviet Union, but it is very hard to make them hate Eslanda Robeson the lover of peace, the advocate of freedom for all and the crusader for equality.

In order to destroy her the press and radio distorts what she stands for and what she is work-

Mundt-Ferguson Bill at Town Hall Meeting

An open "Town Hall Meeting" on the important Mundt-Ferguson Bill now pending on Congress, will be held for residents of the Westlake-Echo Park neighborhood at the Kingdom Baptist Church, at Temple and Occidental streets, on Friday, April 21st, at 8:00 p.m.

A representative speakers panel will consist of John M. Lee, newspaperman; Rev. Eulah Smith, minister; and Mark Robinson, trade unionist. The major portion of the program will be devoted to a question and answer period which follows the three brief speeches. Entertainment will be provided for a rounded program.

Individuals of the neighborhood sponsoring this meeting are Gladys Frazer, Peter Taggar, John Lee, Eulah Smith, Fay Valles, Shirley Cassel, Ronnie Cohn and David Hyun.

ing for and plays down the things that she is against.

100 Percent American

She is 100 percent American. When I asked her if she was a Communist she said, "I am not a Communist, I am not a Republican, I am not a Democrat, I am a Progressive but as soon as I get this democracy straight, I am going to study and find out something about Communism."

There is nothing wrong with Mrs. Robeson, she has given her life to the women's peace movement and the liberation struggles of colonial peoples and Negro Americans.

Compton College Notes

INTER-FRAT SERIES:

The mighty Kappas spanked the "Poor" Alphas with a pretty score. Dave Thellow with David Butler, and the rest of the red and white men really bustlin'.

The col Omegas put it over on the Sigmas as they pushed forward to a three-way tie for first. Some of the gay younger set attending the game, the numerous parties after the after party were Billy Polley, Joe Johnson, Robert Andrews, Ann Allen, Bob Oliver, Muriel Nelson, Mabelle Henderson, Helen Green, Roland Younker, Joan Baldwin, Joyce Ivrr, Bette Ann Smith, Vaal French, Frank Cobbs, Mervyn Beasley, Chuck Jones, Howard Goins, and Robert Butler (the tall man), Marguerite Wilson.

OVER THE FENCE:

Saw Mr. Kool Frank Carter and if he isn't careful I'll have to award my fine gold medal for play boy or "Flirt." I'm sorry, Frank, I didn't mean it. . . . James Burnett was seen in a corner all by himself with his cigarette and with his sharp new trousers. But what did the can say, "Acme" or "Blatz"? . . . Red Hill presented Carl Anderson a back home party Easter night. Mary Raglen, Betty Thomas, Mary Stith, and all the other Compton gang were present to help celebrate. . . . "Mrs. Geraldine Johnson," former Geraldine Battle, is being honored at a baby shower given by her sister, Mrs. Ruth Roberts.

The Pyramid Club of Delta Sigma Theta sorority cabaret, "Nifties of Nineteen Fifty." At the Elks auditorium last weekend.

It was highlighted by dances of our era from nineteen hundred through the flapper days of the twenties and to the Texas hop and "Bop" of the present day.

Pauline James and Audrey Burrell, president and vice president respectively, taught them the dances. Influence of Covans and Butless dancing Academies were prevalent. The Andrew Sisters style were done up by Pauline James, Audrey Burrell, and Cynthia Goodson.

Chorus lines were composed of members of the pledge club as did the specialty acts and solo numbers.

Now for another phase: Why was it necessary for the members of Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity to take over the affair and sing "Satisfied" all over the place? It was to say the least, slightly uncouth.

What would happen if the Omegas or some other fraternal group sang their hymn or something similar at the Kappa dances, it wouldn't work, would it?

And the basketball game was nothing more than spring football training. With a little unnecessary roughness every once, not just a while.

I really don't think the teams win ought to have been nullified or disqualified.

OVER THE FENCE:

Mrs. Ruth Howard honored Mrs. Geraldine Johnson at a baby shower for the expected bundle of joy. Mrs. Johnson is the former Compton alumnus, Geraldine Battle.

Is it true what they're saying about roving beauty, Donzella Coulter and handsome Compton alumnus, Walter Tucker? It could be, 'cause they were together at the basketball game, they sure looked sharp.

Ernie Bond was seen looking coll with Debbie High as did Dick Meacham and Anna Walker and Dorothy Shelton and her date.

The basketball demon, Bobby Pounds, looked cool on the floor, and off with his sharp lil' girl Ruth Vernon.

Winston and Wilbur, the twins, on the Omega Phi Psi's team, ought to be playing cool ball for the remaining three games of the season.

Pauline James, Audrey Burrell and Cynthia Goodson are by far the coolest yell team that there is. Of course, Ted Daniels and Mickey Krooms are backing them real crazy like. And have you noticed they don't go in for all the hip swinging. After all, if they are curvaceous as the male reporters say, you can see it at a glance.

Dear aGng:

I think of too much to tell you people except it's real nice to find a few taking part in activities that it is possible to. Helen Thomas in WAA and a group is active in the twelfth year class and Alpha Beta Chi, pre-nursing group.

Well, I'll See Ya Later,

Scout-O-Rama at Gilmore Fri., Sat.

Boy Scouts, usually a modest lot, were tossing around superlatives today with ease of a Hollywood press agent.

"Great" . . . "Gigantic" . . . "Spectacular" . . . "Tremendous."

The Scouts—the Cubs and Explorers—could hardly be blamed for their excitement about the 1950 Scout-O-Rama to be given Friday, April 21 and Saturday, April 22 at Gilmore Stadium.

And they spun out statistics to justify their enthusiasm.

Between 15,000 and 20,000 Scouts will participate . . . 400 booth demonstration or hobbies and skills, crafts and Scout lore . . . three stage shows with a total of 65 acts . . . and an audience of 100,000 people for the three performances.

The Los Angeles Newspaper Publishers Association, which is underwriting the annual Scout show for the fourth year, chimed right in with the boys.

A more serious note was struck by David J. Malloy, chairman of the steering committee for the Scout show. "Design for Living," might well be the title," he declared, "for it's a mammoth showcase of the entire Scout program designed to build useful, happy citizens. From the kite-making and tin can crafts of the youngest Cub to the gem-cutting shop of Explorer Post 508X, there will be exhibits to enthrall everyone."

Most active Scout skills and feats will be on parade during the three stage shows, Malloy declared. Cubs will have their own show, "Out of a Story Book," based on childhood's realm of fantasy. Scouts and Explorers will exhibit feats of skill in "Strengthen Liberty," while the three age groups will join together to present "In Old California."

Tickets for all three performances are only 50c. The Friday and Saturday night shows start at 7 p.m., the Saturday matinee at 2 p.m. Tickets may be purchased from Scouts, Cubs or Explorers, or, during showtime, at the Gilmore Stadium box office.

Nearly seven million dollars was paid to hospitals during 1949 by the Hospital Service of Southern California—the local Blue Cross Plan—according to Ralph Walker, executive director.

Church Leaders Against H-Bomb

Four nationally prominent religious leaders are visiting Washington this week to demand the passage of legislation against the manufacture of the H-Bomb.

The four are representatives of the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives, which has called a "Mid-Century Conference for Peace" in Chicago for May 29 and 30.

"Our announced intention to make the hydrogen bomb is just about the costliest and most self-defeating effort of policy we could have made. We cannot correct this too soon," said one of the four delegates, Bishop W. J. Walls of the A.M.E. Zion church and the Executive Committee of the World Council of Churches, Chicago.

Other churchmen participating in the lobby are Dean Walter G. Muelder of Boston University School of Theology; Rabbi Leo Jung of the Jewish Center of New York City, and Rev. Franklin I. Sheeder of the Board of Christian Education and Publications, Philadelphia.

BALTIMORE, Md. — Church Methodism is taking part, and building projects ranging from Tennessee to Africa will be provided within the next three years by Methodists of the Baltimore Area, it has been announced by Bishop Alexander Preston Shaw, resident head of the area. This is part of the new "Advance for Christ and His Church" movement in which all American Methodism is taking part, and for which funds are being raised by voluntary gifts in all churches.

Plan Service For Long-Time Resident, Former Boxing Champ

Funeral services for William Hugh Isom, age 57, long-time Santa Fe Railroad sheetmetal expert, former amateur welter-weight boxing champion and California resident for the past 50 years, have been tentatively set for Monday, April 24, from the Angelus Funeral Home. Time of the funeral is subject to the arrival of Mr. Isom's eldest son, Theodore, from his military post in Yokohama, Japan.

Mr. Isom died Tuesday morning at the Santa Fe Hospital after a brief illness. Cause of his death was a kidney ailment. Born March 31, 1893, in Kansas City, Mo., he was the only child of the late William Hugh Isom of Needles, Calif., and Mrs. Katie Johnson Isom Red, well-known evangelist of Los Angeles.

In addition to his mother, Mrs. Red, Mr. Isom is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rosetta Hodnett Isom, of Los Angeles, and seven of the 10 children born to them: Misses Alice, Wilmer, Rosetta and Katherine Isom; Messrs. Theodore, John and William, Jr.; a granddaughter, Jacqueline Gardner; and an aunt, Mrs. Ethel Maxie. Family residence is 1546 W. 22nd place.

Known during the 20's as "Knockout" Isom, he toured the western states giving successful charity boxing exhibitions and training youth in boxing. His employment, which began more than 30 years ago, at the Santa Fe roundhouse in Needles, Calif., continued until his death. He moved to Los Angeles in 1941, in order to be with his family, who had come to Los Angeles during the early 30's. His job success and the interest he took in his work earned him an unofficial title at the roundhouse of number one man—capable of doing the work of three men—and doing it.

Pallbearers will be fellow Santa Fe employees. Assisting the family with the arrangements are Deacon Milton A. Palmer and Deaconess Mollie Brown of Second Baptist Church. Dr. J. Raymond Henderson will officiate at the funeral services. The American Red Cross is arranging for the return of the son for the funeral.

NOTICE TO THE PILGRIM TRAVELERS QUARTET. Would you be so kind as to get in touch with Rev. Bishop C. Walker, 953 Sheldon Street, Norfolk 3, Va.

Robert V. Edwards Louis In Recital At First A. M. E.

Tuesday evening, April 25, is the date set for the musical extravaganza presented by the Senior Choir of the First A.M.E. Church. On the program Robert V. Edwards-Louis, versatile exponent of music of the highest calibre in the Southland, will play a recital of organ and piano music.

Mrs. Louis, organist-conductor at historic First A.M.E. Church, will include on her offering the works of Bach, Chopin, Moszkowski, Dett and Still. A highlight of the piano selections will be the Polonaise from the "Chopin in Harlem Suite," composed by Hall Johnson. This will be the West Coast premiere performance of this descriptive improvisation of Mr. Johnson's conception of Chopin's reaction to the atmosphere of Harlem.

This recital marks the first concert appearance of Robert V. Edwards-Louis, long a favorite of local music-lovers. She has enjoyed an illustrious career as a disseminator of church music in Los Angeles. Also, for a number of years she has held an enviable reputation for her work in modern choreographic music at Los Angeles City College where she is a member of the staff.

It will be of considerable interest to the public that the Dorian Choral Ensemble, a highly efficient inter-racial group of young college musicians, will assist the recital. This aggregation is directed by Don Lee White, unusually talented young local organist and choir-master. Mr. White presently serves as organist at the New Hope Baptist Church and accompanist in the Music Department at Los Angeles City College.

Maltz, Kent Speak At The Embassy, Sun.

Albert Maltz, distinguished novelist, screen writer and one of the ten Hollywood writers and producers who have been sentenced to jail for refusing to yield their constitutional rights to a Congressional Committee, will be one of the speakers at Embassy Auditorium peace meeting featuring Rockwell Kent, Sunday evening, April 23, 8 p.m. Maltz, author of the recent best-selling novel, "Journey of Simon McKeever," will relate the 2½-year-old civil rights struggle of the Hollywood Ten to the current world drive toward war and will in addition give the latest developments in the effort of the Ten to have the Supreme Court reconsider the constitutional issues involved in this case.

Principal speaker of the Embassy peace meeting will be Rockwell Kent, noted American artist and member of an international peace delegation which recently addressed the Supreme Soviet in Moscow, the French Parliament in Paris and peace conferences in Stockholm.

The meeting is under the auspices of the Arts, Sciences and Professions Council, 1586 Cross Roads of the World. General admission tickets at 80c and reserved seats at $1.20 may be obtained by calling GRANITE 4188.

Fia. A&M College

TALLAHASSEE, Fla.—Over sixty-five earnest students and teachers from high schools met and organized the Florida Inter-scholastic Speech and Drama Association at the Florida A and M College. The aim of the association is to assist in re-emphasizing speech training and speech correction in elementary and secondary schools of the state; to introduce creative dramatics, childrens theatre and choral speaking; to re-emphasize debating and oratorical contests; and to hold regional festivals of one-act plays with a final statewide festival held each year at A and M College.

Debating and oratorical contests, almost forgotten activities in our schools and colleges, are now being revived at FAMEE as a phase of the Drama and Speech activities of the Department of Drama and Fine Arts.

Besides presenting four programs of plays and exchange productions at home for the seasons, the FAMEE Players Guild also scheduled four tours. The first occurred on November 30 when the group took four one-act plays to Bethune-Cookman College. The second was the production of the highly successful courtroom melodrama, "The Night of January 16th," at Alabama State College in Montgomery, and the Booker T. Washington High School in Pensacola.

The annual spring tour was from April 13 to 22 and the final tour will be from April 26 to 28.

The marriage of Miss Rosa Lee Snell, daughter of Mrs. Glover Snell and the late Mr. S. M. Snell, of St. Petersburg, Florida, and Thomas Wesley Bonds, son of Mr. Bailey E. Bonds and the late Mrs. Maude Ella Bonds of Jackson, Tennessee, was solemnized Sunday afternoon, April 9, at 4 o'clock in the spacious reception of Freshman Unit A on the campus of Florida A and M College. The college chaplain, Dr. James Hudson, officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

Hearing On Nathan Scott's Extradition Case Today

Today, April 20, in Sacramento, Gov. Warren will hold a hearing to determine whether Eugene Backstrom, otherwise known as Nathan Scott, must be returned from Los Angeles to imprisonment and possible death in Mississippi for a crime he did not commit.

Backstrom, honorably discharged Negro war veteran, escaped from the Mississippi penitentiary in 1940, after serving 11 years. At the time of his sentencing he was beaten into a forced confession by the sheriff under threat of a death sentence unless he pled guilty.

Backstrom, interviewed in the county jail in Los Angeles, where he is being held under $5,000 bail on a fugitive warrant, in describing conditions in the Mississippi penitentiary said, "We were beaten regularly. I tried to escape many times. Each time bloodhounds brought me back, to a lashing. The chief deputy in the jail said to me the last time, 'You'd better get away good the next time you try, because if we catch you again, I'm going to see to it that you're shot down in cold blood.'"

Backstrom, married, has lived in Los Angeles since January, 1949, and is a member of the A. F. of L. Laborers' and Hodcarriers' Union, Local No. 300. Mr. Jack Willson, building contractor for whom he worked for eight months prior to his arrest, has indicated his support in the efforts to prevent Backstrom's extradition.

Gov. Warren, before whom the hearing will take place, has the power to refuse to grant extradition. Atty. Sanford Carter, Civil Rights Congress attorney, will appear at the hearing to present arguments as to why Backstrom should not be returned to almost certain death in Mississippi.

doctrine of "separate but equal" facilities for Negroes, should be reversed and that segregation in itself should be declared a violation of the "equal protection" clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Although the State of Texas has, since the suit was instituted, built a separate law school for Negroes, the NAACP position is that these changed circumstances in no way alter the fact that separate legal education is in itself unequal legal education.

"Public education is not a privilege," Mr. Marshall declared. "It is the foundation of the exercise of all our constitutional rights." Pointing out that Texas spends millions of dollars a year on public education, Mr. Marshall said that racial barriers should be removed from governmentally-supported schools, and referred to "uncontradicted evidence that there is no rational relationship between racial differences and public education."

McLaurin Case Parallels Sweatt
Robert L. Carter, NAACP assistant special counsel, and Amos T. Hall of Tulsa, a member of the Association's National Legal Committee, presented argument in the case of G. W. McLaurin, who has been attending the University of Oklahoma graduate school on a segregated basis. Paralleling the arguments advanced in the Sweatt case, they contended that no State has the power to enforce and perpetuate distinctions based on race.

"There can be no declaration," Mr. Carter asserted, "that he (McLaurin) receives equal educational advantages if he is subject to rules and regulations based upon race." He contended that the social stigma of segregation necessarily makes the educational opportunity unequal. Mr. Hall pointed out that Negro students, seated in a separate row assigned especially to them, are thus designated as "inferior" to their classmates.

NAACP Joins in Railway Case
The NAACP filed a brief as friend of the court in the case of Elmer W. Henderson, involving the right of Negroes to equality of treatment in railway dining cars.

As in the Sweatt and McLaurin cases, the basic issue before the court in the Henderson case was the validity of racial segregation under the Constitution of the United States. Attorney-General I. Howard McGrath, arguing the case on behalf of the Justice Department, declared that "such separation in and of itself, standing alone is a form of inequality and discrimination," condemned both by the Constitution and the Interstate Commerce Act.

Calling the issue a matter of "great national importance, affecting lives of millions of Americans," Mr. McGrath asked the court to re-examine the so-called separate but equal doctrine as set forth in the Plessy case fifty-four years ago. "The United States is convinced," he said, "that 'separate but equal' is a contradiction in terms, a constitutional anachronism, which a half century of history and bitter experience has shown is unjust and unworkable."

under the direction of Betty Martin, veteran stage and motion picture personality.

In the thirty minute review, Billie Mayshell will appear in an acrobatic Ballet dance. Miss Mayshell gained fame through her sensational entertaining of men in the armed services in camps and hospitals throughout Europe and the South Pacific. De McNiles and his Virgin Island Band will provide the musical background for the review and also feature two of their original compositions. Art Duncan, the much discussed dancer, artist, ala Fred Astaire, will demonstrate his versatility by singing, "Danny Boy." It is said that young Duncan is equally as capable at dancing or singing.

The most novel feature of the show will be the "square dance" as interpreted by Betty Martina's dance class. Miss Martina will conclude the show with an exotic interpretative dance number.

In addition, the famed Los Angeles Municipal Choir under the direction of Jester Hairston will appear. Mr. Hairston is receiving an award from the Urban League for the success his aggregation has had in motion pictures. Mr. Percy McDavid, director, is presenting the woodwind ensemble of the Los Angeles Municipal Band on the first part of the program.

To this outstanding array of talent will be added several motion picture stars and personalities who were connected with the picture, Pinky, Lost Boundaries, Home of the Brave, and Intruder in the Dust.

Metropolitan Opera Co. May Lift Race Ban

NEW YORK — hTe Metropolitan Opera House, ornate palace of classic tradition and Jim Crow is about to cast off the unwritten ban against Negro singers if the words of Rudolf Bing, new Met manager are to be believed.

Speaking during the intermission of the New York Philharmonic Symphony broadcast last Sunday, Bing said that Negro singers will be welcome at the Metropolitan Opera House if the "right voice for the right part can be found."

Bing has stirred the ghosts of the staid old New York opera house by refusing to renew the contracts of several on the Met's leading singers. He has been quoted as saying the Met needs new blood and new ideas. There have been reports that he would audition Negro singers for roles in some of next season's program.

The Metropolitan Opera House has never engaged a Negro singer in the long years of its existence.

Committee Against Loyalty Checks is that answer. Therefore we urge all persons who have a grievance because of the loyalty check, to contact the UDC at once—919½ West 6th St., P. O. Box 5328, L. A. 55.

Esther Helfrick, 1038 Sentinel Avenue, L. A. 33, a senior clerk stenographer at the Department of Water and Power, is one of the latest victims of this loyalty oath check in the city of Los Angeles. She had been ill when the loyalty oath was first imposed, but when she returned to work she was told she would have to sign within 30 days, or be discharged.

She did not sign. "I cannot compromise with my conscience," she wrote the general manager, "and I am sure that time will prove me right in my course of action."

She was dismissed. After 16 years of seniority.

The case of the Rev. John Henry Owens, Sr., who was dismissed as an employee of the Post Office on a charge of "disloyalty" is already known to the readers of The California Eagle. He appealed directly to President Truman, with the result that only a polite letter from the U. S. Civil Service Commission informed him his case had been considered by the Loyalty Review Board, and that his dismissal stood. He might get a job in private industry, it suggested. Or perhaps in some other department of the government. But not in the Post Office Department.

In the midst of the darkness William Johnson, of the USS Passiac, writers glowingly of the Chinese revolution, of how the people there arose against their oppressors, threw off their shackles, and how we can do the same. He calls his article "Alms for the Freedom March," to which all will contribute, in deeds if not in money.

Natives Rejoice Over Return Of Their Prince Seretse Khama

SEROWE, South Africa — Graphically contradicting reports issued by Britain's Labor Party leaders earlier this week, Prince Seretse Khama returned to his native Bamangwato, and was greeted with cheers and tears of joy. Unrestrained in their happy emotionalism, the natives hugged and kissed Khama and his white bride.

Official British sources had announced that the temporary lifting of the five year exile imposed on Prince Seretse three months ago might be rescinded because of rioting among the natives. The Labor government interpreted the native unrest as a protest against the Prince's interracial marriage. Authentic reports however, indicated the Bamangwatos planned to demonstrate against the exile of their ruler-apparent.

Elders of the ancient African tribe shouted welcome greetings as Seretse and his bride embraced in their first meeting since the Prince went to London and was ordered into exile. An heir is expected by the couple in June. The expectant mother is the former Ruth Williams, a London stenographer.

The present visit of Prince Khama to his homeland was permitted by the Labor government to allow him time for putting his personal affairs in shape and to see his wife. World-wide protest, however, is expected to force removal of the ban.

Herschel Alexander Appointed State C. P. Legislative Head

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. — The State Committee of the Communist Party of California this week announced the election of Herschel Alexander, outstanding Negro leader and veteran trade unionist as State Legislative Director of the Party.

In announcing Mr. Alexander's appointment the committee stated: "Herschel Alexander brings to his new post many years of experience as a leader of the labor movement as well as the Negro people's movement. In recent months he has made a great contribution to the fight for civil rights nationally as leader and organizer of the fight against police brutality in Alameda county, which resulted in the first state legislative investigation on this question ever undertaken in the United States.

Mr. Alexander was born in Walhill, Nebraska, in 1914, his parents having homesteaded in that state and his early youth was spent there, where he attended school, later becoming active in a whole series of people's struggles.

He has held important posts in the unemployed movement, in farmer's organizations and in a number of trade unions, both in the Midwest and later in California.

During the war he worked in the shipyards and as a longshoreman, later serving directly in the war as a seaman. After the war, he was again active in the labor movement. His last post was as Alameda County secretary of the Civil Rights Congress, a position which he held from 1948 through 1949. He is married and the father of three children, two girls and a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Long of Cleveland, Ohio are the house guests of Mrs. Janet LaStrapes, both are school teachers having taught in Ohio. They are thinking of making Los Angeles their home.

resented by counsel and in which he was constantly intimidated.

Subsequently, Beckstrom escaped to Chicago. He enlisted in the Army in 1943 and received an honorable discharge in 1946. In 1949 he came to Los Angeles where he obtained employment and became a member of the AFL Laborers Local 300. Last Mar. 2, he was picked up on suspicion and a check-up revealed he had escaped from the Mississippi chain gang.

The Civil Rights Congress which is providing Beckstrom's defense points out that he served eleven years for the offense for which he was sentenced to seven years, and the life sentence is illegal since he was not represented by counsel, and because he was not guilty as charged.

Racial Conflict Looms At Edison Junior High School

VOL. 71—NO. 4

PASTOR WINS IN CHURCH BATTLE

Incident At Edison Jr. High Reveals Serious Race Tension

Fear that Jim Crow policies, discrimination and segregation at Edison Junior High will result in a serious outburst were expressed by parents this week following an incident at the school last Friday. According to reports, a group of white girls on the one hand, and a group of Mexican and Negro girls became embroiled at the close of school. All of the girls are 14 and under. The conflict arose over a threatening note supposedly sent by an 11-year-old Negro girl to a white girl. The altercation ended without serious harm to any of the participants.

On Monday, principal Bauer and vice-principal Mrs. Pearl Grant summoned several Negro girls and their mothers to the school. None of the white girls were present. Mrs. Grant shuttled the parents into Bauer's office one by one, where they were told that their daughters had been guilty of a serious infraction of the rules. Each parent was compelled to sign a statement that she would guarantee to prevent her daughter from fighting again on school property.

Mrs. Jackie Clack, a civic leader.

CONDEMNED MAN WINS REVERSAL IN HIGH COURT

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The murder conviction of Lee Cassell was thrown out by the United States Supreme Court Monday. By a vote of seven to one, the high court ruled the conviction and sentence were invalid because only white men comprised the Texas jury which tried Cassell.

The court ruled that there had

Tiny Kidnapped Incubator Baby Found In Hotel

NEW YORK—The 2-pound 11-ounce premature baby that was stolen from its incubator in Lincoln Hospital here almost a month ago was found Tuesday in the storeroom of a New York hotel. Child Labor Found In Southern Calif.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Children as young as 8 years of age were found working in shrimp-packing sheds along the South Carolina coast during the 1949 season in violation of the child-labor provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act, according to the U. S. Labor Department's Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions.

Court Sustains Pleasant Hill Pastor In Suit Seeking Ouster

Rev. Henry W. Allen, the embattled pastor of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church, won a signal victory over members of his congregation who sought his ouster and an accounting of funds. In a suit tried before Superior Court Judge Carl A. Stutsman, earlier this week, Allen was sustained in his contention that the church had $3000 on hand when he became its pastor, and that $2000 was added to it, and the total amount used to pay off a $5000 debt.

Complaining church members charged that the church held $6700 when Rev. Allen became pastor and that he had dissipated this amount by paying himself a $100 a week salary, and by putting friends on the church payroll.

Since last August, a group of Pleasant Hill Baptist Church parishioners have been trying to dismiss Rev. Allen. On several occasions, police have been summoned to quell disputes that bordered on violence. At a recent Sunday service, members of the complaining group removed Rev. Allen from the pulpit by force.

HOME AGAIN after an extended vacation in New Orleans, Texas and other points, Odessa Carrington, popular social and civic figure, brought her 3-year-old God-child, Nedra Ann Moore, back for a visit. Mrs. Carrington is a member of the Second Baptist Church.

Widespread Teen-Age Danger Exposed in Drugging of Girl

The addiction of teen-agers to dope and strong liquor was reported this week during the investigation of a morals case involving a 15-year-old girl who attended a party recently and was found early the next morning by her mother in a semicomatose state, the victim of drugs and liquor.

Held in Juvenile Hall, the girl, whose name is withheld because of her age, refuses to tell police where she got the liquor or how she was drugged. It is known that she attended a party Saturday two weeks ago, and that she left with a married man and several others at about 10:30. According to the girl's statement they went to another party on the West Side, but found that it had been called off.

After that, the girl says she remembers only that she stopped at a gas station. When she did not return home by 3 a.m., her mother notified police who put out a missing persons alarm. Her mother, watching through the night, saw her walking dazedly in the alley of their home at about 7 a.m. Sunday morning.

"Destination Tokyo" Co-Author Rewarded With Destination Jail

When "Destination Tokyo," co-authored by Albert Maltz, one of the Hollywood Ten, opens at Warner Bros. theaters tomorrow, members of the Arts, Sciences and Professions Council will be on hand.

The film is being widely publicized by Warners as "the film that helped win the war." The government, which used "Destination Tokyo" as a Navy training film, obviously agreed.

Yet Albert Maltz, writer of the production, after 2½ years of blacklist by producers—including Warner Bros.—faces a year in federal penitentiary. He, with nine other eminent film writers, refused to betray the motion picture industry into the censorship of the Thomas Un-American Affairs Committee.

When the film opens tomorrow, the Arts, Sciences and Professions Council will distribute leaflets asking patrons to write Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson of the Supreme Court in Washington for a rehearing on the case of the Ten.

Conference On Thought Control

A county-wide conference and convention to discuss thought-control and political persecution, police brutality and discrimination has been called by the Civil Rights Congress and is endorsed by leading educators, labor leaders and churchmen.
